Day 18: Patience

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,"

Ephesians 4:1-2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-2.ESV>

The Apostle Paul wrote of those even in the church, "For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ." (Philippians 2:21). This is not the way it should be though. Just as God is steadfast and patient in His love, He expects the body of Christ to exhibit the same kind of patient, enduring love for each other and for others.

Perhaps the most difficult thing Christians will do is to bear with one another and others—everyone they encounter—in patient love. This means that we refuse to take offense, adapting our perception of people to what His redemption has made possible for each individual.

When Christ is abiding within, all things are possible. To abide is to settle down into and make oneself at home in. Consider the analogy where we each could be compared to a house having many rooms, or many parts of our lives that may be considered separable. If we have invited the Holy Spirit to abide in us with abandon, making every room fully available, we can love with God's selfless love. When we abide in Christ, His life causes us to bear His fruit, or His characteristics, patience included.

Patience from God waits in love, seeking the interest of others rather than what it wants. It seeks to build them up, not seeking its own good but theirs. This Spirit-given patience also waits on the Almighty God in faith and trust, believing His word and His promises to be true.

Prayer: Thank You, Lord, for Your patience with me, especially as I have held onto unbelief, pride, and kept back parts of my life, seeking my own good. I give You all of me for all of You, God. Abide in me, Spirit of God. I will choose not to take offense at those You love. Give me your eyes and your emotions to see others as You do and to love them patiently and steadfastly as You do.

Day 19: Peace

"But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

John 14:26-27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.14.26-27.ESV>

We all long for peace.

The living Jesus has given peace (shâlôm) to His disciples—those that have identified themselves with Him, fully consecrated, all in. He is the Prince of Peace. Only Christ can make us whole.

Just as with righteousness, peace is the state of one's spirit when it has been made alive, infilled by the Holy Spirit, connecting one personally to God and His kingdom. The one who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him in a covenant relationship. One spirit!

This new connection causes the gates of heaven, the Holy of Holies, to come near. We become a temple of the living God. Being a temple of God means that the peace of God lies within, accessible to spirit, soul, and body at any moment through prayer.

Peace remains ours when we refuse to take offense at others, adapting our perception of people to what His redemption has made possible. When we have died to ourselves so we can put on Christ, it does not matter if someone else has put a knife in our back or patted us on the back because we are dead—so we are not affected. Choosing to be led by God's Spirit, we do not hold anything against anybody. Instead, we believe the best about everyone. Ever countercultural, Jesus taught love even for enemies, no matter what they may do to us, those we love, or our things. No one can take away the peace of God implanted within our spirits, and we refuse to give it away when tests come our way.

Peace is ours when we come to seek God's will rather than our own will, because we trust in God, who answers our prayers. We trust Him in everything. This leaves no reason to be anxious or to fear. Instead, by prayer and supplication we can boldly let our requests be made known to God at His throne of grace. We can do so with thanks and with praise, having faith in His promise that whatever we ask in His name, this He will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. We can expect it to be answered at that very moment, truly believing it is done, although the visible results may not be manifest until later. When God's will becomes also our will, whatever we desire for the glory of God, He will do it.

And so it is that great faith brings heaven to our souls, and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guards our minds and hearts in Christ Jesus.

Prayer: I praise You, God, for the mystery revealed, Christ in me, the hope of glory. Thank You for joining me to Your spirit and to Your kingdom. Jesus, You have left with me Your peace, and so I have it. In Your peace, I have rest, unaffected by circumstance. I trust You completely.

Day 20: The spirit of unity

"...that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

John 17:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.17.21.ESV>

Who do we see as your family?

Jesus saw His family as larger than His own biological family, including those in His church—those who do the word of God—and yet He did not neglect to care for His own beloved mother. Jesus prayed for a spirit of unity in the church. Just as Jesus is in union with the Father, the church has been made for union with God. It is God's will that the body of Christ be one united body in Christ, functioning together in Christ. God's will is not done though when personal sin, corporate sin, self interest, self promotion, complacency, and division interfere.

God is calling His church back to unity. He calls His people to be eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. This means loving one another as God loves, being careful about what we say, and striving to excel in building up the church. This means seeing other believers as brothers and sisters in Christ, as family that we pursue and value as we should.

By our own efforts, this unity is impossible. Yet, this kind of communion with God and others that seeks to build up and repair is made possible by the infilling of God's Spirit. So let us together lift up Jesus and do His word, deciding to drop everything else. Let us take responsibility for those around us in the church, in our families and in the family of God, seeking God's will for unity, by the power of the Holy Spirit. This unity is part of the rightness of God, bringing glory to God. And so we take the situations around us and join God in turning them into glory to Him.

Prayer: Forgive us, Lord, in the church for the division we have sowed and that which we have allowed to remain. God, as peacemakers we seek to do Your will concerning Your beloved church purchased with the blood of Your own. Lead us, Spirit of God, out of selfishness and complacency to unity and to action. Spirit of God, lead us into fellowships that function together in Christ as Your body was designed to function, united in a bond of love. May nothing hinder Your work.

Day 21: Joy

"I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing... If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you... These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full."

John 15:5,7,11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.15.5-11.ESV>

The joy of the Lord comes from our choice in faith to follow Christ and then to abide in Him. Since members of Christ's body are the temple of the Holy Spirit, this means we invite the Holy Spirit to settle down and make Himself at home in us—in any room, i.e., in every part of our lives.

The living Jesus is the True Vine. Our new life in Him connects us to God through the inflow of the Holy Spirit. We are as branches to the Vine, if we will allow it. The condition for inflow and for growth of God's living word within must be right.

Apart from God, we have only our natural ability, so we can do nothing, which may bring frustration but not joy.

If we align ourselves with God and His will, seeking first His kingdom and righteousness, God answers our prayers, yielding joy, peace, and other fruit, as He gives us more of what is His. It is joy to know God's great love for us, to abide in Christ, and to join God as He makes things right.

Prayer: Father, communion with You in Christ is joy. Seeking your righteousness and seeing you come through has made my joy full. Thank You for the fullness of Life in Christ. I praise You, Spirit of God, for the good works You accomplish through Your church.

Day 22: Thanksgiving

"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1th.5.16-18.ESV>

For what are you thankful?

To be filled with the Spirit is to also be full of thanks and praise, always maintaining connection and communication with God via the channel opened by Jesus Christ.

Since God is also the source of every good and perfect gift, this is a reason for continued thanksgiving. Out of thankful hearts, we should speak thanks. An attitude and a practice of thanksgiving also leads to the renewed mind that we are to develop, for thinking leads to action, continued thinking with accompanying action to habit, and all of this establishes character, or fruit.

Giving thanks helps us to set our mind on things that are above.

Thanks is also to be part of the asking portion of our prayers. In Jesus' model prayer of faith, He thanked our Father for having heard His prayer, then He made a demand for the thing He knew God had granted. On another occasion, He thanked our Father before using His faith to multiply food for 5,000. He did not teach that we should pray to the Father, "if it be Your will," but instead "Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son" (John 14:13).

This is cause for thanksgiving after having made our request in Jesus' name: thank You that You have heard my prayer.

Giving thanks is characteristic of the mind of Christ. In Christ, we have that mind.

Prayer: Thank You, Father, for every good and perfect gift. Thank you for making me an agent of Your grace and compassion. Thank You for revealing Your will in Christ. Speak to me about how today I may bring You glory and thanksgiving through exercising generosity.

Day 23: Praise

"About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened."

Acts 16:25-26 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.16.25-26.ESV>

The love for God that Apostle Paul and Silas had caused them to sing for joy, even when they had just been beaten and imprisoned for sharing the good news of Jesus Christ in Macedonia. Filled with the Spirit, their faith expressed through psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs brought heaven to their souls. In the midst of their chains, they entered God's gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise, blessing God's name.

Their prayer and praise stirred up the Holy Spirit, unleashing the power of God. This power was manifested in an earthquake, the prison doors opening, and everyone's chains being unfastened! They were set free by the God who delights to bring freedom. Moreover, the jailer and his whole family were saved, and they rejoiced.

Having created all men and women in His image to be in an intimate, covenant relationship with Him, God loves us so much that He rejoices over each one of us with gladness and loud singing, according to Zephaniah 3:17!

We are made to worship in spirit and in truth. The truth is that He is such a good, loving Father, and we have misunderstood Him at times. He wants to be known in truth just as we seek to be truly seen and known. Having created every part of us, He does know us better than anyone; He knows our every thought. He is the God who sees you (El Roi).

King David understood God's good nature, and it caused David to write and sing Him many, many songs (psalms). It caused him to dance and leap before the Lord in public with all his might, not caring who saw him or what people thought.

Likewise, there are innumerable reasons for us to praise our God, rich in mercy, who loves big, as only love's author can. And so we join the chorus of praise to the One who has made us eternally alive and seated us in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages He might show the immeasurable riches of His grace in kindness toward us!

Prayer: Blessed be Your Name, Lord God. Who am I that You love me so? I will sing You a new song, for You are my joy, the source of every good and perfect thing! You are my Creator, the Creator of the heavens and the earth. I praise You for having set me free, having joined me to Your eternal kingdom, having prepared good works for me to do, and having made me an heir of Your generous giving for all time.

Day 24: Passion

Luke 15:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.15.20.ESV>

About what are you passionate?

God's passion is shown in the abundant love He shows when beloved children return to Him from their sin. This is illustrated well in the parable of the Prodigal Son. The son had squandered his inheritance, and yet when his father saw him returning, although far away, the father, in his compassion, ran to him, hugged him and kissed him. Then he threw a huge party.

That is passion!

Do you like to be around passionate people?

God is the author of passion. His love is so big that He made a way, a wide channel for His beloved ones to be loved and blessed in Jesus Christ. According to the law of God, it required God to give His only Son to become a sacrifice to His enemy. God had to turn His back, and watch Jesus be beaten, humiliated, suffer and die for the joy set before Him—you and I. God is a giver!

God's steadfast, passionate love pursues, waits, forgives, rejoices. He made us to share His passion. He made us to be people passionate for Him and for those He loves — every one of them.

Prayer: I praise You for the richness of Your love, Lord God. Thank You for Your great love for me, Jesus. In Gethsemane, You knew what was coming, and yet You gave Yourself for the joy set before You. You are my joy. Spirit of God, fill me with Your passion and compassion for all of those You love. Jesus, may the flame of God burn in my heart as it always has in Yours.

Day 25: Humility

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.'

Philippians 2:1-8

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.2.1-8>

Do you know anyone who is particularly selfless?

Jesus Christ is our example of selflessness, and by participation in the Spirit, we are to walk in His steps, being of the same mind. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was humble.

What is this character of humility in Jesus that God enables and encourages in His sons and daughters?

Humility rejects pride in all of its forms, even the subtle ones.

Humility counts others to be more significant than oneself—one's spouse, children, parents, neighbors, coworkers, church members, those who serve, the poor, widows and orphans, the homeless, the drug addicted, those in prison, foreigners...

Each of these are valuable to God, each of them image bearers. Redemption has made possible for them just what it has made possible for you. In these other sons and daughters, we are to see Jesus.

Humility looks after the interests of others and the things of others.

In humility, we are to be servants to all men and women.

Humility says, like Christ, not my own will but Your will I do.

Nothing was beneath Him— not the servant's job of washing dirty feet, and not even being wrongly subjected to the humiliation of death on a cross.

In humility, we forget ourselves, hiding ourselves in Christ so His Spirit may live through us.

Prayer: Jesus, thank You for becoming a curse for me and for Your amazing example of humility and servanthood! Thank You for the earnest of Your Holy Spirit that empowers me to walk in Your steps. Spirit of God, change my thoughts and renew my mind. Remove all remaining selfishness and pride, causing me to see with Your eyes and experience Your emotions for others. This life is not about me; it's about You and those You dearly love. Father, I embrace the role You have given me here as a servant of all. Your kingdom ways are right.

Day 26: Power

'If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. '

Romans 8:11

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.11>

Do people generally think of the God of the Bible as the Great I AM? Or perhaps more as the Great I WAS?

The Apostle Paul prophesied that in these last days which we are in, people would be lovers of self, having an appearance of godliness, but denying its power, led astray by various passions, always learning but not arriving at a knowledge of the truth (2 Timothy 3:1-7).

The remedy for this outcome is the gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the power of God for salvation to everyone that believes. This is a full salvation from the fullness of Jesus Christ and His finished work. Jesus gives the Spirit of God to indwell believers, quickening them until they are made fully alive in His resurrection life— spirit, soul and body— and overflowing with this resurrection life.

In order to carry out the Great Commission (recorded in Matthew, Mark, John, and Acts), Jesus gave His power to the church by way of God's Spirit working with them.

This is the power of God in action through the kingdom of God, which does not consist in talk but in power, according to Paul (1 Corinthians 4:19-20). The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead lives in believers and causes rivers of living water to flow out of them so that they may do the things Jesus did as they go and make disciples in His stead! Cooperating with the Spirit of God, they multiply God's grace and peace in God's supernatural ways.

Just as in the ministry of Jesus, the preaching and teaching of the apostles, Paul included, were accompanied by signs and wonders done by the power of the Spirit of God, the Lord working with them and confirming their message. When God's power mixes with His abundant love for people, the miraculous ensues.

Jesus preached, taught about, and demonstrated the kingdom of God. He instructed and expected His followers to do the same as they learned to minister and carry on His ministry because the world needs to know both the love of God and the power of God. The Spirit of God confirms His word about the finished work of Christ to the extent that its fullness is preached, taught, and acted upon.

Jesus isn't different now that He was then. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, and, as His church, we live in Him and He in us. Jesus said I AM the way, the truth, and the life.

Prayer: Thank You, Jesus for Your finished work for me. Thank You for Your resurrection life that fills me and flows through me, Spirit of God. I praise You that all things are possible for You, Almighty God, and also through faith for we that believe. Thank You for Your trust in me to make me a co-worker with You. Thank You for your Spirit of power, love, and a sound mind. I will not fear. Instead, God, I follow Christ in triumphal procession until everything not of You is put under His feet.

Day 27: Strength

"So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day."

2 Corinthians 4:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.16.ESV>

How do you seek renewal day by day?

In the Old Testament, those that were known to draw strength from the Spirit of God that was with them include Moses, Joshua, Caleb and David. Now the Spirit of God has been poured out on all flesh, sons and daughters, thanks to the finished work of Jesus, and the Spirit's strength is available to renew us day by day for His work.

In Christ, the Spirit of God is our peace every day, our source of rest. Just because the Spirit of God brings us peace and rest, that does not mean that we are to continually seek physical comfort and rest. As the church, God has prepared good works for us to do as we grow up into Christ in all things. Resting in the finished work of Jesus, we are to be about doing all of God's will as Jesus was. This work is not the basis of our salvation—salvation is by faith; but our salvation is just the beginning of our life in Christ.

The Spirit of God gives strength to any that draw it from Him in faith to do the word of God and the will of God. God is a fountain of living waters, and with His life comes strength to do the work, to stand firm, and to persevere. He invests His power into us, although we are jars of clay, His power being made perfect in our weakness. While God has made us each to be channels of His life and strength, He is the flowing river that brings them. We are as branches to the Vine.

Jesus also drew strength from the Spirit of God to continue to preach, teach, and heal multitudes of people. It would have been exhausting in His own strength, but He was strengthened by the Holy Spirit, experiencing victory after victory. Jesus' strength was His connection to our Father: "I am in the Father and the Father is in me" (John 14:11).

In Christ Jesus, we can carry on His ministry as the church, doing all things through Him who strengthens us. We are also strengthened when two or more of one mind and one purpose are gathered together for the work of God: to love, to give, and bless others. Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Prayer: Jesus, I thank You that I am in You and You are in me. I choose to abide in You for life. Spirit of God, lead me. I take in ideas and plans from You to do Your will. I breathe in strength from You. Thank You for equipping me with everything I need. I will walk in faith so You can walk in me.

Day 28: Courage

"The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion."

Proverbs 28:1 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/pro.28.1.ESV>

What is it that you fear?

Many of the Jewish rulers in Jesus' time believed in him, but they would not confess it for fear of excommunication from Jewish life. Jesus' disciples feared for their lives and feared other men until they were changed by the Spirit of God living in them. In the Spirit, they were empowered to live boldly in obedience to Jesus' command to them: "What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." (Matthew 10:27)

In Christ, who is our righteousness, the Spirit of God makes us as bold as a lion, not timid. When it comes to stepping out in faith as an active part of the body of Christ, taking responsibility for those around us and the mission of God, day by day and week by week, we can take courage from the Spirit of God. We are not ashamed of the gospel.

When it comes to speaking up, we take courage. We can take Christ as our example, who spoke up and spoke openly. When we start to speak, the indwelling Spirit of God will speak through us as ambassadors.

When it comes to opposition, we take heart, not fearing shame nor defeat nor death. Opposition is an opportunity to be built up in our faith.

With this courage, we don't fear what anyone thinks of us. Like David, we may even feel free to dance with all our might throughout the streets in worship for our love and joy in the Lord. Driven by his love for God, it did not bother David even when he was criticized for it by his spouse.

In Christ, we take courage. We can take up faith as a shield, knowing that with it we can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one. In Christ, God is with us and for us, so nothing can stand against us.

As we choose to boldly step out, the Spirit grows us in maturity from lesser faith to greater faith. If we no longer live except in Christ, we can live by the faith of the Son of God, who was ever victorious, except for the persecution He willingly suffered unto His shame and death. Yet from this suffering He rose victorious.

In all things, we are to follow in His steps by the courage He imparts to us as those in Christ.

Prayer: In You, Christ, I take heart and do not fear what others think or what they can do to me. God, I love You first and I fear You alone, so I will let Your light shine before others. Thank You for making me bold like You, Jesus. I praise You with all that is within me. I bless Your Holy Name.

Link to Day 28 scripture study

Day 29: Determination

"For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me."

John 6:38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.6.38.ESV>

In His in-person ministry, Jesus was determined to do His Father's will. He lived and died for this, and, in Christ, His will is also to become our will.

Jesus was determined to have victory, setting people free from every evil. In fulfillment of Scripture, His ministry freed all captives that came to Him, and He still frees every captive. He has always been determined to do good. Doing good is from God's kind of love—love in action.

Jesus was determined to display the righteousness of God by physically healing all that came to Him believing. On one recorded occasion, Jesus healed a blind man's sight imperfectly in his first step; then, resolute to complete the good work, He finished it.

Jesus was determined to preach the kingdom of God and to teach truth. He taught truth from God so all would know what is right and how they were expected to live.

Despite occasions of frustration, Jesus was determined to disciple faith, renewed minds, and love into the apostles that would be the first to take on His mission to reach the world with God's good news of the gospel. They were made ready to take on the fullness of His Spirit.

In determination for this sacred purpose, Jesus expected much of all of His followers. He expected them to forsake all to follow Him. He expected them to grow in faith and in love. He expected them to follow in His steps. He is still seeking those determined to follow, not fans.

Jesus was determined to obey His Father unto a painful, shameful death, setting an example of love and humility. Even in His suffering and death, Jesus was determined to turn every situation into glory for God, including those the devil meant for bad. He told His church to be of the same mind and purpose, empowered by the Holy Spirit in them, even as He was. We are to be zealous for good works that bring glory to God.

Prayer: I praise and thank You, God, for Your determination to pursue me and do good unto me and those You have enabled me to know and to love. Jesus, greater are You in me than he that is in the world. And so while I have Your resurrection life in me, I will not stop living and proclaiming Your gospel that brings liberty and victory. I delight to do all of Your will, God. Thanks be to You, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession. Your love never fails.

Day 30: Authority

"When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet..."

Psalms 8:3-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.8.3-6.ESV>

Authority is often given in measure depending upon the level of responsibility that is given.

As the Almighty God, God has all authority to give, and authority operates according to His spiritual laws set in place before the creation of the universe.

God gave authority to men and women when He created them, contingent on faith in Him, and they were tricked out of it when they lost faith. After that point, God first gave authority back in measure to His prophets and elders, the Spirit of God with them, as they had responsibility to care for God's people. King David, who was also a prophet, rejoiced in who God made us to be in the psalm cited above.

Baptized in the Holy Spirit, Christ Jesus was given authority as the Son of God, empowering His ministry. In spending time with Jesus, the faith of the disciples was ever increasing. When Jesus sent out His disciples to minister, first the 12 disciples and later the 72 that left everything to follow Him, He gave them authority to minister as He did, the Spirit of God with them, and they did.

At His resurrection, Jesus was given all authority in heaven and on earth. He has given it to His church—those who are in Christ—operating through the gift of faith, to carry on His mission to reach the world with the gospel. Jesus has made His church, His new body in the world, fully responsible to complete this mission.

Authority is great faith. As the church, this spiritual authority that Jesus taught His disciples and expected His disciples to practice is part of our identity in Christ, although many of us are uncomfortable with it. Yet, when we cooperate with the Holy Spirit to be made into the image of Christ, we can put on the faith of the Son of God. In this faith, the Spirit reminds us of God's words: "All things are possible to one who believes" (Mark 9:23) and "greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

The Apostle Paul was one who had great faith, boldness, and the power of God, which enabled him to say, "...thanks be to God, who in Christ leads us in triumphal procession..." (2 Corinthians 2:14). Paul understood that all things are under Christ's feet and that he was hidden in Christ.

Prayer: Thank You for sharing who You are, Almighty God. Thank You for entrusting Your church to be Your ambassadors to take up Your will and Your mission. Thank You for equipping us with authority in faith given such responsibility. I praise You for putting the treasure of the Spirit of God in us as jars of clay. In Christ, I also take on Your strength, courage and determination for Your good work, the building up of Your church, and pray that everything I do would be done in tenderhearted love.

Day 31: Wholeness

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,"

Psalms 103:2-3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.103.2-3.ESV>

There is life and healing in the love of God, as shown in Jesus Christ.

Jesus is the fulfillment of the redemptive purpose and the redemptive names of God. One of those names is Jehovah Rapha, or "I am the Lord who heals you" (Exodus 15:26). As part of our faith in God, we can come to Jesus in faith, trusting Him as our healer to restore us to wholeness or keep us in health, up until the time that the good works He has prepared for us here are complete. These good works are accomplished in cooperation with God and other believers to obey Jesus' Great Commission and to show God's love.

Jesus was a healer, and He didn't leave people sick as He ministered. Neither did His apostles. Jesus healed all that came to Him, believing He could make them whole. Healing is part of the fullness of redemption in the atonement of Jesus Christ in fulfillment of Isaiah 53: "He Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses" (Matthew 8:17, NKJV). Healing is a sign that confirms the gospel of the kingdom preached by evangelists. Jesus also called healing "the children's bread" (Matthew 15:26), something that belongs to God's children. According to Jesus, His family includes those who do the word of God.

The Apostle James wrote his letter to God's children who were young in the faith, saying they should call on elders in the church to pray a prayer of faith for the sick that they may be healed. An elder is a mature believer, a person of unwavering faith, that has taken on the leadership of a local body of the church. It is someone who is obedient to Jesus' commission to believers as the apostles were.

Gifts of healing are gifts of the Holy Spirit given to some in the body of Christ, even as they were given to the Apostle Paul. He revealed that the key to this resurrection life flowing out of him by the Spirit to others was "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27) and "the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God" (Galatians 2:20, KJV). It was his identity in Christ. Paul had taken responsibility for God's mission to the world, and so the Spirit of God worked through him as he strove to excel in building up the church.

For Christians in the West, we at least believe that God wants our spirits and minds healthy and whole. Along with a significant part of the worldwide church, I contend also, as Jesus Christ did and as the Apostle Paul did, that the body is sacred as well. It's the very temple of God, even as the outer court was part of God's tabernacle — and, through the fullness of His atonement, He wills to make our bodies whole for His work as well. As doers of His word, we are members of His healthy, functioning body, and the Great Physician desires to quicken us with His resurrection life and strength.

Some may also consider wholeness to include financial prosperity. If He is to make any of us financially prosperous, this is for the generosity of giving to His will and purposes as well.

Prayer: Living Jesus, I thank You that You still heal as You always have, in demonstration of the kingdom of God that has come near. Thank You for Your finished work and the resurrection life you give in fullness. Spirit of God, I praise You for Your work, Your power and Your love shed abroad in bringing freedom, health and wholeness. I love You with all that I am, and my will is to do all of Your will. Help me to assimilate Your love.

Day 32: Hope

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

Romans 15:13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.15.13.ESV>

Christ in you is "the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27). The living Jesus Christ is the hope of His church. We let Jesus have the preeminence and lift Him up. The more He is held up, the more people will get in love with Him and drop everything else.

The fullness of Jesus is the hope for our lives. Christ in us, we already are (in our spirits) what we may have been waiting to become. Let's drop everything else. It pales in comparison to the fullness of Jesus.

Consider the perfect love of a parent for a child. God made that, and He made us as His glory. Considering that He created every good and perfect thing, can you imagine what He is preparing for His church in the time when all evil has been put under Christ's feet? It's time to drop everything else.

Jesus and what He has already accomplished in His finished work is the hope for our families, our neighborhoods, and our nations.

With such a hope, we are very bold. Believing, let's step out in faith and love — the faith of the Son of God and the love of the Son of God, led by the Spirit of God — until God has made this hope complete. He Himself is our joy and our peace; this can never be taken away from us.

Prayer: I praise You for Your fullness, God, and that You have shared it with me in Christ. You are my hope, for You are able to do far more abundantly than all I ask or think, according to the power You have at work within me. To You be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Day 33: Overflowing Life

"On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified."

John 7:37-39 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.7.37-39.ESV>

In Christ, we start in new life, resurrected with Jesus by the same Spirit that raised Him from the dead. This is the miracle-working power of God.

Abiding in Christ, He gives us fullness of life from His own fullness, and causes His resurrection life to flow out of us. This is life in God.

He is the Giver, and as His ambassadors we come to share in the generosity of God's giving in its various forms. Partners in His grace and compassion, we give life, seeking more and more thanksgiving and glory to be given to God.

Abiding in Him, enthroned at the right hand of God, the Spirit of God makes us fruitful. His will is for you to bear fruit that will last.

In us and through us, He multiplies grace and peace. His church is the channel through which He has chosen to flow out.

As Christ is now, so are we in this world. As a member of God's church, You are a channel of the living God and every good thing.

Let's believe the Word of God given to us. Let's nourish it, causing it to grow and do what God designed it to do: bear fruit, demonstrate His love, generously give, make things right, bring freedom, multiply.

Prayer: I praise You that You are alive in me, Jesus, and in Your beloved church. Thank You for who You have made us in Your image and likeness, God, transforming us into the image of Christ, from one degree of glory to another. I believe it. I seek first Your kingdom and Your righteousness. I intensely desire to see spiritual results, the fulfillment of Your will. Thank You for making me a co-worker with You, a doer of Your Word, led by You, Holy Spirit. I attune my spirit with You, Spirit of God, for action in Your will.

The Christian life

It is important to know that you are saved and then to cooperate with God to keep on growing in your faith while you follow Christ. Here are the stages of spiritual life as I see them laid out in the Bible.

1. Although made in God's image and loved by God, our spirits are dead, in need of resurrection, and our eternal destination is hell. We live in sin and disobedience. To be made alive, we must be ready to: a) give up the worldly, self-serving life we live that brings death; b) count the cost of following Christ over ourselves and the world. If we love life in the world and think it brings life and freedom apart from choosing God's will for our lives, why give it up or change? Why fall on our knees before God? God must bring us to a place where we are poor in spirit and ready for a divine work and leading to change everything.
2. Through a work of God's spirit, in our soul and mind, we believe the gospel, and that God, who is good and generous, has better for us both now and later. We confess that Jesus is Lord with our lips, and we decide to follow Christ, to love and obey God despite the cost. We die with Christ, are raised with Him in life, and are joined to His spirit; our spirit becomes alive in us with Jesus' resurrection life. The Word of God has taken root in us as an imperishable seed, yet we will likely not exhibit the characteristics of Christ's nature right away.
3. We begin as carnal, worldly Christians who start maturing. Our soul (mind, will, emotions) dominates us, and we struggle against our flesh that wants to take control. We begin growing through prayer (through which we know God), Bible reading (through which we know the words of God), and fellowship with the church (i.e., the worldwide body of Christ made alive in God's spirit). We are still significantly affected by the cares of the world and our emotions. We must continue to die to self (or shed layers of self to become more like the image of Christ, whose spirit is within us).
4. We continue to mature spiritually as we make right choices, dying to self by choosing to love God over self interest, choosing victory over sin, and believing the Word of God, e.g., that we are the righteousness of God in Christ. We recognize our responsibility for others. Obeying the command of God to love as He does, we serve people. In Christ as the Vine and with our Father as the vinedresser, we grow in intimacy with God, making God first in our lives. We begin to bear more of the fruit of the Spirit, or the characteristics of Christ's nature. It is by one's fruit, including and especially our godlike-love for others, that it becomes evident we actually abide in Christ. A tree is known by its fruit.
5. We renew our minds to the words and will of God. We understand and believe our ascended position in Christ as sons and daughters with a full heavenly inheritance. We not only believe, but we act on the word of God which is in us and growing. Not only our spirits, but our souls and bodies are quickened (made alive).

We continue to take responsibility for others, striving to excel in building up God's church. We use our abilities and spiritual gifts to bring glory to God. We are sanctified: we have the mind of Christ. We hunger and thirst after righteousness, including spiritual results.

6. We are filled with the Spirit of God in fullness, including His kind of love and mercy for our neighbors and the world. We abide in Him and He in us, and He makes us pure in heart. In close relationship with God, our consciousness of the spiritual increases. We pray continually. We are led by the Spirit. Sanctified, we have the mind of Christ and all of the mind of Christ. Consecrated to God, we build the church and advance His kingdom and interests. We bear fruit, looking more like Jesus, and operate as children of God, participating in His generosity toward others. We are peacemakers. We are ever victorious, doing God's will to bring Him glory. We see the power of God and answered prayer, bringing us exceeding joy. We experience resistance and count it also as joy. This is experiencing God's best. It may not be easy, but it's full and it brings us peace despite circumstance; it's the life on earth for which we were made.

7. Often after a long, full life, our bodies die. Our spirit lives. We experience God's judgment, yet we are found righteous in Christ. We receive a reward that depends on how we've lived our lives here. We receive new bodies and get to live the eternal life our Creator has prepared for us with Him in the place He has created—from the abundance of His good, His generosity, and His riches; with none of the bad that is in this world from sin and the devil.

'If you have not been saved from your sin or you are unsure that you are saved, you should know that God loves you — no matter who you are, no matter what your past. God loves you so much that He gave His one and only begotten Son for you. The Bible tells us that "...whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16 NIV). Jesus laid down His life and rose again so that we could spend eternity with Him in heaven and experience His absolute best on earth. If you would like to receive Jesus into your life, say the following prayer out loud and mean it from your heart.

Heavenly Father, I come to You admitting that I am a sinner. Right now, I choose to turn away from sin, and I ask You to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that He rose again from the dead so that I would be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in Him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the Savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow You and ask that You fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus' name. Amen.'

Identity in Christ: other descriptions

This book describes 33 characteristics of the family that is identified with Christ as Lord, doing the word of God. Besides these characteristics, Scripture also describes our identity in the following twelve ways:

1. We are children of God, His beloved family. We are fellow heirs with Christ, both sons and daughters of God. His family is a royal family; Scripture also says we will be kings.
2. We are servants to all of mankind. Scripture also calls us priests, who are servants to God's people and representatives of God.
3. We are the temple of God. We are as pillars in God's temple.
4. We are warriors or soldiers who are more than conquerors.
5. We are ambassadors for Christ.
6. We are God's fellow workers or co-workers.
7. We are stewards of what is His.
8. We are followers of the living Christ. We are His disciples.
9. We are disciple makers. We are shepherds of God's flock.
10. We are the bride of Christ, united to God in Christ.
11. We are lamps that burn, fueled by God. We are lights shining on a hill.
12. We are runners in a race.

Our identity in Christ is overwhelmingly good! We need to know what is true, thinking rightly about who we are such that it is ingrained in us, we proclaim it, and we act on it. This is the truth, and what we believe to be true at our core deeply affects what we think about and how we live out our lives.

In view of this, let us daily align ourselves with God's purposes, ideas, concepts, plans, goals, agenda, dreams, mission, kingdom and will — not our own.

Identity in Christ and Christian traditions: my experience and view as of 2022

Specific views on identity in Christ vary somewhat by Christian tradition. I'm willing to embrace the differences from believers that call and approach the Scriptures as the inspired Word of God because God wants unity in His church (John 17:21-23). In essentials, there is need for unity; in non-essentials, there must be liberty. In all things, there must be charity (these are not my words). God is calling his church back to unity!

How will there be unity if we don't embrace those of different traditions in the Christian faith that believe the Bible to be God's Word and act on their faith? In humility, we need to know that we don't have everything right in the details of our beliefs — nor does it matter; but, unity does matter. God is doing a new thing, seeking to weave together our stories and draw us to unite our arms with our brothers and sisters in Christ so that Jesus may be exalted among us and so that His Spirit will flow more freely among us and into the world.

I got my start in the Christian faith 30 years ago among Christians from the evangelical Christian church in metro Detroit. God began to disciple me through the instruction of more mature Christians and by His Spirit. I began to learn about my identity in Christ through books like Neil Anderson's Victory over the Darkness and J.I. Packer's Knowing God.

I also grew up amidst family members from a Charismatic Catholic background. Among them are wonderful men and women of faith. I've seen that the Spirit of God is alive and moving in the Catholic church and in the Protestant church. I haven't had the pleasure yet to get to know Christians from Orthodox traditions.

In college, I served among other evangelical Christians as a leading member of a parachurch ministry. At Intervarsity's Urbana event in 1998, I met a more diverse group of evangelical Christians that desired to serve God with their lives, Pentecostal Christians included.

Now in Knoxville, TN, for over 14 years, the first church at which I became a member was an evangelical church that had embraced some of the beliefs and practices of Charismatic and Pentecostal churches. They had a prayer team that functioned in prophecy as a way to edify the church (1 Corinthians 14). All of the pastors spoke in tongues, although never in service; I never heard them speak it. They had a room for healing beside the rooms we gathered in for church. (All of this is consistent with the church described in 1 Corinthians 12.) I don't know anything about it except that those who needed healing were invited to go there for prayer.

Around the same time, I started to become aware that growth in the church abroad was spreading more rapidly among Pentecostal and Charismatic churches. I was particularly amazed by the testimonies given by Brother Yun and those who knew him in the biography The Heavenly Man. It led me to say yes to an invitation from a close colleague to take a trip to Western China in 2014. I'm deeply impressed by the Christians in the Chinese underground church. (Not long ago Brother Yun came to a church in Knoxville where I met him.)

My pursuit to find out more about this community and their missionary efforts led to more exposure to Charismatic, Pentecostal, Apostolic and Full Gospel movements, including those in the UK and US. I only started to discover the ones in Europe and the US during the pandemic which began in 2020. I am blown away by the work of God in the West over the past 200 years up until this day. Nothing will ever be the same in my mind. It's all real. All of it.

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8)! The testimonies of God's continuing work show that God continues the work the way He did when He first gave His Spirit to live in His sons and daughters. Life in Christ is the same for the Apostle Peter (see the Book of Acts!) as it was for Saint Patrick (amazing!), as it is today. Life in God is what it's all about; it's the sweetest thing ever.

This recent journey of mine has inspired this expanded view of the church's identity in Christ which includes gifts of the Holy Spirit, assuming no changes since the time of the apostles and the early church. There haven't been any changes.

God isn't the God who was. He is the great "I AM." He is now and will forever be.

Together as God's church, we have all parts of this identity in Christ, lay people and pastors included. As individuals, God also wants to be known in His fullness and to share Himself in fullness.

We aren't meant to live alone nor to pursue God alone, seeking to know more and to enjoy our relationship with God by ourselves. We belong instead in the family of the church, the very body of Jesus Christ, and are purposed to love God and serve all people with this body. Christ's church is not to be a set of silos that work independently, but instead a unified body composed of living parts, or teams, that together function in all of the ways God intended—all of the ways He did in the New Testament.

God has made the church the hope of the world, the Spirit of God living and operating through its members. Knowing who God made us together in Christ, let's pursue the unity of God's church, motivated by God's love (1 Corinthians 13).

Scripture study section

This section of the book is for those who would like to study the scripture references for any or all of the days. I chose from two of the most accurate English translations of the New Testament, the King James Version (KJV, 1611) and English Standard Version (ESV, 2016), reproducing scripture according to the oldest and according to one modern translation 405 years later.

For further study, this section also contains selected Hebrew and Greek words for lookup. These words are referenced according to the numbers for Strong's Concordance, allowing lookup for how the words are elsewhere used in the Bible. For Hebrew words, a useful reference to help understanding is the Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon (1906). For Greek words, a useful reference to aid understanding is Joseph Henry Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament (1886). Some Bible apps now have these references embedded, such as the Blue Letter Bible and the Bible KJV Strong's Concordance (Karios). Of these options, I prefer to use the latter, although the former is a more complete reference.

Day 18: Patience (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What causes you to be offended? What makes you upset?
2. In what ways is God's love patient and steadfast?
3. How is your love for those in Christ's church patient and steadfast?
Attentive to their interests?
4. How is your love for those outside Christ's church patient and steadfast?
Attentive to their interests?
5. What part of your life are you holding back from the Spirit of God?

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,"

Ephesians 4:1-2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-2.ESV>

'I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the vocation (klētos, G2821) wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) and meekness (praotēs, G4236), with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing (anechomai, G439) one another in love (agapē, G26);'

Ephesians 4:1-2 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.4.1-2>

The Apostle Paul wrote of those even in the church, "For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ." (Philippians 2:21).

'I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.'

Philippians 2:19-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.2.19-21>

'But I trust (elpizō, G1679) in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus (Timotheos, G5095) shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort (eupsucheō, G2174), when I know your state. For I have no man likeminded (isopsuchos, G2473), who will naturally (gnēsios, G1104) care for (merimnaō, G3309) your state. For all seek (zēteō, G2212) their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.'

Philippians 2:19-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP.2.19-21>

This is not the way it should be though. Just as God is steadfast and patient in His love, He expects the body of Christ to exhibit the same kind of patient, enduring love for each other and for others.

“May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.”

Romans 15:5-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.15.5-7.ESV>

“Now the God of patience (hupomonē, G5281) and consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) grant you to be likeminded (phronēō, G5426) one toward another (allēlōn, G240) according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind (homothumadon, G3661) and one mouth glorify (doxazō, G1392) God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive (prolambanō, G4355) ye one another (allēlōn, G240), as Christ also received (prolambanō, G4355) us to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God.”

Romans 15:5-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.15.5-7.KJV>

“And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy;”

Colossians 1:9-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.1.9-11.ESV>

“For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire (aiteō, G154) that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of his will (thelēma, G2307) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678) and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) understanding (sunesis, G4907); that ye might walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful (karpophoreō, G2592) in every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041), and increasing (auxanō, G837) in the knowledge of God; strengthened (dunamoō, G1412) with all might (dunamis, G1411), according to his glorious (doxa, G1391) power (kratos, G2904), unto all patience (hupomonē, G5281) and longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115) with joyfulness (chara, G5479);”

Colossians 1:9-11 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.1.9-11.KJV>

Perhaps the most difficult thing Christians will do is to bear with one another and others—everyone they encounter—in patient love. This means that we refuse to take offense,

"I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil. I hate and abhor falsehood, but I love your law. Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules. Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.119.162-165.ESV>

"I rejoice at thy word ('imrâh, H565), As one that findeth great spoil. I hate and abhor lying (sheqer, H8267): But thy law (tôrâh, H8451) do I love ('âhab, H157). Seven times a day do I praise (hâlâl, H1984) thee because of thy righteous (tsedeq, H6664) judgments (mishpât, H4941). Great (rab, H7227) peace (shâlôm, H7965) have they which love ('âhab, H157) thy law: And nothing shall offend (mikshôl, H4383) them."

Psalms 119:162-165 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/psa.119.162-165.KJV>

' "But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. '

Luke 6:27-30 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.27-30>

'But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do (poieō, G4160) good (kalōs, G2573) to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. And unto him that smiteth (tuptō, G5180) thee on the one cheek (siagōn, G4600) offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke (himation, G2440) forbid (kōluō, G2967) not to take thy coat (chitōn, G5509) also. Give (didōmi, G1325) to every man that asketh (aiteō, G154) of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them (apaiteō, G523) not again.'

adapting our perception of people to what His redemption has made possible for each individual.

"And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd."

Matthew 9:35-36 ESV

"And Jesus went about (periagō, G4013) all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the kingdom (basileia, G932), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) every sickness (nosos, G3554) and every disease (malakia, G3119) among the people. But when he saw (eidō, G1492) the multitudes (ochlos, G3793), he was moved with compassion (spagchnizomai, G4697) on them, because they fainted (ekluō, G1590), and were scattered abroad (rhiptō, G4496), as sheep having (echō, G2192) no shepherd."

Matthew 9:35-36 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.9.35-36.KJV>

' And they came to Jericho. And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" And Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart. Get up; he is calling you." And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. And Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, let me recover my sight." And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.'

Mark 10:46-52 ESV

'And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timæus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out (krazō, G2896), and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on me. And many charged (eptimaō, G2008) him that he should hold his peace (siōpaō, G4623): but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort (tharseō, G2293), rise; he calleth thee. And he, casting away his garment (himation, G2440), rose, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt (thelō, G2309) thou that I should do (poieō, G4160) unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight (anabelpō, G308). And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way (hupagō, G5217); thy faith (pistis, G4102) hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982). And immediately he received his sight (anabelpō, G308), and followed (akolouthēō, G190) Jesus in the way (hodos, G3598).'

Mark 10:46-52 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.10.46-52>

'As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. '

John 9:1-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.9.1-7>

'And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin (hamartanō, G264), this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works (ergon, G2041) of God should be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) in him. I must work (ergazomai, G2038) the works (ergon, G2041) of him that sent me, while it is day (hēmera, G2250): the night (nux, G3571) cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light (phōs, G5457) of the world (kosmos, G2889). When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made (poieō, G4160) clay (pēlos, G4081) of the spittle, and he anointed (epichriō, G2025) the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said unto him, Go (hupagō, G5217), wash (niptō, G3538) in the pool of Siloam (Silōam, G4611), (which is by interpretation, Sent (apostellō, G649).) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing (blepō, G991). '

'And they were astonished (ekplēssō, G1605) out of measure (perissōs, G4057), saying among themselves, Who then can (dunamai, G1410) be saved (sōzō, G4982)? And Jesus looking upon (emblepō, G1689) them saith, With men it is impossible

(adunatos, G102), but not with God: for with God all things are possible (dunatos, G1415). '

Mark 10:26-27 KJV

'Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples... You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. '

John 15:4-8,16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.4-8,16>

'Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch (klēma, G2814) cannot bear (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590) of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do (poieō, G4160) nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered (xērainō, G3583); and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words (rhēma, G4487) abide in you, ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) what ye will (thelō, G2309), and it shall be done (ginomai, G1096) unto you. Herein is my Father glorified (doxazō, G1392), that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be (ginomai, G1096) my disciples... Ye have not chosen (eklegomai, G1586) me, but I have chosen you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go (hupagō, G5217) and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you. '

To abide is to settle down into and make oneself at home in. Consider the analogy where we each could be compared to a house having many rooms, or many parts of our lives that may be considered separable. If we have invited the Holy Spirit to abide in us with abandon, making every room fully available, we can love with God's selfless love. When we abide in Christ, His life causes us to bear His fruit, or His characteristics, patience included.

' "For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit, for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thornbushes, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.'

Luke 6:43-45 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.43-45>

'For a good (kalos, G2570) tree bringeth not forth (poieō, G4160) corrupt (sapos, G4550) fruit (karpos, G2590); neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good (kalos, G2570) fruit. For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. A good (agathos, G18) man out of the good treasure (thēsauros, G2344) of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil (ponēros, G4190) man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance (perisseuma, G4051) of the heart his mouth speaketh.'

Luke 6:43-45 KJV

Luke 8:14-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.8.14-15.ESV>

"And that which fell among thorns (akantha, G173) are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked (sumpnigō, G4846) with cares and riches (ploutos, G4149) and pleasures (hēdonē, G2237) of this life (bios, G979), and bring no fruit to perfection (telesphoreō, G5052). But that on the good (kalos, G2570) ground are they, which in an honest (kalos, G2570) and good (agathos, G18) heart (kardia, G2588), having heard the word (logos, G3056), keep (katechō, G2722) it, and bring forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592) with patience (hupomonē, G5281)."

Luke 8:14-15 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.8.14-15.KJV>

'For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love... For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit.'

Galatians 5:6,13-25 ESV

For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision (peritomē, G4061) availeth (ischuō, G2480) any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh (energeō, G1754) by love (agapē, G26)... For, brethren (adelphos, G80), ye have been called (kaleō, G2564) unto liberty (eleutheria, G1657); only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh (sarx, G4561), but by love (agapē, G26) serve (douleuō, G1398) one another. For all the law (nomos, G3551) is fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in one word (logos, G3056), even in this; thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139) as thyself. But if ye bite (daknō, G1143) and devour (kathesthiō, G2719) one another, take heed that ye be not consumed (analiskō, G355) one of another. This I say then, Walk (peripateō, G4043) in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil (teleō, G5055) the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561). For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do (poieō, G4160) the things that ye would (thelō, G2309). But if ye be led (agō, G71) of the Spirit, ye are not under the law (nomos, G3551). Now the works (ergon, G2041) of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), lasciviousness (aselgeia, G766), idolatry, witchcraft (pharmakeia, G5331), hatred, variance (eris, G2054), emulations (zēlos, G2205), wrath (thumos, G2372), strife (eritheia, G2052), seditions (dichostasia, G1370), heresies (hairesis, G139), envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings (kōmos, G2970), and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do (prassō, G4238) such things shall not inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, meekness (praotēs, G4236), temperance (egkrateia, G1466): against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified (stauroō, G4717) the flesh (sarx, G4561) with the affections and lusts (epithumia, G1939). If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit.'

'And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.'

'And hereby we do know (ginōskō, G1097) that we know (ginōskō, G1097) him, if we keep (tēreō, G5083) his commandments (entolē, G1785). He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar (pseustēs, G5583), and the truth (alētheia, G225) is not in him. But whoso keepeth (tēreō, G5083) his word (logos, G3056), in him verily (alēthōs, G230) is the love (agapē, G26) of God perfected (teleioō, G5048): hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith (legō, G3004) he abideth (menō, G3306) in him ought (opheilō, G3784) himself also so to walk (peripateō, G4043), even as he walked (peripateō, G4043).'

"Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away."

"Charity (agapē, G26) suffereth long (makrothumeō, G3114), and is kind (chrēsteuomai, G5541); charity envieth (zēloō, G2206) not; charity vaunteth (perpereuomai, G4068) not itself, is not puffed up (phusioō, G5448), doth not behave itself unseemly (aschēmoneō, G807), seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked (paroxunō, G3947), thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth (sugchairō, G4796) in the truth; beareth (stegō, G4722) all things, believeth (pisteuō, G4100) all things, hopeth (elpizō, G1679) all things, endureth (hupomenō, G5278) all things. Charity never faileth (ekpiptō, G1601): but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail (katargeō, G2673); whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), it shall vanish away."

It seeks to build them up, not seeking its own good but theirs. This Spirit-given patience also waits on the Almighty God in faith and trust, believing His word and His promises to be true.

'But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, sometimes being publicly exposed to reproach and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, "Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him." But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.'

Hebrews 10:32-39 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/HEB.10.32-39>

'But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated (phōtizō, G5461), ye endured a great fight of afflictions (pathēma, G3804); partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock (theatrizō, G2301) both by reproaches (oneidismos, G3680) and afflictions (thlipsis, G2347); and partly, whilst ye became companions (koinōnos, G2844) of them that were so used (anastrepho, G390). For ye had compassion (sumpatheō, G4834) of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling (harpagē, G724) of your goods (huparchonta, G5224), knowing in yourselves that ye have (echō, G2192) in heaven a better and an enduring (menō, G3306) substance (huparxis, G5223). Cast not away therefore your confidence (parrhēsia, G3954), which hath great recompence of reward. For ye have need of patience (hupomonē, G5281), that, after ye have done (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of God, ye might receive (komizō, G2865) the promise (epaggelia, G1860). For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry (chronizō, G5549). Now the just (dikaios, G1342) shall live (zaō, G2198) by faith (pistis, G4102); but if any man draw back (hupostellō, G5288), my soul (psuchē, G5590) shall have no pleasure (eudokeō, G2106) in him. But we are not of them who draw back (hupostolē, G5289) unto perdition (apōleia, G684); but of them that believe (pistis, G4102) to the saving (peripoiēsis, G4047) of the soul (psuchē, G5590).'

'Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand... As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. Behold, we consider those Behold, the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092) waiteth (ekdechomai, G1551) for the precious (timios, G5093) fruit (karpos, G2590) of the earth, and hath long patience (makrothumeō, G3114) for it, until he receive (lambanō, G2983) the early (prōimos, G4406) and latter (opsimos, G3797) rain. Be ye also patient (makrothumeō, G3114); stablish (stērizō, G4741) your hearts (kardia, G2588): for the coming (parousia, G3952) of the Lord draweth nigh (eggizō, G1448)... Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction (kakopatheia, G2552), and of patience (makrothumia, G3115). Behold, we count them happy (makarizō, G3106) which endure (hupomenō, G5278). Ye have heard of the patience (hupomonē, G5281) of Job (Iōb, G2492), and have seen the end (telos, G5056) of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful (polusplagchnos, G4184), and of tender mercy (oiktirmōn, G3629).'

For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory. 'But as God is true (pistos, G4103), our word (logos, G3056) toward you was not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached (kērussō, G2784) among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus (Timotheos, G5095), was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. For all the promises (epaggelia, G1860) of God in him are yea, and in him Amen (amēn, G281), unto the glory (doxa, G1391) of God by us. Now he which stablisheth (bebaioō, G950) us with you in Christ (Christos, G5547), and hath anointed (chriō, G5548) us, is God; who hath also sealed (sphragizō, G4972) us, and given (didōmi, G1325) the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of the Spirit (pneuma, G4151) in our hearts (kardia, G2588). Prayer: Thank You, Lord, for Your patience with me, especially as I have held onto unbelief, pride, and kept back parts of my life, seeking my own good.

'Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.'

James 4:7-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.4.7-8>

'Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist (anthistēmi, G436) the devil (diabolos, G1228), and he will flee from you. Draw nigh (eggizō, G1448) to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse (katharizō, G2511) your hands, ye sinners; and purify (hagnizō, G48) your hearts (kardia, G2588), ye double minded (dipsuchos, G1374).'

James 4:7-8 KJV

I give You all of me for all of You, God.

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might."

Deuteronomy 6:5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/deu.6.5.ESV>

"and thou shalt love ('âhab, H157) the LORD thy God with all thine heart (lêbâb, H3824), and with all thy soul (nephesh, H5315), and with all thy might (me'ôd, H3966)."

'To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.'

Colossians 1:27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.1.27>

'to whom God would make known what is the riches (ploutos, G4149) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of this mystery (mustērion, G3466) among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope (elpis, G1680) of glory (doxa, G1391):'

Colossians 1:27 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.1.27>

Abide in me, Spirit of God.

'Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. '

Romans 5:1-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.5.1-5>

'Therefore being justified (dikaioō, G1344) by faith, we have peace (eirēnē, G1515) with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access (prosaōgōgē, G4318) by faith into this grace (charis, G5485) wherein we stand, and rejoice (kauchaomai, G2744) in hope (elpis, G1680) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience (hupomonē, G5281); and patience, experience (dokimē, G1382); and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love (agapē, G26) of God is shed abroad (ekcheō, G1682) in our hearts (kardia, G1688) by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. '

'What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. '

2 Corinthians 6:16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.6.16>

'And what agreement (sugkatathesis, G4783) hath the temple (naos, G3485) of God with idols (eidōlon, G1497)? for ye are the temple of the living (zaō, G2198) God; as God hath said, I will dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in (en, G1722) them, and walk in (emperipateō, G1704) them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.'

2 Corinthians 6:16 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.6.16>

'Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. '

1 John 4:11-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.4.11-13>

'Beloved (agapētos, G27), if God so loved us, we ought (opheilō, G3784) also to love one another. No man hath seen (theaomai, G2300) God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth (menō, G3306) in us, and his love is perfected (teleioō, G5048) in us. Hereby know we that we dwell (menō, G3306) in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. '

Return to Day 18

Day 19: Peace (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What did Jesus mean when He said that He gave His peace to His disciples?
2. What does it mean for us to be a temple of God?
3. How do our responses to the circumstances of life, including how other people treat us, reflect our relationship with God?
4. What does it look like to seek God's will over our own?
5. How is prayer meant to affirm the peace that Christ has given to us?

"But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.14.26-27.ESV>

"But the Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance (hupomimnēsko, G5279), whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace (eirēnē, G1515) I leave (aphiēmi, G863) with you, my peace (eirēnē, G1515) I give (didōmi, G1325) unto you: not as the world (kosmos, G2889) giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled (tarassō, G5015), neither let it be afraid (deiliaō, G1168)."

John 14:26-27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.14.26-27.KJV>

We all long for peace.

The living Jesus has given peace (shālôm) to His disciples—those that have identified themselves with Him, fully consecrated, all in. He is the Prince of Peace.

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this."

Isaiah 9:6-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/isa.9.6-7.ESV>

"For unto us a child is born (yâlad, H3205), unto us a son is given (nâthan, H5414): and the government (miśrâh, H4951) shall be upon his shoulder: and his name (shēm, H8034) shall be called Wonderful (pele', H6382), Counsellor (yâ'ats, H3289),

The mighty (gibbôr, H1368) God ('êl, H410), The everlasting ('ad, H5703) Father ('âb, H1), The Prince (śar, H8269) of Peace (shâlôm, H7965). Of the increase (marbeh, H4766) of his government (miśrâh, H4951) and peace (shâlôm, H7965) there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom (mamlâkâh, H4467), to order (kûn, H3559) it, and to establish (sâ'ad, H5582) it with judgment (mishpât, H4941) and with justice (tsedâqâh, H6666) from henceforth even for ever. The zeal (qin'âh, H7068) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) of hosts (tsâbâ', H6635) will perform ('âśâh, H6213) this."

Isaiah 9:6-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/isa.9.6-7.KJV>

"Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed."

Isaiah 53:4-5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/isa.53.4-5.ESV>

"Surely he hath borne (nâśâ', H5375) our griefs (cholîy, H2483), and carried (sâbal, H5445) our sorrows (mak'ôb, H4341): yet we did esteem (châshab, H2803) him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded (châlâl, H2490) for our transgressions, he was bruised (dâkâ', H1792) for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace (shâlôm, H7965) was upon him; and with his stripes (chabbûrâh, H2250) we are healed (râphâ', H7495)."

Isaiah 53:4-5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/isa.53.4-5.KJV>

Only Christ can make us whole.

"And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

Acts 4:12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.4.12.ESV>

"Neither is there salvation (sôtēria, G4991) in any other: for there is none other name (onoma, G3686) under heaven given among men, whereby we must (dei, G1163) be saved (sōzō, G4982)."

Acts 4:12 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.4.12.KJV>

Just as with righteousness, peace is the state of one's spirit when it has been made alive, infilled by the Holy Spirit, connecting one personally to God and His kingdom.

"For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding."

Romans 14:17-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.17-19.ESV>

"for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343), and peace (eirēnē, G1515), and joy (chara, G5479) in the Holy Ghost. For he that in these things serveth (douleuō, G1398) Christ (Christos, G5547) is acceptable (euarestos, G2101) to God, and approved of men. Let us therefore follow after (diōkō, G1377) the things which make for peace (eirēnē, G1515), and things wherewith one may edify (oikodomē, G3619) another."

Romans 14:17-19 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.14.17-19.KJV>

The one who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him in a covenant relationship. One spirit!

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. '

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

'But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151).'

1 Corinthians 6:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.6.17>

This new connection causes the gates of heaven, the Holy of Holies, to come near. We become a temple of the living God.

'Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, '

1 Corinthians 6:19 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.19>

'What? know ye not that your body is the temple (naos, G3485) of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151) which is in you, which ye have (echō, G2192) of God, and ye are not your own? '

1 Corinthians 6:19 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.6.19>

'Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming in ways that can be observed, nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There!' for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you." '

Luke 17:20-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.17.20-21>

'And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God should come (erchomai, G2064), he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within (entos, G1787) you.'

Luke 17:20-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.17.20-21>

Being a temple of God means that the peace of God lies within, accessible to spirit, soul, and body at any moment through prayer.

'But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, '

Galatians 5:22 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.5.22>

'But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, '

Galatians 5:22 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.5.22>

'Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.'

Matthew 11:28-30 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.11.28-30>

'Come unto me, all ye that labour (kopiaō, G2872) and are heavy laden (phortizō, G5412), and I will give you rest (anapauō, G373). Take (airō, G142) my yoke (zugos, G2218) upon you, and learn (manthanō, G3129) of me; for I am meek (praos, G4235) and lowly (tapeinos, G5011) in heart (kardia, G2588): and ye shall find rest (anapausis, G372) unto your souls (psuchē, G5590). For my yoke is easy (chrēstos, G5543), and my burden (phortion, G5413) is light (elaphros, G1645).'

Matthew 11:28-30 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.11.28-30>

'Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.'

1 Thessalonians 5:23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1TH.5.23>

'And the very God of peace (eirēnē, G1515) sanctify (hagiazō, G37) you wholly (holotelēs, G3651); and I pray God your whole (holoklēros, G3648) spirit (pneuma, G4151) and soul (psuchē, G5590) and body (sōma, G4983) be preserved (tēreō, G5083) blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. '

1 Thessalonians 5:23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1TH.5.23>

Peace remains ours when we refuse to take offense at others,

"I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil. I hate and abhor falsehood, but I love your law. Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules. Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.119.162-165.ESV>

"I rejoice at thy word ('imrâh, H565), As one that findeth great spoil. I hate and abhor lying (sheqer, H8267): But thy law (tôrâh, H8451) do I love ('âhab, H157). Seven times a day do I praise (hâlâl, H1984) thee because of thy righteous (tsedeq, H6664) judgments (mishpât, H4941). Great (rab, H7227) peace (shâlôm, H7965) have they which love ('âhab, H157) thy law: And nothing shall offend (mikshôl, H4383) them."

<https://bible.com/bible/1/psa.119.162-165.KJV>

' "But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. '

Luke 6:27-30 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.27-30>

'But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do (poieō, G4160) good (kalōs, G2573) to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. And unto him that smiteth (tuptō, G5180) thee on the one cheek (siagōn, G4600) offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke (himation, G2440) forbid (kōluō, G2967) not to take thy coat (chitōn, G5509) also. Give (didōmi, G1325) to every man that asketh (aiteō, G154) of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them (apaiteō, G523) not again.'

Luke 6:27-30 KJV

adapting our perception of people to what His redemption has made possible.

'And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes." '

Mark 9:23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.9.23>

'Jesus said unto him, If thou canst (dunamai, G1410) believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible (dunatos, G1415) to him that believeth. '

Mark 9:23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.9.23>

' One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." And he said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise." '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.23.39-43>

'And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed (blasphēmēō, G987) on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save (sōzō, G4982) thyself and us. But the other answering rebuked (epitmaō, G2008) him, saying, Dost not thou fear (phobeō, G5399) God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly (dikaiōs, G1346); for we receive the due (apolambanō, G618) reward (axios, G514) of our deeds (prassō, G4238); but this man hath done nothing amiss (atopos, G824). And he said unto Jesus, Lord (kurios, G2962), remember (mnaomai, G3415) me when thou comest into thy kingdom (basileia, G932). And Jesus said unto him, Verily (amēn, G281) I say unto (legō, G3004) thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise (paradeisos, G3857). '

Luke 23:39-43 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.23.39-43>

When we have died to ourselves so we can put on Christ,

'having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. '

Colossians 2:12-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.2.12-15>

'buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900); blotting out (exaleiphō, G1813) the handwriting (cheirographon, G5498) of ordinances (dogma, G1378) that was against us, which was contrary (hupenantios, G5227) to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it (prosēloō, G4338) to his cross; and having spoiled (apekduomai, G554) principalities (archē, G746) and powers (exousia, G1849), he made a shew of (deigmatizō, G1165) them openly, triumphing over (thriambeuō, G2358) them in it.'

Colossians 2:12-15 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.2.12-15>

'I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.'

Galatians 2:20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.2.20>

"I am crucified with (sustauroō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me."

Galatians 2:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/gal.2.20.KJV>

' Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.'

'Mortify (nekroō, G3499) therefore your members (melos, G3196) which are upon the earth; fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), inordinate affection (pathos, G3806), evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience (apeitheia, G543): in the which ye also walked (peripateō, G4043) some time, when ye lived (zaō, G2198) in them. But now ye also put off (apotithēmi, G659) all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988), filthy communication (aischrologia, G148) out of your mouth (stoma, G4750). Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off (apekduomai, G554) the old man with his deeds (praxis, G4234); and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man, which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: where there is neither Greek (Hellēn, G1672) nor Jew, circumcision (peritomē, G4061) nor uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203), Barbarian (barbaros, G915), Scythian (Skuthēs, G4658), bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658): but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect (eklektos, G1588) of God, holy and beloved (agapaō, G25), bowels (splagchnon, G4698) of mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544), humbleness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012), meekness (praotēs, G4236), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115); forbearing (anechomai, G430) one another, and forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave (charizomai, G5483) you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity (agapē, G26), which is the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of perfectness (teleiōtēs, G5047). And let the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God rule (brabeuō, G1018) in your hearts (kardia, G2588), to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful (eucharistos, G2170). Galatians 1:10 KJV

Choosing to be led by God's Spirit, we do not hold anything against anybody.

'Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times. "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart.'"

Matthew 18:21-35 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.18.21-35>

'Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven (hebdomēkontakis, G1441). Therefore is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents (talanton, G5007). But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold (pipraskō, G4097), and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made (apodidōmi, G591). The servant therefore fell down (piptō, G4098), and worshipped (proskuneō, G4352) him, saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), have patience (makrothumeō, G3114) with me, and I will pay (apodidōmi, G591) thee all. Then the lord of that servant (doulos, G1401) was moved with compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697), and loosed (apoluō, G630) him, and forgave (aphiēmi, G863) him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants (sundoulos, G4889), which owed him an hundred pence (dēnarion, G1220): and he laid hands on (krateō, G2902) him, and took him by the throat (pnigō, G4155), saying, Pay me (apodidōmi, G591) that thou owest (opheilō, G3784). And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought (parakleō, G3870) him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked (ponēros, G4190) servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst (parakaleō, G3870) me: shouldst not thou also have had compassion (eleeō, G1653) on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity (eleeō, G1653) on thee? And his lord was wroth (orgizō, G3710), and delivered him to the tormentors (basanistēs, G930), till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts (kardia, G2588) forgive (aphiēmi, G863) not every one his brother (adelphos, G80) their trespasses.'

'But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.'

'But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old man, which is corrupt (phtheirō, G5351) according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed (ananēōō, G365) in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new (kainos, G2537) man, which after God is created (ktizō, G2936) in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness. Wherefore putting away lying (pseudos, G5579), speak every man truth (alētheia, G225) with his neighbour (plēsion, G4139): for we are members (melos, G3196) one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath (parorgismos, G3950): neither give place (topos, G5117) to the devil (diabolos, G1228). Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good (agathos, G18), that he may have (echō, G2192) to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt (sapos, G4550) communication (logos, G3056) proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good (agathos, G18) to the use of edifying (oikodomē, G3619), that it may minister grace (charis, G5485) unto the hearers. And grieve (lupeō, G3076) not the holy (hagios, G40) Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed (sphragizō, G4972) unto the day of redemption (apolutrōsis, G629). Let all bitterness (pikria, G4088), and wrath (thumos, G2372), and anger (orgē, G3709), and clamour (kraugē, G2906), and evil speaking (blasphēmia, G988), be put away (airō, G142) from you, with all malice (kakia, G2549): and be ye kind (chrēstos, G5543) one to another, tenderhearted (eusplagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you.'

John 15:7-8 ESV

'If ye abide (menō, G3306) in me, and my words (rhēma, G4487) abide in you, ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) what ye will (thelō, G2309), and it shall be done (ginomai, G1096) unto you. Herein is my Father glorified (doxazō, G1392), that ye bear (pherō, G5342) much fruit (karpos, G2590); so shall ye be (ginomai, G1096) my disciples.'

John 15:7-8 KJV

'Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.'

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1TH.5.16-18>

'Rejoice (chairō, G5463) evermore (pantote, G3842). Pray without ceasing (adialeiptōs, G89). In every thing give thanks (eucharisteō, G2168): for this is the will (thelēma, G2307) of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.'

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 KJV

'Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number. Jesus then took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated. So also the fish, as much as they wanted. '

John 6:10-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.6.10-11>

'And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks (eucharisteō, G2168), he distributed (diadidōmi, G1239) to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. We can expect it to be answered at that very moment, truly believing it is done, although the visible results may not be manifest until later.

' On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it... As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered." And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses." '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.11.12-14,20-25>

'And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry (peinaō, G3983): and seeing a fig tree (sukē, G4808) afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet . And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up (xērainō, G3583) from the roots. And Peter (Petros, G4074) calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master (rhabbi, G4461), behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst (kataraomai, G2672) is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have (echō, G2192) faith

(pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain (oros, G3735), Be thou removed (airō, G142), and be thou cast (ballō, G906) into the sea; and shall not doubt (diakrinō, G1252) in his heart (kardia, G2588), but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith (legō, G3004) shall come to pass (ginomai, G1096); he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray, believe that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have them. And when ye stand praying, forgive (aphiēmi, G863), if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses (paraptōma, G3900). '

'But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.6-8>

'But let him ask (aiteō, G154) in faith (pistis, G4102), nothing wavering (diakrinō, G1252). For he that wavereth (diakrinō, G1252) is like a wave (kludōn, G2830) of the sea driven with the wind (anemizō, G216) and tossed (rhipizō, G4494). For let not that man think that he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) any thing of the Lord (kurios, G29620). A double minded (dipsuchos, G1374) man is unstable (akatastatos, G182) in all his ways (hodos, G3598).'

When God's will becomes also our will, whatever we desire for the glory of God, He will do it.

' "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. '

John 14:12-13 ESV

'Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say (legō, G3004) unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son.'

Acts 3:16 ESV

'And his name (onoma, G3686) through faith (pistis, G4102) in his name hath made this man strong (stereoō, G4732), whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given (didōmi, G1325) him this perfect soundness (holoklēria, G3647) in the presence of you all. '

And so it is that great faith brings heaven to our souls, and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guards our minds and hearts in Christ Jesus.

' Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, '

Ephesians 1:3 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.1.3>

'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed (eulogeō, G2127) us with all spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) blessings (eulogia, G2129) in heavenly places in Christ: '

Ephesians 1:3 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.1.3>

' Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me. '

Philippians 4:4-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.4.4-13>

'Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation (epieikēs, G1933) be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand (eggus, G1451). Be careful (merimnaō, G3309) for nothing (mēdeis, G3367); but in every thing by prayer and supplication (deēsis, G1162) with thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) let your requests (aitēma, G155) be made known unto God. And the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God, which passeth (huperechō, G5242) all understanding (nous, G3563), shall keep (phroureō, G5432) your hearts (kardia, G2588) and minds (noēma, G3540) through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true (alēthēs, G227), whatsoever things are honest (semnos, G4586), whatsoever things are just (dikaiois, G1342), whatsoever things are pure (hagnos, G53), whatsoever things are lovely (prophilēs, G4375), whatsoever things are of good report (euphēmos, G2163); if there be any virtue (aretē, G703), and if there be any praise, think (logizomai, G3049) on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received (paralambanō, G3880), and heard (akouō, G191), and seen (eidō, G1492) in me, do (prassō, G4238): and the God of peace (eirēnē, G1515) shall be with you. But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content (autarkēs, G842). I know both how to be abased (tapeinoō, G5013), and I know how to abound (perisseuō, G4052): every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full (chortazō, G5526) and to be hungry (peinaō, G3983), both to abound (perisseuō, G4052) and to suffer need (hustereō, G5302). I can do (ischuō, G2480) all things through Christ (Christos, G5547) which strengtheneth (endunamoō, G1743) me. '

Philippians 4:4-13 KJV

'For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. 'For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his glory (doxa, G1391), to be strengthened with might (dunamis, G1411) by his Spirit in the inner (esō, G2080) man; that Christ may dwell (katoikeō, G2730) in your hearts (kardia, G2588) by faith; that ye, being rooted (rhizoō, G4492) and grounded (themeiloō, G2311) in love

(agapē, G26), may be able (exischuō, G1840) to comprehend (katalambanō, G2638) with all saints (hagios, G40) what is the breadth, and length, and depth (bathos, G899), and height (hupsos, G5311); and to know (ginōskō, G1097) the love (agapē, G26) of Christ, which passeth (huperballō, G5235) knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of God. Return to Day 19

Day 20: The spirit of unity (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Who does Jesus consider to be His family?
2. Why is the unity of His family so cherished by God?
3. What gets in the way of the unity and the proper functioning of Jesus Christ's body?
4. Are you grieved by division in God's family (the body of Christ)?
5. How can you take responsibility for bringing unity to God's family (the body of Christ)?

"...that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

John 17:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.17.21.ESV>

'that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. '

John 17:21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.17.21>

Who do we see as your family?

Jesus saw His family as larger than His own biological family, including those in His church—those who do the word of God—

' Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it." '

Luke 8:19-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.8.19-21>

'Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press (ochlos, G3793). And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring (thelō, G2309) to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear (akouō, G191) the word (logos, G3056) of God, and do (poieō, G4160) it.'

Luke 8:19-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.8.19-21>

'Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"—and that he had said these things to her. '

John 20:17-18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.20.17-18>

'Jesus saith unto her, Touch (haptomai, G680) me not; for I am not yet ascended (anabainō, G305) to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.'

John 20:17-18 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.20.17-18>

and yet He did not neglect to care for His own beloved mother.

'On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." ...This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him. After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.'

John 2:1-5,11-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.2.1-5,11-12>

'And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it... This beginning of miracles (sēmeion, G4592) did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory (doxa, G1391); and his disciples believed on him. After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued (menō, G3306) there not many days.'

John 2:1-5,11-12

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.2.1-5,11-12>

'but standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.'

John 19:25-27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.19.25-27>

'Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved (agapaō, G25), he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.'

John 19:25-27 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.19.25-27>

' Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said, "Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat." He answered them, "And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.' But you say, 'If anyone tells his father or his mother, "What you would have gained from me is given to God," he need not honor his father.' So for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word of God.'

Matthew 15:1-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.15.1-6>

'Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; and honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.'

Matthew 15:1-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.15.1-6>

Jesus prayed for a spirit of unity in the church. Just as Jesus is in union with the Father, the church has been made for union with God.

'When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, ... I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do... All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one... "I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.'

John 17:1,4,10-11,20-23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.17.1,4,10-11,20-23>

'These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify (doxazō, G1392) thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify (doxazō, G1392) thee: ...I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished (teleioō, G5048) the work (ergon, G2041) which thou gavest (didōmi, G1325) me to do (poieō, G4160)... And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are... Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word (logos, G3056); that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent (apostellō, G649) me. And the glory (doxa, G1391) which thou gavest (didōmi, G1325) me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect (teleioō, G5048) in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved (agapaō, G25) them, as thou hast loved me.'

John 17:1,4,10-11,20-23 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.17.1,4,10-11,20-23>

'because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. '

Ephesians 5:30-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.30-32>

'for we are members (melos, G3196) of his body (sōma, G4983), of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones (osteon ostoun, G3747). For this cause shall a man leave (kataleipō, G2641) his father and mother, and shall be joined (proskollaō, G4347) unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). This is a great mystery (mustērion, G3466): but I speak concerning Christ (Christos, G5547) and the church (ekklēsia, G1577).'

Ephesians 5:30-32 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.30-32>

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind... Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, '

Philippians 2:1-2,5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.2.1-2,5>

'If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426)... Let this mind (phroneō, G5426) be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: '

Philippians 2:1-2,5 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP2.1-2,5>

It is God's will that the body of Christ be one united body in Christ, functioning together in Christ.

' "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another. '

John 15:12-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.12-17>

'This is my commandment, That ye love (agapē, G25) one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath (echō, G2192) no man than this, that a man lay down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for his friends (philos, G5384). Ye are my friends, if ye do (poieō, G4160) whatsoever I command (entellomai, G1781) you. Henceforth I call you not servants (doulos, G1401); for the servant knoweth (eidō, G1492) not what his lord (kurios, G2962) doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard (akouō, G191) of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen (eklegomai, G1586) me, but I have chosen you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go (hupagō, G5217) and bring forth (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590), and that your fruit should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you. These things I command (entellomai, G1781) you, that ye love (agapaō, G25) one another (allēlōn, G240). '

'And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness, while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus." And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. 'And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant (didōmi, G1325) unto thy servants (doulos, G1401), that with all boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) they may speak thy word (logos, G3056), by stretching forth thine hand (cheir, G5495) to heal (iasis, G2392); and that signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059) may be done (gionomai, G1096) by the name (onoma, G3686) of thy holy (hagios, G40) child (pais, G3816) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424). And when they had prayed (deomai, G1189), the place was shaken where they were assembled together (sunagō, G4863); and they were all filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, and they spake the word (logos, G3056) of God with boldness (parrhēsia, G3954). And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart (kardia, G2588) and of one soul (psuchē, G5590): neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed (huparchonta, G5224) was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power (dunamis, G1411) gave (apodidōmi, G591) the apostles (apostolos, G652) witness (marturion, G3142) of the resurrection (anastasis, G386) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424): and great (megas, G3173) grace (charis, G5485) was upon them all. Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands (chōrion, G5564) or houses (oikia, G3614) sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down (tithēmi, G5087) at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made (diadidōmi, G1239) unto every man according as he had need. Acts 4:29-35 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.4.29-35>

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. For the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. '

1 Corinthians 12:12-27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.12-27>

'For as the body is one, and hath many members (melos, G3196), and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ (Christos, G5547). For by one Spirit (pneuma, G4151) are we all baptized (baptizō, G907) into one body (sōma, G4983), whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond (doulos, G1401) or free (eleutheros, G1658); and have been all made to drink (potizō, G4222) into one Spirit. For the body (sōma, G4983) is not one member (melos, G3196), but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand (cheir, G5495), I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear (ous, G3775) shall say, Because I am not the eye (ophthalmos, G3788), I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him (thelō, G2309). And if they were all one member, where were the body? But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have (echō, G2192) no need of thee: nor again the head (kephalē, G2776) to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble (asthenēs, G772), are necessary (anagkaios, G316): and those members of the body, which we think (dokeō, G1380) to be less honourable, upon these we bestow (peritithēmi, G4060) more abundant (perissoteros, G4055) honour (timē, G5092); and our uncomely parts (aschēmōn, G809) have (echō, G2192) more abundant comeliness (euschēmosunē, G2157). For our comely parts (euschēmōn, G2158) have (echō, G2192) no need: but God hath tempered the body together (sugkerannumi, G4786), having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked (hustereō, G5302): that there should be no schism (schisma, G4978) in the body; but that the members should have the same care (merimnaō, G3309) one for another (allēlōn, G240). And whether one member suffer (paschō, G3958), all the members suffer with it (sumpaschō, G4841); or one member be honoured (doxazō, G1392), all the members rejoice with it (sugchairō, G4796). Now ye are the body (sōma, G4983) of Christ (Christos, G5547), and members (melos, G3196) in particular (meros, G3313). '

'I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship... For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another... 'I beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you therefore, brethren (adelphos, G80), by the mercies (oiktirmos, G3628) of God, that ye present (paristēmi, G3936) your bodies (sōma, G4983) a living (zaō, G2198) sacrifice (thusia, G2378), holy (hagios, G40), acceptable (euarestos, G2101) unto God, which is your reasonable (logikos, G3050) service (latreia, G2999)... For as we have many members (melos, G3196) in one body, and all members have (echō, G2192) not the same office (praxis, G4234): so we, being many (polus, G4183), are one body in Christ (Christos, G5547), and every one members one of another (allēlōn, G240)... If it be possible (dunatos, G1415), as much as lieth in you, live peaceably (eirēneuō, G1514) with all men.'

God's will is not done though when personal sin, corporate sin, self interest, self promotion, complacency, and division interfere.

'But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for it. And even now you are not yet ready, for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh and behaving only in a human way? For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not being merely human? What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each... Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple. '

1 Corinthians 3:1-5,16-17 ESV

'And I, brethren (adelphos, G80), could not speak unto you as unto spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152), but as unto carnal (sarkikos, G4559), even as unto babes (nēpios, G3516) in Christ. I have fed (potizō, G4222) you with milk (gala, G1051), and not with meat (brōma, G1033): for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able (dunamai, G1410). For ye are yet carnal (sarkikos, G4559): for whereas there is among you envying (zēlos, G2205), and strife (eris, G2054), and divisions (dichostasia, G1370), are ye not carnal (sarkikos, G4559), and walk (peripateō, G4043) as men (anthrōpos, G444)? For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos (Apollōs, G625); are ye not carnal (sarkikos, G4559)?

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers (dikonos, G1249) by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? ...Know ye not that ye are the temple (naos, G3485) of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth (oikeō, G3611) in you? If any man defile (phtheirō, G5351) the temple of God, him shall God destroy (phtheirō, G5351); for the temple of God is holy (hagios, G40), which temple ye are. ' 1 Corinthians 3:1-5,16-17 KJV

'But in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you. And I believe it in part, ...Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged. '

'Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together in the church (ekklēsia, G1577), I hear that there be divisions (schisma, G4978) among you; and I partly believe it... Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily (axaxiōs, G371), shall be guilty (enochos, G1777) of the body and blood (aima, G129) of the Lord. But let a man examine (dokimazō, G1381) himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation (krima, G2917) to himself, not discerning (diakrinō, G1252) the Lord's (kurios, G2962) body (sōma, G4983). For this cause many are weak (asthenēs, G772) and sickly (arrhōstos, G732) among you, and many sleep (koimaō, G2837). For if we would judge (diakrinō, G1252) ourselves, we should not be judged (krinō, G2919). '

'As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions... One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind... Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother.... For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. '

Romans 14:1,5,13,17-19 ESV

'Him that is weak (ashteneō, G770) in the faith (pistis, G4102) receive (proslambanō, G4355) ye, but not to doubtful (dilogismos, G1261) disputations (diakrisis, G1253)... One man esteemeth (krinō, G2919) one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded (plērophoreō, G4135) in his own mind (nous, G3563)... Let us not therefore judge (krinō, G2919) one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put (tithēmi, G5087) a stumblingblock (proskomma, G4348) or an occasion to fall (skandalon, G4625) in his brother's (adelphos, G80) way... for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343), and peace (eirēnē, G1515), and joy (chara, G5479) in the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151). For he that in these things serveth (douleuō, G1398) Christ (Christos, G5547) is acceptable (euarestos, G2101) to God, and approved (dokimos, G1384) of men. Let us therefore follow after (diōkō, G1377) the things which make for peace (eirēnē, G1515), and things wherewith one may edify (oikodomē, G3619) another (allēlōn, G240).'

'For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love... For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit.'

Galatians 5:6,13-25 ESV

'For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision (peritomē, G4061) availeth (ischuō, G2480) any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh (energeō, G1754) by love (agapē, G26)... For, brethren (adelphos, G80), ye have been called (kaleō, G2564) unto liberty (eleutheria, G1657); only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh (sarx, G4561), but by love (agapē, G26) serve (douleuō, G1398) one another. For all the law (nomos, G3551) is fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in one word (logos, G3056), even in this; thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139) as thyself. But if ye bite (daknō, G1143) and devour (kathesthiō, G2719) one another, take heed that ye be not consumed (analiskō, G355) one of another. This I say then, Walk (peripateō, G4043) in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil (teleō, G5055) the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561). For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do (poieō, G4160) the things that ye would (thelō, G2309). But if ye be led (agō, G71) of the Spirit, ye are not under the law (nomos, G3551). Now the works (ergon, G2041) of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), lasciviousness (aselgeia, G766), idolatry, witchcraft (pharmakeia, G5331), hatred, variance (eris, G2054), emulations (zēlos, G2205), wrath (thumos, G2372), strife (eritheia, G2052), seditions (dichostasia, G1370), heresies (hairesis, G139), envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings (kōmos, G2970), and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do (prassō, G4238) such things shall not inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, meekness (praotēs, G4236), temperance (egkrateia, G1466): against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified (stauroō, G4717) the flesh (sarx, G4561) with the affections and lusts (epithumia, G1939). If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit.'

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ... for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure... I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.'

'If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426). Let nothing be done through strife (eritheia, G2052) or vainglory (kenodoxia, G2754); but in lowliness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) let each esteem other better than (huperechō, G5242) themselves. Look (skopeō, G4648) not every man on his own things (heautou, G1438), but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind (phroneō, G5426) be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:... For it is God which worketh (energeō, G1754) in you both to will (thelō ethelō, G2309) and to do (energeō, G1754) of his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107)... But I trust (elpizō, G1679) in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus (Timotheos, G5095) shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort (eupsucheō, G2174), when I know (ginōskō, G1097) your state. For I have no man likeminded (isopsuchos, G2473), who will naturally (gnēsiōs, G1104) care (merimnaō, G3309) for your state. For all seek (zēteō, G2212) their own (heautou, G1438), not the things which are Jesus Christ's.'

God is calling His church back to unity.

' We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. '

Romans 15:1-7 ESV

'We then that are strong (dunatos, G1415) ought (opheilō, G3784) to bear (bastazō, G941) the infirmities (asthenēma, G771) of the weak (adunatos, G102), and not to please (areskō, G700) ourselves. Let every one of us please (areskō, G700) his neighbour (plēsion, G4139) for his good (agathos, G18) to edification (oikodomē, G3619). For even Christ pleased (areskō, G700) not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches (oneidismos, G3680) of them that reproached (oneidezō, G3679) thee fell (epiptō, G1968) on me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience (hupomonē, G5281) and comfort (paraklēsis, G3874) of the scriptures (graphē, G1124) might have hope (elpis, G1680). Now the God of patience (hupomonē, G5281) and consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) grant you to be likeminded (phroneō, G5426) one toward another (allēlōn, G240) according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind (homothumadon, G3661) and one mouth glorify (doxazō, G1392) God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive (prolambanō, G4355) ye one another (allēlōn, G240), as Christ also received (prolambanō, G4355) us to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God.'

Romans 15:1-7 KJV

He calls His people to be eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

'I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. '

Ephesians 4:1-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.1-7>

'I therefore, the prisoner (desmios, G1198) of (en, G1722) the Lord (kurios, G2962), beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy (axiōs, G516) of the vocation (klēsis, G2821) wherewith ye are called (kaleō, G2564), with all lowliness (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) and meekness (praotēs, G4236), with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing (anéchomai, G430) one another (allēlōn, G240) in love (agapē, G26); endeavouring (spoudazō, G4704) to keep (tēreō, G5083) the unity (henotēs, G1775) of the Spirit in the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of peace (eirēnē, G1515). There is one body (sōma, G4983), and one Spirit (pneuma, G4151), even as ye are called (kaleō, G2564) in one hope (elpis, G1680) of your calling (klēsis, G2821); one Lord (kurios, G2962), one faith (pistis, G4102), one baptism (baptisma, G908), one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. But unto every one of us is given (didōmi, G1325) grace (charis, G5485) according to the measure (metron, G3358) of the gift (dōrea, G1431) of Christ (Christos, G5547). '

Ephesians 4:1-7 KJV

This means loving one another as God loves, being careful about what we say,

"Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

Ephesians 4:29-32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.29-32.ESV>

"Let no corrupt (sapos, G4550) communication (logos, G3056) proceed (ekporeuomai, G1607) out of your mouth, but that which is good (agathos, G18) to the use of edifying (oikodomē, G3619), that it may minister grace (charis, G5485) unto the hearers. And grieve (lupeō, G3076) not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed (sphragizō, G4972) unto the day of redemption (apolutrōsis, G629). Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking (blasphēmia, G988), be put away (airō, G142) from you, with all malice (kakia, G2549): and be ye kind (chrēstos, G5543) one to another, tenderhearted (eusplagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you."

Ephesians 4:29-32 KJV

and striving to excel in building up the church.

'So with yourselves, since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church. '

1 Corinthians 14:12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.14.12>

'Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous (zēlotēs, G2207) of spiritual gifts, seek (zētēō, G2212) that ye may excel (perisseuō, G4052) to the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of the church (ekklēsia, G1577). '

1 Corinthians 14:12 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.14.12>

This means seeing other believers as brothers and sisters in Christ, as family that we pursue and value as we should.

'Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. '

Genesis 1:26-27 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GEN.1.26-27>

'And God ('elôhîym, H430) said ('âmar, H559), Let us make ('âśâh, H6213) man ('âdâm, H120) in our image (tselem, H6754), after our likeness (demûth, H1823): and let them have dominion (râdâh, H7287) over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing (remēs, H7431) that creepeth (râmaś, H7430) upon the earth. So God created (bârâ', H1254) man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male (zākâr, H2145) and female (neqêbâh, H5347) created (bârâ', H1254) he them. '

Genesis 1:26-27 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GEN.1.26-27>

'for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.'

Galatians 3:26-29 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.3.26-29>

'For ye are all the children (uihos, G5207) of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on (enduō, G1746) Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658), there is neither male (arrhēn, G730) nor female (thēlus, G2338): for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs (klēronomos, G2818) according to the promise (epaggelia, G1860).'

Galatians 3:26-29 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.3.26-29>

' "All things are lawful," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor... So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.'

1 Corinthians 10:23-24,31-33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.10.23-24,31-33>

'All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient (sumpherō, G4851): all things are lawful for me, but all things edify (oikodomeō, G3618) not. Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth... Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do (poieō, G4160), do all to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. Give (ginomai, G1096) none offence (aproskopos, G677), neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church (ekklēsia, G1577) of God: even as I please (areskō, G700) all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit (sumpherō, G4851), but the profit of many, that they may be saved (sōzō, G4982).'

1 Corinthians 10:23-24,31-33 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.10.23-24,31-33>

By our own efforts, this unity is impossible. Yet, this kind of communion with God and others that seeks to build up and repair is made possible by the infilling of God's Spirit.

'So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. '

1 Corinthians 3:7-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.3.7-11>

'So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth (potizō, G4222); but God that giveth the increase (auxanō, G837). Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive (lambanō, G2983) his own reward (misthos, G3408) according to his own labour. For we are labourers together (sunergos, G4904) with God: ye are God's husbandry (geōrgion, G1091), ye are God's building (oikodomē, G3619). According to the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation (themelios, G2310) can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.'

1 Corinthians 3:7-11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.3.7-11>

'Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. '

Ephesians 4:15-16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.15-16>

'but speaking the truth (alētheuō, G226) in love (agapē, G26), may grow up (auxanō, G837) into him in all things, which is the head (kephalē, G2776), even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together (sunarmologeō, G4883) and compacted (sumbibazō, G4822) by that which every joint (haphē, G860) supplieth (epichorēgia, G2024), according to the effectual working (energeia, G1753) in the measure of every part, maketh (poieō, G4160) increase (auxanō, G838) of the body unto the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of itself in love (agapē, G26). '

Ephesians 4:15-16 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.4.15-16>

' Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. '

Ephesians 5:15-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.15-21>

'See then that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) circumspectly (akribōs, G199), not as fools, but as wise (sophos, G4680), redeeming (exagorazō, G1805) the time (kairos, G2540), because the days are evil (ponēros, G4190). Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding (suniēmi, G4920) what the will (thelēma, G2307) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled (plēroō, G4137) with the Spirit; speaking to yourselves in psalms (psalmos, G5568) and hymns (humnos, G5215) and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs (ōdē, G5603), singing and making melody (psallō, G5567) in your heart (kardia, G2588) to the Lord; giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) always (pantote, G3842) for all things unto God and the Father in the name (onoma, G3686) of our Lord Jesus Christ; submitting (hupotassō, G5293) yourselves one to another in the fear (phobos, G5401) of God.'

Ephesians 5:15-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.15-21>

' So put away all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander. Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.'

1 Peter 2:1-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1PE.2.1-5>

'Wherefore laying aside all malice (kakia, G2549), and all guile (dolos, G1388), and hypocrisies (hupokrisis, G5272), and envies (phthonos, G5355), and all evil speakings (katalalia, G2636), as newborn babes (brephos, G1025), desire (epipotheō, G1971) the sincere (adolos, G97) milk (gala, G1051) of the word (logikos, G3050), that ye may grow (auxanō, G837) thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious (chrēstos, G5543). To whom coming, as unto a living (zaō, G2198) stone, disallowed (apodokimazō, G593) indeed of men, but chosen (eklektos, G1588) of God, and precious (entimos, G1784), ye also, as lively stones, are built up (oikodomeō, G3618) a spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) house (oikos, G3624), an holy (hagios, G40) priesthood (hierateuma, G2406), to offer up (anapherō, G399) spiritual sacrifices, acceptable (euprosdektos, G2144) to God by Jesus Christ.'

1 Peter 2:1-5 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1PE.2.1-5>

So let us together lift up Jesus and do His word, deciding to drop everything else.

' If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.3.1-17>

'If ye then be risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) Christ, seek (zēteō, G2212) those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. Set your affection (phroneō, G5426) on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead (apothnēskō, G599), and your life (zōē, G2222) is hid (kruptō, G2928) with Christ (Christos, G5547) in God. When Christ, who is our life (zōē, G2222), shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory (doxa, G1391). Mortify (nekroō, G3499) therefore your members (melos, G3196) which are upon the earth; fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness (akatharsia, G167), inordinate affection (pathos, G3806), evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience (apeitheia, G543): in the which ye also walked (peripateō, G4043) some time, when ye lived (zaō, G2198) in them. But now ye also put off (apotithēmi, G659) all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988), filthy communication (aischrologia, G148) out of your mouth (stoma, G4750). Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off (apekduomai, G554) the old man with his deeds (praxis, G4234); and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man, which is renewed (anakainoō, G341) in knowledge after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: where there is neither Greek (Hellēn, G1672) nor Jew, circumcision (peritomē, G4061) nor uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203), Barbarian (barbaros, G915), Scythian (Skuthēs, G4658), bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658): but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect (eklektos, G1588) of God, holy and beloved (agapaō, G25), bowels (splagchnon, G4698) of mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544), humbleness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012), meekness (praotēs, G4236), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115); forbearing (anechomai, G430) one another, and forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave (charizomai, G5483) you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity (agapē, G26), which is the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of perfectness (teleiōtēs, G5047). And let the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God rule (brabeuō, G1018) in your hearts (kardia, G2588), to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful (eucharistos, G2170). Let the word (logos, G3056) of Christ dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in you richly (plousiōs, G4146) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs, singing with grace (charis, G5485) in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do (poieō, G4160) in word (logos, G3056) or deed (ergon, G2041), do all in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (lēsous, G2424), giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) to God and the Father by him. '

Colossians 3:1-17 KJV

Let us take responsibility for those around us in the church, in our families and in the family of God, seeking God's will for unity, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

'I prayed to the Lord my God and made confession, saying, "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from your commandments and rules... O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive. O Lord, pay attention and act. Delay not, for your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people are called by your name." '

Daniel 9:4-5,19 ESV

'When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.'

John 21:15-17 ESV

'So when they had dined (aristaō, G709), Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest (agapaō, G25) thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea (nai, G3483), Lord (kurios, G2962); thou knowest that I love (phileō, G5368) thee. He saith unto him, Feed (boskō, G1006) my lambs (arnion, G721). He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed (poimainō, G4165) my sheep (probaton, G4263). He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest (phileō, G5368) thou me? Peter was grieved (lupeō, G3076) because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Luke 12:31-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.12.31-32>

'But rather seek (zēteō, G2212) ye the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God; and all these things shall be added (prostithēmi, G4369) unto you. Fear (phobeō, G5399) not, little flock (poimnion, G4168); for it is your Father's good pleasure (eudokeō, G2106) to give (didōmi, G1325) you the kingdom (basileia, G932).'

Luke 12:31-32 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.12.31-32>

'I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do.'

John 17:4 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.17.4>

'I have glorified (doxazō, G1393) thee on the earth: I have finished (teleioō, G5048) the work (ergon, G2041) which thou gavest (didōmi, G1325) me to do (poieō, G4160).'

John 17:4 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.17.4>

'To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.'

2 Thessalonians 1:11-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2TH.1.11-12>

'Wherefore also we pray always (pantote, G3842) for you, that our God would count you worthy (axioō, G515) of this calling (klēsis, G2821), and fulfil (plēroō, G4137) all the good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) of his goodness (agathōsunē, G19), and the work (ergon, G2041) of faith with power (dunamis, G1411): that the name (onoma, G3686) of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified (endoxazō, G1740) in you, and ye in him, according to the grace (charis, G5485) of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.'

Prayer: Forgive us, Lord, in the church for the division we have sowed and that which we have allowed to remain. God, as peacemakers we seek to do Your will concerning Your beloved church purchased with the blood of Your own.

' "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. '

Matthew 5:9 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.5.9>

' Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the peacemakers (eirēnopoios, G1518): for they shall be called (kaleō, G2564) the children (uihos, G5207) of God. '

Matthew 5:9 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.5.9>

'Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people... But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless. As for a person who stirs up division, after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned. '

Titus 3:1-2,9-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/TIT.3.1-2,9-11>

'Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers (exousia, G1849), to obey magistrates, to be ready (hetoimos, G2092) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041), to speak evil of (blasphēmēō, G987) no man, to be no brawlers (amachos, G269), but gentle (epieikēs, G1933), shewing all meekness (praotēs, G4236) unto all men... But avoid foolish (mōros, G3474) questions (zētēsis, G2214), and genealogies, and contentions (eris, G2054), and strivings (machē, G3163) about the law (nomikos, G3544); for they are unprofitable (anōpheles, G512) and vain (mataios, G3152). A man that is an heretick (aihretikos, G141) after the first and second admonition (nouthesia, G3559) reject (paraiteomai, G3868); knowing that he that is such is subverted (ekstrephō, G1612), and sinneth, being condemned of himself. '

Titus 3:1-2,9-11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/TIT.3.1-2,9-11>

'Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God, which he obtained with his own blood. '

Acts 20:26-28 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.20.26-28>

'Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned (hupostellō, G5288) to declare (anaggellō, G312) unto you all the counsel (boulē, G1012) of God. Take heed therefore unto (prosechō, G4337) yourselves, and to all the flock (poimnion, G4168), over the which the Holy Ghost hath made (tithēmi, G5087) you overseers (episkopos, G1985), to feed (poimainō, G4165) the church (ekklēsia, G1577) of God, which he hath purchased (peripoieomai, G4046) with his own blood. '

Acts 20:26-28 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.20.26-28>

Lead us, Spirit of God, out of selfishness and complacency to unity and to action. Spirit of God, lead us into fellowships that function together in Christ as Your body was designed to function, united in a bond of love. May nothing hinder Your work.

Return to Day 20

Day 21: Joy (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How does Jesus make the joy of His disciples full?
2. What does it mean for the Holy Spirit to abide in you?
3. What is our relationship to Jesus as the true vine?
4. Describe the fruits that come from abiding in the vine.
5. How does this fruit have to do with the character of Christ?

"I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing... If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you... These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full."

John 15:5,7,11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.15.5-11.ESV>

'I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit (karpos, G2590): for without me ye can do nothing... If ye abide (menō, G3306) in me, and my words (rhēma, G4487) abide in you, ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) what ye will (thelō, G2309), and it shall be done (ginomai, G1096) unto you... These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy (chara, G5479) might remain (menō, G3306) in you, and that your joy (chara, G5479) might be full (plēroō, G4137).'

John 15:5,7,11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.15.5,7,11>

The joy of the Lord comes from our choice in faith to follow Christ and then to abide in Him. Since members of Christ's body are the temple of the Holy Spirit,

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him... Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, '

1 Corinthians 6:17,19 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17,19>

'But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151)... What? know ye not that your body is the temple (naos, G3485) of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151) which is in you, which ye have (echō, G2192) of God, and ye are not your own?'

1 Corinthians 6:17,19 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.6.17,19>

this means we invite the Holy Spirit to settle down and make Himself at home in us—in any room, i.e., in every part of our lives.

"but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked."

1 John 2:5-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.2.5-6.ESV>

"But whoso keepeth (tērēo, H5083) his word (logos, G3056), in him verily (alēthōs, G230) is the love (agapē, G26) of God perfected (teleioō, G5048): hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth (menō, G3306) in him ought (opheilō, G3784) himself also so to walk (peripateō, G4043), even as he walked (peripateō, G4043)."

1 John 2:5-6 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.2.5-6.KJV>

"No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him... Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us."

1 John 3:6, 24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.3.6-24.ESV>

"Whosoever abideth (menō, G3306) in him sinneth (hamartanō, G264) not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen (haraō, G3708) him, neither known (ginōskō, G1097) him... And he that keepeth (tērēo, G5083) his commandments dwelleth (menō, G3306) in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

1 John 3:6, 24 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.3.6-24.KJV>

"And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

Acts 5:32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.5.32.ESV>

"And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, whom God hath given (didōmi, G1325) to them that obey (peritharcheō, G3980) him."

Acts 5:32 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.5.32.KJV>

The living Jesus is the True Vine.

' "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. '

John 15:1 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.15.1>

'I am the true (alēthinos, G228) vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092).'

John 15:1 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.15.1>

Our new life in Him connects us to God through the inflow of the Holy Spirit.

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. '

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

'But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151).'

1 Corinthians 6:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.6.17>

'these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. '

1 Corinthians 2:10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.10>

'But God hath revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth (ereunaō, G2045) all things, yea, the deep things (bathos, G899) of God. '

1 Corinthians 2:10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.2.10>

We are as branches to the Vine, if we will allow it. The condition for inflow and for growth of God's living word within must be right.

'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. '

Deuteronomy 6:5-9 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/DEU.6.5-9>

'and thou shalt love ('āhab, H157) the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) thy God with all thine heart (lēbâb, H3824), and with all thy soul (nephesh, H5315), and with all thy might (me'ôd, H3966). And these words (dābâr, H1697), which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart (lēbâb, H3824); and thou shalt teach (shānan, H8150) them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk (dâbar, H1696) of them when thou sittest (yâshab, H3427) in thine house (bayith, H1004), and when thou walkest (yâlak, H3212) by the way (derek, H1870), and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind (qâshar, H7194) them for a sign ('ôth, H226) upon thine hand (yâd, H3027), and they shall be as frontlets (tôphâphâh, H2903) between thine eyes ('ayin, H5869). And thou shalt write (kâthab, H3789) them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates (sha'ar, H8179).'

Deuteronomy 6:5-9 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/DEU.6.5-9>

"In the way of your testimonies I delight as much as in all riches... I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word... Your testimonies are my delight; they are my counselors... for I find my delight in your commandments, which I love... How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth! ...I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil... I long for your salvation, O Lord, and your law is my delight."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.119.14-174.ESV>

'I have rejoiced (śûś, H7797) in the way (derek, H1870) of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches (hôn, H1952)... I will delight (shâ'a', H8173) myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word (dâbâr, H1697)... Thy testimonies also are my delight (sha', H8191) and my counsellors ('êtsâh, H6098)... And I will delight myself in thy commandments (mitsvâh, H4687), which I have loved ('âhab, H157)... How sweet are thy words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! ...I rejoice (śûś, H7797) at thy word, as one that findeth great (rab, H7227) spoil... I have longed for thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444), O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068); and thy law (tôrâh, H8451) is my delight (sha'shû'a', H8191).'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PSA.119.14,16,24,47,103,162,174>

' My son, be attentive to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. Let them not escape from your sight; keep them within your heart. For they are life to those who find them, and healing to all their flesh. Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life. '

Proverbs 4:20-23 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PRO.4.20-23>

'My son, attend to my words (dâbâr, H1697); Incline thine ear unto my sayings. Let them not depart from thine eyes ('ayin, H5869); Keep (shâmar, H8104) them in the midst of thine heart (lêbâb, H3824). For they are life (chay, H2416) unto those that find them, and health (marpê', H4832) to all their flesh (bâśâr, H1320).'

Proverbs 4:20-22 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PRO.4.20-22>

"And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience."

Luke 8:14-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.8.14-15.ESV>

"And that which fell among thorns (akantha, G173) are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked (sumpnigō, G4846) with cares and riches (ploutos, G4149) and pleasures (hēdonē, G2237) of this life (bios, G979), and bring no fruit to perfection (telesphoreō, G5052). But that on the good (kalos, G2570) ground are they, which in an honest (kalos, G2570) and good (agathos, G18) heart (kardia, G2588), having heard the word (logos, G3056), keep (katechō, G2722) it, and bring forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592) with patience (hupomonē, G5281)."

Luke 8:14-15 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.8.14-15.KJV>

' Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me. '

Philippians 4:4-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.4.4-13>

'Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation (epieikēs, G1933) be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand (eggus, G1451). Be careful (merimnaō, G3309) for nothing (mēdeis, G3367); but in every thing by prayer and supplication (deēsis, G1162) with thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) let your requests (aitēma, G155) be made known unto God. And the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God, which passeth (huperechō, G5242) all understanding (nous, G3563), shall keep (phroureō, G5432) your hearts (kardia, G2588) and minds (noēma, G3540) through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true (alēthēs, G227), whatsoever things are honest (semnos, G4586), whatsoever things are just (dikaiois, G1342), whatsoever things are pure (hagnos, G53), whatsoever things are lovely (prophilēs, G4375), whatsoever things are of good report (euphēmos, G2163); if there be any virtue (aretē, G703), and if there be any praise, think (logizomai, G3049) on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received (paralambanō, G3880), and heard (akouō, G191), and seen (eidō, G1492) in me, do (prassō, G4238): and the God of peace (eirēnē, G1515) shall be with you. But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content (autarkēs, G842). I know both how to be abased (tapeinoō, G5013), and I know how to abound (perisseuō, G4052): every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full (chortazō, G5526) and to be hungry (peinaō, G3983), both to abound (perisseuō, G4052) and to suffer need (hustereō, G5302). I can do (ischuō, G2480) all things through Christ (Christos, G5547) which strengtheneth (endunamoō, G1743) me. '

Philippians 4:4-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP.4.4-13>

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God."

Colossians 3:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.16.ESV>

"Let the word (logos, G3056) of Christ dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in you richly (plousiōs, G4146) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs, singing with grace (charis, G5485) in your hearts to the Lord."

Colossians 3:16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.3.16.KJV>

'For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. '

Hebrews 4:12-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/HEB.4.12-13>

'For the word (logos, G3056) of God is quick (zaō, G2198), and powerful (energēs, G1756), and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul (psuchē, G5590) and spirit (pneuma, G4151), and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner (kritkos, G2924) of the thoughts and intents (ennoia, G1771) of the heart (kardia, G2588). Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked (gumnos, G1131) and opened (trachēlizō, G5136) unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.'

