

Discipleship for teens

By Jason Hayward

Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.

Introduction

Speaking to teens, including myself as a teenager: Life isn't going to stay like it is now; change is coming. It will be your choice whether the change is for the better or the worse.

No matter what anyone has said, God is more real than you know. He is much better than You understand Him to be right now.

The most important thing you can seek after today is faith. You need it to understand what love really is and to be filled with real love. You need it to have lasting hope and peace. You need it to be happy. You need it to become the person you were created to be. You need it to live to your full potential.

This is a book where I shoot it straight with you. It's time to shake things up.

For those who are not teens, this book may also be helpful for you. Youth, after all, is mainly in our thinking; our youth are those who believe they can change the world, that there is much life ahead to do so, and there are no significant restrictions holding them back. What we truly believe, we act on.

Love

It is good to be loved and to love others.

There are different kinds of love. There's the love of parents for children. There's the love we may have among family members. There's love among friends. There's the love you have for yourself. There's a playful kind of love. There's an obsessive type of love. Then there's the romantic kind of love.

Lastly, there's the love of God, called agapē (ah-gah-pey). This is an unselfish, giving, especially generous kind of love that acts to bring about the good of another.

Has anyone loved you unselfishly like that? Has anyone loved you like that consistently?

Hope

Hope is simply expectation of good.

Do you expect good things to come to you? How do you make sure they do come to you?

What good things do you seek?

Are there others in your life that seek your good?

Has there been anything you sought, thinking it would be good for you, but in the end, it was not?

Peace

Peace isn't as simple as feeling peaceful within yourself at some moment. It's not as trite as the pervasive desire for world peace.

The peace that comes from God was first called shâlôm (sha-lom). This word includes not only peace but also completeness, welfare, health, and prosperity. In God's peace, there is harmony, safety, security, contentment, rest, and freedom from fear about anything.

Do you have this kind of peace? Do you have it consistently?

Faith

It's not childish nor immature to have strong beliefs.

Everyone has faith of some kind, although not all will admit to it. In the end, we must have faith because there are significant limits to our understanding as human beings. We have our five senses. We have our experience and the experience and the tradition of others that we decide to trust. We can learn from history, again from the sources we decide to trust. We can learn from the media, yet again from the sources we decide to trust. We can learn from nature, either as we see it, or filtered through the interpretation of others, including scientists.

We must each decide whom and what to trust, and we must decide whether there is any truth or reality outside of the abovementioned sources. We must decide whether we think any supernatural things are real. We must each decide whether we think God is real.

It takes faith to form reality as one sees it. Faith has formed your view of the world to date. It has formed your parent's view of the world. It has formed your teacher's or professor's view of the world. It has formed every scientist's view of the world. It has formed every pastor's view of the world.

Faith is your conviction of what is true. It's what you have been persuaded to believe. It's where you have placed your trust.

If it is real enough for you to talk about as true and trustworthy, it is what you have faith in.

What do you believe?

Faith is reasonable

Here are nine reasons that putting your faith in the Bible as God's word is reasonable:

- 1) The Bible has been a strong force for freedom and the worth of each human, lifting up the dignity of every race, both men and women, slave and free, and every form of marginalized person.
- 2) Most of Jesus' disciples and apostles both lived and died for the gospel, including the truth of the resurrected, living Jesus; many saints in the early church did the same.
- 3) The truth of the miracles and healings recorded in the Bible in Jesus' Name is more believable in that testimonies of the same continued afterward and continue to this day. There are way too many credible ones to refute. As such, the belief that the natural is all that exists is completely without merit.
- 4) The testimonies of people's lives who have been changed in beautiful ways by making Jesus the Lord of their lives and actually following Jesus despite the cost show the truth of the Scriptures.
- 5) The gospel was spread into the world by the power of God (healings, miracles, signs), the blood of the martyrs of the church, and the testimonies of changed lives.
- 6) The prophecies about the Messiah in the Old Testament were fulfilled in the New Testament by Jesus of Nazareth, and the overall narrative of God's relationship with mankind in the old covenant points toward the life of Jesus.
- 7) The Bible is historically accurate, having been verified again and again by historians and archeologists; it contains no contradictions (in the strict sense of the word).
- 8) The Bible is the most read and most famous book in the world.
- 9) The Bible is good news, fulfilling our most basic needs: to be deeply and unconditionally loved by the God that created us and to belong within a family, a beloved community.

Faith as the gateway

Faith is the gateway to every good thing God has planned for you in this life and the next. It is the gateway to salvation, to answered prayer, and to all blessing and riches from God in Jesus Christ.

Faith trusts God and trusts His word. It expects good from God. It expects Him to be faithful to His promises in His word. Faith chooses to do the thing that is right and good in the situation at hand.

The way that God wants to be loved is via our steadfast trust in Him and His word.

Faith is not a thought nor a feeling but rather an action. Faith says something. Faith steps out and does something.

Faith takes what God has graciously offered as its own. Faith stands firm, holding steadfast until it sees what it has believed come to pass.

Faith is like a muscle that must be exercised to grow stronger. It believes God and does what God says to do.

Faith thinks differently, choosing to walk a narrow path along the way shown by Jesus Christ, believing that only this is the way to freedom, life, victory and blessing in this life. It does not turn to the left or right, thinking there is something better outside of the abundance of life promised by Jesus Christ.

Faith is the gateway to have the all-powerful Spirit of God live continually inside of you. Faith is the gateway to join forces with Him, working together with Him for life. There is nothing better than this.

Faith augments your reality to the actual reality, not limited by what is natural.

Faith will completely transform your life, if you let it, and it will transform the world as you move into it.

Salvation by faith

Salvation is much more than being able to go to heaven when you die. The salvation that comes from our God is called sōzō (sode-zo), meaning to rescue or deliver from danger, destruction, disease, and evil. Alternatively, it means to heal or make whole.

The salvation of God in Jesus Christ is full and complete, making one whole, spirit, soul and body. In salvation, our spirit and body can each be made whole at once. The lesser act of salvation is for our body to be made whole through faith in the name of Jesus Christ – either by way of our own faith or by the faith of another for us (i.e., one who is more mature in belief like an evangelist or elder). The greater act of salvation is for our spirit, dead and cut off from God because of our sin nature, to be made whole; this may only come through our own faith in Jesus for our salvation.

Salvation begins with faith in Jesus Christ to be the Lord and Master of your life today and forevermore. Salvation begins a different journey of life wherein you choose to die to your old life of sin and bondage that led downward toward death and hell, instead turning around to identify completely with Jesus Christ. In this journey, you are to follow daily in His steps. These steps lead ever upward to greater freedom, more life, more goodness, and, ultimately, heaven.

If you would like to receive (take) Jesus into your life forever, and His abundant life into you, say the following prayer out loud and mean it from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to You admitting that I am a sinner. Right now, I choose to turn away from sin, and I ask You to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that He rose again from the dead so that I would be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in Him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the Savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow You and ask that You fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus' name. Amen.

Discipleship

To be a disciple of Jesus Christ is not only to call Jesus Lord over you, but to do today what God's word says to do. Disciples are not just believers, but those who put God's word into practice as a lifestyle.

The first act of obedience of a new disciple of Christ is to be baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit by another disciple. Along with your baptism in water, you are to go public with your faith in Jesus Christ, letting out on full display the burning light 🔥 that He has put in you. You have been completely identified with Jesus Christ right now in His crucifixion (your old life and self is dead), resurrection (you are alive together with Him), and ascension to the right hand of God (you are seated together with Him at God's right hand). You now belong to Jesus Christ, purchased with His own blood.

Your life is no longer about you, what you want, and your interests. It's now about God, what He wants, and His interests.

God wants you to get to know Him very well through His word, the Bible. Speaking of His word, Jesus Christ alive on earth was the word of God made flesh. When God's word gets inside of you, coming to dwell there richly, it will affect how you think, shaping your beliefs, your strongholds (your firm, core beliefs), and your worldview (your perception of reality). Shaping your thinking in such a way, His word will affect your speaking, your actions, your habits, and ultimately, your whole character and nature. This is God's blueprint for the salvation of your soul, consisting of your mind, will, and emotions. His perfect word will become flesh in you. Welcome His Word to have its way in you.

Begin to read, study, and meditate on the Bible daily, starting with the New Testament. As you learn the parts of God's word relevant to what disciples do, He wants you to start doing those things. The books of Mark or James are good places to start in the Bible, as each of them were focused practitioners of God's word.

You are not meant to do this alone. You also need to come into regular connection with like-minded believers who have decided to follow Jesus Christ as a lifestyle. This is His true church. It's time for you to find the right place to plug in to God's family. Look for a youth group you can regularly attend that believes the whole Bible and is committed to doing the commands of Jesus. Your Heavenly Father Faith thinks about God as Heavenly Father. It's time to see God differently.

Our Father is good by nature. He is the source of everything good. Whatever you know to be good is a gift of His. Whatever is not good is not from Him but rather a product of the fall of creation. God is good both to the righteous and the unrighteous, desiring that all will come to repentance.

Our Father delights to bring freedom, give life, show mercy, and make things right. He delights to be our provider so that we experience no lack, the One who heals us and keeps us in health, the One who is our continual peace.

Our Father's will is done in heaven, as the heavens are His, but the earth He has given to the children of man, and it is subject to their will. It is subject to our will. His will is that we should make things on earth as they are in heaven.

Our Father has made you as a child of His to have His own character and nature, to do good, to bring freedom, to give away life, to be merciful, and to make things right.

