List of words associated with being saved along with short definitions \(Greek\)

List of words associated with being saved with short definitions \(Hebrew\)

Introduction

Many modern day Christians don't understand the words associated with salvation in the Bible and how they are used. In Christianity, we typically associate salvation with saving faith, which causes one to be born again and gain admission to heaven. As such, many typically think of being saved as a single event.

Salvation isn't just a single event which comes about by saving faith. Instead, it's something we grow into, step by step, as our faith and our obedience to God grows! Altogether, God's salvation is even more full and more wonderful than its starting event, amazing as that utterly transformal event is. In Christ, we are meant to be transformed by the renewing of our minds to the Word of God (Romans 12:2), growing in Christlikeness until we think together as Christ thinks (1 Corinthians 2:16) and walk together as He walked (1 John 2:6). Instead, when our growth becomes stunted just after the point of saving faith, we miss out on the freedom, the life, the goodness, and the purpose God has for us— and for those we encounter in this life. This is what the apostle Paul warns against as neglecting “such a great salvation” (Hebrews 2:3).

As such, this book addresses what it means to be saved and our deeply important roles as coworkers together with God in the salvation of others. This book is a Bible study organized into 73 days, with words related to salvation selected for meditation, and with questions that follow each day's passage(s) included for either personal meditation or group discussion. Our journey in salvation starts in the New Testament, organized by the Greek words that refer to salvation, then concludes in the Old Testament, organized by the Hebrew words that refer to the same.

Study. I chose to reproduce the Bible passages from two of the most accurate English translations of the New Testament, the King James Version (KJV, 1611) and English Standard Version (ESV, 2016), reproducing scripture according to the oldest and according to one modern translation about 400 years later.

Meditation. For the purpose of understanding and meditation, selected Hebrew and Greek words are defined in a short way based on three key references. The words are referenced according to the numbers for Strong's Concordance, allowing relatively easy online lookup for how the words are elsewhere used in the Bible. For Hebrew words, the reference chosen to help understanding is the Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon (1906). For Greek words, the reference chosen to aid understanding is Joseph Henry Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament (1886). In some cases, parts of Strong's definitions are used, as they are thought to add additional value. Some Bible apps now have these three references embedded, such as the Blue Letter Bible and the Bible KJV Strong's Concordance (Kairos). Of these options, I prefer to use the latter from a smartphone, although the former is a more complete reference and may be of more use on a full-sized computer.

Application. Moreover, I've included a list of questions that could be used either for personal or group devotional or discipleship studies.

Let's not only understand the greatness and fullness of God's salvation, but also put into practice, day by day, what God reveals to us in His word. Our mind is only renewed to the word of God to the extent that we have put that word into practice (James 1:22). This is God's blueprint for us in receiving the imperishable word: to be "conformed into the image of His Son" (Romans 8:29), the Word of God made flesh (John 1:14). And it's not just about us and our own transformation! We are now Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20), commanded to go out into the world together in Christ's stead to bring the fullness of His salvation to the world. What responsibility! What a trust!

Save, G4982, sōzō

Day 1. sōzō

“She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.””

Matthew 1:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.1.21.ESV>

“And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS (lēsous, G2424): for he shall save (sōzō, G4982) his people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.1.21.KJV>

lēsous, G2424: Jesus = “Jehovah is salvation”, same as Joshua or Yehōshûa’, H3091

Translated as: Jesus

Pronounced: ee-ay-sooce’ (yeh-ho-shoo’-ah in Hebrew)

“And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. And they went and woke him, saying, “Save us, Lord; we are perishing.””

Matthew 8:23-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.8.23-25.ESV>

“And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save (sōzō, G4982) us: we perish.”

Matthew 8:23-25 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.8.23-25.KJV>

“And behold, a woman who had suffered from a discharge of blood for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, for she said to herself, “If I only touch his garment, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well.”

Matthew 9:20-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.9.20-22.ESV>

“And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment: for she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole (sōzō, G4982). But Jesus (lēsous, G2424) turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982). And the woman was made whole from that hour.”

Matthew 9:20-22 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.9.20-22.KJV>

“And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. For she said, “If I touch even his garments, I will be made well.” And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him, immediately turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my garments?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, ‘Who touched me?’” And he looked around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.””

Mark 5:25-34 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.5.25-34.ESV>

“And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, when she had heard of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), came in the press behind, and touched his garment. For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole (sōzō, G4982). And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed (iaomai, G2390) of that plague. And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982); go in peace (eirēnē, G1515), and be whole (hugiēs, G5199) of thy plague.”

Mark 5:25-34 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.5.25-34.KJV>

laomai, G2390: to cure, heal, make whole, to free from sins, to bring about salvation

Translated as: heal, make whole

Pronounced: ee-ah'-om-ahee

Eirēnē, G1515: peace, harmony, security, safety, prosperity, free from fear, content, rest

Translated as: peace

Pronounced: i-ray'-nay

Hugiēs, G5199: sound (in body), make one whole, restore to health; not deviating from truth

Translated as: whole

Pronounced: hoo-ee'-ace'

"Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. And there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at Jesus' feet, he implored him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. As Jesus went, the people pressed around him. And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and though she had spent all her living on physicians, she could not be healed by anyone. She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, and immediately her discharge of blood ceased. And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and are pressing in on you!" But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out from me." And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace." While he was still speaking, someone from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she will be well." And when he came to the house, he allowed no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. And all were weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Do not weep, for she is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." And her spirit returned, and she got up at once. And he directed that something should be given her to eat."

