Introduction

Many today struggle with the problem of identity. We are born as sons or daughters. We may be brothers or sisters, fathers or mothers. We may find identity in what we do, what we have accomplished, or the legacy we are passing on.

Yet, we are drawn to more than this. As children, we imagine ourselves as kings or warriors, princesses, heroes, or even superheroes. In some ways, we may not stop wanting to believe that we were made for such greatness.

And so, in fact, we were!

The truth of the Word of God says that we were made as the royalty of God, just a little lower than Himself. We are warriors made to share in God's victory, and we were made for greatness. It's not as we have imagined it, but as God has created it in His goodness.

The book consists of 33 readings, each with an accompanying scripture study and questions for individual or group use, about different characteristics of identity in Christ, some of them closely related. In the beautiful diversity of the church as God made it, we need not each take on every one of these characteristics. Some of us may think certain ones do not apply, and I think that is fine to start. As a whole in the world though, I would argue that the body of Christ includes at least these 33. Each of these were characteristics of Christ, and we are predestined to be conformed into His image (Romans 8:29).

As we acknowledge every good thing that is in us in Christ Jesus (Philemon 1:6), may we together be encouraged to seek the fullness of Jesus Christ, the most beautiful thing ever. May it also stir up the Spirit of God within us as His church to lead us together to do God's word and accomplish His will among those God has called us to love.

Preface

This was the brief introduction posted at www.jason.church:

This series of posts pertains to our identity as members of the Church, made in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:26). They lift up Jesus as “the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature” (Hebrews 1:3).

Day 1: New life

"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly."

John 10:10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.10.10.ESV>

Life may be the word that best describes God as well as our life when we are in God and God is in us.

Jesus said He came to give abundant life. What does that mean?

Our spirits are born dead, meaning we have no way for God to channel His kind of life into us.

As Jesus told Nicodemus, one must be born again of the Spirit in order to live. Most have heard those words: born again.

Do you profess to be born again of God's Spirit? You would freely talk about it. You would know that God's word about being born of Spirit is true, and you would accept that He has done this for you. It is not a question. It is finished. This faith is the only foundation to build God's kind of life upon — the eternal, abundant kind.

It's the foundation. It's just the beginning. God begins to remake us just by bringing life to our spirit by His Spirit. We are quickened together with Christ. To be quickened is to be made alive. It's God's business; it's His will to bring more life in response to faith.

This new life is an imperishable seed planted in the soil of who we are. It's not meant to stay as a seed.

The seed is meant to grow into fullness, if it is to become abundant life. Naturally speaking, its world is dark though and there's no water.

It needs to continue to be exposed to the light. It needs to stay close to the flow of living water. Naturally speaking, these are impossible, but all things are possible for God.

Our God is the Author of Life and so He is also the fountain of living waters.

Prayer: Thank you, God, for new life in Jesus Christ. Quicken me according to Your Word and Your lovingkindness, by the power of Your Holy Spirit. I praise You for Your steadfast love.

Day 2: Righteousness

"For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God."

2 Corinthians 5:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.5.21.ESV>

Righteousness may be the word that second best describes God, as well as our life when we are in God and God is in us.

The Apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian church that Jesus Christ was made sin although He knew no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

When our spirit is given birth by His Spirit in identification with Christ, the Righteous One, we are also accounted as righteous, translated into the kingdom of God. We are seen sinless as Christ is, and we know God's great love for us.

Jesus Christ is righteous. With Christ in us and us in Him, we are empowered to be victorious over evil or any of its effects. In Christ, these former things no longer have any right over us, and we see rightly that His intent for us and others is to do good and to make things right. If instead we backslide to choose life in the world, giving up our right to freedom and life in Christ, it leads back to bondage and death.

In Christ though, we are empowered to put off our old self and to renew our mind, putting on the new self that is from God. The new self is righteous like Christ.

Jesus said we are to hunger and thirst after righteousness, and we are to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness. This means that in ourselves, in our families, in our workplaces, in our neighborhoods, in our churches, in our cities, and wherever else we are, led by God's Spirit, we are to seek God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven — not through our power and victory but through His. We come to want the same thing He does, and so we have turned ourselves fully over to Him, saying, "I give You all of me, Lord, for all of You. Turn every situation in my life into glory for You."

Prayer: Thank you, God, for righteousness through my life in Jesus Christ. I praise You for Your great mercy. I seek first Your kingdom and Your righteousness by the power of Your Holy Spirit. I give You all of me, Lord, for all of You.

Day 3: Holiness

"Come now, let us reason together, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool."

Isaiah 1:18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/iso.1.18.ESV>

Holiness is one of the words that best describes God. Holiness is the character of God; the substance of His being is purity. It's also something God has made possible for men and women — being holy — but most of us don't want it because we think it means the fun is over.

God called His people to be holy as He is holy. He wants men and women fully in love with Him, consecrated to Him as a bride to her husband and a husband to her bride. This is His model relationship for us, the sacred marriage relationship, and He's made us to understand it. We understand steadfast faithfulness, and we understand infidelity. We know what it is to try to keep secrets, to try to hold something for ourselves in the dark, or to bring everything into the light with our beloved.

The imperishable seed planted in us when God gives life to us only grows in the right kind of soil. The soil that is entangled in any sin or any of the cares of the world doesn't nourish life and produce growth, yielding the kind of fullness and blessing God intends for His beloved children. Either we choose to abide in Jesus, the true Vine, or our choice to seek fullness of life elsewhere causes God to cut us off from it.

Jesus didn't simply call people to be born again. Jesus called them to repent and told them the kingdom of heaven had come near. To repent is to change one's mind in such a way that it affects one's will and choices. Further, Jesus called them to leave everything and follow Him. He called them to stay ready for His return.

He taught that the ways of God's kingdom are the opposite of the ways of the world; nothing is as it seems. He called all to have faith in God and His goodness. God is the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Do you believe every good thing is from Him?

Do you believe that pursuit of godliness brings you good? Or are you holding back something of yours, believing it is life-giving?

We cannot be holy in our own efforts. It's impossible. But if you have been born again, you have already been made holy in God's eyes. It's part of the new spirit given to you by God's grace. The one who is joined to the Lord in salvation becomes one spirit with Him, one flesh.

Christ in you empowers you to be victorious over sin, just as He was, led by the Spirit of God. And so in new life you can choose to be led by God's Spirit. In so doing, you choose life and you choose steadfast love for God.

Prayer: Thank You for Your forgiveness, gracious God, that has made me radiantly white in Your eyes. Thank You for the sacrifice of Your blood and Your broken body, Jesus, that made me clean and made me one with You. Holy Spirit, thank You for Your power to defeat sin. I consecrate myself and my home to You, God. I praise You for Your faithful, pursuing, selfless love.

Day 4: Faith

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

Galatians 2:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/gal.2.20.KJV>

In faith, God spoke words that created the world and everyone who has lived in it. When He speaks, He creates, He gives Life, and His words come to pass.

By faith, you spoke to identify yourself with the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. By faith, you believed that God made you a new creation (born again of His Spirit) at this confession, eternally His by way of a sacrificial act that Jesus Christ accomplished 2000 years ago.

The great evangelist Charles Spurgeon encouraged Jesus' followers to "be great believers! Little faith will bring your souls to heaven, but great faith will bring heaven to your souls." Jesus was ever teaching and shaping His disciples in order to stir up their faith in God. Being born again in Christ was just the beginning; it was just a foundation to build upon.

As His disciples, our faith in God is everything. Without faith, we cannot please God.

The entire Bible is about lessons in faith and how God responds to faithfulness or faithlessness. Faith is the channel to the abundant goodness of God; so seek to open it wide! Faith activates God's Spirit within us.

The Apostle Paul wrote that when by faith He was crucified with Christ, the Spirit of Christ came to live in him and through him. He had died, and so he lived by the faith of the Son of God. It was by Christ's faith that Paul lived. This brought heaven to His soul, to some of the Jewish world, and to some of the non-Jewish world.

Are you dead yet?

Insofar as we hold onto our own lives, we cannot be conformed into the beautiful image of Christ, led by God's Spirit. If you have been born again of the Spirit, Jesus Christ is in your spirit, waiting to be let out so He may have all of you. It is God's will to conform you to the image of the Son of God as sons and daughters of His.

According to Jesus, having steadfast faith in God moves great obstacles (He called them mountains) and causes our prayers to be answered. This is the faith Christ has; He is in us and we are in Him. In living by the faith of the Son of God, we come to will what God wills, seeking to make things right — the way He wants to make them right. With Christ dwelling in us and empowering us, we seek to turn every situation into glory to God.

In living by the faith of the Son of God, we take up our identity as sons and daughters of God (kings) and loving servants of mankind (priests). We abandon our passions, dreams, and stories to pursue God's passions, dreams, and story. This is what it means to follow Christ. This is the adventure that we seek and the only way we can find satisfaction. We pursue the life of God, the liberty of God, and to make Him happy, knowing it's not about us at all.

Prayer: God, forgive me for living to please myself or please others when it's You that I desire to glorify. Thank You, Jesus, for Your crucifixion because of Your great love for me and Your Church. Spirit of God, slay what is left of me, my pride included, and quicken me according to Your Word. Thank You for the examples of faith in the cloud of witnesses that have come before me. Spirit of God, ever increase my faith, causing me to walk in the faith of the Son of God.

Day 5: The mind of Christ

"For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

1 Corinthians 2:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.2.16.ESV>

The human brain and mind are beautiful things. It's been the new frontier in science to try to understand it all. Really our mind is separate from our brain, just as the software that runs a computer is separate from its hardware. Yet, unlike anything else on earth, we are spiritual beings.

When we are born again of the Spirit, we have within our spirit a new creation, the mind of Christ; but our own minds are not yet renewed to the mind of Christ. The renewing of our minds is our work in cooperation with the Spirit of God that dwells within us. We must be willing to cast off the old and put on the new.

Connected in Christ to the True Vine, we must choose to take in the Word of God, believe it, and act on it in faith during times of trial and opportunity. Ignited by our faith, the Spirit of God burns as a holy fire, and we are stirred up, separating out the dross from the pure gold of God. We must cooperate to remove the impurities, which changes us over time, one trial and one opportunity at a time, to become more like Jesus. The Apostle Paul called this putting on the Lord Jesus Christ, or putting on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

This is divine transmutation, two minds coming to operate as one — Christ in you. This is God's way, just as the Father fused Jesus' consciousness into His by God's Spirit. Just as the Father's will became Jesus' will, that same good will becomes ours by our choices.

How does our mind communicate with God? It happens through our quickened spirit, which interfaces with our mind. With our mind (or in our soul), we make decisions, we experience the world, we feel emotion, we remember the past, we envision the future, and we pray. Some of us may also pray with our spirit. The mind and spirit are two different processing centers, one of them joined directly in Christ to the divine.

Aside from a place of communication with God, our spirit is a place of revelation that may come to us from Him. Discernment of the spiritual, the unseen, can also come through the Spirit from God .

According to John Wesley, a leader of Methodism, Christian maturity brought to its end is 'to have "the mind which was in Christ" and to "walk as He walked": to have all the mind that was in Him and always to walk as He walked.' [italics are mine]

What was Jesus' mind like?

Lovely.

Brilliant.

Pure.

How did He cooperate with the Holy Spirit?

Perfectly.

As the exemplar.

What was His communication with God like?

They were as one, united in the Spirit.

Jesus perceived what His Father was doing, and Jesus performed that.

Prayer: Abide in me, Spirit of God, as I abide in You. Cooperating with your refining work, I lay hold of the mind of Christ and all of that mind. Father, show me what is true that I may worship You in spirit — fully alive — and in truth. Fused into You, I seek not my own will but instead to demonstrate to the world Your good will to all, always walking as Jesus walked.

Day 6: Wisdom

"Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory."

1 Corinthians 2:6-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.2.6-7.ESV>

The Almighty God is praised for the depth and breadth of His wisdom. We have observed it in the creation and sustainment of life and the Universe. He has also given bits of wisdom to His children via natural and supernatural means. The quoted passage written by the Apostle Paul refers to natural wisdom as "a wisdom of this age" whereas supernatural wisdom is "a secret and hidden wisdom of God."

The "wisdom... of the rulers of this age" is the type of wisdom King Solomon sought in order to judge and govern well, and God answered his prayer, making him incredibly wise. He led his people in a rare time of sustained peace. This kind of wisdom is of benefit for all who are affected by the one made wise. God provides wisdom for the affairs of life.

The "secret and hidden wisdom of God" is a gift of God given by the Spirit to those He has birthed in the Spirit. The first part of this wisdom is spiritual truth, the greatest of which is "the riches of the glory of this mystery, which Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27). Christ was the major purpose of God hidden throughout the time of the Old Testament and still hidden today from any that don't believe. He is the gift of God to those who believe.

Christ is in each member of the church, spirit, soul, and body. When we are saved, we are each joined as one spirit to the Lord. As for our soul, if led by the Holy Spirit, we can take on Christ's mind, emotions and will. As for the body, we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones (Ephesians 5:30, KJV); the life of Jesus may be made manifest there, renewing us day by day.

God also gives words of wisdom to some: supernatural revelations of the mind and purpose of God communicated by the Holy Spirit. These are pieces of God's wisdom imparted at particular times to men and women. This explains any foretelling that is given in prophecy, including the prophecies recorded in the Old and New Testaments. In this type of revelation, God reveals part of His purposes, objectives and plans for His people. Each part is akin to a word in the true story of God's love for the world that spans all of history and the future of time.

Prayer: I praise You, O Lord, for the depth of the riches of your wisdom. Your judgments and Your ways are past finding out. Thank You for showing me the depths of Your gift in Jesus Christ, who is in me. I am a doer of Your Word, and I will follow You in what You have revealed. I ask for wisdom from You, God, not doubting, but confident that you want me to take it from you in faith.

Day 7: Knowledge

"But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all have knowledge...But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him."

1 John 2:20,27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.2.20-27.ESV>

Solomon wrote that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." Typically, our fear may be of many other things, including fear of failure, fear of the judgment of others, fear of evil, and fear of death. Fear is a major motivator! Before Jesus' resurrection, it was also this way for His disciples; He didn't want them to stay this way though, and they didn't.

To see God in His proper place as the One who will judge all is to see what is true and to begin to build life on what is real. It's also important to know our identity in Christ; we are God's glory.

If we build our life on the values of the world, we reject God and what He has for us. These values include: be true to yourself, follow your dreams, speak your truth, and it's not wrong if it doesn't hurt anyone. Or we might be inclined to value ourselves by our successes in the eyes of others. The values of the world that lift up self or human tradition are opposed to those of God.

Knowledge is good, but to pursue only natural knowledge obtained through science, the senses, and reason is a mistake. People tend to look for evidence of things they would like to believe, and, in our sinful nature, we would prefer to put self and extensions of self at the center of everything. True to the Apostle Paul's prophecy in 2 Timothy 3, we live in a world of self-interest and of lovers of self; if we don't pursue God first, we are unable to arrive at a knowledge of the truth.

A lot of us know Jesus' words regarding judging others, but we don't think rightly about how God may judge us. It's foolish to think that God will judge everyone, each by their own concepts of what is real, what is true, and what He expects. The fear of the Lord as He has revealed Himself and His expectations is the beginning of knowledge, the foundation upon which to build.

As prophesied by Isaiah, Jesus has had "the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord." To those that are born again by the Spirit of God, Jesus has given them the anointing of the Holy Spirit, who has all knowledge. The Apostle Paul described the indwelling Spirit as "Christ in you." Jesus called the Holy Spirit the Spirit of truth who would guide His disciples into all truth. As His disciples, it is our work to reject falsehood and seek truth, cooperating with God in the renewing of our minds. Choosing to be led by the Spirit causes those in Christ's body to think in a new way, with a sound mind to see clearly, which replaces a spirit of fear.

As we choose to abide in Christ, the Vine, the Spirit of God guides us into spiritual truth as we seek it, filling us with the knowledge of His will. The Holy Spirit also reveals words of knowledge to some within His church in order to better enable Jesus' continuing ministry. God has all knowledge, and the Spirit of God shares bits of this knowledge with parts of His church that reveal things in the present or the past. These words come to them as intuition through their spirits. There are many examples of servants of God given special knowledge from God in the Old and New Testaments, and this continues today for the building up of the church. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever, and His love surpasses knowledge.

Prayer: I praise You, God, that You have all knowledge. I thank You that I am part of Your beloved and that You have opened my blind eyes to see. I reject the values and the lies of the world, embracing instead the truth You have revealed. I abide in You, Jesus. Abide also in me. Holy Spirit, I ask in faith for knowledge from You according to the promise of Your Word. Thank you for the mind of Christ.

Link to Day 7 scripture study

Day 8: Discernment

"As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour."

Acts 16:16-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.16.16-18.ESV>

The supernatural is real, as are spirits. The Sadducees were Jewish teachers of the law who denied that the supernatural was real. They witnessed many of the miracles of Jesus right before their eyes, yet did not believe in the supernatural nor in resurrection. Less has changed 2000 years later than some may think. Faith is fundamentally the decision to believe in God and His word and act on it; without it, it is impossible to please God.

God clearly has the ability of discernment in all things since He knows all things. As men and women made in His image and likeness, He has shared discernment of the spiritual as a gift to some in His church, unusual as it may seem to some of us. He has also given some more natural discernment than others; this has to do with abilities rather than spiritual gifts, but natural discernment is also of significant value.

Jesus exhibited impressive discernment on many recorded occasions during His ministry. There were also those who came before Him and those who came after Him whose discernment was astounding, including Elisha and the Apostle Paul.

The passage above is about a moment in the life of the Apostle Paul. While God can give words of wisdom to His people that show His future purpose, there are evil spirits that tell the future to some as well. (King Saul consulted such a medium in 1 Samuel 28, for example.) Paul ran into such a person during his ministry. Using the instruction and repeated example of Jesus to His disciples, Paul used the faith of the Son of God that was in him (Galatians 2:20, KJV) to command the spirit to come out of her, and it did.

We should also notice that Paul and Jesus did not make a big deal about evil, because Jesus had it defeated. They simply and confidently told it to get lost, and it did. In Him, we are more than conquerors. And so we choose to lift up Jesus.

Prayer: Thank You, God, for who You have made me in Christ. Thank You for Your Spirit and Your gifts that You have given to Your church. Thank You for making me an ambassador of Christ. Thank you for Your confidence in me to make me a partner in grace with You. Thank you for the mind of Christ and Your victory in all things. I praise You for Your steadfast love and for Your ways.

Link to Day 8 scripture study

Day 9: Purpose

"Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:9-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.9-10.ESV>

The best selling Christian book next to the Bible, which has sold over 5 billion copies, is The Purpose Driven Life, having sold over 50 million copies in 85 languages. We all want to understand our purpose and live purpose-driven lives.

God has a purpose for life, and He has shared that purpose with His children. It was Jesus' purpose as well: to do the will of God and all of the will of God for the glory of God. His will is for the kingdom of God to come so that God's will is done on earth as it is in heaven.

We are to make His purpose our purpose. His will is to become our will. The purpose of prayer is to become one with God, connecting with Him in order to do His will.

Jesus came to bring the kingdom of God near. He was empowered by God's Spirit to do God's will. He did good, He brought freedom, and He made things right. Jesus showed what His followers should do and expected them to do it. He empowered them by giving them the same Spirit that raised Him from the dead. Regarding this, the Apostle Peter said, "The same promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself" (Acts 2:39).

No one needs to stand in a holding pattern while they seek God's specific will or purpose for their life. There is enough that has been made clear about what we are to do. The Apostle James said, "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22). Once we begin to do all of His word, aligning our will with His will, perhaps we will receive some more specific direction, if we have not yet.

Prayer: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. I choose Your will above my way. It is not my will but Your will that I will do. I will seek to make sure that in every way my will comes into alignment with Your will. I make Your purposes, plans and objectives mine as well. Thank you for the mind of Christ.

Day 10. Attention

"Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to him, and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them."

Luke 4:40 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.4.40.ESV>

God's attention isn't limited to one place, but Jesus' was since He became a man. God filled Him with the Holy Spirit and made Him an example, such that those who choose to follow Him might follow in His steps, walking as He walked.

Jesus' attention was amazing. His attention was always on His Father, and it was on God's love for the world. He gave attention to so many, and He gave it completely. He gave it to the crowds. He gave it to Jews and Gentiles, men and women, people from all walks of life, those called sinners. He gave it to His disciples. He saw people for who they were. He saw people the way God sees them — with eyes of love. The kind of attention Jesus gave is part of the mind of Christ, which we have through the Spirit of God as believers, although we may not have yet put it on.

Several passages in the gospels describe large crowds coming to Jesus. He preached to them about the kingdom of heaven which He brought near. He taught them. He laid His hands on them and healed them one by one. The Son of God laid His hands on them!

When He met with people, Jesus asked questions including "What is your name?", "What are you seeking?", "What do you want me to do for you?", and "What is this conversation that you are holding with each other as you walk?" Jesus gave His attention, looking first to the interests of others. This was the interest of Jesus Christ.

When Jesus Christ met with people, He ate with them. In the midst of a crowd, He called a despised chief tax collector down from a tree so He could go to his house to spend time with him. When there was not enough to go around, He made sure food was provided for them.

God gives His attention to everyone. He gives of Himself and His Life.

How do we give our attention?

When we are present with people, are we fully present? Or are we distracted?

Are we interested in them and what they care about? Do we take the time to ask questions that seek to know what it's like to walk in their shoes?

Do people know their value because of the attention we give?

Prayer: Creator God, who am I that You are mindful of me? Yet You have crowned me with glory and honor. I will sing a new song of praise to You, and I will praise You always. Thank You also for taking what is Yours and giving it to me. Thank You for the mind of Christ. My attention is on You, Father, and I pray that Your people would feel the love You have for them based on the attention that I give. I make Your agenda my own.

Day 11: Love

"...the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us."

Romans 5:5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.5.5.KJV>

The living Jesus Christ shows the perfection of God's love offered to be received by all He created. Jesus' love is a selfless, humble, serving, giving love that shows no favoritism in its offer.

When we join ourselves to God by faith in Christ, we are joined to His love.

The indwelling spirit of Jesus Christ is patient and kind; Jesus does not envy or boast; He is not arrogant or rude. He does not insist on His own way, but instead on His Father's way. He is not irritable or resentful. He does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

Jesus bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Jesus' giving love never ends for those who love God.

Jesus suffered and gave His life out of love for those who love God. By this giving He was enabled to give the Holy Spirit to those who love God.

Have you given yourself fully to the Spirit of God to abide in you and think in you and walk in you?

If we have the kind of love that God does, it was God who gave it to us. God is, so love is.

When given over completely to our covenant-keeping God, the Holy Spirit fills us so full of God's kind of giving love that we overflow with it.

As we give of God's love, we are refilled with the love of God. We should give fully of ourselves without condition nor expectation of return.

The greatest thing there is and the thing that everybody needs is the love of God. Let us not separate ourselves from God's love, nor let our love become lukewarm. Insofar as we are filled with God's fullness, we are driven by God's love. If we know God's love, we know His will.

This love of God inspires the graphic shown on the jason.church site. In sign language around the world, the way to say "I love you" is to extend the thumb, the index finger, and the little finger. The love of the Father is perfected in the love of Jesus Christ, now enthroned at His right hand. They have shed this love abroad through the Holy Spirit that is in the church, represented by the formation of the two hands coming together. This is the fullness of the love of God.

Prayer: I praise You for Your abundant, steadfast, fervent love, God. I give myself over to Your love and commit to love You all of my days with all that I am—spirit, soul and body. You are my first love. Root me and ground me in Your love, God. Spirit of God, shed your love abroad in my heart that I may love everyone else as You love.

Day 12: Compassion

"And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd."

Matthew 9:35-36 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.9.35-36.KJV>

Compassion is the love of God in action. His love is always tied to an action. Filled in fullness with God's Spirit, Jesus was compassion's perfect demonstration. In compassion, He was stirred both by His intense love for people and by His hate of the condition in which He found them. He saw what was wrong, enabled by the Spirit of God, and He made it right, meeting their physical and spiritual needs.

The goodness that He has shown has been meant to lead all men and women to repentance, turning themselves over to the love, care, and call of God. To repent means to change one's mind in a way that leads to changes in thought, speech, action, habit and character.

Seeing the love of God in action through Jesus, or through a mature Christ follower, so many have believed in the goodness and the love of God. So many have obeyed Jesus' call to follow Him, pursuing the will of God and the glory of God rather than their own will and their own glory.

Through the indwelling Holy Spirit, members of Christ's body may also experience an intense inner stirring toward action in love. Jesus has collectively empowered His church to continue the mission that He started, to be carried out according to the ways of God that Jesus showed. Christ is in His church, the same yesterday, today and forever.

The steadfast love of God in action is irresistible. Love never fails. And so we are known by our love.

Prayer: I praise You, God, for Your beautiful compassion that has brought me to the point I am today of trusting You and loving You. Thank You, my Shepherd, for Your active love for me as a child of God. Spirit of God, move me with compassion as Jesus has been moved in order to care for all of those whom You love. As part of Your body, I commit to be Your' feet and Your hands to go and to love.

Day 13: Tenderness

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love... Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

Ephesians 4:1-2, 32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-32.ESV>

God is often described in the Old Testament, especially by Psalmists including David, as one of tender mercies and lovingkindness. God desires to reveal Himself to His people as the God of tender love.

That tenderness and gentleness was shown in its fullness in the person of Jesus Christ during His ministry. For example, when a leper came to Jesus, imploring Him, kneeling before Him, asking Jesus to make him clean if He willed it, in tenderness, Jesus stretched out His hand and touched this outcast, saying, "I will; be clean," and he was instantly healed. Jesus wills to show the tender love of God to all who will receive it.

In His parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus taught the same kind of tender love regarding God's command to love one's neighbor. A neighbor who displays the tender love of God goes out of their way to completely care for the wellbeing of others. Neighbors are not just those within the body of Christ, family, workplace and neighborhood, but anyone that God loves, even one that might be considered an outcast or an enemy. With God, there are no outcasts, only beloved ones.

In the passage above, the Apostle Paul urged the church to be gentle and tenderhearted in its love, as God is in His love. This is in keeping with Jesus' command to His disciples to love others as He has loved.

As God's church, let us not be restricted by our own affections, but instead ask the Spirit of God to widen our hearts.

Prayer: God, I praise You for the tenderness of Your divine love shown in Jesus Christ. I thank You that I am in Christ, and His divine power has given to me all things that pertain to life and godliness. Spirit of God, as a partaker of Your divine nature, give me the sense of the tenderness that is in the Son of God. Enable me, Lord, to manifest Your love to Your beloved ones at will, turning every situation into glory to You.

Day 14: Generosity

"He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God."

2 Corinthians 9:10-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.9.10-11.ESV>

God is a generous giver; this may be what is most beautiful about His nature. When we think of all God has given in and through Jesus Christ, we must know that our ability to give has to do with much more than giving our money to God's work.

Jesus Christ has finished the work that abundantly gives to any who will receive it. God gives life and keeps on giving it. God makes Himself and His generous love known. He saves completely. He frees and delivers. He heals and makes whole. He sanctifies. He gives peace. He gives His Spirit, His divine nature, sharing His identity with His children. He changes those in His church into the fullness of Jesus. He makes fruitful. He strengthens. He gives hope.

He enables us to give of ourselves in every way and to participate in connecting men and women to His abundant giving. Jesus gave us His mission, making us His ambassadors.

God supplies kingdom seed for us to sow. We reap according to the nature and quantity of the seed we plant. When we sow and when we water, the Spirit of God fills us, gives us more, multiplies.

We are made to give, just as Jesus was made to give. The secret of living is giving, starting with giving of oneself fully to God.

Prayer: Lord God, I give all of me for all of You. I praise You for the generosity of Your giving. You have given me more than I could ask for or imagine. I am fully satisfied in You. And as I have freely received, so I freely give. Spirit of God, make me fully like Jesus in my giving of what is mine and what is Yours.

Day 15: Grace

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus."

Ephesians 2:4-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.4-7.ESV>

The grace of God is the divine outflowing of the nature of God. Its gateway is the atonement of Christ that gave everything that was needed to make men and women at-one with God.