As you have been saved and baptized, You have been connected directly to God by way of His Holy Spirit that lives and dwells continually in you. This is the very same Spirit that came to live in Jesus Christ, empowering and directing Him for ministry and raising Him from the dead. It is the same Spirit that was with the prophets in the Old Testament, and living in the apostles in the New Testament.

Our good Father sent Jesus Christ to reconnect you with Him so that He could be as good to you as He delights to be. In Jesus, God has raised you up in new life and seated you together with Christ at His right hand.

Our good Father also hates what is evil. He hates sin. He hates the effects of sin, including sickness, pain, and death. He hates the devices of the devil, including doubt, distraction, deceit, division, distress, and destruction.

Our Father is righteous. He is right in nature, He does what is right, and by His Spirit he has enabled His children to overcome evil with good in any situation.

Our Father is Almighty God. When we stand fast with Him, He always has the victory. All evil will be put under His feet. Bible study: Your Heavenly Father

Your new self

Faith causes you to think differently about yourself and your life. You are first and foremost a son or daughter of Almighty God, making you the royalty of God. You are God's beloved family. Fully identified with Jesus Christ in God's eyes, you are fellow heirs together with Him.

As children of God, you work together with Him to carry out His good will to make things on earth as they are in heaven. You are servants to all of mankind, representing God to them. You carry around God's Holy Spirit within you, so you are God's temple, and you carry around the love and power of God as well. Working together with God by way of your words spoken in faith, you are able to destroy the works of the devil. You are driven foremost by God's own love that desires to overcome evil with good.

You are a burning lamp lit directly by the Spirit of God. You are to shine brightly and to unite yourself to other lights of God to shine even more brightly. The good that you do together with God and with other disciples glorifies God.

Your new clothing is the character and nature of God's own Spirit, and His goodness flows through you to the world you encounter by way of what you speak and what you do. Your new character and nature includes: life that overflows, righteousness (rightness), holiness, faith and authority, wisdom, knowledge, discernment, love that takes action (compassion), tenderness, generosity, grace, mercy, longsuffering and patience, peace and wholeness, a spirit of unity, joy, thanksgiving and praise, humility, power, strength, courage, and hope. You are connected to the mind of the Spirit of God. You live for God's purposes with God's passion. (For more on this, see Identity in Christ: Characteristics of Christ in you.)

Working together with God, you can and should seek to change the world. You are His ambassador, carrying around Jesus Christ's victory with you wherever you go. You are beloved to God.

On account of how amazing this new self is, put off the old, dead self. Never wear it again.

Bible study: Your new self

Happiness

Happiness does not come from pursuing anything in the world. In Ecclesiastes, Solomon wrote about seeking after things in the world, comparing them to a vapor. These things seem to bring some happiness for a moment, then it's gone, like a vapor.

In the Bible, the words for blessed and happy are the same. Further, blessing is brought by our obedience to the commands of God's word. Thus, happiness comes from obeying God. It's that simple.

Also, God equates loving Him to obeying Him. According to Jesus, it's the most important commandment. And really, it contains every other commandment of God in the Bible.

Thus, as you read the Bible and understand what it is God wants His children, Christ's disciples, to do, look for opportunities to do it. This will bring blessing into your life and the lives of others. In turn, this will make you happy.

Your goal is not to bring good to yourself and your family. It's not to make enough money for a comfortable life for yourself or to retire. That view is so limited and short sighted. Neither does it lead you to happiness.

God's children seek the good of everyone. They count on God to provide for their needs because He said He would in His word. Further, we never retire from God's work here in the world until our transition out of life as we know it in these bodies; our work with God only ramps up. God will give you all of the rest and energy you need to do His work; you are directly connected to Him!

Stay young. Youth is in your thinking, speaking and doing.

Never settle. Never give up.

This life with God is exciting!

Bible study: Happiness

Freedom

Our God is a God of freedom. After all, He created free will.

These days, teens are held captive by many problems: anxiety and stress, depression, social media, cyber addiction, peer pressure, bullying, eating disorders, pornography, fornication, substance abuse, sleep deprivation, self-harm, poverty, obesity, abuse from caretakers, low self-esteem, body image, gambling, academic challenges, and parental expectations.

In the Bible, we see that God delights to see His people set free from captivity. In fact, when Jesus started His ministry, He declared that to be the purpose of it: to proclaim liberty to the captives and to set at liberty those who are oppressed.

God does not bring freedom to people so that they can do whatever they want to do nor what others want them to do. People naturally sin, and that leads them into the captivity of the devil, the god of this world.

Instead, we have been set free to be able to choose to obey the word of God, which brings freedom, life, and blessing to ourselves and others. We are set free to be able to choose the things that faith would do. We are set free to serve others humbly in love. So whatever you will that others would do for you, do it for them.

Further, it is a delight to carry God's freedom with you, working together with Him to bring His freedom to others.

You are an ambassador for real freedom. You are an ambassador of the One who created freedom.

Be free.

Bible study: Freedom

Family

As a disciple of Christ, your view of family is expanded from our own biological family.

Jesus said that His family were those who did the word (or will) of God. Luke's gospel says word, while Matthew's and Mark's say will. Really it does not matter, because God's will is His word. This is how God sees His eternal family: those who do His will (word).

While you are under a minor under their care, you are to obey your parents, so long so what they are asking to do does not run contrary to God's word. If it does, you obey your Heavenly Father. We are all accountable to God.

Further, now your family is the family of God, His true church. They are those that do God's word (will). They are those in whom God's Spirit lives continually. They are the citizens of God's kingdom. (God's kingdom is His government, His rule, all of the places where His will is done.) Along with you, they comprise Jesus Christ's new, living, functioning body in the world right now.

Your family is a household created for your belonging. They are there to nurture your growth. They are there to equip you to be able to make use of your full potential. While they are responsible for your growth and care, you are also to take up increasing levels of responsibility as part of the family.

Just as your own body has tissues, organs, and systems that work together to enable its proper function, Christ's body has teams of people that work together to enable its proper function. When a body's cells and units are not functioning together properly, the body does not function to its full potential, or perhaps at all. As such, it is your responsibility to become and to remain healthy, to be matured and equipped for full function, and to work in unity with your team(s) to accomplish your functions toward carrying out the word and the will of God in your community and in the world.

As an essential member of Christ's body, you continue the work He began, destroying the works of the devil and meeting the needs of the world.

It's time to change your thinking about who you are and how important you are to God's church and to the world. (For more on this, see www.teams.church.) Bible study: Family

Righteousness

The moment you submit your will to Jesus Christ as Lord, God identifies you with Jesus Christ, making you righteous, or right with Him. You are identified with the sinless One, hidden in Him, so you are seen as sinless. You need to see yourself this way as well, as it changes your relationship with our Father.

Jesus demonstrated a lifestyle of victory in every situation. He was victorious over sin, sickness, and death. Righteousness is this lifestyle of victory over any evil encountered.

You are identified with Jesus Christ in spirit, soul and body. You have been made right in every aspect of your person. You have Christ's own Spirit living in you and empowering you, so you have God's authority and power to defeat sin and the devil, who now has no authority over you.

This means you are no longer captive to any sin or temptation. You have been set free, so choose to live as one who has been set free. This means changing your thinking when temptation comes your way: you choose to think on Jesus Christ, His victory, and how every good thing you want comes from faith in God rather than submitting to this sin. You choose to walk in Jesus' steps of freedom, victory, life, and blessing.

This means changing what you take into your mind today. Believers are called to not be conformed to the world, but to be transformed by the renewing of their minds. We are to renew our minds to the truth of the word of God. This means we are to take in His word and act on it in faith, until what's in His word becomes the way we see the world and what we see as real.

This means coming to recognize and taking captive any thought or belief that would try to exalt itself against the truth of the word of God. For more on this, see my book Flipping Strongholds.

This means expecting good from God in the situation at hand in your life. Since you have been made the righteousness of God, He works with you right now to make things right in the world according to Christ's decree: "Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." As such, desire the fulfillment of spiritual results that bring victory and glory to God in your situation. Bible study: Righteousness

Prayer

There are more dimensions than we as created beings are able to experience; even science has caught up with this reality. The spiritual world is at hand, intertwined with the physical world you experience. The Spirit of God is in you, knows even your thoughts, speaks to you, and hears everything you say. Angels and demons are in your midst, and they also hear all of the words you speak.

Prayer is whatever you speak, believing. Prayer also consists of the words that you direct toward God. When you pray, you should speak out loud so it can be heard by all of the hosts of heaven and hell. Your words have weight.

For many, prayer is mainly about asking God for things, but this view is incorrect. Prayers that will not be answered by God include: 1) asking Him to do what He already accomplished through Christ's sacrifice; 2) asking Him to do what He already commissioned us to do as Christ's disciples sent into the world.

Primarily, prayer to God is meant for connection with God that builds and maintains intimacy with Him. You were made for this close connection. Secondly, prayer to God is also for your daily alignment with God's thoughts and priorities for the purpose of action in His will so that you can bring Him glory.

In prayer to God, you should worship our Lord for all that He is – for His greatness, for His love and for His deeds of grace. You should meditate on His word and His ideas. In your prayer to God, you should express gratefulness for His redeeming plan and for the abundant blessings He has freely provided for you and the needy world. Bring glory to God with your love for Him.

In prayer to God, you should affirm your direct connection to Him and align yourself with His benevolent nature, character, emotions, priorities, and plans. Listen for His guidance so that you can always be involved in fulfilling His will. Conform your agenda for your day to His guidance.