Hebrews 4:12-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/HEB.4.12-13>

Apart from God, we have only our natural ability, so we can do nothing, which may bring frustration but not joy.

If we align ourselves with God and His will, seeking first His kingdom and righteousness, God answers our prayers, yielding joy, peace, and other fruit, as He gives us more of what is His.

' "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. '

Matthew 5:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.5.6>

' Blessed (makarios, G3107) are they which do hunger (peinaō, G3983) and thirst (dipsaō, G1373) after righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): for they shall be filled (chortazō, G5526).'

Matthew 5:6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.5.6>

' Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven... But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. '

Matthew 6:10,33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.6.10,33>

'Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come (erchomai, G2604). Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done (ginomai, G1096) in earth, as it is in heaven... But seek (zēteō, G2212) ye first (prōton, G4412) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and his righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and all these things shall be added unto you.'

Matthew 6:10,33 KJV

"Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full."

John 16:24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.16.24.ESV>

"Hitherto have ye asked (aiteō, G154) nothing in my name (onoma, G3686): ask (aiteō, G154), and ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983), that your joy (chara, G5479) may be full (plēroō, G4137)."

John 16:24 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.16.24.KJV>

"For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding."

Romans 14:17-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.17-19.ESV>

"for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343), and peace (eirēnē, G1515), and joy (chara, G5479) in the Holy Ghost. For he that in these things serveth (douleuō, G1398) Christ (Christos, G5547) is acceptable (euarestos, G2101) to God, and approved of men. Let us therefore follow after (diōkō, G1377) the things which make for peace (eirēnē, G1515), and things wherewith one may edify (oikodomē, G3619) another."

Romans 14:17-19 KJV

"And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him."

1 John 5:14-15 ESV

Colossians 1:9-14 ESV

Colossians 1:9-14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/COL.1.9-14>

'After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves... Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' ..."The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. ' Luke 10:1-3,8-9,16-21 ESV

'After these things the Lord (kurios, G2962) appointed (anadeiknumi, G322) other seventy also, and sent (apostellō, G649) them two and two before his face into every city and place (topos, G5117), whither he himself would come (erchomai, G2064). Therefore said he unto them, The harvest (therismos, G2326) truly is great, but the labourers (ergatēs, G2040) are few: pray ye (deomai, G1189) therefore the Lord (kurios, G2962) of the harvest (therismos, G2326), that he would send forth (ekballō, G1544) labourers (ergatēs, G2040) into his harvest. Go your ways (hupagō, G5217): behold, I send you forth (apostellō, G649) as lambs among wolves (lukos, G3074)... And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive (dechomai, G1209) you, eat such things as are set before (paratithēmi, G3908) you: and heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (asthenēs, G772) that are therein, and say (legō, G3004) unto them, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto you... He that heareth (akouō, G191) you heareth me; and he that despiseth (atheteō, G114) you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent (apostellō, G649) me. And the seventy returned again with joy (chara, G5479), saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), even the devils (daimonion, G1140) are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto us through thy name (onoma, G3686). And he said unto them, I beheld (theōreō, G2334) Satan (Satanas, G4567) as lightning (astrapē, G796) fall (piptō, G4098) from heaven. Behold, I give (didōmi, G1325) unto you power (exousia, G1849) to tread (pateō, G3961) on serpents (ophis, G3789) and scorpions (skorprios, G4651), and over all the power (dunamis, G1411) of the enemy (echtros, G2190): and nothing shall by any means hurt (adikeō, G91) you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto you; but rather rejoice (chairō, G5463), because your names are written in heaven. In that hour Jesus rejoiced (agalliaō, G21) in spirit, and said, I thank (exomologeō, G1843) thee, O Father, Lord (kurios, G2962) of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise (sophos, G4680) and prudent (sunetos, G4908), and hast revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto babes (nēpios, G3516): even so, Father; for so it seemed (ginomai, G1096) good (eudokia, G2107) in thy sight.'

Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' Return to Day 21

Day 22: Thanksgiving (scripture study)

Questions:

1. For what are you thankful?
2. Why are we to give thanks in all circumstances?
3. How may we expect the indwelling Holy Spirit to affect our thoughts, attitude, and what we say in our day to day lives?
4. In what way should thanksgiving be part of our prayers?
5. How is it that our lives are intended to cause thanksgiving to abound to God?

"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1th.5.16-18.ESV>

"Rejoice (chairō, G5463) evermore (pantote, G3842). Pray without ceasing (adialeiptōs, G89). In every thing give thanks (eucharisteō, G2168): for this is the will (thelēma, G2307) of God in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) concerning you."

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1th.5.16-18.KJV>

For what are you thankful?

To be filled with the Spirit is to also be full of thanks and praise, always maintaining connection and communication with God via the channel opened by Jesus Christ.

Since God is also the source of every good and perfect gift,

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change."

James 1:17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.17.ESV>

"Every good (agathos, G18) gift (dosis, G1394) and every perfect (teleios, G5046) gift (dōrēma, G1434) is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights (phōs, G5457), with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

James 1:17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JAS.1.17>

this is a reason for continued thanksgiving. Out of thankful hearts, we should speak thanks. An attitude and a practice of thanksgiving also leads to the renewed mind that we are to develop,

“to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.22-24.ESV>

“that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old man, which is corrupt (phtheirō, G5351) according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed (ananēōō, G365) in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new (kainos, G2537) man, which after God is created (ktizō, G2936) in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness..”

Ephesians 4:22-24 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.4.22-24.KJV>

for thinking leads to action, continued thinking with accompanying action to habit, and all of this establishes character, or fruit.

“Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.”

Philippians 4:5-9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/php.4.5-9.ESV>

“Let your moderation (epieikēs, G1933) be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand (eggus, G1451). Be careful (merimnaō, G3309) for nothing (mēdeis, G3367); but in every thing by prayer and supplication (deēsis, G1162) with thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) let your requests (aitēma, G155) be made known unto God. And the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God, which passeth (huperechō, G5242) all understanding (nous, G3563), shall keep (phroureō, G5432) your hearts (kardia, G2588) and minds (noēma, G3540) through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true (alēthēs, G227), whatsoever things are honest (semnos, G4586), whatsoever things are just (dikaioi, G1342), whatsoever things are pure (hagnos, G53), whatsoever things are lovely (prophilēs, G4375), whatsoever things are of good report (euphēmos, G2163); if there be any virtue (aretē, G703), and if there be any praise, think (logizomai, G3049) on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received (paralambanō, G3880), and heard (akouō, G191), and seen (eidō, G1492) in me, do (prassō, G4238): and the God of peace (eirēnē, G1515) shall be with you."

Philippians 4:5-9 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/php.4.5-9.KJV>

"You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits."

Matthew 7:16-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.7.16-20.ESV>

"Ye shall know (epiginōskō, G1921) them by their fruits (karpos, G2590). Do men gather grapes of thorns (akantha, G173), or figs of thistles (tribolos, G5146)? Even so every good (agathos, G18) tree bringeth forth (poieō, G4160) good (kalos, G2570) fruit; but a corrupt (sapos, G4550) tree bringeth forth evil (ponēros, G4190) fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down (ekkoptō, G1581), and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."

Matthew 7:16-20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.7.16-20.KJV>

Giving thanks helps us to set our mind on things that are above.

"If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.... and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator... And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

Colossians 3:1-3, 10, 15-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.1-17.ESV>

"If ye then be risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) Christ, seek (zēteō, G2212) those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. Set your affection (phroneō, G5426) on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead (apothnēskō, G599), and your life (zōē, G2222) is hid (kruptō, G2928) with Christ (Christos, G5547) in God... and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new (neos, G3501) man, which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge after the image (eikōn, G1504) of him that created (ktizō, G2936) him: ...And let the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God rule (brabeuō, G1018) in your hearts (kardia, G2588), to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful (eucharistos, G2170). Let the word (logos, G3056) of Christ dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in you richly (plousiōs, G4146) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs, singing with grace (charis, G5485) in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do (poieō, G4160) in word (logos, G3056) or deed (ergon, G2041), do all in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (lēsous, G2424), giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) to God and the Father by him."

Thanks is also to be part of the asking portion of our prayers. In Jesus' model prayer of faith, He thanked our Father for having heard His prayer, then He made a demand for the thing He knew God had granted.

"When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled... Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. ...So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go." '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.11.33,38,41-44>

"When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned (embrimaomai, G1690) in the spirit (pneuma, G4151), and was troubled (tarassō, G5015), ...Jesus therefore again groaning (embrimaomai, G1690) in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it... Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank (eucharisteō, G2168) thee that thou hast heard (akouō, G191) me. And I knew that thou hearest me always (pantote, G3842): but because of the people (ochlos, G3793) which stand by I said it, that they may believe (pisteuō, G4100) that thou hast sent (apostellō, G649) me. And when he thus had spoken, he cried (kraugazō, G2905) with a loud (megas, G3173) voice (phōnē, G5456), Lazarus (Lazaros, G2976), come (deuro, G1204) forth (exō, G1854). And he that was dead came forth, bound (deō, G1210) hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose (luō, G3089) him, and let (aphiēmi, G863) him go (hupagō, G5217). '

On another occasion, He thanked our Father before using His faith to multiply food for 5,000.

'Jesus then took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated. So also the fish, as much as they wanted.'

John 6:11 ESV

'And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks (eucharisteō, G2168), he distributed (diadidōmi, G1239) to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as (hosos, G3745) they would (thelō, G2309).'

He did not teach that we should pray to the Father, "if it be Your will," but instead "Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son" (John 14:13).

"Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it."

John 14:13-14 ESV

"And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. If ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) any thing in my name, I will do (poieō, G4160) it."

This is cause for thanksgiving after having made our request in Jesus' name: thank You that You have heard my prayer.

Giving thanks is characteristic of the mind of Christ. In Christ, we have that mind.

"For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ."

1 Corinthians 2:16 ESV

"For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547)."

Prayer: Thank You, Father, for every good and perfect gift. Thank you for making me an agent of Your grace and compassion.

"For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God."

2 Corinthians 4:15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.15.ESV>

"For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant (pleonazō, G4121) grace (charis, G5485) might through the thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) of many redound (perisseuō, G4052) to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God."

2 Corinthians 4:15 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.4.15.KJV>

'For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.'

2 Corinthians 5:14-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.5.14-20>

'For the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547) constraineth (sunechō, G4912) us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead (apothnēskō, G599): and that he died for all, that they which live (zaō, G2198) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh (sarx, G4561): yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in (en, G1722) Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word

(logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God. '

Thank You for revealing Your will in Christ. Speak to me about how today I may bring You glory and thanksgiving through exercising generosity.

"And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!"

2 Corinthians 9:8-15 ESV

"And God is able (dunatos, G1415) to make all grace (charis, G5485) abound (perisseuō, G4052) toward you; that ye, always (pantote, G3842) having (echō, G2192) all sufficiency (autarkeia, G841) in all things, may abound (perisseuō, G4052) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041): (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad (skorpizō, G4650); he hath given to the poor: His righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) remaineth (menō, G3306) for ever. Now he that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) seed (sperma, G4690) to the sower both minister (chorēgeō, G5524) bread for your food, and multiply (plēthunō, G4129) your seed sown, and increase (auxanō, G837) the fruits (gennēma, G1081) of your righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343);) being enriched (ploutizō, G4148) in every thing to all bountifulness (haplotēs, G572), which causeth (katergazomai, G2716) through us thanksgiving (eucharista, G2169) to God. For the administration (diakonia, G1248) of this service not only supplieth (prosanaplēroō, G4322) the want of the saints, but is abundant (perisseuō, G4052) also by many thanksgivings (eucharistia, G2169) unto God; whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify (doxazō, G1392) God for your professed (homologia, G3671) subjection unto the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of Christ, and for your liberal (haplotēs, G572) distribution (koinōnia, G2842) unto them, and unto all men; and by their prayer (deēsis, G1162) for you, which long after (epipotheō, G1971) you for the exceeding (huperballō, G5235) grace (charis, G5485) of God in you. Thanks (charis, G5485) be unto God for his unspeakable (anekdiēgētos, G411) gift (dōrea, G1431)."

Return to Day 22

Day 23: Praise (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Based on the example of Paul and Silas, what should be our response in times of difficulty and trial?
2. How does the indwelling Holy Spirit respond to praise?
3. What does it mean to worship in truth?
4. How did King David model a lifestyle of praise?
5. What today do you find most praiseworthy about our God?

"About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.16.25-26.ESV>

As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour. But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are Jews, and they are disturbing our city. They advocate customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to accept or practice." The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods. And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them safely. Having received this order, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened. When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." And the jailer called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.16.16-34>

'And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel (paidiskē, G3814) possessed with (echō, G2192) a spirit of divination (Puthōn, G4436) met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying (manteuomai, G3132): The same followed Paul and us, and cried (krazō, G2896), saying, These men are the servants (doulos, G1401) of the most high (hupsistos, G5310) God, which shew (kataggellō, G2605) unto us the way (hodos, G3598) of salvation (sōtēria, G4991). And this did (poieō, G4160) she many days. But Paul, being grieved (diaponeō, G1278), turned and said to the spirit, I command (paraggellō, G3853) thee in the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ to come out (exerchomai, G1831) of her. And he came out the same hour. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught (epilambanomai, G1949) Paul and Silas, and drew (helkuō, G1670) them into the marketplace unto the rulers, and brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble (ektarasso, G1613) our city, and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat (rhabdizō, G4463) them. And when they had laid (epitithēmi, G2007) many stripes (plēgē, G4127) upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor (desmophylax, G1200) to keep them safely: who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made (asphalizō, G805) their feet fast in the stocks (xulon, G3586). And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises (humneō, G5214) unto God: and the prisoners (demios, G1198) heard them. And suddenly there was a great earthquake (seismos, G4578), so that the foundations (themelios, G2310) of the prison were shaken (saleuō, G4531): and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed (aniēmi, G447). And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice (phōnē, G5456), saying, Do thyself no harm (kakos, G2556): for we are all here. Then he called for a light (phōs, G5457), and sprang in, and came trembling (entromos, G1790), and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must (dei, G1163) I do (poieō, G4160) to be saved (sōzō, G4982)? And they said, Believe on the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982), and thy house (oikos, G3624). And they spake unto him the word (logos, G3056) of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took (paralambanō, G3880) them the same hour of the night, and washed (louō, G3068) their stripes (plēgē, G4127); and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced (agalliaō, G21), believing in God with all his house (panoiki, G3882). '

Acts 16:16-34 KJV

The love for God that Apostle Paul and Silas had caused them to sing for joy, even when they had just been beaten and imprisoned for sharing the good news of Jesus Christ in Macedonia. Filled with the Spirit, their faith expressed through psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs brought heaven to their souls.

'And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,'

Ephesians 5:18-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.18-20>

'And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled (plēroō, G4137) with the Spirit; speaking to yourselves in psalms (psalmos, G5568) and hymns (humnos, G5215) and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs (ōdē, G5603), singing and making melody (psallō, G5567) in your heart (kardia, G2588) to the Lord; giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) always (pantote, G3842) for all things unto God and the Father in the name (onoma, G3686) of our Lord Jesus Christ;'

Ephesians 5:18-20 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.18-20>

In the midst of their chains, they entered God's gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise, blessing God's name.

'Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the Lord, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.'

Psalms 100:1-5 ESV

'Make a joyful noise (rûa', H7321) unto the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness (šimchâh, H8057): Come before his presence (pânîym, H6440) with singing (renânâh, H7445). Know ye that the LORD he is God ('elôhîym, H430): It is he that hath made ('âsâh, H6213) us, and not we ourselves; We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture (mir'îyth, H4830). Enter into (bô', H835) his gates with thanksgiving (tôdâh, H8426), and into his courts with praise (tehillâh, H8416): Be thankful (yâdâh, H3034) unto him, and bless (bârak, H1288) his name (shêm, H8034). For the LORD is good (tôb, H2896); his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) is everlasting; and his truth ('emûnâh, H530) endureth to all generations.'

Psalms 100:1-5 KJV

Their prayer and praise stirred up the Holy Spirit, unleashing the power of God.

"For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control."

2 Timothy 1:6-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.1.6-7.ESV>

"Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5485) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit (pneuma, G4151) of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995)."

2 Timothy 1:6-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2ti.1.6-7.KJV>

And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, greatly annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. And they arrested them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand... So they called them and charged them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge, for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard." And when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people, for all were praising God for what had happened. For the man on whom this sign of healing was performed was more than forty years old. When they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them. And when they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, "Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, who through the mouth of our father David, your servant, said by the Holy Spirit, "'Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord and against his Anointed' — for truly in this city there were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place. And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness, while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus." And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. '

Acts 4:1-4,18-33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.4.1-4,18-33>

'And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain (stratēgos, G4755) of the temple, and the Sadducees (Saddoukaios, G4523), came upon them, being grieved (diaponeō, G1278) that they taught the people, and preached (kataggellō, G2605) through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold (tērēsis, G5084) unto the next day: for it was now eventide. Howbeit many of them which heard the word (logos, G3056) believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand... And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right (diakios, G1342) in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified (doxazō, G1392) God for that which was done. For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle (sēmeion, G4592) of healing (iasis, G2392) was shewed (ginomai, G1096). And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests (archiereus, G749) and elders had said unto them. And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice (phōnē, G5456) to God with one accord (homothumadon, G3661), and said, Lord (despotēs, G1203), thou art God, which hast made (poieō, G4160) heaven (ouranos, G3772), and earth (gē, G1093), and the sea (thalassa, G2281), and all that in them is: Who by the mouth of thy servant (pais, G3816) David hast said, Why did the heathen (ethnos, G1484) rage (phruassō, G5433), and the people imagine (meletaō, G3191) vain things (kenos, G2756)? The kings (basileus, G935) of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord (kurios, G2962), and against his Christ (Christos, G5547). For of a truth against thy holy (hagios, G40) child (pais, G3816) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), whom thou hast anointed (chriō, G5548), both Herod (Hērōdēs, G2264), and Pontius (Pontios, G4194) Pilate (Pilatōs, G4091), with the Gentiles (ethnos, G1484), and the people of Israel (Israēl, G2474), were gathered together, for to do (poieō, G4160) whatsoever thy hand (cheir, G5495) and thy counsel (boulē, G1012) determined before (proorizō, G4309) to be done (ginomai, G1096). And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto (didōmi, G1325) thy servants (doulos, G1401), that with all boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) they may speak thy word (logos, G3056), by stretching forth (ekteinō, G1614) thine hand (cheir, G5495) to heal (iasis, G2392); and that signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059) may be done (ginomai, G1096) by the name (onoma, G3686) of thy holy child Jesus. And when they had prayed (deomai, G1189), the place was shaken (saleuō, G4531) where they were assembled together; and they were all filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word (logos, G3056) of God with boldness (parrhēsia, G3954). And the multitude (plēthos, G4128) of them that believed were of one heart (kardia, G2588) and of one soul (psuchē, G5590): neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed (huparchonta, G5224) was his own; but they had all things common (koinos, G2839). And with great power (dunamis, G1411) gave (apodidōmi, G591) the apostles (apostolos, G652) witness (marturion, G3142) of the resurrection of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus: and great grace (charis, G5485) was upon them all. "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;"

<https://bible.com/bible/59/isa.61.1.ESV>

"The Spirit (rûach, H7307) of the Lord ('adônây, H136) GOD is upon me; because the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) hath anointed (mâshach, H4886) me to preach good tidings (bâsar, H1319) unto the meek ('ânâv, H635); he hath sent (shâlach, H7971) me to bind up (châbash, H2280) the brokenhearted (shâbar, H7665), to proclaim (qârâ', H7121) liberty (derôr, H1865) to the captives (shâbâh, H7616), and the opening of the prison (peqach-qôach, H6495) to them that are bound ('âsar, H631);"

Isaiah 61:1 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/isa.61.1.KJV>

"And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.4.16-21.ESV>

"And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up (trephō, G5142); and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book (biblion, G975) of the prophet Esaias (Hēsaías, G2268). And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is upon me, Because he hath anointed (chriō, G5548) me to preach the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097) to the poor (ptōchos, G4434); He hath sent (apostellō, G649) me to heal (iaomai, G2390) the brokenhearted (suntribō kardia, G4937+G2588), to preach (kērussō, G2784) deliverance (aphesis, G859) to the captives, and recovering of sight (anablepsis, G309) to the blind (tuphlos, G5185), to set at (apostellō, G649) liberty (aphesis, G859) them that are bruised (thrauō, G2352), to preach the acceptable (dektos, G1184) year (eniautos, G1763) of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister (hupēretēs, G5257), and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in your ears (ous, G3775)."

Having created all men and women in His image to be in an intimate, covenant relationship with Him, God loves us so much that He rejoices over each one of us with gladness and loud singing, according to Zephaniah 3:17!

"Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them."

Genesis 1:26-27 ESV

King David understood God's good nature, and it caused David to write and sing Him many, many songs (psalms).

"O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babies and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger. When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet,"

"The LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) is my shepherd (râ'âh, H7462); I shall not want (châsêr, H2637). He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth (nâhal, H5095) me beside the still (menûchâh, H4496) waters. He restoreth (shûb, H7725) my soul (nephesh, H5315): He leadeth (nâchâh, H5148) me in the paths (ma'gâl, H4570) of righteousness (tsedeq, H6664) for his name's (shêm, H8034) sake. Yea, though I walk (yâlak, H3212) through the valley (gay', H1516) of the shadow of death (tsalmâveth, H6757), I will fear (yârê', H3372) no evil (ra', H7451): for thou art with me; Thy rod (shêbet, H7626) and thy staff (mish'ênâh, H4938) they comfort (nâcham, H5162) me. Thou preparest ('ârak, H6186) a table (shûlchân, H7979) before (pânîym, H6440) me in the presence of mine enemies (tsârar, H6887): Thou anointest (dâshên, H1878) my head with oil (shemen, H8081); my cup (kôs, H3563) runneth over (revâyâh, H7310). Surely goodness (tôb, H2896) and mercy (chêsêd, H2617) shall follow (râdaph, H7291) me all the days of my life (chay, H2416): And I will dwell (yâshab, H3427) in the house (bayith, H1004) of the LORD for ever."

Psalms 23:1-6 KJV

It caused him to dance and leap before the Lord in public with all his might, not caring who saw him or what people thought.

"And David danced before the Lord with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting and with the sound of the horn. As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord, and she despised him in her heart. And they brought in the ark of the Lord and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord. And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts and distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins to each one. Then all the people departed, each to his house. And David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, "How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants' female servants, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!" And David said to Michal, "It was before the Lord, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the Lord—and I will celebrate before the Lord. I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in your eyes. But by the female servants of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor."

2 Samuel 6:14-22 ESV

"And David (dâvid, H1732) danced (kârar, H3769) before (pânîym, H6440) the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) with all his might ('ôz, H5797); and David was girded (châgar, H2296) with a linen ephod ('êphôd, H646). So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting (terû'âh, H8643), and with the sound (qôl, H6963) of the trumpet (shôphâr, H7782). And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal (mîykâl, H4324) Saul's (shâ'ûl, H7586) daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping (pâzaz, H6339) and dancing (kârar, H3769) before (pânîym, H6440) the LORD; and she despised (bâzâh, H959) him in her heart (lêb, H3820). And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle ('ôhel, H168) that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed (bârak, H1288) the people in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD of hosts (tsâbâ', H6635). And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine ('ashîyshâh, H809). So all the people departed every one to his house. Then David returned to bless (bârak, H1288) his household (bayith, H1004). And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered (gâlâh, H1540) himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids ('âmâh, H519) of his servants ('ebed, H5650), as one of the vain fellows (rêyq, H7386) shamelessly uncovereth (gâlâh, H1540) himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint (tsâvâh, H6680) me ruler (nâgîyd, H5057) over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play (śâchaq, H7832) before the LORD. And I will yet be more vile (qâlal, H7043) than thus, and will be base (shâphâl, H8217) in mine own sight ('ayin, H5869): and of the maidservants ('âmâh, H519) which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour (kâbad, H3513)."

Likewise, there are innumerable reasons for us to praise our God, rich in mercy, who loves big, as only love's author can.

"Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him."

1 John 4:8-9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.4.8-9.ESV>

"He that loveth (agapaō, G25) not knoweth not God; for God is love (agapē, G26). In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent (apostellō, G649) his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live (zaō, G2198) through him."

1 John 4:8-9 KJV

And so we join the chorus of praise to the One who has made us eternally alive and seated us in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages He might show the immeasurable riches of His grace in kindness toward us!

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus."

Ephesians 2:4-7 ESV

Who am I that You love me so?

"how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, "What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor,"

Hebrews 2:3-7 ESV

I praise You for having set me free, having joined me to Your eternal kingdom, having prepared good works for me to do, and having made me an heir of Your generous giving for all time.

'And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. In love he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. 'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed (eulogeō, G2127) us with all spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) blessings (eulogia, G2129) in heavenly places in Christ: according as he hath chosen (eklegomai, G1586) us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame (amōmos, G299) before him in love (agapē, G26): having predestinated (proorizō, G4309) us unto the adoption of children (uiiothesia, G5206) by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) of his will (thelēma, G2307), to the praise of the glory (doxa, G1391) of his grace (charis, G5485), wherein he hath made us accepted (charitoō, G5487) in the beloved (agapaō, G25). In whom we have redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) through his blood, the forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485); wherein he hath abounded (perisseuō, G4052) toward us in all wisdom (sophia, G4678) and prudence (phronēsis, G5428); having made known unto us the mystery (mustērion, G3466) of his will (thelēma, G2307), according to his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) which he hath purposed (protithēmai, G4388) in himself: that in the dispensation (oikonomia, G3622) of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of times (kairos, G2540) he might gather together in one (anakephalaiomai, G346) all things in Christ (Christos, G5547), both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: in whom also we have obtained an inheritance (klērōō, G2820), being predestinated (proorizō, G4309) according to the purpose (prothesis, G4286) of him who worketh (energeō, G1754) all things after the counsel (boulē, G1012) of his own will (thelēma, G2307): that we should be to the praise of his glory (doxa, G1391), who first trusted (proelpizō, G4276) in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word (logos, G3056) of truth (alētheia, G225), the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of your salvation (sōtēria, G4991): in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with (sphragizō, G4972) that holy Spirit of promise (epaggelia, G1860), which is the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of our inheritance (klēronomia, G2817) until the redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) of the purchased possession (peripoiēsis, G4047), unto the praise of his glory (doxa, G1391)... and hath put all things under his feet (pous, G4228), and gave (didōmi, G1325) him to be the head (kephalē, G2776) over all things to the church (ekklēsia, G1577), which is his body (sōma, G4983), the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of him that filleth (plēroō, G4137) all in all.'

Return to Day 23

Day 24: Passion (scripture study)

Questions:

1. About what are you passionate?
2. Do you like to be around passionate people?
3. Describe God's passion.
4. Describe Jesus' passion.
5. How does the indwelling Spirit fill us with this same passion?

"And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him."

Luke 15:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.15.20.ESV>

'And he said, "There was a man who had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me.' And he divided his property between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in reckless living. And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. And he was longing to be fed with the pods that the pigs ate, and no one gave him anything. "But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have more than enough bread, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants."' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to celebrate. "Now his older son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.' But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Look, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command, yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

Luke 15:11-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.15.11-32>

'And he said, A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods (ousia, G3776) that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living (bios, G979). And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted (diaskorpizō, G1287) his substance (ousia, G3776) with riotous living (zaō, G2198). And when he had spent (dapanāō, G1159) all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain (epithumeō, G1937) have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish (apollumi, G622) with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy (axios, G514) to be called thy son (uihos, G5207): make (poieō, G4160) me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697), and ran (trechō, G5143), and fell on (epiptō, G1968) his neck, and kissed (kataphileō, G2705) him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants (doulos, G1401), Bring forth the best robe (stolē, G4749), and put it on (enduō, G1746) him; and put (enduō, G1746) a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring hither the fatted calf (moschos, G3448), and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry (euphrainō, G2165): for this my son (uihos, G5207) was dead (nekros, G3498), and is alive again (anazaō, G326); he was lost (apollumi, G622), and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick (sumphōnia, G4858) and dancing (choros, G5525). And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received (apolambanō, G618) him safe and sound (hugiainō, G5198). And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated (parakaleō, G3870) him. And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve (douleuō, G1398) thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured (katesthiō, G2719) thy living (bios, G979) with harlots (pomē, G4204), thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad (chairō, G5463): for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again (anazaō, G326); and was lost, and is found.'

Luke 15:11-32 KJV

About what are you passionate?

God's passion is shown in the abundant love He shows when beloved children return to Him from their sin.

"Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.15.1-7.ESV>

"Then drew near unto him all the publicans (telōnēs, G5057) and sinners (hamartōlos, G268) for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured (diagogguzō, G1234), saying, This man receiveth (prosdechomai, G4327) sinners, and eateth with (sunesthiō, G4906) them. And he spake this parable (parabolē, G3850) unto them, saying, What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose (apollumi, G622) one of them, doth not leave (kataleipō, G2641) the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on (epitithēmi, G2007) his shoulders, rejoicing (chairō, G5463). And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice (sugchairō, G4796) with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy (chara, G5479) shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth (metanoeō, G3340), more than over ninety and nine just persons (dikaioi, G1342), which need (echō, G2192) no repentance (metanoia, G3341)."

"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly."

John 10:10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.10.10.ESV>

'The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill (thuō, G2380), and to destroy (apollumi, G622): I am come that they might have life (zōē, G2222), and that they might have it more abundantly (perissos, G4053). '

John 10:10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.10.10>

“that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.”

Ephesians 3:16-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.3.16-19.ESV>

“that he would grant (didōmi, G1325) you, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his glory (doxa, G1391), to be strengthened (krataioō, G2901) with might (dunamis, G1411) by his Spirit in the inner (esō, G2080) man; that Christ (Christos, G5547) may dwell (katoikeō, G2730) in your hearts (kardia, G2588) by faith; that ye, being rooted (rhizoō, G4492) and grounded (themelioō, G2311) in love (agapē, G26), may be able (exischuō, G1840) to comprehend (katalambanō, G2638) with all saints (hagios, G40) what is the breadth, and length, and depth (bathos, G899), and height (hupsos, G5311); and to know (ginōskō, G1097) the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547), which passeth (huperballō, G5235) knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of God.”

Ephesians 3:16-19 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.3.16-19.KJV>

This is illustrated well in the parable of the Prodigal Son. The son had squandered his inheritance, and yet when his father saw him returning, although far away, the father, in his compassion, ran to him, hugged him and kissed him.

‘And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.’

Luke 15:20 ESV

‘And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697), and ran (trechō, G5143), and fell on (epiptō, G1968) his neck, and kissed (kataphileō, G2705) him.’

Then he threw a huge party.

That is passion!

Do you like to be around passionate people?

God is the author of passion. His love is so big that He made a way, a wide channel for His beloved ones to be loved and blessed in Jesus Christ.

'And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.'

John 3:14-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.3.14-17>

'And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up (hupsoō, G5312): that whosoever believeth (pisteuō, G4100) in him should not perish, but have eternal (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222). For God so loved (agapaō, G25) the world (kosmos, G2889), that he gave (didōmi, G1325) his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent (apostellō, G649) not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved (sōzō, G4982).'

John 3:14-17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.3.14-17>

' "Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.'

John 14:1-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.14.1-11>

'Let not your heart (kardia, G2588) be troubled (tarassō, G5015): ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house (oikia, G3614) are many mansions (monē, G3438): if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place (topos, G5117) for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive (paralambanō, G3880) you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way (hodos, G3598) ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way (hodos, G3598), the truth (alētheia, G225), and the life (zōē, G2222): no man cometh (erchomai, G2064) unto the Father, but by me.

If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen (horaō, G3708) him. Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth (arkeō, G714) us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words (rhēma, G4487) that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth (menō, G3306) in me, he doeth (poieō, G4160) the works (ergon, G2041). Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.'

John 14:1-11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.14.1-11>

'Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.' Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself." And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation." So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.2.36-41>

'Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord (kurios, G2962) and Christ (Christos, G5547). Now when they heard this, they were pricked (katanussō, G2660) in their heart (kardia, G2588), and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent (metanoeō, G3340), and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission (aphesis, G859) of sins, and ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) the gift (dōrea, G1431) of the Holy Ghost. For the promise (epaggelia, G1860) is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call (proskaleomai, G4341). And with many other words (logos, G3056) did he testify (diamarturomai, G1263) and exhort (parakaleō, G3870), saying, Save (sōzō, G4982) yourselves from this untoward (skolios, G4646) generation. Then they that gladly (asmenōs, G780) received (apodechomai, G588) his word (logos, G3056) were baptized (baptizō, G907): and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls (psuchē, G5590).'

'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed (eulogeō, G2127) us with all spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) blessings (eulogia, G2129) in heavenly places in Christ: '

Ephesians 1:3 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.1.3>

According to the law of God, it required God to give His only Son to become a sacrifice to His enemy.

'Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith—just as Abraham “believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”? Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you shall all the nations be blessed.” So then, those who are of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith. For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them.” Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “The righteous shall live by faith.” But the law is not of faith, rather “The one who does them shall live by them.” Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree”—so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith... for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.'

Galatians 3:5-14,26-29 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.3.5-14,26-29>

'He therefore that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) to you the Spirit, and worketh (energeō, G1754) miracles (dunamis, G1411) among you, doeth he it by the works (ergon, G2041) of the law (nomos, G3551), or by the hearing (akoē, G189) of faith? Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted (logizaomai, G3049) to him for righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343). Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children (uihos, G5207) of Abraham (Abraam, G11). And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify (dikaioō, G1344) the heathen (ethnos, G1484) through faith (pistis, G4102), preached before the gospel (proeuaggelizomai, G4283) unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations (ethnos, G1484) be blessed (eneulogeō, G1757). So then they which be of faith are blessed (eulogeō, G2127) with faithful (pistos, G4103) Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse (katara, G2571): for it is written (graphō, G1125),

Cursed (epikataratos, G1944) is every one that continueth (emmenō, G1696) not in all things which are written (graphō, G1125) in the book (biblion, G975) of the law to do (poieō, G4160) them. But that no man is justified (dikaioō, G1344) by the law in the sight of God, it is evident (dēlos, G1212): for, The just (dikaios, G1342) shall live (zaō, G2198) by faith (pistis, G4102). And the law (nomos, G3551) is not of faith: but, The man that doeth (poieō, G4160) them shall live (zaō, G2198) in them. Christ (Christos, G5547) hath redeemed (exagorazō, G1805) us from the curse (katara, G2571) of the law, being made (ginomai, G1096) a curse (katara, G2571) for us: for it is written, Cursed (epikataratos, G1944) is every one that hangeth (kremannumi, G2910) on a tree (xulon, G3586): that the blessing (eulogia, G2129) of Abraham might come on (ginomai, G1096) the Gentiles (ethnos, G1484) through Jesus Christ; that we might receive (lambanō, G2983) the promise (epaggelia, G1860) of the Spirit through faith... For ye are all the children (uihos, G5207) of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized (baptizō, G907) into Christ have put on (enduō, G1746) Christ (Christos, G5547). There is neither Jew nor Greek (Hellēn, G1672), there is neither bond (doulos, G1401) nor free (eleutheros, G1658), there is neither male (arrhēn, G730) nor female (thēlus, G2338): for ye are all one in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424). And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed (sperma, G4690), and heirs (klēronomos, G2818) according to the promise (epaggelia, G1860).'

Galatians 3:5-14,26-29 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/GAL.3.5-14,26-29>

"And if a man has committed a crime punishable by death and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, his body shall not remain all night on the tree, but you shall bury him the same day, for a hanged man is cursed by God. You shall not defile your land that the Lord your God is giving you for an inheritance.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/DEU.21.22-23>

'And if a man have committed a sin (chêt', H2399) worthy of death (mâveth, H4194), and he be to be put to death (mûth, H4191), and thou hang (tâlâh, H8518) him on a tree ('êts, H6086): his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged (tâlâh, H8518) is accursed (qelâlâh, H7045) of God ('elôhîym, H430);) that thy land be not defiled (tâmê', H2930), which the LORD thy God giveth (nâthan, H5415) thee for an inheritance (nachalâh, H5159).'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/DEU.21.22-23>

'having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. '

Colossians 2:12-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/COL.2.12-15>

'buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900); blotting out (exaleiphō, G1813) the handwriting (cheirographon, G5498) of ordinances (dogma, G1378) that was against us, which was contrary (hupenantios, G5227) to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it (prosēloō, G4338) to his cross; and having spoiled (apekduomai, G554) principalities (archē, G746) and powers (exousia, G1849), he made a shew of (deigmatizō, G1165) them openly, triumphing over (thriambeuō, G2358) them in it.'

'I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. '

Galatians 2:20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.2.20>

'I am crucified with (sustauroō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me.'

Galatians 2:20 KJV

'For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, '

Ephesians 2:8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.2.8>

For by grace (charis, G5485) are ye saved (sōzō, G4982) through faith (pistis, G4102); and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (dōron, G1435) of God'

Ephesians 2:8 KJV

'Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. '

Ephesians 5:1-2 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.5.1-2>

'Be (ginomai, G1096) ye therefore followers (mimētēs, G3402) of God, as dear (agapētos, G27) children (teknon, G5043); and walk (peripateō, G4043) in love (agapē, G26), as Christ also hath loved (agapaō, G25) us, and hath given (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for us an offering (prosphora, G4376) and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling (euōdia, G2175) savour.'

Ephesians 5:1-2 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.1-2>

'Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. '

Hebrews 12:1-4 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/HEB.12.1-4>

'Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about (perikeimai, G4029) with so great (tosoutos, G5118) a cloud (nephos, G3509) of witnesses (martus, G3144), let us lay aside (apotithēmi, G659) every weight (ogkos, G3591), and the sin which doth so easily beset us (euperistatos, G2139), and let us run (trechō, G5143) with patience (hupomonē, G5281) the race (agōn, G73) that is set before (prokeimai, G4295) us, looking unto (aphorāō, G872) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) the author (achēgos, G747) and finisher (teleiōtēs, G5051) of our faith (pistis, G4102); who for the joy (chara, G5479) that was set before (prokeimai, G4295) him endured (hupomenō, G5278) the cross, despising (kataphroneō, G2706) the shame (aischunē, G152), and is set down (kathizō, G2523) at the right hand (dexios, G1188) of the throne (thronos, G2362) of God. For consider him that endured (hupomenō, G5278) such contradiction (antilogia, G485) of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied (kamnō, G2577) and faint (ekluō, G1590) in your minds (psuchē, G5590). Ye have not yet resisted (antikathistēmi, G478) unto blood (aima, G129), striving (antagōnizomai, G464) against sin.'

Hebrews 12:1-4 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/HEB.12.1-4>

God's steadfast, passionate love pursues, waits, forgives, rejoices. He made us to share His passion. He made us to be people passionate for Him and for those He loves — every one of them.

'Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. '

Romans 12:9-18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.12.9-18>

'Let love (agapē, G26) be without dissimulation (anupokritos, G505). Abhor (apostugeō, G655) that which is evil (ponēros, G4190); cleave (kallaō, G2853) to that which is good (agathos, G18). Be kindly affectioned (philostorgos, G5387) one to another with brotherly love (philadelphia, G5360); in honour preferring one another; not slothful in business (spoudē, G4710); fervent (zeō, G2204) in spirit; serving (douleuō, G1398) the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant (proskartereō, G4342) in prayer; distributing (koinōneō, G2841) to the necessity of saints; given (diōkō, G1377) to hospitality (philonexia, G5381). Bless (eulogeō, G2127) them which persecute (diōkō, G1377) you: bless, and curse (kataraomai, G2672) not. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind (phoneō, G5426) one toward another. Mind (phoneō, G5426) not high things (hupsēlos, G5308), but condescend (sunapagō, G4879) to men of low estate. Be not wise (phronimos, G5429) in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil (kakos, G2556) for evil. Provide (proneō, G4306) things honest (kalos, G2570) in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably (eirēneuō, G1514) with all men'

Prayer: I praise You for the richness of Your love, Lord God.

"Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate. They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds, and I will declare your greatness. They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness and shall sing aloud of your righteousness. The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love."

Psalms 145:3-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.145.3-8.ESV>

"Great (gâdôl, H1419) is the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), and greatly (me'ôd, H3966) to be praised (hâlâl, H19854); And his greatness (gedûlâh, H1420) is unsearchable (chêqer, H2714). One generation shall praise (shâbach, H7623) thy works (ma'âseh, H4639) to another, And shall declare (nâgad, H5046) thy mighty acts (gebûrâh, H1369). I will speak (sîyach, H7878) of the glorious (kâbôd, H3519) honour (hâdâr, H1926) of thy majesty (hôd, H1935), and of thy wondrous (pâlâ', H6381) works (dâbâr, H1697). And men shall speak ('âmar, H559) of the might ('ezûz, H5807) of thy terrible acts (yârê', H3372); and I will declare (sâphar, H5608) thy greatness. They shall abundantly utter (nâba', H5042) the memory of thy great (rab, H7227) goodness (tûb, H2898), and shall sing (rânân, H7442) of thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666). The LORD is gracious (channûn, H2587), and full of compassion (rachûm, H7349); slow ('ârêk, H750) to anger ('aph, H639), and of great (gâdôl, H1419) mercy (chêsêd, H2617)."

Thank You for Your great love for me, Jesus. In Gethsemane, You knew what was coming, and yet You gave Yourself for the joy set before You.

"And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. And being in agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground."

Luke 22:41-44 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.22.41-44.ESV>

"And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing (boulomai, G1014), remove (parapherō, G3911) this cup (potērion, G4221) from me: nevertheless (plēn, G4133) not my will (thelēma, G2307), but thine, be done (ginomai, G1096). And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening (enischuō, G1765) him. And being in an agony (agōnia, G74) he prayed more earnestly (ektenesteron, G1617): and his sweat was as it were great drops (thrombos, G2361) of blood falling down to the ground.”

Return to Day 24

Day 25: Humility (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Do you know anyone who is particularly selfless?
2. In what ways was Jesus Christ selfless and humble?
3. How is it that humility starts in our thinking?
4. In what ways should humility be turned into action in our lives?
5. How may we go about aligning our own will with God's will?

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.'

Philippians 2:1-8

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.2.1-8>

'If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426). Let nothing be done through strife (eritheia, G2052) or vainglory (kenodoxia, G2754); but in lowliness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) let each esteem other better than (huperechō, G5242) themselves. Look (skopeō, G4648) not every man on his own things (heautou, G1438), but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind (phroneō, G5426) be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form (morphē, G3444) of God, thought it not robbery (harpamagos, G725) to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation (kenoō, G2758), and took upon him the form of a servant (doulos, G1401), and was made in the likeness (homoiōma, G3667) of men: and being found in fashion (schēma, G4976) as a man, he humbled (tapeinoō, G5013) himself, and became obedient unto death (thanatos, G2288), even the death of the cross (stauros, G4716).'

Philippians 2:1-8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP.2.1-8>

Do you know anyone who is particularly selfless?

Jesus Christ is our example of selflessness, and by participation in the Spirit, we are to walk in His steps,

'For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps.'

1 Peter 2:21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1PE.2.21>

'For even hereunto were ye called (kaleō, G2564): because Christ also suffered (paschō, G3958) for us, leaving us an example (hupogrammos, G5261), that ye should follow (epakoloutheō, G1872) his steps (ichnos, G2487): '

1 Peter 2:21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1PE.2.21>

'And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. '

1 John 2:3-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.2.3-6>

'And hereby we do know (ginōskō, G1097) that we know (ginōskō, G1097) him, if we keep (tēreō, G5083) his commandments (entolē, G1785). He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar (pseustēs, G5583), and the truth (alētheia, G225) is not in him. But whoso keepeth (tēreō, G5083) his word (logos, G3056), in him verily (alēthōs, G230) is the love (agapē, G26) of God perfected (teleioō, G5048): hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith (legō, G3004) he abideth (menō, G3306) in him ought (opheilō, G3784) himself also so to walk (peripateō, G4043), even as he walked (peripateō, G4043).'

1 John 2:3-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1JN.2.3-6>

being of the same mind.

'Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned... Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. '

Romans 12:2-3,16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.12.2-3,16>

'And be not conformed (suschematizō, G4964) to this world: but be ye transformed (metamorphoō, G3339) by the renewing (anakainōsis, G342) of your mind (nous, G3563), that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable (euarestos, G2101), and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God. For I say, through the grace (charis, G5485) given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly (huperphroneō, G5252) than he ought to think; but to think soberly (sōphroneō, G4993), according as God hath dealt (merizō, G3307) to every man (hekastos, G1538) the measure (metron, G3358) of faith (pistis, G4102)... 'Let nothing be done through strife (eritheia, G2052) or vainglory (kenodoxia, G2754); but in lowliness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) let each esteem other better than (huperechō, G5242) themselves.'

Philippians 2:3 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP.2.3>

'“When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field right up to its edge, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest. And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the Lord your God... "You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired worker shall not remain with you all night until the morning. You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the Lord. "You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor... "You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord... "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. '

'And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger (gêr, H1616): I am the LORD your God... Thou shalt not defraud ('âshaq, H6231) thy neighbour (rêa', H7453), neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Thou shalt not curse (qâlal, H7043) the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD . Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour... Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love ('âhab, H157) thy neighbour (rêa', H7453) as thyself: I am the LORD... And if a stranger (gêr, H1616) sojourn (gûr, H1481) with thee in your land, ye shall not vex (yânâh, H3238) him. But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love ('âhab, H157) him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. 'Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that shewed (poieō, G4160) mercy (eleos, G1656) on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.'

'He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Now they were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them. And when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them to him, saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it." '

'And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted (peithō, G3982) in themselves that they were righteous (dikaios, G1342), and despised (exoutheneō, G1848) others: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee (Pharisaïos, G5330), and the other a publican (telōnēs, G5057). The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank (eucharisteō, G2168) thee, that I am not as other (loipoi, G3062) men are, extortioners, unjust (adikos, G94), adulterers (moichos, G3432), or even as this publican. I fast (nēsteuō, G3522) twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up (epairō, G1869) so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote (tuptō, G5180) upon his breast, saying, God be merciful (hilaskomai, G2433) to me a sinner (hamartōlos, G268). I tell you, this man went down (katabainō, G2597) to his house justified (dikaioō, G1344) rather than the other: for every one that exalteth (hupsoō, G5312) himself shall be abased (tapeinoō, G5013); and he that humbleth (tapeinoō, G5013) himself shall be exalted (hupsoō, G5312). And they brought unto him also infants

(brephos, G1025), that he would touch (haptomai, G680) them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) them. But Jesus called them unto (proskaleomai, G4341) him, and said, Suffer (aphiēmi, G863) little children (paidion, G3813) to come unto (erchomai, G2064) me, and forbid (kōluō, G2967) them not: for of such is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. Verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive (dechomai, G1209) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God as a little child (paidion, G3813) shall in no wise enter (eiserchomai, G1525) therein. ' "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' "

Nothing was beneath Him— not the servant's job of washing dirty feet,

'Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" Jesus answered him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand." Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you." For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "Not all of you are clean." When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. '

'After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean (katharos, G2513) every whit (holos, G3650): and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done (poieō, G4160) to you? Ye call me Master (didaskalos, G1320) and Lord (kurios, G2962): and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought (opheilō, G3784) to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example (hupodeigma, G5262), that ye should do (poieō, G4160) as I have done to you. Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, The servant (doulos, G1401) is not greater (meizōn, G3187) than his lord; neither he that is sent (apostolos, G652) greater than he that sent him. If ye know (eidō, G1492) these things, happy (makarios, G3107) are ye if ye do (poieō, G4160) them.'

'Behold, my servant ('ebed, H5650) shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted (rûm, H7311) and extolled (nâsâ', H5375), and be very high (gâbahh, H1361). As many were astonished (shâmêm, H8074) at thee; his visage (mar'eh, H4758) was so marred (mishchâth, H4893) more than any man, and his form (tô'ar, H8339) more than the sons of men:'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ISA.52.13-14>

'Who has believed what he has heard from us? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, and no beauty that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed... He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people? And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth... Therefore I will divide him a portion with the many, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong, because he poured out his soul to death and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and makes intercession for the transgressors.'

Isaiah 53:1-5,7-9,12 ESV

'Who hath believed ('âman, H539) our report (shemû'âh, H8052)? and to whom is the arm (zerôa', H2220) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant (yônêq, H3126), and as a root (sheresh, H8328) out of a dry (tsîyâh, H6723) ground: he hath no form (tô'ar, H8389) nor comeliness (hâdâr, H1926); and when we shall see him, there is no beauty (mar'eh, H4758) that we should desire (châmad, H2530) him. He is despised (bâzâh, H959) and rejected (châdêl, H2310) of men; a man of sorrows (mak'ôb, H4341), and acquainted with grief (cholîy, H2483): and we hid as it were our faces (mastêr, H4564) from him; he was despised (bâzâh, H959), and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne (nâsâ', H5375) our griefs (cholîy, H2483), and carried (sâbal, H5445) our sorrows (mak'ôb, H4341): yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded (châlâl, H2490) for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace (shâlôm, H7965) was upon him; and with his stripes (chabbûrâh, H2250) we are healed (râphâ', H7495)... He was oppressed, and he was afflicted ('ânâh, H6031), yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison ('ôtser, H61150) and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken (nega', H5061). And he made his grave (qeber, H69130) with the wicked (râshâ', H7563), and with the rich ('âshîyr, H6223) in his death (mâveth, H4194); because he had done ('âsâh, H6213) no violence (châmâs, H2555), neither was any deceit in his mouth... Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide (châlaq, H2505) the spoil with the strong ('âtsûm, H6099); because he hath poured out ('ârâh, H6168) his soul (nephesh, H5315) unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors (pâsha', H6586); and he bare (nâsâ', H5375) the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors (pâsha', H6586).'