Having given ourselves over to the living Jesus, we have been identified in the death, resurrection and glorification of Jesus Christ. He is alive in us, and we are alive in Him, part of His body, seated on the throne of grace at the right hand of God. As He is (right now in heaven), so are we in this world.

If that is hard to imagine, you aren't alone. The Spirit of God makes possible what seems impossible, as God isn't confined to our dimensions. (Science has proven that there are more dimensions than we experience.) As the church, we are connected now to God in Jesus Christ!

Made at one, the Spirit of God multiplies this grace in us and through us as the ambassadors of Jesus Christ, continuing His ministry of grace in multiplied form.

We have freely received grace, so we can freely give grace today. Who can you give grace to today?

As the church in the world, we are His hands, His feet, His eyes, His ears. The God of grace dwells in us, walks in us, works through us; in Him we pray at all times and we do the word of God. At one with Him, He asks us to approach the throne of grace with confidence in time of need. We can be confident to ask Him for the things that will bring Him glory.

He has made the church the channel of His grace that flows and manifests through the Spirit of God. As the church, together we are capable of flooding the entire world with God's grace. Layperson or otherwise, each is a minister of Jesus Christ, speaking His grace, emanating His grace, His very nature.

Prayer: I praise You, God, for the beauty of Your nature. Your grace is exceeding abundantly above all that I ask or think. I praise You for Your love which surpasses knowledge. I thank You that You have shared with me everything that is Yours, making me a steward of Your manifold grace. Spirit of God, lead me to share Your grace with those You've placed in my world.

Day 16: Mercy

"But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you...Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful."

Luke 6:27-28, 36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.6.27-36.ESV>

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' teaching of the new covenant elevated that which had been taught under the old covenant. Under the new covenant that Jesus brought into being, the law of sin and death was replaced by the law of the Spirit of life. To those who have given themselves over to God in Jesus Christ, God has given them a new heart and a new spirit! The love of God has been written by the Spirit of God on their hearts.

Have you given yourself over to God?

The new command of God in Jesus is "love each other as I have loved you" (John 15:12). Just as God's revelation of Himself to Moses was One of mercy and grace, Jesus taught that merciful love was integral to the heart of God. Jesus adapts His perception of people to what His redemption has made possible for them.

Those in the church have Christ living in them through the Spirit of God, enabling them to adapt their perception and to be merciful, even as God is merciful by His very nature.

In Jesus, the mercy God calls His people to is of a nature that causes them to love even their enemies! This was a radical teaching in the brutal time 2000 years ago when it was taught, a time of Roman conquest. Jesus was completely counter cultural, and His teaching still is in the 2020s.

Who do you see as your enemies?

God's way for us, led by the Spirit, is to love our enemies, do good to any that hate us, bless those who curse us, and pray for those that spitefully use or abuse us. By our love, the love of God, are followers of Christ to be known as ones set apart.

God's great love is the love of the shepherd of the lost sheep. God's people are to treat even their enemies as God's lost sheep, God's beloved ones, made in His image and likeness. They are to follow Jesus, whose ministry empowered by the Spirit of God was about setting free those oppressed by the devil and doing good.

How does God want you to do good to those He's put around you?

Prayer: I praise You, God, for Your merciful love that pursued me in my sin. Your loving kindness is unfathomable. Spirit of God, mold me into the fullness of Jesus, including the fullness of God's generous love for all. Make my family and my church also places of Your great mercy.

Day 17: Longsuffering

"Or do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?"

Romans 2:4 NKJV

<https://bible.com/bible/114/rom.2.4.NKJV>

When God revealed Himself to Moses, He described Himself as longsuffering (Exodus 34:6, KJV), or slow to anger (ESV). At times in the Bible, God is compared to a husband whose bride is unfaithful to Him, and yet in His forbearance He continues to love and make a way for the relationship to work, waiting for His beloved to return.

Jesus taught that God is to be compared to the father of the Prodigal Son. The father was so glad to see his son who squandered his inheritance return that he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. Then he threw a huge celebration. He did not react in anger when his son returned, for that is inconsistent with God's righteous character.

God longs for His children to change their minds, believe the best about His good intent, and do what is right.

Out of the riches of His goodness, the love of God bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

In Jesus Christ, God showed why He endures all things, even the cross: "for the joy set before him" (Hebrews 12:2).

Since our example and the One who lives in us is Jesus Christ, we should also be longsuffering toward others, enabled by God's love in us to treat all as those in the family of God, or as ones made for it—as brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers. This includes all those who may be difficult to love, even as we may be difficult to love for certain others.

Prayer: Thank You, God, for Your steadfast, enduring love. Thank You for the riches of your goodness and kindness in Jesus Christ. Spirit of God, empower me to love only as You can. I pray the same for my family and my church.

Scripture study section

This section of the book is for those who would like to study the scripture references for any or all of the days. I chose from two of the most accurate English translations of the New Testament, the King James Version (KJV, 1611) and English Standard Version (ESV, 2016), reproducing scripture according to the oldest and according to one modern translation 405 years later.

For further study, this section also contains selected Hebrew and Greek words for lookup. These words are referenced according to the numbers for Strong's Concordance, allowing lookup for how the words are elsewhere used in the Bible. For Hebrew words, a useful reference to help understanding is the Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon (1906). For Greek words, a useful reference to aid understanding is Joseph Henry Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament (1886). Some Bible apps now have these references embedded, such as the Blue Letter Bible and the Bible KJV Strong's Concordance (Karios). Of these options, I prefer to use the latter, although the former is a more complete reference.

Day 1: New life (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What's it mean to be born again? What transformation takes place at this time?
2. Why is it important to talk openly about your faith in Jesus Christ?
3. Why is saving faith in Christ just a foundation?
4. How is our new life comparable to a seed?
5. What does it mean to be quickened by God?

"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly."

John 10:10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.10.10.ESV>

'The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill (thuō, G2380), and to destroy (apollumi, G622): I am come that they might have life (zōē, G2222), and that they might have it more abundantly (perissos, G4053). '

John 10:10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.10.10>

Life may be the word that best describes God as well as our life when we are in God and God is in us.

Jesus said He came to give abundant life. What does that mean?

Our spirits are born dead, meaning we have no way for God to channel His kind of life into us.

As Jesus told Nicodemus, one must be born again of the Spirit in order to live.

'Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him." Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. '

John 3:1-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.3.1-6>

'There was a man of the Pharisees (Pharisaïos, G5330), named Nicodemus (Nikodēmos, G3530), a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles (sēmeion, G4592) that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born (gennaō, G1080) again (anōthen, G509), he cannot see (eidō, G1492) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit (pneuma, G4151), he cannot enter (eiserchomai, G1525) into the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. '

John 3:1-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.3.1-6>

Most have heard those words: born again.

Do you profess to be born again of God's Spirit?

'But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." '

Romans 10:8-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.10.8-13>

'But what saith it? The word (rhēma, G4487) is nigh (eggus, G1451) thee, even in thy mouth (stoma, G4750), and in thy heart (kardia, G2588): that is, the word of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kērussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed (kataischunō, G2617). For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek (Hellēn, G1672): for the same Lord over all is rich (plouteō, G4147) unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him. For whosoever shall call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord shall be saved (sōzō, G4982).'

Romans 10:8-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.10.8-13>

You would freely talk about it. You would know that God's word about being born of Spirit is true, and you would accept that He has done this for you. It is not a question. It is finished. This faith is the only foundation to build God's kind of life upon — the eternal, abundant kind.

It's the foundation. It's just the beginning.

'But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for it. And even now you are not yet ready,... So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.'

1 Corinthians 3:1-2,7-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.3.1-2,7-15>

'And I, brethren (adelphos, G80), could not speak unto you as unto spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152), but as unto carnal (sarkikos, G4559), even as unto babes (nēpios, G3516) in Christ. I have fed (potizō, G4222) you with milk (gala, G1051), and not with meat (brōma, G1033): for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able (dunamai, G1410)... So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth (potizō, G4222); but God that giveth the increase (auxanō, G837). Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive (lambanō, G2983) his own reward (misthos, G3408) according to his own labour. For we are labourers together (sunergos, G4904) with God: ye are God's husbandry (geōrgion, G1091), ye are God's building (oikodomē, G3619). According to the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation (themelios, G2310) can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be made manifest (phaneros, G5318): for the day (hēmera, G2250) shall declare it, because it shall be revealed (apokaluptō, G601) by fire; and the fire shall try (dokimazō, G1381) every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide (menō, G3306) which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) a reward (misthos, G3408). If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); yet so as by fire.'

1 Corinthians 3:1-2,7-15 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.3.1-2,7-15>

God begins to remake us just by bringing life to our spirit by His Spirit. We are quickened together with Christ.

And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, '

Colossians 2:13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.2.13>

'And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900); '

Colossians 2:13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.2.13>

To be quickened is to be made alive. It's God's business; it's His will to bring more life in response to faith.

This new life is an imperishable seed planted in the soil of who we are.

'since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; '

1 Peter 1:23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1PE.1.23>

'being born again (anagennaō, G313), not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible (aphthartos, G862), by the word (logos, G3056) of God, which liveth (zaō, G2198) and abideth (menō, G3306) for ever. '

1 Peter 1:23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1PE.1.23>

It's not meant to stay as a seed.

The seed is meant to grow into fullness, if it is to become abundant life. Naturally speaking, its world is dark though and there's no water.

It needs to continue to be exposed to the light. It needs to stay close to the flow of living water. Naturally speaking, these are impossible, but all things are possible for God.

'But Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." '

Matthew 19:26 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.19.26>

'But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible (dunatos, G1415).'

Matthew 19:26 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.19.26>

Our God is the Author of Life and so He is also the fountain of living waters.

'and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. '

Acts 3:15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.3.15>

'and killed the Prince (archēgos, G747) of life (zōē, G2222), whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses (martus, G3144).'

Acts 3:15 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.3.15>

'for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water. '

Jeremiah 2:13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JER.2.13>

'For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain (mâqôr, H4726) of living (chay, H2416) waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken (shâbar, H7665) cisterns, that can hold no water. '

Jeremiah 2:13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JER.2.13>

Prayer: Thank you, God, for new life in Jesus Christ. Quicken me according to Your Word and Your lovingkindness, by the power of Your Holy Spirit. I praise You for Your steadfast love.

' My soul clings to the dust; give me life according to your word! Consider how I love your precepts! Give me life according to your steadfast love. '

Psalms 119:25,159 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PSA.119.25,159>

'My soul (nepesh, H5315) cleaveth (dâbaq, H1692) unto the dust: Quicken (châyâh, H2421) thou me according to thy word (dâbâr, H1697)... Consider how I love ('âhab, H157) thy precepts (piqqûd, H6490): Quicken (châyâh, H2421) me, O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), according to thy lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617).'

Return to Day 1

Day 2: Righteousness (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the righteousness of God.
2. Describe your righteousness in Christ.
3. What does it mean to hunger and thirst after righteousness?
4. What are some practical ways to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness?
5. What does it mean to put off our old self?

"For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God."

2 Corinthians 5:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.5.21.ESV>

'For he hath made him to be sin (hamartia, G266) for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made (ginomai, G1096) the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) of God in him.'

2 Corinthians 5:21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.5.21>

Righteousness may be the word that second best describes God, as well as our life when we are in God and God is in us.

The Apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian church that Jesus Christ was made sin although He knew no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

When our spirit is given birth by His Spirit in identification with Christ, the Righteous One, we are also accounted as righteous, translated into the kingdom of God.

'Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.'

Isaiah 53:11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ISA.53.11>

'He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) servant ('ebed, H5650) justify (tsâdaq, H6663) many; for he shall bear (sâbal, H5445) their iniquities ('âvôn, H5771).'

Isaiah 53:11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ISA.53.11>

'He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, '

Colossians 1:13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.1.13>

'who hath delivered (rhuomai, G4506) us from the power (exousia, G1849) of darkness (skotos, G4655), and hath translated (methistēmi, G3179) us into the kingdom (basilea, G932) of his dear (agapē, G26) Son: '

Colossians 1:13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.1.13>

We are seen sinless as Christ is, and we know God's great love for us.

'For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. '

Colossians 3:3 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.3.3>

'For ye are dead (apothnēskō, G599), and your life (zōē, G2222) is hid (kruptō, G2928) with Christ in God. '

Colossians 3:3 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.3.3>

Jesus Christ is righteous. With Christ in us and us in Him, we are empowered to be victorious over evil or any of its effects.

'Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. '

1 John 3:7-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.3.7-8>

'Little children (teknion, G5040), let no man deceive (planaō, G4105) you: he that doeth (poieō, G4160) righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) is righteous (dikaios, G1342), even as he is righteous. He that committeth (poieō, G4160) sin (hamartia, G266) is of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for the devil sinneth (hamartanō, G264) from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested (phaneroō, G5319), that he might destroy (luō, G3089) the works (ergon, G2041) of the devil. '

1 John 3:7-8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1JN.3.7-8>

'But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. '

2 Corinthians 2:14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.2.14>

'Now thanks (charis, G5485) be unto God, which always (pantote, G3842) causeth us to triumph (thriambeuō, G2358) in Christ, and maketh manifest (phaneroō, G5319) the savour of his knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by us in every place (topos, G5117). '

2 Corinthians 2:14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.2.14>

In Christ, these former things no longer have any right over us, and we see rightly that His intent for us and others is to do good and to make things right.

'how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. '

Acts 10:38 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.10.38>

'how God anointed (chriō, G5548) Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power (dunamis, G1411): who went about (dierchomai, G133) doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed (katadunasteuō, G2616) of the devil; for God was with him. '

Acts 10:38 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.10.38>

If instead we backslide to choose life in the world, giving up our right to freedom and life in Christ, it leads back to bondage and death.

'There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. '

Romans 8:1-10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.1-10>

' There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk (peripateō, G4043) not after the flesh (sarx, G4561), but after the Spirit. For the law (nomos, G3551) of the Spirit of life (zōē, G2222) in Christ Jesus hath made me free (eleutheroō, G1659) from the law of sin and death (thanatos, G2288). For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness (dikaiōma, G1345) of the law might be fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind (phroneō, G5426) the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally (sarx, G4561) minded (phronēma, G5427) is death (thanatos, G2288); but to be spiritually minded is life (zōē, G2222) and peace (eirēnē, G1515). Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead (nekros, G3498) because of sin; but the Spirit is life (zōē, G2222) because of righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343).'

Romans 8:1-10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.8.1-10>

In Christ though, we are empowered to put off our old self and to renew our mind, putting on the new self that is from God. The new self is righteous like Christ.

'Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.17-24>

'This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord (kurios, G2962), that ye henceforth walk (peripateō, G4043) not as other Gentiles (ethnos, G1484) walk, in the vanity (mataiotēs, G3153) of their mind (nous, G3563), having the understanding (dianoia, G1271) darkened (skotizō, G4654), being alienated (apallotrioō, G526) from the life (zōē, G2222) of God through the ignorance (agnoia, G52) that is in them, because of the blindness (pōrōsis, G4457) of their heart (kardia, G2588): who being past feeling (apalgeō, G524) have given themselves over unto lasciviousness (aselgeia, G766), to work all uncleanness (akatharsia, G167) with greediness (pleonexia, G4124). But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old man, which is corrupt (phtheirō, G5351) according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed (ananēō, G365) in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new (kainos, G2537) man, which after God is created (ktizō, G2936) in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness.'

Ephesians 4:17-24 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.4.17-24>

Jesus said we are to hunger and thirst after righteousness, and we are to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness.

' "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. '

Matthew 5:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.5.6>

' Blessed (makarios, G3107) are they which do hunger (peinaō, G3983) and thirst (dipsaō, G1373) after righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): for they shall be filled (chortazō, G5526).'

Matthew 5:6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.5.6>

' Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven... But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. '

Matthew 6:10,33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.6.10,33>

'Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come (erchomai, G2604). Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done (ginomai, G1096) in earth, as it is in heaven... But seek (zēteō, G2212) ye first (prōton, G4412) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and his righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and all these things shall be added unto you.'

Matthew 6:10,33 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.6.10,33>

This means that in ourselves, in our families, in our workplaces, in our neighborhoods, in our churches, in our cities, and wherever else we are, led by God's Spirit, we are to seek God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven — not through our power and victory but through His.

'But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law... If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. '

Galatians 5:16-18,25 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.5.16-18,25>

' This I say then, Walk (peripateō, G4043) in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil (teleō, G5055) the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561). For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do (poieō, G4160) the things that ye would (thelō ethelō, G2309). But if ye be led (agō, G71) of the Spirit, ye are not under the law (nomos, G3551)... If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit.'

Galatians 5:16-18,25 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.5.16-18,25>

We come to want the same thing He does, and so we have turned ourselves fully over to Him, saying, "I give You all of me, Lord, for all of You. Turn every situation in my life into glory for You."

' Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.3.5-11>

'Mortify (nekroō, G3499) therefore your members (melos, G3196) which are upon the earth; fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), inordinate affection (pathos, G3806), evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience (apeitheia, G543): in the which ye also walked (peripateō, G4043) some time, when ye lived (zaō, G2198) in them. But now ye also put off (apotithēmi, G659) all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988), filthy communication (aischrologia, G148) out of your mouth (stoma, G4750). Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off (apekduomai, G554) the old man with his deeds (praxis, G4234); and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man, which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: where there is neither Greek (Hellēn, G1672) nor Jew, circumcision (peritomē, G4061) nor uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203), Barbarian (barbaros, G915), Scythian (Skuthēs, G4658), bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658): but Christ is all, and in all. '

Colossians 3:5-11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.3.5-11>

Prayer: Thank you, God, for righteousness through my life in Jesus Christ. I praise You for Your great mercy. I seek first Your kingdom and Your righteousness by the power of Your Holy Spirit. I give You all of me, Lord, for all of You.

Return to Day 2

Day 3: Holiness (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the holiness of God.
2. When we are born again, we are redeemed and forgiven. How does the Bible describe this state of forgiveness?
3. Why do people generally have a disdain for holiness? Do Christ followers sometimes have a disdain for holiness?
4. What does it mean to be consecrated? How is our relationship with God similar to that of the marriage relationship? How is it different?
5. How does the indwelling Holy Spirit empower us to live holy lives?

"Come now, let us reason together, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool."

Isaiah 1:18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/iso.1.18.ESV>

'Come now, and let us reason together (yâkach, H3198), saith the LORD : though your sins (chêt', H2399) be as scarlet, they shall be as white (lâban, H3825) as snow; though they be red ('âdam, H119) like crimson, they shall be as wool. '

Isaiah 1:18 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ISA.1.18>

Holiness is one of the words that best describes God. Holiness is the character of God; the substance of His being is purity.

'For I am the Lord your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy.'

Leviticus 11:44a ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LEV.11.44>

'For I am the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) your God ('elôhîym, H430): ye shall therefore sanctify (qâdash, H6942) yourselves, and ye shall be holy (qâdôsh, H6918); for I am holy (qâdôsh, H6918)... '

Leviticus 11:44a KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LEV.11.44>

It's also something God has made possible for men and women — being holy — but most of us don't want it because we think it means the fun is over.

God called His people to be holy as He is holy. He wants men and women fully in love with Him, consecrated to Him as a bride to her husband and a husband to her bride. This is His model relationship for us, the sacred marriage relationship, and He's made us to understand it.

'Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure"— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints. And the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are the true words of God." '

Revelation 19:7-9 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.19.7-9>

'Let us be glad (chairō, G5463) and rejoice (agalliaō, G21), and give honour (doxa, G1391) to him: for the marriage (gamos, G1062) of the Lamb is come (erchomai, G2064), and his wife hath made herself ready (hetoimazō, G2090). And to her was granted (didōmi, G1325) that she should be arrayed (periballō, G4016) in fine linen, clean (katharos, G2513) and white (lampros, G2986): for the fine linen is the righteousness (dikaiōma, G1345) of saints (hagios, G40). And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed (makarios, G3107) are they which are called unto the marriage supper (deipnon, G1173) of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings (logos, G3056) of God.'

Revelation 19:7-9 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.19.7-9>

'Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. '

Ephesians 5:25-27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.25-27>

'Husbands, love (agapaō, G25) your wives, even as Christ also loved (agapaō, G25) the church (ekklēsia, G1577), and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for it; that he might sanctify (hagiazō, G37) and cleanse (katharizō, G2511) it with the washing of water by the word (rhēma, G4487), that he might present it to himself a glorious (endoxos, G1741) church, not having spot (spilos, G4696), or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy (hagios, G40) and without blemish (amōmos, G299).

Ephesians 5:25-27 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.25-27>

We understand steadfast faithfulness, and we understand infidelity. We know what it is to try to keep secrets, to try to hold something for ourselves in the dark, or to bring everything into the light with our beloved.

'And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God." '

John 3:19-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.3.19-21>

'And this is the condemnation, that light (phōs, G5457) is come (erchomai, G2064) into the world, and men loved (agapaō, G25) darkness (skotos, G4655) rather than light (phōs, G5457), because their deeds (ergon, G2041) were evil (ponēros, G4190). For every one that doeth (prassō, G4238) evil (phaulos, G5337) hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved (elegchō, G1651). But he that doeth (poieō, G4160) truth (alētheia, G225) cometh (erchomai, G2064) to the light, that his deeds (ergon, G2041) may be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319), that they are wrought (ergazomai, G2038) in God. '

John 3:19-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.3.19-21>

The imperishable seed planted in us when God gives life to us only grows in the right kind of soil.

'since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; '

1 Peter 1:23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1PE.1.23>

'being born again (anagennaō, G313), not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible (aphthartos, G862), by the word (logos, G3056) of God, which liveth (zaō, G2198) and abideth (menō, G3306) for ever.'

1 Peter 1:23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1PE.1.23>

The soil that is entangled in any sin or any of the cares of the world doesn't nourish life and produce growth, yielding the kind of fullness and blessing God intends for His beloved children.

' "Hear then the parable of the sower: When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while, and when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately he falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

Matthew 13:18-23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.13.18-23>

' Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth (akouō, G191) the word (logos, G3056) of the kingdom (basilea, G932), and understandeth (suniēmi, G4920) it not, then cometh (erchomai, G2064) the wicked one (ponēros, G4190), and catcheth away (harpazō, G726) that which was sown (speirō, G4687) in his heart (kardia, G2588). This is he which received seed by the way side. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon (euthus, G2117) with joy receiveth (lambanō, G2983) it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation (thlipsis, G2347) or persecution ariseth (ginomai, G1096) because of the word, by and by he is offended (skandalizō, G4624). He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care (merimna, G3308) of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches (ploutos, G4149), choke (sumpnigō, G4846) the word, and he becometh (ginomai, G1096) unfruitful (akarpōs, G175). But he that received seed into the good (kalos, G2570) ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth (suniēmi, G4920) it; which also beareth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592), and bringeth forth (poieō, G4160), some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. '

Matthew 13:18-23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.13.18-23>

Either we choose to abide in Jesus, the true Vine, or our choice to seek fullness of life elsewhere causes God to cut us off from it.

' "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.'

John 15:1-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.1-6>

' I am the true (alēthinos, G228) vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092). Every branch (klēma, G2814) in me that beareth (phero, G5342) not fruit (karpos, G2590) he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth (kathairō, G2508) it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean (katharos, G2513) through the word (logos, G3056) which I have spoken unto you. Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered (xērainō, G3583); and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned (kaiō, G2545). '

John 15:1-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.15.1-6>

Jesus didn't simply call people to be born again. Jesus called them to repent and told them the kingdom of heaven had come near. To repent is to change one's mind in such a way that it affects one's will and choices.

'From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." '

Matthew 4:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.4.17>

'From that time Jesus began to preach (kērussō, G2784), and to say, Repent (metanoeō, G3340): for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven is at hand (eggizō, G1448). '

Matthew 4:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.4.17>

'Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming in ways that can be observed, nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There!' for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you." '

Luke 17:20-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.17.20-21>

'And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God should come (erchomai, G2064), he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within (entos, G1787) you. '

Luke 17:20-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.17.20-21>

Further, Jesus called them to leave everything and follow Him.

'As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." And Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Yet another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Luke 9:57-62 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.9.57-62>

'And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord (kurios, G2962), I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, Let the dead (nekros, G3498) bury their dead: but go thou and preach (diaggellō, G1229) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house. And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit (euthetos, G2111) for the kingdom of God.'

Luke 9:57-62 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.9.57-62>

He called them to stay ready for His return.

' "Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks... You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect." '

Luke 12:35-36,40 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.12.35-36,40>

'Let your loins be girded about (perizōnnumi, G4024), and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait (prosdechomai, G4327) for their lord (kurios, G2962), when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately... Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.'

Luke 12:35-36,40 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.12.35-36,40>

He taught that the ways of God's kingdom are the opposite of the ways of the world; nothing is as it seems.

'Peter began to say to him, "See, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first." '

Mark 10:28-31 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.10.28-31>

'Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. And Jesus answered and said, Verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's (euaggelion, G2098), but he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren (adelphos, G80), and sisters (adelphē, G79), and mothers, and children (teknon, G5043), and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life (zōē, G2222). But many that are first shall be last; and the last first. '

Mark 10:28-31 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.10.28-31>

He called all to have faith in God and His goodness.

'If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! '

Matthew 7:11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.7.11>

'If ye then, being evil (ponēros, G4190), know how to give good (agathos, G18) gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things (agathos, G18) to them that ask (aiteō, G154) him? '

Matthew 7:11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.7.11>

God is the giver of every good and perfect gift.

'Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. '

James 1:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.17>

'Every good (agathos, G18) gift (dosis, G1394) and every perfect (teleios, G5046) gift (dōrēma, G1434) is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights (phōs, G5457), with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. '

James 1:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JAS.1.17>

Do you believe every good thing is from Him?

Do you believe that pursuit of godliness brings you good? Or are you holding back something of yours, believing it is life-giving?

We cannot be holy in our own efforts. It's impossible. But if you have been born again, you have already been made holy in God's eyes. It's part of the new spirit given to you by God's grace. The one who is joined to the Lord in salvation becomes one spirit with Him, one flesh.

'Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.'

1 Thessalonians 5:23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1TH.5.23>

'And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.'

1 Thessalonians 5:23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1TH.5.23>

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.'

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

'But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151).'

1 Corinthians 6:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.6.17>

'because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church.'

Ephesians 5:30-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.30-32>

'for we are members (melos, G3196) of his body (sōma, G4983), of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones (osteon ostoun, G3747). For this cause shall a man leave (kataleipō, G2641) his father and mother, and shall be joined (proskollaō, G4347) unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). This is a great mystery (mustērion, G3466): but I speak concerning Christ (Christos, G5547) and the church (ekklēsia, G1577). 'Ephesians 5:30-32 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.30-32>

Christ in you empowers you to be victorious over sin, just as He was, led by the Spirit of God.

'Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared in order to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. '

1 John 3:4-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.3.4-6>

'Whosoever committeth (poieō, G4160) sin (hamartia, G266) transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law (anomia, G458). And ye know that he was manifested (phaneroō, G5319) to take away (airō, G142) our sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth (menō, G3306) in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen (haraō, G3708) him, neither known (ginōskō, G1097) him.'

1 John 3:4-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1JN.3.4-6>

'For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. '

Titus 2:11-14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/TIT.2.11-14>

'For the grace (charis, G5485) of God that bringeth salvation (sōtēria, G4992) hath appeared (epiphainō, G2014) to all men, teaching us that, denying (ameomai, G720) ungodliness and worldly (kosmikos, G2886) lusts, we should live (zaō, G2198) soberly (sōphronōs, G4996), righteously (dikaiōs, G1346), and godly, in this present world; looking for (prosdexomai, G4327) that blessed (makarios, G3107) hope (elpis, G1680), and the glorious (doxa, G1391) appearing of the great God and our Saviour (sōtēr, G1990) Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547); who gave himself for us, that he might redeem (lutroō, G3084) us from all iniquity, and purify (katharizō, G2511) unto himself a peculiar (periousios, G4041) people, zealous (zēlōtēs, G2207) of good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041). '

Titus 2:11-14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/TIT.2.11-14>

And so in new life you can choose to be led by God's Spirit.