As you go into the situations of your day, speak the end result in faith, expecting it to come to pass for God's glory. Where there are obstacles (mountains) to be moved for God's kingdom work, tell them to move. Where appropriate, speak the words of God, saying "it is written," and expect it to be done. Angels and demons hear and must obey. Don't give up faith until it is done. Speak good of all others to bless them. As a son or daughter of God, your words have weight! Bible study

Christ in you

The greatest teaching of the New Testament is that Jesus Christ comes to live and dwell in you as a disciple of His by way of the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ told His disciples it was better for them that He went away so that He could send the Holy Spirit to live in them, calling the Spirit the Paraclete, or Helper. The Holy Spirit is your supernatural help to do God's word (will), stimulated by your unwavering faith put into speech and action.

You are connected directly to God by His Spirit, and so you are united with Christ and God now in spirit, in body and in soul. This is how you are to see yourself. (For more on this, see my book Directly Connected to the Spirit, Mind, and Body of Christ.) As you put off the layers of the old you, the glory of God is there beneath, and Christ in you is enabled to live as a God-enhanced version of you, doing God's will on earth. This is the way that God works in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure: God gives you His thoughts to act upon, in cooperation with Him. Recognize those thoughts that agree with the content of God's word, and act upon them. Be led by God's character and nature.

The Spirit of God in you is your greatest treasure. Treasure God as such. Let God have His way in your life, and you will become more and more a channel of life, freedom and blessing to the world. Further, you will personally see increasing life and blessing from God as a result. Meanwhile, you will take on more and more of God's beautiful character and nature. This enhances the person God made you, attracting others to you.

The Spirit of God in you empowers you to think as God does, speak as Jesus speaks, and walk as Jesus walked when He was here in the flesh. Now Christ is here in the flesh through you and through other obedient disciples, better enabled to carry out God's will in all of the earth.

Since Christ lives in you, you need not wonder what is the will of God, nor what you should do with your life. Your focus should be living for and with God, right now and today, to do as much good as you can. Heaven has already been brought to earth inside of you and through you. You have become a touchpoint on earth for the kingdom of God. You carry God and His kingdom around with you. Bible study: Christ in you

Your first love

Why do you do what you do? Your God (or god) is that person or thing that affects your decisions on a daily basis.

You will have to choose today whom you want to please, whether it be a girlfriend or boyfriend, a close friend, a parent, peers of yours, your teachers.

Why do you spend your free time the way you do? How does this show your priorities?

What is it that you fear? Losing certain relationships? Losing your reputation? An uncertain future?

Your first love is shown by what you choose to think about, dwell upon. It's shown by what or whom you talk about. It's shown by what you choose to do with your free time. It's shown by the way you see "your money" and how you spend it. It's shown by what you choose to take into your thought life. It's shown by your interests and affections.

We tend to develop affections for those people or things that we choose to think about, spend time with, and spend our money on. As such, you have chosen your first love now, and you will choose what will become your first love in the future.

As a Christ follower, your God is to become Your first love, much more significant than any earthly love, much more significant than any of His good gifts to you, people included. To love a gift of God enough to choose it over the thing faith would choose – this is idolatry.

As such, learn to cherish God through His living word and His Spirit. Learn to give them their due place in you. Allow His word to grow up in you, unfold the blueprint of God, and prevail. Allow God's Spirit to do what God wills to do in you. You are no longer your own. You were bought at a price by the God who is love. Let God pour out His own love into your thoughts, emotions, and actions.

Leading

As disciples of Jesus, we are all called to lead. Disciples of Jesus lead by serving and by taking responsibility for others.

As sons and daughters of God, you are the servants of all. When it comes to serving, nothing is beneath you. Washing dirty feet was not below our Lord Jesus. The pain and embarrassment of the whipping post and the curse of the cross was not beneath our Lord. As such, you are not to lord it over any others, but instead to see what they need, serve them, and meet their needs, giving credit to God for what you do.

Disciples of Jesus decide that God's word for His children and Christ's disciples applies to them. They take responsibility to represent God. They take responsibility to do God's word. They take responsibility to meet the needs of those they encounter, recognizing God as their supply. They take responsibility to proclaim the gospel and to make disciples. They take responsibility to join together with God to become the answer to people's prayers. They take responsibility to be the church to the world around them. They take responsibility to equip believers to minister and to grow up to be like Jesus. They take responsibility to grow and edify God's church.

Disciples of Jesus see themselves as part of the functioning body of Jesus Christ in the world. As part of His body, they recognize the commands from the mind of Christ, the mind of the Spirit, speaking what is in harmony with God's word, to tell them what to do in the situation at hand. They are obedient to do it, causing Christ's body to function as it's designed to function. As part of His body, they take their nourishment and strength from God to accomplish His work. As part of His body, they work together with other parts of His body, as needed and as beneficial, to accomplish the body's full function. They look to strengthen and build up this body by what they say and do. They take responsibility for the body of Christ and their good works in the world around them.

Bible study: Leading

The Gift

Part of God's church wants to ignore the Holy Spirit like a weird uncle, stating that certain abilities of the Spirit were for the times of the apostles in scripture. In short, they reject God's Gift to them, wanting to give that ability back to God. Another part of God's church believes the Spirit's ability comes through some special anointing, and then those who have the perceived special ability are tempted to abuse it for their own gain. There are many such examples of abuse. Neither brings glory to God.

Just as salvation comes through faith, so does the gift of God's Spirit. You are already anointed. Believe God has baptized you in the Holy Spirit, and that you have received the ability of God through that baptism. It is already yours. As a member of Christ's body, identified completely with Him, you already have God's Gift and miraculous ability, which is to be used for more effective ministry in Jesus' name for the glory of God.

As one ministering in Jesus' name, you have His power of attorney to act on His behalf and to act like Him. Christ in you, you represent God to people. As it is needed, you can expect the Spirit of God and the angels to come alongside you to help you, accomplishing what you speak. Speak the end result for the mountain (anything in the way of God's kingdom work) to move (talk to it like a person as Jesus did), and there will be power to accomplish what you believe. Sometimes there will be additional revelation (words of knowledge or wisdom) or other inspiration (discerning of spirits) given as well.

The Spirit in you is the same One who raised Jesus Christ from the dead. It's the same Spirit who has healed every person God has ever healed. This Spirit in you knows everything God knows. The Spirit in you knows how to speak all of the tongues of men and angels, and understands all of them perfectly. This Spirit recognizes what is good and what is evil in your midst.

This Gift of God is a downpayment of your eternal inheritance. You need God's Gift to make you as fruitful as God wants to be. You need this Gift to more effectively build up God's church.

God has chosen not to act alone in the world, but through you. Thanks be to God for His inexpressible Gift! Bible study: The Gift

Victory

In ministry, you work together with God to enforce Christ's complete legal victory over sin, sickness, and death in the situations you encounter, turning all situations into glory to God. There are no hindrances for God. You can speak on God's behalf to bind (declare Satan's work unlawful) and loose (set free) anyone on earth, and it is done. (Talk to the problem like a person.) You are able to overcome with your words spoken in faith.

The Spirit of God in you, you are moved by compassion. The kingdom of God has come near in you to do the thing that is needed right now. You hate evil – you are fed up with it – and you overcome evil with good. Be bold and be determined to stand firm until you see it made right. Don't accept defeat. Instead, be forceful. Be aggressive. Hit with your words. Refuse to be denied.

Christ in you, your words are spirit and life. Speak the end result of life. Even to the dead, tell them to live and not die; it is not over until it has lined up with the will of God. Say it, believing, until you see it come to pass.

The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil, and He is still doing this through you. Command in the name of Jesus the devil and his works to depart. Greater is he that is in you than He that is in the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith. Christ in you, with you and for you, there are no hindrances for you.

All things are possible for one who believes.

Faith is the gateway to every good thing God has planned for you in this life and the next.

"But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Romans 10:8-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.8-13.ESV>

"But what saith it? The word (rhēma, G4487) is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart (kardia, G2588): that is, the word (rhēma, G4487) of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kērussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart (kardia, G2588) man believeth (pisteuō, G4100) unto righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession (homologeō, G3670) is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord (kurios, G2962) over all is rich unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him. For whosoever shall call upon the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982)... But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord (kurios, G2962), who hath believed (pisteuō, G4100) our report? So then faith (pistis, G4102) cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word (rhēma, G4487) of God."

“On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it... As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.” And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray, believe (pisteuō, G4100) that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have them.”

And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.”

“If any of you lack wisdom (sophia, G4678), let him ask (aiteō, G154) of God, that giveth to all men liberally (haplōs, G574), and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask (aiteō, G154) in faith (pistis, G4102), nothing wavering (diakrinō, G1252). For he that wavereth (diakrinō, G1252) is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed (rhipizō, G4494). For let not that man think that he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) any thing of the Lord (kurios, G2962). A double minded (dipsuchos, G1374) man is unstable (akatastatos, G182) in all his ways (hodos, G3598).”

Faith trusts God and trusts His word.

“Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— just as Abraham “believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”? Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you shall all the nations be blessed.” So then, those who are of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.”

Galatians 3:5-9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/gal.3.5-9.ESV>

“He therefore that ministereth (epichorēgeō, G2023) to you the Spirit, and worketh (energeō, G1754) miracles (dunamis, G1411) among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith (pistis, G4102)? Even as Abraham believed (pisteuō, G4100) God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343). Know ye therefore that they which are of faith (pistis, G4102), the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify (dikaioō, G1344) the heathen through faith (pistis, G4102), preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith (pistis, G4102) are blessed with faithful (pistos, G4103) Abraham.”

““Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!”