' My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest... But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by mankind and despised by the people. All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads; "He trusts in the Lord ; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!" ...Many bulls encompass me; strong bulls of Bashan surround me; they open wide their mouths at me, like a ravening and roaring lion. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast; my strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death. For dogs encompass me; a company of evildoers encircles me; they have pierced my hands and feet — I can count all my bones— they stare and gloat over me; they divide my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots. 'My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken ('âzab, H5800) me? Why art thou so far from helping (yeshû'âh, H3444) me, and from the words (dâbâr, H1697) of my roaring (she'âgâh, H7581)? O my God, I cry (qârâ', H7121) in the daytime, but thou hearest not; And in the night season, and am not silent... But I am a worm (tôlâ', H8438), and no man; A reproach (cherpâh, H2781) of men, and despised (bâzâh, H959) of the people ('am, H5971). All they that see me laugh me to scorn (lâ'ag, H3932): They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver (pâlat, H6403) him: Let him deliver (nâtsal, H5337) him, seeing he delighted (châphêts, H2654) in him... Many bulls have compassed me: strong ('abbîyr, H47) bulls of Bashan have beset me round. They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravener (târâph, H2963) and a roaring (shâ'ag, H7580) lion. I am poured out (shâphak, H8210) like water, and all my bones ('etsem, H6106) are out of joint (pârad, H6504): my heart (lêb, H3820) is like wax (dônag, H1749); it is melted (mâsas, H4549) in the midst of my bowels (mê'eh, H4578). My strength (kôach, H3581) is dried up (yâbêsh, H3001) like a potsherd (chereś, H2789); and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust ('âphâr, H6083) of death (mâveth, H4194). For dogs (keleb, H3611) have compassed (sâbab, H5437) me: the assembly of the wicked (râ'a', H7489) have inclosed (nâqaph, H5362) me: They pierced (kârâh, H3738) my hands (yâd, H3027) and my feet (regel, H7272). I may tell (sâphar, H5608) all my bones ('etsem, H6106): they look and stare upon me. They part (châlaq, H2505) my garments among them, and cast lots (gôrâl, H1486) upon my vesture (lebûsh, H3830). "And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, constrained by the Spirit, not knowing what will happen to me there, except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me. But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will see my face again. Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. But none of these things move (poieō, G4160) me, neither count (echō, G2192) I my life (psuchē, G5590) dear (timios, G5093) unto myself, so that I might finish (teleioō, G5048) my course (dromos, G1408) with joy (chara, G5479), and the ministry (diakonia, G1248), which I have received (lambanō, G2983) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, to testify (diamarturomai, G1263) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the grace (charis, G5485) of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone (dierchomai, G1330) preaching (kērussō, G2784) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure (katharos, G2513) from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned (hupostellō, G5288) to declare (anaggellō, G312) unto you all the counsel (boulē, G1012) of God. Take heed therefore unto (prosechō, G4337) yourselves, and to all the flock (poimnion, G4168), over the which the Holy Ghost hath made (tithēmi, G5087) you overseers (episkopos, G1985), to feed (poimainō, G4165) the church (ekklēsia, G1577) of God, which he hath purchased (peripoieomai, G4046) with his own blood."

Day 26: Power (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Do people generally think of the God of the Bible as the Great I AM? Or perhaps more as the Great I WAS?
2. How does the church think differently of the power of God today than the church did in the time the book of Acts was written?
3. What does it mean to be quickened by the indwelling Spirit of God?
4. How did Jesus demonstrate the power of the kingdom of God while He made disciples?
5. How has God used his power to confirm the word spoken by those sent out to make disciples?

'If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. '

Romans 8:11

But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell (oikeō, G3611) in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken (zōopoieō, G2227) your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth (enokeiō, G1774) in you.

Romans 8:11 KJV

Do people generally think of the God of the Bible as the Great I AM? Or perhaps more as the Great I WAS?

"Then Moses said to God, 'If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?' God said to Moses, 'I am who I am.' And he said, 'Say this to the people of Israel: 'I am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel: 'The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations."

Exodus 3:13-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/exo.3.13-15.ESV>

"And Moses (môsheh, H4872) said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478), and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent (shôlach, H7971) me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name (shêm, H8034)? what shall I say unto them? And God said unto Moses, I AM (hâyâh, H1961) THAT I AM (hâyâh, H1961): and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) God (‘elôhîym, H430) of your fathers, the God of Abraham (‘abrâhâm, H85), the God of Isaac (yitschâq, H3327), and the God of Jacob (ya’aqôb, H3290), hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever (‘ôlâm, H5769), and this is my memorial unto all generations.”

"I am the true vine, and my Father (patēr, G3962) is the husbandman (gēorgos, G1092)."

John 15:1 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.15.1.KJV>

The Apostle Paul prophesied that in these last days which we are in, people would be lovers of self, having an appearance of godliness, but denying its power, led astray by various passions, always learning but not arriving at a knowledge of the truth (2 Timothy 3:1-7).

"But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth."

2 Timothy 3:1-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.3.1-7.ESV>

"This know also, that in the last days perilous (chalepos, G5467) times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves (philautos, G5367), covetous (philarguros, G5366), boasters (alazōn, G213), proud (huperēphanos, G5244), blasphemers (blasphēmos, G989), disobedient to parents, unthankful (acharistos, G884), unholy (anosios, G462), without natural affection (astorgos, G794), trucebreakers (aspondos, G786), false accusers (diabolos, G1228), incontinent (akratēs, G193), fierce, despisers of those that are good (aphilagathos, G865), traitors, heady (propetēs, G4312), highminded (tuphoō, G5187), lovers of pleasures (philēdonos, G5369) more than lovers of God (philotheos, G5377); having a form (morphōsis, G3446) of godliness (eusebeia, G2150), but denying (arneomai, G720) the power (dunamis, G1411) thereof: from such turn away (apotrepō, G665). For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able (dunamai, G1410) to come to the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of the truth (alētheia, G225)."

2 Timothy 3:1-7 KJV

The remedy for this outcome is the gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the power of God for salvation (sōzō) to everyone that believes.

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek."

Romans 1:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.1.16.ESV>

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of Christ: for it is the power (dunamis, G1411) of God unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991) to every one that believeth (pisteuō, G4100); to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Romans 1:16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.1.16.KJV>

'On the next day their rulers and elders and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus... And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.4.5-13,33>

'And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power (dunamis, G1411), or by what name (onoma, G3686), have ye done (poieō, G4160) this? Then Peter, filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, if we this day be examined of the good deed (euergesia, G2108) done to the impotent (asthenēs, G772) man, by what means he is made whole (sōzō, G4982); be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole (hugiēs, G5199). This is the stone which was set at nought (exoutheneō, G1848) of you builders, which is become (ginomai, G1096) the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation (sōtēria, G4991) in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved (sōzō, G4982). Now when they saw the boldness (theōreō, G2334) of Peter and John (Iōannēs, G2491), and perceived (katalambanō, G2638) that they were unlearned (agrammatos, G62) and ignorant (idiōtēs, G2399) men, they marvelled (thumazō, G2296); and they took knowledge (epignōskō, G1921) of them, that they had been with Jesus... And with great (megas, G3173) power (dunamis, G1411) gave (apodidōmi, G591) the apostles (apostolos, G652) witness (marturion, G3142) of the resurrection (anastasis, G386) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424): and great (megas, G3173) grace (charis, G5485) was upon them all. '

Acts 4:5-13,33 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ACT.4.5-13,33>

'For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with words of eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power. For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God... but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. '

1 Corinthians 1:17-18,23-25 ESV

'For Christ sent (apostellō, G649) me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097): not with wisdom (sophia, G4678) of words (logos, G3056), lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect (kenoō, G2758). For the preaching (logos, G3056) of the cross is to them that perish (apollumi, G622) foolishness; but unto us which are saved (sōzō, G4982) it is the power (dunamis, G1411) of God... but we preach (kērussō, G2784) Christ crucified (stauroō, G4717), unto the Jews a stumblingblock (skandalon, G4625), and unto the Greeks (Hellēn, G1672) foolishness; but unto them which are called (klētos, G2822), both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power (dunamis, G1411) of God, and the wisdom (sophia, G4678) of God. Because the foolishness (mōros, G3474) of God is wiser (sophos, G4680) than men; and the weakness (ashthenēs, G772) of God is stronger than (ischuros, G2478) men.'

'When the even (opsios, G3798) was come, they brought (prospherō, G4374) unto him many that were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139): and he cast out (ekballō, G1544) the spirits with his word (logos, G3056), and healed (therapeuō, G2323) all that were sick (kakōs, G2560): that it might be fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) which was spoken by Esaias (Hësaïas, G2268) the prophet, saying, Himself took (lambanō, G2983) our infirmities (astheneia, G769), and bare (bastazō, G941) our sicknesses (nosos, G3554).'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.8.16-17>

'For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross... Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.'

'Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, '

'As ye have therefore received (paralambanō, G3880) Christ Jesus the Lord (kurios, G2962), so walk (paripateō, G4043) ye in him: rooted (rhizoō, G4492) and built up (epoikodomeō, G2026) in him, and stablished (bebiaōō, G950) in the faith (pistis, G4102), as ye have been taught, abounding (perisseuō, G4052) therein with thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169). Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy (philosophia, G5385) and vain (kenos, G2756) deceit, after the tradition (paradosis, G3862) of men, after the rudiments (stoicheion, G4747) of the world (kosmos, G2889), and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth (katoikeō, G2730) all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of the Godhead bodily (sōmatikōs, G4985). And ye are complete (plēroō, G4137) in him, which is the head (kephalē, G2776) of all principality (archē, G746) and power (exousia, G1849): in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision (peritemnō, G4059) made without hands (archieropoiētos, G886), in putting off (apekdusis, G555) the body of the sins of the flesh (sarx, G4561) by the circumcision of Christ: buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900); '

In order to carry out the Great Commission, Jesus gave His power to the church by way of God's Spirit working with them.

'Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:16-20 ESV

'Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee (Galilaia, G1056), into a mountain where Jesus had appointed (tassō, G5021) them. And when they saw him, they worshipped (proskuneō, G4352) him: but some doubted (distazō, G1365).. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power (exousia, G1849) is given (didōmi, G1325) unto me in heaven and in earth. Go (poreuomai, G4198) ye therefore, and teach (mathēteuō, G3100) all nations (ethnos, G1484), baptizing (baptizō, G906) them in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Father (patēr, G3962), and of the Son, and of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost: teaching (didaskō, G1321) them to observe (tēreō, G50083) all things whatsoever I have commanded (entellomai, G1781) you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end (sunteleia, G4930) of the world (aiōn, G165). 'Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover." So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]'

'Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided (oneidezō, G3679) them with their unbelief (apistia, G570) and hardness of heart (sklērokardia, G4641), because they believed (pisteuō, G4100) not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go (poreuomai, G4198) ye into all the world (kosmos, G2889), and preach (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) to every creature (ktisis, G2937). He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) and is baptized (baptizō, G907) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); but he that believeth not shall be damned (katakrinō, G2632). And these signs (sēmeion, G4592) shall follow (parakoloutheō, G3877) them that believe; In my name (onoma, G3686) shall they cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140); they shall speak with new (kainos, G2537) tongues (glōssa, G1100); they shall take up (airō, G142) serpents (ophis, G3789); and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt (blaptō, G984) them; they shall lay (epitithēmi, G2007) hands (cheir, G5495) on the sick (arrhōstos, G732), and they shall (echō, G2192) recover (kalōs, G2573). So then after the Lord (kurios, G2962) had spoken unto them, he was received up (analambanō, G353) into heaven, and sat on (kathizō, G2523) the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. And they went forth (exerchomai, G1831), and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord (kurios, G2962) working with (sunergeō, G4903) them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word (logos, G3056) with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (epakoloutheō, G1872). ' On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld." '

'Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled (sunagō, G4863) for fear (phobos, G5401) of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace (eirēnē, G1515) be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad (chairō, G5463), when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent (apostellō, G649) me, even so send (pempō, G3992) I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them (emphusaō, G1720), and saith unto them, Receive (lambanō, G2983) ye the Holy Ghost: whose soever sins ye remit (aphiēmi, G863), they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain (krateō, G2902), they are retained. 'He presented himself alive to them after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. '

'to whom also he shewed himself alive (zaō, G2198) after his passion (paschō, G3958) by many infallible proofs (tekmērion, G5039), being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God: and, being assembled together with them, commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them that they should not depart (chōrizō, G5563) from Jerusalem, but wait for (perimēno, G4037) the promise (epaggelia, G1860) of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized (baptizō, G907) with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost not many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again (apokathistēmi, G600) the kingdom (basileia, G932) to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times (chronos, G5550) or the seasons (kairos, G2540), which the Father hath put in (tithēmi, G5087) his own power (exousia, G1849). But ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) power (dunamis, G1411), after that the Holy Ghost is come upon (eperchomai, G1904) you: and ye shall be witnesses (martus, G1344) unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part (eschatos, G2078) of the earth. This is the power of God in action through the kingdom of God, which does not consist in talk but in power, according to Paul (1 Corinthians 4:19-20).

'I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. I urge you, then, be imitators of me. That is why I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church. Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power. For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power. What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?'

1 Corinthians 4:14-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.4.14-21>

'I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved (agapētos, G27) sons (teknon, G5043) I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand (murioi, G3463) instructors (paidagōgos, G3807) in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers (patēr, G3962): for in Christ Jesus I have begotten (gennaō, G1080) you through the gospel (euggelion, G2098). Wherefore I beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you, be ye followers (mimētēs, G3402) of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved (agapētos, G27) son, and faithful (pistos, G4103) in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways (hodos, G3598) which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church (ekklēsia, G1577). Now some are puffed up (phusioō, G5448), as though I would not come to you. But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord (kurios, G2962) will (thelō, G2309), and will know (ginōskō, G1097), not the speech (logos, G3056) of them which are puffed up (phusioō, G5448), but the power (dunamis, G1411). For the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not in word (logos, G932), but in power (dunamis, G1411). What will (thelō, G239) ye? shall I come unto you with a rod (rhabdos, G4464), or in love (agapē, G26), and in the spirit of meekness (praotēs, G4236)?'

The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead lives in believers and causes rivers of living water to flow out of them

' On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. '

John 7:37-39 ESV

'In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried (krazō, G2896), saying (legō, G3004), If any man thirst (dipsaō, G1372), let him come unto (erchomai, G2064) me, and drink (pinō, G4095). He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (koilia, G2836) shall flow rivers (potamos, G4215) of living (zaō, G2198) water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive (lambanō, G2983): for the Holy Ghost was not yet given ; because that Jesus was not yet glorified (doxazō, G1392).)

' Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. '

'And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!'

2 Corinthians 9:8-15 ESV

'And God is able (dunatos, G1415) to make all grace (charis, G5485) abound (perisseuō, G4052) toward you; that ye, always (pantote, G3842) having (echō, G2192) all sufficiency (autarkeia, G841) in all things, may abound (perisseuō, G4052) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041): (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad (skorpizō, G4650); he hath given to the poor: His righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) remaineth (menō, G3306) for ever. Now he that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) seed (sperma, G4690) to the sower both minister (chorēgeō, G5524) bread for your food, and multiply (plēthunō, G4129) your seed sown, and increase (auxanō, G837) the fruits (gennēma, G1081) of your righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343);) being enriched (ploutizō, G4148) in every thing to all bountifulness (haplotēs, G572), which causeth (katergazomai, G2716) through us thanksgiving (eucharista, G2169) to God. For the administration (diakonia, G1248) of this service not only supplieth (prosanaplēroō, G4322) the want of the saints, but is abundant (perisseuō, G4052) also by many thanksgivings (eucharistia, G2169) unto God; whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify (doxazō, G1392) God for your professed (homologia, G3671) subjection unto the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of Christ, and for your liberal (haplotēs, G572) distribution (koinōnia, G2842) unto them, and unto all men; and by their prayer (deēsis, G1162) for you, which long after (epipotheō, G1971) you for the exceeding (huperballō, G5235) grace (charis, G5485) of God in you. 'Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to confirm your calling and election, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. '

'Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace (charis, G5485) and peace (eirēnē, G1515) be multiplied (plēthunō, G4129) unto you through the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of God, and of Jesus our Lord (kurios, G2962), 'according as his divine power (dunamis, G1411) hath given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us all things that pertain unto life (zōē, G2222) and godliness (eusebeia, G2150), through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory (doxa, G1391) and virtue (aretē, G703): whereby are given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us exceeding great (megistos, G3176) and precious (timios, G5093) promises (epaggelma, G1862): that by these ye might be partakers (koinōnos, G2844) of the divine nature (phusis, G5449), having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence (spoudē, G4710), add (epichorēgeō, G2023) to your faith (pistis, G4102) virtue (aretē, G703); and to virtue knowledge (gnōsis, G1108); and to knowledge temperance (egkrateia, G1466); and to temperance patience (hupomonē, G5281); and to patience godliness (eusebeia, G2150); and to godliness brotherly kindness (philadelphia, G5360); and to brotherly kindness charity (agapē, G26). For if these things be in you, and abound (pleonazō, G4121), they make (kathistēmi, G2525) you that ye shall neither be barren (argos, G692) nor unfruitful (akarpōs, G175) in the knowledge of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547). But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off (muōpazō, G3467), and hath forgotten that he was purged from (katharismos, G2512) his old sins. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence (spoudazō, G4704) to make (poieō, G4160) your calling (klēsis, G2821) and election (eklogē, G1589) sure (bebaios, G949): for if ye do (poieō, G4160) these things, ye shall never fall (ptaiō, G4417): '

But when he saw (eidō, G1492) the multitudes (ochlos, G3793), he was moved with compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697) on them, because they fainted (ekluō, G1590), and were scattered abroad (rhiptō, G4496), as sheep having (echō, G2192) no shepherd."

Jesus preached, taught about, and demonstrated the kingdom of God.

"And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, those oppressed by demons, those having seizures, and paralytics, and he healed them. And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan."

Matthew 4:23-25 ESV

"And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching (kēlussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the kingdom (basileia, G932), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) all manner of sickness (nosos, G3554) and all manner of disease (malakia, G3119) among the people. And his fame (akoē, G189) went throughout all Syria (Suria, G4947): and they brought unto (prospherō, G4374) him all sick (kakōs, G2560) people (echō, G2192) that were taken with (sunechō, G4912) divers (poikilos, G4164) diseases and torments (basanos, G931), and those which were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139), and those which were lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and those that had the palsy (paralutikos, G3885); and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) them. And there followed (akolouthēō, G190) him great multitudes of people from Galilee (Galilaia, G1056), and from Decapolis (Dekapolis, G1179), and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea (Ioudaia, G2449), and from beyond Jordan (Iordanēs, G2446)."

Matthew 4:23-25 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.4.23-25.KJV>

He instructed and expected His followers to do the same as they learned to minister and carry on His ministry because the world needs to know both the love of God and the power of God.

"And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. And he said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics. And whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere. Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead, by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of old had risen. Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he sought to see him. On their return the apostles told him all that they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart to a town called Bethsaida... On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out. It convulses him so that he foams at the mouth, and shatters him, and will hardly leave him. And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." While he was coming, the demon threw him to the ground and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father."

"Then he called his twelve disciples together (sugkaleō, G4779), and gave (didōmi, G1325) them power (dunamis, G1411) and authority (exousia, G1849) over all devils (daimonion, G1140), and to cure (therapeuō, G2323) diseases (nosos, G3554). And he sent (apostellō, G649) them to preach (kērussō, G2784) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and to heal (ioamai, G2390) the sick (astheneō, G770). And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey (hodos, G3598), neither staves (rhabdos, G4464), nor scrip (pēra, G4082), neither bread (artos, G740), neither money (argurion, G694); neither have two coats (chitōn, G5509) apiece. And whatsoever house (oikia, G3614) ye enter into (eiserchomai, G1525), there abide (menō, G3306), and thence depart. And whosoever will not receive (dechomai, G1209) you, when ye go out of (exerchomai, G1831) that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) every where (pantachou, G3837). Now Herod (Hērōdēs, G2264) the tetrarch (tetrarchēs, G5076) heard of all that was done (ginomai, G1096) by him: and he was perplexed (diaporeō, G1280), because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead; and of some, that Elias (Hēlias, G2243) had appeared (phainō, G5316); and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him. And the apostles (apostolos, G652), when they were returned, told (diēgeomai, G1334) him all that they had done (poieō, G4160). And he took them (paralambanō, G3880), and went aside (huperchōreō, G5298) privately into a desert (erēmos, G2048) place belonging to the city called Bethsaida (Bēthsaida, G966)... And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill (oros, G3735), much people (ochlos, G3793) met him. And, behold, a man of the company cried out (anaboaō, G310), saying, Master (didaskalos, G1320), I beseech (deomai, G1189) thee, look upon (epiblepō, G1914) my son: for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit (pneuma, G4151) taketh (lambanō, G2983) him, and he suddenly crieth out (krazō, G2896); and it teareth (sparassō, G4682) him that he foameth again, and bruising (suntribō, G4937) him hardly (mogis, G3425) departeth from him. And I besought (deomai, G1189) thy disciples to cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (dunamai, G141) not. And Jesus answering said, O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer (anechomai, G430) you? Bring thy son hither. And as he was yet a coming, the devil (daimonion, G1140) threw (rhēgnumi, G4486) him down, and tare (susparassō, G4952) him. And Jesus rebuked (epitmaō, G2008) the unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit, and healed (iaomai, G2390) the child (pais, G3816), and delivered (apodidōmi, G591) him again to his father."

"After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!' And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.' I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town. "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you. And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades. "The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." Then turning to the disciples he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it."

Therefore said he unto them, The harvest (therismos, G2326) truly is great, but the labourers (ergatēs, G2040) are few: pray ye (deomai, G1189) therefore the Lord (kurios, G2962) of the harvest (therismos, G2326), that he would send forth (ekballō, G1544) labourers (ergatēs, G2040) into his harvest. Go your ways (hupagō, G5217): behold, I send you forth (apostellō, G649) as lambs among wolves (lukos, G3074). Carry neither purse (balantion, G905), nor scrip (pēra, G4082), nor shoes (hupodēma, G5266): and salute (aspazomai, G782) no man by the way (hodos, G3598). And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say (legō, G3004), Peace (eirēnē, G1515) be to this house (oikos, G3624). And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon (epanapauomai, G1879) it: if not, it shall turn to (anakamptō, G344) you again. And in the same house remain (menō, G3306), eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer (ergatēs, G2040) is worthy (axios, G514) of his hire (misthos, G3408). Go not from (metabainō, G3327) house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive (dechomai, G1209) you, eat such things as are set before (paratithēmi, G3908) you: and heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (asthenēs, G772) that are therein, and say (legō, G3004) unto them, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto you. But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure (ginōskō, G1097) of this, that the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto you. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom (Sodoma, G4670), than for that city. Woe (ouai, G3759) unto thee, Chorazin (Chorazin, G5523)! woe unto thee, Bethsaida (Bēthsaida, G966)! for if the mighty works (dunamis, G1411) had been done (ginomai, G1096) in Tyre (Turos, G5184) and Sidon (Sidōn, G4605), which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented (metanoēō, G3340), sitting in (kathēmai, G2521) sackcloth (sakkos, G4526) and ashes (spodos, G4700). But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment (krisis, G2920), than for you. And thou, Capernaum (Kapernaoum, G2584), which art exalted (hupsoō, G5312) to heaven (ouranos, G3772), shalt be thrust down to hell (hadēs, G86). He that heareth (akouō, G191) you heareth me; and he that despiseth (atheteō, G114) you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent (apostellō, G649) me. And the seventy returned again with joy (chara, G5479), saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), even the devils (daimonion, G1140) are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto us through thy name (onoma, G3686). And he said unto them, I beheld (theōreō, G2334) Satan (Satanas, G4567) as lightning (astrapē, G796) fall (piptō, G4098) from heaven. Behold, I give (didōmi, G1325) unto you power (exousia, G1849) to tread (pateō, G3961) on serpents (ophis, G3789) and scorpions (skorprios, G4651), and over all the power (dunamis, G1411) of the enemy (echtros, G2190): and nothing shall by any means hurt (adikeō, G91) you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto you; but rather rejoice (chairō, G5463), because your names are written in heaven. In that hour Jesus rejoiced (agalliaō, G21) in spirit, and said, I thank (exomologeō, G1843) thee, O Father, Lord (kurios, G2962) of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise (sophos, G4680) and prudent (sunetos, G4908), and hast revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto babes (nēpios, G3516): even so, Father; for so it seemed (ginomai, G1096) good (eudokia, G2107) in thy sight. All things are delivered (apodidōmi, G3860) to me of my Father: and no man knoweth (ginōskō, G1097) who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal (apokaluptō, G601) him. And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed (markarios, G3107) are the eyes (ophthalmos, G3788) which see (blepō, G991) the things that ye see: for I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired (thelō, G2309) to see (eidō, G1492) those things which ye see, and have not seen (eidō, G1492) them; and to hear (akuō, G191) those things which ye hear, and have not heard them."

And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing... So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

And though I have (echō, G2192) the gift of prophecy (phophēteia, G4394), and understand (eidō, G1492) all mysteries (mustērion, G3466), and all knowledge (gnōsis, G1108); and though I have (echō, G2192) all faith (pistis, G4102), so that I could remove (methistēmi, G3179) mountains (oros, G3735), and have (echō, G2192) not charity (agapē, G26), I am nothing. And now (nuni, G3570) abideth (menō, G3306) faith (pistis, G4102), hope (elpis, G1680), charity (agapē, G26), these three; but the greatest (meizōn, G3187) of these is charity (agapē, G26)."

"For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began,"

For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit (pneuma, G4151) of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995). Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions (sugkakopatheō, G4777) of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) according to the power (dunamis, G1411) of God; who hath saved (sōzō, G4982) us, and called (kaleō, G2564) us with an holy (hagios, G40) calling (klēsis, G2821), not according to our works (ergon, G2041), but according to his own purpose (prothesis, G4286) and grace (charis, G5485), which was given (didōmi, G1325) us in Christ Jesus before the world began (chronos aiōnios, G5550+G166),"

2 Timothy 1:6-9 KJV

The Spirit of God confirms His word about the finished work of Christ to the extent that its fullness is preached, taught, and acted upon in faith.

"And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?" And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.9.14-29.ESV>

"And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude (ochlos, G3793) about them, and the scribes (grammateus, G1122) questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed (ekthambeō, G1568), and running to him saluted (aspazomai, G782) him. And he asked (eperōtaō, G1905) the scribes, What question (suzēteō, G4802) ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master (didaskalos, G1320), I have brought unto thee my son, which hath (echō, G2192) a dumb (alalos, G216) spirit; and wheresoever he taketh (katalambanō, G2638) him, he teareth (rhēgnumi, G4486) him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth (trizō, G5149), and pineth away (xērainō, G3583): and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (ischuō, G2480) not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit (pneuma, G4151) tare (sparassō, G4682) him; and he fell (piptō, G4098) on the ground, and wallowed (kulioō, G2947) foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto (ginomai, G1096) him? And he said, Of a child (paidiothen, G3812). And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy (apollumi, G622) him: but if thou canst (dunamai, G1410) do any thing, have compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697) on us, and help (boētheō, G997) us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst (dunamai, G1410) believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible (dunatos, G1415) to him that believeth. And straightway the father of the child cried out (krazō, G2896), and said with tears, Lord (kurios, G2962), I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help (boētheō, G997) thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the foul (akathartos, G169) spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb (alalos, G216) and deaf (kōphos, G2974) spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out (exerchomai, G1831) of him, and enter (eiserchomai, G1525) no more (mēketi, G3371) into him. And the spirit cried (krazō, G2896), and rent (sparassō, G4682) him sore (polus, G4183), and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took (krateō, G2902) him by the hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted (egeirō, G1453) him up; and he arose (anistēmi, G450). And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked (eperōtaō, G1905) him privately, Why could (dunamai, G1410) not we cast (ekballō, G1544) him out? And he said unto them, This kind (genos, G1085) can come forth by nothing, but by prayer (proseuchē, G4335) and fasting."

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.9.14-29.KJV>

"Now many signs and wonders were regularly done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. None of the rest dared join them, but the people held them in high esteem. And more than ever believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, so that they even carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed. But the high priest rose up, and all who were with him (that is, the party of the Sadducees), and filled with jealousy they arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison. But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, "Go and stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life." And when they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and began to teach. Now when the high priest came, and those who were with him, they called together the council, all the senate of the people of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported, "We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them we found no one inside." Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to. And someone came and told them, "Look! The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but not by force, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, saying, "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him." ...Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name. And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching that the Christ is Jesus."

Acts 5:12-32, 41-42 ESV

"And by the hands (cheir, G5415) of the apostles (apostolos, G652) were many signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5052) wrought (ginomai, G1096) among the people; (and they were all with one accord (homothumadon, G3661) in Solomon's porch. And of the rest durst (tolmaō, G5111) no man join (kollaō, G2853) himself to them: but the people magnified (megalunō, G3170) them. And believers were the more added (prostithēmi, G4369) to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.) Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick (asthēnes, G772) into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick (asthēnes, G772) folks, and them which were vexed (ochlēō, G3791) with unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits: and they were healed (therapeuō, G2323) every one. Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation (zēlos, G2205), and laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth (exagō, G1806), and said, Go (poreuomai, G4198), stand (histēmi, G2476) and speak in the temple to the people all the words (rhēma, G4487) of this life (zōē, G2222). And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council (sunedrion, G4892) together, and all the senate (gerousia, G1087) of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow. Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend (boulomai, G1014) to bring this man's blood upon us. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey (peitharcheō, G3980) God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted (hupsoō, G5312) with his right hand to be a Prince (archēgos, G747) and a Saviour (sōtēr, G4990), for to give repentance (metanoia, G3341) to Israel, and forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins. And we are his witnesses (martus, G3144) of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given (didōmi, G1325) to them that obey (peitharcheō, G3980) him... And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing (chairō, G5463) that they were counted worthy (kataxioō, G2661) to suffer shame (atimazō, G818) for his name (onoma, G3686). And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach (euaggelizō, G2097) Jesus Christ."

"As ye have therefore received (paralambanō, G3880) Christ Jesus the Lord (kurios, G2962), so walk (paripateō, G4043) ye in him: ...For in him dwelleth (katoikeō, G2730) all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of the Godhead bodily (sōmatikōs, G4985). And ye are complete (plēroō, G4137) in him, which is the head (kephalē, G2776) of all principality (archē, G746) and power (exousia, G1849): in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision (peritemnō, G4059) made without hands (archieropoiētos, G886), in putting off (apekdusis, G555) the body of the sins of the flesh (sarx, G4561) by the circumcision of Christ: buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900);"

Prayer: Thank You, Jesus for Your finished work for me. Thank You for Your resurrection life that fills me and flows through me, Spirit of God. I praise You that all things are possible for You, Almighty God,

"But Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.""

Matthew 19:26 ESV

Thank You for your Spirit of power, love, and a sound mind.

"for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control."

2 Timothy 1:7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.1.7.ESV>

For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit (pneuma, G4151) of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995)."

2 Timothy 1:7 KJV

I will not fear. Instead, God, I follow Christ in triumphal procession until everything not of You is put under His feet.

"But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing,"

2 Corinthians 2:14-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.2.14-15.ESV>

Now thanks (charis, G5485) be unto God, which always (pantote, G3842) causeth us to triumph (thriambeuō, G2358) in Christ, and maketh manifest (phaneroō, G5319) the savour of his knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by us in every place (topos, G5117). For we are unto God a sweet savour (euōdia, G2175) of Christ, in them that are saved (sōzō, G4982), and in them that perish (apollumi, G622):"

Return to Day 26

Day 27: Strength (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How do you seek renewal day by day?
2. Who is it that has been anointed with God's Spirit?
3. How during His earthly ministry was Jesus strengthened to do so much good?
4. How are we to receive strength enough to do all of God's will?
5. How does it add further strength to minister with other followers of Christ?

"So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day."

2 Corinthians 4:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.16.ESV>

'For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.'

2 Corinthians 4:5-18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.4.5-18>

'For we preach (kērussō, G2784) not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants (doulos, G1401) for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light (phōs, G5457) to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts (kardia, G2588), to give the light (phōtismos, G5462) of the knowledge of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have (echō, G2192) this treasure in earthen (ostrakinos, G3749) vessels, that the excellency of the power (dunamis, G1411) may be of God, and not of us. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair (exaporeomai, G1820); persecuted

(diōkō, G1377), but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed (apollumi, G622); always bearing about (peripherō, G4064) in the body the dying (nekrōsis, G3500) of the Lord Jesus, that the life (zōē, G2222) also of Jesus might be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) in our body. For we which live (zaō, G2198) are alway delivered (paradidōmi, G3860) unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life (zōē, G2222) also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal (thnētos, G2349) flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life (zōē, G2222) in you. We having (echō, G2192) the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant (pleonazō, G4121) grace (charis, G5485) might through the thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) of many redound (perisseuō, G4052) to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward (exō, G1854) man perish (diaphthēiro, G1311), yet the inward man is renewed (anakainōō, G341) day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.'

2 Corinthians 4:5-18 KJV

How do you seek renewal day by day?

In the Old Testament, those that were known to draw strength from the Spirit of God that was with them include Moses, Joshua, Caleb and David.

"Then the Lord said to Moses, "Gather for me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them, and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you. And I will come down and talk with you there. And I will take some of the Spirit that is on you and put it on them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you may not bear it yourself alone."

Numbers 11:16-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/num.11.16-17.ESV>

"And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders (zâqên, H2205) of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers (shôtêr, H7860) over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle ('ôhel, H168) of the congregation (mô'êd, H4150), that they may stand there with thee. And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take ('ôtsal, H680) of the spirit (rûach, H7307) which is upon thee, and will put (śûm, H7760) it upon them; and they shall bear (nâśâ', H5375) the burden (maśśâ', H4853) of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone."

Numbers 11:16-17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/num.11.16-17.KJV>

"But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord, none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the test these ten times and have not obeyed my voice, shall see the land that I swore to give to their fathers. And none of those who despised me shall see it. But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/num.14.21-24.ESV>

"but as truly as I live (chay, H2416), all the earth shall be filled (mâlê', H4390) with the glory (kâbôd, H3519) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068). Because all those men which have seen my glory (kâbôd, H3519), and my miracles ('ôth, H226), which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted (nâsâh, H5254) me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; surely they shall not see the land which I swore (shâba', H7650) unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it: but my servant ('ebed, H5650) Caleb, because he had another spirit (rûach, H7307) with him, and hath followed me fully (mâlê', H4390), him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed (zera', H2233) shall possess it."

<https://bible.com/bible/1/num.14.21-24.KJV>

"So the Lord said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him. Make him stand before Eleazar the priest and all the congregation, and you shall commission him in their sight. You shall invest him with some of your authority, that all the congregation of the people of Israel may obey."

Numbers 27:18-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/num.27.18-20.ESV>

"And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua (yehôshûa', H3091) the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit (rûach, H7307), and lay thine hand (yâd, H3027) upon him; and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight. And thou shalt put (nâthan, H5414) some of thine honour (hôd, H1935) upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient (shâma', H8085)."

Numbers 27:18-20 KJV

"Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of the Lord rushed upon David from that day forward. And Samuel rose up and went to Ramah."

1 Samuel 16:13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1sa.16.13.ESV>

"Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed (mâshach, H4886) him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit (rûach, H7307) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) came upon (tsâlach, H6743) David (dâvid, H1732) from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah."

1 Samuel 16:13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1sa.16.13.KJV>

'Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to the Lord , saying, "I will sing to the Lord , for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him. The Lord is a man of war; the Lord is his name. "Pharaoh's chariots and his host he cast into the sea, and his chosen officers were sunk in the Red Sea. The floods covered them; they went down into the depths like a stone. Your right hand, O Lord , glorious in power, your right hand, O Lord , shatters the enemy. In the greatness of your majesty you overthrow your adversaries; you send out your fury; it consumes them like stubble. At the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up; the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea. The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil, my desire shall have its fill of them. I will draw my sword; my hand shall destroy them.' You blew with your wind; the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters. "Who is like you, O Lord , among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders? You stretched out your right hand; the earth swallowed them. "You have led in your steadfast love the people whom you have redeemed; you have guided them by your strength to your holy abode. '

Exodus 15:1-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EXO.15.1-13>

'Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD , and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed (gâ'âh, H1342) gloriously: The horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength ('ôz, H5797) and song (zimirâh, H2176), and he is become my salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444): He is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation (nâvâh, H5115); My father's God, and I will exalt him. The LORD is a man of war: The LORD is his name (shêm, H8034). Pharaoh's chariots and his host (chayil, H2428) hath he cast into the sea: His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea. The depths have covered them: They sank into the bottom as a stone. Thy right hand (yâmîym, H3225), O LORD, is become glorious ('âdar, H142) in power (kôach, H3581): Thy right hand, O LORD , hath dashed in pieces the enemy. And in the greatness (rôb, H7230) of thine excellency (gâ'ôn, H1347) thou hast overthrown (hâras, H2040) them that rose up against thee: Thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble. And with the blast (rûach, H7307) of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, The floods stood upright as an heap, And the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; My lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. Thou didst blow with thy wind (rûach, H7307), the sea covered them:

They sank as lead in the mighty waters. Who is like unto thee, O LORD , among the gods? Who is like thee, glorious ('âdar, H142) in holiness (qôdesh, H6944), fearful (yârê', H3372) in praises (tehillâh, H8416), doing ('âsâh, H6213) wonders (pele', H6382)? Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. Thou in thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617) hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed (gâ'al, H1350): thou hast guided them in thy strength ('ôz, H5797) unto thy holy (qôdesh, H6944) habitation (nâveh, H5116). Exodus 15:1-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EXO.15.1-13>

Now the Spirit of God has been poured out on all flesh, sons and daughters, thanks to the finished work of Jesus,

' "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit. "And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and awesome day of the Lord comes. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls. '

Joel 2:28-32 ESV

'And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out (shâphak, H8210) my spirit (rûach, H7307) upon all flesh; and your sons (bên, H1121) and your daughters (bath, H1323) shall prophesy (nâbâ', H5012), your old men shall dream dreams (chalôm, H2472), your young men shall see visions (chizzâyôn, H2384): and also upon the servants ('ebed, H5650) and upon the handmaids (shiphchâh, H8198) in those days will I pour out (shâphak, H8210) my spirit (rûach, H7307). And I will shew wonders (môphêth, H4159) in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible (yârê', H3372) day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on (qârâ', H7121) the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD shall be delivered (mâlat, H4422): for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance (pelêytâh, H6413), as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant (šârîyd, H8300) whom the LORD shall call (qârâ', H7121). '

Joel 2:28-32 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JOL.2.28-32>

'When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. And they were amazed and astonished, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them: "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. For these people are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel: "And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.'" Acts 2:1-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.2.1-21>

'And when the day of Pentecost (pentēkostē, G4005) was fully come (sumplēroō, G4845), they were all with one accord (homothumadon, G3661) in one place. And suddenly there came a sound (ēchos, G2279) from heaven as of a rushing (pherō, G5342) mighty (biaios, G972) wind (pnoē, G4157), and it filled (plēroō, G4137) all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven (diamerizō, G1266) tongues (glōssa, G1100) like as of fire, and it sat upon (kathizō, G2523) each of them. And they were all filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151), and began to speak with other (heteros, G2087) tongues (glōssa, G1100), as the Spirit gave them utterance (apophteggomai, G669). And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout (eulabēs, G2126) men, out of every nation (ethnos, G1484) under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad (phōnē, G5456), the multitude came together, and were confounded (sugcheō, G4797), because that every man heard them speak in his own language (dialektos, G1258). And they were all amazed (existēmi, G1839) and marvelled (thaumazō, G2296), saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes (prosēlutos, G4339), Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues (glōssa, G1100) the wonderful works (megaleios, G3167) of God. And they were all amazed, and were in doubt (diaporeō, G1280), saying one to another, What meaneth (thelō, G2309) this? Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine (gleukos, G1098). But Peter (Petros, G4074), standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice (phōnē, G5456), and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words (rhēma, G4487): For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel (Iōēl, G2493); And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out (ekcheō, G1632) of my Spirit (pneuma, G4151) upon all flesh: And your sons (uihos, G5207) and your daughters (thugatēr, G2364) shall prophesy (prophēteuō, G4395), and your young men (neaniskos, G3495) shall see visions (horasis, G3706), and your old men (presbuteros, G4245) shall dream (enupniazomai, G1797) dreams: and on my servants (doulos, G1401) and on my handmaidens (doulē, G1399) I will pour out (ekcheō, G1632) in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: And I will shew wonders (teras, G5059) in heaven above, and signs (sēmeion, G4592) in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: the sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before that great (megas, G3173) and notable (epiphanēs, G2016) Day of the Lord (kurios, G2962) come: And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on (epikaleomai, G1941) the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord shall be saved (sōzō, G4982). "And there shall come forth a rod (chôtêr, H2415) out of the stem (geza', H1503) of Jesse, and a Branch (nêtser, H5342) shall grow (pârâh, H6509) out of his roots: and the Spirit (rûach, H7307) of the LORD shall rest (nûach, H5117) upon him, the spirit of wisdom (chokmâh, H2451) and understanding (bîynâh, H998), the spirit of counsel ('êtsâh, H6098) and might (gebûrâh, H1369), the spirit of knowledge (da'ath, H1847) and of the fear (yir'âh, H3374) of the LORD;'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ISA.11.1-2>

'Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength. Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted; but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.'

Isaiah 40:28-31 ESV

Resting in the finished work of Jesus, we are to be about doing all of God's will as Jesus was. This work is not the basis of our salvation— salvation is by faith;

"For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God,"

Ephesians 2:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.8.ESV>

"For by grace (charis, G5485) are ye saved (sōzō, G4982) through faith (pistis, G4102); and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (dōron, G1435) of God:"

Ephesians 2:8 KJV

but our salvation is just the beginning of our life in Christ.

"According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward."

1 Corinthians 3:10-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.3.10-14.ESV>

"According to the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation (themelios, G2310) can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be made manifest (phaneros, G5318): for the day (hēmera, G2250) shall declare it, because it shall be revealed (apokaluptō, G601) by fire; and the fire shall try (dokimazō, G1381) every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide (menō, G3306) which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) a reward (misthos, G3408)."

"But seek (zēteō, G2212) ye first (prōton, G4412) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and his righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and all these things shall be added unto you."

Matthew 6:33 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.6.33.KJV>

'So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.' "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it." And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.'

Matthew 7:17-29 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.7.17-29>

Ye shall know (epiginōskō, G1921) them by their fruits (karpos, G2590). Do men gather grapes of thorns (akantha, G173), or figs of thistles (tribolos, G5146)? Even so every good (agathos, G18) tree bringeth forth (poieō, G4160) good (kalos, G2570) fruit; but a corrupt (saprois, G4550) tree bringeth forth evil (ponēros, G4190) fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down (ekkoptō, G1581), and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know (epiginōskō, G1921) them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, shall enter into (eiserchomai, G1525) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven; but he that doeth (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of my Father (patēr, G3962) which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied (prophēteuō, G4395) in thy name (onoma, G3686)? and in thy name have cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140)? and in thy name done (poieō, G4160) many wonderful works (dunamis, G1411)? And then will I profess (homologeō, G3670) unto them, I never knew (ginōskō, G1097) you: depart from me, ye that work (ergazomai, G2038) iniquity (anomia, G458). Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings (logos, G3056) of mine, and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will liken him unto a wise (phronimos, G5429) man, which built (oikodomeō, G3618) his house (oikia, G3614) upon a rock (petra, G4073): and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded (themelioō, G2311) upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish (mōros, G3474) man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell (piptō, G4098): and great was the fall of it. And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: For he taught them as one having (echō, G2192) authority (exousia, G1849), and not as the scribes.'

He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh (zēteō, G2212) his glory (doxa, G1391) that sent (pempō, G3992) him, the same is true (alēthēs, G227), and no unrighteousness (adikia, G93) is in him.'

But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves... But whoso looketh into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law (nomos, G3551) of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3107) in his deed (poiēses, G4162)."

James 1:22, 25 KJV

'And all the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate. And they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses that the Lord had commanded Israel. So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could understand what they heard, on the first day of the seventh month. And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law... And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground... And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept as they heard the words of the Law. Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready, for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength." ' and with His life comes strength to do the work, to stand firm, and to persevere.

"And when David and his men came to the city, they found it burned with fire, and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive. Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept until they had no more strength to weep. David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel. And David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because all the people were bitter in soul, each for his sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in the Lord his God."

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak. Finally, my brethren, be strong (endunamoō, G1743) in the Lord (kurios, G2962), and in the power (kratos, G2904) of his might (ischus, G2479). Put on (enduō, G1746) the whole armour (panoplia, G3833) of God, that ye may be able (dunamai, G1410) to stand (histēmi, G2476) against the wiles (methodeia, G3180) of the devil (diabolos, G1228). For we wrestle (palē, G3823) not against flesh and blood, but against principalities (archē, G746), against powers (exousia, G1849), against the rulers (kosmokratōr, G2888) of the darkness (skotos, G4655) of this world (aiōn, G165), against spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) wickedness (ponēria, G4189) in high places (epouranios, G2032). Wherefore take unto (analambanō, G353) you the whole armour (panoplia, G3822) of God, that ye may be able (dunamai, G1410) to withstand (anthistēmi, G436) in the evil (ponēros, G4190) day, and having done (katergazomai, G2716) all (hapas, G537), to stand (histēmi, G2476). Stand (histēmi, G2476) therefore, having your loins girt about (perizōnnumi, G4024) with truth (alētheia, G225), and having on (enduō, G1746) the breastplate (thōrax, G2382) of righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and your feet shod (hupodeō, G5265) with the preparation (hetoimasia, G2091) of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of peace (eirēnē, G1515); above all, taking (analambanō, G353) the shield (thureos, G2375) of faith (pistis, G4102), wherewith ye shall be able (dunamai, G1410) to quench (sbennumi, G4570) all the fiery (puroō, G4448) darts (belos, G956) of the wicked (ponēros, G4190). And take (dechomai, G1209) the helmet (perikephalaia, G4030) of salvation (sōtērion, G4992), and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word (rhēma, G4487) of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication (deēsis, G1162) in the Spirit, and watching (agrupneō, G69) thereunto with all perseverance (proskarterēsis, G4343) and supplication for all saints (hagios, G40); and for me, that utterance (logos, G3056) may be given (didōmi, G1325) unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly (parrhēsia, G3954), to make known the mystery (mustērion, G3466) of the gospel (euggelion, G2098), for which I am an ambassador (presbeuō, G4243) in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly (parrhēsiazomai, G3955), as I ought (dei, G1163) to speak. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. Be sober (nēphō, G3525), be vigilant (grēgoreuō, G1127); because your adversary (antidikos, G476) the devil (diabolos, G1228), as a roaring (ōruomai, G5612) lion, walketh about (peripateō, G4043), seeking (zēteō, G2212) whom he may devour (katapinō, G2666): whom resist (anthistēmi, G436) stedfast (stereos, G4731) in the faith (pistis, G4102), knowing that the same afflictions (pathēma, G3804) are accomplished in your brethren (adelphotēs, G81) that are in the world (kosmos, G2889). But the God of all grace (charis, G5485), who hath called (kaleō, G2564) us unto his eternal (aiōnios, G166) glory (doxa, G1391) by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered (paschō, G3958) a while (oligos, G3641), make you perfect (katartizō, G2675), stablish (stērizō, G4741), strengthen (sthenōō, G4599), settle (themelioō, G2311) you. Jesus also drew strength from the Spirit of God to continue to preach, teach, and heal multitudes of people.

"And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a desolate place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they ran there on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And he began to teach them many things. And when it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is now late. And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion (splagchnizomai, G4697) toward them, because they were as sheep not having (echō, G2192) a shepherd (poimēn, G4166): and he began to teach them many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed: send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. Mark 6:31-36 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.6.31-36.KJV>

It would have been exhausting in His own strength, but He was strengthened by the Holy Spirit, experiencing victory after victory.

"And he said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath." On another Sabbath, he entered the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find a reason to accuse him. But he knew their thoughts, and he said to the man with the withered hand, "Come and stand here." And he rose and stood there. And Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it?" And after looking around at them all he said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored. But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus. In these days he went out to the mountain to pray, and all night he continued in prayer to God... And he came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. And those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came out from him and healed them all."

Luke 6:5-12, 17-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.6.5-19.ESV>

'And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered (xēros, G3584). And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal (therapeuō, G2323) on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. But he knew their thoughts (dialogismos, G1261), and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth (histēmi, G2476) in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful (exesti, G1832) on the sabbath days to do good (agathopoieō, G15), or to do evil (kakopoieō, G2554)? to save (sōzō, G4982) life (psuchē, G5590), or to destroy (apollumi, G622) it? And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth (ekteinō, G1614) thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored (apokathistēmi, G600) whole (hugiēs, G5199) as the other. And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus. And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night (dianuktereūō, G1273) in prayer to God... And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed (iaomai, G2390) of their diseases (nosos, G3554); and they that were vexed (ochleō, G3791) with unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits: and they were healed (therapeuō, G2323). And the whole multitude sought to touch (haptomai, G680) him: for there went (exerchomai, G1831) virtue (dunamis, G1411) out of (para, G3844) him, and healed (iaomai, G2390) them all.'

"And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.22.41-43.ESV>

"And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing (boulomai, G1014), remove (parapherō, G3911) this cup (potērion, G4221) from me: nevertheless (plēn, G4133) not my will (thelēma, G2307), but thine, be done (ginomai, G1096). And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening (enischuō, G1765) him."

Luke 22:41-43 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.22.41-43.KJV>

Jesus' strength was His connection to our Father: "I am in the Father and the Father is in me" (John 14:11).

' Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father.'

John 14:8-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.14.8-12>

'Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth (arkeō, G714) us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known (ginōskō, G1097) me, Philip? he that hath seen (horaō, G3708) me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew (deiknuō, G1166) us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words (rhēma, G4487) that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth (menō, G3306) in me, he doeth (poieō, G4160) the works (ergon, G2041). Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' (ergon, G2041) sake. Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say (legō, G3004) unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.'

John 14:8-12 KJV

In Christ Jesus, we can carry on His ministry as the church, doing all things through Him who strengthens us.

'I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me. '

Philippians 4:10-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.4.10-13>

'But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content (autarkēs, G842). I know both how to be abased (tapeinoō, G5013), and I know how to abound (perisseuō, G4052): every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full (chortazō, G5526) and to be hungry (peinaō, G3983), both to abound (perisseuō, G4052) and to suffer need (hustereō, G5302). I can do (ischuō, G2480) all things through Christ (Christos, G5547) which strengtheneth (endunamoō, G1743) me.'

Philippians 4:10-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PHP.4.10-13>

We are also strengthened when two or more of one mind and one purpose are gathered together for the work of God: to love, to give, and bless others.

'Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.' '

Matthew 18:18-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.18.18-20>

'Verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind (deō, G1210) on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose (luō, G3089) on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree (sumphōneō, G4856) on earth as touching (peri, G4012) any thing that they shall ask (aiteō, G154), it shall be done (ginomai, G1096) for them of my Father (patēr, G3962) which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together (sunagō, G4863) in my name (onoma, G3686), there am I (eimi, G1510) in the midst (mesos, G3319) of them.'

Matthew 18:18-20 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.18.18-20>

'Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up! Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone? And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken. '

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ECC.4.9-12>

'Two are better (tôb, H2896) than one; because they have a good (tôb, H2896) reward for their labour. For if they fall (nâphal, H5307), the one will lift up (qûm, H6965) his fellow (châbêr, H2270): but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. Again, if two lie together (shâkab, H7901), then they have heat (châmam, H2552): but how can one be warm alone? And if one prevail against (tâqaph, H8630) him, two shall withstand ('âmad, H5975) him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken (nâthaq, H5423). '

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ECC.4.9-12>

'And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. '

2 Corinthians 9:8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.9.8>

'And God is able (dunatos, G1415) to make all grace (charis, G5485) abound (perisseuō, G4052) toward you; that ye, always (pantote, G3842) having (echō, G2192) all sufficiency (autarkeia, G841) in all things, may abound (perisseuō, G4052) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041):'

2 Corinthians 9:8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.9.8>

'Finally, brothers, rejoice. Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. '

2 Corinthians 13:11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.13.11>

'Finally, brethren, farewell (chairō, G5463). Be perfect (katartizō, G2675), be of good comfort (parakaleō, G3870), be of one mind (phroneō, G5426), live in peace (eirēneuō, G1514); and the God of love (agapē, G26) and peace (eirēnē, G1515) shall be with (meta, G3326) you. '

2 Corinthians 13:11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.13.11>

'So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. '

Philippians 2:1-2 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PHP.2.1-2>

'If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426).'

Philippians 2:1-2 KJV

Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

'I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord , who made heaven and earth. He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.'