'But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law... If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. '

Galatians 5:16-18,25 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.5.16-18,25>

' This I say then, Walk (peripateō, G4043) in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil (teleō, G5055) the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561). For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do (poieō, G4160) the things that ye would (thelō ethelō, G2309). But if ye be led (agō, G71) of the Spirit, ye are not under the law (nomos, G3551)... If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit.'

Galatians 5:16-18,25 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.5.16-18,25>

In so doing, you choose life and you choose steadfast love for God.

'But the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it. "See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil. If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I command you today, by loving the Lord your God, by walking in his ways, and by keeping his commandments and his statutes and his rules, then you shall live and multiply, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take possession of it. But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them, I declare to you today, that you shall surely perish. You shall not live long in the land that you are going over the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the Lord swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them."

Deuteronomy 30:14-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/DEU.30.14-20>

'But the word (dâbâr, H1697) is very (me'ôd, H3966) nigh (qârôb, H7138) unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart (lêbâb, H3824), that thou mayest do ('âśâh, H6213) it. See, I have set before thee this day life (chay, H2416) and good (tôb, H2896), and death (mâveth, H4194) and evil (ra', H7451); in that I command thee this day to love ('âhab, H157) the LORD thy God, to walk (yâlak, H3212) in his ways (derek, H1870), and to keep (shâmar, H8104) his commandments (mitsvâh, H4687) and his statutes (chûqqâh, H2708) and his judgments (mishpât, H4941), that thou mayest live (châyâh, H2421) and multiply (râbâh, H7235): and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. But if thine heart (lêbâb, H3824) turn away, so that thou wilt not hear (shâma', H8085), but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life (chay, H2416) and death (mâveth, H4194), blessing (berâkâh, H1293) and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live (châyâh, H2421): that thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey (shâma', H8085) his voice, and that thou mayest cleave (dâbaq, H1692) unto him: for he is thy life (chay, H2416), and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell (yâshab, H3427) in the land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.'

Prayer: Thank You for Your forgiveness, gracious God, that has made me radiantly white in Your eyes. Thank You for the sacrifice of Your blood and Your broken body, Jesus, that made me clean and made me one with You. Holy Spirit, thank You for Your power to defeat sin. I consecrate myself and my home to You, God. I praise You for Your faithful, pursuing, selfless love.

Return to Day 3

Day 4: Faith (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What does it mean to be crucified with Christ?
2. What is saving faith?
3. How does God intend for Christ followers to mature in faith after they are born again?
4. This lesson states: "Faith activates God's Spirit within us." Do you agree? If so, how is this so?
5. How does faith affect our view of God, our view of yourself, and our view of how we should live from day to day?

'I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.'

Galatians 2:20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.2.20>

"I am crucified with (sustaurōō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me."

Galatians 2:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/gal.2.20.KJV>

In faith, God spoke words that created the world and everyone who has lived in it. When He speaks, He creates, He gives Life, and His words come to pass.

'And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. '

Genesis 1:3 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GEN.1.3>

'And God ('elôhîym, H430) said ('âmar, H559), Let there be (hâyâh, H1961) light ('ôr, H216): and there was light ('ôr, H216).'

Genesis 1:3 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GEN.1.3>

' "For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it. '

Isaiah 55:10-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ISA.55.10-11>

For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth (yâlad, H3205) and bud (tsâmach, H6779), that it may give (nâthan, H5414) seed (zera', H2233) to the sower (zâra', H2232), and bread to the eater: so shall my word (dâbâr, H1697) be that goeth forth (yâtsâ', H3318) out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void (rêyqâm, H7387), but it shall accomplish ('âsâh, H6213) that which I please (châphêts, H2654), and it shall prosper (tsâlach, H6743) in the thing whereto I sent (shâlach, H7971) it. '

Isaiah 55:10-11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ISA.55.10-11>

'as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations"—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. '

Romans 4:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.4.17>

'(as it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed (pisteuō, G4100), even God, who quickeneth (zōopoieō, G2227) the dead (nekros, G3498), and calleth (kaleō, G2564) those things which be not as though they were. '

Romans 4:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.4.17>

By faith, you spoke to identify yourself with the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

'But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. '

Romans 10:8-10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.10.8-10>

'But what saith it (legō, G3004)? The word (rhēma, G4487) is nigh (eggus, G1451) thee, even in thy mouth (stoma, G4750), and in thy heart (kardia, G2588): that is, the word (rhēma, G4487) of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kērussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth (stoma, G4750) the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (lēsous, G2424), and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart (kardia, G2588) that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart (kardia, G2588) man believeth (pisteuō, G4100) unto righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and with the mouth (stoma, G4750) confession (homologeō, G3670) is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). '

Romans 10:8-10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.10.8-10>

By faith, you believed that God made you a new creation (born again of His Spirit) at this confession, eternally His by way of a sacrificial act that Jesus Christ accomplished 2000 years ago.

'Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.'

2 Corinthians 5:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.5.17>

'Therefore if any man be in Christ (Christos, G5547), he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537).'

2 Corinthians 5:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.5.17>

The great evangelist Charles Spurgeon encouraged Jesus' followers to "be great believers! Little faith will bring your souls to heaven, but great faith will bring heaven to your souls." Jesus was ever teaching and shaping His disciples in order to stir up their faith in God.

'And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me."'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.9.17-19>

'And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb (alalos, G216) spirit (pneuma, G4151); and wheresoever he taketh (katalambanō, G2638) him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away (xērainō, G3583); and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (ischuō, G2480) not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him unto me.'

Mark 9:17-19 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.9.17-19>

'When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread. Jesus said to them, "Watch and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." And they began discussing it among themselves, saying, "We brought no bread." But Jesus, aware of this, said, "O you of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? '

Matthew 16:5-10 ESV

'And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed (horaō, G3708) and beware (prosechō, G4337) of the leaven (zumē, G2219) of the Pharisees (Pharisaïos, G5330) and of the Sadducees (Saddoukaïos, G4523). And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken (lambanō, G2983) no bread. Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith (oligopistos, G3640), why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? Do ye not yet understand (noieō, G3539), neither remember (mnēmoneuō, G3421) the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up (lambanō, G2983)? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? '

Being born again in Christ was just the beginning; it was just a foundation to build upon.

'For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. '

1 Corinthians 3:11 ESV

'For other foundation (themelios, G2310) can no man lay (tithēmi, G5087) than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. '

1 Corinthians 3:11 KJV

As His disciples, our faith in God is everything. Without faith, we cannot please God.

'And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. '

Hebrews 11:6 ESV

'But without faith (pistis, G4102) it is impossible (adunatos, G102) to please him : for he that cometh to God must believe (pisteuō, G4100) that he is, and that he is a rewarder (misthapodotēs, G3406) of them that diligently seek (ekzēteō, G1567) him. '

Hebrews 11:6 KJV

The entire Bible is about lessons in faith and how God responds to faithfulness or faithlessness. Faith is the channel to the abundant goodness of God; so seek to open it wide! Faith activates God's Spirit within us.

'And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all. '

Acts 3:16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.3.16>

'And his name (onoma, G3686) through faith (pistis, G4102) in his name (onoma, G3686) hath made this man strong (stereoō, G4732), whom ye see and know: yea, the faith (pistis, G4102) which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness (holoklēria, G3647) in the presence of you all. '

Acts 3:16 KJV

'For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, '

2 Timothy 1:6 ESV

'Wherefore I put thee in remembrance (anamimnēskō, G363) that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5486) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). '

'In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; '

Ephesians 6:16 ESV

'above all, taking (analambanō, G353) the shield (thureos, G2375) of faith (pistis, G4102), wherewith ye shall be able (dunamai, G1410) to quench (sbennumi, G4570) all the fiery darts (belos, G956) of the wicked (ponēros, G4190). '

Ephesians 6:16 KJV

The Apostle Paul wrote that when by faith He was crucified with Christ, the Spirit of Christ came to live in him and through him. He had died, and so he lived by the faith of the Son of God. It was by Christ's faith that Paul lived. This brought heaven to His soul, to some of the Jewish world, and to some of the non-Jewish world.

Are you dead yet?

Insofar as we hold onto our own lives, we cannot be conformed into the beautiful image of Christ, led by God's Spirit. If you have been born again of the Spirit, Jesus Christ is in your spirit, waiting to be let out so He may have all of you. It is God's will to conform you to the image of the Son of God as sons and daughters of His.

'So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ... And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. '

Romans 8:12-16,28-29 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.12-16,28-29>

'Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4591). For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die (apothnēskō, G599); but if ye through the Spirit do mortify (thanatoō, G2289) the deeds of the body (sōma, G4983), ye shall live (zaō, G2198). For as many as are led (agō, G71) by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received (lambanō, G2983) the spirit of bondage (douleia, G1397) again to fear (phobos, G5401); but ye have received

(lambanō, G2983) the Spirit of adoption (uihotesia, G5206), whereby we cry (krazō, G2896), Abba (Abba, G5), Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with (summatureō, G4828) our spirit, that we are the children (teknon, G5043) of God: ... And we know (eidō, G1492) that all things work together (sunergeō, G4903) for good (agathos, G18) to them that love (agapaō, G25) God, to them who are the called (klētos, G2822) according to his purpose (prothesis, G4286). For whom he did foreknow (proginōskō, G4267), he also did predestinate (proorizō, G4309) to be conformed (summorphos, G4832) to the image (eikōn, G1504) of his Son, that he might be the firstborn (prōtotokos, G4416) among many brethren (adelphos, G80).'

'And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.'

2 Corinthians 3:18 ESV

'But we all, with open (anakalouptō, G343) face (prosōpon, G4383) beholding as in a glass (katoptrizomai, G2734) the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), are changed (metamorphoō, G3339) into the same image (eikōn, G1504) from glory (doxa, G1391) to glory (doxa, G1391), even as by the Spirit of the Lord.'

2 Corinthians 3:18 KJV

According to Jesus, having steadfast faith in God moves great obstacles (He called them mountains) and causes our prayers to be answered. This is the faith Christ has; He is in us and we are in Him.

'And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him.

Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.'

Mark 11:22-24 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.11.22-24>

'And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, That whosoever shall say (epō, G2036) unto this mountain, Be thou removed (airō, G142), and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt (diakrinō, G1252) in his heart (kardia, G2588), but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith (legō, G3004) shall come to pass (ginomai, G1096); he shall have whatsoever he saith (epō, G2036). Therefore I say (legō, G3004) unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray (proseuchomai, G4336), believe (pisteuō, G4100) that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have them.'

In living by the faith of the Son of God, we come to will what God wills, seeking to make things right — the way He wants to make them right. With Christ dwelling in us and empowering us, we seek to turn every situation into glory to God.

'Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.'

Matthew 6:10 ESV

'Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come (erchomai, G2064). Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done (ginomai, G1096) in earth, as it is in heaven.'

John 17:4 ESV

'I have glorified (doxazō, G1393) thee on the earth: I have finished (teleioō, G5048) the work (ergon, G2041) which thou gavest (didōmi, G1325) me to do (poieō, G4160).'

John 17:4 KJV

'For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fulfilled the ministry of the gospel of Christ;'

Romans 15:18-19 ESV

'For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought (katargazomai, G2716) by me, to make the Gentiles obedient (hupakoē, G5218), by word (logos, G3056) and deed (ergon, G2041), through mighty (dunamis, G1411) signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059), by the power (dunamis, G1411) of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum (Illyrikon, G2437), I have fully preached (plēroō, G4137) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

In living by the faith of the Son of God, we take up our identity as sons and daughters of God (kings) and loving servants of mankind (priests).

'and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. '

Revelation 1:5-6 ESV

'and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness (martus, G3144), and the first begotten (prōtokos, G4416) of (ek, G1537) the dead (nekros, G3498), and the prince (archōn, G758) of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved (agapaō, G25) us, and washed (louō, G3068) us from our sins (hamartia, G266) in his own blood, and hath made (poieō, G4160) us kings (basileus, G935) and priests (hiereus, G2409) unto God and his Father; to him be glory (doxa, G1391) and dominion (kratos, G2904) for ever and ever. Amen (amēn, G281). '

Revelation 1:5-6 KJV

We abandon our passions, dreams, and stories to pursue God's passions, dreams, and story. This is what it means to follow Christ. This is the adventure that we seek and the only way we can find satisfaction. We pursue the life of God, the liberty of God, and to make Him happy, knowing it's not about us at all.

Prayer: God, forgive me for living to please myself or please others when it's You that I desire to glorify. Thank You, Jesus, for Your crucifixion because of Your great love for me and Your Church.

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ... for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure... I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. '

'If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426). Let nothing be done through strife (eritheia, G2052) or vainglory (kenodoxia, G2754); but in lowliness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) let each esteem other better than (huperechō, G5242) themselves. Look (skopeō, G4648) not every man on his own things (heautou, G1438), but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind (phroneō, G5426) be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:... For it is God which worketh (energeō, G1754) in you both to will (thelō ethelō, G2309) and to do (energeō, G1754) of his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107)... But I trust (elpizō, G1679) in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus (Timotheos, G5095) shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort (eupsucheō, G2174), when I know (ginōskō, G1097) your state. For I have no man likeminded (isopsuchos, G2473), who will naturally (gnēsiōs, G1104) care (merimnaō, G3309) for your state. For all seek (zēteō, G2212) their own (heautou, G1438), not the things which are Jesus Christ's.'

Return to Day 4

Day 5: The mind of Christ (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What did the Apostle Paul mean when he told the church, "We have the mind of Christ"?
2. What does it mean to renew our minds? Is this renewal God's work or our work?
3. How did the Father communicate with Jesus?
4. How does God communicate with Christ followers? His church?
5. What does it mean to abide in Christ?

'Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.12-16>

'Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know (eidō, G1492) the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words (logos, G3056) which man's wisdom (sophia, G4678) teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things (pneumatikos, G4152) with spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152). But the natural man (psuchikos, G5591) receiveth (dechomai, G1209) not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know (ginōskō, G1097) them, because they are spiritually discerned (pneumatikōs, G4153). But he that is spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

1 Corinthians 2:12-16 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.2.12-16>

The human brain and mind are beautiful things. It's been the new frontier in science to try to understand it all. Really our mind is separate from our brain, just as the software that runs a computer is separate from its hardware. Yet, unlike anything else on earth, we are spiritual beings.

When we are born again of the Spirit, we have within our spirit a new creation, the mind of Christ; but our own minds are not yet renewed to the mind of Christ.

'If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.'

James 1:5-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.5-8>

'If any of you lack (leipō, G3007) wisdom (sophia, G4678), let him ask (aiteō, G154) of God, that giveth (didōmi, G1325) to all men liberally (haplōs, G574), and upbraideth (oneidezō, G3679) not; and it shall be given (didōmi, G1325) him. But let him ask (aiteō, G154) in faith (pistis, G4102), nothing wavering (diakrinō, G1252). For he that wavereth (diakrinō, G1252) is like a wave (kludōn, G2830) of the sea driven with the wind (anemizō, G216) and tossed (rhipizō, G4494). For let not that man think that he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) any thing of the Lord (kurios, G29620). A double minded (dipsuchos, G1374) man is unstable (akatastatos, G182) in all his ways (hodos, G3598).'

'Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.'

James 4:7-8 ESV

'Submit (hupotassō, G5293) yourselves therefore to God. Resist (anthistēmi, G436) the devil (diabolos, G1228), and he will flee (pheugō, G5343) from you. Draw nigh (eggizō, G1448) to God, and he will draw nigh (eggizō, G1448) to you. Cleanse (katharizō, G2511) your hands (cheir, G5495), ye sinners (hamartōlos, G268); and purify (hagnizō, G48) your hearts (kardia, G2588), ye double minded (dipsuchos, G1374).'

James 4:7-8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JAS.4.7-8>

' "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. '

Matthew 6:19-24 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.6.19-24>

'Lay not up for yourselves treasures (thēsauros, G2344) upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up (thēsaurizō, G2343) for yourselves treasures (thēsauros, G2344) in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure (thēsauros, G2344) is, there will your heart (kardia, G2588) be also. The light of the body is the eye (ophthalmos, G3788): if therefore thine eye be single (haplous, G573), thy whole body shall be full of light (phōteinos, G5460). But if thine eye be evil (ponēros, G4190), thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light (phōs, G5457) that is in thee be darkness (skotos, G4655), how great is that darkness! No man can serve (douleuō, G1398) two masters (kurios, G2962): for either he will hate the one, and love (agapaō, G25) the other; or else he will hold (antechomai, G472) to the one, and despise (kataphroneō, G2706) the other. Ye cannot serve (douleuō, G1398) God and mammon (mammōnas, G3126).'

Matthew 6:19-24 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.6.19-24>

The renewing of our minds is our work in cooperation with the Spirit of God that dwells within us. We must be willing to cast off the old and put on the new.

'For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, '

2 Corinthians 10:3-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.10.3-5>

'For though we walk (peripateō, G4043) in the flesh (sarx, G4561), we do not war (strateuomai, G4754) after the flesh: (for the weapons (hoplon, G3696) of our warfare (strateia, G4752) are not carnal (sarkikos, G4559), but mighty (dunatos, G1415) through God to the pulling down (kathairesis, G2506) of strong holds (ochurōma, G3794);) casting down (kathaireō, G2507) imaginations (logismos, G3053), and every high thing (hupsōma, G5313) that exalteth itself (epairō, G1869) against the knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) of God, and bringing into captivity (aichmalōtizō, G163) every thought (noēma, G3540) to the obedience (hupakoē, G5218) of Christ; '

2 Corinthians 10:3-5 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.10.3-5>

'I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. '

Romans 12:1-2 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.12.1-2>

'I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies (oiktirmos, G3628) of God, that ye present your bodies (sōma, G4983) a living (zaō, G2198) sacrifice (thusia, G2378), holy (hagios, G40), acceptable (euarestos, G2101) unto God, which is your reasonable (logikos, G3050) service (latreia, G2999). And be not conformed (suschēmatisō, G4964) to this world: but be ye transformed (metamorphoō, G3339) by the renewing (anakainōsis, G342) of your mind (nous, G3563), that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable (euarestos, G2101), and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God. '

Romans 12:1-2 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.12.1-2>

'until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ...Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. '

Ephesians 4:13,17-24 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.13,17-24>

'till we all come (katantaō, G2658) in the unity (henotēs, G1775) of the faith (pistis, G4102), and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, unto the measure of the stature (hēlikia, G2244) of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of Christ (Christos, G5547): ... This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk (peripateō, G4043) not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity (mataiotēs, G3153) of their mind (nous, G3563), having the understanding (dianoia, G1271) darkened (skotizō, G4654), being alienated (apallotrioō, G526) from the life (zōē, G2222) of God through the ignorance (agnoia, G52) that is in them, because of the blindness (pōrōsis, G4457) of their heart (kardia, G2588): who being past feeling (apalgeō, G524) have given themselves over (paradidōmi, G3860) unto lasciviousness (aselgeia, G766), to work all uncleanness (akatharsia, G167) with greediness. But ye have not so learned (manthanō, G3129) Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth (alētheia, G225) is in Jesus: that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old (palaios, G3820) man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed (ananēōō, G365) in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put (enduō, G1746) on the new (kainos, G2537) man, which after God is created (ktizō, G2936) in righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness (hosiōtēs, G3742).'

Ephesians 4:13,17-24 KJV

' Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. '

Colossians 3:5-17 ESV

'Mortify (nekroō, G3499) therefore your members (melos, G3196) which are upon the earth; fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), inordinate affection (pathos, G3806), evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience (apeitheia, G543): in the which ye also walked (peripateō, G4043) some time, when ye lived (zaō, G2198) in them. But now ye also put off (apotithēmi, G659) all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988), filthy communication (aischrologia, G148) out of your mouth (stoma, G4750). Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off (apekduomai, G554) the old man with his deeds (praxis, G4234); and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man, which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: where there is neither Greek (Hellēn, G1672) nor Jew, circumcision (peritomē, G4061) nor uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203), Barbarian (barbaros, G915), Scythian (Skuthēs, G4658), bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658): but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect (eklektos, G1588) of God, holy and beloved (agapaō, G25), bowels (splagchnon, G4698) of mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544), humbleness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012), meekness (praotēs, G4236), longsuffering

(makrothumia, G3115); forbearing (anechomai, G430) one another, and forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave (charizomai, G5483) you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity (agapē, G26), which is the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of perfectness (teleiōtēs, G5047). And let the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God rule (brabeuō, G1018) in your hearts (kardia, G2588), to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful (eucharistos, G2170). Let the word (logos, G3056) of Christ dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in you richly (plousiōs, G4146) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs, singing with grace (charis, G5485) in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do (poieō, G4160) in word (logos, G3056) or deed (ergon, G2041), do all in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) to God and the Father by him. 'Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. '

Philippians 2:12-13 ESV

'Wherefore, my beloved (agapētos, G27), as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out (katargazomai, G2716) your own salvation (sōtēria, G4991) with fear (phobos, G5401) and trembling (tromos, G5156). For it is God which worketh (energeō, G1754) in you both to will (thelō, G2309) and to do (energeō, G1754) of his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107).'

'For if ye live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561), ye shall die (apothnēskō, G599): but if ye through the Spirit do mortify (thanatoō, G2289) the deeds (praxis, G4234) of the body, ye shall live (zaō, G2198).'

Connected in Christ to the True Vine, we must choose to take in the Word of God, believe it, and act on it in faith during times of trial and opportunity.

' 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser... Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. '

John 15:1,4-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.1,4-5>

' I am the true (alēthinos, G228) vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092)... Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch (klēma, G2814) cannot bear (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590) of itself, except it abide (menō, G3306) in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide (menō, G3306) in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth (pherō, G5342) much fruit: for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do nothing. '

Ignited by our faith, the Spirit of God burns as a holy fire, and we are stirred up, separating out the dross from the pure gold of God. We must cooperate to remove the impurities, which changes us over time, one trial and one opportunity at a time, to become more like Jesus.

'so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. '

1 Peter 1:7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1PE.1.7>

'that the trial (dokimion, G1383) of your faith (pistis, G4102), being much more precious (timios, G5093) than of gold (chrusion, G5553) that perisheth, though it be tried (dokimazō, G1381) with fire, might be found (heuriskō, G2147) unto praise and honour and glory (doxa, G1391) at the appearing of Jesus Christ: '

'For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. '

2 Timothy 1:6-7 ESV

'Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5486) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995).'

2 Timothy 1:6-7 KJV

The Apostle Paul called this putting on the Lord Jesus Christ, or putting on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

'But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.'

Romans 13:14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.13.14>

'But put ye on (enduō, G1746) the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus Christ (Christos, G5547), and make (poieō, G4160) not provision (pronoia, G4307) for the flesh (sarx, G4561), to fulfil the lusts thereof.'

This is divine transmutation, two minds coming to operate as one — Christ in you.

'For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ...To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.'

Colossians 1:19,27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.1.19,27>

'For it pleased (eudokeō, G2106) the Father that in him should all fulness (plērōma, G4138) dwell (katoikeō, G2730); ...to whom God would make known what is the riches (ploutos, G4149) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of this mystery (mustērion, G3466) among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope (elpis, G1680) of glory (doxa, G1391):'

Colossians 1:19,27 KJV

This is God's way, just as the Father fused Jesus' consciousness into His by God's Spirit.

'So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel.'

John 5:19-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.5.19-20>

'Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, The Son can do (dunamai, G1410) nothing of himself, but what he seeth (blepō, G991) the Father do (poieō, G4160): for what things soever he doeth (poieō, G4160), these also doeth (poieō, G4160) the Son likewise. For the Father loveth (phileō, G5368) the Son, and sheweth (deiknuō, G1166) him all things that himself doeth (poieō, G4160): and he will shew (deiknuō, G1166) him greater works (ergon, G2041) than these, that ye may marvel.'

John 5:19-20 KJV

Just as the Father's will became Jesus' will, that same good will becomes ours by our choices.

How does our mind communicate with God? It happens through our quickened spirit, which interfaces with our mind. With our mind (or in our soul), we make decisions, we experience the world, we feel emotion, we remember the past, we envision the future, and we pray. Some of us may also pray with our spirit. The mind and spirit are two different processing centers, one of them joined directly in Christ to the divine.

'For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also.'

1 Corinthians 14:14-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.14.14-15>

'For if I pray in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100), my spirit prayeth, but my understanding (nous, G3563) is unfruitful (akarpōs, G175). What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding (nous, G3563) also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding (nous, G3563) also.'

1 Corinthians 14:14-15 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.14.14-15>

Aside from a place of communication with God, our spirit is a place of revelation that may come to us from Him.

'these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.'

1 Corinthians 2:10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.10>

'But God hath revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth (ereunaō, G2045) all things, yea, the deep things (bathos, G899) of God.'

1 Corinthians 2:10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.2.10>

Discernment of the spiritual, the unseen, can also come through the Spirit from God.

'Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ...to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.'

1 Corinthians 12:4,10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.4,10>

'Now there are diversities (diæresis, G1243) of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit... to another the working (energēma, G1755) of miracles (dunamis, G1411); to another prophecy (prophēteia, G4394); to another discerning (diakrisis, G1253) of spirits; to another divers kinds (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100); to another the interpretation of tongues: '

1 Corinthians 12:4,10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.12.4,10>

According to John Wesley, a leader of Methodism, Christian maturity brought to its end is 'to have "the mind which was in Christ" and to "walk as He walked": to have all the mind that was in Him and always to walk as He walked.' [italics are mine]

What was Jesus' mind like?

Lovely.

Brilliant.

Pure.

How did He cooperate with the Holy Spirit?

Perfectly.

As the exemplar.

What was His communication with God like?

They were as one, united in the Spirit.

Jesus perceived what His Father was doing, and Jesus performed that.

'how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.'

Acts 10:38 ESV

'how God anointed (chriō, G5548) Jesus (lēsous, G2424) of Nazareth with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151) and with power (dunamis, G1411): who went about (dierchomai, G1330) doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed (katadunastēuō, G2616) of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for God was with (meta, G3326) him.'

Prayer: Abide in me, Spirit of God, as I abide in You. Cooperating with your refining work, I lay hold of the mind of Christ and all of that mind.

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind... Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, '

Philippians 2:1-2,5 ESV

'If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426)... Father, show me what is true that I may worship You in spirit — fully alive — and in truth.

'But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.' '

'But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship (proskuneō, G4352) the Father in spirit and in truth (alētheia, G225): for the Father seeketh (zēteō, G2212) such to worship (proskuneō, G4352) him. 'For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will (thelēma, G2307), but the will (thelēma, G2307) of him that sent me.'

John 6:38 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.6.38>

'Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. "I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. '

'Sanctify (hagiazō, G37) them through thy truth (alētheia, G225): thy word (logos, G3056) is truth. As thou hast sent (apostellō, G649) me into the world (kosmos, G2889), even so have I also sent (apostellō, G649) them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify (hagiazō, G37) myself, that they also might be sanctified (hagiazō, G37) through the truth (alētheia, G225). Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) on me through their word (logos, G3056); that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent (apostellō, G649) me. And the glory (doxa, G1391) which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect (teleioō, G5048) in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved (agapaō, G25) them, as thou hast loved me. 'And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. He that saith, I know (ginōskō, G1097) him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar (pseustēs, G5583), and the truth (alētheia, G225) is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word (logos, G3056), in him verily (alēthōs, G230) is the love (agapē, G26) of God perfected (teleioō, G5048): hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth (menō, G3306) in him ought (opheilō, G3784) himself also so to walk (peripateō, G4043), even as he walked (peripateō, G4043).'

Day 6: Wisdom (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What is the wisdom of God? How does the Bible describe it?
2. How is natural wisdom described in the Bible? How did Solomon show wisdom?
3. What is the gift of wisdom? How have prophets of God shown the wisdom of God?
4. What is the greatest part of the secret and hidden wisdom of God, as the Apostle Paul described it?
5. What does it mean for Christ to be in you?

"Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.2.6-7.ESV>

'Howbeit we speak (laleō, G2980) wisdom (sophia, G4678) among them that are perfect (teleios, G5046): yet not the wisdom (sophia, G4678) of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought (katargeō, G2673): but we speak the wisdom (sophia, G4678) of God in a mystery (mustērion, G3466), even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory (doxa, G1391): '

1 Corinthians 2:6-7 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.2.6-7>

The Almighty God is praised for the depth and breadth of His wisdom. We have observed it in the creation and sustainment of life and the Universe.