Matthew 7:7-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.7.7-11.ESV>

“Ask (aiteō, G154), and it shall be given you; seek (zēteō, G2212), and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh (aiteō, G154) receiveth (lambanō, G2983); and he that seeketh (zēteō, G2212) findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask (aiteō, G154) bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask (aiteō, G154) a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil (ponēros, G4190), know how to give good (agathos, G18) gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things (agathos, G18) to them that ask (aiteō, G154) him?”

“When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), if thou wilt (thelō, G2309), thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will (thelō, G2309); be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.”

Matthew 8:1-3 KJV

Thelō, G2309: To will, intend, purpose, desire, wish, delight in

“Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God,” for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.”

James 1:13-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.13-17.ESV>

“Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good (agathos, G18) gift and every perfect (teleios, G5046) gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights (phōs, G5457), with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.”

It expects Him to be faithful to His promises in His word.

“And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, saying, “Surely I will bless you and multiply you.” And thus Abraham, having patiently waited, obtained the promise. For people swear by something greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath, so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us.”

Hebrews 6:11-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.6.11-18.ESV>

“And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope (elpis, G1680) unto the end: that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith (pistis, G4102) and patience (makrothumia, G3115) inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) the promises (epaggelia, G1860). For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And so, after he had patiently endured (makrothumeō, G3114), he obtained the promise (epaggelia, G1860). For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise (epaggelia, G1860) the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation (paraklēsis, G3874), who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope (elpis, G1680) set before us:”

Faith chooses to do the thing that is right and good in the situation at hand.

“Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.”

Romans 14:20-23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.20-23.ESV>

“For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Hast thou faith (pistis, G4102)? have it to thyself before God. Happy (makarios, G3107) is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. And he that doubteth (diakrinō, G1252) is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith (pistis, G4102): for whatsoever is not of faith (pistis, G4102) is sin.”

For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.”

And let us not be weary in well (kalos, G2570) doing (poieō, G4160): for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. The way that God wants to be loved is via our steadfast trust in Him and His word. Faith is not a thought nor a feeling but rather an action. Faith says something. Faith steps out and does something.

“And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him.” And Jesus answered, “O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.” And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.””

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.17.14-20.ESV>

“And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith

(pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.”

“And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?” And someone from the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able.” And he answered them, “O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me.” And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood. And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” And Jesus said to him, “If you can! All things are possible for one who believes.” Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!” And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.” And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, “He is dead.””

Mark 9:14-26 ESV

“And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; and wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible to him that believeth (pisteuō, G4100). And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.”

And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, “Look at us.” And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, “I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!” And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. If the Lord delights in us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey. Only do not rebel against the Lord. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, “It is a ghost!” and they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, “Take heart; it is I. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid (keleuō, G2753) me come unto thee on the water. And he said, Come.

And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.”

Keleuō, G2753: to command, order

“And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. And he said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.” So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.”

Mark 6:7-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.6.7-13.ESV>

“And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth (apostellō, G649) by two and two; and gave them power (exousia, G1849) over unclean spirits; and commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse: but be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats. And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. And they went out, and preached (kērussō, G2784) that men should repent (metanoēō, G3340). And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.”

Mark 6:7-13 KJV

Apostellō, G649: to order/appoint one to go, send out/away, allow one to depart/be free

Paraggellō, G3853: command, order, charge; declare, announce

Kērussō, G2784: to proclaim as a herald, to proclaim openly and publicly

Metanoeō, G3340: change one's mind (for the better), of a purpose one has formed or of something done; to repent, think differently

“What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works; and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.”

James 2:14-26 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.2.14-26.ESV>

“What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith (pistis, G4102), and have not works (ergon, G2041)? can faith (pistis, G4102) save (sōzō, G4982) him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith (pistis, G4102), if it hath not works (ergon, G2041), is dead (nekros, G3498), being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith (pistis, G4102), and I have works (ergon, G2041): shew me thy faith (pistis, G4102) without thy works (ergon, G2041), and I will shew thee my faith (pistis, G4102) by my works (ergon, G2041). Thou believest (pisteuō, G4100) that there is one God; thou doest well:

the devils also believe (pisteuō, G4100), and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith (pistis, G4102) without works (ergon, G2041) is dead (nekros, G3498)? Was not Abraham our father justified (dikaioō, G1344) by works (ergon, G2041), when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith (pistis, G4102) wrought (sunergeō, G4903) with his works (ergon, G2041), and by works (ergon, G2041) was faith (pistis, G4102) made perfect (teleioō, G5048)? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed (pisteuō, G4100) God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): and he was called the Friend (philos, G5384) of God. Ye see then how that by works (ergon, G2041) a man is justified (dikaioō, G1344), and not by faith (pistis, G4102) only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified (dikaioō, G1344) by works (ergon, G2041), when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead (nekros, G3498), so faith (pistis, G4102) without works (ergon, G2041) is dead (nekros, G3498) also.”

Philos, G5384: friend, associate, companion

Faith thinks differently, choosing to walk a narrow path along the way shown by Jesus Christ, believing that only this is the way to freedom, life, victory and blessing in this life.

““Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.”

Matthew 7:13-14 ESV

“Enter ye in at the strait gate (pulē, G4439): for wide is the gate (pulē, G4439), and broad is the way (hodos, G3598), that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate (pulē, G4439), and narrow is the way (hodos, G3598), which leadeth unto life (zōē, G2222), and few there be that find it.”

“Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.” Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. “Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father.”

John 14:6-12 ESV

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way (hodos, G3598), the truth (alētheia, G225), and the life (zōē, G2222): no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. Philip saith unto him, Lord (kurios, G2962), shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Believe (pisteuō, G4100) thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words (rhēma, G4487) that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth (menō, G3306) in me, he doeth (poieō, G4160) the works (ergon, G2041). Believe (pisteuō, G4100) me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe (pisteuō, G4100) me for the very works' (ergon, G2041) sake. Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater works than these shall he do (poieō, G4160); because I go unto my Father.”

“And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says “I know him” but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.”

1 John 2:3-6 ESV

“And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments (entolē, G1785). He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments (entolē, G1785), is a liar, and the truth (alētheia, G225) is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily (alēthōs, G230) is the love (agapē, G26) of God perfected (teleioō, G5048): hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth (menō, G3306) in him ought himself also so to walk (peripateō, G4043), even as he walked (peripateō, G4043).”

It does not turn to the left or right, thinking there is something better outside of the abundance of life promised by Jesus Christ.

John 10:10 ESV

“The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have (echō, G2192) life (zōē, G2222), and that they might have (echō, G2192) it more abundantly.”

Echō, G2192: to have, hold (fast), possess, join/cling to

Zōē, G2222: absolute fullness of life

“For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God’s law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.”

Romans 8:5-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.5-14.ESV>

“For they that are after the flesh (sarx, G4561) do mind (phroneō, G5426) the things of the flesh (sarx, G4561); but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally (sarx, G4561) minded (phronēma, G5427) is death (thanatos, G2288); but to be spiritually minded (phronēma, G5427) is life (zōē, G5427) and peace (eirēnē, G1515). Because the carnal (sarx, G4561) mind (phronēma, G5427) is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh (sarx, G4561) cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh (sarx, G4561), but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have (echō, G2192) not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ (Christos, G5547) be in you, the body is dead (nekros, G3498) because of sin; but the Spirit is life (zōē, G2222) because of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343). But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead (nekros, G3498) shall also quicken (zōopoieō, G2227) your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth (enoikeō, G1774) in you. Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561). For if ye live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561), ye shall die (apothnēskō, G599): but if ye through the Spirit do mortify (thanatoō, G2289) the deeds (praxis, G4234) of the body, ye shall live (zaō, G2198). For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”

““If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. “I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask (aiteō, G154) or think, according to the power (dunamis, G1411) that worketh (energeō, G1754) in us, unto him be glory (doxa, G1391) in the church (ekklēsia, G1577) by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Faith is the gateway to join forces with Him, working together with Him for life. There is nothing better than this.

“Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.” So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]”

“Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief (apista, G570) and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach (kērussō, G2784) the gospel to every creature. He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) and is baptized shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs (sēmeion, G4592) shall follow (parakoulouthēō, G3877) them that believe (pisteuō, G4100); In my name

(onoma, G3686) shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover (kalōs, G2573). So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord working with (sunergeō, G4903) them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (parakoulouthēō, G3877). Amen.”

“I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God’s fellow workers. You are God’s field, God’s building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?"

1 Corinthians 3:6-16 ESV

"I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together (sunergeos, G4904) with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work (ergon, G2041) of what sort it is. If any man's work (ergon, G2041) abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); yet so as by fire. "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.”

“Therefore if any man be in Christ (Christos, G5547), he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in Christ (Christos, G5547), reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's (Christos, G5547) stead, be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God. For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, “I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty.””

“how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, “What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet.” Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him.”

For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst (stephanoō, G4737) him with glory (doxa, G1391) and honour, And didst set him over the works (ergon, G2041) of thy hands (cheir, G5495): Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. Faith augments your reality to the actual reality, not limited by what is natural.

“Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight. For by me your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/pro.9.9-11.ESV>

“Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: Teach a just man, and he will increase in learning. The fear (yir’âh, H3374) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) is the beginning of wisdom: And the knowledge of the holy is understanding. For by me thy days shall be multiplied, And the years of thy life shall be increased.”

“For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.”

“For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth (menō, G3306) faith (pistis, G4102), hope (elpis, G1680), charity (agapē, G26), these three; but the greatest of these is charity (agapē, G26).”

Faith will completely transform your life, if you let it, and it will transform the world as you move into it.