Psalms 121:1-3 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PSA.121.1-3>

'I will lift up mine eyes ('ayin, H5869) unto the hills, From whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), which made ('âsâh, H6213) heaven (shâmayim, H8064) and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved (môt, H4132): He that keepeth (shâmar, H8104) thee will not slumber. '

Psalms 121:1-3 KJV

Prayer: Jesus, I thank You that I am in You and You are in me.

'And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. "I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you."

John 14:16-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.14.16-20>

And I will pray (erōtaō, G2065) the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth (alētheia, G225); whom the world cannot receive (lambanō, G2983), because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know (ginōskō, G1097) him; for he dwelleth (menō, G3306) with (para, G3844) you, and shall be in (en, G1722) you. I will not leave you comfortless (orphanos, G3737): I will come to (erchomai, G2064) you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see (theōreō, G2334) me: because I live (zaō, G2198), ye shall live (zaō, G2198) also. At that day ye shall know (ginōskō, G1097) that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you."

I choose to abide in You for life.

"Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us."

1 John 3:24 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.3.24>

"And he that keepeth (tēreō, G5083) his commandments dwelleth (menō, G3306) in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

1 John 3:24 KJV

Spirit of God, lead me.

"For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"

Romans 8:14-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.14-15>

"For as many as are led (agō, G71) by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received (lambanō, G2983) the spirit of bondage (douleia, G1397) again to fear (phobos, G5401); but ye have received (lambanō, G2983) the Spirit of adoption (uihothesia, G5206), whereby we cry (krazō, G2896), Abba (Abba, G5), Father."

Romans 8:14-15 KJV

I take in ideas and plans from You to do Your will.

'So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel.'

John 5:19-20 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.5.19-20>

'Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, The Son can do (poieō, G4160) nothing of himself, but what he seeth (blepō, G991) the Father do (poieō, G4160): for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise (homoiōs, G3668). For the Father loveth (phileō, G5368) the Son, and sheweth (deiknuō, G1166) him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these, that ye may marvel.'

John 5:19-20 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.5.19-20>

I breathe in strength from You.

'The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? ...One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in his temple. For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock. And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the Lord. Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud; be gracious to me and answer me! You have said, "Seek my face." My heart says to you, "Your face, Lord, do I seek." ...I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living! Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!'

Psalms 27:1,4-8,13-14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/PSA.27.1,4-8,13-14>

'The LORD is my light ('ôr, H216) and my salvation (yesha', H3468); whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength (mā'ôz, H4581) of my life (chay, H2416); of whom shall I be afraid? ...One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after (bâqash, H1245); That I may dwell (yâshab, H3427) in the house (bayith, H1004) of the LORD all the days of my life (chay, H2416), to behold the beauty (nô'am, H5278) of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple (hêykâl, H1964). For in the time of trouble (ra', H7451) he shall hide (tsâphan, H6845) me in his pavilion (sôk, H5520): In the secret

(sêther, H5643) of his tabernacle ('ôhel, H168) shall he hide (sâthar, H5641) me; he shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up, Above mine enemies round about me: Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy (terû'âh, H8643); I will sing, yea, I will sing praises (zâmar, H2167) unto the LORD. Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: Have mercy (chânân, H2603) also upon me, and answer me. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart (lêb, H3820) said unto thee, Thy face (pânîym, H6440), LORD, will I seek (bâqash, H1245)... I had fainted, Unless I had believed to see the goodness (tûb, H2898) of the LORD in the land of the living (chay, H2416). Wait (qâvâh, H6960) on the LORD: Be of good courage (châzaq, H2388), and he shall strengthen ('âmats, H553) thine heart (lêb, H3820): wait, I say, on the LORD.'

Return to Day 27

Day 28: Courage (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What is it that you fear?
2. Do you desire to please certain people over pleasing God?
3. Do you have boldness to publicly confess Jesus as Lord and to openly preach the gospel?
4. How will God come alongside you when you decide to speak on behalf of Jesus Christ?
5. How is stepping out in faith part of God's plan to grow us up to be like Christ?

"The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion."

Proverbs 28:1 ESV

What is it that you fear?

Many of the Jewish rulers in Jesus' time believed in him, but they would not confess it for fear of excommunication from Jewish life.

'So Jesus said to them, "The light is among you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them. Though he had done so many signs before them, they still did not believe in him, so that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "Lord, who has believed what he heard from us, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" Therefore they could not believe. For again Isaiah said, "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn, and I would heal them." Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke of him. Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the glory that comes from man more than the glory that comes from God.'

John 12:35-43 ESV

'Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light (phōs, G5457) with you. Walk (peripateō, G4043) while ye have (echō, G2192) the light (phōs, G5457), lest darkness (skotia, G4653) come upon (katalambanō, G2638) you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children (uihos, G5207) of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them. But though he had done (poieō, G4160) so many miracles (sēmeion, G4592) before them, yet they believed not on him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled (plēroō, G4137), which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report (akoē, G189)? And to whom hath the arm (brachiōn, G1023) of the Lord been revealed (apokaluptō, G601)? Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, He hath blinded (tuphloō, G5186) their eyes (ophthalmos, G3788), and hardened (pōroō, G4456) their heart (kardia, G2588); That they should not see with their eyes, nor understand (noieō, G3539) with their heart, and be converted (epistrēphō, G1994), and I should heal (iaomai, G2390) them. These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory (doxa, G1391), and spake of him. Nevertheless among the chief rulers (archōn, G758) also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess (homologeō, G3670) him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue (aposunagōgos, G656): for they loved (agapaō, G25) the praise (doxa, G1391) of men more than the praise (doxa, G1391) of God. '

John 12:35-43 KJV

Jesus' disciples feared for their lives and feared other men until they were changed by the Spirit of God living in them.

' And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. And Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' ...And they all left him and fled... And as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came, and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus." But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you mean." And he went out into the gateway and the rooster crowed. And the servant girl saw him and began again to say to the bystanders, "This man is one of them." But again he denied it. And after a little while the bystanders again said to Peter, "Certainly you are one of them, for you are a Galilean." But he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know this man of whom you speak." And immediately the rooster crowed a second time. And Peter remembered how Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." And he broke down and wept.'

Mark 14:26-27,50,66-72 ESV

'And when they had sung an hymn (humneō, G5214), they went out into the mount of Olives. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended (skandalizō, G4624) because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite (patassō, G3960) the shepherd (poimēn, G4166), and the sheep shall be scattered... And they all forsook (aphiēmi, G863) him, and fled... And as Peter was beneath in the palace (aulē, G833), there cometh one of the maids (paidiskē, G3814) of the high priest (archiereus, G749): and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch (proaulion, G4259); and the cock crew. And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse (anathematizō, G332) and to swear (omnuō, G3660), saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word (rhēma, G4487) that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny (apareomai, G533) me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.'

'On the next day their rulers and elders and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus... And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness, while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus." And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.'

Acts 4:5-13,29-33 ESV

'And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power (dunamis, G1411), or by what name (onoma, G3686), have ye done (poieō, G4160) this? Then Peter, filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, if we this day be examined of the good deed (euergesia, G2108) done to the impotent (asthenēs, G772) man, by what means he is made whole (sōzō, G4982); be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole (hugiēs, G5199). This is the stone which was set at nought (exoutheneō, G1848) of you builders, which is become (ginomai, G1096) the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation (sōtēria, G4991) in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved (sōzō, G4982). Now when they saw the boldness (theōreō, G2334) of Peter and John (Iōannēs, G2491), and perceived (katalambanō, G2638) that they were unlearned (agrammatos, G62) and ignorant (idiōtēs, G2399) men, they marvelled (thumazō, G2296); and they took knowledge (epignōskō, G1921) of them, that they had been with Jesus... And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto (didōmi, G1325) thy servants (doulos, G1401), that with all boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) they may speak thy word (logos, G3056), by stretching forth (ekteinō, G1614) thine hand (cheir, G5495) to heal (iasis, G2392); and that signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059) may be done (ginomai, G1096) by the name (onoma, G3686) of thy holy child Jesus. And when they had prayed (deomai, G1189), the place was shaken (saleuō, G4531) where they were assembled together; and they were all filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word (logos, G3056) of God with boldness (parrhēsia, G3954). And the multitude (plēthos, G4128) of them that believed were of one heart (kardia, G2588) and of one soul (psuchē, G5590): neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed (huparchonta, G5224) was his own; but they had all things common (koinos, G2839). And with great power (dunamis, G1411) gave (apodidōmi, G591) the apostles (apostolos, G652) witness (marturion, G3142) of the resurrection of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus: and great grace (charis, G5485) was upon them all'

In the Spirit, they were empowered to live boldly in obedience to Jesus' command to them: "What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." (Matthew 10:27)

' "Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next, for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes. "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household. "So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. '

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.10.16-39>

' Behold, I send you forth (apostellō, G649) as sheep in the midst of wolves (lukos, G3074): be ye therefore wise (phronimos, G5429) as serpents (ophis, G3789), and harmless (akeraios, G185) as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver (paradidōmi, G3860) you up to the councils (sunedrion, G4892), and they will scourge you in their synagogues (synagōgē, G4864); and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, take no thought (merimnaō, G3309) how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given (didōmi, G1325) you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated (miseō, G3404) of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth (hupomenō, G5278) to the end (telos, G5056) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982). But when they persecute (diōkō, G1377) you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be (ginomai, G1096) as his master (didaskalos, G1320), and the servant (doulos, G1401) as his lord (kurios, G2962). If they have called the master of the house (oikodespotēs, G3617) Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954), how much more shall they call them of his household (oikiakos, G3615)? Fear (phobeō, G5399) them not therefore: for there is nothing covered (kaluptō, G2572), that shall not be revealed (apokaluptō, G601); and hid (kruptos, G2927), that shall not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light (phōs, G5457): and what ye hear in the ear (ous, G3775), that preach (kērussō, G2784) ye upon the housetops (dōma, G1430). And fear (phobeō, G5399) not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul (psuchē, G5590): but rather fear him which is able (dunamai, G1410) to destroy both soul and body in hell (geenna, G1067). Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing (assarion, G787)? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Whosoever therefore shall confess (homologeō, G3670) me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny (arneomai, G720) me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to send (ballō, G906) peace (eirēnē, G1515) on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword (machaira, G3162). For I am come to set a man at variance (dichazō, G1369) against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law (numphē, G3565) against her mother in law (penthera, G3994). And a man's foes (echthros, G2190) shall be they of his own household (oikiakos, G3615). He that loveth (phileō, G5368) father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that taketh (lambanō, G2983) not his cross (stauros, G4716), and followeth after (akoluotheō, G190) me, is not worthy of me. He that findeth his life (psuchē, G5590) shall lose (apollumi, G622) it: and he that loseth (apollumi, G622) his life (psuchē, G5590) for my sake shall find it. '

Matthew 10:16-39 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.10.16-39>

'But the high priest rose up, and all who were with him (that is, the party of the Sadducees), and filled with jealousy they arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison. But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, "Go and stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life." And when they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and began to teach. Now when the high priest came, and those who were with him, they called together the council, all the senate of the people of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported, "We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them we found no one inside." Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to. And someone came and told them, "Look! The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but not by force, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, saying, "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him." ...and when they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name. And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching that the Christ is Jesus.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ACT.5.17-32,40-42>

'Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation (zēlos, G2205), and laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth (exagō, G1806), and said, Go (poreuomai, G4198), stand (histēmi, G2476) and speak in the temple to the people all the words (rhēma, G4487) of this life (zōē, G2222). And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council (sunedrion, G4892) together, and all the senate (gerousia, G1087) of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow. Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend (boulomai, G1014) to bring this man's blood upon us. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey (peitharcheō, G3980) God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted (hupsoō, G5312) with his right hand to be a Prince (archēgos, G747) and a Saviour (sōtēr, G4990), for to give repentance (metanoia, G3341) to Israel, and forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins. And we are his witnesses (martus, G3144) of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given (didōmi, G1325) to them that obey (peitharcheō, G3980) him... And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing (chairō, G5463) that they were counted worthy (kataxioō, G2661) to suffer shame (atimazō, G818) for his name (onoma, G3686). And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach (euaggelizō, G2097) Jesus Christ.'

'The wicked flee when no man pursueth: But the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) are bold (bâtach, H982) as a lion.'

Proverbs 28:1 KJV

'But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God. And because of him you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, righteousness and sanctification and redemption, so that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."'

'but God hath chosen (eklegomai, G1586) the foolish (mōros, G3474) things of the world to confound (kataischunō, G2617) the wise (sophos, G4680); and God hath chosen the weak things (asthenēs, G772) of the world to confound the things which are mighty (ischuros, G2478); and base (agenēs, G36) things of the world, and things which are despised (exoutheneō, G1848), hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought (katargeō, G2673) things that are: that no flesh should glory (kauchaomai, G2744) in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto (ginomai, G1096) us wisdom (sophia, G4678), and righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343), and sanctification (hagiasmos, G38), and redemption (apolutrōsis, G629): that, according as it is written, He that glorieth (kauchaomai, G2744), let him glory in the Lord (kurios, G2962).'

1 Corinthians 1:27-31 KJV

'He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.'

2 Corinthians 5:5-21 ESV

'Now he that hath wrought (katergazomai, G2716) us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given (didōmi, G1325) unto us the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of the Spirit (pneuma, G4151). Therefore we are always (pantote, G3842) confident (tharrheō, G2292), knowing that, whilst we are at home (endēmeō, G1736) in the body (sōma, G4983), we are absent from (ekdēmeō, G1553) the Lord: (for we walk (peripateō, G4043) by faith (pistis, G4102), not by sight (eidos, G1491):) we are confident (tharrheō, G2292), I say, and willing (eudokeō, G2106) rather to be absent from (ekdēmeo, G1553) the body, and to be present with (endēmeō, G1736) the Lord. Wherefore we labour (philotimeomai, G5389), that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of (euarestos, G2101) him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat (bēma, G968) of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done (prassō, G4238), whether it be good (agathos, G18) or bad (kakos, G2556). Knowing therefore the terror (phobos, G5401) of the Lord, we persuade (peithō, G3982) men; but we are made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences (suneidēsis, G4893). For we commend (sunistaō, G4921) not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory (kauchēma, G2745) on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance (prosōpon, G4383), and not in heart (kardia, G2588). For whether we be beside ourselves (existēmi, G1839), it is to God: or whether we be sober (sōphroneō, G4993), it is for your cause. For the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547) constraineth (sunechō, G4912) us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead (apothnēskō, G599): and that he died for all, that they which live (zaō, G2198) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh (sarx, G4561): yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in (en, G1722) Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God. For he hath made him to be sin (hamartia, G266) for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made (ginomai, G1096) the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) of God in him.'

'Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5485) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit (pneuma, G4151) of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995).'

When it comes to stepping out in faith as an active part of the body of Christ, taking responsibility for those around us and the mission of God, day by day and week by week, we can take courage from the Spirit of God. We are not ashamed of the gospel.

' Now it happened that as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him. And he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" And they answered, "John the Baptist. But others say, Elijah, and others, that one of the prophets of old has risen." Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered, "The Christ of God." And he strictly charged and commanded them to tell this to no one, saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised." And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. '

Luke 9:18-26 ESV

'And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am? They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again. He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ (Christos, G5547) of God. And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing; saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny (aparneomai, G533) himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever will save (sōzō, G4982) his life (psuchē, G5590) shall lose (apollumi, G622) it: but whosoever will lose (apollumi, G622) his life for my sake, the same shall save (sōzō, G4982) it. For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose (apollumi, G622) himself, or be cast away (zēmioō, G2210)? For whosoever shall be ashamed (epaischunomai, G1870) of me and of my words (logos, G3056), of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory (doxa, G1391), and in his Father's, and of the holy angels. When it comes to speaking up, we take courage. We can take Christ as our example, who spoke up and spoke openly.

'The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret.'

John 18:19-20 ESV

'The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spake openly (parrhēsia, G3954) to the world (kosmos, G2889); I ever (pantote, G3842) taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort (sunerchomai, G4905); and in secret have I said nothing.'

When we start to speak, the indwelling Spirit of God will speak through us as ambassadors.

'When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.'

Matthew 10:19-20 ESV

'But when they deliver you up, take no thought (merimnaō, G3309) how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given (didōmi, G1325) you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.'

'Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops. "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows. "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.'"

'For there is nothing covered (sugkaluptō, G4780), that shall not be revealed (apokaluptō, G601); neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light (phōs, G5457); and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed (kērussō, G2784) upon the housetops (dōma, G1430). And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid (phobeō, G5399) of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed (apokteinō, G615) hath power (exousia, G1849) to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess (homologeō, G3670) me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: but he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth (blasphēmeō, G987) against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought (merimnaō, G3309) how or what thing ye shall answer (apologeomai, G626), or what ye shall say: for the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.'

Opposition is an opportunity to be built up in our faith.

'James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greetings. Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing... Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.'

'James, a servant (doulos, G1401) of God and of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad (diaspora, G1290), greeting (chairō, G5463). My brethren, count it all joy (chara, G5479) when ye fall into (periptō, G4045) divers (poikilos, G4164) temptations (peirasmos, G3986); knowing this, that the trying (dokimion, G1383) of your faith worketh (katargazomai, G2716) patience (hupomonē, G5281). But let patience have (echō, G2192) her perfect (teleios, G5046) work (ergon, G2041), that ye may be perfect (teleios, G5046) and entire (holoklēros, G3648), wanting nothing.... Blessed (makarios, G3107) is the man that endureth (hupomenō, G5278) temptation (peirasmos, G3986): for when he is tried (dokimos ginomai, G1384+G1096), he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) the crown (stephanos, G4735) of life (zōē, G2222), which the Lord hath promised (epaggellō, G1861) to them that love (agapaō, G25) him.'

With this courage, we don't fear what anyone thinks of us. Like David, we may even feel free to dance with all our might throughout the streets in worship for our love and joy in the Lord. Driven by his love for God, it did not bother David even when he was criticized for it by his spouse.

“And David danced before the Lord with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting and with the sound of the horn. As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord, and she despised him in her heart. And they brought in the ark of the Lord and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord. And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts and distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins to each one. Then all the people departed, each to his house. And David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, “How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants’ female servants, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!” And David said to Michal, “It was before the Lord, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the Lord—and I will celebrate before the Lord. I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in your eyes. But by the female servants of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor.””

2 Samuel 6:14-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2sa.6.14-22.ESV>

“And David (dâvid, H1732) danced (kârar, H3769) before (pânîym, H6440) the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) with all his might (’ôz, H5797); and David was girded (châgar, H2296) with a linen ephod (’êphôd, H6446). So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting (terû’âh, H8643), and with the sound (qôl, H6963) of the trumpet (shôphâr, H7782). And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal (mîykâl, H4324) Saul’s (shâ’ûl, H7586) daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping (pâzaz, H6339) and dancing (kârar, H3769) before (pânîym, H6440) the LORD; and she despised (bâzâh, H959) him in her heart (lêb, H3820). And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle (’ôhel, H168) that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed (bârak, H1288) the people in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD of hosts (tsâbâ’, H6635). And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine (’ashîyshâh, H809). So all the people departed every one to his house. Then David returned to bless (bârak, H1288) his household (bayith, H1004). And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered

(gâlâh, H1540) himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids ('âmâh, H519) of his servants ('ebed, H5650), as one of the vain fellows (rêyq, H7386) shamelessly uncovereth (gâlâh, H1540) himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint (tsâvâh, H6680) me ruler (nâgîyd, H5057) over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play (śâchaq, H7832) before the LORD. And I will yet be more vile (qâlâl, H7043) than thus, and will be base (shâphâl, H8217) in mine own sight ('ayin, H5869): and of the maidservants ('âmâh, H519) which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour (kâbad, H3513)."

In Christ, we take courage. We can take up faith as a shield, knowing that with it we can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one.

'Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil... In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one;'

Ephesians 6:10-11,16 ESV

'Finally, my brethren, be strong (endunamoō, G1743) in the Lord (kurios, G2962), and in the power (kratos, G2904) of his might (ischus, G2479). Put on (enduō, G1746) the whole armour (panoplia, G3833) of God, that ye may be able (dunamai, G1410) to stand (histēmi, G2476) against the wiles (methodeia, G3180) of the devil (diabolos, G1228)... above all, taking (analambanō, G353) the shield (thureos, G2375) of faith (pistis, G4102), wherewith ye shall be able (dunamai, G1410) to quench (sbennumi, G4570) all the fiery (puroō, G4448) darts (belos, G956) of the wicked (ponēros, G4190).'

In Christ, God is with us and for us, so nothing can stand against us.

'What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.'

'What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give (charizomai, G5483) us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect (eklektos, G1588)? It is God that justifieth (dikaioō, G1344). Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God, who also maketh intercession (entugchanō, G1793) for us. Who shall separate (chōrizō, G5563) us from the love (agapē, G26) of Christ? shall tribulation (thilpsis, G2347), or distress (stenochōria, G4730), or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed (thanatoō, G2289) all the day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors (hupernikaō, G5245) through him that loved (agapaō, G25) us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities (archē, G746), nor powers (dunamis, G1411), nor things present, nor things to come, nor height (hupsōma, G5313), nor depth (bathos, G899), nor any other creature (ktsis, G2937), shall be able to separate (chōrizō, G5563) us from the love (agapē, G26) of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (kurios, G2962).'

'But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God's word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.'

2 Corinthians 2:14-17 ESV

'Now thanks (charis, G5485) be unto God, which always (pantote, G3842) causeth us to triumph (thriambeuō, G2358) in Christ, and maketh manifest (phaneroō, G5319) the savour of his knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by us in every place (topos, G5117). For we are unto God a sweet savour (euōdia, G2175) of Christ, in them that are saved (sōzō, G4982), and in them that perish (apollumi, G622): to the one we are the savour (osmē, G3744) of death (thanatos, G2288) unto death; and to the other the savour of life (zōē, G2222) unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, which corrupt (kapēleuō, G2585) the word (logos, G3056) of God: but as of sincerity (eilikrineia, G1505), but as of God, in the sight of (katenōpion, G2714) God speak we in (en, G1722) Christ (Christos, G5547).'

For therein is the righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) of God revealed (apokaluptō, G601) from faith (pistis, G4102) to (eis, G1519) faith: as it is written, The just (dikaios, G1342) shall live (zaō, G2198) by faith (pistis, G4102).'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.1.16-17>

' Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, who has made us sufficient to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life... Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, ...Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.'

'And such trust (pepochēsis, G4006) have (echō, G2192) we through Christ to God-ward: not that we are sufficient (hikanos, G2425) of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency (hikanotēs, G2426) is of God; who also hath made us able (hikanoō, G2427) ministers (diakonos, G1249) of the new (kainos, G2537) testament (diathēkē, G1242); not of the letter (gramma, G1121), but of the spirit (pneuma, G4151): for the letter killeth (apokteinō, G615), but the spirit giveth life (zōopoieō, G2227)... Seeing then that we have (echō, G2192) such hope (elpis, G1680), we use great plainness of speech (parrhēsia, G3954): ...Now the Lord (kurios, G2962) is that Spirit (pneuma, G4151): and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty (eleutheria, G1657). But we all, with open (anakaluptō, G343) face beholding as in a glass (katopritzomai, G2734) the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Lord, are changed (metamorphoō, G3339) into the same image (eikōn, G1504) from glory (doxa, G1391) to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.'

If we no longer live except in Christ, we can live by the faith of the Son of God,

'I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.'

Galatians 2:20 ESV

'I am crucified with (sustaurōō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me.'

Galatians 2:20 KJV

who was ever victorious, except for the persecution He willingly suffered unto His shame and death.

'Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.'

Yet from this suffering He rose victorious.

'When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. '

1 Corinthians 15:54-57 ESV

'So when this corruptible (phthartos, G5349) shall have put on (enduō, G1746) incorruption (aphtharsia, G861), and this mortal (thnētos, G2349) shall have put on (enduō, G1746) immortality (asthanasia, G110), then shall be brought to pass the saying (logos, G3056) that is written, Death (thanatos, G2288) is swallowed up (katapinō, G2666) in victory (nikos, G3524). O death, where is thy sting (kentron, G2759)? O grave (hadēs, G86), where is thy victory (nikos, G3554)? The sting (kentron, G2759) of death (thanatos, G2288) is sin (hamartia, G266); and the strength (dunamis, G1411) of sin is the law (nomos, G3551). But thanks (charis, G5485) be to God, which giveth (didōmi, G1325) us the victory (nikos, G3534) through our Lord Jesus Christ. '

In all things, we are to follow in His steps by the courage He imparts to us as those in Christ.

'For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. '

'For what glory (kleos, G2811) is it, if, when ye be buffeted (kolaphizō, G2852) for your faults (hamartanō, G264), ye shall take it patiently (hupomenō, G5278)? but if, when ye do well (agathopoieō, G15), and suffer (paschō, G3958) for it, ye take it patiently (hupomenō, G5278), this is acceptable (charis, G5485) with God. For even hereunto were ye called (kaleō, G2564): because Christ also suffered (paschō, G3958) for us, leaving us (hupolimpanō, G5277) an example (hupogrammos, G5261), that ye should follow (epakoloutheō, G1872) his steps (ichnos, G2487): '

Prayer: In You, Christ, I take heart and do not fear what others think or what they can do to me. God, I love You first and I fear You alone, so I will let Your light shine before others.

' "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. Return to Day 28

Day 29: Determination (scripture study)

Questions:

1. What has made you want to quit something which you had committed or decided you wanted?
2. According to the Bible, what is God's will?
3. How would you describe the determination of Jesus Christ to do God's will?
4. How did Jesus show determination to make disciples?
5. In what ways does God expect us to show determination?

"For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me."

John 6:38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.6.38.ESV>

'For I came down (katabainō, G2597) from heaven, not to do (poeiō, G4160) mine own will (thelēma, G2307), but the will of him that sent me.'

John 6:38 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.6.38>

In His in-person ministry, Jesus was determined to do His Father's will.

"Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:9-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.9-10.ESV>

"After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom (basilea, G932) come. Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:9-10 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.6.9-10.KJV>

"I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me."

John 5:30 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.5.30.ESV>

"I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear (akouō, G191), I judge (krinō, G2919): and my judgment is just (dikaios, G1342); because I seek not mine own will (thelēma, G2307), but the will of the Father (patēr, G3962) which hath sent (pempō, G3992) me."

John 5:30 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.5.30.KJV>

"If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood."

John 7:17-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.7.17-18.ESV>

"If any man will (thelō, G2309) do (poieō, G4160) his will (thelēma, G2307), he shall know (ginōskō, G1097) of the doctrine (didachē, G1322), whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh (zēteō, G2212) his glory (doxa, G1391) that sent (pempō, G3992) him, the same is true (alēthēs, G227), and no unrighteousness (adikia, G93) is in him."

John 7:17-18 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.7.17-18.KJV>

"When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, ...I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do."

John 17:1, 4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.17.1-4.ESV>

"These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify (doxazō, G1392) thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: ...I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished (teleioō, G5048) the work (ergon, G2041) which thou gavest (didōmi, G1325) me to do."

John 17:1, 4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.17.1-4.KJV>

He lived and died for this, and, in Christ, His will is also to become our will.

"Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.'"

John 4:31-38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.4.31-38.ESV>

"In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will (thelēma, G2307) of him that sent me, and to finish (teleioō, G5048) his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest (therismos, G2326). And he that reapeth receiveth (lambanō, G2983) wages (misthos, G3408), and gathereth fruit unto life (zōē, G2222) eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours."

John 4:31-38 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.4.31-38.KJV>

Jesus was determined to have victory, setting people free from every evil. In fulfillment of Scripture, His ministry freed all captives that came to Him,

"And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." ...Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to him, and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them. And demons also came out of many, crying, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ."

"And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up (trephō, G5142): and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book (biblion, G975) of the prophet Esaias (Hēsaïas, G2268). And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is upon me, Because he hath anointed (chriō, G5548) me to preach the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097) to the poor (ptōchos, G4434); He hath sent (apostellō, G649) me to heal (iaomai, G2390) the brokenhearted (suntribō kardia, G4937+G2588), to preach (kērussō, G2784) deliverance (aphesis, G859) to the captives, and recovering of sight (anablepsis, G309) to the blind (tuphlos, G5185), to set at (apostellō, G649) liberty (aphesis, G859) them that are bruised (thrauō, G2352), to preach the acceptable (dektos, G1184) year (eniautos, G1763) of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister (hupēretēs, G5257), and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in your ears (ous, G3775)... Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick (astheneō, G770) with divers diseases (nosos, G3554) brought them unto him; and he laid (epitithēmi, G2007) his hands (cheir, G5495) on every one of them, and healed (therapeuō, G2323) them. And devils (daimonion, G1140) also came out of (exerchomai, G1831) many, crying out (krazō, G2896), and saying, Thou art Christ (Christos, G5547) the Son (uihos, G5207) of God. And he rebuking (epitimaō, G2008) them suffered (eaō, G1439) them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ." Luke 4:16-21, 40-41 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.4.16-41.KJV>

"Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. And behold, there was a woman who had had a disabling spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your disability." And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day." Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?" As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him."

Luke 13:10-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.13.10-17.ESV>

"And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity (astheneia, G769) eighteen years, and was bowed together (sugkuptō, G4794), and could (dunamai, G1410) in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to (prosphōneō, G4377) him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed (apoluō, G630) from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands (cheir, G5495) on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified (doxazō, G1392) God And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed (therapeuō, G2323) on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed (therapeuō, G2323), and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite (hupokritēs, G5273), doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose (luō, G3089) his ox or his ass from the stall (phatnē, G5336), and lead him away to watering? And ought (dei, G1163) not this woman, being a daughter (thugatēr, G2364) of Abraham, whom Satan (Satanas, G4567) hath bound (deō, G1210), lo, these eighteen years, be loosed (luō, G3089) from this bond (desmon, G1199) on the sabbath day? And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed (kataischunō, G2617); and all the people rejoiced (chairō, G5463) for all the glorious (endoxos, G1741) things that were done (ginomai, G1096) by him."

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.13.10-17.KJV>

"So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." They answered him, "We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, 'You will become free'?" Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who practices sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father." They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing the works Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing the works your father did." They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God." Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God."

John 8:31-47 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.8.31-47.ESV>

"Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue (menō, G3306) in my word (logos, G3056), then are ye my disciples indeed (alēthōs, G230); and ye shall know the truth (alētheia, G225), and the truth shall make you free (eleutheroō, G1659). They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage (douleuō, G1398) to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free (eleutheros, G1658)? Jesus answered them, Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth (poieō, G4160) sin is the servant (doulos, G1401) of sin. And the servant abideth (menō, G3306) not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth (menō, G3306) ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free (eleutheroō, G1659), ye shall be free (eleutheros, G1658) indeed (ontōs, G3689). I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word (logos, G3056) hath no place (chōreō, G5562) in you. I speak that which I have seen (horaō, G3708) with my Father: and ye do (poieō, G4160) that which ye have seen (horaō, G3708) with your father. They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children (teknon, G5043), ye would do (poieō, G4160) the works (ergon, G2041) of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth (alētheia, G225), which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. Ye do (poieō, G4160) the deeds (ergon, G2041) of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication (porneia, G4202); we have (echō, G2192) one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love (agapaō, G25) me: for I proceeded forth (exerchomai, G1831) and came from (hēkō, G2240) God; neither came I of myself, but he sent (apostellō, G649) me. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear (akouō, G191) my word (logos, G3056). Ye are of your father the devil (diabolos, G1228), and the lusts (epithumia, G1939) of your father ye will (thelō, G2309) do (poieō, G4160). He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode (histēmi, G2476) not in the truth (alētheia, G225), because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie (pseudos, G5579), he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar (pseustēs, G5583), and the father (patēr, G3962) of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convinceth (elegchō, G1651) me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth (akouō, G191) God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."

Doing good is from God's kind of love—love in action.

"By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth."

But whoso hath (echō, G2192) this world's good (bios, G979), and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up (kleiō, G2808) his bowels of compassion (splagchnon, G4698) from him, how dwelleth (menō, G3306) the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love (agapaō, G25) in

On one recorded occasion, Jesus healed a blind man's sight imperfectly in His first step; then, resolute to complete the good work, He finished it.

"And they came to Bethsaida. And some people brought to him a blind man and begged him to touch him. And he took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village, and when he had spit on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, "Do you see anything?" And he looked up and said, "I see people, but they look like trees, walking." Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again; and he opened his eyes, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly."

Then one of them, which was a lawyer (nomikos, G3544), asked him a question, tempting (peirazō, G3985) him, and saying, Master (didaskalos, G1320), which is the great (megas, G3172) commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) the Lord (kurios, G2962) thy God with all thy heart (kardia, G2588), and with all thy soul (psuchē, G5590), and with all thy mind (dianoia, G1271). Despite occasions of frustration,

' And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. And they went and woke him, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing." And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?" Then he arose, and rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the winds (anemos, G417) and the sea; and there was a great calm (galēnē, G1055). ' And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him." And Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me." And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you." '

Matthew 17:14-20 ESV

'And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on my son: for he is lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure (therapeuō, G2323) him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistis, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the devil (daimonion, G1140); and he departed (exerchomai, G1831) out of him: and the child was cured (therapeuō, G2323) from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out (ekballō, G1544)? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, If ye have faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove (metabainō, G3327) hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible (adunateō, G101) unto you.'

Matthew 17:14-20 KJV

' And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?" And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute.

And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."

And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed (ekthambeō, G1568), and running to him saluted (aspazomai, G782) him. And he asked (eperōtaō, G1905) the scribes, What question (suzēteō, G4802) ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master (didaskalos, G1320), I have brought unto thee my son, which hath (echō, G2192) a dumb (alalos, G216) spirit; and wheresoever he taketh (katalambanō, G2638) him, he teareth (rhēgnumi, G4486) him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth (trizo, G5149), and pineth away (xērainō, G3583): and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (ischuō, G2480) not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit (pneuma, G4151) tare (sparassō, G4682) him; and he fell (piptō, G4098) on the ground, and wallowed (kulioō, G2947) foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto (ginomai, G1096) him? And he said, Of a child (paidiothen, G3812). And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy (apollumi, G622) him: but if thou canst (dunamai, G1410) do any thing, have compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697) on us, and help (boētheō, G997) us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst (dunamai, G1410) believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible (dunatos, G1415) to him that believeth. And straightway the father of the child cried out (krazō, G2896), and said with tears, Lord (kurios, G2962), I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help (boētheō, G997) thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the foul

And the spirit cried (krazō, G2896), and rent (sparassō, G4682) him sore (polus, G4183), and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took (krateō, G2902) him by the hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted (egeirō, G1453) him up; and he arose (anistēmi, G450). And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked (eperōtaō, G1905) him privately, Why could (dunamai, G1410) not we cast (ekballō, G1544) him out? And he said unto them, This kind (genos, G1085) can come forth by nothing, but by prayer (proseuchē, G4335) and fasting.'

'[[Now when he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. But when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they would not believe it. After these things he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking into the country. And they went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them. Luke 9:37-42 ESV

'And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill (oros, G3735), much people (ochlos, G3793) met him. And, behold, a man of the company cried out (anaboaō, G310), saying, Master (didaskalos, G1320), I beseech (deomai, G1189) thee, look upon (epiblepō, G1914) my son: for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit (pneuma, G4151) taketh (lambanō, G2983) him, and he suddenly crieth out (krazō, G2896); and it teareth (sparassō, G4682) him that he foameth again, and bruising (suntribō, G4937) him hardly (mogis, G3425) departeth from him. And I besought (deomai, G1189) thy disciples to cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (dunamai, G141) not. And Jesus answering said, O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer (anechomai, G430) you? Bring thy son hither. And as he was yet a coming, the devil (daimonion, G1140) threw (rhēgnumi, G4486) him down, and tare (susparassō, G4952) him. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit, and healed (iaomai, G2390) the child (pais, G3816), and delivered (apodidōmi, G591) him again to his father.'

Luke 9:37-42 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.9.37-42>

Jesus was determined to disciple faith, renewed minds, and love into the apostles that would be the first to take on His mission to reach the world with God's good news of the gospel. They were made ready to take on the fullness of His Spirit.

"And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you... You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ...You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Matthew 5:2-12,43-44,48 ESV

'and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, "Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the poor (ptōchos, G4434) in spirit (pneuma, G4151): for theirs is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven. Blessed (makarios, G3107) are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted (parakaleō, G3870). Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the meek (praus, G4239): for they shall inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) the earth. Blessed (makarios, G3107) are they which do hunger (peinaō, G3983) and thirst (dipsaō, G1372) after righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): for they shall be filled (chortazō, G5526). Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the merciful (eleēmōne, G1655): for they shall obtain mercy (eleeō, G1653). Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the pure (katharos, G2513) in heart (kardia, G2588): for they shall see (optanomai, G3700) God. Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the peacemakers (eirēnopoios, G1518): for they shall be called (kaleō, G2564) the children (uihos, G5207) of God. Blessed (makarios, G3107) are they which are persecuted (diōkō, G1377) for righteousness' (dikaiosunē, G1343) sake: for their's is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven. Blessed (makarios, G3107) are ye, when men shall revile (oneidezō, G3679) you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice (chairō, G5463), and be exceeding glad (agalliaō, G21): for great is your reward (misthos, G3408) in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you... Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139), and hate (miseō, G3404) thine enemy (echthros, G2190). But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless (eulogeō, G2127) them that curse (kataraomai, G2672) you, do (poieō, G4160) good (kalōs, G2573) to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use (epēreazō, G1908) you, and persecute (diōkō, G1377) you; ...Be ye therefore perfect (teleios, G5046), even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect (teleios, G5046).

Matthew 5:2-12,43-44,48 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.5.2-12,43-44,48>

' And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal... And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere. Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead, by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of old had risen. Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he sought to see him. On their return the apostles told him all that they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart to a town called Bethsaida. When the crowds learned it, they followed him, and he welcomed them and spoke to them of the kingdom of God and cured those who had need of healing. Now the day began to wear away, and the twelve came and said to him, "Send the crowd away to go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find lodging and get provisions, for we are here in a desolate place." But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." And they did so, and had them all sit down. And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing over them. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. And they all ate and were satisfied. And what was left over was picked up, twelve baskets of broken pieces... And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it... An argument arose among them as to which of them was the greatest. But Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a child and put him by his side and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great." ...As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." And Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Yet another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.9.1-2,6-17,23-24,46-48,57-62>

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave (didōmi, G1325) them power (dunamis, G1411) and authority (exousia, G1849) over all devils (daimonion, G1140), and to cure (therapeuō, G2323) diseases (nosos, G3554). And he sent (apostellō, G649) them to preach (kērussō, G2784) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and to heal (iaomai, G2390) the sick (astheneō, G770)... And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) every where. Now Herod (Hērōdēs, G2264) the tetrarch (tetrarchēs, G5076) heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John (Iōnnēs, G2491) was risen from the dead; and of some, that Elias (Hēlias, G2243) had appeared (phainō, G5316); and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him. And the apostles (apostolos, G652), when they were returned, told him all that they had done (poieō, G4160). And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert (erēmos, G2048) place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received (dechomai, G1209) them, and spake unto them of the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and healed (ioamai, G2390) them that had need of healing (therapeia, G2322). And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals (episitismos, G1979): for we are here in a desert place. But he said unto them, Give (didōmi, G1325) ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat (brōma, G1033) for all this people. For they were about five thousand men (anēr, G435). And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company (klisia, G2828). And they did so, and made them all sit down. Then he took (lambanō, G2983) the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed (eulogeō, G2127) them, and brake, and gave (didōmi, G1325) to the disciples to set before the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled (chortazō, G5526): and there was taken up of fragments that remained (perisseuō, G4052) to them twelve baskets... And he said to them all, If any man will come after (erchomai, G2064) me, let him deny (aparneomai, G533) himself, and take up (airō, G142) his cross (stauros, G4716) daily, and follow (akoloutheō, G190) me. For whosoever will save (sōzō, G4982) his life (psuchē, G5590) shall lose (apollumi, G622) it: but whosoever will lose (apollumi, G622) his life (psuchē, G5590) for my sake, the same shall save (sōzō, G4982) it... Then there arose a reasoning (dialogismos, G1261) among them, which of them should be greatest. And Jesus, perceiving the thought (dialogismos, G1261) of their heart (kardia, G2588), took a child, and set him by him, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive (dechomai, G1209) this child in my name (onoma, G3686) receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent (apostellō, G649) me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great (megas, G3173)... And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord (kurios, G2962), I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes (phōleas, G5454), and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer (epitrepō, G2010) me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, Let the dead (nekros, G3498) bury their dead (nekros, G3498): but go (aperchomai, G565) thou and preach (diaggellō, G1229) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first (prōton, G4412) go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house. And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit (euthetos, G2111) for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God.'

' "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. "I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?" Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. "These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. '

'Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say (legō, G3004) unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. If ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) any thing in my name (onoma, G3686), I will do (poieō, G4160) it. If ye love (agapaō, G25) me, keep (tēreō, G5083) my commandments (entolē, G1785). And I will pray (erōtaō, G2065) the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth (alētheia, G225); whom the world cannot receive (lambanō, G2983), because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know (ginōskō, G1097) him; for he dwelleth (menō, G3306) with (para, G3844) you, and shall be in (en, G1722) you. I will not leave you comfortless (orphanos, G3737): I will come (erchomai, G2064) to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live (zaō, G2198), ye shall live (zaō, G2198) also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath (echō, G2192) my commandments (entolē, G1785), and keepeth (tēreō, G5083) them, he it is that loveth (agapaō, G25) me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest (emphanizō, G1718) myself to him. Judas (Ioudas, G2455) saith unto him, not Iscariot (Iskariōtēs, G2469), Lord, how is it that thou wilt (mellō, G3195) manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world (kosmos, G2889)? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love (agapaō, G25) me, he will keep (tēreō, G5083) my words (logos, G3056): and my Father will love him, and we will come unto (erchomai, G2064) him, and make (poieō, G4160) our abode (monē, G3438) with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings (logos, G3056): and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present (menō, G3306) with you. But the Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), which is the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151), whom the Father (patēr, G3962) will send (pempō, G3992) in my name (onoma, G3992), he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. '

John 14:12-26 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.14.12-26>

In determination for this sacred purpose, Jesus expected much of all of His followers.

' "So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. "Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few. "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.' "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it." And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.'

Matthew 7:12-29 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.7.12-29>

'Therefore all things whatsoever ye would (thelō, G2309) that men should do (poieō, G4160) to you, do (poieō, G4160) ye even so to them: for this is the law (nomos, G3551) and the prophets (prophētēs, G4396). Enter (eiserchomai, G1525) ye in at the strait (stenos, G4728) gate (pulē, G4439): for wide is the gate, and broad (euruchōros, G2149) is the way (hodos, G3598), that leadeth (apagō, G520) to destruction (apōleia, G684), and many there be which go in (eiserchomai, G1525) thereat: because strait (stenos, G4728) is the gate, and narrow (thlibō, G2346) is the way (hodos, G3598), which leadeth unto life (zōē, G2222), and few there be that find (heuriskō, G2147) it. Beware of false prophets (pseudoprophētēs, G5578), which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly (esōthen, G2081) they are ravening (harpax, G727) wolves (lukos, G3074). Ye shall know them by their fruits (karpos, G2590). Do men gather grapes of thorns (akantha, G173), or figs of thistles (tribolos, G5146)? Ye shall know (epiginōskō, G1921) them by their fruits (karpos, G2590). Do men gather grapes of thorns (akantha, G173), or figs of thistles (tribolos, G5146)? Even so every good (agathos, G18) tree bringeth forth (poieō, G4160) good (kalos, G2570) fruit; but a corrupt (sapos, G4550) tree bringeth forth evil (ponēros, G4190) fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down

(ekkoptō, G1581), and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know (epignōskō, G1921) them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, shall enter into (eiserchomai, G1525) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven; but he that doeth (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of my Father (patēr, G3962) which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied (prophēteuō, G4395) in thy name (onoma, G3686)? and in thy name have cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140)? and in thy name done (poieō, G4160) many wonderful works (dunamis, G1411)? And then will I profess (homologeō, G3670) unto them, I never knew (ginōskō, G1097) you: depart from me, ye that work (ergazomai, G2038) iniquity (anomia, G458). Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings (logos, G3056) of mine, and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will liken him unto a wise (phronimos, G5429) man, which built (oikodomeō, G3618) his house (oikia, G3614) upon a rock (petra, G4073): and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded (themelioō, G2311) upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish (mōros, G3474) man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell (piptō, G4098): and great was the fall of it. And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: For he taught them as one having (echō, G2192) authority (exousia, G1849), and not as the scribes.'

Matthew 7:12-29 KJV

' "Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

Luke 6:46-49 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.46-49>

'And why call ye me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, and do (poieō, G4160) not the things which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will shew you to whom he is like: he is like a man which built (oikodomeō, G3618) an house, and digged deep (bathunō, G900), and laid the foundation (themelios, G2310) on a rock (petros, G4073): and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded (themelioō, G2311) upon a rock (petra, G4073). But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth (gē, G1093); against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell (piptō, G4098); and the ruin of that house was great.'

Luke 6:46-49 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.6.46-49>

He expected them to forsake all to follow Him.

'Now great crowds accompanied him, and he turned and said to them, "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.'

Luke 14:25-33 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.14.25-33>

'And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, If any man come (erchomai, G2064) to me, and hate (miseō, G3404) not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life (psuchē, G5590) also, he cannot (dunamai, G1410) be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear (bastazō, G941) his cross (stauros, G4716), and come after (erchomai, G2064) me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending (thelō, G2309) to build (oikodomeō, G3618) a tower (purgos, G4444), sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have (echō, G2192) sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able (ischuō, G2480) to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth (bouleuō, G1011) whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage (presbeia, G4242), and desireth conditions of peace (eirēnē, G1515). So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh (apotassomai, G657) not all that he hath (huparchonta, G5224), he cannot be my disciple.'

'As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?" And Jesus answered them, "See that no one leads you astray... "Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. Would that you were either cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth. For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. Him that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) will I make (poieō, G4160) a pillar (stulos, G4769) in the temple (naos, G3485) of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name (onoma, G3686) of my God, and the name of the city (polis, G4172) of my God, which is new (kainos, G2537) Jerusalem (Hierousalēm, G2419), which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new (kainos, G2537) name (onoma, G3686). As many as I love (phileō, G5368), I rebuke (elegchō, G1651) and chasten (paideuō, G3811): be zealous (zēloō, G2206) therefore, and repent (metanoēo, G3340). Behold, I stand (histēmi, G2476) at the door (thura, G2374), and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in (eiserchomai, G1525) to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. To him that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) will I grant (didōmi, G1325) to sit (kathizō, G2523) with (meta, G3326) me in (en, G1722) my throne (thronos, G2362), even as I also overcame (nikaō, G3528), and am set down with (kathizō, G2523) my Father in his throne.'

Jesus was determined to obey His Father unto a painful, shameful death, setting an example of love and humility.

'From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

'From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke (epitimaō, G2008) him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee (hupagō, G5217) behind (opisō, G3694) me, Satan (Satanas, G4567): thou art an offence (skandalon, G4625) unto me: for thou savourest (phroneō, G5526) not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. Even in His suffering and death, Jesus was determined to turn every situation into glory for God, including those the devil meant for bad.

'Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. And behold, there was a woman who had had a disabling spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your disability." And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day." Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?" As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him. '

'And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity (astheneia, G769) eighteen years, and was bowed together (sugkuptō, G4794), and could (dunamai, G1410) in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to (prospōneō, G4377) him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed (apoluō, G630) from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands (cheir, G5495) on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified (doxazō, G1392) God And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed (therapeuō, G2323) on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed (therapeuō, G2323), and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite (hupokritēs, G5273), doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose (luō, G3089) his ox or his ass from the stall (phatnē, G5336), and lead him away to watering? And ought (dei, G1163) not this woman, being a daughter (thugatēr, G2364) of Abraham, whom Satan (Satanas, G4567) hath bound (deō, G1210), lo, these eighteen years, be loosed (luō, G3089) from this bond (desmon, G1199) on the sabbath day? 'As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. '

John 9:1-7 ESV

'And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin (hamartanō, G264), this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works (ergon, G2041) of God should be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) in him. I must work (ergazomai, G2038) the works (ergon, G2041) of him that sent me, while it is day (hēmera, G2250): the night (nux, G3571) cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light (phōs, G5457) of the world (kosmos, G2889). When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made (poieō, G4160) clay (pēlos, G4081) of the spittle, and he anointed (epichriō, G2025) the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said unto him, Go (hupagō, G5217), wash (niptō, G3538) in the pool of Siloam (Silōam, G4611), (which is by interpretation, Sent (apostellō, G649).) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing (blepō, G991).'

John 9:1-7 KJV

'Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." But when Jesus heard it he said, "This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So, when he heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was... Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died, and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." ...Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world." When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying in private, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him. When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there. Now when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled. And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go." Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him, but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the council and said, "What are we to do? For this man performs many signs. If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation." But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all. Nor do you understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people, not that the whole nation should perish." He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, and not for the nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. So from that day on they made plans to put him to death. '

'Now a certain man was sick (astheneō, G770), named Lazarus (Lazaros, G2976), of Bethany (Bēthania, G963), the town of Mary (Maria, G3137) and her sister Martha (G3136). (It was that Mary which anointed (aleiphō, G218) the Lord with ointment (muron, G3464), and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto (apostellō, G649) him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest (phileō, G5368) is sick (astheneō, G770). When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness (astheneia, G769) is not unto death (thanatos, G2288), but for the glory (doxa, G1391) of God, that the Son (uihos, G5207) of God might be glorified (doxazō, G1392) thereby. Now Jesus loved (agapaō, G25) Martha, and her sister (adelphē, G79), and Lazarus. When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode (menō, G3306) two days still in the same place where he was... Then said Jesus unto them plainly (parrhēsia, G3954), Lazarus is dead (apothnēskō, G599). And I am glad (chairō, G5463) for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him... Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave (mnēmeion, G3419) four days already. Now Bethany was nigh (eggus, G1451) unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs (stadion, G4712) off: and many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort (paramutheomai, G3888) them concerning their brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met (hupantaō, G5221) him: but Mary sat still in the house. Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord (kurios, G2962), if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask (aiteō, G154) of God, God will give (didōmi, G1325) it thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again (anistēmi, G450). Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection (anastasis, G386) at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I (egō, G1473) am (eimi, G1510) the resurrection (anastasis, G386), and the life (zōē, G2222): he that believeth in me, though he were dead (apothnēskō, G599), yet shall he live (zaō, G2198): and whosoever liveth (zaō, G2198) and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ (Christos, G5547), the Son (uihos, G5207) of God, which should come (erchomai, G2064) into (eis, G1519) the world (kosmos, G2889). And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down (piptō, G4098) at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping (klaiō, G2799), and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned (embrimaomai, G1690) in the spirit (pneuma, G4151), and was troubled (tarassō, G5015), and said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) wept (dakruō, G1145). Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved (phileō, G5368) him! And some of them said, Could (dunamai, G1410) not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused (poieō, G4160) that even this man should not have died? Jesus therefore again (palin, G3825) groaning (embrimaomai, G1690) in (en, G1722) himself (heautou, G1438) cometh to the grave. It was a cave (spēlaion, G4693), and a stone lay upon (epikeimai, G1945) it. Jesus said, Take ye away (airō, G142) the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh (ozō, G3605): for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see (optanomai, G3700) the glory (doxa, G1391) of God? Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up (airō, G142) his eyes, and said, Father, I thank (eucharisteō, G2168) thee that thou hast heard (akouō, G191) me. And I knew that thou hearest me always (pantote, G3842): but because of the people (ochlos, G3793) which stand by I said it, that they may believe (pisteuō, G4100) that thou hast sent (apostellō, G649) me. And when he thus had spoken, he cried (kraugazō, G2905) with a loud (megas, G3173) voice (phōnē, G5456), Lazarus (Lazaros, G2976), come (deuro, G1204) forth (exō, G1854). And he that was dead came forth, bound (deō, G1210) hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose (luō, G3089) him, and let (aphiēmi, G863) him go (hupagō, G5217). Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees (Pharisaioi, G5330), and told them what things Jesus had done (poieō, G4160). Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council (sunedrion, G4892), and said, What do we? for this man doeth (poieō, G4160) many miracles (sēmeion, G4592). If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away (airō, G142) both our place and nation. And one of them, named Caiaphas (Kaiaphas, G2533), being the high priest (archiereus, G749) that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, nor consider that it is expedient (sumpherō, G4851) for us, that one man should die (apothnēskō, G599) for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied (prophēteuō, G4395) that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation (ethnos, G1484) only, but that also he should gather together (sunagō, G4863) in one the children (teknon, G5043) of God that were scattered abroad (diaskorpizō, G1287). Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death (apokteinō, G615). '

'For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world— our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? '

1 John 5:4-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1JN.5.4-5>

'For whatsoever is born (gennaō, G1080) of God overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world (kosmos, G2889): and this is the victory (nikē, G3529) that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world (kosmos, G2889), even our faith (pistis, G4102). Who is he that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world, but he that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) that Jesus (lēsous, G2424) is the Son (uihos, G5207) of God? '

And so while I have Your resurrection life in me, I will not stop living and proclaiming Your gospel that brings liberty and victory. I delight to do all of Your will, God.