'For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. '

Romans 1:18-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.1.18-20>

'For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold (katechō, G2722) the truth (alētheia, G225) in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest (phaneros, G5318) in them; for God hath shewed (phaneroō, G5319) it unto them. For the invisible things (aoratos, G517) of him from the creation of the world (kosmos, G2889) are clearly seen, being understood (noieō, G3539) by the things that are made (poiēma, G4161), even his eternal power (dunamis, G1411) and Godhead (theiotēs, G2305); so that they are without excuse (anapologētos, G379): ' Romans 1:18-20 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.1.18-20>

He has also given bits of wisdom to His children via natural and supernatural means. The quoted passage written by the Apostle Paul refers to natural wisdom as "a wisdom of this age" whereas supernatural wisdom is "a secret and hidden wisdom of God."

The "wisdom... of the rulers of this age" is the type of wisdom King Solomon sought in order to judge and govern well, and God answered his prayer, making him incredibly wise. He led his people in a rare time of sustained peace. This kind of wisdom is of benefit for all who are affected by the one made wise. God provides wisdom for the affairs of life.

'At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said, "Ask what I shall give you." And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant David my father, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you. And you have kept for him this great and steadfast love and have given him a son to sit on his throne this day. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child. I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of your people whom you have chosen, a great people, too many to be numbered or counted for multitude. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, that I may discern between good and evil, for who is able to govern this your great people?" It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. And God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no other king shall compare with you, all your days. And if you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days." And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.'

1 Kings 3:5-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1KI.3.5-15>

'In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon (shelômôh, H8010) in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy (chêsêd, H2617), according as he walked (hâlak, H1980) before thee in truth ('emeth, H571), and in righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666), and in uprightness of heart (lêbâb, H3824) with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness (chêsêd, H2617), that thou hast given (nâthan, H5415) him a son to sit (yâshab, H3427) on his throne (kissê', H3678), as it is this day. And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant ('ebed, H5650) king instead of David (dâvid, H1732) my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. Give therefore thy servant an understanding (shâma', H8085) heart (lêb, H3820) to judge (shâphat, H8199) thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people? And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment (mishpât, H4941); behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise (châkâm, H2450) and an understanding (bîyn, H995) heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour (kâbôd, H3519): so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. And if thou wilt walk (hâlak, H1980) in my ways (derek, H1870), to keep my statutes and my commandments (mitsvâh, H4687), as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant (berîyth, H1285) of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.'

1 Kings 3:5-15 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1KI.3.5-15>

The "secret and hidden wisdom of God" is a gift of God given by the Spirit to those He has birthed in the Spirit. The first part of this wisdom is spiritual truth, the greatest of which is "the riches of the glory of this mystery, which Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27).

'Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.1.24-29>

'who now rejoice in my sufferings (pathēma, G3804) for you, and fill up (antanaplēroō, G466) that which is behind (husterēma, G5303) of the afflictions (thlipsis, G2347) of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church (ekklēsia, G1577): whereof I am made a minister (diakonos, G1249), according to the dispensation (oikonomia, G3622) of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil (plēroō, G4137) the word (logos, G3056) of God; even the mystery (mustērion, G3466) which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints (hagios, G40): to whom God would make known what is the riches (ploutos, G4149) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of this mystery (mustērion, G3466) among the Gentiles; which is Christ (Christos, G5547) in you, the hope (elpis, G1680) of glory (doxa, G1391): whom we preach (kataggellō, G2605), warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); that we may present every man perfect (teleios, G5046) in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving (agōnizomai, G75) according to his working (energeia, G1753), which worketh (energeō, G1754) in me mightily (dunamis, G1411).'

Colossians 1:24-29 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.1.24-29>

Christ was the major purpose of God hidden throughout the time of the Old Testament and still hidden today from any that don't believe. He is the gift of God to those who believe.

'And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.'

2 Corinthians 4:3-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.4.3-6>

'But if our gospel (euaggelion, G2098) be hid (kaluptō, G2572), it is hid to them that are lost (apollumi, G622): in whom the god of this world hath blinded (tuphloō, G5186) the minds (noēma, G3540) of them which believe not (apistos, G571), lest the light (phōtismos, G5462) of the glorious (doxa, G1391) gospel of Christ, who is the image (eikōn, G1504) of God, should shine (augazō, G826) unto them. For we preach (kērussō, G2784) not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord (kurios, G2962); and ourselves your servants (doulos, G1401) for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light (phōs, G5457) to shine out of darkness (skotos, G4655), hath shined in our hearts (kardia, G2588), to give the light (phōtismos, G5462) of the knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God in the face (prosōpon, G4383) of Jesus Christ.'

2 Corinthians 4:3-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.4.3-6>

Christ is in each member of the church, spirit, soul, and body. When we are saved, we are each joined as one spirit to the Lord.

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. '

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

'But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151).'

1 Corinthians 6:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.6.17>

As for our soul, if led by the Holy Spirit, we can take on Christ's mind, emotions and will. As for the body, we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones (Ephesians 5:30, KJV); the life of Jesus may be made manifest there, renewing us day by day.

'because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. '

Ephesians 5:30-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.30-32>

'for we are members (melos, G3196) of his body (sōma, G4983), of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones (osteon ostoun, G3747). For this cause shall a man leave (kataleipō, G2641) his father and mother, and shall be joined (proskollaō, G4347) unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). This is a great mystery (mustērion, G3466): but I speak concerning Christ (Christos, G5547) and the church (ekklēsia, G1577).'

Ephesians 5:30-32 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.30-32>

'For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh... So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day.'

2 Corinthians 4:11,16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.4.11,16>

'For we which live (zaō, G2198) are alway delivered unto death (thanatos, G2288) for Jesus' sake, that the life (zōē, G2222) also of Jesus might be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) in our mortal flesh (sarx, G4561)... For which cause we faint (ekkakeō, G1573) not; but though our outward man perish (diaptheirō, G1311), yet the inward man (esōthen, G2081) is renewed (anakainoō, G341) day by day.'

2 Corinthians 4:11,16 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.4.11,16>

'I am coming soon. Hold fast what you have, so that no one may seize your crown. The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God. Never shall he go out of it, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name.'

Revelation 3:11-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.3.11-12>

'Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast (krateō, G2902) which thou hast (echō, G2192), that no man take thy crown. Him that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) will I make a pillar (stulos, G4769) in the temple (naos, G3485) of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.'

Revelation 3:11-12 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.3.11-12>

God also gives words of wisdom to some: supernatural revelations of the mind and purpose of God communicated by the Holy Spirit. These are pieces of God's wisdom imparted at particular times to men and women. This explains any foretelling that is given in prophecy, including the prophecies recorded in the Old and New Testaments. In this type of revelation, God reveals part of His purposes, objectives and plans for His people. Each part is akin to a word in the true story of God's love for the world that spans all of history and the future of time.

'Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, '

1 Corinthians 12:4-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.4-8>

'Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal (sumpherō, G4851). For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by the same Spirit; '

Prayer: I praise You, O Lord, for the depth of the riches of your wisdom. Your judgments and Your ways are past finding out. Thank You for showing me the depths of Your gift in Jesus Christ, who is in me.

'Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! '

Romans 11:33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.11.33>

'O the depth of the riches (ploutos, G4149) both of the wisdom (sophia, G4678) and knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) of God! how unsearchable (anexereunētos, G419) are his judgments, and his ways past finding out (anexichniastos, G421)! '

I am a doer of Your Word, and I will follow You in what You have revealed.

'But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.22-25>

'But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law (nomos, G3551) of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3107) in his deed (poiēses, G4162).'

James 1:22-25 KJV

' "Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.46-49>

' And why call ye me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, and do not the things which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth (akouō, G191) my sayings (logos, G3056), and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will shew you to whom he is like: he is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation (themelios, G2310) on a rock (petra, G4073): and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake (saleuō, G4531) it: for it was founded (themelioō, G2311) upon a rock (petra, G4073). But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell (piptō, G4098); and the ruin of that house was great.'

I ask for wisdom from You, God, not doubting, but confident that you want me to take it from you in faith.

' If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. '

James 1:5-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.5-8>

'If any of you lack (leipō, G3007) wisdom (sophia, G4678), let him ask (aiteō, G154) of God, that giveth (didōmi, G1325) to all men liberally (haplōs, G574), and upbraideth (oneidezō, G3679) not; and it shall be given (didōmi, G1325) him. But let him ask (aiteō, G154) in faith (pistis, G4102), nothing wavering (diakrinō, G1252). For he that wavereth (diakrinō, G1252) is like a wave (kludōn, G2830) of the sea driven with the wind (anemizō, G216) and tossed (rhipizō, G4494). For let not that man think that he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) any thing of the Lord (kurios, G29620). A double minded (dipsuchos, G1374) man is unstable (akatastatos, G182) in all his ways (hodos, G3598).'

Day 7: Knowledge (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What are the values of the world? What aspects of human tradition are set up against the knowledge of God?
2. What does the Bible teach about knowledge as an ability? As a gift?
3. What does it mean to be anointed? According to scripture, are you anointed?
4. Of what are you afraid? How did the fear of the apostles change after they received the Holy Spirit?
5. Do others tend to seek to know God as He is or as we would like Him to be? How about you?

'But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all have knowledge... But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him. '

1 John 2:20,27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.2.20,27>

'But ye have (echō, G2192) an unction (chrisma, G5545) from the Holy One (hagios, G40), and ye know (eidō, G1492) all things... But the anointing (chrisma, G5545) which ye have received (lambanō, G2983) of him abideth (menō, G3306) in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing (chrisma, G5545) teacheth you of all things, and is truth (alēthes, G227), and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide (menō, G3306) in him. '

Solomon wrote that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge."

'The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.'

Proverbs 1:7 ESV

'The fear (yir'âh, H3374) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) is the beginning (rê'shîyth, H7225) of knowledge (da'ath, H1847): But fools despise wisdom (chokmâh, H2451) and instruction (mûsâr, H4148).'

Typically, our fear may be of many other things, including fear of failure, fear of the judgment of others, fear of evil, and fear of death. Fear is a major motivator!

'Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me that I may bow before the Lord ." And Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you. For you have rejected the word of the Lord , and the Lord has rejected you from being king over Israel." '

'And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared (yârê', H3372) the people, and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD . And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected (mâ'as, H3988) the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD , and the LORD hath rejected (mâ'as, H3988) thee from being king over Israel.'

'Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess (homologeō, G3670) him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue (aposunagōgos, G656): for they loved (agapaō, G25) the praise (doxa, G1391) of men more than the praise (doxa, G1391) of God.'

To see God in His proper place as the One who will judge all is to see what is true and to begin to build life on what is real.

'In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops. "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows. "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say." 'In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven (zumē, G2219) of the Pharisees (Pharisaioi, G5330), which is hypocrisy (hupokrisis, G5272). For there is nothing covered (sugkaluptō, G4780), that shall not be revealed (apokaluptō, G601); neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light (phōs, G5457); and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed (kērussō, G2784) upon the housetops (dōma, G1430).

And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid (phobeō, G5399) of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed (apokteinō, G615) hath power (exousia, G1849) to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess (homologeō, G3670) me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: but he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth (blasphēmeō, G987) against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought (merimnaō, G3309) how or what thing ye shall answer (apologeomai, G626), or what ye shall say: for the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.'

"For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For the invisible things (aoratos, G517) of him from the creation of the world (kosmos, G2889) are clearly seen, being understood (noieō, G3539) by the things that are made (poiēma, G4161), even his eternal power (dunamis, G1411) and Godhead (theiotēs, G2305); so that they are without excuse (anapologētos, G379): '

It's also important to know our identity in Christ; we are God's glory.

If we build our life on the values of the world, we reject God and what He has for us. These values include: be true to yourself, follow your dreams, speak your truth, and it's not wrong if it doesn't hurt anyone. Or we might be inclined to value ourselves by our successes in the eyes of others. The values of the world that lift up self or human tradition are opposed to those of God.

'And he said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, "This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men." And he said to them, "You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.' But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever you would have gained from me is Corban"' (that is, given to God) — then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, thus making void the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And many such things you do.'"

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.7.6-13>

'He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias (Hēsaias, G2268) prophesied of you hypocrites (hupokritēs, G5273), as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, But their heart (kardia, G2588) is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, Teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold (krateō, G2902) the tradition (paradosis, G3862) of men, as the washing (baptismos, G909) of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject (atheteō, G114) the commandment of God, that ye may keep (tēreō, G5083) your own tradition (paradosis, G3862). For Moses said, Honour (timaō, G5091) thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth (kakologeō, G2551) father or mother, let him die the death: but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban (korban, G2878), that is to say, a gift (dōron, G1435), by whatsoever thou mightest be profited (ōpheleō, G5623) by me; he shall be free. And ye suffer (aphiēmi, G863) him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; making the word (logos, G3056) of God of none effect (akuroō, G208) through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.'

Knowledge is good, but to pursue only natural knowledge obtained through science, the senses, and reason is a mistake. People tend to look for evidence of things they would like to believe, and, in our sinful nature, we would prefer to put self and extensions of self at the center of everything. True to the Apostle Paul's prophecy in 2 Timothy 3, we live in a world of self-interest and of lovers of self; if we don't pursue God first, we are unable to arrive at a knowledge of the truth.

'For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.'

Philippians 2:21 ESV

'For all seek (zēteō, G2212) their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.'
Philippians 2:21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP.2.21>

'But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2TI.3.1-7>

'This know also, that in the last days perilous (chalepos, G5467) times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves (philautos, G5367), covetous (philarguros, G5366), boasters (alazōn, G213), proud (huperēphanos, G5244), blasphemers (blasphēmos, G989), disobedient to parents, unthankful (acharistos, G884), unholy (anosios, G462), without natural affection (astorgos, G794), trucebreakers (aspondos, G786), false accusers (diabolos, G1228), incontinent (akratēs, G193), fierce, despisers of those that are good (aphilagathos, G865), traitors, heady (propetēs, G4312), highminded (tuphoō, G5187), lovers of pleasures (philēdonos, G5369) more than lovers of God (philotheos, G5377); having a form (morphōsis, G3446) of godliness (eusebeia, G2150), but denying (arneomai, G720) the power (dunamis, G1411) thereof: from such turn away (apotrepō, G665). For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able (dunamai, G1410) to come to the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of the truth (alētheia, G225).'

2 Timothy 3:1-7 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2TI.3.1-7>

A lot of us know Jesus' words regarding judging others, but we don't think rightly about how God may judge us. It's foolish to think that God will judge everyone, each by their own concepts of what is real, what is true, and what He expects. The fear of the Lord as He has revealed Himself and His expectations is the beginning of knowledge, the foundation upon which to build.

' "Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. '

Matthew 7:1-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.7.1-5>

' Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote (karp̄hos, G2595) that is in thy brother's eye (ophthalmos, G3788), but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite (hupokritēs, G5273), first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.'

As prophesied by Isaiah, Jesus has had "the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord." To those that are born again by the Spirit of God, Jesus has given them the anointing of the Holy Spirit, who has all knowledge.

'There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots shall bear fruit. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord . And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord . He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear, but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his loins.'

As His disciples, it is our work to reject falsehood and seek truth, cooperating with God in the renewing of our minds.

'For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,'

2 Corinthians 10:3-5 ESV

For though we walk (peripateō, G4043) in the flesh (sarx, G4561), we do not war (strateuomai, G4754) after the flesh: (for the weapons (hoplon, G3696) of our warfare (strateia, G4752) are not carnal (sarkikos, G4559), but mighty (dunatos, G1415) through God to the pulling down (kathairesis, G2506) of strong holds (ochurōma, G3794);) casting down (kathaireō, G2507) imaginations (logismos, G3053), and every high thing (hupsōma, G5313) that exalteth itself (epairō, G1869) against the knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) of God, and bringing into captivity (aichmalōtizō, G163) every thought (noēma, G3540) to the obedience (hupakoē, G5218) of Christ; '

'I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies (oiktirmos, G3628) of God, that ye present your bodies (sōma, G4983) a living (zaō, G2198) sacrifice (thusia, G2378), holy (hagios, G40), acceptable (euarestos, G2101) unto God, which is your reasonable (logikos, G3050) service (latreia, G2999). And be not conformed (suschematizō, G4964) to this world: but be ye transformed (metamorphoō, G3339) by the renewing (anakainōsis, G342) of your mind (nous, G3563), that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable (euarestos, G2101), and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God. Romans 12:1-2 KJV

'Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. '

Ephesians 4:17-24 ESV

'This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord (kurios, G2962), that ye henceforth walk (peripateō, G4043) not as other Gentiles (ethos, G1484) walk, in the vanity

(mataiotēs, G3153) of their mind (nous, G3563), having the understanding (dianoia, G1271) darkened (skotizō, G4654), being alienated (apallotrioō, G526) from the life (zōē, G2222) of God through the ignorance (agnoia, G52) that is in them, because of the blindness (pōrōsis, G4457) of their heart (kardia, G2588): who being past feeling (apalgeō, G524) have given themselves over unto lasciviousness (aselgeia, G766), to work all uncleanness (akatharsia, G167) with greediness (pleonexia, G4124). But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old man, which is corrupt (phtheirō, G5351) according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed (ananēōō, G365) in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new (kainos, G2537) man, which after God is created (ktizō, G2936) in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness.'

Ephesians 4:17-24 KJV

' Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. '

Colossians 3:5-11 ESV

'Mortify (nekroō, G3499) therefore your members (melos, G3196) which are upon the earth; fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), inordinate affection (pathos, G3806), evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience (apeitheia, G543): in the which ye also walked (peripateō, G4043) some time, when ye lived (zaō, G2198) in them. But now ye also put off (apotithēmi, G659) all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988), filthy communication (aischrologia, G148) out of your mouth (stoma, G4750). Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off (apekduomai, G554) the old man with his deeds (praxis, G4234); and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man, which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: where there is neither Greek (Hellēn, G1672) nor Jew, circumcision (peritomē, G4061) nor uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203), Barbarian (barbaros, G915), Scythian (Skuthēs, G4658), bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658): but Christ is all, and in all. Choosing to be led by the Spirit causes those in Christ's body to think in a new way, with a sound mind to see clearly, which replaces a spirit of fear.

'For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.'

2 Timothy 1:6-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2Ti.1.6-7>

'Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5486) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995).'

As we choose to abide in Christ, the Vine, the Spirit of God guides us into spiritual truth as we seek it, filling us with the knowledge of His will.

'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser... Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.'

John 15:1,4-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.1,4-5>

'I am the true (alēthinos, G228) vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092)... Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch (klēma, G2814) cannot bear (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590) of itself, except it abide (menō, G3306) in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide (menō, G3306) in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth (pherō, G5342) much fruit: for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do nothing.'

John 15:1,4-5 KJV

'And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. '

Colossians 1:9-14 ESV

'For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire (aiteō, G154) that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of his will (thelēma, G2307) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678) and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) understanding (sunesis, G4907); that ye might walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the Lord (kurios, G2962) unto all pleasing, being fruitful (karpophoreō, G2592) in every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041), and increasing (auxanō, G837) in the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of God; strengthened (dunamoō, G1412) with all might (dunamis, G1411), according to his glorious (doxa, G1391) power (kratos, G2904), unto all patience (hupomonē, G5281) and longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115) with joyfulness (chara, G5479); giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) unto the Father, which hath made us meet (hikanoō, G2427) to be partakers (meris, G3310) of the inheritance (klēros, G2819) of the saints (hagios, G40) in light (phōs, G5457): who hath delivered (rhuomai, G4506) us from the power (exousia, G1849) of darkness (skotos, G4655), and hath translated (methistēmi, G3179) us into the kingdom (basileia, G932) of his dear (agapē, G26) Son (uihos, G5207): in whom we have redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) through his blood, even the forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins (hamartia, G266):'

The Holy Spirit also reveals words of knowledge to some within His church in order to better enable Jesus' continuing ministry. God has all knowledge, and the Spirit of God shares bits of this knowledge with parts of His church that reveal things in the present or the past. These words come to them as intuition through their spirits. There are many examples of servants of God given special knowledge from God in the Old and New Testaments, and this continues today for the building up of the church.

'Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, '

1 Corinthians 12:4-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.4-8>

'Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal (sumpherō, G4851). For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by the same Spirit; '

'Nevertheless I tell you the truth (alētheia, G225); It is expedient (sumpherō, G4851) for you that I go away (aperchomai, G565): for if I go not away, the Comforter (paraklētos, G3875) will not come unto you; but if I depart (poreuomai, G4198), I will send (pempō, G3992) him unto (pros, G4314) you. And when he is come (erchomai, G2064), he will reprove (elegchō, G1651) the world of sin (hamartia, G266), and of righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343), and of judgment (krisis, G2920): '

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Prayer: I praise You, God, that You have all knowledge. I thank You that I am part of Your beloved and that You have opened my blind eyes to see. I reject the values and the lies of the world, embracing instead the truth You have revealed.

'Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.'

'Love (agapaō, G25) not the world (kosmos, G2889), neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love (agapē, G26) of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561), and the lust of the eyes (ophthalmos, G3788), and the pride (alazoneia, G212) of life (bios, G979), is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away (paragō, G3855), and the lust (epithumia, G1939) thereof: but he that doeth (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of God abideth (menō, G3306) for ever.'

I abide in You, Jesus. Abide also in me. Holy Spirit, I ask in faith for knowledge from You according to the promise of Your Word. Thank you for the mind of Christ.

'Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

1 Corinthians 2:12-16 ESV

'Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know (eidō, G1492) the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words (logos, G3056) which man's wisdom (sophia, G4678) teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things (pneumatikos, G4152) with spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152). But the natural man (psuchikos, G5591) receiveth (dechomai, G1209) not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know (ginōskō, G1097) them, because they are spiritually discerned (pneumatikōs, G4153). But he that is spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

Return to Day 7

Day 8: Discernment (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How does our society and how do we sometimes show our belief that evil and the supernatural, as presented in the Bible, are not real?
2. How does the Bible describe the ability and the gift of discernment?
3. How did Bible characters outside of Jesus Christ show discernment?
4. What should our response be to evil?
5. What does it mean to be more than a conqueror in Christ?

"As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.16.16-18.ESV>

'And it came to pass, as we went to prayer (proseuchē, G4335), a certain damsel possessed (echō, G2192) with a spirit of divination (Puthōn, G4436) met us, which brought her masters (kurios, G2962) much gain by soothsaying (manteuomai, G3132): The same followed Paul and us, and cried (krazō, G2896), saying, These men are the servants (doulos, G1401) of the most high (huposistos, G5310) God, which shew (kataggellō, G2605) unto us the way (hodos, G3598) of salvation (sōtēria, G4991). And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved (diaponeō, G1278), turned and said to the spirit, I command (paraggellō, G3853) thee in the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ to come out (exerchomai, G1831) of her. And he came out (exerchomai, G1831) the same hour. '

Acts 16:16-18 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.16.16-18>

The supernatural is real, as are spirits. The Sadducees were Jewish teachers of the law who denied that the supernatural was real. They witnessed many of the miracles of Jesus right before their eyes, yet did not believe in the supernatural nor in resurrection.

'For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all. '

Acts 23:8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.23.8>

'For the Sadducees (Saddoukaioi, G4523) say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit (pneuma, G4151): but the Pharisees confess both. '

Acts 23:8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.23.8>

Less has changed 2000 years later than some may think. Faith is fundamentally the decision to believe in God and His word and act on it; without it, it is impossible to please God.

Hebrews 11:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/HEB.11.6>

'But without faith (pistis, G4102) it is impossible (adunatos, G102) to please him : for he that cometh to God must believe (pisteuō, G4100) that he is, and that he is a rewarder (misthapodotēs, G3406) of them that diligently seek (ekzēteō, G1567) him. '

Hebrews 11:6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/HEB.11.6>

God clearly has the ability of discernment in all things since He knows all things.

'For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. '

Hebrews 4:12-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/HEB.4.12-13>

'For the word (logos, G3056) of God is quick (zaō, G2198), and powerful (energēs, G1756), and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul (psuchē, G5590) and spirit (pneuma, G4151), and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner (kritkos, G2924) of the thoughts and intents (ennoia, G1771) of the heart (kardia, G2588). Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked (gumnos, G1131) and opened (trachēlizō, G5136) unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.'

Hebrews 4:12-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/HEB.4.12-13>

As men and women made in His image and likeness, He has shared discernment of the spiritual as a gift to some in His church, unusual as it may seem to some of us.

'Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ...to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.'

1 Corinthians 12:4,10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.4,10>

'Now there are diversities (diaresis, G1243) of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit... to another the working (energēma, G1755) of miracles (dunamis, G1411); to another prophecy (prophēteia, G4394); to another discerning (diakrisis, G1253) of spirits; to another divers kinds (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100); to another the interpretation of tongues: '

1 Corinthians 12:4,10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.12.4,10>

He has also given some more natural discernment than others; this has to do with abilities rather than spiritual gifts, but natural discernment is also of significant value.

Jesus exhibited impressive discernment on many recorded occasions during His ministry.

'And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven." Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, "Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you question these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your bed and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" —he said to the paralytic—"I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home." And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"'

Mark 2:5-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.2.5-12>

'When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy (paralutikos, G3885), Son, thy sins be forgiven (aphiēmi, G863) thee. But there were certain of the scribes (grammateus, G1122) sitting there, and reasoning (dialogizomai, G1260) in their hearts (kardia, G2588), Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies (blasphēmia, G988)? who can forgive sins but God only? And immediately when Jesus perceived (epiginōskō, G1921) in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise (egeirō, G1453), and take up (airō, G142) thy bed, and walk (peripateō, G4043)? But that ye may know (eidō, G1492) that the Son of man hath power (exousia, G1849) on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way (hupagō, G5217) into thine house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth (exerchomai, G1831) before (enantion, G1726) them all; insomuch that they were all amazed (existēmi, G1839, and glorified (doxazō, G1392) God, saying, We never saw (eidō, G1492) it on this fashion. '

Mark 2:5-12 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.2.5-12>

There were also those who came before Him and those who came after Him whose discernment was astounding, including Elisha and the Apostle Paul.

'And he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and seize him." It was told him, "Behold, he is in Dothan." So he sent there horses and chariots and a great army, and they came by night and surrounded the city. When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. And the servant said, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?" He said, "Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." Then Elisha prayed and said, "O Lord, please open his eyes that he may see." So the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

2 Kings 6:13-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2KI.6.13-17>

'And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed (nâqaph, H5362) the city about. And when the servant (shârath, H8334) of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host (chayil, H2428) compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant (na'ar, H5288) said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? And he answered, Fear (yârê', H3372) not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. And Elisha ('elîshâ', H477) prayed (pâlal, H6419), and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes ('ayin, H5869), that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire ('êsh, H784) round about Elisha. '

The passage above is about a moment in the life of the Apostle Paul. While God can give words of wisdom to His people that show His future purpose, there are evil spirits that tell the future to some as well.

'Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same

God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, '

'Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal (sumpherō, G4851). For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by the same Spirit; '

(King Saul consulted such a medium in 1 Samuel 28, for example.)

'The Philistines assembled and came and encamped at Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa. When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. And when Saul inquired of the Lord, the Lord did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets. Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, there is a medium at En-dor." So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went, he and two men with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine for me by a spirit and bring up for me whomever I shall name to you." ...Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up Samuel for me." ...Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress, for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams. Therefore I have summoned you to tell me what I shall do." '

1 Samuel 28:4-8,11,15 ESV

'And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa. And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid (yârê', H3372), and his heart (lêb, H3820) greatly trembled. And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams (chalôm, H2472), nor by Urim ('ûrîym, H224), nor by prophets. Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit ('ôb, H178), that I may go to her, and enquire (dârash, H1875) of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor. And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine (qâsam, H7080) unto me by the familiar spirit ('ôb, H178), and bring me him up ('âlâh, H5927), whom I shall name unto thee. ...Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. ...And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted (râqaz, H7264) me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known (yâda', H3045) unto me what I shall do. Paul ran into such a person during his ministry. Using the instruction and repeated example of Jesus to His disciples, Paul used the faith of the Son of God that was in him (Galatians 2:20, KJV) to command the spirit to come out of her, and it did.