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Romans 12:2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.2.ESV>

“And be not conformed (suschēmātizō, G4964) to this world: but be ye transformed (metamorphoō, G3339) by the renewing (anakainōsis, G342) of your mind (nous, G3563), that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable, and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God.”

“Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could not gaze at Moses' face because of its glory, which was being brought to an end, will not the ministry of the Spirit have even more glory?

...Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not gaze at the outcome of what was being brought to an end. But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.”

2 Corinthians 3:7-8, 12-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.3.7-18.ESV>

“But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory (doxa, G1391) of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: how shall not the ministration (diakonia, G1248) of the spirit be rather glorious? ...Seeing then that we have such hope (elpis, G1680), we use great plainness of speech (parrhēsia, G3954): and not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: but their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. Now the Lord (kurios, G2962) is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is, there is liberty (eleutheria, G1657). But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass (kaptotrizomai, G2734) the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), are changed (metamorphoō, G3339) into the same image from glory (doxa, G1391) to glory (doxa, G1391), even as by the Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962).”

““Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.””

But he that heareth, and doeth (poieō, G4160) not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.”

This is God's blueprint for the salvation of your soul, consisting of your mind, will, and emotions. His perfect word will become flesh in you. Welcome His Word to have its way in you.

Begin to read, study, and meditate on the Bible daily, starting with the New Testament. As you learn the parts of God's word relevant to what disciples do, He wants you to start doing those things.

"But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing."

James 1:22-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.22-25.ESV>

"But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word (logos, G3056), and not a doer (poiētēs, G4163), he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being (ginomai, G1096) not a forgetful hearer, but a doer (poiētēs, G4163) of the work (ergon, G2041), this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3017) in his deed (poiēsis, G4162)."

The books of Mark or James are good places to start in the Bible, as each of them were focused practitioners of God’s word.

You are not meant to do this alone. You also need to come into regular connection with like-minded believers who have decided to follow Jesus Christ as a lifestyle.

“All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit... For the body does not consist of one member but of many. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.”

1 Corinthians 12:11-14, 27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.12.11-27.ESV>

“but all these worketh (energeō, G1754) that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing (diaireō, G1244) to every man severally as he will. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ (Christos, G5547). For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many... Now ye are the body of Christ (Christos, G5547), and members in particular.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.10.24-25.ESV>

“and let us consider one another to provoke unto love (agapē, G26) and to good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041): not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting (parakaleō, G3870) one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching (eggizō, G1448).”

"But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand."

Isaiah 64:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/isa.64.8.KJV>

“But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. “And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

Matthew 6:6-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.6-13.ESV>

“But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come. Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom (basileia, G932), and the power (dunamis, G1411), and the glory (doxa, G1391), for ever. Amen.”

Mark 14:35-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.14.35-36.ESV>

“And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will (thelō, G2309), but what thou wilt.”

“Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned and said to him in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’””

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.20.14-17.ESV>

“And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. “But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!” So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God.”

And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts (kardia, G2588), crying, Abba, Father. It’s time to see God differently. Our Father is good by nature. He is the source of everything good. Whatever you know to be good is a gift of His. Whatever is not good is not from Him but rather a product of the fall of creation. God is good both to the righteous and the unrighteous, desiring that all will come to repentance.

Our Father delights to bring freedom, give life, show mercy, and make things right. He delights to be our provider so that we experience no lack, the One who heals us and keeps us in health, the One who is our continual peace.

Our Father's will is done in heaven, as the heavens are His, but the earth He has given to the children of man, and it is subject to their will. It is subject to our will. His will is that we should make things on earth as they are in heaven.

"Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.""

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels (‘ĕlôhîym, H430), And hast crowned him with glory (kâbôd, H3519) and honour. “how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, “What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet.” Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst (stephanoō, G4737) him with glory (doxa, G1391) and honour, And didst set him over the works (ergon, G2041) of thy hands (cheir, G5495): Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. Fully identified with Jesus Christ in God's eyes, you are fellow heirs together with Him.

“What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.6.1-14.ESV>

“What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace (charis, G5485) may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live (zaō, G2198) any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Father, even so we also should walk (peripateō, G4043) in newness of life (zōē, G2222). For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with (suzaō, G4800) him: knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death (thanatos, G2288) hath no more dominion over (kurieuō, G2961) him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth (zaō, G2198), he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive (zaō, G2198) unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign (basileuō, G936) in your mortal body, that ye should obey (hupakouō, G5219) it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive (zaō, G2198) from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over (kurieuō, G2961) you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace (charis, G5485).”

Galatians 2:19-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/gal.2.19-20.ESV>

“For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live (zaō, G2198) unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live (zaō, G2198); yet not I, but Christ (Christos, G5547) liveth (zaō, G2198) in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live (zaō, G2198) by the faith (pistis, G4102) of the Son of God, who loved (agapaō, G25) me, and gave himself for me.”

“Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him.”

Colossians 2:6-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.2.6-15.ESV>

“As ye have therefore received (paralambanō, G3880) Christ Jesus the Lord (kurios, G2962), so walk ye (peripateō, G4043) in him: rooted (rhizoō, G4492) and built up in him, and stablished (bebaioō, G950) in the faith (pistis, G4102), as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil (sulagōgeō, G4812) you through philosophy and vain (kenos, G2756) deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world (kosmos, G2889), and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth (katoikeō, G2730) all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of the Godhead bodily (sōmatikōs, G4985). And ye are complete (plēroō, G4137) in him, which is the head of all principality and power (exousia, G1849): in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh (sarx, G4561) by the circumcision of Christ: buried with (sunthaptō, G4916) him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) him through the faith (pistis, G4102) of the operation (energeia, G1753) of God, who hath raised him from the dead (nekros, G3498). And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together (suzōopoieō, G4806) with him, having forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you all trespasses; blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; and having spoiled (apekduomai, G554) principalities and powers (exousia, G1849), he made a shew of them openly (parrhēsia, G3954), triumphing over (thriambeuō, G2358) them in it.”

“For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.”

“For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober (sōphroneō, G4993), it is for your cause. For the love (agapē, G26) of Christ constraineth (sunechō, G4912) us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live (zaō, G2198) should not henceforth live (zaō, G2198) unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in Christ (Christos, G5547), he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become (ginomai, G1096) new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled (katallassō, G2644) us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry (diakonia, G1248) of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643); to wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling (katallassō, G2644) the world (kosmos, G2889) unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation (katallagē, G2643). Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for Christ, as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God.”

You are a burning lamp lit directly by the Spirit of God. You are to shine brightly and to unite yourself to other lights of God to shine even more brightly. The good that you do together with God and with other disciples glorifies God.

“And the angel who talked with me came again and woke me, like a man who is awakened out of his sleep. And he said to me, “What do you see?” I said, “I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it. And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.” And I said to the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my Lord?” Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” I said, “No, my Lord.” Then he said to me, “This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord of hosts. Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of ‘Grace, grace to it!’” ...Then I said to him, “What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?” And a second time I answered and said to him, “What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the golden oil is poured out?” He said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” I said, “No, my Lord.” Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.””

Zechariah 4:1-7, 11-14 ESV

“And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, and said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: and two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my Lord? Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

““You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. Matthew 5:14-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.5.14-16.ESV>

“Ye are the light (phōs, G5457) of the world (kosmos, G2889). A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light (phōs, G5457) so shine before men, that they may see your good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041), and glorify (doxazō, G1392) your Father which is in heaven.”

Matthew 5:14-16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.5.14-16.KJV>

Phōs, G5457: light, brightness, fire; brilliant, pure, open, understanding

Kosmos, G2889: world, ungodly multitude; fleeting earthly affairs and goods

Kalos, G2570: beautiful, morally good, excellent, praiseworthy, pure, honorable

Doxazō, G1392: to praise, magnify, honor, adorn, make renowned, clothe with splendor; to think or suppose

Your new clothing is the character and nature of God's own Spirit, and His goodness flows through you to the world you encounter by way of what you speak and what you do. Your new character and nature includes: life that overflows, righteousness (rightness), holiness, faith and authority, wisdom, knowledge, discernment, love that takes action (compassion), tenderness, generosity, grace, mercy, longsuffering and patience, peace and wholeness, a spirit of unity, joy, thanksgiving and praise, humility, power, strength, courage, and hope. You are connected to the mind of the Spirit of God. You live for God's purposes with God's passion. (For more on this, see Identity in Christ: Characteristics of Christ in you.)

Working together with God, you can and should seek to change the world. You are His ambassador, carrying around Jesus Christ's victory with you wherever you go. You are beloved to God.

On account of how amazing this new self is, put off the old, dead self. Never wear it again.

'to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.'

Ephesians 4:22-32 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.22-32>

'that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new man, which after God is created in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true holiness. Wherefore putting away (apotithēmi, G659) lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil (diabolos, G1228). Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good (agathos, G18), that he may have to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good (agathos, G18) to the use of edifying (oikodomē, G3619), that it may minister grace (charis, G5485) unto the hearers. And grieve (lupeō, G3076) not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed (sphragizō, G4972) unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking (blasphēmia, G988), be put away from you, with all malice: and be ye kind (chrēstotes, G5543) one to another, tenderhearted (eusplagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you.'

As a disciple of Christ, your view of family is expanded from our own biological family.

Jesus said that His family were those who did the word (or will) of God. Luke's gospel says word, while Matthew's and Mark's say will. Really it does not matter, because God's will is His word. This is how God sees His eternal family: those who do His will (word).