'For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain... Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, '

Your love never fails.

' "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. '

John 3:16-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.3.16-17>

'For God so loved (agapaō, G25) the world (kosmos, G2889), that he gave (didōmi, G1325) his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent (apostellō, G649) not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved (sōzō, G4982).'

John 3:16-17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.3.16-17>

'And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.'

Romans 8:28-39 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.28-39>

'And we know (eidō, G1492) that all things work together (sunergeō, G4903) for good (agathos, G18) to them that love (agapaō, G25) God, to them who are the called (klētos, G2822) according to his purpose (prothesis, G4286). For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate (proorizō, G4309) to be conformed (summorphos, G4832) to the image (eikōn, G1504) of his Son, that he might be the firstborn (prōtotokos, G4416) among many brethren (adelphos, G80). Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified (dikaioō, G1344): and whom he justified, them he also glorified (doxazō, G1392). What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up (paradidōmi, G3860) for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give (charizomai, G5483) us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect (eklektos, G1588)? It is God that justifieth (dikaioō, G1344). Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God, who also maketh intercession (entugchanō, G1793) for us. Who shall separate (chōrizō, G5563) us from the love (agapē, G26) of Christ? shall tribulation (thlipsis, G2347), or distress (stenochōria, G4730), or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed (thanatoō, G2289) all the day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors (hupernikaō, G5245) through him that loved (agapaō, G25) us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities (archē, G746), nor powers (dunamis, G1411), nor things present, nor things to come, nor height (hupsōma, G5313), nor depth (bathos, G899), nor any other creature (ktsis, G2937), shall be able to separate (chōrizō, G5563) us from the love (agapē, G26) of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (kurios, G2962).'

Romans 8:28-39 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.8.28-39>

'If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.'

1 Corinthians 13:1-8 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.13.1-8>

'Though I speak with the tongues (glōssa, G1100) of men and of angels (aggelos, G32), and have (echō, G2192) not charity (agapē, G26), I am become (ginomai, G1096) as sounding (ēcheō, G2278) brass, or a tinkling (alalazō, G214) cymbal (kumbalon, G2950). And though I have (echō, G2192) the gift of prophecy (phophēteia, G4394), and understand (eidō, G1492) all mysteries (mustērion, G3466), and all knowledge (gnōsis, G1108); and though I have (echō, G2192) all faith (pistis, G4102), so that I could remove (methistēmi, G3179) mountains (oros, G3735), and have (echō, G2192) not charity (agapē, G26), I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods (huparchonta, G5224) to feed (psōmizō, G5595) the poor, and though I give (paradidōmi, G3860) my body to be burned (kaiō, G2545), and have (echō, G2192) not charity (agapē, G26), it profiteth (ōpheleō, G5623) me nothing. Charity (agapē, G26) suffereth long (makrothumeō, G3114), and is kind (chrēsteuomai, G5541); charity envieth (zēloō, G2206) not; charity vaunteth (perpereuomai, G4068) not itself, is not puffed up (phusioō, G5448), doth not behave itself unseemly (aschēmoneō, G807), seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked (paroxunō, G3947), thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth (sugchairō, G4796) in the truth; beareth (stegō, G4722) all things, believeth (pisteuō, G4100) all things, hopeth (elpizō, G1679) all things, endureth (hupomenō, G5278) all things. Charity never faileth (ekpiptō, G1601); but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail (katargeō, G2673); whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), it shall vanish away.'

Return to Day 29

Day 30: Authority (scripture study)

Questions:

1. According to Scripture, who has received spiritual authority in heaven and earth, beginning at the time of creation until now?
2. How did Jesus use authority in His earthly ministry?
3. Did Jesus expect His disciples to use their authority?
4. What's the relationship between faith and authority?
5. How is the church expected to use its authority to accomplish its mission?

"When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet..."

Psalm 8:3-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.8.3-6.ESV>

'When I consider thy heavens, the work (ma'aseh, H4639) of thy fingers, The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained (kun, H3559); What is man ('enosh, H582), that thou art mindful (zakar, H2142) of him? And the son (ben, H1121) of man, that thou visitest (paqad, H6485) him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels ('elohim, H430), And hast crowned him with glory (kabod, H3519) and honour (hadar, H1926). Thou madest him to have dominion (mashal, H4910) over the works (ma'aseh, H4639) of thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet:'

Psalm 8:3-6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/PSA.8.3-6>

"how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, "What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet." Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him."

Hebrews 2:3-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.2.3-8.ESV>

"how shall we escape, if we neglect (ameleo, G272) so great (telikoutos, G5082) salvation (soteria, G4991); which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord (kurios, G2962), and was confirmed (bebaioo, G950) unto us by them that heard him; God also bearing them witness (sunepimartureo, G4901), both with signs (semeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059), and with divers (poikilos, G4164) miracles (dunamis, G1411), and gifts (merismos, G3311) of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, according to his own will (thelēsis, G2308)? For unto the angels (aggelos, G32) hath he not put in subjection (hupotassō, G5293) the world (oikoumenē, G3625) to come (mellō, G3195), whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful (mimnēskō, G3403) of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest (episkeptomai, G1980) him? Thou madest him a little (brachus tis, G1024+G5100) lower (elattoō, G1642) than the angels (aggelos, G32); Thou crownedst (stephanoō, G4737) him with glory (doxa, G1391) and honour (timē, G592), And didst set him over (kathistēmi, G2525) the works (ergon, G2041) of thy hands (cheir, G5495): Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection (hupotassō, G5293) under him, he left nothing that is not put under (anupotaktos, G506) him. But now we see not yet all things put under him."

Hebrews 2:3-8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/heb.2.3-8.KJV>

Authority is often given in measure depending upon the level of responsibility that is given.

As the Almighty God, God has all authority to give, and authority operates according to His spiritual laws set in place before the creation of the universe.

"Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them. The Lord said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Satan answered the Lord and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." And the Lord said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil?" Then Satan answered the Lord and said, "Does Job fear God for no reason? Have you not put a hedge around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. But stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and he will curse you to your face." And the Lord said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your hand. Only against him do not stretch out your hand." So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord."

Job 1:6-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/job.1.6-12.ESV>

"Now there was a day when the sons (bēn, H1121) of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan (śâtân, H7854) came also among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro (shût, H7751) in the earth, and from walking up and down (hâlak, H1980) in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered (śûm lêb, H7760+H3820) my servant ('ebed, H5650) Job ('îyôb, H347), that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect (tâm, H8535) and an upright (yâshâr, H3477) man, one that feareth (yârê', H3373) God, and escheweth (sûr, H5493) evil (ra', H7451)? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought (chinnâm, H2600)? Hast not thou made an hedge (śûk, H7753) about him, and about (be'ad, H1157) his house (bayith, H1004), and about all that he hath on every side (sâbîyb, H5439)? thou hast blessed the work (ma'aśeh, H4639) of his hands, and his substance (miqneh, H4735) is increased in the land. But put forth (shâlach, H7971) thine hand now, and touch (nâga', H5060) all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power (yâd, H3027); only upon himself put not forth (shâlach, H7971) thine hand (yâd, H2037). So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.115.1-3.ESV>

"Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name (shēm, H8034) give glory (kâbôd, H3519), For thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617), and for thy truth's ('emeth, H571) sake. Wherefore should the heathen (gôy, H1471) say, Where is now their God? But our God is in the heavens: He hath done ('âśâh, H6213) whatsoever he hath pleased (châphêts, H2654)."

God gave authority to men and women when He created them,

"Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.""

Genesis 1:26-28 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/gen.1.26-28.ESV>

"And God ('elôhîym, H430) said ('âmar, H559), Let us make ('âsâh, H6213) man ('âdâm, H120) in our image (tselem, H6754), after our likeness (demûth, H1823): and let them have dominion (râdâh, H7287) over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing (remeś, H7431) that creepeth (râmaś, H7430) upon the earth. So God created (bârâ', H1254) man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male (zâkâr, H2145) and female (neqêbâh, H5347) created (bârâ', H1254) he them."

"Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." The crowd that stood there and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be cast out."

John 12:27-31 ESV

"Now is my soul troubled (tarassō, G5015); and what shall I say? Father, save (sōzō, G4982) me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify (doxazō, G1392) thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince (archōn, G758) of this world (kosmos, G2889) be cast out (ekballō, G1544)."

After that point, God first gave it back in measure to His prophets and elders, the Spirit of God with them, as they had responsibility to care for God's people.

"And Moses said to the people, "Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will work for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again. The Lord will fight for you, and you have only to be silent." The Lord said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward. Lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the people of Israel may go through the sea on dry ground.... Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided."

Exodus 14:13-16, 21 ESV

The LORD shall fight (lâcham, H3898) for you, and ye shall hold your peace. And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest (tsâ'aq, H6817) thou unto me? speak (dâbar, H1696) unto the children of Israel, that they go forward: but lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out (nâtâh, H5186) thine hand (yâd, H3027) over the sea, and divide (bâqa', H1234) it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea... And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go (yâlak, H3212) back by a strong ('az, H5794) east (qâdîym, H6921) wind (rûach, H7307) all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided."

'And the Lord said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands. Not a man of them shall stand before you." ...At that time Joshua spoke to the Lord in the day when the Lord gave the Amorites over to the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand still at Gibeon, and moon, in the Valley of Aijalon." And the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the nation took vengeance on their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in the midst of heaven and did not hurry to set for about a whole day. There has been no day like it before or since, when the Lord heeded the voice of a man, for the Lord fought for Israel. '

Joshua 10:8,12-14 ESV

'And the LORD said unto Joshua (yehôshûa', H3091), Fear (yârê', H3372) them not: for I have delivered (nâthan, H5414) them into thine hand (yâd, H3027); there shall not a man of them stand ('âmad, H5975) before thee... Then spake (dâbar, H1696) Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said ('âmar, H559) in the sight of Israel, Sun (shemesh, H8121), stand thou still (dâmam, H1826) upon Gibeon (gib'ôn, H1391); And thou, Moon (yârêach, H3394), in the valley of Ajalon ('ayâlôn, H357). And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed ('âmad, H5975), until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher (yâshâr, H3477)? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened (shâma', H8085) unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought (lâcham, H3898) for Israel. '

Baptized in the Holy Spirit, Christ Jesus was given authority as the Son of God, empowering His ministry.

"I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire... And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

In spending time with Jesus, the faith of the disciples was ever increasing. When Jesus sent out His disciples to minister, first the 12 disciples

"And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food. And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it and stay there until you depart. As you enter the house, greet it. And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town. Truly, I say to you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town."

Matthew 10:1-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.10.1-15.ESV>

"And when he had called unto (proskaleomai, G4341) him his twelve disciples, he gave (didōmi, G1325) them power (exousia, G1849) against unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits, to cast them out (ekballō, G1544), and to heal (therapeuō, G2323) all manner of sickness (nosos, G3554) and all manner of disease (malakia, G3119). Now the names of the twelve apostles (apostolos, G652) are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter (Petros, G4074), and Andrew (Andreas, G406) his brother; James (Iakōbos, G2385) the son of Zebedee, and John (Iōannēs, G2491) his brother; Philip (Philippos, G5376), and Bartholomew; Thomas (Thōmas, G2381), and Matthew (Matthaios, G3156) the publican (telōnēs, G5057); James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbæus (Lebbaïos, G3002), whose surname was Thaddæus (Thaddaios, G2280); Simon the Canaanite (Kananitēs, G2581), and Judas (Ioudas, G2455) Iscariot, who also betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth (apostellō, G649), and commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost (apollumi, G622) sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach (kērussō, G2784), saying, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven is at hand (eggizō, G1448). Heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (astheneō, G770), cleanse (katharizō, G2511) the lepers, raise (egeirō, G1453) the dead (nekros, G3498), cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140): freely (dōrean, G1432) ye have received (lambanō, G2983), freely (dōrean, G1432) give (didōmi, G1325). Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses (zōnē, G2223), nor scrip (pēra, G4082) for your journey, neither two coats (chitōn, G5509), neither shoes (hupodēma, G5266), nor yet staves (rhabdos, G4464): for the workman (ergatēs, G2040) is worthy (axios, G514) of his meat (trophē, G5160). And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire (exetazō, G1833) who in it is worthy (axios, G514); and there abide (menō, G3306) till ye go thence. And when ye come into an house, salute (aspazomai, G782) it. And if the house (oikia, G3614) be worthy (axios, G514), let your peace (eirēnē, G1515) come upon (erchomai, G2064) it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return (epistrephō, G1994) to you. And whosoever shall not receive (dechomai, G1209) you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off (ektinassō, G1621) the dust of your feet. Verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrhā in the day of judgment (krisis, G2920), than for that city."

Matthew 10:1-15 KJV

"And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. And he said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics. And whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere. Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead, by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of old had risen. Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he sought to see him. On their return the apostles told him all that they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart to a town called Bethsaida."

"Then he called his twelve disciples together (sugkaleō, G4779), and gave (didōmi, G1325) them power (dunamis, G1411) and authority (exousia, G1849) over all devils (daimonion, G1140), and to cure (therapeuō, G2323) diseases (nosos, G3554). And he sent (apostellō, G649) them to preach (kērussō, G2784) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and to heal (ioamai, G2390) the sick (astheneō, G770). And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey (hodos, G3598), neither staves (rhabdos, G4464), nor scrip (pēra, G4082), neither bread (artos, G740), neither money (argurion, G694); neither have two coats (chitōn, G5509) apiece. And whatsoever house (oikia, G3614) ye enter into (eiserchomai, G1525), there abide (menō, G3306), and thence depart. And whosoever will not receive (dechomai, G1209) you, when ye go out of (exerchomai, G1831) that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) every where (pantachou, G3837). Now Herod (Hērōdēs, G2264) the tetrarch (tetrarchēs, G5076) heard of all that was done (ginomai, G1096) by him: and he was perplexed (diaporeō, G1280), because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead; and of some, that Elias (Hēlias, G2243) had appeared (phainō, G5316); and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him. And the apostles (apostolos, G652), when they were returned, told (diēgeomai, G1334) him all that they had done (poieō, G4160). And he took them (paralambanō, G3880), and went aside (huperchōreō, G5298) privately into a desert (erēmos, G2048) place belonging to the city called Bethsaida (Bēthsaida, G966)"

"And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him. And he ordained (poieō, G4160) twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send (apostellō, G649) them forth to preach (kērussō, G2784), and to have (echō, G2192) power (exousia, G1849) to heal (therapeuō, G2323) sicknesses (nosos, G3554), and to cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140):"

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.3.13-15.KJV>

"And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. And he said to them, "Whenever you enter a

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.6.7-16.ESV>

"And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth (apostellō, G649) by two and two; and gave them power (exousia, G1849) over unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits; and commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff (rhabdos, G4464) only; no scrip (pēra, G4082), no bread (artos, G740), no money (chalkos, G5475) in their purse (zōnē, G2223): but be shod (hupodeō, G5265) with sandals (sandalion, G4547); and not put on (enduō, G1746) two coats (chitōn, G5509). And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house (oikia, G3614), there abide (menō, G3306) till ye depart from that place. And whosoever shall not receive (dechomai, G1209) you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off (ektinassō, G1621) the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment (krisis, G2920), than for that city. And they went out, and preached (kērussō, G2784) that men should repent (metanoēō, G3340). And they cast out (ekballō, G1544) many devils (daimonion, G1140), and anointed (aleiphō, G218) with oil (elaion, G1637) many that were sick, and healed (therapeuō, G2323) them. And king Herod (Hērōdēs, G2264) heard of him; (for his name (onoma, G3686) was spread abroad (phaneros, G5318);) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works (dunamis, G1411) do shew forth (energeō, G1754) themselves in him. Others said, That it is Elias (Hēlias, G2243). And others said, That it is a prophet (prophētēs, G4396), or as one of the prophets. But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead."

Mark 6:7-16 KJV

and later the 72 that left everything to follow Him,

"After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!' And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.' I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town. "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you. And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades. "The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." Then turning to the disciples he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.10.1-24.ESV>

"After these things the Lord (kurios, G2962) appointed (anadeiknumi, G322) other seventy also, and sent (apostellō, G649) them two and two before his face into every city and place (topos, G5117), whither he himself would come (erchomai, G2064). Therefore said he unto them, The harvest (therismos, G2326) truly is great, but the labourers (ergatēs, G2040) are few: pray ye (deomai, G1189) therefore the Lord (kurios, G2962) of the harvest (therismos, G2326), that he would send forth (ekballō, G1544) labourers (ergatēs, G2040) into his harvest. Go your ways (hupagō, G5217): behold, I send you forth (apostellō, G649) as lambs among wolves (lukos, G3074). Carry neither purse (balantion, G905), nor scrip (pēra, G4082), nor shoes (hupodēma, G5266): and salute (aspazomai, G782) no man by the way (hodos, G3598). And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say (legō, G3004), Peace (eirēnē, G1515) be to this house (oikos, G3624). And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon (epanapauomai, G1879) it: if not, it shall turn to (anakamptō, G344) you again. And in the same house remain (menō, G3306), eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer (ergatēs, G2040) is worthy (axios, G514) of his hire (misthos, G3408). Go not from (metabainō, G3327) house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive (dechomai, G1209) you, eat such things as are set before (paratithēmi, G3908) you: and heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (asthenēs, G772) that are therein, and say (legō, G3004) unto them, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto you. But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure (ginōskō, G1097) of this, that the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto you. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom (Sodoma, G4670), than for that city. Woe (ouai, G3759) unto thee, Chorazin (Chorazin, G5523)! woe unto thee, Bethsaida (Bēthsaida, G966)! for if the mighty works (dunamis, G1411) had been done (ginomai, G1096) in Tyre (Turos, G5184) and Sidon (Sidōn, G4605), which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented (metanoēō, G3340), sitting in (kathēmai, G2521) sackcloth (sakkos, G4526) and ashes (spodos, G4700). But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment (krisis, G2920), than for you. And thou, Capernaum (Kapernaoum, G2584), which art exalted (hupsoō, G5312) to heaven (ouranos, G3772), shalt be thrust down to hell (hadēs, G86). He that heareth (akouō, G191) you heareth me; and he that despiseth (atheteō, G114) you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent (apostellō, G649) me. And the seventy returned again with joy (chara, G5479), saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), even the devils (daimonion, G1140) are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto us through thy name (onoma, G3686). And he said unto them, I beheld (theōreō, G2334) Satan (Satanas, G4567) as lightning (astrapē, G796) fall (piptō, G4098) from heaven. Behold, I give (didōmi, G1325) unto you power (exousia, G1849) to tread (pateō, G3961) on serpents (ophis, G3789) and scorpions (skorprios, G4651), and over all the power (dunamis, G1411) of the enemy (echtros, G2190): and nothing shall by any means hurt (adikeō, G91) you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject (hupotassō, G5293) unto you; but rather rejoice (chairō, G5463), because your names are written in heaven. In that hour Jesus rejoiced (agalliaō, G21) in spirit, and said, I thank (exomologeō, G1843) thee, O Father, Lord (kurios, G2962) of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise (sophos, G4680) and prudent (sunetos, G4908), and hast revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto babes (nēpios, G3516): even so, Father; for so it seemed (ginomai, G1096) good (eudokia, G2107) in thy sight. All things are delivered (apodidōmi, G3860) to me of my Father: and no man knoweth (ginōskō, G1097) who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal (apokaluptō, G601) him. And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed (markarios, G3107) are the eyes (ophthalmos, G3788) which see (blepō, G991) the things that ye see: for I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired (thelō, G2309) to see (eidō, G1492) those things which ye see, and have not seen (eidō, G1492) them; and to hear (akuō, G191) those things which ye hear, and have not heard them."

He gave them authority to minister as He did, the Spirit of God with them, and they did.

At His resurrection, Jesus was given all authority in heaven and on earth.

"Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:16-20 ESV

"Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee (Galilaia, G1056), into a mountain where Jesus had appointed (tassō, G5021) them. And when they saw him, they worshipped (proskuneō, G4352) him: but some doubted (distazō, G1365).. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power (exousia, G1849) is given (didōmi, G1325) unto me in heaven and in earth. Go (poreuomai, G4198) ye therefore, and teach (mathēteuō, G3100) all nations (ethnos, G1484), baptizing (baptizō, G906) them in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Father (patēr, G3962), and of the Son, and of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost: teaching (didaskō, G1321) them to observe (tēreō, G50083) all things whatsoever I have commanded (entellomai, G1781) you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end (sunteleia, G4930) of the world (aiōn, G165). Amen (amēn, G281)."

"And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900); blotting out (exaleiphō, G1813) the handwriting (cheirographon, G5498) of ordinances (dogma, G1378) that was against us, which was contrary (hupenantios, G5227) to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it (prosēloō, G4338) to his cross; and having spoiled (apekduomai, G554) principalities (archē, G746) and powers (exousia, G1849), he made a shew of (deigmatizō, G1165) them openly, triumphing over (thriambeuō, G2358) them in it.”

“but he was defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, “Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death.”

“and prevailed (ischuō, G2480) not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon (drakōn, G1404) was cast out (ballō, G906), that old serpent (ophis, G3789), called the Devil (diabolos, G1228), and Satan (Satanas, G4567), which deceiveth (planaō, G4105) the whole world (oikoumenē, G3625): he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation (sōtēria, G4991), and strength (dunamis, G1411), and the kingdom (basileia, G932) of our God, and the power (exousia, G1849) of his Christ (Christos, G5547): for the accuser (katēgoreō, G2723) of our brethren is cast down (kataballō, G2598), which accused (katēgoros, G2725) them before our God day and night. And they overcame (nikaō, G3528) him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word (logos, G3056) of their testimony (marturia, G3141); and they loved (agapaō, G25) not their lives (psuchē, G5590) unto the death (thanatos, G2288).”

He has given it to His church—those who are in Christ—operating through the gift of faith,

“Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills."

1 Corinthians 12:4-11 ESV

"Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal (sumpherō, G4851). For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by the same Spirit; to another faith (pistis, G4102) by the same Spirit; to another the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386) by the same Spirit; to another the working (energēma, G1755) of miracles (dunamis, G1411); to another prophecy (prophēteia, G4394); to another discerning (diakrisis, G1253) of spirits; to another divers kinds (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100); to another the interpretation (hermēneia, G2058) of tongues: but all these worketh (energeō, G1754) that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing (diaireō, G1244) to every man severally (idios, G2398) as he will (boulomai, G1014)."

"For whatsoever is born (gennaō, G1080) of God overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world (kosmos, G2889); and this is the victory (nikē, G3529) that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world (kosmos, G2889), even our faith (pistis, G4102). Who is he that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world, but he that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) that Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) is the Son (uihos, G5207) of God?"

to carry on His mission to reach the world with the gospel.

"Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover." So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]"

"Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided (oneidezō, G3679) them with their unbelief (apistia, G570) and hardness of heart (sklērokardia, G4641), because they believed (pisteuō, G4100) not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go (poreuomai, G4198) ye into all the world (kosmos, G2889), and preach (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) to every creature (ktisis, G2937). He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) and is baptized (baptizō, G907) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); but he that believeth not shall be damned (katakrinō, G2632). And these signs (sēmeion, G4592) shall follow (parakoloutheō, G3877) them that believe; In my name (onoma, G3686) shall they cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140); they shall speak with new (kainos, G2537) tongues (glōssa, G1100); they shall take up (airō, G142) serpents (ophis, G3789); and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt (bloptō, G984) them; they shall lay (epitithēmi, G2007) hands (cheir, G5495) on the sick (arrhōstos, G732), and they shall (echō, G2192) recover (kalōs, G2573). So then after the Lord (kurios, G2962) had spoken unto them, he was received up (analambanō, G353) into heaven, and sat on (kathizō, G2523) the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. And they went forth (exerchomai, G1831), and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord (kurios, G2962) working with (sunergeō, G4903) them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word (logos, G3056) with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (epakoloutheō, G1872). Jesus has made His church, His new body in the world, fully responsible to complete this mission.

'And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.'

Matthew 24:14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.24.14>

'And this gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the kingdom (basileia, G932) shall be preached (kērussō, G2784) in all (holos, G3650) the world (oikoumenē, G3625) for a witness unto all nations (ethnos, G1484); and then shall the end (telos, G5056) come (hēkō, G2240).'

Matthew 24:14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.24.14>

'For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body— Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. For the body does not consist of one member but of many... Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.'

1 Corinthians 12:12-14,27-31 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.12-14,27-31>

'For as the body is one, and hath many members (melos, G3196), and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ (Christos, G5547). For by one Spirit (pneuma, G4151) are we all baptized (baptizō, G907) into one body (sōma, G4983), whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond (doulos, G1401) or free (eleutheros, G1658); and have been all made to drink (potizō, G4222) into one Spirit. For the body (sōma, G4983) is not one member (melos, G3196), but many.... Now ye are the body (sōma, G4983) of Christ (Christos, G5547), and members (melos, G3196) in particular (meros, G3313). And God hath set some in the church (ekklēsia, G1577), first apostles (apostolos, G652), secondarily prophets (prophētēs, G4396), thirdly teachers (didaskalos, G1320), after that miracles (dunamis, G1411), then gifts (charisma, G5486) of healings (iama, G2386), helps, governments, diversities (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100). Are all apostles (apostolos, G652)? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles (dunamis, G1411)? Have all the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386)? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret (diērmēneuō, G1329)? But covet earnestly (zēloō, G2206) the best (kreittōn, G2909) gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent (huperbolē, G5236) way (hodos, G3598).'

1 Corinthians 12:12-14,27-31 KJV

'For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness... Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.'

'For I say, through the grace (charis, G5485) given (didōmi, G1325) unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly (huperphroneō, G5252) than he ought to think; but to think soberly (sōphroneō, G4993), according as God hath dealt (merizō, G3307) to every man the measure (metros, G3358) of faith (pistis, G4102). For as we have (echō, G2192) many members (melos, G3196) in one body, and all members have (echō, G2192) not the same office (praxis, G4234): so we, being many, are one body (sōma, G4983) in Christ (Christos, G5547), and every one members one of another (allēlōn, G240). Having (echō, G2192) then gifts (charisma, G5486) differing (diaphoros, G1313) according to the grace (charis, G5485) that is given (didōmi, G1325) to us, whether prophecy (prophēteia, G4394), let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith (pistis, G4102); or ministry (diakonia, G1248), let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth (parakaleō, G3870), on exhortation (paraklēsis, G3874): he that giveth (metadidōmi, G3330), let him do it with simplicity (haplotēs, G572); he that ruleth (proistēmi, G4291), with diligence; he that sheweth mercy (eleeō, G1653), with cheerfulness (hilarotēs, G2432)... Be not overcome (nikaō, G3528) of evil (kakos, G2556), but overcome evil with good (agathos, G18).'

'Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is... so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish... because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church.'

'See then that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) circumspectly (akribōs, G199), not as fools, but as wise (sophos, G4680), redeeming (exagorazō, G1805) the time (kairos, G2540), because the days are evil (ponēros, G4190). Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding (suniēmi, G4920) what the will (thelēma, G2307) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is.... that he might present it to himself a glorious (endoxos, G1741) church, not having spot (spilos, G4696), or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy (hagios, G40) and without blemish (amōmos, G299).... for we are members (melos, G3196) of his body (sōma, G4983), of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones (osteon ostoun, G3747). For this cause shall a man leave (kataleipō, G2641) his father and mother, and shall be joined (proskollaō, G4347) unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). This is a great mystery (mustērion,

Authority is great faith. As the church, this spiritual authority that Jesus taught His disciples

"On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it... As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered." And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours."

Mark 11:12-14, 20-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.11.12-24.ESV>

"And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry (peinaō, G3983): and seeing a fig tree (sukē, G4808) afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet . And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up (xērainō, G3583) from the roots. And Peter (Petros, G4074) calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master (rhabbi, G4461), behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst (kataraomai, G2672) is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain (oros, G3735), Be thou removed (airō, G142), and be thou cast (ballō, G906) into the sea; and shall not doubt (diakrinō, G1252) in his heart (kardia, G2588), but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith (legō, G3004) shall come to pass (ginomai, G1096); he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray, believe that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have them."

and expected His disciples to practice

"And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly.

For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him." And Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me." And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

Matthew 17:14-20 ESV

"And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on my son: for he is lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure (therapeuō, G2323) him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistis, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the devil (daimonion, G1140); and he departed (exerchomai, G1831) out of him: and the child was cured (therapeuō, G2323) from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out (ekballō, G1544)? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, If ye have faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove (metabainō, G3327) hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible (adunateō, G101) unto you."

Matthew 17:14-20 KJV

"And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?" And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."

"And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude (ochlos, G3793) about them, and the scribes (grammateus, G1122) questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed (ekthambeō, G1568), and running to him saluted (aspazomai, G782) him. And he asked (eperōtaō, G1905) the scribes, What question (suzēteō, G4802) ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master (didaskalos, G1320), I have brought unto thee my son, which hath (echō, G2192) a dumb (alalos, G216) spirit; and wheresoever he taketh (katalambanō, G2638) him, he teareth (rhēgnumi, G4486) him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth (trizo, G5149), and pineth away (xērainō, G3583): and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (ischuō, G2480) not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit (pneuma, G4151) tare (sparassō, G4682) him; and he fell (piptō, G4098) on the ground, and wallowed (kulioō, G2947) foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto (ginomai, G1096) him? And he said, Of a child (paidiothen, G3812). And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy (apollumi, G622) him: but if thou canst (dunamai, G1410) do any thing, have compassion (spagchnizomai, G4697) on us, and help (boētheō, G997) us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst (dunamai, G1410) believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible (dunatos, G1415) to him that believeth. And straightway the father of the child cried out (krazō, G2896), and said with tears, Lord (kurios, G2962), I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help (boētheō, G997) thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the foul (akathartos, G169) spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb (alalos, G216) and deaf (kōphos, G2974) spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out (exerchomai, G1831) of him, and enter (eiserchomai, G1525) no more (mēketi, G3371) into him. And the spirit cried (krazō, G2896), and rent (sparassō, G4682) him sore (polus, G4183), and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took (krateō, G2902) him by the hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted (egeirō, G1453) him up; and he arose (anistēmi, G450). And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked (eperōtaō, G1905) him privately, Why could (dunamai, G1410) not we cast (ekballō, G1544) him out? And he said unto them, This kind (genos, G1085) can come forth by nothing, but by prayer (proseuchē, G4335) and fasting."

"And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill (oros, G3735), much people (ochlos, G3793) met him. And, behold, a man of the company cried out (anaboaō, G310), saying, Master (didaskalos, G1320), I beseech (deomai, G1189) thee, look upon (epiblepō, G1914) my son: for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit (pneuma, G4151) taketh (lambanō, G2983) him, and he suddenly crieth out (krazō, G2896); and it teareth (sparassō, G4682) him that he foameth again, and bruising (suntribō, G4937) him hardly (mogis, G3425) departeth from him. And I besought (deomai, G1189) thy disciples to cast (ekballō, G1544) him out; and they could (dunamai, G141) not. And Jesus answering said, O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer (anechomai, G430) you? Bring thy son hither. And as he was yet a coming, the devil (daimonion, G1140) threw (rhēgnumi, G4486) him down, and tare (susparassō, G4952) him. And Jesus rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit, and healed (iaomai, G2390) the child (pais, G3816), and delivered (apodidōmi, G591) him again to his father."

is part of our identity in Christ, although many of us are uncomfortable with it. Yet, when we cooperate with the Holy Spirit to be made into the image of Christ, we can put on the faith of the Son of God.

"Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified."

Romans 8:26-30 ESV

"Likewise the Spirit also helpeth (sunantilambanomai, G4878) our infirmities (astheneia, G769): for we know not what we should pray for as we ought (dei, G1163): but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for (huperentugchanō, G5241) us with groanings (stenagmos, G4726) which cannot be uttered (alalētos, G215). And he that searcheth (ereunaō, G2045) the hearts (kardia, G2588) knoweth (eidō, G1492) what is the mind (phronēma, G5427) of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession (entugchanō, G1793) for the saints (hagios, G40) according to the will of God. And we know (eidō, G1492) that all things work together (sunergeō, G4903) for good (agathos, G18) to them that love (agapaō, G25) God, to them who are the called (klētos, G2822) according to his purpose (prothesis, G4286). For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate (proorizō, G4309) to be conformed (summorphos, G4832) to the image (eikōn, G1504) of his Son, that he might be the firstborn (prōtotokos, G4416) among many brethren (adelphos, G80). Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified (dikaioō, G1344): and whom he justified, them he also glorified (doxazō, G1392)."

and "greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

"Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error."

"Beloved (agapētos, G27), believe not every spirit, but try (dokimazō, G1381) the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets (pseudoprophētēs, G5578) are gone out into the world (kosmos, G2889). Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth (homologeō, G3670) that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh (sarx, G4561) is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. Ye are of God, little children (teknon, G5040), and have overcome (nikaō, G3528) them: because greater (meizōn, G3187) is he that is in (en, G1722) you, than he that is in the world (kosmos, G2889). They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth (akouō, G191) us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error (planē, G4106)."

1 John 4:1-6 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.4.1-6.KJV>

The Apostle Paul was one who had great faith, boldness, and the power of God,

"And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into John's baptism." And Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus." On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. There were about twelve men in all. And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God. But when some became stubborn and continued in unbelief, speaking evil of the Way before the congregation, he withdrew from them and took the disciples with him, reasoning daily in the hall of Tyrannus. This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. And God was doing extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, so that even handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were carried away to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them... So the word of the Lord continued to increase and prevail mightily."

Acts 19:1-12, 20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.19.1-20.ESV>

"And it came to pass, that, while Apollos (Apollōs, G625) was at Corinth (Korinthos, G2882), Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus (Ephesos, G2181); and finding certain disciples, he said unto them, Have ye received (lambanō, G2983) the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance (metanoia, G3341), saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands (cheir, G5495) upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues (glōssa, G1100), and prophesied (prophēteuō, G4395). And all the men were about twelve. And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly (parrhēsiazomai, G3955) for the space of three months, disputing (dialegomai, G1256) and persuading (peithō, G3982) the things concerning the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God. But when divers (tis, G5100) were hardened (sklērunō, G4645), and believed not, but spake evil (kakologeō, G2551) of that way (hodos, G3598) before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing (dialegomai, G1256) daily in the school (scholē, G4981) of one Tyrannus (Turannos, G5181). And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia (G773) heard the word (logos, G3056) of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought (poieō, G4160) special (tugchanō, G5177) miracles (dunamis, G1411) by the hands (cheir, G5495) of Paul: so that from his body (chrōs, G5559) were brought unto (epipherō, G2018) the sick (astheneō, G770) handkerchiefs (soudarion, G4676) or aprons (simikinthion, G4612), and the diseases (nosos, G3554) departed (apallassō, G525) from them, and the evil (ponēros, G4190) spirits (pneuma, G4151) went out (exerchomai, G1831) of them... So mightily (kratos, G2904) grew (auxanō, G837) the word (logos, G3056) of God and prevailed (ischuō, G2480)."

Acts 19:1-12, 20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/oct.19.1-20.KJV>

"I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. I urge you, then, be imitators of me. That is why I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church. Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power. For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power."

1 Corinthians 4:14-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.4.14-20.ESV>

"I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved (agapētos, G27) sons (teknon, G5043) I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand (murioi, G3463) instructors (paidagōgos, G3807) in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers (patēr, G3962): for in Christ Jesus I have begotten (gennaō, G1080) you through the gospel (euggelion, G2098). Wherefore I beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you, be ye followers (mimētēs, G3402) of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved (agapētos, G27) son, and faithful (pistos, G4103) in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways (hodos, G3598) which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church (ekklēsia, G1577). Now some are puffed up (phusioō, G5448), as though I would not come to you. But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord (kurios, G2962) will (thelō, G2309), and will know (ginōskō, G1097), not the speech (logos, G3056) of them which are puffed up (phusioō, G5448), but the power (dunamis, G1411). For the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not in word (logos, G932), but in power (dunamis, G1411)."

1 Corinthians 4:14-20 KJV

which enabled him to say, "...thanks be to God, who in Christ leads us in triumphal procession..." (2 Corinthians 2:14).

"But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God's word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ."

2 Corinthians 2:14-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.2.14-17.ESV>

"Now thanks (charis, G5485) be unto God, which always (pantote, G3842) causeth us to triumph (thriambeuō, G2358) in Christ, and maketh manifest (phaneroō, G5319) the savour of his knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by us in every place (topos, G5117). For we are unto God a sweet savour (euōdia, G2175) of Christ, in them that are saved (sōzō, G4982), and in them that perish (apollumi, G622): to the one we are the savour (osmē, G3744) of death (thanatos, G2288) unto death; and to the other the savour of life (zōē, G2222) unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, which corrupt (kapēleuō, G2585) the word (logos, G3056) of God: but as of sincerity (eilikrineia, G1505), but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

2 Corinthians 2:14-17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.2.14-17.KJV>

Paul understood that all things are under Christ's feet

"For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For "God has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "all things are put in subjection," it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all."

1 Corinthians 15:21-28 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.15.21-28.ESV>

"For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam (G76) all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive (zōopoieō, G2227). But every man in his own order (tagma, G5001): Christ the firstfruits (aparchē, G536); afterward they that are Christ's at his coming (parousia, G3952). Then cometh the end (telos, G5056), when he shall have delivered up (paradidōmi, G3860) the kingdom (basileia, G932) to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down (katargeō, G2673) all rule and all authority (exousia, G1849) and power (dunamis, G1411). For he must reign (basileuō, G936), till he hath put all enemies (echthros, G2190) under his feet (pous, G4228). But when he saith all things are put under (hupotassō, G5293) him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto (hupotassō, G5293) him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all."

and that he was hidden in Christ.

"If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God."

Colossians 3:1-3 ESV

"If ye then be risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) Christ, seek (zēteō, G2212) those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. Set your affection (phroneō, G5426) on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead (apothnēskō, G599), and your life (zōē, G2222) is hid (kruptō, G2928) with Christ (Christos, G5547) in God."

Colossians 3:1-3 KJV

Prayer: Thank You for sharing who You are, Almighty God. Thank You for entrusting Your church to be Your ambassadors to take up Your will and Your mission.

"For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

2 Corinthians 5:14-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.5.14-20.ESV>

"For the love (agapē, G26) of Christ (Christos, G5547) constraineth (sunechō, G4912) us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead (apothnēskō, G599); and that he died for all, that they which live (zaō, G2198) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh (sarx, G4561): yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in (en, G1722) Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God."

"Epaphras (G1889), who is one of you, a servant (doulos, G1401) of Christ, saluteth (aspazomai, G782) you, always (pantote, G3842) labouring fervently (agōnizomai, G75) for you in prayers, that ye may stand (histēmi, G2476) perfect (teleios, G5046) and complete (plēroō, G4137) in all (pas, G3956) the will (thelēma, G2307) of God."

"So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Acts 1:6-8 ESV

And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power (exousia, G1849). But ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) power (dunamis, G1411), after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you (eperchomai, G1903): and ye shall be witnesses (martus, G3144) unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part (eschatos, G2078) of the earth."

I praise You for putting the treasure of the Spirit of God in us as jars of clay.

"For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us... Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God."

2 Corinthians 4:5-7, 13-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.5-15.ESV>

"For we preach (kērussō, G2784) not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants (doulos, G1401) for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light (phōs, G5457) to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts (kardia, G2588), to give the light (phōtismos, G5462) of the knowledge of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have (echō, G2192) this treasure in earthen (ostrakinos, G3749) vessels, that the excellency of the power (dunamis, G1411) may be of God, and not of us... We having (echō, G2192) the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant (pleonazō, G4121) grace (charis, G5485) might through the thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) of many redound (perisseuō, G4052) to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God."

1 Corinthians 14:12 KJV

"And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love."

Return to Day 30

Day 31: Wholeness (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the wholeness that Jesus Christ can bring to those who are His.
2. How did Jesus bring wholeness to people to in His in-person ministry?
3. How did the early church bring wholeness to people as they continued Jesus' ministry?
4. What gifts of the Spirit enable us in His church to bring wholeness to others?
5. How does God desire for you to be made whole and to bring wholeness to others?

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,"

Psalms 103:2-3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.103.2-3.ESV>

"Bless the LORD, O my soul (nephesh, H5315), And forget not all his benefits (gemûl, H1576): Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth (râphâ', H7495) all thy diseases (tachalû', H8463);"

Psalms 103:2-3 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/psa.103.2-3.KJV>

There is life and healing in the love of God, as shown in Jesus Christ.

Jesus is the fulfillment of the redemptive purpose and the redemptive names of God. One of those names is Jehovah Rapha, or "I am the Lord who heals you" (Exodus 15:26).

"Then Moses made Israel set out from the Red Sea, and they went into the wilderness of Shur. They went three days in the wilderness and found no water. When they came to Marah, they could not drink the water of Marah because it was bitter; therefore it was named Marah. And the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?" And he cried to the Lord, and the Lord showed him a log, and he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the Lord made for them a statute and a rule, and there he tested them, saying, "If you will diligently listen to the voice of the Lord your God, and do that which is right in his eyes, and give ear to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you that I put on the Egyptians, for I am the Lord, your healer." Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they encamped there by the water."

Exodus 15:22-27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/exo.15.22-27.ESV>

"So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur (shûr, H7793); and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. And when they came to Marah (mârâh, H4785), they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah. And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? And he cried (tsâ'aq, H6817) unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet (mâthaq, H4985): there he made for them a statute (chôq, H2706) and an ordinance (mishpât, H4941), and there he proved (nâsâh, H5254) them, and said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do ('âśâh, H6213) that which is right (yâshâr, H3477) in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put (śûm, H7760) none of these diseases (machaleh, H4245) upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) that healeth (râphâ', H7495) thee. And they came to Elim ('êylim, H362), where were twelve wells ('ayin, H5869) of water, and threescore and ten palm trees (tâmâr, H8558): and they encamped there by the waters."

As part of our faith in God, we can come to Jesus in faith, trusting Him as our healer

'who his own self bare (anapherō, G399) our sins (hamartia, G266) in his own body on the tree (xulon, G3586), that we, being dead (apogenomenos, G581) to sins, should live (zaō, G2198) unto righteousness (diakiosunē, G1343): by whose stripes (mōlōpes, G3468) ye were healed (iaomai, G2390).'

1 Peter 2:24 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1PE.2.24>

'And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. For she said, "If I touch even his garments, I will be made well." And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him, immediately turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my garments?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, 'Who touched me?' " And he looked around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease." '

Mark 5:25-34 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.5.25-34>

'And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, and had suffered (paschō, G3958) many things of many physicians (iatros, G2395), and had spent (dapanaō, G1159) all that she had, and was nothing bettered (ōpheleō, G5623), but rather grew worse, when she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched (haptomai, G680) his garment. For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole (sōzō, G4982). And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up (xērainō, G3583); and she felt in her body that she was healed (iaomai, G2390) of that plague (mastix, G3148). And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue (dunamis, G1411) had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had done (poieō, G4160) this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he said unto her, Daughter (thugatēr, G2364), thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982); go in peace (eirēnē, G1515), and be whole (hugiēs, G5199) of thy plague. '

'Go (poreuomai, G4198) ye therefore, and teach (mathēteuō, G3100) all nations (ethnos, G1484), baptizing (baptizō, G906) them in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Father (patēr, G3962), and of the Son, and of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost: teaching (didaskō, G1321) them to observe (tēreō, G50083) all things whatsoever I have commanded (entellomai, G1781) you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end (sunteleia, G4930) of the world (aiōn, G165). Amen (amēn, G281).'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.28.19-20>

'He presented himself alive to them after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.'

'to whom also he shewed himself alive (zaō, G2198) after his passion (paschō, G3958) by many infallible proofs (tekmērion, G5039), being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God: and, being assembled together with them, commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them that they should not depart (chōrizō, G5563) from Jerusalem, but wait for (perimēno, G4037) the promise (epaggelia, G1860) of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized (baptizō, G907) with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost not many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again (apokathistēmi, G600) the kingdom (basileia, G932) to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times (chronos, G5550) or the seasons (kairos, G2540), which the Father hath put in (tithēmi, G5087) his own power (exousia, G1849). But ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) power (dunamis, G1411), after that the Holy Ghost is come upon (eperchomai, G1904) you: and ye shall be witnesses (martus, G1344) unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part (eschatos, G2078) of the earth. Jesus was a healer, and He didn't leave people sick as He ministered. Neither did His apostles. Jesus healed all that came to Him,

' And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, those oppressed by demons, those having seizures, and paralytics, and he healed them. And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.4.23-25>

'And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the kingdom (basileia, G932), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) all manner of sickness (nosos, G3554) and all manner of disease (malakia, G3119) among the people. And his fame (akoē, G189) went throughout all Syria (Suria, G4947): and they brought unto (prospherō, G4374) him all sick (kakōs, G2560) people (echō, G2192) that were taken with (sunechō, G4912) divers (poikilos, G4164) diseases and torments (basanos, G931), and those which were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139), and those which were lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and those that had the palsy (paralutikos, G3885); and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) them. And there followed (akolouthēō, G190) him great multitudes of people from Galilee (Galilaia, G1056), and from Decapolis (Dekapolis, G1179), and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa (Ioudaia, G2449), and from beyond Jordan (Iordanēs, G2446).'

Healing is part of the fullness of redemption in the atonement of Jesus Christ in fulfillment of Isaiah 53: "He Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses" (Matthew 8:17, NKJV).

'That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "He took our illnesses and bore our diseases." '

Matthew 8:16-17 ESV

'When the even (opsios, G3798) was come, they brought (prospherō, G4374) unto him many that were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139): and he cast out (ekballō, G1544) the spirits with his word (logos, G3056), and healed (therapeuō, G2323) all that were sick (kakōs, G2560): that it might be fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) which was spoken by Esaias (Hēsaïas, G2268) the prophet, saying, Himself took (lambanō, G2983) our infirmities (astheneia, G769), and bare (bastazō, G941) our sicknesses (nosos, G3554).'

Matthew 8:16-17 KJV

' Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. '

Isaiah 53:4-6 ESV

'Surely he hath borne (nâšâ', H5375) our griefs (cholîy, H2483), and carried (sâbal, H5445) our sorrows (mak'ôb, H4341): yet we did esteem (châshab, H2803) him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded (châlâl, H2490) for our transgressions, he was bruised (dâkâ', H1792) for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace (shâlôm, H7965) was upon him; and with his stripes (chabbûrâh, H2250) we are healed (râphâ', H7495). All we like sheep have gone astray (tâ'âh, H8582); we have turned every one to his own way (derek, H1870); and the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) hath laid on (pâga', H6293) him the iniquity ('âvôn, H5771) of us all. '

Healing is a sign that confirms the gospel of the kingdom preached by evangelists.

'Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover." So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]'

'Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided (oneidezō, G3679) them with their unbelief (apistia, G570) and hardness of heart (sklērokardia, G4641), because they believed (pisteuō, G4100) not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go (poreuomai, G4198) ye into all the world (kosmos, G2889), and preach (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) to every creature (ktisis, G2937). He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) and is baptized (baptizō, G907) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); but he that believeth not shall be damned (katakrinō, G2632). And these signs (sēmeion, G4592) shall follow (parakoloutheō, G3877) them that believe; In my name (onoma, G3686) shall they cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140); they shall speak with new (kainos, G2537) tongues (glōssa, G1100); they shall take up (airō, G142) serpents (ophis, G3789); and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt (blaptō, G984) them; they shall lay (epitithēmi, G2007) hands (cheir, G5495) on the sick (arrhōstos, G732), and they shall (echō, G2192) recover (kalōs, G2573). So then after the Lord (kurios, G2962) had spoken unto them, he was received up (analambanō, G353) into heaven, and sat on (kathizō, G2523) the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. And they went forth (exerchomai, G1831), and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord (kurios, G2962) working with (sunergeō, G4903) them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word (logos, G3056) with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (epakoloutheō, G1872). 'And Peter, fastening his eyes (atenizō, G816) upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed (epechō, G1907) unto them, expecting (prosdokaō, G4328) to receive (lambanō, G2983) something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have (huparchō, G5225) I none; but such as I have (echō, G2192) give (didōmi, G1325) I thee: In the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ of Nazareth (Nazōraios, G3480) rise up (egeirō, G1453) and walk (peripateō, G4043). And he took (piazo, G4084) him by the right hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted him up (egeirō, G1453); and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength (stereoō, G4732). And he leaping up (hallomai, G242) stood (histēmi, G2476), and walked (peripateō, G4043), and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping (hallomai, G242), and praising (aineō, G134) God"

Acts 3:4-8 KJV

'Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well... And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness, while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus." And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. '

'Then Peter, filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, if we this day be examined of the good deed (euergesia, G2108) done to the impotent (asthenēs, G772) man, by what means he is made whole (sōzō, G4982); be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole (hugiēs, G5199)... And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto (didōmi, G1325) thy servants (doulos, G1401), that with all boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) they may speak thy word (logos, G3056), by stretching forth (ekteinō, G1614) thine hand (cheir, G5495) to heal (iasis, G2392); and that signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059) may be done (ginomai, G1096) by the name (onoma, G3686) of thy holy child Jesus. And when they had prayed (deomai, G1189), the place was shaken (saleuō, G4531) where they were assembled together; and they were all filled (plēthō, G4130) with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word (logos, G3056) of God with boldness (parrhēsia, G3954). And the multitude (plēthos, G4128) of them that believed were of one heart (kardia, G2588) and of one soul (psuchē, G5590): neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed (huparchonta, G5224) was his own; but they had all things common (koinos, G2839). And with great power (dunamis, G1411) gave (apodidōmi, G591) the apostles

(apostolos, G652) witness (marturion, G3142) of the resurrection of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus: and great grace (charis, G5485) was upon them all'

'And it came to pass in Iconium (Ikonion, G2430), that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds (psuchē, G5590) evil affected (kakoō, G2559) against the brethren. Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly (parrhēsiazomai, G3955) in the Lord, which gave testimony (martureō, G3140) unto the word (logos, G3056) of his grace (charis, G5485), and granted (didōmi, G1325) signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059) to be done (ginomai, G1096) by their hands (cheir, G5495). Jesus also called healing "the children's bread" (Matthew 15:26), something that belongs to God's children.