'On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it. ...As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered." And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.11.12-14,20-24>

'And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry (peinaō, G3983): and seeing a fig tree (sukē, G4808) afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet . And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up (xērainō, G3583) from the roots. And Peter (Petros, G4074) calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master (rhabbi, G4461), behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst (kataraomai, G2672) is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain (oros, G3735), Be thou removed (airō, G142), and be thou cast (ballō, G906) into the sea; and shall not doubt (diakrinō, G1252) in his heart (kardia, G2588), but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith (legō, G3004) shall come to pass (ginomai, G1096); he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray, believe that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have them.'

'That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "He took our illnesses and bore our diseases."'

Matthew 8:16-17 ESV

'When the even (opsios, G3798) was come, they brought (prospherō, G4374) unto him many that were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139): and he cast out (ekballō, G1544) the spirits with his word (logos, G3056), and healed (therapeuō, G2323) all that were sick (kakōs, G2560): that it might be fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) which was spoken by Esaias (Hēsaias, G2268) the prophet, saying, Himself took (lambanō, G2983) our infirmities (astheneia, G769), and bare (bastazō, G941) our sicknesses (nosos, G3554).'

Matthew 8:16-17 KJV

'And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."'

Mark 9:25-29 ESV

'When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked (epitmaō, G2008) the foul (akathartos, G169) spirit, saying (legō, G3004) unto him, Thou dumb (alalos, G216) and deaf (kōphos, G2974) spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out (exerchomai, G1831) of him, and enter (eiserchomai, G1525) no more into him. And the spirit cried (krazō, G2896), and rent (sparassō, G4682) him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took (krateō, G2902) him by the hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted (egeirō, G1453) him up; and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.'

'I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.'

Galatians 2:20 ESV

"I am crucified with (sustaurōō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me."

We should also notice that Paul and Jesus did not make a big deal about evil, because Jesus had it defeated. They simply and confidently told it to get lost, and it did.

'And they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue and was teaching. And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying out with a loud voice, came out of him. And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." And at once his fame spread everywhere throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.'

Mark 1:21-28 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.1.21-28>

'And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. And they were astonished (ekplēssō, G1605) at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority (exousia, G1849), and not as the scribes. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit; and he cried out (anakrazō, G349), saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy (apollumi, G622) us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One (hagios, G40) of God. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) him, saying, Hold thy peace (phimoō, G5392), and come out (exerchomai, G1831) of him. And when the unclean spirit had torn (sparassō, G4682) him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. And they were all amazed (thambeō, G2284), insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority (exousia, G1849) commandeth (epitassō, G2004) he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey (hupakouō, G5219) him. And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee. '

In Him, we are more than conquerors. And so we choose to lift up Jesus. [There is a link to music embedded in the underlined text:]

'What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.'

Romans 8:31-39 ESV

'What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give (charizomai, G5483) us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect (eklektos, G1588)? It is God that justifieth (dikaioō, G1344). Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God, who also maketh intercession (entugchanō, G1793) for us. Who shall separate (chōrizō, G5563) us from the love (agapē, G26) of Christ? shall tribulation (thilpsis, G2347), or distress (stenochōria, G4730), or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed (thanatoō, G2289) all the day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors (hupernikaō, G5245) through him that loved (agapaō, G25) us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities (archē, G746), nor powers (dunamis, G1411), nor things present, nor things to come, nor height (hupsōma, G5313), nor depth (bathos, G899), nor any other creature (ktsis, G2937), shall be able to separate (chōrizō, G5563) us from the love (agapē, G26) of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (kurios, G2962).'

Prayer: Thank You, God, for who You have made me in Christ. Thank You for Your Spirit and Your gifts that You have given to Your church. Thank You for making me an ambassador of Christ.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.'

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in Christ (Christos, G5547), reconciling the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for Christ, as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray (deomai, G1189) you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God.'

Thank you for Your confidence in me to make me a partner in grace with You.

'I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.'

Philippians 1:3-11 ESV

'I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer (deēsis, G1162) of mine for you all making (poieō, G4160) request (deēsis, G1162) with joy (chara, G5479), for your fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) in the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) from the first day until now; being confident (peithō, G3982) of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041) in you will perform (epiteleō, G2005) it until the day (hēmera, G2250) of Jesus Christ: even as it is meet (dikaios, G1342) for me to think (phroneō, G5426) this of you all, because I have (echō, G2192) you in my heart (kardia, G2588); inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers (sugkoinōnos, G4791) of my grace (charis, G5485). For God is my record, how greatly I long after (epipotheō, G1971) you all in the bowels (splagchnon, G4698) of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your love (agapē, G26) may abound (perisseuō, G4052) yet more and more in knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) and in all judgment (aisthēsis, G144); that ye may approve (dokimazō, G1381) things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere (eilikrinēs, G1506) and without offence (aproskopos, G677) till the day of Christ; being filled (plēroō, G4137) with the fruits (karpos, G2590) of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343), which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory (doxa, G1391) and praise of God.'

'Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

Which things also we speak, not in the words (logos, G3056) which man's wisdom (sophia, G4678) teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things (pneumatikos, G4152) with spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152). But the natural man (psuchikos, G5591) receiveth (dechomai, G1209) not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know (ginōskō, G1097) them, because they are spiritually discerned (pneumatikōs, G4153). But he that is spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

Return to Day 8

Day 9: Purpose (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Do you agree that we all want to understand our purpose and live purpose-driven lives?
2. As Christ followers, what is our purpose?
3. What is the purpose of prayer?
4. How does the indwelling Holy Spirit help you to live a purpose-driven life?
5. Is God's will for your life today clear enough? If so, what is God's will for you today?

"Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:9-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.9-10.ESV>

'After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom (basilea, G932) come. Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done in earth, as it is in heaven.'

Matthew 6:9-10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.6.9-10>

The best selling Christian book next to the Bible, which has sold over 5 billion copies, is The Purpose Driven Life, having sold over 50 million copies in 85 languages. We all want to understand our purpose and live purpose-driven lives.

God has a purpose for life, and He has shared that purpose with His children. It was Jesus' purpose as well: to do the will of God and all of the will of God for the glory of God. His will is for the kingdom of God to come so that God's will is done on earth as it is in heaven.

We are to make His purpose our purpose. His will is to become our will. The purpose of prayer is to become one with God, connecting with Him in order to do His will.

'And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, of whom he testified and said, 'I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' '

Acts 13:22 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.13.22>

'And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart (kardia, G2588), which shall fulfil (poieō, G4160) all my will (thelēma, G2307).'

Acts 13:22 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.13.22>

'Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor." '

'In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will (thelēma, G2307) of him that sent me, and to finish (teleioō, G5048) his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest (therismos, G2326). And he that reapeth receiveth (lambanō, G2983) wages (misthos, G3408), and gathereth fruit unto life (zōē, G2222) eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. Jesus showed what His followers should do and expected them to do it.

'And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. These twelve Jesus sent forth (apostellō, G649), and commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 'And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him." And Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me." And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

Matthew 17:14-20 ESV

'And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on my son: for he is lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure (therapeuō, G2323) him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistis, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the devil (daimonion, G1140); and he departed (exerchomai, G1831) out of him: and the child was cured (therapeuō, G2323) from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out (ekballō, G1544)? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, If ye have faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove (metabainō, G3327) hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible (adunateō, G101) unto you.'

Matthew 17:14-20 KJV

'After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves... Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' ..." "The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.'

'After these things the Lord (kurios, G2962) appointed (anadeiknumi, G322) other seventy also, and sent (apostellō, G649) them two and two before his face into every city and place (topos, G5117), whither he himself would come (erchomai, G2064). Therefore said he unto them, The harvest (therismos, G2326) truly is great, but the labourers (ergatēs, G2040) are few: pray ye (deomai, G1189) therefore the Lord (kurios, G2962) of the harvest (therismos, G2326), that he would send forth (ekballō, G1544) labourers (ergatēs, G2040) into his harvest. Go your ways (hupagō, G5217): behold, I send you forth (apostellō, G649) as lambs among wolves (lukos, G3074)... And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive (dechomai, G1209) you, eat such things as are set before (paratithēmi, G3908) you: and heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (asthenēs, G772) that are therein, and say (legō, G3004) unto them, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto you... He that heareth (akouō, G191) you heareth me; and he that despiseth (atheteō, G114) you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent (apostellō, G649) me. And the seventy returned again with joy (chara, G5479), saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), even the devils (daimonion, G1140) are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto us through thy name (onoma, G3686). And he said unto them, I beheld (theōreō, G2334) Satan (Satanas, G4567) as lightning (astrapē, G796) fall (piptō, G4098) from heaven. Behold, I give (didōmi, G1325) unto you power (exousia, G1849) to tread (pateō, G3961) on serpents (ophis, G3789) and scorpions (skorprios, G4651), and over all the power (dunamis, G1411) of the enemy (echtros, G2190): and nothing shall by any means hurt (adikeō, G91) you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto you; but rather rejoice (chairō, G5463), because your names are written in heaven. In that hour Jesus rejoiced (agalliaō, G21) in spirit, and said, I thank (exomologeō, G1843) thee, O Father, Lord (kurios, G2962) of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise (sophos, G4680) and prudent (sunetos, G4908), and hast revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto babes (nēpios, G3516): even so, Father; for so it seemed (ginomai, G1096) good (eudokia, G2107) in thy sight.'

Regarding this, the Apostle Peter said, "The same promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself."

'Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.' Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself." 'Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord (kurios, G2962) and Christ (Christos, G5547). Now when they heard this, they were pricked (katanussō, G2660) in their heart (kardia, G2588), and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent (metanoeō, G3340), and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission (aphesis, G859) of sins, and ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) the gift (dōrea, G1431) of the Holy Ghost. For the promise (epaggelia, G1860) is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call (proskaleomai, G4341). And with many other words (logos, G3056) did he testify (diamarturomai, G1263) and exhort (parakaleō, G3870), saying, Save (sōzō, G4982) yourselves from this untoward (skolios, G4646) generation. Then they that gladly (asmenōs, G780) received (apodechomai, G588) his word (logos, G3056) were baptized (baptizō, G907); and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls (psuchē, G5590).'

Acts 2:36-41 KJV

No one needs to stand in a holding pattern while they seek God's specific will or purpose for their life. There is enough that has been made clear about what we are to do. The Apostle James said, "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22).

'Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures... Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. If anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.'

James 1:18,21-27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.18,21-27>

'Of his own will (boulomai, G1014) begat (apokueō, G616) he us with the word (logos, G3056) of truth (alētheia, G225), that we should be a kind of firstfruits (aparchē, G536) of his creatures (ktisma, G2938)... Wherefore lay apart (apotithēmi, G659) all filthiness (rhaparia, G4507) and superfluity (perisseia, G4050) of naughtiness (kakia, G2549), and receive (dechomai, G1209) with meekness (prautēs, G4240) the engrafted (emphutos, G1721) word (logos, G3056), which is able to save (sōzō, G4982) your souls (psuchē, G5590). But be (ginomai, G1096) ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh (parakuptō, G3879) into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law (nomos, G3551) of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth (paramenō, G3887) therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer (poiētēs, G4163) of the work (ergon, G2041), this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3107) in his deed (poiēsis, G4162). If any man among you seem to be religious (thrēskos, G2357), and bridleth (chalinagōgeō, G5468) not his tongue (glōssa, G1100), but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion (thrēskeia, G2356) is vain (mataios, G3152). Pure (katharos, G2513) religion (thrēskeia, G2356) and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit (episkeptomai, G1980) the fatherless (orphanos, G3737) and widows (chēra, G5503) in their affliction (thlipsis, G2347), and to keep himself unspotted (aspilos, G784) from the world (kosmos, G2889).'

'“For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit, for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thornbushes, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. “Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.”

Luke 6:43-49 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.43-49>

'For a good (kalos, G2570) tree bringeth not forth (poieō, G4160) corrupt (sapos, G4550) fruit (karpos, G2590); neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good (kalos, G2570) fruit. For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. A good (agathos, G18) man out of the good treasure (thēsauros, G2344) of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil (ponēros, G4190) man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. And why call ye me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, and do (poieō, G4160) not the things which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will shew you to whom he is like: he is like a man which built (oikodomeō, G3618) an house, and digged deep (bathunō, G900), and laid the foundation (themelios, G2310) on a rock (petros, G4073): and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded (themelioō, G2311) upon a rock (petra, G4073). But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth (gē, G1093); against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell (piptō, G4098); and the ruin of that house was great.'

Prayer: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. I choose Your will above my way. It is not my will but Your will that I will do. I will seek to make sure that in every way my will comes into alignment with Your will. I make Your purposes, plans and objectives mine as well.

'Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.'

Romans 8:26-30 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.26-30>

'Likewise the Spirit also helpeth (sunantilambanomai, G4878) our infirmities (astheneia, G769): for we know not what we should pray for as we ought (dei, G1163): but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for (huperentugchanō, G5241) us with groanings (stenagmos, G4726) which cannot be uttered (alalētos, G215). And he that searcheth (ereunaō, G2045) the hearts (kardia, G2588) knoweth (eidō, G1492) what is the mind (phronēma, G5427) of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession (entugchanō, G1793) for the saints (hagios, G40) according to the will of God. And we know (eidō, G1492) that all things work together (sunergeō, G4903) for good (agathos, G18) to them that love (agapaō, G25) God, to them who are the called (klētos, G2822) according to his purpose (prothesis, G4286). For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate (proorizō, G4309) to be conformed (summorphos, G4832) to the image (eikōn, G1504) of his Son, that he might be the firstborn (prōtotokos, G4416) among many brethren (adelphos, G80). Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified (dikaioō, G1344): and whom he justified, them he also glorified (doxazō, G1392).'

Thank you for the mind of Christ.

'Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

1 Corinthians 2:12-16 ESV

'Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know (eidō, G1492) the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words (logos, G3056) which man's wisdom (sophia, G4678) teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things (pneumatikos, G4152) with spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152). But the natural man (psuchikos, G5591) receiveth (dechomai, G1209) not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know (ginōskō, G1097) them, because they are spiritually discerned (pneumatikōs, G4153). But he that is spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

Day 10: Attention (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Do you struggle with distraction in your daily life? How so?
2. How would you describe the attention that Jesus gave to the Father?
3. How would you describe the attention that Jesus gave to His disciples?
Other people?
4. Are you able to concern yourself with the interests of those you know?
5. Do people know their value because of the attention you give to them?

"Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to him, and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them."

Luke 4:40 ESV

'Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick (astheneō, G770) with divers diseases (nosos, G3554) brought them unto him; and he laid (epitithēmi, G2007) his hands (cheir, G5495) on every one of them, and healed (therapeuō, G2323) them. '

God's attention isn't limited to one place, but Jesus' was since He became a man.

'O Lord , you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O Lord , you know it altogether. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it. Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? '

Psalms 139:1-7 ESV

'O LORD , thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassed my path and my lying down, And art acquainted with all my ways (derech, H1870). For there is not a word in my tongue, But, lo, O LORD , thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, And laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge (da'ath, H1847) is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain unto it. Whither shall I go from thy spirit (rûach, H7307)? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence (pānîym, H6440)? '

'And hereby we do know (ginōskō, G1097) that we know (ginōskō, G1097) him, if we keep (tēreō, G5083) his commandments (entolē, G1785). He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar (pseustēs, G5583), and the truth (alētheia, G225) is not in him. Jesus' attention was amazing. His attention was always on His Father, and it was on God's love for the world.

'And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God so loved (agapaō, G25) the world (kosmos, G2889), that he gave (didōmi, G1325) his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For the Father loveth (phileō, G5368) the Son, and sheweth (deiknuō, G1166) him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these, that ye may marvel. '

'Soon afterward he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him, and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's household manager, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their means. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him. And as he reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." '

'And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom (telōnion, G5058), and said unto him, Follow (akoloutheō, G190) me. And he arose and followed him. And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat (katakeimai, G2621) in his house, many publicans (telōnēs, G5057) and sinners (hamartōlos, G268) sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole (ischuō, G2480) have no need of the physician (iatros, G2395), but they that are sick (kakōs, G2560): I came not to call the righteous (dikaios, G1342), but sinners to repentance (metanoia, G3341). 'And from there he arose and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And he entered a house and did not want anyone to know, yet he could not be hidden. But immediately a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him and came and fell down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, a Syrophenician by birth. And she begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. And he said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." And he said to her, "For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter." And she went home and found the child lying in bed and the demon gone. Then he returned from the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him. And taking him aside from the crowd privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting touched his tongue. And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.'

'And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it : but he could not be hid. For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit, heard of him, and came and fell (prospiptō, G4363) at his feet: the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician (Surophoinissa, G4949) by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth (ekballō, G1544) the devil (daimonion, G1140) out of her daughter. But Jesus said unto her, Let the children (teknon, G5043) first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread (artos, G740), and to cast it unto the dogs (kunarion, G2952). And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord (kurios, G2962): yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of (exerchomai, G1831) thy daughter. And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed. And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand (cheir, G5495) upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed (stenazō, G4727), and saith (legō, G3004) unto him, Ephphatha (epphatha, G2188), that is, Be opened (dianoigō, G1272). And straightway (eutheōs, G2112) his ears were opened, and the string (desmon, G1199) of his tongue was loosed (luō, G3089), and he spake plain (orthōs, G3723).'

Mark 7:24-35 KJV

He gave it to His disciples. He saw people for who they were. He saw people the way God sees them — with eyes of love.

'Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" Jesus answered him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand." Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you." For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "Not all of you are clean." When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.'

John 13:5-17 ESV

'After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean (katharos, G2513) every whit (holos, G3650): and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done (poieō, G4160) to you? Ye call me Master (didaskalos, G1320) and Lord (kurios, G2962): and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought (opheilō, G3784) to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example (hupodeigma, G5262), that ye should do (poieō, G4160) as I have done to you. Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, The servant (doulos, G1401) is not greater (meizōn, G3187) than his lord; neither he that is sent (apostolos, G652) greater than he that sent him. If ye know (eidō, G1492) these things, happy (makarios, G3107) are ye if ye do (poieō, G4160) them.'

The kind of attention Jesus gave is part of the mind of Christ, which we have through the Spirit of God as believers, although we may not have yet put it on.

'Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.12-16>

'Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know (eidō, G1492) the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words (logos, G3056) which man's wisdom (sophia, G4678) teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things (pneumatikos, G4152) with spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152). But the natural man (psuchikos, G5591) receiveth (dechomai, G1209) not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know (ginōskō, G1097) them, because they are spiritually discerned (pneumatikōs, G4153). But he that is spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

'Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.17-24>

'This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord (kurios, G2962), that ye henceforth walk (peripateō, G4043) not as other Gentiles (ethos, G1484) walk, in the vanity (mataiotēs, G3153) of their mind (nous, G3563), having the understanding (dianoia, G1271) darkened (skotizō, G4654), being alienated (apallotrioō, G526) from the life (zōē, G2222) of God through the ignorance (agnoia, G52) that is in them, because of the blindness (pōrōsis, G4457) of their heart (kardia, G2588): who being past feeling (apalgeō, G524) have given themselves over unto lasciviousness (aselgeia, G766), to work all uncleanness (akatharsia, G167) with greediness (pleonexia, G4124). But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old man, which is corrupt (phtheirō, G5351) according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed (ananēōō, G365) in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new (kainos, G2537) man, which after God is created (ktizō, G2936) in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness.'

When He met with people, Jesus asked questions including "What is your name?",

' Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. When Jesus had stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he had not lived in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered him. '

And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils (daimonion, G1140) long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out (anakrazō, G349), and fell down before (prospiptō, G4363) him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment (basanizō, G928) me not. (For he had commanded (paraggellō, G3853) the unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit to come out of (exerchomai, G1831) the man. For oftentimes it had caught (sunarpazō, G4884) him: and he was kept (phulassō, G5442) bound with chains and in fetters (pedē, G3976); and he brake the bands, and was driven (elaunō, G1643) of the devil (daimōn, G1142) into the wilderness.) And Jesus asked (eperōtaō, G1905) him, saying, What is thy name (onoma, G3686)? And he said, Legion (legeōn, G3003): because many devils (daimonion, G1140) were entered into (eiserchomai, G1525) him. "What are you seeking?",

'The next day again John was standing with two of his disciples, and he looked at Jesus as he walked by and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following and said to them, "What are you seeking?" And they said to him, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and you will see." So they came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day, for it was about the tenth hour. '

And behold, there were two blind men sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent, but they cried out all the more, "Lord, have

And the multitude rebuked (epitmaō, G2008) them, because they should hold their peace (siōpaō, G4623); but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. Jesus gave His attention, looking first to the interests of others. This was the interest of Jesus Christ.

'Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ...for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure... For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. '

When Jesus Christ met with people, He ate with them. In the midst of a crowd, He called a despised chief tax collector down from a tree so He could go to his house to spend time with him.

' He entered Jericho and was passing through. And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. And he made haste, and came down, and received (hupodechomai, G5264) him joyfully (chairō, G5463). 'And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude (ochlos, G3793), and was moved with compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697) toward them, and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) their sick (arrhōstos, G732). And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert (erēmos, G2048) place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy (agorazō, G59) themselves victuals (brōma, G1033). But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat. '

God gives His attention to everyone. He gives of Himself and His Life.

How do we give our attention?

When we are present with people, are we fully present? Or are we distracted?

Are we interested in them and what they care about? Do we take the time to ask questions that seek to know what it's like to walk in their shoes?

Do people know their value because of the attention we give?

Prayer: Creator God, who am I that You are mindful of me? Yet You have crowned me with glory and honor. I will sing a new song of praise to You, and I will praise You always.

'O Lord , our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babies and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger. When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet, '

Psalm 8:1-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PSA.8.1-6>

'O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) our Lord ('âdôn, H113), how excellent ('addîyr, H117) is thy name (shêm, H8034) in all the earth! Who hast set thy glory (hôd, H1935) above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings (yânaq, H3243) hast thou ordained (yâsad, H3245) strength because of thine enemies, That thou mightest still (shâbath, H7673) the enemy and the avenger. When I consider thy heavens, the work (ma'aśeh, H4639) of thy fingers, The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained (kûn, H3559); What is man ('enôsh, H582), that thou art mindful (zâkar, H2142) of him? And the son (bên, H1121) of man, that thou visitest (pâqad, H6485) him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels ('elôhîym, H430), And hast crowned him with glory (kâbôd, H3519) and honour (hâdâr, H1926). Thou madest him to have dominion (mâshal, H4910) over the works (ma'aśeh, H4639) of thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet: '

Thank You also for taking what is Yours and giving it to me. Thank You for the mind of Christ. My attention is on You, Father, and I pray that Your people would feel the love You have for them based on the attention that I give.

'His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. '

2 Peter 1:3-8 ESV

'according as his divine power (dunamis, G1411) hath given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us all things that pertain unto life (zōē, G2222) and godliness (eusebeia, G2150), through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory (doxa, G1391) and virtue (aretē, G703): whereby are given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us exceeding great (megistos, G3176) and precious (timios, G5093) promises (epaggelma, G1862): that by these ye might be partakers (koinōnos, G2844) of the divine nature (phusis, G5449), having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence (spoudē, G4710), add (epichorēgeō, G2023) to your faith (pistis, G4102) virtue (aretē, G703); and to virtue knowledge (gnōsis, G1108); and to knowledge temperance (egkrateia, G1466); and to temperance patience (hupomonē, G5281); and to patience godliness (eusebeia, G2150); and to godliness brotherly kindness (philadelphia, G5360); and to brotherly kindness charity (agapē, G26). For if these things be in you, and abound (pleonazō, G4121), they make (kathistēmi, G2525) you that ye shall neither be barren (argos, G692) nor unfruitful (akarpōs, G175) in the knowledge of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547). I make Your agenda my own.

"Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:9-10 ESV

Return to Day 10

Day 11: Love (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the nature of God's love.
2. Does God's love ever sit on its hands, so to speak? Or does it take action?
3. How did Jesus love people?
4. How does God call us to love people?
5. How does God grow us toward His kind of love?

"...the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us."

Romans 5:5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.5.5.KJV>

' Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. '

Romans 5:1-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.5.1-5>

'Therefore being justified (dikaioō, G1344) by faith, we have peace (eirēnē, G1515) with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access (prosa-gōgē, G4318) by faith into this grace (charis, G5485) wherein we stand, and rejoice (kauchaomai, G2744) in hope (elpis, G1680) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience (hupomonē, G5281); and patience, experience (dokimē, G1382); and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love (agapē, G26) of God is shed abroad (ekcheō, G1682) in our hearts (kardia, G1688) by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. '

Romans 5:1-5 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.5.1-5>

The living Jesus Christ shows the perfection of God's love offered to be received by all He created.

'For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. '

Romans 5:6-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.5.6-8>

'For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love (agapē, G26) toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.'

Romans 5:6-8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.5.6-8>

'Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.'

1 John 4:15-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.4.15-21>

'Whosoever shall confess (homologeō, G3670) that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth (menō, G3306) in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect (teleioō, G5048), that we may have boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect (teleios, G5046) love (agapē, G26) casteth out (ballō, G906) fear: because fear hath torment (kolasis, G2851). He that feareth is not made perfect (teleioō, G5048) in love. We love (agapaō, G25) him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother (adelphos, G80), he is a liar (pseustēs, G5583): for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment (entolē, G1785) have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.'

1 John 4:15-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1JN.4.15-21>

'But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—'

Ephesians 2:4-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.2.4-5>

'But God, who is rich (plousios, G4145) in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead (nekros, G3498) in sins (paraptōma, G3900), hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ, (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) '

Ephesians 2:4-5 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.2.4-5>

Jesus' love is a selfless, humble, serving, giving love that shows no favoritism in its offer.

'Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. '

Philippians 2:5-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.2.5-7>

'Let this mind (phroneō, G5426) be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form (morphē, G3444) of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation (kenoō, G2758), and took upon him the form of a servant (doulos, G1401), and was made in the likeness (homoiōma, G3667) of men: '

Philippians 2:5-7 KJV

'So Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. '

Acts 10:34-35 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.10.34-35>

'Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth (alētheia, G225) I perceive (katalambanō, G2638) that God is no respecter of persons (prosōpolēptēs, G4381): but in every nation (ethnos, G1484) he that feareth (phobeō, G5399) him, and worketh (ergazomai, G2038) righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343), is accepted with him. '

Acts 10:34-35 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.10.34-35>

' He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. '

Romans 2:6-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.2.6-11>

'Who will render (apodidōmi, G591) to every man according to his deeds (ergon, G2041): to them who by patient continuance (hupomonē, G5281) in well (agathos, G18) doing (ergon, G2041) seek (zēteō, G2212) for glory (doxa, G1391) and honour (timē, G5092) and immortality (aphtharsia, G861), eternal (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222): but unto them that are contentious (eritheia, G2052), and do not obey the truth (alētheia, G225), but obey (peithō, G3982) unrighteousness, indignation (thumos, G2372) and wrath (orgē, G3709), tribulation (thlipsis, G2347) and anguish (stenochōria, G4730), upon every soul (psuchē, G5590) of man that doeth (katēgazomai, G2716) evil (kakos, G2556), of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; but glory, honour, and peace (eirēnē, G1515), to every man that worketh (ergazomai, G2038) good (agathos, G18), to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: for there is no respect of persons (prosōpolēpsia, G4382) with God. '

Galatians 5:22 ESV

'But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, '

Galatians 5:22 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.5.22>

"Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love."

Ephesians 4:15-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.15-16.ESV>

“but speaking the truth (alētheuō, G226) in love (agapē, G26), may grow up (auxanō, G837) into him in all things, which is the head (kephalē, G2776), even Christ (Christos, G5547): from whom the whole body fitly joined together (sunarmologeō, G4883) and compacted (sumbibazō, G4822) by that which every joint (haphē, G860) supplieth, according to the effectual working (energeia, G1753) in the measure of every part, maketh (poieō, G4160) increase (auxēsis, G838) of the body unto the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of itself in love (agapē, G26).”