Luke 8:40-55 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.8.40-55.ESV>

"And it came to pass, that, when Jesus (lēsous, G2424) was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him. And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' (lēsous, G2424) feet, and besought him that he would come into his house: for he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him. And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed (therapeuō, G2323) of any, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd. And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed (iaomai, G2390) immediately. And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982); go in peace (eirēnē, G1515). While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead: trouble not the Master. But when Jesus (lēsous, G2424) heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole (sōzō, G4982). And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise. And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.”

Luke 8:40-55 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.8.40-55.KJV>

Therapeuō, G2323: to serve, do service; to heal, cure, restore to health, relieve of disease

Translated as: heal, cure

Pronounced: ther-ap-yoo'-o

Day 2, sōzō

“When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored to the shore. And when they got out of the boat, the people immediately recognized him and ran about the whole region and began to bring the sick people on their beds to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he came, in villages, cities, or countryside, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and implored him that they might touch even the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched it were made well.”

Mark 6:53-56 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.6.53-56.ESV>

“And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, and ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole (sōzō, G4982).”

Mark 6:53-56 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.6.53-56.KJV>

““Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, and you will be hated by all for my name’s sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.”

Matthew 10:16-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.10.16-22.ESV>

“Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved (sōzō, G4982).”

Matthew 10:16-22 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.10.16-22.KJV>

“And Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me.” Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?””

Matthew 14:28-31 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.14.28-31.ESV>

“And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus (Iēsous, G2424). But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save (sōzō, G4982) me. And immediately Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?”

Matthew 14:28-31 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.14.28-31.KJV>

Questions

- 1) How is it evident that the word had gotten out about the healing of the woman with an issue of blood for twelve years?
- 2) Did people continue to be healed in the same way this woman was made well? Whose faith made them whole?
- 3) Who speaks within Christ followers who bear witness to him?
- 4) How may we expect our newfound obedience to Jesus Christ to lead to strife within and outside of family relationships? To what extent have you experienced this? Explain.
- 5) How are you willing to let your current relationships change in order to obey Christ's commands to his disciples?
- 6) How is our salvation (sōzō) related to our endurance?
- 7) Describe Peter's faith in Jesus as seen in the last scripture for today.
- 8) Jesus' disciples struggled and grew in faith throughout their lives as trials came. Comparing yourself to such disciples, where are you in your faith journey as Christ follower?
- 9) How consistently do you respond out of faith in God in times of trial?
- 10) What can you do today and this week to grow in faith and in obedience to Christ?

Day 3, sōzō

“From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you.” But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.” Then Jesus told his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul? For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.”

Matthew 16:21-27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.16.21-27.ESV>

“From that time forth began Jesus (lēsous, G2424) to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. Then said Jesus (lēsous, G2424) unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save (sōzō, G4982) his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.”

Matthew 16:21-27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.16.21-27.KJV>

“Jesus said to him, “If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly, I say to you, only with difficulty will a rich person enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.” When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished, saying, “Who then can be saved?” But Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.” Then Peter said in reply, “See, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?” Jesus said to them, “Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of Man will sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name’s sake, will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

“Jesus (lēsous, G2424) said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. Then said Jesus (lēsous, G2424) unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved (sōzō, G4982)? But Jesus (lēsous, G2424) beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. Day 4, sōzō

“As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?” And Jesus answered them, “See that no one leads you astray. For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and they will lead many astray. And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are but the beginning of the birth pains. “Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name’s sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.”

“And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved (sōzō, G.”

“Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads and saying, “You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.” So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying, “He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him. For he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way.”

“Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save (sōzō, G4982) thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved (sōzō, G4982) others; himself he cannot save (sōzō, G4982). If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let him deliver (rhuomai, G4506) him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.”

“And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!” The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” There was also an inscription over him, “This is the King of the Jews.” One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, “Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!” But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.” And he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” And he said to him, “Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise.””

“And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved (sōzō, G4982) others; let him save (sōzō, G4982) himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God. And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, and saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself. And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save (sōzō, G4982) thyself and us. But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. Day 5. sōzō

“Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there with a withered hand. And they watched Jesus, to see whether he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man with the withered hand, “Come here.” And he said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. And he looked around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.”

“And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand. And they watched him, whether he would heal (therapeuō, G2323) him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth. And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save (sōzō, G4982) life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole (hugiēs, G5199) as the other.”

“And they came to Jericho. And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” And Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart. Get up; he is calling you.” And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. And Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And the blind man said to him, “Rabbi, let me recover my sight.” And Jesus said to him, “Go your way; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.”