"While he was still speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. But he replied to the man who told him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Matthew 12:46, 48-50 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.12.46-50.ESV>

“While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do (poieō, G4160) the will (thelēma, G2307) of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.”
Matthew 12:46-50 KJV

“And he went up on the mountain and called to him those whom he desired, and they came to him. And he appointed twelve (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and he might send them out to preach and have authority to cast out demons... Then he went home, and the crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat. And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying, “He is out of his mind.” And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and “by the prince of demons he casts out the demons.” And he called them to him and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand... And his mother and his brothers came, and standing outside they sent to him and called him. And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, seeking you.” And he answered them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother.””

“And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him. And he ordained (poieō, G4160) twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send (apostellō, G649) them forth to preach (kērussō, G2784), and to have (echō, G2192) power (exousia, G1849) to heal (therapeuō, G2323) sicknesses, and to cast out devils: ...And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath (echō, G2192) Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954), and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils. And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? And if a kingdom (basileia, G932) be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand... There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him. And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren? “Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said, “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat.” He answered them, “And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? For God commanded, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.’ But you say, ‘If anyone tells his father or his mother, “What you would have gained from me is given to God,” he need not honor his father.’ So for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word of God.”

But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; and honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. They are those that do God’s word (will). They are those in whom God’s Spirit lives continually.

“Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God.”

Romans 8:8-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.8-19.ESV>

“So then they that are in the flesh (sarx, G4561) cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh (sarx, G4561), but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ (Christos, G5547), he is none of his. And if Christ (Christos, G5547) be in you, the body is dead (nekros, G3498) because of sin; but the Spirit is life (zōē, G2222) because of righteousness (dikaiousunē, G1343). But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ (Christos, G5547) from the dead shall also quicken (zōopoieō, G2227) your mortal bodies by his Spirit that (enoikeō, G1774) in you. Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561). For if ye live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561), ye shall die (apothnēskō, G599): but if ye through the Spirit do mortify (thanatoō, G2289) the deeds (praxis, G4234) of the body, ye shall live (zaō, G2198). For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with (summartureō, G4828) our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs (klēronomos, G2818); heirs (klēronomos, G2818) of God, and joint-heirs (sugklēronomos, G4789) with Christ (Christos, G5547); if so be that we suffer with (sumpaschō, G4841) him, that we may be also glorified together (sundoxazō, G4888). For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory (doxa, G1391) which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.”

They are there to nurture your growth. They are there to equip you to be able to make use of your full potential.

“Therefore it says, “When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men.” (In saying, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower regions, the earth? He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.”

“Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, And gave gifts unto men. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors (poimēn, G4166) and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints (hagios, G40), for the work (ergon, G2041) of the ministry (diakonia, G1248), for the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children (nēpios, G3516), tossed to and fro (kludōnizomai, G2831), and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love (agapē, G26), may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ (Christos, G5547): from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working (energeia, G1753) in the measure of every part, maketh (poieō, G4160) increase of the body unto the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of itself in love (agapē, G26)."

While they are responsible for your growth and care, you are also to take up increasing levels of responsibility as part of the family.

Just as your own body has tissues, organs, and systems that work together to enable its proper function, Christ’s body has teams of people that work together to enable its proper function. When a body’s cells and units are not functioning together properly, the body does not function to its full potential, or perhaps at all. As such, it is your responsibility to become and to remain healthy, to be matured and equipped for full function, and to work in unity with your team(s) to accomplish your functions toward carrying out the word and the will of God in your community and in the world.

As an essential member of Christ’s body, you continue the work He began, destroying the works of the devil and meeting the needs of the world.

“Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil.”

Righteousness (Bible study)

Questions

- 1) What does it mean for God to be righteous?
- 2) What does it mean for Jesus Christ to be righteous?
- 3) What does it mean for you to have been made righteous?
- 4) How is righteousness associated with victory?
- 5) What does righteousness have to do with your thinking?
- 6) How does God change your thinking?
- 7) What did Jesus mean when He taught, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be satisfied"?
- 8) What do you desire for the glory of God?

The moment you submit your will to Jesus Christ as Lord, God identifies you with Jesus Christ, making you righteous, or right with Him. You are identified with the sinless One, hidden in Him, so you are seen as sinless. You need to see yourself this way as well, as it changes your relationship with our Father.

Pistis, G4102: conviction of truth, belief, trust, confidence; faithfulness; constancy in profession

You are identified with Jesus Christ in spirit, soul and body. You have been made right in every aspect of your person. You have Christ’s own Spirit living in you and empowering you, so you have God’s authority and power to defeat sin and the devil, who now has no authority over you.

“Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God’s seed abides in him; and he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.”

1 John 3:8-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.3.8-10.ESV>

“He that committeth (poieō, G4160) sin is of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy (luō, G3089) the works (ergon, G2041) of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth (menō, G3306) in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth (poieō, G4160) not righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) is not of God, neither he that loveth (agapaō, G25) not his brother.”

1 John 3:8-10 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.3.8-10.KJV>

Dikaiosunē, G1343: righteousness, rightness; correctness of thinking, feeling and acting

Agapaō, G25: love dearly, be well pleased and content with, to welcome

This means you are no longer captive to any sin or temptation. You have been set free, so choose to live as one who has been set free.

“Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who practices sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.”

John 8:34-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.8.34-36.ESV>

“Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth (poieō, G4160) sin is the servant (doulos, G1401) of sin. And the servant (doulos,

This means changing your thinking when temptation comes your way: you choose to think on Jesus Christ, His victory, and how every good thing you want comes from faith in God rather than submitting to this sin.

“So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.”

Neither yield ye your members as instruments (hoplon, G3696) of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive (zaō, G2198) from the dead (nekros, G3498), and your members as instruments (hoplon, G3696) of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) unto God. Those things, which ye have both learned (manthanō, G3129), and received (paralambanō, G3880), and heard, and seen in me, do (prassō, G4238): and the God of peace (eirēnē, G1515) shall be with you.”

For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and

And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe (pisteuō, G4100) on him should receive (lambanō, G2983): for the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified (doxazō, G1392).)”

“For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.”

1 Corinthians 13:9-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.13.9-13.ESV>

“For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect (teleios, G5046) is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood (phroneō, G5426) as a child, I thought (logizomai, G3049) as a child: but when I became a man, I put away (katargeō, G2673) childish things. “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.”

“But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word (logos, G3056), and not a doer (poiētēs, G4163), he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being (ginomai, G1096) not a forgetful hearer, but a doer (poiētēs, G4163) of the work (ergon, G2041), this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3017) in his deed (poiēsis, G4162).”

We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,”

2 Corinthians 10:3-5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.10.3-5.ESV>

“For though we walk in the flesh (sarx, G4561), we do not war after the flesh (sarx, G4561): (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds (ochurōma, G3497);) casting down imaginations (logismos, G3053), and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity (aichmalōtizō, G163) every thought (noēma, G3540) to the obedience of Christ;”

“And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him.” And Jesus answered, “O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.” And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.””

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.17.14-20.ESV>

“And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.”

And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” And he said to them, “This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer.””

And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.”

Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, “I believed, and so I spoke,” we also believe, and so we also speak, ...For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God... as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.”

2 Corinthians 4:7, 13, 15, 18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.7-18.ESV>

We having the same spirit of faith (pistis, G4102), according as it is written, I believed (pisteuō, G4100), and therefore have I spoken; we also believe (pisteuō, G4100), and therefore speak; ...For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace (charis, G5485) might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory (doxa, G1391) of God... while we look (skopeō, G4648) not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.”

Prayer also consists of the words that you direct toward God.

“Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

Matthew 6:9-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.9-13.ESV>

“After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come. Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom (basileia, G932), and the power (dunamis, G1411), and the glory (doxa, G1391), for ever. Amen.”

When you pray, you should speak out loud so it can be heard by all of the hosts of heaven and hell. Your words have weight.

““And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.”

“And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.”

Matthew 6:5-6 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.6.5-6.KJV>

For many, prayer is mainly about asking God for things, but this view is incorrect.

“Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him... But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.”

Matthew 6:8, 30-33 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.8-33.ESV>

“Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask (aiteō, G154) him... Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith (oligopistos, G3640)? Therefore take no thought (merimnaō, G3309), saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”

Prayers that will not be answered by God include: 1) asking Him to do what He already accomplished through Christ’s sacrifice;

“But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him.”

Romans 10:8-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.8-12.ESV>

“But what saith it? The word (rhēma, G4487) is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart (kardia, G2588): that is, the word (rhēma, G4487) of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kērussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus, and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart (kardia, G2588) man believeth (pisteuō, G4100) unto righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession (homologeō, G3670) is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord (kurios, G2962) over all is rich unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him.”

“But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us... Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, “I believed, and so I spoke,” we also believe, and so we also speak, ...For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.”

And lay my staff on the face of the child.” Then the mother of the child said, “As the Lord lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So he arose and followed her. Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the face of the child, but there was no sound or sign of life. Therefore he returned to meet him and told him, “The child has not awakened.” When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed. So he went in and shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to the Lord. Then he went up and lay on the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. And as he stretched himself upon him, the flesh of the child became warm. Then he got up again and walked once back and forth in the house, and went up and stretched himself upon him. The child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. Then he summoned Gehazi and said, “Call this Shunammite.” So he called her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell... The greatest teaching of the New Testament is that Jesus Christ comes to live and dwell in you as a disciple of His by way of the Holy Spirit.

“Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. “I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.” Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?” Jesus answered him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.14.12-23.ESV>

“Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater works than these shall he do (poieō, G4160); because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. If ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) any thing in my name (onoma, G3686), I will do (poieō, G4160) it. If ye love (agapaō, G25) me, keep my commandments (entolē, G1785). And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth (alētheia, G225); whom the world (kosmos, G2889) cannot receive (lambanō, G2983), because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth (menō, G3306) with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world (kosmos, G2889) seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live (zaō, G2198), ye shall live (zaō, G2198) also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath (echō, G2192) my commandments (entolē, G1785), and keepeth them, he it is that loveth (agapaō, G25) me: and he that loveth (agapaō, G25) me shall be loved (agapaō, G25) of my Father, and I will love (agapaō, G25) him, and will manifest myself to him. Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love (agapaō, G25) me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love (agapaō, G25) him, and we will come unto him, and make (poieō, G4160) our abode (monē, G3438) with him.”

As you put off the layers of the old you, the glory of God is there beneath, and Christ in you is enabled to live as a God-enhanced version of you, doing God's will on earth.

“But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.”

Ephesians 4:20-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.20-24.ESV>

“But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation (anastrophē, G391) the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new man, which after God is created in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true holiness.”

“Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could not gaze at Moses’ face because of its glory, which was being brought to an end, will not the ministry of the Spirit have even more glory?

...Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not gaze at the outcome of what was being brought to an end. But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.”

2 Corinthians 3:7-8, 12-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.3.7-18.ESV>

“But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory (doxa, G1391) of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: how shall not the ministration (diakonia, G1248) of the spirit be rather glorious?

...Seeing then that we have such hope (elpis, G1680), we use great plainness of speech (parrhēsia, G3954): and not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: but their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. Now the Lord (kurios, G2962) is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is, there is liberty (eleutheria, G1657). But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass (kaptotrizomai, G2734) the glory (doxa, G1391) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), are changed (metamorphoō, G3339) into the same image from glory (doxa, G1391) to glory (doxa, G1391), even as by the Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962).”

Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you.” But he answered them, “My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.””

Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word (logos, G3056) of God, and do (poieō, G4160) it.”

For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.”

James 1:22-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.22-25.ESV>

“But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word (logos, G3056), and not a doer (poiētēs, G4163), he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect (teleios, G5046) law of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being (ginomai, G1096) not a forgetful hearer, but a doer (poiētēs, G4163) of the work (ergon, G2041), this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3017) in his deed (poiēsis, G4162).”

Be led by God’s character and nature.

“For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.”

For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law... But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit."

"This I say then, Walk (peripateō, G4043) in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561). For the flesh (sarx, G4561) lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh (sarx, G4561): and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do (poieō, G4160) the things that ye would (thelō, G2309). But if ye be led (agō, G71) of the Spirit, ye are not under the law... But the fruit of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy, peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness, faith, meekness (praotēs, G4236), temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh (sarx, G4561) with the affections

The Spirit of God in you is your greatest treasure.

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! “No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. If therefore the light (phōs, G5457) that is in thee be darkness (skotos, G4655), how great is that darkness (skotos, G4655)! No man can serve (douleuō, G1398) two masters (kurios, G2962): for either he will hate the one, and love (agapaō, G25) the other; or else he will hold (antechomai, G472) to the one, and despise the other. Therefore take no thought (merimnaō, G3309), saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built.”

Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth (poieō, G4160) them, I will shew you to whom he is like: he is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake (saleuō, G4531) it: for it was founded upon a rock.”

“But he said to him, “A man once gave a great banquet and invited many. And at the time for the banquet he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, ‘Come, for everything is now ready.’ But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.’ And another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them. Please have me excused.’ And another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’ So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame.’ And the servant said, ‘Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’ And the master said to the servant, ‘Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.” Now great crowds accompanied him, and he turned and said to them, “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish.’ Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.”

“Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many: and sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse (paraiteomai, G3868). The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused (paraiteomai, G3868). And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused (paraiteomai, G3868). And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came, and shewed his Lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the Lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden (kaleō, G2564) shall taste of my supper. And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, If any man come to me, and hate (miseō, G3404) not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life (psuchē, G5590) also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear (bastazō, G941) his cross (stauros, G4716), and come (erchomai, G2064) after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending (thelō, G2309) to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh (apotassomai, G657) not all that he hath (huparchonta, G5224), he cannot be my disciple (mathētēs, G3101).”

“And Samuel said, “Has the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, he has also rejected you from being king.” Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me that I may bow before the Lord.” And Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you. For you have rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord has rejected you from being king over Israel.” As Samuel turned to go away, Saul seized the skirt of his robe, and it tore. Because thou hast rejected (mâ’as, H3988) the word of the LORD , He hath also rejected (mâ’as,

“And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury: for all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.”

“And he said to them, “Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.” And he told them a parable, saying, “The land of a rich man produced plentifully, and he thought to himself, ‘What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?’ And he said, ‘I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.”’ But God said to him, ‘Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.””

Luke 12:15-21 ESV

“And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life (zōē, G2222) consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”

And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.”

We tend to develop affections for those people or things that we choose to think about, spend time with, and spend our money on. As such, you have chosen your first love now, and you will choose what will become your first love in the future.

““Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. ““Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” Yet another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home.” Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.””

Luke 9:57-62 ESV

“And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord (kurios, G2962), I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath (echō, G2192) not where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. And another also said, Lord (kurios, G2962), I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house. “Now great crowds accompanied him, and he turned and said to them, “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish.’ Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.”

And whosoever doth not bear (bastazō, G941) his cross (stauros, G4716), and come (erchomai, G2064) after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending (thelō, G2309) to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh (apotassomai, G657) not all that he hath (huparchonta, G5224), he cannot be my disciple (mathētēs, G3101).”

“I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 7:32-35 ESV

“But I would have you without carefulness (amerimnos, G275). He that is unmarried careth (merimnaō, G3309) for the things that belong to the Lord (kurios, G2962), how he may please (areskō, G700) the Lord: but he that is married careth (merimnaō, G3309) for the things that are of the world (kosmos, G2889), how he may please (areskō, G700) his wife. And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare (brochos, G1029) upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord (kurios, G2962) without distraction (aperispastōs, G563).”

For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God’s law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.”

Romans 8:5-8 ESV

“For they that are after the flesh (sarx, G4561) do mind (phroneō, G5426) the things of the flesh (sarx, G4561); but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally (sarx, G4561) minded (phronēma, G5427) is death (thanatos, G2288); but to be spiritually minded (phronēma, G5427) is life (zōē, G5427) and peace (eirēnē, G1515). Because the carnal (sarx, G4561) mind (phronēma, G5427) is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.”

Leading (Bible study)

Questions

- 1) How did Jesus lead?
- 2) In what ways are disciples of Jesus Christ to lead?
- 3) How have you taken responsibility to lead so far?
- 4) What parts of God's call to lead have you been neglecting?
- 5) What opportunity (or opportunities) should you take on to lead?

As disciples of Jesus, we are all called to lead. Disciples of Jesus lead by serving and by taking responsibility for others. As sons and daughters of God, you are the servants of all. When it comes to serving, nothing is beneath you. Washing dirty feet was not below our Lord Jesus.

“And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction... And proclaim as you go, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.”

Matthew 10:1, 7-8 ESV

But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign (basileuō, G936) over us. And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. “Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots. Then they sat down and kept watch over him there. And over his head they put the charge against him, which read, “This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.” Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads and saying, “You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.” So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying, “He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him. For he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way.”

And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save (sōzō, G4982) thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved (sōzō, G4982)

He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?”

1 Corinthians 3:6-16 ESV

For we are labourers together (sunergeos, G4904) with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace (charis, G5485) of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work (ergon, G2041) of what sort it is. If any man's work (ergon, G2041) abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work (ergon, G2041) shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); yet so as by fire. “Therefore it says, “When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men.” (In saying, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower regions, the earth? He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.”

And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors (poimēn, G4166) and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints (hagios, G40), for the work (ergon, G2041) of the ministry (diakonia, G1248), for the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children (nēpios, G3516), tossed to and fro (kludōnizomai, G2831), and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love (agapē, G26), may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ (Christos, G5547): from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working (energeia, G1753) in the measure of every part, maketh (poieō, G4160) increase of the body unto the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of itself in love (agapē, G26).”

“For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. Part of God's church wants to ignore the Holy Spirit like a weird uncle, stating that certain abilities of the Spirit were for the times of the apostles in scripture. In short, they reject God's Gift to them, wanting to give that ability back to God. Another part of God's church believes the Spirit's ability comes through some special anointing, and then those who have the perceived special ability are tempted to abuse it for their own gain. There are many such examples of abuse. Neither brings glory to God.

Just as salvation comes through faith, so does the gift of God's Spirit.

“Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.” And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation.” So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.”

“Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do (poieō, G4160)? Then Peter said unto them, Repent (metanoeō, G3340), and be baptized every one of you in the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus Christ for the remission (aphesis, G859) of sins, and ye shall receive (lambanō, G2983) the gift (dōrea, G1431) of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost. For the promise (epaggelia, G1860) is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort (parakaleō, G3870), saying, Save (sōzō, G4982) yourselves from this untoward (skolios, G4646) generation. “And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, saying, “We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man’s blood upon us.” But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.””

For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. In love he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.”

“if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Believe (pisteuō, G4100) me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe (pisteuō, G4100) me for the very works' (ergon, G2041) sake. Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater works than these shall he do (poieō, G4160); because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) in my name (onoma, G3686), that will I do (poieō, G4160), that the Father may be glorified (doxazō, G1392) in the Son. If ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) any thing in my name (onoma, G3686), I will do (poieō, G4160) it. If ye love (agapaō, G25) me, keep my commandments (entolē, G1785). And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), that he may abide (menō, G3306) with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth (alētheia, G225); whom the world (kosmos, G2889) cannot receive (lambanō, G2983), because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth (menō, G3306) with you, and shall be in you... He that hath (echō, G2192) my commandments (entolē, G1785), and keepeth them, he it is that loveth (agapaō, G25) me: and he that loveth (agapaō, G25) me shall be loved (agapaō, G25) of my Father, and I will love (agapaō, G25) him, and will manifest myself to him."