' And Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and was crying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely oppressed by a demon." But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us." He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." And he answered, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." Then Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly. '

Matthew 15:21-28 ESV

'Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre (Turos, G5184) and Sidon (Sidōn, G4605). And, behold, a woman of Canaan (Canaanaios, G5478) came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously (kakōs, G2560) vexed with a devil (daimonizomai, G1139). But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away (apoluō, G630); for she crieth (krazō, G2896) after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent (apostellō, G649) but unto the lost (apollumi, G622) sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped (proskuneō, G4352) him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet (kalos, G2570) to take the children's (teknon, G5043) bread (artos, G740), and to cast it to dogs (kunarion, G2952). And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt (thelō, G2309). And her daughter was made whole (iaomai, G2390) from that very hour. '

According to Jesus, His family includes those who do the word of God.

' Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it." '

Luke 8:19-21 ESV

'Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear (akouō, G191) the word (logos, G3056) of God, and do (poieō, G416) it. '

Luke 8:19-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.8.19-21>

"And he went up on the mountain and called to him those whom he desired, and they came to him. And he appointed twelve (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and he might send them out to preach and have authority to cast out demons. He appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter); James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder); Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. Then he went home, and the crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat. And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying, "He is out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "by the prince of demons he casts out the demons." And he called them to him and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house. "Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"—for they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit." And his mother and his brothers came, and standing outside they sent to him and called him. And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers are outside, seeking you." And he answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother."

"And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him. And he ordained (poieō, G4160) twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send (apostellō, G649) them forth to preach (kērussō, G2784), and to have (echō, G2192) power (exousia, G1849) to heal (therapeuō, G2323) sicknesses (nosos, G3554), and to cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140): and Simon he surnamed Peter; and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges (Boanerges, G993), which is, The sons of thunder (brontē, G1027): and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew (Matthaios, G3156), and Thomas, and James (Iakōbos, G2385) the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus (Thaddaios, G2280), and Simon the Canaanite (Kananitēs, G2581), and Judas (Ioudas, G2455) Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold (krateō, G2902) on him: for they said, He is beside (existēmi, G1839) himself. And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954), and by the prince (archōn, G758) of the devils (daimonion, G1140) casteth he out (ekballō, G1544) devils. And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables (parabolē, G3850), How can Satan (Satanas, G4567) cast out Satan? And if a kingdom (basileia, G932) be divided (merizō, G3307) against itself, that kingdom cannot (dunamai, G1410) stand (histēmi, G2476). And if a house (oikia, G3614) be divided against itself, that house cannot stand. And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. No man can (dunamai, G1410) enter into a strong man's (ischuros, G2478) house (oikia, G3614), and spoil (diarpazō, G1283) his goods (skeuos, G4632), except he will first bind (deō, G1210) the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies (blasphēmia, G988) wherewith soever they shall blaspheme (blasphēmeō, G987): but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy (hagios, G40)

Ghost (pneuma, G4151) hath never forgiveness (aphesis, G859), but is in danger (enochos, G1777) of eternal damnation (krisis, G2920): because they said, He hath an unclean (akathartos, G169) spirit. There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him. And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren? And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do (poieō, G 4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

The Apostle James wrote his letter to God's children who were young in the faith, saying they should call on elders in the church to pray a prayer of faith for the sick that they may be healed.

"Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven."

James 5:14-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.5.14-15.ESV>

"Is any sick (astheneō, G770) among you? let him call for the elders (presbuteros, G4245) of the church (ekklēsia, G1577); and let them pray over him, anointing (aleiphō, G218) him with oil (elaion, G1637) in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962): and the prayer (euchē, G2171) of faith (pistis, G4102) shall save (sōzō, G4982) the sick (komnō, G2577), and the Lord (kurios, G2962) shall raise (egeirō, G1453) him up; and if he have committed (poieō, G4160) sins, they shall be forgiven (aphiēmi, G863) him."

James 5:14-15 KJV

An elder is a mature believer, a person of unwavering faith,

"until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,"

Ephesians 4:13-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.13-15.ESV>

"till we all come (katantaō, G2658) in the unity (henotēs, G1775) of the faith (pistis, G4102), and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, unto the measure of the stature (hēlikia, G2244) of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of Christ (Christos, G5547): that we henceforth be no more children (nēpios, G3516), tossed to and fro (kludōnizomai, G2831), and carried about (peripherō, G4064) with every wind (anemos, G417) of doctrine, by the sleight (kubēia, G2940) of men, and cunning craftiness (panourgia, G3834), whereby they lie in wait (methodeia, G3180) to deceive (planē, G4106); but speaking the truth (alētheuō, G226) in love (agapē, G26), may grow up (auxanō, G837) into him in all things, which is the head (kephalē, G2776), even Christ:"

Ephesians 4:13-15 KJV

"But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways."

James 1:6-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.6-8.ESV>

"But let him ask (aiteō, G154) in faith (pistis, G4102), nothing wavering (diakrinō, G1252). For he that wavereth (diakrinō, G1252) is like a wave (kludōn, G2830) of the sea driven with the wind (anemizō, G216) and tossed (rhipizō, G4494). For let not that man think that he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) any thing of the Lord (kurios, G29620). A double minded (dipsuchos, G1374) man is unstable (akatastatos, G182) in all his ways (hodos, G3598)."

'Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit. '

'Confess (exomologeō, G1843) your faults (paraptōma, G3900) one to another (allēlōn, G240), and pray (euchomai, G2172) one for another, that ye may be healed (iaomai, G2390). The effectual fervent (energeō, G1754) prayer (deēsis, G1162) of a righteous man (dikaios, G1342) availeth (ischuō, G2480) much. Elias (Hēlias, G2243) was a man subject to like passions (homoioopathēs, G3663) as we are, and he prayed (proseuchomai, G4336) earnestly (proseuchē, G4335) that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. "And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching that the Christ is Jesus."

Acts 5:42 ESV

"And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach (euaggelizō, G2097) Jesus Christ."

Acts 5:42 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.5.42.KJV>

"Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word. Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ. And the crowds with one accord paid attention to what was being said by Philip, when they heard him and saw the signs that he did. For unclean spirits, crying out with a loud voice, came out of many who had them, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. So there was much joy in that city... Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit."

"Therefore they that were scattered abroad (diaspeirō, G1289) went every where (dierchomai, G1330) preaching (euaggelizō, G2097) the word (logos, G3056). Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached (kērussō, G2784) Christ unto them. And the people with one accord (homothumadon, G3661) gave heed (prosechō, G4337) unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles (sēmeion, G4592) which he did (poieō, G4160). For unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits, crying (boaō, G994) with loud voice, came out of (exerchomai, G1831) many that were possessed (echō, G2192) with them: and many taken with palsies (paraluō, G3886), and that were lame (chōlos, G5560), were healed (therapeuō, G2323). And there was great joy (chara, G5479) in that city... Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received (dechomai, G1209) the word (logos, G3056) of God, they sent unto (apostellō, G649) them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed (proseuchomai, G4336) for them, that they might receive (lambanō, G2983) the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost (pneuma, G4151): (for as yet he was fallen upon (epiptō, G1968) none of them: only they were baptized in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord Jesus.) Then laid they their hands (cheir, G5495) on them, and they received (lambanō, G2983) the Holy Ghost." Acts 8:4-8, 14-17 KJV

Gifts of healing are gifts of the Holy Spirit given to some in the body of Christ,

"Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ...Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way."

1 Corinthians 12:4-9, 27-31 ESV

"Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal (sumpherō, G4851). For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by the same Spirit; to another faith (pistis, G4102) by the same Spirit; to another the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386) by the same Spirit; ...Now ye are the body (sōma, G4983) of Christ (Christos, G5547), and members (melos, G3196) in particular (meros, G3313). And God hath set some in the church (ekklēsia, G1577), first apostles (apostolos, G652), secondarily prophets (prophētēs, G4396), thirdly teachers (didaskalos, G1320), after that miracles (dunamis, G1411), then gifts (charisma, G5486) of healings (iama, G2386), helps, governments, diversities (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100). Are all apostles (apostolos, G652)? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles (dunamis, G1411)? Have all the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386)? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret (diर्मēneuō, G1329)? But covet earnestly (zēloō, G2206) the best (kreittōn, G2909) gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent (huperbolē, G5236) way (hodos, G3598)."

And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and began walking. "And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent (adunatos, G102) in his feet, being a cripple (chōlos, G5560) from his mother's womb, who never had walked (peripateō, G4043): the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding (atenizō, G816) him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed (sōzō, G4982), said with a loud voice (phōnē, G5456), Stand (anistēmi, G450) upright on thy feet. And he leaped (hallomai, G242) and walked (peripateō, G4243). He revealed that the key to this resurrection life flowing out of him by the Spirit to others was "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27)

"Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For Christians in the West, we at least believe that God wants our spirits and minds healthy and whole. Along with a significant part of the worldwide church, I contend also, as Jesus Christ did

"He went on from there and entered their synagogue. And a man was there with a withered hand. And they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—so that they might accuse him. He said to them, "Which one of you who has a sheep, if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath." Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, healthy like the other. But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him. Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all"

"And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue: and, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered (xēros, G3584). And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful (exesti, G1832) to heal (therapeuō, G2323) on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do (poieō, G4160) well (kalōs, G2573) on the sabbath days. Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth (ekteinō, G1614) thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored (apokathistēmi, G600) whole (hugiēs, G5199), like as the other. Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy (apollumi, G622) him. But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) them all (pas, G3956);"

'Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Or do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, "The two will become one flesh." But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.'

What? know ye not that he which is joined (kollaō, G2853) to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh (sarx, G4561). But he that is joined (kallaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151). Flee (pheugō, G5343) fornication (porneia, G4202). Every sin that a man doeth (poieō, G4160) is without the body; but he that committeth fornication (porneuō, G4203) sinneth against his own body. And Jesus put forth his hand (cheir, G5495), and touched (haptomai, G680) him, saying, I will (thelō, G2309); be thou clean (katharizō, G2511). And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. '

Matthew 8:1-3 KJV

'While he was in one of the cities, there came a man full of leprosy. And when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged him, "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean." And Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I will; be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him. And he charged him to tell no one, but "go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a proof to them." But now even more the report about him went abroad, and great crowds gathered to hear him and to be healed of their infirmities. But he would withdraw to desolate places and pray. On one of those days, as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there, who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was with him to heal. And behold, some men were bringing on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him in and lay him before Jesus, but finding no way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" When Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answered them, "Why do you question in your hearts? Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" —he said to the man who was paralyzed—"I say to you, rise, pick up your bed and go home." And immediately he rose up before them and picked up what he had been lying on and went home, glorifying God. And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen extraordinary things today." ...And Jesus answered them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick."

'And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full (plērēs, G4134) of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), if thou wilt (thelō, G2309), thou canst (dunamai, G1410) make me clean (katharizō, G2511). And he put forth his hand (cheir, G5495), and touched (haptomai, G680) him, saying, I will (thelō, G2309): be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed (therapeuō, G2323) by him of their infirmities (astheneia, G769). And he withdrew himself into the wilderness (erēmos, G2048), and prayed (proseuchomai, G4336). And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees (Pharisaioi, G5330) and doctors of the law (nomodidaskalos, G3547) sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power (dunamis, G1411) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) was present to heal (iaomai, G2390) them. And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy (paraluō, G3886): and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven (aphiēmi, G863) thee. And the scribes (grammateus, G1122) and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies (blasphēmia, G988)? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But when Jesus perceived (epignōskō, G1921) their thoughts (dialogismos, G1261), he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts (kardia, G2588)? Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk (peripateō, G4043)? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath (echō, G2192) power (exousia, G1849) upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying (doxazō, G1392) God. And they were all amazed (ekstasis, G1611), and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day... And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole (hugiainō, G5198) need not a physician (iatros, G2395); but they that are sick (kakōs, G2560). ' and the Great Physician desires to quicken us with His resurrection life and strength.

' As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him. And as Jesus reclined at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard it, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."... While he was saying these things to them, behold, a ruler came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." And Jesus rose and followed him, with his disciples. And behold, a woman who had suffered from a discharge of blood for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, for she said to herself, "If I only touch his garment, I will be made well." Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly the woman was made well. And when Jesus came to the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. But when Jesus heard that , he said unto them, They that be whole (ischuō, G2480) need not a physician (iatros, G2395), but they that are sick (kakōs, G2560). But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will (thelō, G2309) have mercy (eleos, G1656), and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call (kaleō, G2564) the righteous (dikaios, G1342), but sinners (hamartōlos, G268) to repentance (metanoia, G3341)... While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped (proskuneō, G4352) him, saying, My daughter is even now dead (telutaō, G5053): but come and lay thy hand (cheir, G5495) upon her, and she shall live (zaō, G2198). And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood (aihmorrhēō, G131) twelve years, came behind him, and touched (haptomai, G680) the hem (kraspedon, G2899) of his garment: for she said (legō, G3004) within herself, if I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole (sōzō, G4982). But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter (thugatēr, G2364), be of good comfort (tharseō, G2293); thy faith (pistis, G4102) hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982). And the woman was made whole (sōzō, G4982) from that hour. And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels (aulētēs, G834) and the people making a noise (thorubeō, G2350), he said unto them, Give place (anachōreō, G402): for the maid (korasion, G2877) is not dead (apothnēskō, G599), but sleepeth (katheudō, G2518). And they laughed him to scorn (katagelaō, G2606). But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took (krateō, G2902) her by the hand (cheir, G5495), and the maid arose (egeriō, G1453). '

And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up (xērainō, G3583); and she felt in her body that she was healed (iaomai, G2390) of that plague (mastix, G3148). And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue (dunamis, G1411) had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had done (poieō, G4160) this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he said unto her, Daughter (thugatēr, G2364), thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982); go in peace (eirēnē, G1515), and be whole (hugiēs, G5199) of thy plague.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MRK.5.24-34>

'Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." ...Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. '

John 4:13-14,31-34 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.4.13-14,31-34>

'Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh (pinō, G4095) of this water shall thirst (dipsaō, G1372) again: but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give (didōmi, G1325) him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well (pēgē, G4077) of water springing up (hallomai, G242) into everlasting (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222)...In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will (thelēma, G2307) of him that sent me, and to finish (teleioō, G5048) his work.'

John 4:13-14,31-34 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.4.13-14,31-34>

'For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst... This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me... It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is no help at all. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. '

John 6:33-35,50-57,63 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.6.33-35,50-57,63>

'For the bread (artos, G740) of God is he which cometh down (katabainō, G2597) from heaven, and giveth (didōmi, G1325) life (zōē, G2222) unto the world (kosmos, G2889). Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore (pantote, G3842) give us this bread. And Jesus said unto them, I am (eimi, G1510) the bread of life (zōē, G2222): he that cometh to me shall never hunger (peinaō, G3983); and he that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me shall never thirst (dipsaō, G1372)... This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die (apothnēskō, G599). I am the living (zaō, G2198) bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give (didōmi, G1325) is my flesh, which I will give for the life (zōē, G2222) of the world. The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them, Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink (pinō, G4095) his blood, ye have (echō, G2192) no life (zōē, G2222) in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath (echō, G2192) eternal (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222); and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat (brōsis, G1035) indeed (alēthōs, G230), and my blood (aima, G129) is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him. As the living (zaō, G2198) Father (patēr, G3962) hath sent (apostellō, G649) me, and I live (zaō, G2198) by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live (zaō, G2198) by me... It is the spirit that quickeneth (zōopoieō, G2227); the flesh profiteth (ōpheleō, G5623) nothing: the words (rhēma, G4487) that I speak unto you, they are spirit (pneuma, G4151), and they are life (zōē, G2222). '

John 6:33-35,50-57,63 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.6.33-35,50-57,63>

' On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. '

John 7:37-39 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.7.37-39>

'In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried (krazō, G2896), saying (legō, G3004), If any man thirst (dipsaō, G1372), let him come unto (erchomai, G2064) me, and drink (pinō, G4095). He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (koilia, G2836) shall flow rivers (potamos, G4215) of living (zaō, G2198) water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive (lambanō, G2983): for the Holy Ghost was not yet given ; because that Jesus was not yet glorified (doxazō, G1392).)'

John 7:37-39 KJV

'If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. '

Romans 8:11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.11>

'But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell (oikeō, G3611) in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken (zōopoieō, G2227) your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth (enokeiō, G1774) in you.'

Romans 8:11 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.8.11>

'But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us... always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak, ...For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day.'

2 Corinthians 4:7,10-13,15-16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.4.7,10-13,15-16>

'But we have (echō, G2192) this treasure in earthen (ostrakinos, G3749) vessels, that the excellency of the power (dunamis, G1411) may be of God, and not of us... always bearing about (peripherō, G4064) in the body the dying (nekrōsis, G3500) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, that the life (zōē, G2222) also of Jesus might be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) in our body (sōma, G4983). For we which live (zaō, G2198) are alway delivered unto (paradidōmi, G3860) death for Jesus' sake, that the life (zōē, G2222) also of Jesus might be made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) in our mortal flesh. So then death (thanatos, G2288) worketh (energeō, G1754) in us, but life (zōē, G2222) in you. We having (echō, G2192) the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; ...For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant (pleonazō, G4121) grace (charis, G5485) might through the thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) of many redound (perisseuō, G4052) to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. For which cause we faint (ekkakeō, G1573) not; but though our outward man perish (diaphtheirō, G1311), yet the inward (esōthen, G2081) man is renewed (anakainōō, G341) day by day.'

Some may also consider wholeness to include financial prosperity. If He is to make any of us financially prosperous, this is for the generosity of giving to His will and purposes as well.

'You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God.'

2 Corinthians 9:11 ESV

'being enriched (ploutizō, G4148) in every thing to all bountifulness (haplotēs, G572), which causeth (katergazomai, G2716) through us thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) to God.'

'As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life. '

1 Timothy 6:17-19 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1TI.6.17-19>

'Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded (hupsēlophroneō, G5309), nor trust (elpizō, G1679) in uncertain riches (ploutos, G4149), but in the living (zaō, G2198) God, who giveth (parechō, G3930) us richly (plousiōs, G4146) all things to enjoy (apolausis, G619); that they do good (agathoergeō, G14), that they be rich (plouteō, G4147) in good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041), ready to distribute (eumetadotos, G2130), willing to communicate (koinōnikos, G2843); laying up in store (apothēsaurozō, G597) for themselves a good (kalos, G2570) foundation (themelios, G2310) against the time to come (mellō, G3195), that they may lay hold on (epilambanomai, G1949) eternal (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222).'

in demonstration of the kingdom of God that has come near.

"These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay."

Matthew 10:5-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.10.5-8.ESV>

"These twelve Jesus sent forth (apostellō, G649), and commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost (apollumi, G622) sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach (kērussō, G2784), saying, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven is at hand (eggizō, G1448). Heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (astheneō, G770), cleanse (katharizō, G2511) the lepers, raise (egeirō, G1453) the dead (nekros, G3498), cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140): freely (dōrean, G1432) ye have received (lambanō, G2983), freely (dōrean, G1432) give (didōmi, G1325)."

Matthew 10:5-8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.10.5-8.KJV>

' Then a demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the man spoke and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, "Can this be the Son of David?" But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons." Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can someone enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. '

Matthew 12:22-29 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.12.22-29>

'Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil (daimonizomai, G1139), blind, and dumb (kōphos, G2974): and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people were amazed (existēmi, G1839), and said, Is not this the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, but by Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954) the prince (archōn, G758) of the devils (daimonion, G1140). And Jesus knew their thoughts (enthumēsis, G1761), and said unto them, Every kingdom (basileia, G932) divided (merizō, G3307) against itself is brought to desolation (erēmoō, G2049); and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand (histēmi, G2476): and if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out (ekballō, G1544)? therefore they shall be your judges (kritēs, G2923). But if I cast out devils by the Spirit (pneuma, G4151) of God, then the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come unto (phthanō, G5348) you. Or else how can one enter into (eiserchomai, G1525) a strong man's (ischuros, G2478) house (oikia, G3614), and spoil (diarpazō, G1283) his goods (skeuos, G4632), except he first bind (deō, G1210) the strong man (ischuros, G2478)? and then he will spoil his house. Thank You for Your finished work and the resurrection life you give in fullness. Spirit of God, I praise You for Your work, Your power and Your love shed abroad in bringing freedom, health and wholeness. I love You with all that I am, and my will is to do all of Your will. Help me to assimilate Your love.

Return to Day 31

Day 32: Hope (scripture study)

Questions:

1. How does a focus on Jesus Christ in our lives allow us to expect good?
2. How does the presence of the Holy Spirit in us allow us to expect good?
3. What could be expected to happen to the church if it dropped everything else and lifted up the fullness of Jesus Christ?
4. What does it mean to be made as God's own glory?
5. Describe the hope of our rich inheritance in Jesus Christ.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

Romans 15:13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.15.13.ESV>

"We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name." And again it is said, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people." And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples extol him." And again Isaiah says, "The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope." May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

Romans 15:1-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.15.1-13.ESV>

"We then that are strong (dunatos, G1415) ought (opheilō, G3784) to bear (bastazō, G941) the infirmities (asthenēma, G771) of the weak (adunatos, G102), and not to please (areskō, G700) ourselves. Let every one of us please (areskō, G700) his neighbour (plēsion, G4139) for his good (agathos, G18) to edification (oikodomē, G3619). For even Christ pleased (areskō, G700) not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches (oneidismos, G3680) of them that reproached (oneidezō, G3679) thee fell (epiptō, G1968) on me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience (hupomonē, G5281) and comfort (paraklēsis, G3874) of the scriptures (graphē, G1124) might have hope (elpis, G1680). Now the God of patience (hupomonē, G5281) and consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) grant you to be likeminded (phroneō, G5426) one toward another (allēlōn, G240) according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind (homothumadon, G3661) and one mouth glorify (doxazō, G1392) God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive (prolambanō, G4355) ye one another (allēlōn, G240), as Christ also received (prolambanō, G4355) us to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God. Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister (diakonos, G1249) of the circumcision (peritomē, G4061) for the truth (alētheia, G225) of God, to confirm (bebaioō, G950) the promises (epaggelia, G1860) made unto the fathers (patēr, G3962): and that the Gentiles (ethnos, G1484) might glorify (doxazō, G1392) God for his mercy (eleos, G1656); as it is written, For this cause I will confess (exomologeō, G1843) to thee among the Gentiles, and sing (psallō, G5567) unto thy name. And again he saith, Rejoice (euphrainō, G2165), ye Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise (aineō, G134) the Lord, all ye Gentiles; And laud (epaineō, G1867) him, all ye people. And again, Esaias (Hēsaïas, G2268) saith, There shall be a root (rhiza, G4491) of Jesse (lessai, G2421), and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; In him shall the Gentiles trust (elpizō, G1679). Now the God of hope (elpis, G1680) fill (plēroō, G4137) you with all joy (chara, G5479) and peace (eirēnē, G1515) in believing (pisteuō, G4100), that ye may abound (perisseuō, G4052) in hope (elpis, G1680), through the power (dunamis, G1411) of the Holy Ghost."

Romans 15:1-13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.15.1-13.KJV>

Christ in you is "the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27).

"Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father. We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and increasing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.1.1-29.ESV>

'Paul, an apostle (apostolos, G652) of Jesus Christ by the will (thelēma, G2307) of God, and Timotheus (Timotheos, G5095) our brother (adelphos, G80), to the saints (hagios, G40) and faithful (pistos, G4103) brethren in Christ which are at Colosse (Kolossai, G2857): Grace (charis, G5485) be unto you, and peace (eirēnē, G1515), from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We give thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always (pantote, G3842) for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love (agapē, G26) which ye have to all the saints, for the hope (elpis, G1680) which is laid up (apokeimai, G606) for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word (logos, G3056) of the truth (alētheia, G225) of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098); which is come unto (pareimi, G3918) you, as it is in all the world (kosmos, G2889); and bringeth forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592), as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace (charis, G5485) of God in truth: as ye also learned of Epaphras (G1889) our dear fellowservant (sundoulos, G4889), who is for you a faithful minister (diakonos, G1249) of Christ; who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire (aiteō, G154) that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with the knowledge of his will (thelēma, G2307) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678) and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) understanding (sunesis, G4907); that ye might walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the Lord (kurios, G2962) unto all pleasing, being fruitful (karpophoreō, G2592) in every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041), and increasing (auxanō, G837) in the knowledge of God; strengthened (dunamoō, G1412) with all might (dunamis, G1411), according to his glorious (doxa, G1391) power

(kratos, G2904), unto all patience (hupomonē, G5281) and longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115) with joyfulness (chara, G5479); giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) unto the Father, which hath made us meet (hikanoō, G2427) to be partakers (meris, G3310) of the inheritance (klēros, G2819) of the saints (hagios, G40) in light (phōs, G5457): who hath delivered (rhuomai, G4506) us from the power (exousia, G1849) of darkness (skotos, G4655), and hath translated (methistēmi, G3179) us into the kingdom (basileia, G932) of his dear (agapē, G26) Son: in whom we have redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) through his blood, even the forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins: Who is the image (eikōn, G1504) of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature (ktsis, G2937): for by him were all things created (ktizō, G2936), that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions (kuriotēs, G2963), or principalities (archē, G746), or powers (exousia, G1849): all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist (sunistaō, G4921). And he is the head (kephalē, G2776) of the body, the church (ekklēsia, G1577): who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence (prōteuō, G4409). For it pleased (eudokeō, G2106) the Father that in him should all fulness (plērōma, G4138) dwell (katoikeō, G2730); and, having made peace (eirēnopoieō, G1517) through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile (apokatallassō, G604) all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were sometime alienated (apallotrioō, G526) and enemies (echthros, G2190) in your mind (dianoia, G1271) by wicked (ponēros, G4190) works (ergon, G2041), yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable (amōmos, G299) and unreprieveable (anegklētos, G410) in his sight: if ye continue (epimenō, G1961) in the faith grounded (themelioō, G2311) and settled (hedraios, G1476), and be not moved away from the hope (elpis, G1680) of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098), which ye have heard, and which was preached (kērussō, G2784) to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; who now rejoice (chairō, G5463) in my sufferings (pathēma, G3804) for you, and fill up (antanaplēroō, G466) that which is behind (husterēma, G5303) of the afflictions (thlipsis, G2347) of Christ in my flesh for his body's (sōma, G4983) sake, which is the church (ekklēsia, G1577): whereof I am made a minister (diakonos, G1249), according to the dispensation (oikonomia, G3622) of God which is given (didōmi, G1325) to me for you, to fulfil (plēroō, G4137) the word (logos, G3056) of God; even the mystery (mustērion, G3466) which hath been hid (apokruptō, G613) from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest (phaneroō, G5319) to his saints (hagios, G40): to whom God would make known what is the riches (ploutos, G4149) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of this mystery (mustērion, G3466) among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope (elpis, G1680) of glory (doxa, G1391): whom we preach (kataggellō, G2605), warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); that we may present every man perfect (teleios, G5046) in Christ Jesus: whereunto I also labour, striving (agōnizomai, G75) according to his working (energeia, G1753), which worketh (energeō, G1754) in me mightily (dunamis, G1411).'

We let Jesus have the preeminence and lift Him up.

'Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus, and are faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.'

'Paul, an apostle (apostolos, G652) of Jesus Christ by the will (thelēma, G2307) of God, to the saints (hagios, G40) which are at Ephesus (Ephesos, G2181), and to the faithful (pistos, G4103) in Christ Jesus: Grace (charis, G5485) be to you, and peace (eirēnē, G1515), from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed (eulogētos, G2128) be the God and Father of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus Christ, who hath blessed (eulogeō, G2127) us with all spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) blessings (eulogia, G2129) in heavenly (epouranios, G2032) places in Christ (Christos, G5547): according as he hath chosen (eklegomai, G1586) us in him before the foundation (katabolē, G2602) of the world, that we should be holy and without blame (amōmos, G299) before him in love (agapē, G26): having predestinated (proorizō, G4309) us unto the adoption of children (uihothesia, G5206) by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) of his will (thelēma, G2307), to the praise of the glory (doxa, G1391) of his grace (charis, G5485), wherein he hath made us accepted (charitoō, G5487) in the beloved (agapaō, G25). In whom we have redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) through his blood, the forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485); wherein he hath abounded (perisseuō, G4052) toward us in all wisdom (sophia, G4678) and prudence (phronēsis, G5428); having made known unto us the mystery (mustērion, G3466) of his will (thelēma, G2307), according to his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) which he hath purposed (protithemai, G4388) in himself: that in the dispensation (oikonomia, G3622) of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of times (kairos, G2540) he might gather together in one (anakephalaiomai, G346) all things in Christ (Christos, G5547), both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: in whom also we have obtained an inheritance (klēroō, G2820), being predestinated (proorizō, G4309) according to the purpose (prothesis, G4286) of him who worketh (energeō, G1754) all things after the counsel (boulē, G1012) of his own will (thelēma, G2307): that we should be to the praise of his glory (doxa, G1391), who first trusted (proelpizō, G4276) in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word (logos, G3056) of truth (alētheia, G225), the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of your salvation (sōtēria, G4991): in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with (sphragizō, G4972) that holy Spirit of promise (epaggelia, G1860), which is the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of our inheritance (klēronomia, G2817) until the redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) of the purchased possession (peripoiēsis, G4047), unto the praise of his glory (doxa, G1391) Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory (doxa, G1391), may give unto you the spirit of wisdom (sophia, G4678) and revelation (apokalupsis, G602) in the knowledge (epignōsis, G1922) of him: the eyes (ophthalmos, G3788) of your understanding (dianoia, G1271) being enlightened (phōtizō, G5461); that ye may know what is the hope (elpis, G1680) of his calling (klēsis, G2821), and what the riches (ploutos, G4149) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of his inheritance (klēronomia, G2817) in the saints (hagios, G40), and what is the exceeding (huperballō, G5235) greatness (megethos, G3174) of his power (dunamis, G1411) to us-ward who believe (pisteuō, G4100), according to the working (energeia, G1753) of his mighty (ischus, G2479) power (kratos, G2904), which he wrought (energeō, G1754) in Christ (Christos, G5547), when he raised him from the dead (nekros, G3498), and set him at his own right hand (dexios, G1188) in the heavenly places (epouranios, G2032), far above all principality (archē, G746), and power (exousia, G1849), and might (dunamis, G1411), and dominion (kuriotēs, G2963), and every name (onoma, G3686) that is named (onomazō, G3687), not only in this world (aiōn, G165), but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under (hupotassō, G5293) his feet (pous, G4228), and gave (didōmi, G1325) him to be the head (kephalē, G2776) over all things to the church (ekklēsia, G1577), which is his body (sōma, G4983), the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of him that filleth (plēroō, G4137) all in all.'

The more He is held up, the more people will get in love with Him and drop everything else.

'For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death... For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.'

Christ in us, we already are (in our spirits) what we may have been waiting to become.

'For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God... And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.'

'For as many as are led (agō, G71) by the Spirit of God, they are the sons (uihos, G5207) of God. For ye have not received (lambanō, G2983) the spirit of bondage (douleia, G1397) again to fear (phobos, G5401); but ye have received the Spirit of adoption (uihotesia, G5206), whereby we cry, Abba (G5), Father (patēr, G3962). The Spirit itself beareth witness with (summartureō, G4828) our spirit, that we are the children (teknon, G5043) of God: and if children, then heirs (klēronomos, G2818); heirs of God, and joint-heirs (sugklēronomos, G4789) with Christ; if so be that we suffer with (sumpaschō, G4841) him, that we may be also glorified together (sundoxazō, G4888). For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory (doxa, G1391) which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation (apokaradokia, G603) of the creature waiteth (apekdechomai, G553) for the manifestation (apokalupsis, G602) of the sons (uihos, G5207) of God... And we know that all things work together for (sunergeō, G4903) good (agathos, G18) to them that love (agapaō, G25) God, to them who are the called (klētos, G2822) according to his purpose (prothesis, G4286). For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate (proorizō, G4309) to be conformed to (summorphos, G4832) the image (eikōn, G1504) of his Son, that he might be the firstborn (prōtotokos, G4416) among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified (dikaioō, G134); and whom he justified, them he also glorified (doxazō, G1392).'

Jesus and what He has already accomplished in His finished work is the hope for our families, our neighborhoods, and our nations.

"But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.""

The word (rhēma, G4487) is nigh (eggus, G1451) thee, even in thy mouth (stoma, G4750), and in thy heart (kardia, G2588): that is, the word of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kērussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed (kataischunō, G2617). For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek (Hellēn, G1672): for the same Lord over all is rich (plouteō, G4147) unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him. For whosoever shall call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord shall be saved (sōzō, G4982)."

For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling (sumpatheō, G4834) of our infirmities (astheneia, G769); but was in all points tempted (peirazō, G3985) like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly (parrhēsia, G3954) unto the throne of grace (charis, G5485), that we may obtain (lambanō, G2983) mercy (eleos, G1656), and find grace to help in time of need."

Galatians 2:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/gal.2.20.KJV>

"For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love... For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ...If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit."

Galatians 5:5-6, 13-14, 25 ESV

"For we through the Spirit wait for (apekdechomai, G553) the hope (elpis, G1680) of righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision (peritomē, G4061) availeth (ischuō, G2480) any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh (energeō, G1754) by love (agapē, G26)... For, brethren (adelphos, G80), ye have been called (kaleō, G2564) unto liberty (eleutheria, G1657); only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh (sarx, G4561), but by love (agapē, G26) serve (douleuō, G1398) one another. For all the law (nomos, G3551) is fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in one word (logos, G3056), even in this; thou shalt love (agapaō, G25) thy neighbour (plēsion, G4139) as thyself... If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit."

and the love of the Son of God, led by the Spirit of God — until God has made this hope complete.

' Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience (hupomonē, G5281); and patience, experience (dokimē, G1382); and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love (agapē, G26) of God is shed abroad (ekcheō, G1682) in our hearts (kardia, G1688) by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.'

If ye keep (tēreō, G5083) my commandments, ye shall abide (menō, G3306) in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy (chara, G5479) might remain (menō, G3306) in you, and that your joy might be full (plēroō, G4137)."

John 15:7-11 KJV

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

Romans 15:13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.15.13.ESV>

"Now the God of hope (elpis, G1680) fill (plēroō, G4137) you with all joy (chara, G5479) and peace (eirēnē, G1515) in believing (pisteuō, G4100), that ye may abound (perisseuō, G4052) in hope (elpis, G1680), through the power (dunamis, G1411) of the Holy Ghost."

Romans 15:13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.15.13.KJV>

Prayer: I praise You for Your fullness, God, and that You have shared it with me in Christ. You are my hope, for You are able to do far more abundantly than all I ask or think, according to the power You have at work within me. To You be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

"For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen."

Ephesians 3:14-21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.3.14-21.ESV>

"For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his glory (doxa, G1391), to be strengthened with might (dunamis, G1411) by his Spirit in the inner (esō, G2080) man; that Christ may dwell (katoikeō, G2730) in your hearts (kardia, G2588) by faith; that ye, being rooted (rhizoō, G4492) and grounded (themeiloō, G2311) in love (agapē, G26), may be able (exischuō, G1840) to comprehend (katalambanō, G2638) with all saints (hagios, G40) what is the breadth, and length, and depth (bathos, G899), and height (hupsos, G5311); and to know (ginōskō, G1097) the love (agapē, G26) of Christ, which passeth (huperballō, G5235) knowledge (gnōsis, G1108), that ye might be filled (plēroō, G4137) with all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of God. Now unto him that is able (dunamai, G1410) to do (poieō, G4160) exceeding abundantly above all that we ask (aiteō, G154) or think (noieō, G3539), according to the power (dunamis, G1411) that worketh (energeō, G1754) in us, unto him be glory (doxa, G1391) in the church (ekklēsia, G1577) by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen (amēn, G281)."

Return to Day 32

Day 33: Overflowing life (scripture study)

Questions:

1. Describe the rivers of living water to which Jesus referred.
2. How does the indwelling Holy Spirit fill us with resurrection life that overflows?
3. How are we designed to let that life that is in us overflow?
4. In what ways that Jesus has brought life to people may we bring life to the people we know and encounter?
5. How will you be a channel of God's overflowing life this year?

"On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified."

John 7:37-39 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.7.37-39.ESV>

"In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried (krazō, G2896), saying (legō, G3004), If any man thirst (dipsaō, G1372), let him come unto (erchomai, G2064) me, and drink (pinō, G4095). He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (koilia, G2836) shall flow rivers (potamos, G4215) of living (zaō, G2198) water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive (lambanō, G2983): for the Holy Ghost was not yet given ; because that Jesus was not yet glorified (doxazō, G1392).)"

John 7:37-39 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.7.37-39.KJV>

In Christ, we start in new life, resurrected with Jesus by the same Spirit that raised Him from the dead.

"If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you."

Romans 8:11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.11.ESV>

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell (oikeō, G3611) in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken (zōopoieō, G2227) your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth (enokeiō, G1774) in you."

Romans 8:11 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.8.11.KJV>

This is the miracle-working power of God.

Abiding in Christ, He gives us fullness of life from His own fullness,

"For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace."

John 1:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.1.16.ESV>

"And of his fulness (plērōma, G4138) have all we received (lambanō, G2983), and grace (charis, G5485) for grace."

John 1:16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.1.16.KJV>

and causes His resurrection life to flow out of us.

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'"

John 7:38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.7.38.ESV>

"He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (koilia, G2836) shall flow rivers (potamos, G4215) of living (zaō, G2198) water."

John 7:38 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.7.38.KJV>

"And he came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. And those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came out from him and healed them all."

Luke 6:17-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.6.17-19.ESV>

"And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed (iaomai, G2390) of their diseases (nosos, G3554); and they that were vexed (ochleō, G3791) with unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits: and they were healed (therapeuō, G2323). And the whole multitude sought to touch (haptomai, G680) him: for there went (exerchomai, G1831) virtue (dunamis, G1411) out of (para, G3844) him, and healed (iaomai, G2390) them all."

Luke 6:17-19 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.6.17-19.KJV>

"For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power."

1 Corinthians 4:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.4.20.ESV>

"For the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not in word (logos, G3056), but in power (dunamis, G1411)."

1 Corinthians 4:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.4.20.KJV>

"Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak,"

2 Corinthians 4:13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.13.ESV>

"We having the same spirit (pneuma, G4151) of faith (pistis, G4102), according as it is written, I believed (pisteuō, G4100), and therefore have I spoken (laleō, G2980); we also believe, and therefore speak;"

2 Corinthians 4:13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.4.13.KJV>

"To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ."

2 Thessalonians 1:11-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2th.1.11-12.ESV>

"grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ... 'Wherefore also we pray always (pantote, G3842) for you, that our God would count you worthy (axioō, G515) of this calling (klēsis, G2821), and fulfil (plēroō, G4137) all the good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) of his goodness (agathōsunē, G19), and the work (ergon, G2041) of faith with power (dunamis, G1411): that the name (onoma, G3686) of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified (endoxazō, G1740) in you, and ye in him, according to the grace (charis, G5485) of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ."

2 Thessalonians 1:11-12 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2th.1.11-12.KJV>

This is life in God.

He is the Giver,

"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

2 Corinthians 9:7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.9.7.ESV>

"Every man according as he purposeth (proaireomai, G4255) in his heart (kardia, G2588), so let him give; not grudgingly (lupē, G3077), or of necessity (anagkē, G318): for God loveth (agapaō, G25) a cheerful (hilaros, G2541) giver (dotēs, G1395)."

2 Corinthians 9:7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.9.7.KJV>

"In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Acts 20:35 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.20.35.ESV>

"I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring (kopiaō, G2872) ye ought to support (antilambanomai, G482) the weak (astheneō, G770), and to remember the words (logos, G3056) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed (makarios, G3107) to give (didōmi, G1325) than to receive (lambanō, G2983)."

Acts 20:35 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.20.35.KJV>

"His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire."

2 Peter 1:3-4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2pe.1.3-4.ESV>

"according as his divine power (dunamis, G1411) hath given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us all things that pertain unto life (zōē, G2222) and godliness (eusebeia, G2150), through the knowledge of him that hath called (kaleō, G2564) us to glory (doxa, G1391) and virtue (aretē, G703): whereby are given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us exceeding great (megistos, G3176) and precious (timios, G5003) promises: that by these ye might be (ginomai, G1096) partakers (koinōnos, G2844) of the divine nature (phusis, G5449), having escaped the corruption (phthora, G5356) that is in the world (kosmos, G2889) through lust (epithumia, G1939)."

2 Peter 1:3-4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2pe.1.3-4.KJV>

and as His ambassadors

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

2 Corinthians 5:17-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.5.17-20.ESV>

"Therefore if any man be in (en, G1722) Christ, he is a new (kainos, G2537) creature (ktisis, G2937): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new (kainos, G2537). And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God."

2 Corinthians 5:17-20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.5.17-20.KJV>

we come to share in the generosity of God's giving in its various forms.

"And proclaim as you go, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay."

Matthew 10:7-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.10.7-8.ESV>

"And as ye go, preach (kērussō, G2784), saying, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven is at hand (eggizō, G1448). Heal the sick (astheneō, G770), cleanse (katharizō, G2511) the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils (daimonion, G1140): freely (dōrean, G1432) ye have received (lambanō, G2983), freely (dōrean, G1432) give (didōmi, G1325)."

Matthew 10:7-8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.10.7-8.KJV>

"Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord... Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

Romans 12:6-11, 21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.6-21.ESV>

"Having (echō, G2192) then gifts (charisma, G5486) differing (diaphoros, G1313) according to the grace (charis, G5485) that is given (didōmi, G1325) to us, whether prophecy (prophēteia, G4394), let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith (pistis, G4102); or ministry (diakonia, G1248), let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth (parakaleō, G3870), on exhortation (paraklēsis, G3874): he that giveth (metadidōmi, G3330), let him do it with simplicity (haplotēs, G572); he that ruleth (proistēmi, G4291), with diligence; he that sheweth mercy (eleeō, G1653), with cheerfulness (hilarotēs, G2432). Let love (agapē, G26) be without dissimulation (anupokritos, G505). Abhor (apostugeō, G655) that which is evil (ponēros, G4190); cleave (kallaō, G2853) to that which is good (agathos, G18). Be kindly affectioned (philostorgos, G5387) one to another with brotherly love (philadelphia, G5360); in honour preferring one another; not slothful in business (spoudē, G4710); fervent (zeō, G2204) in spirit; serving (douleuō, G1398) the Lord; ...Be not overcome (nikaō, G3528) of evil (kakos, G2556), but overcome evil with good (agathos, G18)."

Romans 12:6-11, 21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.12.6-21.KJV>

"Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way."

1 Corinthians 12:27-31 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.12.27-31.ESV>

"Now ye are the body (sōma, G4983) of Christ (Christos, G5547), and members (melos, G3196) in particular (meros, G3313). And God hath set some in the church (ekklēsia, G1577), first apostles (apostolos, G652), secondarily prophets (prophētēs, G4396), thirdly teachers (didaskalos, G1320), after that miracles (dunamis, G1411), then gifts (charisma, G5486) of healings (iama, G2386), helps, governments, diversities (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100). Are all apostles (apostolos, G652)? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles (dunamis, G1411)? Have all the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386)? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret (diērmēneuō, G1329)? But covet earnestly (zēloō, G2206) the best (kreittōn, G2909) gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent (hyperbolē, G5236) way (hodos, G3598)."

1 Corinthians 12:27-31 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.12.27-31.KJV>

"As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life."

1 Timothy 6:17-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ti.6.17-19.ESV>

"Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded (hupsēlophroneō, G5309), nor trust (elpizō, G1679) in uncertain riches (ploutos, G4149), but in the living (zaō, G2198) God, who giveth (parechō, G3930) us richly (plousiōs, G4146) all things to enjoy (apolausis, G619); that they do good (agathoergeō, G14), that they be rich (plouteō, G4147) in good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041), ready to distribute (eumetadotos, G2130), willing to communicate (koinōnikos, G2843); laying up in store (apothēsaurozō, G597) for themselves a good (kalos, G2570) foundation (themelios, G2310) against the time to come (mellō, G3195), that they may lay hold on (epilambanomai, G1949) eternal (aiōnios, G166) life (zōē, G2222)."

1 Timothy 6:17-19 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1ti.6.17-19.KJV>

Partners in His grace and compassion,

"And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel."

Philippians 1:6-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/php.1.6-7.ESV>

"being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041) in you will perform (epiteleō, G2005) it until the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is meet (dikaios, G1342) for me to think this of you all, because I have (echō, G2192) you in my heart (kardia, G2588); inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence (apologia, G627) and confirmation of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098), ye all are partakers (sugkoinōnos, G4791) of my grace (charis, G5485)."

Philippians 1:6-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/php.1.6-7.KJV>

"Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

Ephesians 4:32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.32.ESV>

"and be ye kind (chrēstos, G5543) one to another (allēlōn, G240), tenderhearted (euspagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Ephesians 4:32 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.4.32.KJV>

"Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God."

Ephesians 5:1-2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.5.1-2.ESV>

"Be (ginomai, G1096) ye therefore followers (mimētēs, G3402) of God, as dear (agapētos, G27) children; and walk (peripateō, G4043) in love (agapē, G26), as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for (paradidōmi, G3860) us an offering (prophora, G4376) and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling (euōdia, G2175) savour."

Ephesians 5:1-2 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.5.1-2.KJV>

we give life, seeking more and more thanksgiving and glory to be given to God.

"But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us... For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh... For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God."

2 Corinthians 4:7, 11, 15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.7-15.ESV>

"But we have (echō, G2192) this treasure in earthen (ostrakinos, G3749) vessels, that the excellency of the power (dunamis, G1411) may be of God, and not of us... For we which live (zaō, G2198) are alway delivered (paradidōmi, G3860) unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life (zōē, G2222) also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal (thnētos, G2349) flesh... For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant (pleonazō, G4121) grace (charis, G5485) might through the thanksgiving (eucharistia, G2169) of many redound (perisseuō, G4052) to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God."

2 Corinthians 4:7, 11, 15 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.4.7-15.KJV>

"The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others,"

2 Corinthians 9:6-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.9.6-13.ESV>

"But this I say, He which soweth sparingly (pheidomenōs, G5340) shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully (eulogia, G2129) shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth (proaireomai, G4255) in his heart (kardia, G2588), so let him give; not grudgingly (lupē, G3077), or of necessity: for God loveth (agapaō, G25) a cheerful (hilarios, G2431) giver (dotēs, G1395). And God is able (dunatos, G1415) to make all grace (charis, G5485) abound (perisseuō, G4052) toward you; that ye, always (pantote, G3842) having (echō, G2192) all sufficiency (autarkeia, G841) in all things, may abound (perisseuō, G4052) to every good (agathos, G18) work (ergon, G2041): (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad (skorpizō, G4650); he hath given to the poor: His righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) remaineth (menō, G3306) for ever. Now he that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) seed (sperma, G4690) to the sower both minister (chorēgeō, G5524) bread for your food, and multiply (plēthunō, G4129) your seed sown, and increase (auxanō, G837) the fruits (gennēma, G1081) of your righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343);) being enriched (ploutizō, G4148) in every thing to all bountifulness (haplotēs, G572), which causeth (katēgazomai, G2716) through us thanksgiving (eucharista, G2169) to God. For the administration (diakonia, G1248) of this service not only supplieth (prosanaplēroō, G4322) the want of the saints, but is abundant (perisseuō, G4052) also by many thanksgivings (eucharistia, G2169) unto God; whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify (doxazō, G1392) God for your professed (homologia, G3671) subjection unto the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of Christ, and for your liberal (haplotēs, G572) distribution (koinōnia, G2842) unto them, and unto all men;"

Abiding in Him, enthroned at the right hand of God,

"and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all."

Ephesians 1:19-23 ESV

“and what is the exceeding (huperballō, G5235) greatness (megethos, G3174) of his power (dunamis, G1411) to us-ward who believe (pisteuō, G4100), according to the working (energeia, G1753) of his mighty (ischus, G2479) power (kratos, G2904), which he wrought (energeō, G1754) in Christ (Christos, G5547), when he raised him from the dead (nekros, G3498), and set him at his own right hand (dexios, G1188) in the heavenly places (epouranios, G2032), far above all principality (archē, G746), and power (exousia, G1849), and might (dunamis, G1411), and dominion (kuriotēs, G2963), and every name (onoma, G3686) that is named (onomazō, G3687), not only in this world (aiōn, G165), but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under (hupotassō, G5293) his feet (pous, G4228), and gave (didōmi, G1325) him to be the head (kephalē, G2776) over all things to the church (ekklēsia, G1577), which is his body (sōma, G4983), the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of him that filleth (plēroō, G4137) all in all.”

Ephesians 1:19-23 KJV

“But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,”

Ephesians 2:4-6 ESV

“But God, who is rich (plousios, G4145) in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead (nekros, G3498) in sins (paraptōma, G3900), hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ, (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together (sunegeirō, G4891), and made us sit together (sugkathizō, G4776) in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:”

the Spirit of God makes us fruitful. His will is for you to bear fruit that will last.

"By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples... You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you."

John 15:8, 16 ESV

"Herein is my Father glorified (doxazō, G1392), that ye bear much fruit (karpos, G2590); so shall ye be (ginomai, G1096) my disciples...Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen (eklegomai, G1586) you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go (hupagō, G5217) and bring forth (pherō, G5342) fruit, and that your fruit should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you."

John 15:8, 16 KJV

"So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.' "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock."

Matthew 7:17-25 ESV

"Ye shall know (epiginōskō, G1921) them by their fruits (karpos, G2590). Do men gather grapes of thorns (akantha, G173), or figs of thistles (tribolos, G5146)? Even so every good (agathos, G18) tree bringeth forth (poieō, G4160) good (kalos, G2570) fruit; but a corrupt (sapos, G4550) tree bringeth forth evil (ponēros, G4190) fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down (ekkoptō, G1581), and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know (epiginōskō, G1921) them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, shall enter into (eiserchomai, G1525) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven; but he that doeth (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of my Father (patēr, G3962) which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied (prophēteuō, G4395) in thy name (onoma, G3686)? and in thy name have cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils (daimonion, G1140)? and in thy name done (poieō, G4160) many wonderful works (dunamis, G1411)? And then will I profess (homologeō, G3670) unto them, I never knew (ginōskō, G1097) you: depart from me, ye that work (ergazomai, G2038) iniquity (anomia, G458). Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings (logos, G3056) of mine, and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will liken him unto a wise (phronimos, G5429) man, which built (oikodomeō, G3618) his house (oikia, G3614) upon a rock (petra, G4073): and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded (themelioō, G2311) upon a rock."

"Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. For while we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code."

Romans 7:4-6 ESV

"Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead (thanatoō, G2289) to the law (nomos, G3551) by the body of Christ; that ye should be married (ginomai, G1096) to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592) unto God. For when we were in the flesh (sarx, G4561), the motions (pathēma, G3804) of sins, which were by the law (nomos, G3551), did work (energeō, G1754) in our members (melos, G3196) to bring forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592) unto death (thanatos, G2288). But now we are delivered (katargeō, G2673) from the law, that being dead (apothnēskō, G599) wherein we were held (katechō, G2722); that we should serve (douleuō, G1398) in newness (kainotēs, G2538) of spirit (pneuma, G4151), and not in the oldness (palaiotēs, G3821) of the letter (gramma, G1121)."