Ephesians 4:15-16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.4.15-16.KJV>

The indwelling spirit of Jesus Christ is patient and kind; Jesus does not envy or boast; He is not arrogant or rude. He does not insist on His own way, but instead on His Father’s way. He is not irritable or resentful. He does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

Jesus bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Jesus’ giving love never ends for those who love God.

“Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.”

“Charity (agapē, G26) suffereth long (makrothumeō, G3114), and is kind (chrēsteuomai, G5541); charity envieth (zēloō, G2206) not; charity vaunteth (perpereuomai, G4068) not itself, is not puffed up (phusioō, G5448), doth not behave itself unseemly (aschēmoneō, G807), seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked (paroxunō, G3947), thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth (sugchairō, G4796) in the truth; beareth (stegō, G4722) all things, believeth (pisteuō, G4100) all things, hopeth (elpizō, G1679) all things, endureth (hupomenō, G5278) all things. Charity never faileth (ekpiptō, G1601): but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail (katargeō, G2673); whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), it shall vanish away.”

1 Corinthians 13:4-8 KJV

These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full (plēroō, G4137). This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Have you given yourself fully to the Spirit of God to abide in you and think in you and walk in you?

'Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty."

'Be ye not unequally yoked together (heterozugeō, G2086) with unbelievers (apistos, G571): for what fellowship (metochē, G3352) hath righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) with unrighteousness? and what communion (koinōnia, G2842) hath light (phōs, G5457) with darkness (skotos, G4655)? And what concord hath Christ with Belial (Belial, G955)? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement (sugkatathesis, G4783) hath the temple (naos, G3485) of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living (zaō, G2198) God; as God hath said, I will dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in them, and walk (emperipateō, G1704) in them ; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore Come out (exerchomai, G1831) from among them, and be ye separate (aphorizō, G873), saith the Lord, And touch (haptomai, G680) not the unclean (akathartos, G169) thing ; And I will receive (eisdechomai, G1523) you, And will be a Father unto you, And ye shall be my sons (uihos, G5207) and daughters (thugatēr, G2364), saith the Lord (kurios, G2962) Almighty (pantokratōr, G3841).'

'And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. 'and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: and I will give them one heart (lēb, H3820), and one way (derek, H1870), that they may fear (yârē', H3372) me for ever, for the good (tōb, H2896) of them, and of their children after them: and I will make an everlasting ('ôlām, H5769) covenant (berîyth, H1285) with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good (yâtab, H3190); but I will put my fear (yir'âh, H3374) in their hearts (lēbâb, H3824), that they shall not depart (sûr, H5493) from me. Yea, I will rejoice (śûś, H7797) over them to do them good (tōb, H2895), and I will plant them in this land assuredly ('emeth, H571) with my whole heart (lēb, H3820) and with my whole soul (nephesh, H5315). 'but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. '

1 John 2:5-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.2.5-6>

'But whoso keepeth (tēreō, G5083) his word (logos, G3056), in him verily (alēthōs, G230) is the love (agapē, G26) of God perfected (teleioō, G5048): hereby know we that we are in him. If we have the kind of love that God does, it was God who gave it to us. God is, so love is.

When given over completely to our covenant-keeping God, the Holy Spirit fills us so full of God's kind of giving love that we overflow with it.

"For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God."

Ephesians 3:14-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.3.14-19.ESV>

"For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant (didōmi, G1325) you, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his glory (doxa, G1391), to be strengthened (krataioō, G2901) with might (dunamis, G1411) by his Spirit in the inner (esō, G2080) man; that Christ (Christos, G5547) may dwell (katoikeō, G2730) in your hearts (kardia, G2588) by faith; that ye, being rooted (rhizoō, G4492) and grounded (themelioō, G2311) in love (agapē, G26), may be able (exischuō, G1840) to comprehend (katalambanō, G2638) with all saints (hagios, G40) what is the breadth, and length, and depth (bathos, G899), and height (hupsos, G5311); and to know (ginōskō, G1097) the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547), which passeth (huperballō, G5235) knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of God."

Ephesians 3:14-19 KJV

"The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God."

2 Corinthians 9:6-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.9.6-11.ESV>

"But this I say, He which soweth (spierō, G4687) sparingly (pheidomenōs, G5340) shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully (eulogia, G2129) shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth (proaireomai, G4255) in his heart (kardia, G2588), so let him give; not grudgingly (lupē, G3077), or of necessity (anagkē, G318): for God loveth (agapaō, G25) a cheerful (hilaros, G2431) giver (dotēs, G1395). And God is able (dunatos, G1415) to make all grace (charis, G5485) abound (perisseuō, G4052) toward you; that ye, always having (echō, G2192) all sufficiency (autarkeia, G841) in all things, may abound (perisseuō, G4052) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041): (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad (skorpizō, G4650); he hath given to the poor: His righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) remaineth (menō, G3306) for ever. Now he that ministereth seed (sperma, G4690) to the sower both minister (chorēgeō, G5524) bread for your food, and multiply (plēthunō, G4129) your seed sown, and increase (auxanō, G837) the fruits (gennēma, G1081) of your righteousness;) being enriched (ploutizō, G4148) in every thing to all bountifulness (haplotēs, G572), which causeth (katargazomai, G2716) through us thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) to God."

As we give of God's love, we are refilled with the love of God.

"The desire of the righteous ends only in good, the expectation of the wicked in wrath. One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want. Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered."

Proverbs 11:23-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/pro.11.23-25.ESV>

"The desire of the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) is only good (tôb, H2896): But the expectation of the wicked is wrath. There is that scattereth (pâzar, H6340), and yet increaseth; And there is that withholdeth (châśak, H2820) more than is meet (yôsher, H3476), but it tendeth to poverty (machsôr, H4270). The liberal (berâkâh, H1293) soul (nephesh, H5315) shall be made fat (dâshên, H1878): And he that watereth (râvâh, H7301) shall be watered (yârâh, H3384) also himself."

(huperekchunō, G5240), shall men give into your bosom (kolpos, G2859). For with the same measure that ye mete withal (metreō, G3354) it shall be measured (antimetreō, G488) to you again."

We should give fully of ourselves without condition nor expectation of return.

"But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them. "If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful."

Luke 6:27-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.6.27-36.ESV>

"But I say unto you which hear, Love (agapaō, G25) your enemies (echthros, G2190), do good (kalōs, G2573) to them which hate you, bless (eulogeō, G2127) them that curse (kataraomai, G2672) you, and pray for them which despitefully use (epēreazō, G1908) you. And unto him that smiteth (tuptō, G5180) thee on the one cheek (siagōn, G4600) offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke (himation, G2440) forbid (kōluō, G2967) not to take thy coat (chitōn, G5509) also. Give to every man that asketh (aiteō, G154) of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. And as ye would (thelō, G2309) that men should do (poieō, G4160) to you, do (poieō, G4160) ye also to them likewise. For if ye love (agapaō, G25) them which love you, what thank (charis, G5485) have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. And if ye do good to (agathopoieō, G15) them which do good to (agathopoieō, G15) you, what thank (charis, G5485) have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive (apolambanō, G618), what thank (charis, G5485) have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love ye your enemies, and do good (agathopoieō, G15), and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward (misthos, G3408) shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind (chrēstos, G5543) unto the unthankful (acharistos, G884) and to the evil (ponēros, G4190). Be ye therefore merciful (oiktirmōn, G3629), as your Father also is merciful (oiktirmōn, G3629)."

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit... I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned."

John 15:1-2, 5-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.15.1-6.ESV>

"I am the true (alēthinos, G228) vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092). Every branch in me that beareth not fruit (karpos, G2590) he taketh away (airō, G142): and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth (kathairō, G2508) it, that it may bring forth more (pleiōn, G4119) fruit... I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much (polus, G4183) fruit: for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do (poieō, G4160) nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth (exō, G1854) as a branch, and is withered (xērainō, G3583); and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned."

"Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.5.25-32.ESV>

"Husbands, love (apapaō, G25) your wives, even as Christ also loved the church (ekklēsia, G1577), and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for it; that he might sanctify (hagiazō, G37) and cleanse (katharizō, G2511) it with the washing of water by the word (rhēma, G4487), that he might present it to himself a glorious (endoxos, G1741) church, not having spot (spilos, G4696), or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy (hagios, G40) and without blemish (amōmos, G299). So ought (opheilō, G3784) men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth (ektrophō, G1625) and cherisheth (thalpō, G2282) it, even as the Lord the church (ekklēsia, G1577): for we are members of his body (sōma, G4983), of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones (osteon, G3747). For this cause shall a man leave (kataleipō, G2641) his father and mother, and shall be joined (proskollaō, G4347) unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). This is a great mystery (mustērion, G3466): but I speak concerning Christ and the church."

As many as I love (phileō, G5368), I rebuke (elegchō, G1651) and chasten (paideuō, G3811): be zealous (zēloō, G2206) therefore, and repent (metanoēo, G3340)."

This love of God inspires the graphic shown above on the jason.church site. In sign language around the world, the way to say "I love you" is to extend the thumb, the index finger, and the little finger. The love of the Father is perfected in the love of Jesus Christ, now enthroned at His right hand. They have shed this love abroad through the Holy Spirit that is in the church, represented by the formation of the two hands coming together. This is the fullness of the love of God.

Prayer: I praise You for Your abundant, steadfast, fervent love, God. I give myself over to Your love and commit to love You all of my days with all that I am—spirit, soul and body.

“Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

You are my first love.

“But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first. Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.”

‘Nevertheless I have (echō, G2192) somewhat against thee, because thou hast left (aphiēmi, G863) thy first (prōtos, G4413) love (agapē, G26). Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen (ekiptō, G1601), and repent (metanoeō, G3340), and do (poieō, G4160) the first works (ergon, G2041); or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick (luchnia, G3087) out of his place (topos, G5117), except thou repent (metanoeō, G3340).’

Root me and ground me in Your love, God. Spirit of God, shed your love abroad in my heart that I may love everyone else as You love.

Return to Day 11

Day 12: Compassion (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How did God demonstrate His compassion through Jesus Christ?
2. Describe the two emotions that stirred within Jesus Christ when He was drawn to do good.
3. What change within a person does God intend that His benevolence will bring about?
4. How is it that we may be stirred with the same compassion as Jesus was?
5. What should be the outcome when we and when the church are stirred with compassion?

"And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd."

Matthew 9:35-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.9.35-36.ESV>

"And Jesus went about (periagō, G4013) all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the kingdom (basileia, G932), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) every sickness (nosos, G3554) and every disease (malakia, G3119) among the people. But when he saw (eidō, G1492) the multitudes (ochlos, G3793), he was moved with compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697) on them, because they fainted (ekluō, G1590), and were scattered abroad (rhiptō, G4496), as sheep having (echō, G2192) no shepherd."

Matthew 9:35-36 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.9.35-36.KJV>

Compassion is the love of God in action. His love is always tied to an action.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name! Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. The Lord works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed... The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear him... But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. The Lord has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all. Bless the Lord, O you his angels, you mighty ones who do his word, obeying the voice of his word! Bless the Lord, all his hosts, his ministers, who do his will!"

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.103.1-21.ESV>

"Bless the LORD, O my soul (nephesh, H5315): And all that is within me, bless his holy (qôdesh, H6944) name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, And forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth (râphâ', H7495) all thy diseases (tachalû', H8463); Who redeemeth (gâ'al, H1350) thy life (chay, H2416) from destruction; Who crowneth ('âtar, H5849) thee with lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617) and tender mercies (racham, H7356); Who satisfieth (śâba', H7646) thy mouth with good (tôb, H2896) things; So that thy youth is renewed (châdash, H2318) like the eagle's. The LORD executeth righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) and judgment for all that are oppressed... The LORD is merciful (rachûm, H7349) and gracious, slow ('ârêk, H750) to anger, and plenteous in mercy (chêsêd, H2617). He will not always chide: Neither will he keep his anger for ever. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, So great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, So far hath he removed (râchaq, H7368) our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth (râcham, H7355) his children, so the LORD pitieth (râcham, H7355) them that fear him... But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; to such as keep his covenant (berîyth, H1285), and to those that remember his commandments to do ('âsâh, H6213) them. The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; And his kingdom (malkûth, H4438) ruleth (mâshal, H4910) over all. Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, That do his commandments (dâbâr, H1697), hearkening unto the voice of his word. Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts (tsâbâ', H6635); ye ministers of his, that do ('âsâh, H6213) his pleasure (râtsôn, H7522)."

Psalms 103:1-6, 8-13, 17-21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/psa.103.1-21.KJV>

"“Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. “For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.”

Isaiah 55:6-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/iso.55.6-11.ESV>

"Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near (qârôb, H7138): let the wicked forsake his way (derek, H1870), and the unrighteous man his thoughts (machashâbâh, H4284): and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy (râcham, H7355) upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts (machashâbâh, H4284) are not your thoughts, neither are your ways (derek, H1870) my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth (yâlad, H3205) and bud (tsâmach, H6779), that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall my word (dâbâr, H1697) be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void (rêyqâm, H7387), but it shall accomplish ('âśâh, H6213) that which I please (châphêts, H2654), and it shall prosper (tsâlach, H6743) in the thing whereto I sent it."

Isaiah 55:6-11 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/iso.55.6-11.KJV>

Filled in fullness with God's Spirit, Jesus was compassion's perfect demonstration. In compassion, He was stirred both by His intense love for people and by His hate of the condition in which He found them. He saw what was wrong, enabled by the Spirit of God, and He made it right, meeting their physical and spiritual needs.

"how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

Acts 10:38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.10.38.ESV>

'how God anointed (chriō, G5548) Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power (dunamis, G1411): who went about (dierchomai, G133) doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed (katadunasteuō, G2616) of the devil; for God was with him. '

Acts 10:38 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.10.38>

' And as they went out of Jericho, a great crowd followed him. And behold, there were two blind men sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent, but they cried out all the more, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" And stopping, Jesus called them and said, "What do you want me to do for you?" They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened." And

Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they recovered their sight and followed him.'

Matthew 20:29-34 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.20.29-34>

'And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on us, O Lord (kurios, G2962), thou Son of David. And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will (thelō, G2309) ye that I shall do (poieō, G4160) unto you? They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. So Jesus had compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697) on them, and touched (haptomai, G680) their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.'

Matthew 20:29-34 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.20.29-34>

'And a leper came to him, imploring him, and kneeling said to him, "If you will, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand and touched him and said to him, "I will; be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean.'

Mark 1:40-42 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.1.40-42>

'And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt (thelō, G2309), thou canst (dunamai, G1410) make me clean (katharizō, G2511). And Jesus, moved with compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697), put forth his hand, and touched (haptomai, G680) him, and saith unto him, I will (thelō, G2309); be thou clean (katharizō, G2511). And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed (aperchomai, G565) from him, and he was cleansed (katharizō, G2511).'

Mark 1:40-42 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.1.40-42>

'Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your bed and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" —he said to the paralytic— "I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home." And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"'

Mark 2:9-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.2.9-12>

'Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power (exousia, G1849) on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion. '

Mark 2:9-12 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.2.9-12>

'Soon afterward he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a considerable crowd from the town was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." Then he came up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. '

Luke 7:11-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.7.11-15>

And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. '

"Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all... Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

Romans 12:9-18, 21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.9-21.ESV>

"Let love (agapē, G26) be without dissimulation (anupokritos, G505). Abhor (apostugeō, G655) that which is evil (ponēros, G4190); cleave (kallaō, G2853) to that which is good (agathos, G18). Be kindly affectioned (philostorgos, G5387) one to another with brotherly love (philadelphia, G5360); in honour preferring one another; not slothful in business (spoudē, G4710); fervent (zeō, G2204) in spirit; serving (douleuō, G1398) the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant (proskartereō, G4342) in prayer; distributing (koinōneō, G2841) to the necessity of saints; given (diōkō, G1377) to hospitality (philonexia, G5381). Bless (eulogeō, G2127) them which persecute (diōkō, G1377) you: bless, and curse (kataraomai, G2672) not. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind (phoneō, G5426) one toward another. Mind (phoneō, G5426) not high things (hupsēlos, G5308), but condescend (sunapagō, G4879) to men of low estate. Be not wise (phronimos, G5429) in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil (kakos, G2556) for evil. Provide (pronoeō, G4306) things honest (kalos, G2570) in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably (eirēneuō, G1514) with all men... Be not overcome (nikaō, G3528) of evil (kakos, G2556), but overcome (nikaō, G3528) evil with good (agathos, G18)."

"Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil."

1 John 3:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.3.8.ESV>

"He that committeth (poieō, G4160) sin (hamartia, G266) is of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for the devil sinneth from the beginning (archē, G746). For this purpose the Son of God was manifested (phaneroō, G5319), that he might destroy (luō, G3089) the works (ergon, G2041) of the devil (diabolos, G1228)."

1 John 3:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.3.8.KJV>

The goodness that He has shown has been meant to lead all men and women to repentance, turning themselves over to the love, care, and call of God. To repent means to change one's mind in a way that leads to changes in thought, speech, action, habit and character.

"Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?"

Romans 2:4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.2.4.ESV>

"Or despisest (kataphroneō, G2706) thou the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his goodness (chrēstotēs, G5544) and forbearance (anochē, G463) and longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115); not knowing that the goodness (chrēstos, G5543) of God leadeth (agō, G71) thee to repentance (metanoia, G3341)?"

Romans 2:4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.2.4.KJV>

Seeing the love of God in action through Jesus, or through a mature Christ follower, so many have believed in the goodness and the love of God. So many have obeyed Jesus' call to follow Him, pursuing the will of God and the glory of God rather than their own will and their own glory.

' And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, those oppressed by demons, those having seizures, and paralytics, and he healed them. And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.'

Matthew 4:23-25 ESV

And his fame (akoē, G189) went throughout all Syria (Suria, G4947): and they brought unto (prospherō, G4374) him all sick (kakōs, G2560) people (echō, G2192) that were taken with (sunechō, G4912) divers (poikilos, G4164) diseases and torments (basanos, G931), and those which were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139), and those which were lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and those that had the palsy (paralutikos, G3885); and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) them. And there followed (akolouthēō, G190) him great multitudes of people from Galilee (Galilaia, G1056), and from Decapolis (Dekapolis, G1179), and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa (Ioudaia, G2449), and from beyond Jordan (Iordanēs, G2446).'

"Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5485) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit (pneuma, G4151) of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995)."

'and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man , which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: ...Put on (enduō, G1746) therefore, as the elect (eklektos, G1588) of God, holy (hagios, G40) and beloved (agapaō, G25), bowels (splagchnon, G4698) of mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544), humbleness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012), meekness (praotēs, G4236), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115); ...And whatsoever ye do (poieō, G4160) in word (logos, G3056) or deed (ergon, G2041), do all in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) to God and the Father by him. Colossians 3:10,12,17 KJV

Jesus has collectively empowered His church to continue the mission that He started, to be carried out according to the ways of God that Jesus showed.

' "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. '

John 14:12-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.14.12-17>

'Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say (legō, G3004) unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. If ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) any thing in my name (onoma, G3686), I will do (poieō, G4160) it. If ye love (agapaō, G25) me, keep (tēreō, G5083) my commandments (entolē, G1785). And I will pray (erōtaō, G2065) the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth (alētheia, G225); whom the world cannot receive (lambanō, G2983), because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know (ginōskō, G1097) him; for he dwelleth (menō, G3306) with (para, G3844) you, and shall be in (en, G1722) you. '

John 14:12-17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.14.12-17>

For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.'

2 Corinthians 5:14-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.5.14-20>

'For the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547) constraineth (sunechō, G4912) us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead (apothnēskō, G599): and that he died for all, that they which live (zaō, G2198) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh (sarx, G4561): yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in (en, G1722) Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God. 'For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fulfilled the ministry of the gospel of Christ; '

Romans 15:18-19 ESV

As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.'

Prayer: I praise You, God, for Your beautiful compassion that has brought me to the point I am today of trusting You and loving You. Thank You, my Shepherd, for Your active love for me as a child of God. Spirit of God, move me with compassion as Jesus has been moved in order to care for all of those You have given me to love. Return to Day 12

Day 13: Tenderness (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How has God shown tenderness to mankind?
2. How may we experience the tenderness that is in God's character?
3. What kind of people are we supposed to love as neighbors?
4. How does the parable of the Good Samaritan show the tenderness that God expects of us?
5. How may you show the tenderness of Jesus to those that are part of the church, even those who may be more difficult to love?

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love... Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

Ephesians 4:1-2, 32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-32.ESV>

'I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the vocation (klēsis, G2821) wherewith ye are called (kaleō, G2564), with all lowliness (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) and meekness (praotēs, G4236), with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing (anechomai, G430) one another in love (agapē, G26); ...and be ye kind (chrēstos, G5543) one to another, tenderhearted (eusplagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you.'

God desires to reveal Himself to His people as the God of tender love.

That tenderness and gentleness was shown in its fullness in the person of Jesus Christ during His ministry.

'so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the

For example, when a leper came to Jesus, imploring Him, kneeling before Him, asking Jesus to make him clean if He willed it, in tenderness, Jesus stretched out His hand and touched this outcast, saying, "I will; be clean," and he was instantly healed.

' And a leper came to him, imploring him, and kneeling said to him, "If you will, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand and touched him and said to him, "I will; be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. '

And Jesus, moved with compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697), put forth his hand, and touched (haptomai, G680) him, and saith unto him, I will (thelō, G2309); be thou clean (katharizō, G2511). And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed (aperchomai, G565) from him, and he was cleansed (katharizō, G2511). '

Jesus wills to show the tender love of God to all who will receive it.

In His parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus taught the same kind of tender love regarding God's command to love one's neighbor.

' And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?" And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live." But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.' Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said to him, "You go, and do likewise." '

Luke 10:25-37 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.10.25-37>

'And, behold, a certain lawyer (nomikos, G3544) stood up, and tempted (ekpeirazō, G1598) him, saying, Master, what shall I do (poieō, G4160) to inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) eternal (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222)? He said unto him, What is written in the law (nomos, G3551)? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength (ischus, G2479), and with all thy mind (dianoia, G1271); and thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139) as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live (zaō, G2198). But he, willing (thelō, G2309) to justify (dikaioō, G1344) himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697) on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil (elaion, G1637) and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care (epimeleomai, G1959) of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that shewed (poieō, G4160) mercy (eleos, G1656) on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. ' Luke 10:25-37 KJV

A neighbor who displays the tender love of God goes out of their way to completely care for the wellbeing of others. Neighbors are not just those within the body of Christ, family, workplace and neighborhood, but anyone that God loves, even one that might be considered an outcast or an enemy. With God, there are no outcasts, only beloved ones.

' "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field right up to its edge, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest. And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the Lord your God... "You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired worker shall not remain with you all night until the morning. You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the Lord . "You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor... "You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord... "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. '

'And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger (gêr, H1616): I am the LORD your God... Thou shalt not defraud ('āshaq, H6231) thy neighbour (rêa', H7453), neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Thou shalt not curse (qâlal, H7043) the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD . Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour... Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love ('âhab, H157) thy neighbour (rêa', H7453) as thyself: I am the LORD... And if a stranger (gêr, H1616) sojourn (gûr, H1481) with thee in your land, ye shall not vex (yânâh, H3238) him. But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love ('âhab, H157) him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. 'He went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him. And as he reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." '

'And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom (telōnion, G5058), and said unto him, Follow (akolouthēō, G190) me. And he arose and followed him. And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat (katakeimai, G2621) in his house, many publicans (telōnēs, G5057) and sinners (hamartōlos, G268) sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole (ischuō, G2480) have no need of the physician (iatros, G2395), but they that are sick (kakōs, G2560): I came not to call the righteous (dikaios, G1342), but sinners to repentance (metanoia, G3341). In the passage above, the Apostle Paul urged the church to be gentle and tenderhearted in its love, as God is in His love. This is in keeping with Jesus' command to His disciples to love others as He has loved.

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love...Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

Ephesians 4:1-2, 32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-32.ESV>

'I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the vocation (klēsis, G2821) wherewith ye are called (kaleō, G2564), with all lowliness (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) and meekness (praotēs, G4236), with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing (anechomai, G430) one another in love (agapē, G26); ...and be ye kind (chrēstos, G5543) one to another, tenderhearted (eusplagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you.'

' "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another. '

'This is my commandment, That ye love (agapē, G25) one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath (echō, G2192) no man than this, that a man lay down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for his friends (philos, G5384). Ye are my friends, if ye do (poieō, G4160) whatsoever I command (entellomai, G1781) you. Henceforth I call you not servants (doulos, G1401); for the servant knoweth (eidō, G1492) not what his lord (kurios, G2962) doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard (akouō, G191) of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen (eklegomai, G1586) me, but I have chosen you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go (hupagō, G5217) and bring forth (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590), and that your fruit should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you. These things I command (entellomai, G1781) you, that ye love (agapaō, G25) one another (allēlōn, G240). '

As God's church, let us not be restricted by our own affections, but instead ask the Spirit of God to widen our hearts.

'Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says, "In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love; by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; through honor and dishonor, through slander and praise. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything. We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide open. You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections. In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.'

2 Corinthians 6:1-13 ESV

'We then, as workers together (sunergēō, G4903) with him, beseech (paraklēō, G3870) you also that ye receive (dechomai, G1209) not the grace (charis, G5485) of God in vain (kenos, G2756). (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time (kairos, G2540) accepted (dektos, G1184), And in the day of salvation (sōtēria, G4991) have I succoured (boētheō, G997) thee: behold, now is the accepted (euprosdektos, G2144) time (kairos, G2540); behold, now is the day of salvation (sōtēria, G4991).) Giving no offence (proskopē, G4349) in any thing, that the ministry (diakonia, G1248) be not blamed (mōmaomai, G3469): But in all things approving (sunistaō, G4921) ourselves as the ministers (diakonos, G1249) of God, in much patience (hupomonē, G5281), in afflictions (thlipsis, G2347), in necessities (anagkē, G318), in distresses (stenochōria, G4730), in stripes (plēgē, G4127), in imprisonments, in tumults (akatastasia, G181), in labours (kopos, G2873), in watchings (agrupnia, G70), in fastings (nēsteia, G3521); by pureness (hagnotēs, G54), by knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), by longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), by kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544), by the Holy Ghost, by love (agapē, G26) unfeigned (anupokritos, G505), by the word (logos, G3056) of truth (alētheia, G225), by the power (dunamis, G1411) of God, by the armour (hoplon, G3696) of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) on the right hand and on the left, by honour (doxa, G1391) and dishonour, by evil report (dusphēmia, G1426) and good report (euphēmia, G2162): as deceivers (planos, G4108), and yet true (alēthēs, G227); as unknown (agnoeō, G50), and yet well known (epignōskō, G1921); as dying (apothnēskō, G599), and, behold, we live (zaō, G2198); as chastened (paideuō, G3811), and not killed; as sorrowful (lupeō, G3076), yet alway (aei, G104) rejoicing; as poor (ptōchos, G4434), yet making many rich (ploutizō, G4148); as having (echō, G2192) nothing, and yet possessing all things. O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart (kardia, G2588) is enlarged (platunō, G4115). Ye are not straitened (stenochōreō, G4729) in us, but ye are straitened (stenochōreō, G4729) in your own bowels (splagchnon, G4698). Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children (teknon, G5043),) be ye also enlarged (platunō, G4115). '

Prayer: God, I praise You for the tenderness of Your divine love shown in Jesus Christ. I thank You that I am in Christ, and His divine power has given to me all things that pertain to life and godliness.