Speak the end result for the mountain (anything in the way of God's kingdom work) to move (talk to it like a person as Jesus did), and there will be power to accomplish what you believe.

“And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him.” And Jesus answered, “O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.” And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.””

Matthew 17:14-20 ESV

“And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain,

Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.”

“On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it... As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.” And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. For the Father loveth (phileō, G5368) the Son, and sheweth (deiknuō, G1166) him all things that himself doeth (poieō, G4160): and he will shew (deiknuō, G1166) him greater works (ergon, G2041) than these, that ye may marvel.”

“Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. For the body does not consist of one member but of many... Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.”

1 Corinthians 12:4-14, 27-31 ESV

“Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith (pistis, G4102) by the same Spirit; to another the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386) by the same Spirit; to another the working (energēma, G1755) of miracles (dunamis, G141); to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh (energeō, G1754) that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will (boulomai, G1014). For as the body is one, and hath (echō, G2192) many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ (Christos, G5547). For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many... Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church (ekklēsia, G1577), first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles (dunamis, G1411), then gifts (charisma, G5486) of healings (iama, G2386), helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? But covet earnestly (zēloō, G2206) the best (kreittōn, G2909) gifts (charisma, G5486): and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.”

This Spirit in you knows everything God knows.

“these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. “For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.”

For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world (kosmos, G2889), but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth (anakrinō, G350) all things, yet he himself is judged (anakrinō, G350) of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).”

“When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. And the servant said, “Alas, my master! What shall we do?” He said, “Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.” Then Elisha prayed and said, “O Lord, please open his eyes that he may see.” So the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. And when the Syrians came down against him, Elisha prayed to the Lord and said, “Please strike this people with blindness.” So he struck them with blindness in accordance with the prayer of Elisha.”

“And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.”

“Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. And behold, there was a woman who had had a disabling spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your disability.” And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day." Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

And, behold, there was a woman which had (echō, G2192) a spirit of infirmity (astheneia, G769) eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed (apoluō, G630) from thine infirmity (astheneia, G769). And he laid his hands (cheir, G5495) on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified (doxazō, G1392) God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed (therapeuō, G2323) on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed (therapeuō, G2323), and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite (hupokritēs, G5273), doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose (luō, G3089) his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan (Satanas, G4567) hath bound (deō, G1210), lo, these eighteen years, be loosed (luō, G3089) from this bond (desmon, G1199) on the sabbath day?"

For in this we groan (stenazō, G4727), earnestly desiring (epipotheō, G1971) to be clothed upon (ependuomai, G1902) with our house which is from heaven: if so be that being clothed (enduō, G1746) we shall not be found naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan (stenazō, G4727), being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon (ependuomai, G1902), that mortality might be swallowed up (katapinō, G2666) of life (zōē, G2222). "The sower sows the word. And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: the ones who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy. And they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away. And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold.""

"The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side (hodos, G3598), where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts (kardia, G2588). And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive (lambano, G2983) it with gladness; and have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches (ploutos, G4149), and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good (kalos, G2570) ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.”

“Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.”

John 15:4-5 ESV

“Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide (menō, G3306) in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide (menō, G3306) in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do (poieō, G4160) nothing.”

“For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God."

Romans 8:5-14 ESV

"For they that are after the flesh (sarx, G4561) do mind (phroneō, G5426) the things of the flesh (sarx, G4561); but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally (sarx, G4561) minded (phronēma, G5427) is death (thanatos, G2288); but to be spiritually minded (phronēma, G5427) is life (zōē, G5427) and peace (eirēnē, G1515). Because the carnal (sarx, G4561) mind (phronēma, G5427) is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh (sarx, G4561) cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh (sarx, G4561), but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have (echō, G2192) not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ (Christos, G5547) be in you, the body is dead (nekros, G3498) because of sin; but the Spirit is life (zōē, G2222) because of righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343). But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead (nekros, G3498) shall also quicken (zōopoieō, G2227) your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth (enoikeō, G1774) in you. Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561). For if ye live (zaō, G2198) after the flesh (sarx, G4561), ye shall die (apothnēskō, G599): but if ye through the Spirit do mortify (thanatoō, G2289) the deeds (praxis, G4234) of the body, ye shall live (zaō, G2198). For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

“But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law... But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit.”

“This I say then, Walk (peripateō, G4043) in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh (sarx, G4561). For the flesh (sarx, G4561) lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh (sarx, G4561): and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do (poieō, G4160) the things that ye would (thelō, G2309). But if ye be led (agō, G71) of the Spirit, ye are not under the law... But the fruit of the Spirit is love (agapē, G26), joy, peace (eirēnē, G1515), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), gentleness (chrēstotēs, G5544), goodness, faith, meekness (praotēs, G4236), temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh (sarx, G4561) with the affections and lusts. If we live (zaō, G2198) in the Spirit, let us also walk (stoicheō, G4748) in the Spirit.”

(Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill (plēroō, G4137) all things.) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors (poimēn, G4166) and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints (hagios, G40), for the work (ergon, G2041) of the ministry (diakonia, G1248), for the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children (nēpios, G3516), tossed to and fro (kludōnizomai, G2831), and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love (agapē, G26), may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ (Christos, G5547): from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working (energeia, G1753) in the measure of every part, maketh (poieō, G4160) increase of the body unto the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of itself in love (agapē, G26)."

“All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit... For the body does not consist of one member but of many. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.”

For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel.”

“Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain... What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, “I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty.””

And what agreement hath the temple (naos, G3485) of God with idols? for ye are the temple (naos, G3485) of the living (zaō, G2198) God; as God hath said, I will dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in them, and walk in (emperipateō, G1704) them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. “Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him.”

Beware lest any man spoil (sulagōgeō, G4812) you through philosophy and vain (kenos, G2756) deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world (kosmos, G2889), and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth (katoikeō, G2730) all the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of the Godhead bodily (sōmatikōs, G4985). “how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, “What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet.” Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him.”

“how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation (sōtēria, G4991); which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord (kurios, G2962), and was confirmed (bebaioō, G950) unto us by them that heard him; God also bearing them witness (sunepimartureō, G4901), both with signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5059), and with divers miracles (dunamis, G1411), and gifts (merismos, G3311) of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will (thelēsis, G2308)? For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst (stephanoō, G4737) him with glory (doxa, G1391) and honour, And didst set him over the works (ergon, G2041) of thy hands (cheir, G5495): Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.”

“When Abram was ninety-nine years old the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless, that I may make my covenant between me and you, and may multiply you greatly.” Then Abram fell on his face. And God said to him, “Behold, my covenant is with you, and you shall be the father of a multitude of nations... I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make you into nations, and kings shall come from you... And God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover, I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall become nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.””

“And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty (shadday, H7706) God (‘êl, H410); walk before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying, As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations... And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee... And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be. “And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?” And someone from the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able.” And he answered them, “O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me.” And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood. And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” And Jesus said to him, “If you can! All things are possible for one who believes.” Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!” And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.” And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, “He is dead.””

“And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; and wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible to him that believeth (pisteuō, G4100). And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.”

You can speak on God’s behalf to bind (declare Satan’s work unlawful) and loose (set free) anyone on earth, and it is done. (Talk to the problem like a person.)

“Then a demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the man spoke and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, “Can this be the Son of David?” But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons.” Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can someone enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."'''

"Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, but by Beelzebub (G954) the prince of the devils. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom (basileia, G932) divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand (histēmi, G2476): and if Satan cast out (ekballō, G1544) Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom (basileia, G932) stand (histēmi, G2476)? And if I by Beelzebub cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter (eiserchomai, G1525) into a strong man's (ischuros, G2478) house (oikia, G3614), and spoil his goods, except he first bind (deō, G1210) the strong man (ischuros, G2478)? and then he will spoil his house (oikia, G3614). He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth (sunagō, G4863) not with me scattereth abroad. Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988) shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988) against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh (epō, G2036) a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh (epō, G2036) against the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Either make (poieō, G4160) the tree good (kalos, G2570), and his fruit (karpos, G2590) good (kalos, G2570); or else make (poieō, G4160) the tree corrupt (sapro, G4550), and his fruit (karpos, G2590) corrupt (sapro, G4550): for the tree is known by his fruit (karpos, G2590). O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil (ponēros, G4190), speak (laleō, G2980) good things (agathos, G18)? for out of the abundance (perisseuma, G4051) of the heart (kardia, G2588) the mouth (stoma, G4750) speaketh (laleō, G2980). A good (agathos, G18) man out of the good (agathos, G18) treasure of the heart (kardia, G2588) bringeth forth (ekballō, G1544) good things (agathos, G18): and an evil (ponēros, G4190) man out of the evil (ponēros, G4190) treasure bringeth forth (ekballō, G1544) evil things (ponēros, G4190). But I say (legō, G3004) unto you, That every idle (argos, G692) word (rhēma, G4487) that men shall speak (laleō, G2980), they shall give account (logos, G3056) thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words (logos, G3056) thou shalt be justified (dikaioō, G1344), and by thy words (logos, G3056) thou shalt be condemned.”

And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day." Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

All things are possible for one who believes.

“And Jesus said to him, “If you can! All things are possible for one who believes.” Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!” And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.” And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, “He is dead.” But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” And he said to them, “This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer.””

“Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible to him that believeth (pisteuō, G4100). And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.”