"For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery... For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love... For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ...But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law... If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit."

"Stand fast (stēkō, G4739) therefore in the liberty (eleutheria, G1657) wherewith Christ (Christos, G5547) hath made us free (eleutheroō, G1659), and be not entangled (enechō, G1758) again with the yoke (zugos, G2218) of bondage (douleia, G1397)... For we through the Spirit wait for (apekdechomai, G553) the hope (elpis, G1680) of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) by faith. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision (peritomē, G4061) availeth (ischuō, G2480) any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh (energeō, G1754) by love (agapē, G26)... For, brethren (adelphos, G80), ye have been called (kaleō, G2564) unto liberty (eleutheria, G1657); only use not liberty for an occasion (aphormē, G874) to the flesh (sarx, G4561), but by love (agapē, G26) serve (douleuō, G1398) one another (allēlōn, G240). For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself... But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, meekness (praotēs, G4236), temperance (egkrateia, G1466): against such there is no law.... If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit."

'Now at Iconium they entered together into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands... Now at Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was crippled from birth and had never walked. He listened to Paul speaking. And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and began walking... and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled. And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. '

'And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected (kakoō, G2559) against the brethren. Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly (parrhēsiaomai, G3955) in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace (charis, G5485), and granted signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (tera, G5059) to be done (ginomai, G1096) by their hands (cheir, G5495)... And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent (adunatos, G102) in his feet, being a cripple (chōlos, G5560) from his mother's womb, who never had walked (peripateō, G4043): the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding (atenizō, G816) him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed (sōzō, G4982), said with a loud voice (phōnē, G5456), Stand (anistēmi, G450) upright on thy feet. And he leaped (hallomai, G242) and walked (peripateō, G4243)... and thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace (charis, G5485) of God for the work (ergon, G2041) which they fulfilled (plēroō, G4137). And when they were come, and had gathered the church (ekklēsia, G1577) together, they rehearsed all that God had done (poieō, G4160) with (meta, G3326) them, and how he had opened the door (thura, G2374) of faith unto the Gentiles. Ephesians 1:3, 22-23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.1.3-23.ESV>

"Blessed (eulogētos, G2128) be the God and Father of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus Christ, who hath blessed (eulogeō, G2127) us with all spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) blessings (eulogia, G2129) in heavenly (epouranios, G2032) places in Christ (Christos, G5547): ...and hath put all things under (hupotassō, G5293) his feet (pous, G4228), and gave (didōmi, G1325) him to be the head (kephalē, G2776) over all things to the church (ekklēsia, G1577), which is his body (sōma, G4983), the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of him that filleth (plēroō, G4137) all in all."

Ephesians 1:3, 22-23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.1.3-23.KJV>

"For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control."

2 Timothy 1:6-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.1.6-7.ESV>

"Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5485) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given (didōmi, G1325) us the spirit (pneuma, G4151) of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995)."

2 Timothy 1:6-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2ti.1.6-7.KJV>

'For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. '

Titus 2:11-14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/TIT.2.11-14>

'For the grace (charis, G5485) of God that bringeth salvation (sōtērion, G4992) hath appeared (epiphainō, G2014) to all men, teaching us that, denying (ameomai, G720) ungodliness and worldly (kosmos, G2886) lusts, we should live (zaō, G2198) soberly (sōphronōs, G4996), righteously (dikaiōs, G1346), and godly, in this present world; looking for (prosdechomai, G4327) that blessed (makarios, G3107) hope (elpis, G1680), and the glorious (doxa, G1391) appearing of the great God and our Saviour (sōtēr, G1990) Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547); who gave himself for us, that he might redeem (lutroō, G3084) us from all iniquity, and purify (katharizō, G2511) unto himself a peculiar (periousios, G4041) people, zealous (zēlōtēs, G2207) of good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041).'

Titus 2:11-14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/TIT.2.11-14>

As Christ is now, so are we in this world.

"So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world."

1 John 4:16-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.4.16-17.ESV>

"And we have known and believed the love (agapē, G26) that God hath (echō, G2192) to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth (menō, G3306) in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect (teleioō, G5048), that we may have boldness (parrhēsia, G3954) in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world."

1 John 4:16-17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.4.16-17.KJV>

As a member of God's church, You are a channel of the living God and every good thing.

Let's believe the Word of God given to us. Let's nourish it, causing it to grow and do what God designed it to do: bear fruit, demonstrate His love, generously give, make things right, bring freedom, multiply.

Prayer: I praise You that You are alive in me, Jesus, and in Your beloved church. Thank You for who You have made us in Your image and likeness, God, transforming us into the image of Christ, from one degree of glory to another.

"And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit."

2 Corinthians 3:18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.3.18.ESV>

"But we all, with open (anakaluptō, G343) face beholding as in a glass (katopritzomai, G2734) the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Lord, are changed (metamorphoō, G3339) into the same image (eikōn, G1504) from glory (doxa, G1391) to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

2 Corinthians 3:18 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.3.18.KJV>

I believe it. I seek first Your kingdom and Your righteousness.

"But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you."

Matthew 6:33 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.33.ESV>

"But seek (zēteō, G2212) ye first (prōton, G4412) the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God, and his righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and all these things shall be added unto you."

Matthew 6:33 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.6.33.KJV>

I intensely desire to see spiritual results, the fulfillment of Your will.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied."

Matthew 5:6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.5.6.ESV>

"Blessed are they which do hunger (peinaō, G3983) and thirst (dipsaō, G1372) after righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): for they shall be filled (chortazō, G5526)."

Matthew 5:6 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.5.6.KJV>

Thank You for making me a co-worker with You,

"For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building."

1 Corinthians 3:9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.3.9.ESV>

"For we are labourers together (sunergos, G4904) with God: ye are God's husbandry (geōrgion, G1091), ye are God's building (oikodomē, G3619)"

1 Corinthians 3:9 KJV

a doer of Your Word,

"But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves."

James 1:22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.22.ESV>

"But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves" led by You, Holy Spirit. I attune my spirit with You, Spirit of God, for action in Your will.

James 1:22 KJV

"Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.10.ESV>

"Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come (erchomai, G2604). Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done (ginomai, G1096) in earth, as it is in heaven"

Return to Day 33

The Christian life (scripture study)

Questions:

1. From what must we be saved?
2. What does God require of us to be saved?
3. How can the salvation of God be expected to transform us in this life?
4. What is God's work and what is our work in growing us up into the image of Jesus Christ?
5. Where are you in the process of growth in the Christian life, and what is God leading you to do next?

It is important to know that you are saved and then to cooperate with God to keep on growing in your faith while you follow Christ. Here are the stages of spiritual life as I see them laid out in the Bible.

1. Although made in God's image and loved by God, our spirits are dead, in need of resurrection, and our eternal destination is hell. We live in sin and disobedience.

"for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,"

Romans 3:23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.3.23.ESV>

"for all have sinned, and come short of the glory (doxa, G1391) of God;"

Romans 3:23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.3.23.KJV>

"And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind."

Ephesians 2:1-3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.1-3.ESV>

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead (nekros, G3498) in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked (peripateō, G4043) according to the course of this world (kosmos, G2889), according to the prince (archōn, G758) of the power (exousia, G1849) of the air, the spirit that now worketh (energeō, G1754) in the children of disobedience (apeitheia, G543): among whom also we all had our conversation (anastrepho, G390) in times past in the lusts of our flesh (sarx, G4561), fulfilling (poieō, G4160) the desires (thelēma, G2307) of the flesh and of the mind (dianoia, G1271); and were by nature (phusis, G5449) the children (teknon, G5043) of wrath (orgē, G3709), even as others."

Ephesians 2:1-3 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.2.1-3.KJV>

To be made alive, we must be ready to: a) give up the worldly, self-serving life we live that brings death;

"Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world."

1 John 2:15-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.2.15-16.ESV>

"Love (agapaō, G25) not the world (kosmos, G2889), neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love (agapē, G26) of the Father (patēr, G3962) is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust (epithumia, G1939) of the flesh (sarx, G4561), and the lust of the eyes (ophthalmos, G3788), and the pride (alazoneia, G212) of life (bios, G979), is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world (kosmos, G2889) passeth away (paragō, G3855), and the lust (epithumia, G1939) thereof: but he that doeth (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of God abideth (menō, G3306) for ever."

1 John 2:15-16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.2.15-16.KJV>

b) count the cost of following Christ over ourselves and the world.

"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple."

Luke 14:26-33 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.14.26-33.ESV>

"If any man come (erchomai, G2064) to me, and hate (miseō, G3404) not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life (psuchē, G5590) also, he cannot (dunamai, G1410) be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear (bastazō, G941) his cross (stauros, G4716), and come after (erchomai, G2064) me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending (thelō, G2309) to build (oikodomeō, G3618) a tower (purgos, G4444), sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have (echō, G2192) sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able (ischuō, G2480) to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth (bouleuō, G1011) whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an embassy (presbeia, G4242), and desireth conditions of peace (eirēnē, G1515). So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh (apotassomai, G657) not all that he hath (huparchonta, G5224), he cannot be my disciple."

Luke 14:26-33 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.14.26-33.KJV>

If we love life in the world and think it brings life and freedom apart from choosing God's will for our lives, why give it up or change? Why fall on our knees before God? God must bring us to a place where we are poor in spirit and ready for a divine work and leading to change everything.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."

Matthew 5:3-5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.5.3-5.ESV>

"Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the poor (ptōchos, G4434) in spirit (pneuma, G4151): for theirs is the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven. Blessed (makarios, G3107) are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted (parakaleō, G3870). Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the meek (praus, G4239): for they shall inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) the earth."

Matthew 5:3-5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.5.3-5.KJV>

2. Through a work of God's spirit, in our soul and mind, we believe the gospel, and that God, who is good and generous, has better for us both now and later.

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

Ephesians 2:4-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.4-10.ESV>

"But God, who is rich (plousios, G4145) in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead (nekros, G3498) in sins (paraptōma, G3900), hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ, (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace (charis, G5485) are ye saved (sōzō, G4982) through faith (pistis, G4102); and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (dōron, G1435) of God: not of works (ergon, G2041), lest any man should boast (kauchaomai, G2744). For we are his workmanship (poiēma, G4161), created (ktizō, G2936) in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) unto good (agathos, G18) works (ergon, G2041), which God hath before ordained (proetoimazō, G4282) that we should walk (peripateō, G4043) in them."

Ephesians 2:4-10 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.2.4-10.KJV>

We confess that Jesus is Lord with our lips, and we decide to follow Christ, to love and obey God despite the cost.

"because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Romans 10:9-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.9-13.ESV>

"that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed (kataischunō, G2617). For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek (Hellēn, G1672): for the same Lord over all is rich (plouteō, G4147) unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him. For whosoever shall call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord shall be saved (sōzō, G4982)."

Romans 10:9-13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.10.9-13.KJV>

We die with Christ, are raised with Him in life,

"We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life... So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus."

Romans 6:4, 11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.6.4-11.ESV>

"Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Father, even so we also should walk (peripateō, G4043) in newness (kainotēs, G2538) of life (zōē, G2222)... Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive (zaō, G2198) unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Romans 6:4, 11 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.6.4-11.KJV>

"I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

Galatians 2:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/gal.2.20.ESV>

"I am crucified with (sustauroō, G4957) Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live (zaō, G2198) in the flesh (sarx, G4561) I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave (paradidōmi, G3860) himself for me."

Galatians 2:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/gal.2.20.KJV>

"having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses,"

Colossians 2:12-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.2.12-13.ESV>

"buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead (nekros, G3498) in your sins (paraptōma, G3900) and the uncircumcision (akrobustia, G203) of your flesh (sarx, G4561), hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven you all trespasses (paraptōma, G3900)"

Colossians 2:12-13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.2.12-13.KJV>

and are joined to His spirit; our spirit becomes alive in us with Jesus' resurrection life.

"But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him."

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.6.17.ESV>

"But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit (pneuma, G4151)"

1 Corinthians 6:17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.6.17.KJV>

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified."

John 7:38-39 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.7.38-39.ESV>

"He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (koilia, G2836) shall flow rivers (potamos, G4215) of living (zaō, G2198) water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive (lambanō, G2983): for the Holy Ghost was not yet given ; because that Jesus was not yet glorified (doxazō, G1392).)"

John 7:38-39 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.7.38-39.KJV>

The Word of God has taken root in us as an imperishable seed,

"And other seeds fell into good soil and produced grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold." ...But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold."

Mark 4:8, 20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.4.8-20.ESV>

"And other fell on good (kalos, G2570) ground, and did yield fruit (karpos, G2590) that sprang up (anabainō, G305) and increased (auxanō, G837); and brought forth (pherō, G5342), some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred... And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word (logos, G3056), and receive (paradechomai, G3858) it, and bring forth fruit (karpophoreō, G2592), some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred."

Mark 4:8, 20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.4.8-20.KJV>

“since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God;”

1 Peter 1:23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1pe.1.23.ESV>

“being born again (anagennaō, G313), not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible (aphthartos, G862), by the word (logos, G3056) of God, which liveth (zaō, G2198) and abideth (menō, G3306) for ever.”

1 Peter 1:23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1pe.1.23.KJV>

yet we will likely not exhibit the characteristics of Christ's nature right away.

3. We begin as carnal, worldly Christians

“For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God’s law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.”

Romans 8:6-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.6-8.ESV>

For to be carnally (sarx, G4561) minded (phronēma, G5427) is death (thanatos, G2288); but to be spiritually minded is life (zōē, G2222) and peace (eirēnē, G1515). Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.’

Romans 8:6-8 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.8.6-8>

“But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ.”

1 Corinthians 3:1 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.3.1.ESV>

“And I, brethren (adelphos, G80), could not speak unto you as unto spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152), but as unto carnal (sarkikos, G4559), even as unto babes (nēpios, G3516) in Christ.”

1 Corinthians 3:1 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.3.1.KJV>

“When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways.”

1 Corinthians 13:11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.13.11.ESV>

"When I was a child (nēpios, G3516), I spake as a child, I understood (phroneō, G5426) as a child, I thought (logizomai, G3049) as a child: but when I became a man, I put away (katargeō, G2673) childish things (nēpios, G3516)."

1 Corinthians 13:11 KJV

"In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world."

Galatians 4:3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/gal.4.3.ESV>

"Even so we, when we were children (nēpios, G3516), were in bondage (douloō, G1402) under the elements (stoicheion, G4747) of the world (kosmos, G2889):"

Galatians 4:3 KJV

"so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes."

Ephesians 4:14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.14.ESV>

'that we henceforth be no more children (nēpios, G3516), tossed to and fro (kludōnizomai, G2831), and carried about (peripherō, G4064) with every wind (anemos, G417) of doctrine, by the sleight (kubeia, G2940) of men, and cunning craftiness (panourgia, G3834), whereby they lie in wait (methodeia, G3180) to deceive (planē, G4106);'

who start maturing. Our soul (mind, will, emotions) dominates us, and we struggle against our flesh that wants to take control.

"For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?"

Romans 7:15-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.7.15-24.ESV>

"For that which I do (katergazomai, G2716) I allow (ginōskō, G1097) not: for what I would (thelō, G2309), that do (prassō, G4238) I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do (poieō, G4160) that which I would (thelō, G2309) not, I consent unto the law that it is good (kalos, G2570). Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh (sarx, G4561),) dwelleth no good thing (agathos, G18): for to will (thelō, G2309) is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil (kakos, G2556) which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would (thelō, G2309) do (poieō, G4160) good (kalos, G2570), evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warring against (antistrateuomai, G497) the law of my mind (nous, G3563), and bringing me into captivity (aichmalōtizō, G163) to the law of sin which is in my members (melos, G3196). O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver (rhuomai, G4506) me from the body of this death (thanatos, G2288)?"

We begin growing through prayer (through which we know God),

"But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you."

Matthew 6:6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.6.ESV>

"But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward (apodidōmi, G591) thee openly."

Matthew 6:6 KJV

"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1th.5.16-18.ESV>

"Rejoice (chairō, G5463) evermore (pantote, G3842). Pray without ceasing (adialeiptōs, G89). In every thing give thanks (eucharisteō, G2168): for this is the will (thelēma, G2307) of God in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) concerning you."

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen... And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him."

Hebrews 11:1, 6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.11.1-6.ESV>

"Now faith is the substance (hupostasis, G5287) of things hoped (elpizō, G1679) for, the evidence (elegchos, G1650) of things not seen... But without faith (pistis, G4102) it is impossible (adunatos, G102) to please him : for he that cometh to God must believe (pisteuō, G4100) that he is, and that he is a rewarder (misthapodotēs, G3406) of them that diligently seek (ekzēteō, G1567) him."

Bible reading (through which we know the words of God),

"But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work."

2 Timothy 3:14-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.3.14-17.ESV>

"But continue (menō, G3306) thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able (dunamai, G1410) to make thee wise (sophizō, G4679) unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991) through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God (theopneustos, G2315), and is profitable for doctrine (didaskalia, G1319), for reproof (elegchos, G1650), for correction (epanorthōsis, G1882), for instruction (paideia, G3809) in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): that the man of God may be perfect (artios, G739), thoroughly furnished (exartizō, G1822) unto all good (agathos, G18) works (ergon, G2041)."

Romans 12:4-5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.4-5.ESV>

"For as we have many members (melos, G3196) in one body, and all members have (echō, G2192) not the same office (praxis, G4234): so we, being many (polus, G4183), are one body in Christ (Christos, G5547), and every one members one of another (allēlōn, G240)"

Romans 12:4-5 KJV

"And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near."

Hebrews 10:24-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.10.24-25.ESV>

"and let us consider (katanoeō, G2657) one another (allēlōn, G240) to provoke (paroxusmos, G3948) unto love (agapē, G26) and to good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041): not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting (parakaleō, G3870) one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching (eggizō, G1448)."

Hebrews 10:24-25 KJV

We are still significantly affected by the cares of the world and our emotions.

"Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain... And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful."

Mark 4:7, 18-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.4.7-19.ESV>

'And some fell among thorns (akantha, G173), and the thorns grew up (anabainō, G305), and choked (sumpnigō, G4846) it, and it yielded no fruit (karpos, G2590)... And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word (logos, G3056), and the cares (merimna, G3308) of this world (aiōn, G165), and the deceitfulness of riches (ploutos, G4149), and the lusts (epithumia, G1939) of other things entering in (eisporeuomai, G1531), choke (sumpnigō, G4846) the word, and it becometh unfruitful (akarpōs, G175). '

"Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world."

1 John 2:15-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.2.15-16.ESV>

"Love (agapaō, G25) not the world (kosmos, G2889), neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love (agapē, G26) of the Father (patēr, G3962) is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust (epithumia, G1939) of the flesh (sarx, G4561), and the lust of the eyes (ophthalmos, G3788), and the pride (alazoneia, G212) of life (bios, G979), is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world (kosmos, G2889) passeth away (paragō, G3855), and the lust (epithumia, G1939) thereof: but he that doeth (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of God abideth (menō, G3306) for ever."

We must continue to die to self (or shed layers of self to become more like the image of Christ, whose spirit is within us).

"But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

Matthew 16:23-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.16.23-25.ESV>

"But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee (hupagō, G5217) behind (opisō, G3694) me, Satan (Satanas, G4567): thou art an offence (skandalon, G4625) unto me: for thou savourest (phroneō, G5526) not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after (erchomai, G2064) me, let him deny (aparneomai, G533) himself, and take up (airō, G142) his cross (stauros, G4716), and follow (akolouthēō, G190) me. For whosoever will save (sōzō, G4982) his life (psuchē, G5590) shall lose (apollumi, G622) it: and whosoever will lose (apollumi, G622) his life (psuchē, G5590) for my sake shall find (heuriskō, G2147) it."

"Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die (apothnēskō, G599), it abideth (menō, G3306) alone (monos, G3441): but if it die, it bringeth forth (pherō, G5342) much fruit (karpos, G2590). He that loveth (phileō, G5368) his life (psuchē, G5590) shall lose (apollumi, G622) it; and he that hateth (miseō, G3404) his life in this world (kosmos, G2889) shall keep (phulassō, G5442) it unto life (zōē, G2222) eternal (aiōnios, G166)."

4. We continue to mature spiritually as we make right choices, dying to self by choosing to love God over self interest,

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might."

Deuteronomy 6:5 ESV

"So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. "If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love (agapē, G26), if any fellowship (koinōnia, G2842) of the Spirit, if any bowels (splagchnon, G4698) and mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), fulfil (plēroō, G4137) ye my joy (chara, G5479), that ye be likeminded (autos phroneō, G846+G5426), having the same love (agapē, G26), being of one accord (sumpsuchos, G4861), of one mind (phroneō, G5426). Let nothing be done through strife (eritheia, G2052) or vainglory (kenodoxia, G2754); but in lowliness of mind (tapeinophrosunē, G5012) let each esteem other better than (huperechō, G5242) themselves. Look (skopeō, G4648) not every man on his own things (heautou, G1438), but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind (phroneō, G5426) be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: ...For all seek (zēteō, G2212) their own (heautou, G1438), not the things which are Jesus Christ's."

choosing victory over sin,

'Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.'

Hebrews 12:1-4 ESV

'Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about (perikeimai, G4029) with so great (tosoutos, G5118) a cloud (nephos, G3509) of witnesses (martus, G3144), let us lay aside (apotithēmi, G659) every weight (ogkos, G3591), and the sin which doth so easily beset us (euperistatos, G2139), and let us run (trechō, G5143) with patience (hupomonē, G5281) the race (agōn, G73) that is set before (prokeimai, G4295) us, looking unto (aphorāō, G872) Jesus (lēsous, G2424) the author (achēgos, G747) and finisher (teleiōtēs, G5051) of our faith (pistis, G4102); who for the joy (chara, G5479) that was set before (prokeimai, G4295) him endured (hupomenō, G5278) the cross, despising (kataphroneō, G2706) the shame (aischunē, G152), and is set down (kathizō, G2523) at the right hand (dexios, G1188) of the throne (thronos, G2362) of God. For consider him that endured (hupomenō, G5278) such contradiction (antilogia, G485) of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied (kamnō, G2577) and faint (ekluō, G1590) in your minds (psuchē, G5590). Ye have not yet resisted (antikathistēmi, G478) unto blood (aima, G129), striving (antagōnizomai, G464) against sin.'

Hebrews 12:1-4 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/HEB.12.1-4>

'You know that he appeared in order to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him; and he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God.'

1 John 3:5-9 ESV

'And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth (menō, G3306) in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children (teknion, G5040), let no man deceive (planaō, G4105) you: he that doeth (poieō, G4160) righteousness (dikaiousunē, G1343) is righteous (dikaios, G1342), even as he is righteous. He that committeth (poieō, G4160) sin (hamartia, G266) is of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for the devil sinneth (hamartanō, G264) from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested (phaneroō, G5319), that he might destroy (luō, G3089) the works (ergon, G2041) of the devil. Whosoever is born (gennaō, G1080) of God doth not commit sin; for his seed (sperma, G4690) remaineth (menō, G3306) in him: and he cannot (dunamai, G1410) sin, because he is born (gennaō, G1080) of God.'

John 15:1,4-5 ESV

' I am the true (alēthinos, G228) vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092)... Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch (klēma, G2814) cannot bear (pherō, G5342) fruit (karpos, G2590) of itself, except it abide (menō, G3306) in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide (menō, G3306) in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth (pherō, G5342) much fruit: for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do nothing.'

John 15:1,4-5 KJV

we grow in intimacy with God, making God first in our lives. We begin to bear more of the fruit of the Spirit, or the characteristics of Christ's nature.

'But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. '

Galatians 5:22-25 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.5.22-25>

'But the fruit (karpos, G2590) of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy (chara, G5479), peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness (agathōsunē, G19), faith, meekness (praotēs, G4236), temperance (egkrateia, G1466): against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified (stauroō, G4717) the flesh (sarx, G4561) with the affections and lusts (epithumia, G1939). If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit'

It is by one's fruit, including and especially our godlike-love for others, that it becomes evident we actually abide in Christ. A tree is known by its fruit.

' "For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit, for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thornbushes, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. '

Luke 6:43-44 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.6.43-44>

'For a good (kalos, G2570) tree bringeth not forth (poieō, G4160) corrupt (sapos, G4550) fruit (karpos, G2590); neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good (kalos, G2570) fruit. For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.'

Luke 6:43-44 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.6.43-44>

"We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth."

1 John 3:14-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.3.14-18.ESV>

"We know that we have passed from death unto life (zōē, G2222), because we love (agapaō, G25) the brethren (adelphos, G80). He that loveth not his brother abideth (menō, G3306) in death. Whosoever hateth (miseō, G3404) his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding (menō, G3306) in him. Hereby perceive we the love (agapē, G26) of God, because he laid down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for us: and we ought (opheilō, G3784) to lay down our lives for the brethren (adelphos, G80). But whoso hath (echō, G2192) this world's good (bios, G979), and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up (kleiō, G2808) his bowels of compassion (splagchnon, G4698) from him, how dwelleth (menō, G3306) the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love (agapaō, G25) in word (logos, G3056), neither in tongue; but in deed (ergon, G2041) and in truth (alētheia, G225)."

Romans 12:2 ESV

We understand and believe our ascended position in Christ as sons and daughters with a full heavenly inheritance.

'What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty."

2 Corinthians 6:16-18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.6.16-18>

'And what agreement (sugkatathesis, G4783) hath the temple (naos, G3485) of God with idols (eidōlon, G1497)? for ye are the temple of the living (zaō, G2198) God; as God hath said, I will dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in (en, G1722) them, and walk in (emperipateō, G1704) them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore Come out (exerchomai, G1831) from among them, and be ye separate (aphorizō, G873), saith the Lord, and touch (haptomai, G680) not the unclean thing; and I will receive (eisdechomai, G1523) you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons (uihos, G5207) and daughters (thugatēr, G2364), saith the Lord Almighty.'

2 Corinthians 6:16-18 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.6.16-18>

'For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God.'

Romans 8:14-19 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.14-19>

'For as many as are led (agō, G71) by the Spirit of God, they are the sons (uihos, G5207) of God. For ye have not received (lambanō, G2983) the spirit of bondage (douleia, G1397) again to fear (phobos, G5401); but ye have received the Spirit of adoption (uihotesia, G5206), whereby we cry, Abba (G5), Father (patēr, G3962). The Spirit itself beareth witness with (summartureō, G4828) our spirit, that we are the children (teknon, G5043) of God: and if children, then heirs (klēronomos, G2818); heirs of God, and joint-heirs (sugklēronomos, G4789) with Christ; if so be that we suffer with (sumpaschō, G4841) him, that we may be also glorified together (sundoxazō, G4888). For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory (doxa, G1391) which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation (apokaradokia, G603) of the creature waiteth (apekdechomai, G553) for the manifestation (apokalupsis, G602) of the sons (uihos, G5207) of God'

Romans 8:14-19 KJV

We not only believe, but we act on the word of God which is in us and growing.

'He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

Matthew 13:31-32 ESV

'Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), which a man took, and sowed in his field: which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown (auxanō, G837), it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. ' Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it." '

Luke 8:19-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.8.19-21>

'Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear (akouō, G191) the word (logos, G3056) of God, and do (poieō, G416) it.'

Luke 8:19-21 KJV

'For this cause also thank (eucharisteō, G2168) we God without ceasing (adialeiptōs, G89), because, when ye received (paralambanō, G3880) the word (logos, G3056) of God which ye heard of us, ye received (dechomai, G1209) it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth (alēthōs, G230), the word of God, which effectually worketh (energeō, G1754) also in you that believe (pisteuō, G4100). '

1 Thessalonians 2:13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1TH.2.13>

'But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. '

James 1:22-25 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.1.22-25>

'But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer (poiētēs, G4163), he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law (nomos, G3551) of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3107) in his deed (poiēses, G4162).'

'What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.'

James 2:14-17 ESV

'What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath (echō, G2192) faith, and have not works (ergon, G2041)? can faith save (sōzō, G4982) him? If a brother or sister be naked (gumnos, G1131), and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace (eirēnē, G1515), be ye warmed and filled (chortazō, G5526); notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath (echō, G2192) not works (ergon, G2041), is dead (nekros, G3498), being alone.'

"My soul (nephesh, H5315) cleaveth unto (dâbaq, H1692) the dust ('âphâr, H6083): Quickened (châyâh, H2421) thou me according to thy word (dâbâr, H1697)."

Psalms 119:25 KJV

We use our abilities and spiritual gifts to bring glory to God.

'For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness... Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.'

Romans 12:4-8,21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.12.4-8,21>

'For as we have (echō, G2192) many members (melos, G3196) in one body, and all members have (echō, G2192) not the same office (praxis, G4234): so we, being many, are one body (sōma, G4983) in Christ (Christos, G5547), and every one members one of another (allēlōn, G240). Having (echō, G2192) then gifts (charisma, G5486) differing (diaphoros, G1313) according to the grace (charis, G5485) that is given (didōmi, G1325) to us, whether prophecy (prophēteia, G4394), let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith (pistis, G4102); or ministry (diakonia, G1248), let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth (parakaleō, G3870), on exhortation (paraklēsis, G3874): he that giveth (metadidōmi, G3330), let him do it with simplicity (haplotēs, G572); he that ruleth (proistēmi, G4291), with diligence; he that sheweth mercy (eleeō, G1653), with cheerfulness (hilarotēs, G2432)... Be not overcome (nikaō, G3528) of evil (kakos, G2556), but overcome evil with good (agathos, G18).'

Romans 12:4-8,21 KJV

We are sanctified: we have the mind of Christ.

'these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

1 Corinthians 2:10-16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.10-16>

'But God hath revealed (apokaluptō, G601) them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth (ereunaō, G2045) all things, yea, the deep things (bathos, G899) of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know (eidō, G1492) the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words (logos, G3056) which man's wisdom (sophia, G4678) teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things (pneumatikos, G4152) with spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152). But the natural man (psuchikos, G5591) receiveth (dechomai, G1209) not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know (ginōskō, G1097) them, because they are spiritually discerned (pneumatikōs, G4153). But he that is spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known (ginōskō, G1097) the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).'

We abide in Him and He in us, and He makes us pure in heart. In close relationship with God, our consciousness of the spiritual increases.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

Matthew 5:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.5.8.ESV>

"Blessed (makarios, G3107) are the pure (katharos, G2513) in heart (kardia, G2588): for they shall see (optanomai, G3700) God."

Matthew 5:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.5.8.KJV>

"So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will."

John 5:19-21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.5.19-21.ESV>

"Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, The Son can do (poieō, G4160) nothing of himself, but what he seeth (blepō, G991) the Father do (poieō, G4160): for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise (homoiōs, G3668). For the Father loveth (phileō, G5368) the Son, and sheweth (deiknuō, G1166) him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater (meizōn, G3187) works than these, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth (zōopoieō, G2227) them; even so the Son quickeneth (zōopoieō, G2227) whom he will (thelō, G2309)."

John 5:19-21 KJV

We pray continually.

"praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints,"

Ephesians 6:18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.6.18.ESV>

"praying always with all prayer and supplication (deēsis, G1162) in the Spirit, and watching (agrupneō, G69) thereunto with all perseverance (proskarterēsis, G4343) and supplication for all saints (hagios, G40);"

Ephesians 6:18 KJV

James 5:16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JAS.5.16>

'Confess (exomologeō, G1843) your faults (paraptōma, G3900) one to another (allēlōn, G240), and pray (euchomai, G2172) one for another, that ye may be healed (iaomai, G2390). The effectual fervent (energeō, G1754) prayer (deēsis, G1162) of a righteous man (dikaios, G1342) availeth (ischuō, G2480) much.'

We bear fruit, looking more like Jesus, and operate as children of God,

'Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.'

1 Corinthians 12:4-11 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.12.4-11>

'Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal (sumpherō, G4851). For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge (gnōsis, G1108) by the same Spirit; to another faith (pistis, G4102) by the same Spirit; to another the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386) by the same Spirit; to another the working (energēma, G1755) of miracles (dunamis, G1411); to another prophecy (prophēteia, G4394); to another discerning (diakrisis, G1253) of spirits; to another divers kinds (genos, G1085) of tongues (glōssa, G1100); to another the interpretation (hermēneia, G2058) of tongues: but all these worketh (energeō, G1754) that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing (diaireō, G1244) to every man severally (idios, G2398) as he will (boulomai, G1014).'

'Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— just as Abraham “believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”? Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham.'

Galatians 3:5-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/GAL.3.5-7>

'He therefore that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) to you the Spirit, and worketh (energeō, G1754) miracles (dunamis, G1411) among you, doeth he it by the works (ergon, G2041) of the law, or by the hearing (akoē, G189) of faith (pistis, G4102)? Even as Abraham (Abraam, G11) believed (pisteuō, G4100) God, and it was accounted (logizomai, G3049) to him for righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343). Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children (uihos, G5207) of Abraham.'

Galatians 3:5-7 KJV

'Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged.'

1 Corinthians 11:27-31 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.11.27-31>

'Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily (axoxiōs, G371), shall be guilty (enochos, G1777) of the body and blood (aima, G129) of the Lord. But let a man examine (dokimazō, G1381) himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation (krima, G2917) to himself, not discerning (diakrinō, G1252) the Lord's (kurios, G2962) body (sōma, G4983). For this cause many are weak (asthenēs, G772) and sickly (arrhōstos, G732) among you, and many sleep (koimaō, G2837). For if we would judge (diakrinō, G1252) ourselves, we should not be judged (krinō, G2919).'

We receive a reward that depends on how we've lived our lives here.

'For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.'

1 Corinthians 3:11-15 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.3.11-15>

'For other foundation (themelios, G2310) can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be made manifest (phaneros, G5318): for the day (hēmera, G2250) shall declare it, because it shall be revealed (apokaluptō, G601) by fire; and the fire shall try (dokimazō, G1381) every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide (menō, G3306) which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) a reward (misthos, G3408). If any man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be burned (katakaiō, G2618), he shall suffer loss (zēmioō, G2210): but he himself shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); yet so as by fire.'

1 Corinthians 3:11-15 KJV

We receive new bodies and get to live the eternal life our Creator has prepared for us with Him in the place He has created—from the abundance of His good, His generosity, and His riches; with none of the bad that is in this world from sin and the devil.

'For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.'

1 Corinthians 15:53-58 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.15.53-58>

'For this corruptible must put on (enduō, G1746) incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible (phthartos, G5349) shall have put on (enduō, G1746) incorruption (aphtharsia, G861), and this mortal (thnētos, G2349) shall have put on (enduō, G1746) immortality (asthanasia, G110), then shall be brought to pass the saying (logos, G3056) that is written, Death (thanatos, G2288) is swallowed up (katapinō, G2666) in victory (nikos, G3524). O death, where is thy sting (kentron, G2759)? O grave (hadēs, G86), where is thy victory (nikos, G3554)? The sting (kentron, G2759) of death (thanatos, G2288) is sin (hamartia, G266); and the strength (dunamis, G1411) of sin is the law (nomos, G3551). But thanks (charis, G5485) be to God, which giveth (didōmi, G1325) us the victory (nikos, G3534) through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved (agapētos, G27) brethren (adelphos, G80), be ye stedfast (hedraios, G1476), unmoveable (ametakinētos, G277), always (pantote, G3842) abounding (perisseuō, G4052) in the work (ergon, G2041) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), forasmuch as ye know that your labour (kopos, G2873) is not in vain (kenos, G2756) in the Lord.'

1 Corinthians 15:53-58 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.15.53-58>

'For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.'

2 Corinthians 5:4-5 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.5.4-5>

'For we that are in this tabernacle (skēnos, G4636) do groan (stenazō, G4727), being burdened (bareō, G916): not for that we would (thelō, G2309) be unclothed (ekduō, G1562), but clothed upon (ependuomai, G1902), that mortality might be swallowed up (katapinō, G2666) of life (zōē, G2222). Now he that hath wrought (katergazomai, G2716) us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given (didōmi, G1325) unto us the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of the Spirit (pneuma, G4151).'

2 Corinthians 5:4-5 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.5.4-5>

'But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.'

Ephesians 2:4-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.2.4-7>

'But God, who is rich (plousios, G4145) in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead (nekros, G3498) in sins (paraptōma, G3900), hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ, (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together (sunegeirō, G4891), and made us sit together (sugkathizō, G4776) in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew (endeiknumi, G1731) the exceeding (huperballō, G5234) riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485) in his kindness (chrētotēs, G5544) toward us through Christ Jesus.'

Ephesians 2:4-7 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.2.4-7>

'Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." And he who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment. The one who conquers will have this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be my son. '

Revelation 21:1-7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.21.1-7>

'And I saw a new (kainos, G2537) heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy (hagios, G40) city (polis, G4172), new Jerusalem (Hierousalēm, G2419), coming down from God out of heaven, prepared (hetoimazō, G2090) as a bride (numphē, G3565) adorned (kosmeō, G2885) for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle (skēnē, G4633) of God is with men, and he will dwell (skēnoō, G4637) with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with (meta, G3326) them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away (exaleiphō, G1813) all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death (thanatos, G2288), neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain (ponos, G4192): for the former things are passed away (aperchomai, G565). And he that sat upon the throne (thronos, G2362) said, Behold, I make (poieō, G4160) all things new (kainos, G2537). And he said unto me, Write: for these words (logos, G3056) are true (alēthinos, G228) and faithful (pistos, G4103). And he said unto me, It is done (ginomai, G1096). I am (eimi, G1510) Alpha (A, G1) and Omega (O, G5598), the beginning (archē, G746) and the end (telos, G5056). I will give (didōmi, G1325) unto him that is athirst (dipsaō, G1372) of the fountain (pēgē, G4077) of the water of life (zōē, G2222) freely (dōrean, G1432). He that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) shall inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son (uihos, G5207).'

Revelation 21:1-7 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.21.1-7>

'If you have not been saved from your sin or you are unsure that you are saved, you should know that God loves you — no matter who you are, no matter what your past. God loves you so much that He gave His one and only begotten Son for you. The Bible tells us that "...whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16 NIV). Jesus laid down His life and rose again so that we could spend eternity with Him in heaven and experience His absolute best on earth. If you would like to receive Jesus into your life, say the following prayer out loud and mean it from your heart.

Heavenly Father, I come to You admitting that I am a sinner. Right now, I choose to turn away from sin, and I ask You to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that He rose again from the dead so that I would be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in Him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the Savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow You and ask that You fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus' name. Amen.'

Identity in Christ (other descriptions, scripture study)

Questions:

1. Who are the children of God described in scripture, and what has God made theirs?
2. Whom are you to serve?
3. In what ways are we as ambassadors?
4. Of what has God made you a steward?
5. How are we like a bride to Jesus Christ?

This book describes 33 characteristics of the family that is identified with Christ as Lord, doing the word of God.

'Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it." '

Luke 8:19-21 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.8.19-21>

'Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear (akouō, G191) the word (logos, G3056) of God, and do (poieō, G416) it.'

Luke 8:19-21 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/LUK.8.19-21>

Besides these characteristics, Scripture also describes our identity in the following twelve ways:

1. We are children of God, His beloved family. We are fellow heirs with Christ, both sons and daughters of God. His family is a royal family; Scripture also says we will be kings.

'But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. '

John 1:12-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.1.12-13>

'But as many as received (lambanō, G2983) him, to them gave he power (exousia, G1849) to become the sons (teknon, G5043) of God, even to them that believe on his name (onoma, G3686): which were born (gennaō, G1080), not of blood, nor of the will (thelēma, G2307) of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. '

John 1:12-13 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.1.12-13>

'For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, '

Romans 8:14-16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.14-16>

'For as many as are led (agō, G71) by the Spirit of God, they are the sons (uihos, G5207) of God. For ye have not received (lambanō, G2983) the spirit of bondage (douleia, G1397) again to fear (phobos, G5401); but ye have received the Spirit of adoption (uihothesia, G5206), whereby we cry, Abba (G5), Father (patēr, G3962). The Spirit itself beareth witness with (summartureō, G4828) our spirit, that we are the children (teknon, G5043) of God: '

Romans 8:14-16 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/ROM.8.14-16>

'and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.' '

Revelation 5:10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.5.10>

'and hast made (poieō, G4160) us unto our God kings (basileus, G935) and priests (hiereus, G2409); and we shall reign (basileuō, G936) on the earth. '

Revelation 5:10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.5.10>

2. We are servants to all of mankind. Scripture also calls us priests, who are servants to God's people and representatives of God.

'and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the people of Israel." '

Exodus 19:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EXO.19.6>

'and ye shall be unto me a kingdom (mamlâkâh, H4467) of priests (kôhên, H3548), and an holy (qâdôsh, H6918) nation. These are the words (dâbâr, H1697) which thou shalt speak (dâbar, H1696) unto the children (bên, H1121) of Israel. '

Exodus 19:6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EXO.19.6>

'But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." '

Mark 10:43-45 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MRK.10.43-45>

'But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great (megas, G3173) among you, shall be your minister (diakonos, G1249); and whosoever of you will be the chiefest (prōtos, G4413), shall be servant (doulos, G1401) of all. For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto (diakoneō, G1247), but to minister, and to give (didōmi, G1325) his life (psuchē, G5590) a ransom (lutron, G3083) for many.'

Mark 10:43-45 KJV

'If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. '

John 13:14 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.13.14>

'If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought (opheilō, G3784) to wash one another's feet.'

John 13:14 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/JHN.13.14>

'and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. '

Revelation 1:6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.1.6>

'and hath made (poieō, G4160) us kings (basileus, G935) and priests (hiereus, G2409) unto God and his Father (patēr, G3962); to him be glory (doxa, G1391) and dominion (kratos, G2904) for ever and ever. Amen. '

Revelation 1:6 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.1.6>

'and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth." '

Revelation 5:10 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.5.10>

'and hast made (poieō, G4160) us unto our God kings (basileus, G935) and priests (hiereus, G2409); and we shall reign (basileuō, G936) on the earth. '

Revelation 5:10 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.5.10>

3. We are the temple of God. We are as pillars in God's temple.

'Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.'

1 Corinthians 3:16-17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.3.16-17>

'Know ye not that ye are the temple (naos, G3485) of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth (oikeō, G3611) in you? If any man defile (phtheirō, G5351) the temple of God, him shall God destroy (phtheirō, G5351); for the temple of God is holy (hagios, G40), which temple ye are.'

1 Corinthians 3:16-17 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/1CO.3.16-17>

'What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.'

2 Corinthians 6:16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.6.16>

'And what agreement (sugkatathesis, G4783) hath the temple (naos, G3485) of God with idols (eidōlon, G1497)? for ye are the temple of the living (zaō, G2198) God; as God hath said, I will dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in (en, G1722) them, and walk in (emperipateō, G1704) them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.'

2 Corinthians 6:16 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/2CO.6.16>

'The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God. Never shall he go out of it, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name.'

Revelation 3:12 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/REV.3.12>

'Him that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) will I make (poieō, G4160) a pillar (stulos, G4769) in the temple (naos, G3485) of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name (onoma, G3686) of my God, and the name of the city (polis, G4172) of my God, which is new (kainos, G2537) Jerusalem (Hierousalēm, G2419), which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new (kainos, G2537) name (onoma, G3686).'

Revelation 3:12 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/REV.3.12>

4. We are warriors or soldiers who are more than conquerors.

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, '

Ephesians 6:10-19 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.6.10-19>

'Finally, my brethren, be strong (endunamoō, G1743) in the Lord (kurios, G2962), and in the power (kratos, G2904) of his might (ischus, G2479). Put on (enduō, G1746) the whole armour (panoplia, G3833) of God, that ye may be able (dunamai, G1410) to stand (histēmi, G2476) against the wiles (methodeia, G3180) of the devil (diabolos, G1228) For we wrestle (palē, G3823) not against flesh and blood, but against principalities (archē, G746), against powers (exousia, G1849), against the rulers (kosmokratōr, G2888) of the darkness (skotos, G4655) of this world (aiōn, G165), against spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) wickedness (ponēria, G4189) in high places (epouranos, G2032). Wherefore take unto (analambanō, G353) you the whole armour (panoplia, G3822) of God, that ye may be able (dunamai, G1410) to withstand (anthistēmi, G436) in the evil (ponēros, G4190) day, and having done (katēgazomai, G2716) all (hapas, G537), to stand (histēmi, G2476). Stand (histēmi, G2476) therefore, having your loins girt about (perizōnumi, G4024) with truth (alētheia, G225), and having on (enduō, G1746) the breastplate (thōrax, G2382) of righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and your feet shod (hupodeō, G5265) with the preparation (hetoimasia, G2091) of the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of peace (eirēnē, G1515); above all, taking (analambanō, G353) the shield (thureos, G2375) of faith (pistis, G4102), wherewith ye shall be able (dunamai, G1410) to quench (sbennumi, G4570) all the fiery (puroō, G4448) darts (belos, G956) of the wicked (ponēros, G4190). And take (dechomai, G1209) the helmet (perikephalaia, G4030) of salvation (sōtērion, G4992), and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word (rhēma, G4487) of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication (deēsis, G1162) in the Spirit, and watching (agrupneō, G69) thereunto with all perseverance (proskarterēsis, G4343) and supplication for all saints (hagios, G40); and for me, that utterance (logos, G3056) may be given (didōmi, G1325) unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly (parrhēsia, G3954), to make known the mystery (mustērion, G3466) of the gospel (euggelion, G2098),'

Ephesians 6:10-19 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.6.10-19>

'Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him. '

2 Timothy 2:3-4 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2TI.2.3-4>

'Thou therefore endure hardness (kakopatheō, G2553), as a good (kalos, G2570) soldier (stratiōtēs, G4757) of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth (strateuomai, G4754) entangleth himself with the affairs of this life (bios, G979); that he may please (areskō, G700) him who hath chosen him to be a soldier (stratologeō, G4758). '

2 Timothy 2:3-4 KJV

'No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. '

Romans 8:37 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/ROM.8.37>

'Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors (hupernikaō, G5245) through him that loved (agapaō, G25) us. '

Romans 8:37 KJV

5. We are ambassadors for Christ.

'All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. '

2 Corinthians 5:18-20 ESV

'And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given (didōmi, G1325) to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in (en, G1722) Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing (logizomai, G3049) their trespasses unto them; and hath committed (tithēmi, G5087) unto us the word (logos, G3056) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for (huper, G5228) Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead (huper, G5228), be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God.'

7. We are stewards of what is His.

'“For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here, I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.' But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' '

Matthew 25:14-30 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/MAT.25.14-30>

' For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents (talanton, G5007), to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability (dunamis, G1411); and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received (lambanō, G2983) the five talents went and traded (ergazomai, G2038) with the same, and made them other five talents. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's (kurios, G2962) money. After a long time the lord of those servants (doulos, G1401) cometh, and reckoneth (sunairō, G4868) with them. And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst (paradidōmi, G3860) unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, Well done (eu, G2095), thou good (agathos, G18) and faithful (pistos, G4103) servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over (kathistēmi, G2525) many things: enter thou into the joy (chara, G5479) of thy lord. He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard (sklēros, G4642) man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed (diaskorpizō, G1287): and I was afraid (phobeō, G5399), and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine. His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked (ponēros, G4190) and slothful (oknēros, G3636) servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed: thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers (trapezitēs, G5133), and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury (tokos, G5110). Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath (echō, G2192) shall be given (didōmi, G1325), and he shall have abundance (perisseuō, G4052): but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. And cast ye the unprofitable (achreios, G888) servant into outer darkness (skotos, G4655): there shall be weeping and gnashing (brugmos, G1030) of teeth. '

Matthew 25:14-30 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/MAT.25.14-30>

'He also said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. And he called him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.' And the manager said to himself, 'What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses.' So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He said, 'A hundred measures of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.' The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings. "One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money." '

Luke 16:1-13 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/LUK.16.1-13>

'And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich (plousios, G4145) man, which had a steward (oikonomos, G3623); and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted (diaskorpizō, G1287) his goods (huparchonta, G5224). And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship (oikonomia, G3622); for thou mayest be no longer steward (oiknomeō, G3621). Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do (poieō, G4160)? for my lord (kurios, G4160) taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. And the lord commended (epaineō, G1867) the unjust (adikia, G93) steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser (phronimos, G5429) than the children of light (phōs, G5457). And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends (philos, G5384) of the mammon (mammōnas, G3126) of unrighteousness (adikia, G93); that, when ye fail (ekleipō, G1587), they may receive (dechomai, G1209) you into everlasting habitations (skēnē, G4633). He that is faithful (pistos, G4103) in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust (adikos, G94) in the least is unjust also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true (alēthinos, G228) riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? No servant (oiketēs, G3610) can serve (douleuō, G1398) two masters (kurios, G2962): for either he will hate (miseō, G3404) the one, and love (agapaō, G25) the other; or else he will hold (antechomai, G472) to the one, and despise (kataphroneō, G2706) the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon (mammōnas, G3126). '

11. We are lamps that burn, fueled by God. We are lights shining on a hill.

'And he said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it. And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left." And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." Then he said to me, "This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord of hosts. Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'" Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying, "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the Lord of hosts has sent me to you. For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. "These seven are the eyes of the Lord , which range through the whole earth." Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?" And a second time I answered and said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the golden oil is poured out?" He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

And I said, No, my lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD unto Zerubbabel (zerûbbâbel, G2216), saying, Not by might (chayil, H2428), nor by power (tsâbâ', H6635), but by my spirit (rûach, H7307), saith the LORD of hosts (tsâbâ', H6635). Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain (mîyshôr, H4334): and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace (chên, H2580), grace unto it. Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD , which run to and fro through the whole earth. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches (shibbôl, H7641) which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed (yitshâr, H3323) ones, that stand ('âmad, H5975) by the Lord ('âdôn, H113) of the whole earth.'

' "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. '

Matthew 5:14-16 ESV

'Ye are the light (phōs, G5457) of the world (kosmos, G2889). A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid (kruptō, G2928). Neither do men light (kaiō, G2545) a candle (luchnos, G3088), and put it under a bushel (modios, G3426), but on a candlestick (luchnia, G3087); and it giveth light (lampō, G2989) unto all that are in the house (oikia, G3614). Let your light (phōs, G5457) so shine before men, that they may see (eidō, G1492) your good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041), and glorify (doxazō, G1392) your Father (patēr, G3962) which is in (en, G1722) heaven.'

12. We are runners in a race. (1 Corinthians 9:24-27)

'Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.'

'Know ye not that they which run (trechō, G5143) in a race (stadion, G4712) run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain (katalambanō, G2638). And every man that striveth for the mastery (agonizōmai, G75) is temperate (egkrateuomai, G1467) in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible (phthartos, G5349) crown (stephanos, G4735); but we an incorruptible (aphthartos, G862). I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight (pukteō, G4438) I, not as one that beateth the air: but I keep under (hupōpiazo, G5299) my body, and bring it into subjection (doulagōgeō, G1396): lest that by any means, when I have preached (kērussō, G2784) to others, I myself should be a castaway (adokimos, G96).'

Our identity in Christ is overwhelmingly good! We need to know what is true, thinking rightly about who we are such that it is ingrained in us, we proclaim it, and we act on it. This is the truth, and what we believe to be true at our core deeply affects what we think about and how we live out our lives.

In view of this, let us daily align ourselves with God's purposes, ideas, concepts, plans, goals, agenda, dreams, mission, kingdom and will — not our own.