'His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. '

2 Peter 1:3-8 ESV

'according as his divine power (dunamis, G1411) hath given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us all things that pertain unto life (zōē, G2222) and godliness (eusebeia, G2150), through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory (doxa, G1391) and virtue (aretē, G703): whereby are given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us exceeding great (megistos, G3176) and precious (timios, G5093) promises (epaggelma, G1862): that by these ye might be partakers (koinōnos, G2844) of the divine nature (phusis, G5449), having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence (spoudē, G4710), add (epichorēgeō, G2023) to your faith (pistis, G4102) virtue (aretē, G703); and to virtue knowledge (gnōsis, G1108); and to knowledge temperance (egkrateia, G1466); and to temperance patience (hupomonē, G5281); and to patience godliness (eusebeia, G2150); and to godliness brotherly kindness (philadelphia, G5360); and to brotherly kindness charity (agapē, G26). For if these things be in you, and abound (pleonazō, G4121), they make (kathistēmi, G2525) you that ye shall neither be barren (argos, G692) nor unfruitful (akarpōs, G175) in the knowledge of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547). Spirit of God, as a partaker of Your divine nature, give me the sense of the tenderness that is in the Son of God. Enable me, Lord, to manifest Your love to Your beloved ones at will, turning every situation into glory to You.

'Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. '

'Beloved (agapētos, G27), let us love (agapaō, G25) one another (allēlōn, G240): for love (agapē, G26) is of God; and every one that loveth is born (gennaō, G1080) of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested (phaneroō, G5319) the love of God toward us, because that God sent (apostello, G649) his only begotten Son into the world (kosmos, G2889), that we might live (zaō, G2198) through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation (hilasmos, G2434) for our sins. Beloved (agapētos, G27), if God so loved us, we ought (opheilō, G3784) also to love one another. No man hath seen (theaomai, G2300) God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth (menō, G3306) in us, and his love is perfected (teleioō, G5048) in us. '

Return to Day 13

Day 14: Generosity (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How has God shown His generosity?
2. What has God given to those who abide in Christ?
3. Describe sowing and reaping.
4. What has God enabled us to give?
5. How should we give?

"He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God."

2 Corinthians 9:10-11 ESV

'Now he that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) seed (sperma, G4690) to the sower both minister (chorēgeō, G5524) bread for your food, and multiply (plēthunō, G4129) your seed sown, and increase (auxanō, G837) the fruits (gennēma, G1081) of your righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); being enriched (ploutizō, G4148) in every thing to all bountifulness (haplotēs, G572), which causeth (katergazomai, G2716) through us thanksgiving (eucharista, G2169) to God. God is a generous giver; this may be what is most beautiful about His nature.

'And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. '

For God so loved (agapaō, G25) the world (kosmos, G2889), that he gave (didōmi, G1325) his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent (apostellō, G649) not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved (sōzō, G4982). '

Acts 20:35 KJV

When we think of all God has given in and through Jesus Christ, we must know that our ability to give has to do with much more than giving our money to God's work.

'The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, '

2 Corinthians 9:6-13 ESV

'But this I say , He which soweth sparingly (pheidomenōs, G5340) shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully (eulogia, G2129) shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth (proaireomai, G4255) in his heart (kardia, G2588), so let him give ; not grudgingly (lupē, G3077), or of necessity:

for God loveth (agapaō, G25) a cheerful (hilarios, G2431) giver (dotēs, G1395). And God is able (dunatos, G1415) to make all grace (charis, G5485) abound (perisseuō, G4052) toward you; that ye, always (pantote, G3842) having (echō, G2192) all sufficiency (autarkeia, G841) in all things, may abound (perisseuō, G4052) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041): (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad (skorpizō, G4650); he hath given to the poor: His righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) remaineth (menō, G3306) for ever. 'Praise the Lord ! Blessed is the man who fears the Lord , who greatly delights in his commandments! His offspring will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed. Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever. Light dawns in the darkness for the upright; he is gracious, merciful, and righteous. It is well with the man who deals generously and lends; who conducts his affairs with justice. For the righteous will never be moved; he will be remembered forever. He is not afraid of bad news; his heart is firm, trusting in the Lord . His heart is steady; he will not be afraid, until he looks in triumph on his adversaries. He has distributed freely; he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever; his horn is exalted in honor. '

' And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction... These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Matthew 16:18-19 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.16.18-19>

' And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him." And Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me." And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you." '

Matthew 17:14-20 ESV

'And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on my son: for he is lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure (therapeuō, G2323) him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistis, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the devil (daimonion, G1140); and he departed (exerchomai, G1831) out of him: and the child was cured (therapeuō, G2323) from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out (ekballō, G1544)? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, If ye have faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove (metabainō, G3327) hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible (adunateō, G101) unto you.'

Matthew 17:14-20 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.17.14-20>

'And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself." And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation." So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls. And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.'

Acts 2:38-47 ESV

'Then Peter said unto them, Repent (metanoēō, G3340), and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission (aphesis, G859) of sins, and ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) the gift (dōrea, G1431) of the Holy Ghost. For the promise (epaggelia, G1860) is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call (proskaleomai, G4341). And with many other words (logos, G3056) did he testify (diamarturomai, G1263) and exhort (parakaleō, G3870), saying, Save (sōzō, G4982) yourselves from this untoward (skolios, G4646) generation. Then they that gladly (asmenōs, G780) received

(apodechomai, G588) his word (logos, G3056) were baptized (baptizō, G907): and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls (psuchē, G5590). And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship (koinōnia, G2842), and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And fear (phobos, G5401) came upon every soul: and many wonders (teras, G5059) and signs (sēmeion, G4592) were done (ginomai, G1096) by the apostles (apostolos, G652). And all that believed (pisteuō, G4100) were together, and had (echō, G2192) all things common; and sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. And they, continuing daily with one accord (homothumadon, G3661) in the temple (hieron, G2411), and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness (agalliasis, G20) and singleness (aphelotēs, G858) of heart (kardia, G2588), praising God, and having (echō, G2192) favour (charis, G5485) with all the people. And the Lord added to the church (ekklēsia, G1577) daily such as should be saved (sōzō, G4982).'

'Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, "Look at us." And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!" And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God... And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.'

'Now Peter (Petros, G4074) and John (Iōannēs, G2491) went up together into the temple (hieron, G2411) at the hour of prayer, being the ninth (ennatos, G1766) hour. And a certain man lame (chōlos, G5560) from his mother's womb (koilia, G2836) was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful (hōraios, G5611), to ask (aiteō, G154) alms (eleēmosunē, G1654) of them that entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked (erōtaō lambanō, G2065+G2983) an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes (atenizō, G816) upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed (epechō, G1907) unto them, expecting (prosdokaō, G4328) to receive (lambanō, G2983) something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have (huparchō, G5225) I none; but such as I have (echō, G2192) give (didōmi, G1325) I thee: In the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ of Nazareth (Nazōraios, G3480) rise up (egeirō, G1453) and walk (peripateō, G4043). And he took (piazo, G4084) him by the right hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted him up (egeirō, G1453): and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength (stereoō, G4732). And he leaping up (hallomai, G242) stood (histēmi, G2476), and walked (peripateō, G4043), and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping (hallomai, G242), and praising (aineō, G134) God... And his name (onoma, G3686) through faith (pistis, G4102) in his name hath made this man strong (stereoō, G4732), whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given (didōmi, G1325) him this perfect soundness (holoklēria, G3647) in the presence of you all. 'Now at Iconium they entered together into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands... Now at Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was crippled from birth and had never walked. He listened to Paul speaking. And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and began walking... and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled. And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. '

'And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected (kakoō, G2559) against the brethren. Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly (parrhēsiazomai, G3955) in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace (charis, G5485), and granted signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (tera, G5059) to be done (ginomai, G1096) by their hands (cheir, G5495)... And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent (adunatos, G102) in his feet, being a cripple (chōlos, G5560) from his mother's womb, who never had walked (peripateō, G4043): the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding (atenizō, G816) him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed (sōzō, G4982), said with a loud voice (phōnē, G5456), Stand (anistēmi, G450) upright on thy feet. And he leaped (hallomai, G242) and walked (peripateō, G4243)... and thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace (charis, G5485) of God for the work (ergon, G2041) which they fulfilled (plēroō, G4137). And when they were come, and had gathered the church (ekklēsia, G1577) together, they rehearsed all that God had done (poieō, G4160) with (meta, G3326) them, and how he had opened the door (thura, G2374) of faith unto the Gentiles. 'For by grace (charis, G5485) are ye saved (sōzō, G4982) through faith (pistis, G4102); and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (dōron, G1435) of God: not of works (ergon, G2041), lest any man should boast (kauchaomai, G2744). For we are his workmanship (poiēma, G4161), created (ktizō, G2936) in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (lēsous, G2424) unto good (agathos, G18) works (ergon, G2041), which God hath before ordained (proetoimazō, G4282) that we should walk (peripateō, G4043) in them.'

'And when Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying sick with a fever. He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she rose and began to serve him. That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "He took our illnesses and bore our diseases."'

'And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever (puressō, G4445). And he touched (haptomai, G680) her hand, and the fever (puretos, G4446) left (aphiēmi, G863) her: and she arose (egeirō, G1453), and ministered (diakoneō, G1247) unto them. When the even (opsios, G3798) was come, they brought (prospherō, G4374) unto him many that were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139): and he cast out (ekballō, G1544) the spirits with his word (logos, G3056), and healed (therapeuō, G2323) all that were sick (kakōs, G2560): that it might be fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) which was spoken by Esaias (Hēsaïas, G2268) the prophet, saying, Himself took (lambanō, G2983) our infirmities (astheneia, G769), and bare (bastazō, G941) our sicknesses (nosos, G3554).'

'Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.'

transgressions, he was bruised (dâkâ', H1792) for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace (shâlôm, H7965) was upon him; and with his stripes (chabbûrâh, H2250) we are healed (râphâ', H7495). All we like sheep have gone astray (tâ'âh, H8582); we have turned every one to his own way (derek, H1870); and the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) hath laid on (pâga', H6293) him the iniquity ('âvôn, H5771) of us all.

The LORD (yehōvāh, H3068) is gracious (channūn, H2587), and full of compassion (rachūm, H7349); slow to anger, and of great mercy (chêsêd, H2617). The LORD is good (tōb, H2896) to all: And his tender mercies (racham, H7356) are over all his works (ma'āseh, H4639)... The eyes of all wait upon thee; And thou givest them their meat in due season. "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse."

Romans 1:18-20 ESV

'For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold (katechō, G2722) the truth (alētheia, G225) in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest (phaneros, G5318) in them; for God hath shewed (phaneroō, G5319) it unto them. For the invisible things (aoratos, G517) of him from the creation of the world (kosmos, G2889) are clearly seen, being understood (noieō, G3539) by the things that are made (poiēma, G4161), even his eternal power (dunamis, G1411) and Godhead (theiotēs, G2305); so that they are without excuse (anapologētos, G379): '

'And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? '

Romans 8:28-32 ESV

For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate (proorizō, G4309) to be conformed (summorphos, G4832) to the image (eikōn, G1504) of his Son, that he might be the firstborn (prōtotokos, G4416) among many brethren (adelphos, G80). Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified (dikaioō, G1344): and whom he justified, them he also glorified (doxazō, G1392). He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up (paradidōmi, G3860) for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give (charizomai, G5483) us all things? '

He saves completely. He frees and delivers. He heals and makes whole.

' Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, prisoners in affliction and in irons, for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High. So he bowed their hearts down with hard labor; they fell down, with none to help. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and burst their bonds apart. Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! For he shatters the doors of bronze and cuts in two the bars of iron. Some were fools through their sinful ways, and because of their iniquities suffered affliction; they loathed any kind of food, and they drew near to the gates of death. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He sent out his word and healed them, and delivered them from their destruction. Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his deeds in songs of joy! '

Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble (tsar, H6862), and he saved (yâsha', H3467) them out of their distresses (metsûqâh, H4691). He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake (nâthaq, H5423) their bands in sunder. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness (chêsêd, H2617), and for his wonderful works (pâlâ', H6381) to the children of men! For he hath broken (shâbar, H7665) the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder. Then they cry (zâ'aq, H2199) unto the LORD in their trouble (tsar, H6862), and he saveth yâsha', H3467 them out of their distresses. He sent (shôlach, H7971) his word (dâbâr, H1697), and healed (râphâ', H7495) them, and delivered (mâlat, H4422) them from their destructions (shechîyth, H7825). Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness (chêsêd, H2617), and for his wonderful works (pâlâ', H6381) to the children of men! "May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. 2 Corinthians 5:17-20 KJV

God supplies kingdom seed for us to sow. We reap according to the nature and quantity of the seed we plant. When we sow and when we water, the Spirit of God fills us, gives us more, multiplies.

' And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? The sower sows the word. And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: the ones who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy. And they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away. And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold." ...And he said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground. He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he knows not how. The earth produces by itself, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. But when the grain is ripe, at once he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come." And he said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth, yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade." And these are they by the way side (hodos, G3598), where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan (Satanas, G4567) cometh (erchomai, G2064) immediately, and taketh away (airō, G142) the word that was sown in their hearts (kardia, G2588). And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive (lambanō, G2983) it with gladness (chara, G5479); and have (echō, G2192) no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction (thlipsis, G2347) or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended (skandalizō, G4624). And these are they which are sown among thorns (akantha, G173); such as hear the word, and the cares (merimna, G3308) of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches (ploutos, G4149), and the lusts (epithumia, G1939) of other things entering in (eisporeuomai, G1531), choke (sumpnigō, G4846) the word, and it becometh unfruitful (akarpōs, G175). And these are they which are sown on good (kalos, G2570) ground; such as hear the word, and receive (paradechomai, G3858) it, and bring forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592), some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.... And he said, So is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring (blastanō, G985) and grow up (mēkunō, G3373), he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn (plērēs, G4134) in the ear. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come. And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? It is like a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth: but when it is sown, it groweth up (anabainō, G305), and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out (poieō, G4160) great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it. Proverbs 11:23-25 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/pro.11.23-25.KJV>

We are made to give, just as Jesus was made to give. The secret of living is giving, starting with giving of oneself fully to God.

'I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. '

Romans 12:1 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.12.1>

'I beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you therefore, brethren, by the mercies (oiktirmos, G3628) of God, that ye present your bodies a living (zaō, G2198) sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service (latreia, G2999). '

Romans 12:1 KJV

'Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. '

James 4:7-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.4.7-8>

'Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist (anthistēmi, G436) the devil (diabolos, G1228), and he will flee from you. Draw nigh (eggizō, G1448) to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse (katharizō, G2511) your hands, ye sinners; and purify (hagnizō, G48) your hearts (kardia, G2588), ye double minded (dipsuchos, G1374). '

James 4:7-8 KJV

' Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord , and he will repay him for his deed. '

Proverbs 19:17 ESV

'He that hath pity (chânān, G2603) upon the poor lendeth (lâvâh, G3867) unto the LORD ; And that which he hath given will he pay him again (shâlam, H7999). '

Proverbs 19:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PRO.19.17>

'By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. '

1 John 3:16-18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.3.16-18>

'Hereby perceive we the love (agapē, G26) of God , because he laid down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for us: and we ought (opheilō, G3784) to lay down our lives for the brethren (adelphos, G80). But whoso hath (echō, G2192) this world's good (bios, G979), and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up (kleiō, G2808) his bowels of compassion (splagchnon, G4698) from him, how dwelleth (menō, G3306) the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love (agapaō, G25) in word (logos, G3056), neither in tongue; but in deed (ergon, G2041) and in truth (alētheia, G225). '

1 John 3:16-18 KJV

'For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." '

Galatians 5:13-14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.5.13-14>

'For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty (eleutheria, G1657); only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh (sarx, G4561), but by love (agapē, G26) serve (douleuō, G1398) one another. For all the law (nomos, G3551) is fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in one word (logos, G3056), even in this; Thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139) as thyself. '

Galatians 5:13-14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.5.13-14>

'And Jesus called them to him and said to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." '

Mark 10:42-45 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.10.42-45>

'But Jesus called them to him , and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship (katakuriēuō, G2634) over them; and their great ones exercise authority (katexousiazō, G2715) upon them. But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great (megas, G3173) among you, shall be your minister (diakonos, G1249); and whosoever of you will be the chiefest (prōtos, G4413), shall be servant (doulos, G1401) of all. For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto (diakoneō, G1247), but to minister, and to give (didōmi, G1325) his life (psuchē, G5590) a ransom (lutron, G3083) for many. '

Mark 10:42-45 KJV

'Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor... So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.'

1 Corinthians 10:24,31-33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.10.24,31-33>

'Let no man seek (zēteō, G2212) his own, but every man another's wealth... Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do (poieō, G4160), do all to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. Give none offence (aproskopos, G677), neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church (ekklēsia, G1577) of God: even as I please (areskō, G700) all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit (sumpherō, G4851), but the profit of many, that they may be saved (sōzō, G4982).'

'Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. '

1 Peter 4:8-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1PE.4.8-11>

'And above all things have fervent (ektenēs, G1618) charity (agapē, G26) among yourselves: for charity (agapē, G26) shall cover (kaluptō, G2572) the multitude (plēthos, G4128) of sins (hamartia, G266). Use hospitality (philoxenos, G5382) one to another without grudging (goggusmos, G1112). As every man hath received (lambanō, G2983) the gift (charisma, G5486), even so minister (diakoneō, G1247) the same one to another, as good (kalos, G2570) stewards (oikonomos, G3623) of the manifold (poikilos, G4164) grace (charis, G5485) of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles (logion, G3051) of God; if any man minister (diakoneō, G1247), let him do it as of the ability (ischus, G2479) which God giveth (chorēgeō, G5524): that God in all things may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) through Jesus Christ to whom be praise (doxa, G1391) and dominion (kratos, G2904) for ever and ever. Amen. '

1 Peter 4:8-11 KJV

'Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing... "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends... You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. '

'Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch (klēma, G2814) cannot bear (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590) of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth (pherō, G5342) much fruit: for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do nothing... This is my commandment, That ye love (agapaō, G25) one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath (echō, G2192) no man than this, that a man lay down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for his friends (philos, G5384)... Ye have not chosen (eklegomai, G1586) me, but I have chosen you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go (hupagō, G5217) and bring forth (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590), and that your fruit should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you. Spirit of God, make me fully like Jesus in my giving of what is mine and what is Yours.

'For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles— assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have written briefly. When you read this, you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ, which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God's grace, which was given me by the working of his power. To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to bring to light for everyone what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God, who created all things, so that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him. '

Ephesians 3:1-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.3.1-12>

'For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, if ye have heard of the dispensation (oikonomia, G3622) of the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given (didōmi, G1325) me to you-ward: how that by revelation (apokalupsis, G602) he made known unto me the mystery (mustērion, G3466); (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge (sunesis, G4907) in the mystery (mustērion, G3466) of Christ) which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles (apostolos, G652) and prophets (prophētēs, G4396) by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs (sugklēronomos, G4789), and of the same body (sussōmos, G4954), and partakers (summetochos, G4830) of his promise (epaggelia, G1860) in Christ by the gospel (euaggelion, G2098): whereof I was made a minister (diakonos, G1249), according to the gift (dōrea, G1431) of the grace (charis, G5485) of God given (didōmi, G1325) unto me by the effectual working (energeia, G1753) of his power (dunamis, G1411). Unto me, who am less than the least (elachistoteros, G1647) of all saints, is this grace (charis, G5485) given, that I should preach (euaggelizō, G2097) among the Gentiles the unsearchable (anexichniastos, G421) riches (ploutos, G4149) of Christ; and to make all men see (phōtizō, G5461) what is the fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the mystery (mustērion, G3466), which from the beginning of the world hath been hid (apokruptō, G613) in God, who created (kritzō, G2936) all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that now unto the principalities (archē, G746) and powers (exousia, G1849) in heavenly places might be known by the church (ekklēsia, G1577) the manifold (polupoikilos, G4182) wisdom (sophia, G4678) of God, according to the eternal purpose (prothesis, G4286) which he purposed (poieō, G4160) in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) and access (prosagōgē, G4318) with confidence (pepochēsis, G4006) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of him. Return to Day 14

Day 15: Grace (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How would you describe the nature of God's grace?
2. Describe all that God provided for in Christ's atonement.
3. How have we been made partakers of Christ's ministry of grace?
4. How should we approach the throne of grace in prayer?
5. How is the church the channel of God's grace?

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus."

Ephesians 2:4-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.4-7.ESV>

'But God, who is rich (plousios, G4145) in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead (nekros, G3498) in sins (paraptōma, G3900), hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ, (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together (sunegeirō, G4891), and made us sit together (sugkathizō, G4776) in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew (endeiknumi, G1731) the exceeding (huperballō, G5234) riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485) in his kindness (chrētotēs, G5544) toward us through Christ Jesus.'

Ephesians 2:4-7 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.2.4-7>

The grace of God is the divine outflowing of the nature of God. Its gateway is the atonement of Christ that gave everything that was needed to make men and women at-one with God.

'The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord , a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, '

Exodus 34:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EXO.34.6>

'And the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) passed by ('âbar, H5674) before (pânîym, H6440) him, and proclaimed (qârâ', H7121), The LORD, The LORD God ('êl, H410), merciful (rachûm, H7349) and gracious (channûn, H2587), longsuffering ('ârêk 'aph, H750+H639, and abundant (rab, H7227) in goodness (chêsêd, H2617) and truth ('emeth, H571), '

Exodus 34:6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EXO.34.6>

'What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.'

Romans 6:1-14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.6.1-14>

'What shall we say then? Shall we continue (epimenō, G1961) in sin, that grace (charis, G5485) may abound (pleonazō, G4121)? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live (zaō, G2198) any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized (baptizō, G907) into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Father, even so we also should walk (peripateō, G4043) in newness (kainotēs, G2538) of life (zōē, G2222). For if we have been (ginomai, G1096) planted together (sumphutos, G4854) in the likeness (homoioīma, G3667) of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection (anastasis, G386): knowing this, that our old (palaios, G3820) man is crucified with (sustauroō, G4957) him, that the body (sōma, G4983) of sin (hamartia, G266) might be destroyed (katargeō, G2673), that henceforth we should not serve (douleuō, G1398) sin. For he that is dead (apothnēskō, G599) is freed (dikaioō, G1344) from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him (suzaō, G4800): knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death (thanatos, G2288) hath no more dominion over (kurieuō, G2961) him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth (zaō, G2198), he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign (basileuō, G936) in your mortal (thnētos, G2349) body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members (melos, G3196) as instruments (hoplon, G3696) of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members (melos, G3196) as instruments (hoplon, G3696) of righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) unto God. For sin shall not have dominion (kurieuō, G2961) over you: for ye are not under the law (nomos, G3551), but under grace (charis, G5485).'

Romans 6:1-14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.6.1-14>

Having given ourselves over to the living Jesus, we have been identified in the death, resurrection and glorification of Jesus Christ. He is alive in us, and we are alive in Him, part of His body, seated on the throne of grace at the right hand of God.

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus."

Ephesians 2:4-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.4-7.ESV>

'But God, who is rich (plousios, G4145) in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead (nekros, G3498) in sins (paraptōma, G3900), hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ, (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together (sunegeirō, G4891), and made us sit together (sugkathizō, G4776) in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew (endeiknumi, G1731) the exceeding (huperballō, G5234) riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485) in his kindness (chrētotēs, G5544) toward us through Christ Jesus.'

Ephesians 2:4-7 KJV

'having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him.'

Colossians 2:12-15 ESV

'buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh

(sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900); blotting out (exaleiphō, G1813) the handwriting (cheirographon, G5498) of ordinances (dogma, G1378) that was against us, which was contrary (hupenantios, G5227) to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it (prosēloō, G4338) to his cross; and having spoiled (apekduomai, G554) principalities (archē, G746) and powers (exousia, G1849), he made a shew of (deigmatizō, G1165) them openly, triumphing over (thriambeuō, G2358) them in it.'

"I am crucified with (sustauroō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me."

Colossians 3:3 KJV

As He is (right now in heaven), so are we in this world.

'Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.'

1 John 4:15-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.4.15-21>

'Whosoever shall confess (homologeō, G3670) that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth (menō, G3306) in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect (teleioō, G5048), that we may have boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect (teleios, G5046) love (agapē, G26) casteth out (ballō, G906) fear: because fear hath torment (kolasis, G2851). He that feareth is not made perfect (teleioō, G5048) in love. We love (agapaō, G25) him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother (adelphos, G80), he is a liar (pseustēs, G5583): for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment (entolē, G1785) have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.'

'because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. '

Ephesians 5:30-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.30-32>

'for we are members (melos, G3196) of his body (sōma, G4983), of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones (osteon ostoun, G3747). For this cause shall a man leave (kataleipō, G2641) his father and mother, and shall be joined (proskollaō, G4347) unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). This is a great mystery (mustērion, G3466): but I speak concerning Christ (Christos, G5547) and the church (ekklēsia, G1577).'

Ephesians 5:30-32 KJV

If that is hard to imagine, you aren't alone. The Spirit of God makes possible what seems impossible, as God isn't confined to our dimensions. (Science has proven that there are more dimensions than we experience.)

'O Lord , you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O Lord , you know it altogether. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it. Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? '

Psalms 139:1-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PSA.139.1-7>

'O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), thou hast searched (châqar, H2713) me, and known (yâda', H3045) me. Thou knowest my downsitting (yâshab, H3427) and mine uprising, thou understandest (bîyn, H995) my thought (rêa', H7454) afar off. Thou compassest my path ('ôrach, H734) and my lying down (reba', H7252), and art acquainted with all my ways (derek, H1870). For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset (tsûr, H6696) me behind and before, and laid thine hand (kaph, H3709) upon me. Such knowledge (da'ath, H1847) is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain (yâkôl, H3201) unto it. Whither shall I go (yâlak, H3212) from thy spirit (rûach, H7307)? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence (pânîym, H6440)? '

Psalms 139:1-7 KJV

' "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. '

And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. If ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) any thing in my name (onoma, G3686), I will do (poieō, G4160) it. If ye love (agapaō, G25) me, keep (tēreō, G5083) my commandments (entolē, G1785). And I will pray (erōtōō, G2065) the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth (alētheia, G225); whom the world cannot receive (lambanō, G2983), because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know (ginōskō, G1097) him; for he dwelleth (menō, G3306) with (para, G3844) you, and shall be in (en, G1722) you. Made at one, the Spirit of God multiplies this grace in us and through us as the ambassadors of Jesus Christ, continuing His ministry of grace in multiplied form.

' May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. '

2 Peter 1:2-4 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2PE.1.2-4>

'grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 'according as his divine power (dunamis, G1411) hath given

(dōreomai, G1433) unto us all things that pertain unto life (zōē, G2222) and godliness (eusebeia, G2150), through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory (doxa, G1391) and virtue (aretē, G703): whereby are given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us exceeding great (megistos, G3176) and precious (timios, G5093) promises (epaggelma, G1862): that by these ye might be partakers (koinōnos, G2844) of the divine nature (phusis, G5449), having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. '

2 Peter 1:2-4 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2PE.1.2-4>

'For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. '

2 Corinthians 5:14-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.5.14-20>

'For the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547) constraineth (sunechō, G4912) us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead (apothnēskō, G599): and that he died for all, that they which live (zaō, G2198) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh (sarx, G4561): yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in (en, G1722) Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God. '

2 Corinthians 5:14-20 KJV

For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles— assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God’s grace that was given to me for you, how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have written briefly. When you read this, you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ, which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God’s grace, which was given me by the working of his power. To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to bring to light for everyone what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God, who created all things, so that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him. ’

Ephesians 3:1-12 ESV

For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, if ye have heard of the dispensation (oikonomia, G3622) of the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given (didōmi, G1325) me to you-ward: how that by revelation (apokalupsis, G602) he made known unto me the mystery (mustērion, G3466); (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge (sunesis, G4907) in the mystery (mustērion, G3466) of Christ) which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles (apostolos, G652) and prophets (prophētēs, G4396) by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs (sugklēronomos, G4789), and of the same body (sussōmos, G4954), and partakers (summetochos, G4830) of his promise (epaggelia, G1860) in Christ by the gospel (euaggelion, G2098): whereof I was made a minister (diakonos, G1249), according to the gift (dōrea, G1431) of the grace (charis, G5485) of God given (didōmi, G1325) unto me by the effectual working (energeia, G1753) of his power (dunamis, G1411). Unto me, who am less than the least (elachistoteros, G1647) of all saints, is this grace (charis, G5485) given, that I should preach (euaggelizō, G2097) among the Gentiles the unsearchable (anexichniastos, G421) riches (ploutos, G4149) of Christ; and to make all men see (phōtizō, G5461) what is the fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the mystery (mustērion, G3466), which from the beginning of the world hath been hid (apokruptō, G613) in God, who created (kritizō, G2936) all things by Jesus Christ: to the intent that now unto the principalities (archē, G746) and powers (exousia, G1849) in heavenly places might be known by the church (ekklēsia, G1577) the manifold (polupoikilos, G4182) wisdom (sophia, G4678) of God, according to the eternal purpose (prothesis, G4286) which he purposed (poieō, G4160) in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) and access (prosagōgē, G4318) with confidence (pepochēsis, G4006) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of him. ’

Luke 7:21-22 KJV

As the church in the world, we are His hands, His feet, His eyes, His ears.

'For the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."'

1 Corinthians 12:14-21 ESV

'For the body (sōma, G4983) is not one member (melos, G3196), but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand (cheir, G5495), I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear (ous, G3775) shall say, Because I am not the eye (ophthalmos, G3788), I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him (thelō, G2309). And if they were all one member, where were the body? But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have (echō, G2192) no need of thee: nor again the head (kephalē, G2776) to the feet, I have no need of you.'

The God of grace dwells in us, walks in us, works through us; in Him we pray at all times and we do the word of God.

' Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says, "In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation... What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty."

'We then, as workers together with (sunergeō, G4903) him, beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you also that ye receive (dechomai, G1209) not the grace (charis, G5485) of God in vain (kenos, G2756). (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, And in the day of salvation (sōtēria, G4991) have I succoured (boētheō, G997) thee: behold, now is the accepted (euprosdektos, G2144) time; behold, now is the day of salvation (sōtēria, G4991).) ...And what agreement (sugkatathesis, G4783) hath the temple (naos, G3485) of God with idols (eidōlon, G1497)? for ye are the temple of the living (zaō, G2198) God; as God hath said, I will dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in (en, G1722) them, and walk in (emperipateō, G1704) them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore Come out (exerchomai, G1831) from among them, and be ye separate (aphorizō, G873), saith the Lord, and touch (haptomai, G680) not the unclean thing; and I will receive (eisdechomai, G1523) you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons (uihos, G5207) and daughters (thugatēr, G2364), saith the Lord Almighty.'

He has made the church the channel of His grace that flows and manifests through the Spirit of God. As the church, together we are capable of flooding the entire world with God's grace. Layperson or otherwise, each is a minister of Jesus Christ, speaking His grace, emanating His grace, His very nature.

' On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" 'Now at Iconium they entered together into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands... Now at Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was crippled from birth and had never walked. He listened to Paul speaking. And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and began walking... and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled. And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. '

'And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected (kakoō, G2559) against the brethren. Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly (parrhēsiazomai, G3955) in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace (charis, G5485), and granted signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (tera, G5059) to be done (ginomai, G1096) by their hands (cheir, G5495)... And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent (adunatos, G102) in his feet, being a cripple (chōlos, G5560) from his mother's womb, who never had walked (peripateō, G4043): the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding (atenizō, G816) him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed (sōzō, G4982), said with a loud voice (phōnē, G5456), Stand (anistēmi, G450) upright on thy feet. And he leaped (hallomai, G242) and walked (peripateō, G4243)... and thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace (charis, G5485) of God for the work (ergon, G2041) which they fulfilled (plēroō, G4137). And when they were come, and had gathered the church (ekklēsia, G1577) together, they rehearsed all that God had done (poieō, G4160) with (meta, G3326) them, and how he had opened the door (thura, G2374) of faith unto the Gentiles. 'And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. Return to Day 15

Day 16: Mercy (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the merciful nature of God.
2. How does God expect us to be merciful?
3. To whom are we expected to show mercy?
4. How is it that we can be made capable to love even our enemies as Christ commanded?
5. How is it that we can be made capable to see people as Jesus sees them?

"But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you...Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful."

Luke 6:27-28, 36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.6.27-36.ESV>

' But I say unto you which hear, Love (agapaō, G25) your enemies (echthros, G2190), do (poieō, G4160) good (kalōs, G2573) to them which hate (miseō, G3404) you, bless (eulogeō, G2127) them that curse (kataraomai, G2672) you, and pray for them which despitefully use (epēreazō, G1908) you... Be (ginomai, G1096) ye therefore merciful (oiktirmōn, G3629), as your Father also is merciful (oiktirmōn, G3629). '

Luke 6:27-28,36 KJV

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' teaching of the new covenant elevated that which had been taught under the old covenant.

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 5:17-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.5.17-20.ESV>

"Think (nomizō, G3543) not that I am come to destroy (kataluō, G2647) the law (nomos, G3551), or the prophets (prophētēs, G4396): I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil (plēroō, G4137). For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass (parerchomai, G3928), one jot (iōta, G2503) or one tittle (keraia, G2762) shall in no wise (ou mē, G334) pass from the law, till all be fulfilled (ginomai, G1096).

Whosoever therefore shall break (luō, G3089) one of these least (elachistos, G1646) commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least (elachistos, G1646) in the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven: but whosoever shall do (poieō, G4160) and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, That except your righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) shall exceed (perisseuō pleiōn, G4052+G4119) the righteousness of the scribes (grammateus, G1122) and Pharisees (Pharisaïos, G5330), ye shall in no case (ou mē, G334) enter (eiserchomai, G1525) into the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven."

Matthew 5:17-20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.5.17-20.KJV>

Under the new covenant that Jesus brought into being, the law of sin and death was replaced by the law of the Spirit of life.

"There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death."

Romans 8:1-2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.1-2.ESV>

' There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk (peripateō, G4043) not after the flesh (sarx, G4561), but after the Spirit (pneuma, G4151). For the law (nomos, G3551) of the Spirit of life (zōē, G2222) in Christ Jesus hath made me free (eleutheroō, G1659) from the law of sin (hamartia, G266) and death (thanatos, G2288). '

Romans 8:1-2 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.8.1-2>

To those who have given themselves over to God in Jesus Christ, God has given them a new heart and a new spirit!

"I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules."

Ezekiel 36:25-27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/ezk.36.25-27.ESV>

"Then will I sprinkle (zâraq, H2236) clean (tâhôre, H2889) water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness (tûm'âh, H2932), and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new (châdâsh, H2319) heart (lêb, H3820) also will I give (nâthan, H5414) you, and a new (châdâsh, H2319) spirit (rûach, H7307) will I put (nâthan, H5414) within (qereb, H7130) you: and I will take away the stony ('eben, H68) heart (lêb, H3820) out of your flesh (bâsâr, H1320), and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause ('âsâh, H6213) you to walk (yâlak, H3212) in my statutes (chôq, H2706), and ye shall keep (shâmar, H8104) my judgments (mishpât, H4941), and do ('âsâh, H6213) them."

Ezekiel 36:25-27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/ezk.36.25-27.KJV>

The love of God has been written by the Spirit of God on their hearts.

“Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the Lord. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jer.31.31-34.ESV>

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make (kâath, H3772) a new (châdâsh, H2319) covenant (berîyth, H1285) with the house (bayith, H1004) of Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478), and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake (pârar, H6565), although I was an husband (bâ’al, H1166) unto them, saith the LORD: but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law (tôrâh, H8451) in their inward parts (qereb, H7130), and write (kâthab, H3789) it in their hearts (lêb, H3820); and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know (yâda’, H3045) the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive (sâlach, H5545) their iniquity (’âvôn, H5771), and I will remember their sin no more.”

Jeremiah 31:31-34 KJV

' Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. '

Romans 5:1-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.5.1-5>

'Therefore being justified (dikaioō, G1344) by faith, we have peace (eirēnē, G1515) with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access (prosagōgē, G4318) by faith into this grace (charis, G5485) wherein we stand, and rejoice (kauchaomai, G2744) in hope (elpis, G1680) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience (hupomonē, G5281); and patience, experience (dokimē, G1382); and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love (agapē, G26) of God is shed abroad (ekcheō, G1682) in our hearts (kardia, G1688) by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.'

Romans 5:1-5 KJV

Have you given yourself over to God?

"because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

Romans 10:9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.9.ESV>

"that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), and shalt believe in thine heart (kardia, G2588) that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982)."

Romans 10:9 KJV

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, ...In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you... Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him."

John 14:15-16, 20, 23 ESV

' If ye love (agapaō, G25) me, keep (tēreō, G5083) my commandments. And I will pray (erōtaō, G2065) the Father, and he shall give (didōmi, G1325) you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; ...At that day ye shall know (ginōskō, G1097) that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you... Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words (logos, G3056): and my Father will love (agapaō, G25) him, and we will come unto (erchomai, G2064) him, and make (poieō, G4160) our abode (monē, G3438) with him.'

'But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him." '

Acts 5:29-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.5.29-32>

'Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought (dei, G1163) to obey God rather (mallon, G3123) than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted (hupsoō, G5312) with his right hand (dexios, G1188) to be a Prince (archēgos, G747) and a Saviour (sōtēr, G4990), for to give repentance (metanoia, G3341) to Israel, and forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins. And we are his witnesses (martus, G3144) of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given (didōmi, G1325) to them that obey (peitharcheō, G3980) him. '

The new command of God in Jesus is "love each other as I have loved you" (John 15:12).

'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another. '

John 15:9-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.9-17>

'As the Father hath loved (agapaō, G25) me, so have I loved you: continue (menō, G3306) ye in my love (agapē, G26). If ye keep (tērēō, G5083) my commandments, ye shall abide (menō, G3306) in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy (chara, G5479) might remain (menō, G3306) in you, and that your joy might be full (plēroō, G4137). This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for his friends (philos, G5384). Ye are my friends, if ye do (poieō, G4160) whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants (doulos, G1401); for the servant knoweth not what his lord (kurios, G2962) doeth (poieō, G4160); but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen (eklegomai, G1586) me, but I have chosen you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go (hupagō, G5217) and bring forth (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590), and that your fruit should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you. These things I command you, that ye love (agapaō, G25) one another. '

Just as God's revelation of Himself to Moses was One of mercy and grace,

'The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord , a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, '
Exodus 34:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EXO.34.6>

'And the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) passed by ('âbar, H5674) before (pânîym, H6440) him, and proclaimed (qârâ', H7121), The LORD, The LORD God ('êl, H410), merciful (rachûm, H7349) and gracious (channûn, H2587), longsuffering ('ârêk 'aph, H750+H639, and abundant (rab, H7227) in goodness (chêsêd, H2617) and truth ('emeth, H571), '

Exodus 34:6 KJV

Jesus taught that merciful love was integral to the heart of God.

' "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. '

Matthew 5:7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.5.7>

' Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the merciful (eleēmon, G1655): for they shall obtain mercy (eleeō, G1653). '

Matthew 5:7 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.5.7>

'Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times. "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

Matthew 18:21-35 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.18.21-35>

'Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven (hebdomēkontakis, G1441). Therefore is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents (talanton, G5007). But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold (pipraskō, G4097), and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made (apodidōmi, G591). The servant therefore fell down (piptō, G4098), and worshipped (proskuneō, G4352) him, saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), have patience (makrothumeō, G3114) with me, and I will pay (apodidōmi, G591) thee all. Then the lord of that servant (doulos, G1401) was moved with compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697), and loosed (apoluō, G630) him, and forgave (aphiēmi, G863) him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants (sundoulos, G4889), which owed him an hundred pence (dēnarion, G1220): and he laid hands on (krateō, G2902) him, and took him by the throat (pnigō, G4155), saying, Pay me (apodidōmi, G591) that thou owest (opheilō, G3784). And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought (parakleō, G3870) him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked (ponēros, G4190) servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst (parakaleō, G3870) me: shouldest not thou also have had compassion (eleeō, G1653) on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity (eleeō, G1653) on thee? And his lord was wroth (orgizō, G3710), and delivered him to the tormentors (basanistēs, G930), till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts (kardia, G2588) forgive (aphiēmi, G863) not every one his brother (adelphos, G80) their trespasses.'

Matthew 18:21-35 KJV

Jesus adapts His perception of people to what His redemption has made possible for them.

'He went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him. And as he reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." '

Mark 2:13-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.2.13-17>

'And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom (telōnion, G5058), and said unto him, Follow (akolouthēō, G190) me. And he arose and followed him. And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat (katakeimai, G2621) in his house, many publicans (telōnēs, G5057) and sinners (hamartōlos, G268) sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole (ischuō, G2480) have no need of the physician (iatros, G2395), but they that are sick (kakōs, G2560): I came not to call the righteous (dikaioi, G1342), but sinners to repentance (metanoia, G3341). '

Mark 2:13-17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.2.13-17>

' He entered Jericho and was passing through. And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." '

Luke 19:1-10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.19.1-10>

'And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus (Zakchaiōs, G2195), which was the chief among the publicans (architelōnēs, G754), and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw (eidō, G1492) him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must (dei, G1163) abide (menō, G3306) at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received (hupodechomai, G5264) him joyfully (chairō, G5463). And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor (ptōchos, G4434); and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation (sōtēria, G4991) come to this house (oikos, G3624), forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek (zēteō, G2212) and to save (sōzō, G4982) that which was lost (apollumi, G622). '

Luke 19:1-10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.19.1-10>

'The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the midst they said to him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. Now in the Law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her." And once more he bent down and wrote on the ground. But when they heard it, they went away one by one, beginning with the older ones, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. Jesus stood up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more." '

John 8:3-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.8.3-11>

'And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken (katalambanō, G2638) in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, they say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act (epautophōrō, G1888). Now Moses in the law (nomos, G3551) commanded (entellomai, G1781) us, that such should be stoned (lithoboleō, G3036): but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting (peirazō, G3985) him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down (kuptō, G2955), and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not (prospoieomai, G4364). So when they continued (epimenō, G1961) asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin (anamartētos, G361) among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted (elegchō, G1651) by their own conscience (suneidēsis, G4893), went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go (poreuomai, G4198), and sin (hamartanō, G264) no more (mēketi, G3371). '

Those in the church have Christ living in them through the Spirit of God, enabling them to adapt their perception and to be merciful, even as God is merciful by His very nature.

In Jesus, the mercy God calls His people to is of a nature that causes them to love even their enemies! This was a radical teaching in the brutal time 2000 years ago when it was taught, a time of Roman conquest. Jesus was completely counter cultural, and His teaching still is in the 2020s.

' "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.'

Matthew 5:43-48 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.5.43-48>

' Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139), and hate (miseō, G3404) thine enemy (echthros, G2190). But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless (eulogeō, 2127) them that curse (kataraomai, G2672) you, do (poieō, G4160) good (kalōs, G2573) to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use (epēreazō, G1908) you, and persecute (diōkō, G1377) you; that ye may be the children (uihos, G5207) of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun (hēlios, G2246) to rise (anatellō, G393) on the evil (ponēros, G4190) and on the good (agathos, G18), and sendeth rain (brechō, G1026) on the just (dikaios, G1342) and on the unjust (adikos, G94). For if ye love them which love you, what reward (misthos, G3408) have (echō, G2192) ye? do not even the publicans (telōnēs, G5057) the same? And if ye salute (aspazomai, G782) your brethren only, what do (poieō, G4160) ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect (teleios, G5046), even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect (teleios, G5046).'

Matthew 5:43-48 KJV

'“But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them. “If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. '

'But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do (poieō, G4160) good (kalōs, G2573) to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. And unto him that smiteth (tuptō, G5180) thee on the one cheek (siagōn, G4600) offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke (himation, G2440) forbid (kōluō, G2967) not to take thy coat (chitōn, G5509) also. Give (didōmi, G1325) to every man that asketh (aiteō, G154) of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them (apaiteō, G523) not again. And as ye would (thelō, G2309) that men should do (poieō, G4160) to you, do ye also to them likewise. For if ye love them which love you, what thank (charis, G5485) have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. And if ye do good (agathopoieō, G15) to them which do good to you, what thank (charis, G5485) have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend (daneizō, G1155) to them of whom ye hope (elpizō, G1679) to receive (apolambanō, G618), what thank (charis, G5485) have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing (apelvizō, G560) again; and your reward (misthos, G3408) shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind (chrēstos, G5543) unto the unthankful (acharistos, G884) and to the evil (ponēros, G4190). Be (ginomai, G1096) ye therefore merciful (oiktirmōn, G3629), as your Father also is merciful. '

Who do you see as your enemies?

God's way for us, led by the Spirit, is to love our enemies, do good to any that hate us, bless those who curse us, and pray for those that despitefully use or abuse us. By our love, the love of God, are followers of Christ to be known as ones set apart.

'A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.'

John 13:34-35 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.13.34-35>

God's great love is the love of the shepherd of the lost sheep. God's people are to treat even their enemies as God's lost sheep, God's beloved ones, made in His image and likeness.

'Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. '

Luke 15:1-7 ESV

'Then drew near unto him all the publicans (telōnēs, G5057) and sinners (hamartōlos, G268) for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured (diagogguzō, G1234), saying, This man receiveth (prosdechomai, G4327) sinners, and eateth with (sunesthiō, G4906) them. And he spake this parable (parabolē, G3850) unto them, saying, What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose (apollumi, G622) one of them, doth not leave (kataleipō, G2641) the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on (epitithēmi, G2007) his shoulders, rejoicing (chairō, G5463). And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice (sugchairō, G4796) with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy (chara, G5479) shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth (metanoeō, G3340), more than over ninety and nine just persons (dikaios, G1342), which need (echō, G2192) no repentance (metanoia, G3341). 'Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." They are to follow Jesus, whose ministry empowered by the Spirit of God was about setting free those oppressed by the devil and doing good (Acts 10:38).

"how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

Acts 10:38 ESV

'how God anointed (chriō, G5548) Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power (dunamis, G1411): who went about (dierchomai, G133) doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed (katadunasteuō, G2616) of the devil; for God was with him. '

Acts 10:38 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.10.38>

'Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him; and he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another... But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.'

'He that committeth (poieō, G4160) sin (hamartia, G266) is of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for the devil sinneth (hamartanō, G264) from the beginning (archē, G746). For this purpose the Son of God was manifested (phaneroō, G5319), that he might destroy (luō, G3089) the works (ergon, G2041) of the devil. Whosoever is born (gennaō, G1080) of God doth (poieō, G4160) not commit sin; for his seed (sperma, G4690) remaineth (menō, G3306) in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children (teknon, G5043) of God are manifest (phaneros, G5318), and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth (poieō, G4160) not righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) is not of God, neither he that loveth (agapaō, G25) not his brother (adelphos, G80). For this is the message (aggelia, G31) that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another... But whoso hath (echō, G2192) this world's (kosmos, G2889) good (bios, G979), and seeth his brother have (echō, G2192) need, and shutteth up (kleiō, G2808) his bowels of compassion (splagchnon, G4698) from him, how dwelleth (menō, G3306) the love (agapē, G26) of God in him? My little children (teknon, G5040), let us not love agapaō, G25) in word (logos, G3056), neither in tongue; but in deed (ergon, G2041) and in truth (alētheia, G225). '

Return to Day 16

Day 17: Longsuffering (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the longsuffering in God's nature.
2. In what way is God like a husband unto us as His bride?
3. What is God's attitude toward the unfaithful?
4. Why does God endure such faithlessness?
5. How are we also to exhibit longsuffering?

"Or do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?"

Romans 2:4 NKJV

<https://bible.com/bible/114/rom.2.4.NKJV>

'Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who practice such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality.'

Romans 2:1-11 ESV

'Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest (krinō, G2929): for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest (katakrinō, G2632) thyself; for thou that judgest doest (prassō, G4238) the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth (alēthia, G225) against them which commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest (poieō, G4160) the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest (kataphroneō, G2706) thou the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his goodness (chrēstotēs, G5544) and forbearance (anochē, G463) and longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115); not knowing that the goodness (chrēstos, G5543) of God leadeth (agō, G71) thee to repentance (metanoia, G3341)? But after thy hardness (sklērotēs, G4643) and impenitent (ametanoētos, G279) heart (kardia, G2588) treasurest up (thēsauroizō, G2343) unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment (dikaiokrisia, G1341) of God; Who

At times in the Bible, God is compared to a husband whose bride is unfaithful to Him, and yet in His forbearance He continues to love and make a way for the relationship to work, waiting for His beloved to return.

'When the Lord first spoke through Hosea, the Lord said to Hosea, "Go, take to yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the Lord ." So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son... Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered. And in the place where it was said to them, "You are not my people," it shall be said to them, "Children of the living God." '

'The beginning of the word (dâbar, H1696) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) by Hosea (hôshêa', H1954). And the LORD said to Hosea, Go (yâlak, H3212), take unto (lâqach, H3947) thee a wife of whoredoms (zânûn, H2183) and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom (zânâh, H2181), departing from the LORD. So he went and took Gomer (gômer, H1586) the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son... Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living (chay, H2416) God ('êl, H410).'

"When I passed by you again and saw you, behold, you were at the age for love, and I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness; I made my vow to you and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Lord God , and you became mine. Then I bathed you with water and washed off your blood from you and anointed you with oil. I clothed you also with embroidered cloth and shod you with fine leather. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. And I adorned you with ornaments and put bracelets on your wrists and a chain on your neck. And I put a ring on your nose and earrings in your ears and a beautiful crown on your head. Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen and silk and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour and honey and oil. You grew exceedingly beautiful and advanced to royalty. And your renown went forth among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through the splendor that I had bestowed on you, declares the Lord God . "But you trusted in your beauty and played the whore because of your renown and lavished your whorings on any passerby; your beauty became his. You took some of your garments and made for yourself colorful shrines, and on them played the whore. The like has never been, nor ever shall be.... yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish for you an everlasting covenant.... I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the Lord , that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I atone for you for all that you have done, declares the Lord God ."

'Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love (dôd, H1730); and I spread my skirt (kânâph, H3671) over thee, and covered thy nakedness ('ervâh, H6172): yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant (berîyth, H1285) with thee, saith the Lord ('adônây, H136) GOD (yehôvih, H3069), and thou becamest mine. Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed (sûk, H5480) thee with oil (shemen, H8081). I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod (nâ'al, H5274) thee with badgers' skin (tachash, H8476), and I girded thee about with fine linen (shêsh, H8336), and I covered thee with silk (meshîy, H4897). I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck. And I put a jewel (nezem, H5141) on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful (tiph'ârâh, H8597) crown ('atârâh, H5850) upon thine head. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment (malbûsh, H4403) was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding (me'ôd, H3966) beautiful (yâphâh, H3302), and thou didst prosper (tsâlach, H6743) into a kingdom (melûkâh, H4410). And thy renown (shêm, H8034) went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness (hâdâr, H1926), which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD. But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot (zânâh, H2181) because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications (taznûth, H8457) on every one that passed by; his it was. And of thy garments (begeg, H899) thou didst take, and deckedst ('âsâh, H6213) thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so... Nevertheless I will remember my covenant (berîyth, H1285) with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish (qûm, H6965) unto thee an everlasting ('ôlâm, H5769) covenant... 'The Lord is not slack (bradunō, G1019) concerning his promise (epaggelia, G1860), as some men count slackness (bradutēs, G1022); but is longsuffering (makrothumēō, G3114) to us-ward, not willing (boulomai, G1014) that any should perish (apollumi, G622), but that all should come (chōreō, G5562) to repentance (metanoia, G3341).'

2 Peter 3:9 KJV

Jesus taught that God is to be compared to the father of the Prodigal Son. The father was so glad to see his son who squandered his inheritance return that he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. Then he threw a huge celebration. He did not react in anger when his son returned, for that is inconsistent with God's righteous character.

'And he said, "There was a man who had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me.' And he divided his property between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in reckless living. And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. And he was longing to be fed with the pods that the pigs ate, and no one gave him anything. "But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have more than enough bread, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants."' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to celebrate. "Now his older son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.' But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Look, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command, yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

'And he said, A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods (ousia, G3776) that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living (bios, G979). And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted (diaskorpizō, G1287) his substance (ousia, G3776) with riotous living (zaō, G2198). And when he had spent (dapanāō, G1159) all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain (epithumeō, G1937) have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish (apollumi, G622) with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy (axios, G514) to be called thy son (uihos, G5207): make (poieō, G4160) me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697), and ran (trechō, G5143), and fell on (epiptō, G1968) his neck, and kissed (kataphileō, G2705) him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants (doulos, G1401), Bring forth the best robe (stolē, G4749), and put it on (enduō, G1746) him; and put (enduō, G1746) a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring hither the fatted calf (moschos, G3448), and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry (euphrainō, G2165): for this my son (uihos, G5207) was dead (nekros, G3498), and is alive again (anazaō, G326); he was lost (apollumi, G622), and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick (sumphōnia, G4858) and dancing (choros, G5525). And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received (apolambanō, G618) him safe and sound (hugiainō, G5198). And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated (parakaleō, G3870) him. And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve (douleuō, G1398) thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured (katesthiō, G2719) thy living (bios, G979) with harlots (pomē, G4204), thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad (chairō, G5463): for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again (anazaō, G326); and was lost, and is found.'

Out of the riches of His goodness, the love of God bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

"Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. In Jesus Christ, God showed why He endures all things, even the cross: "for the joy set before him" (Hebrews 12:2).

'Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. '

Hebrews 12:1-4 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/HEB.12.1-4>

'Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about (perikeimai, G4029) with so great (tosoutos, G5118) a cloud (nephos, G3509) of witnesses (martus, G3144), let us lay aside (apotithēmi, G659) every weight (ogkos, G3591), and the sin which doth so easily beset us (euperistatos, G2139), and let us run (trechō, G5143) with patience (hupomonē, G5281) the race (agōn, G73) that is set before (prokeimai, G4295) us, looking unto (aphorāō, G872) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) the author (achēgos, G747) and finisher (teleiōtēs, G5051) of our faith (pistis, G4102); who for the joy (chara, G5479) that was set before (prokeimai, G4295) him endured (hupomenō, G5278) the cross, despising (kataphroneō, G2706) the shame (aischunē, G152), and is set down (kathizō, G2523) at the right hand (dexios, G1188) of the throne (thronos, G2362) of God. For consider him that endured (hupomenō, G5278) such contradiction (antilogia, G485) of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied (kamnō, G2577) and faint (ekluō, G1590) in your minds (psuchē, G5590). Ye have not yet resisted (antikathistēmi, G478) unto blood (aima, G129), striving (antagōnizomai, G464) against sin.'

Since our example and the One who lives in us is Jesus Christ, we should also be longsuffering toward others, enabled by God's love in us to treat all as those in the family of God, or as ones made for it—as brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers.

'But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, '

Galatians 5:22 ESV

'But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, '

' Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God. '

James 1:19-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.19-20>

'Wherefore, my beloved (agapētos, G27) brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow (bradus, G1021) to speak, slow to wrath (orgē, G3709): for the wrath of man worketh (katargazomai, G2716) not the righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) of God. '

James 1:19-20 KJV

' Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it." '

Luke 8:19-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.8.19-21>

'Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press (ochlos, G3793). And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring (thelō, G2309) to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear (akouō, G191) the word (logos, G3056) of God, and do (poieō, G4160) it.'

This includes all those who may be difficult to love, even as we may be difficult to love for certain others.

' We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up... May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. '

Romans 15:1-2,5-7 ESV

'We then that are strong (dunatos, G1415) ought (opheilō, G3784) to bear (bastazō, G941) the infirmities (asthenēma, G771) of the weak (adunatos, G102), and not to please (areskō, G700) ourselves. Let every one of us please (areskō, G700) his neighbour (plēsion, G4139) for his good (agathos, G18) to edification (oikodomē, G3619)... Now the God of patience (hupomonē, G5281) and consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) grant you to be likeminded (phroneō, G5426) one toward another (allēlōn, G240) according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind (homothumadon, G3661) and one mouth glorify (doxazō, G1392) God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive (prolambanō, G4355) ye one another (allēlōn, G240), as Christ also received (prolambanō, G4355) us to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God.'

Prayer: Thank You, God, for Your steadfast, enduring love. Thank You for the riches of your goodness and kindness in Jesus Christ. Spirit of God, empower me to love only as You can. I pray the same for my family and my church.