“And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timæus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus (lēsous, G2424) of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus (lēsous, G2424), thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee. And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus (lēsous, G2424). And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight. And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982). And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) in the way.”

Questions

- 1) How did Jesus save life? How did he do good?
- 2) What happened when Jesus commanded the man with the withered hand to do what He could not do?
- 3) Did Jesus regard what He did as sacred, just as the Sabbath was sacred? Is the body similarly sacred?
- 4) What caused Jesus to give attention to and have compassion on Bartimæus?
- 5) How did Jesus save Bartimæus (or made him whole)?
- 6) Whose faith saved Bartimæus, according to Jesus?
- 7) What was Bartimæus' response after he was made whole? Is this the type of response that Jesus expects when He saves someone?

Day 6. sōzō

“Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.” So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]”

“Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover (kalōs, G2573). So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.”

Questions

- 1) Why did Jesus rebuke (or upbraid) the disciples?
- 2) Following what response are people saved, according to Jesus' words to His disciples here?
- 3) What signs will follow those who believe Jesus, in order to confirm their words preached?
- 4) Was casting out devils new for the disciples to do themselves? How about the other signs?
- 5) Do any of the signs following include the saving work of Christ?
- 6) What is Jesus' position now?
- 7) How did the Lord work with the disciples?
- 8) Does the Lord still work with us as disciples, if we are obedient to His command here?
- 9) Has God changed the way He works with us? Has He changed the way He saves?

Day 7. sōzō

“The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look at him! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is justified by all her children.” One of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee’s house and reclined at table. And behold, a woman of the city, who was a sinner, when she learned that he was reclining at table in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster flask of ointment, and standing behind him at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head and kissed his feet and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner.” And Jesus answering said to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” And he answered, “Say it, Teacher.” “A certain moneylender had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he cancelled the debt of both. Now which of them will love him more?” Simon answered, “The one, I suppose, for whom he cancelled the larger debt.” And he said to him, “You have judged rightly.” Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little.” And he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” Then those who were at table with him began to say among themselves, “Who is this, who even forgives sins?” And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.””

“The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! But wisdom is justified of all her children. And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee’s house, and sat down to meat. And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) sat at meat in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, and stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on. There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave (charizomai, G5483) them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave (charizomai, G5483) most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven (aphiēmi, G863); for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven (aphiēmi, G863), the same loveth little. And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven (aphiēmi, G863). And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth (aphiēmi, G863) sins also? And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved (sōzō, G4982) thee; go in peace (eirēnē, G1515).”

“And when a great crowd was gathering and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable, “A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the air devoured it. And some fell on the rock, and as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. And some fell into good soil and grew and yielded a hundredfold.” As he said these things, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.” And when his disciples asked him what this parable meant, he said, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but for others they are in parables, so that ‘seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’ Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. The ones along the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience.”

“And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be? And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved (sōzō, G4982). They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.”

Day 8. sōzō

“Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. When Jesus had stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he had not lived in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me.” For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.) Jesus then asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Legion,” for many demons had entered him. And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned. When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how the demon-possessed man had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, “Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.” And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.”

“And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked. When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country. Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), clothed, and in his right mind (sōphroneō, G4993): and they were afraid. They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed (sōzō, G4982). Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear; and he went up into the ship, and returned back again. Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.”

“He went on his way through towns and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. And someone said to him, “Lord, will those who are saved be few?” And he said to them, “Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, ‘Lord, open to us,’ then he will answer you, ‘I do not know where you come from.’ Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.’ But he will say, ‘I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil!’ In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves cast out. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God. And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

“And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved (sōzō, G4982)? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are: then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.”

Day 9. sōzō

“On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.” When he saw them he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” And he said to him, “Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well.””

Luke 17:11-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.17.11-19.ESV>

“And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed (katharizō, G2511). And one of them, when he saw that he was healed (iaomai, G2390), turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) answering said, Were there not ten cleansed (katharizō, G2511)? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger. And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole (sōzō, G4982).”

“He entered Jericho and was passing through. And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today.” So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all grumbled, “He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner.” And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold.” And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.””

Luke 19:1-10 ESV

“And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus (lēsous, G2424) who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus (lēsous, G2424) came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) said unto him, This day is salvation (sōtēria, G4991) come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save (sōzō, G4982) that which was lost.”

Questions

- 1) How did Jesus answer the request of the lepers to have mercy on them? Have you sought Christ's mercy at any time or times in your life?
- 2) What did Jesus require of the men in order to be cleansed?
- 3) Why was the leper who returned saved, according to Jesus?
- 4) What was this leper's reaction to having been made whole (or clean)? How have you responded to your salvation through Christ Jesus our Lord?
- 5) Why did Zacchæus seek to see Jesus? Why did you come to seek Jesus?
- 6) How did Zacchæus respond to having received Jesus' attention?
- 7) How did Zacchæus' response compare to the way you first responded to Jesus? How you have responded since?
- 8) Why do you think Jesus said that salvation had come to Zacchæus' house?
- 9) Jesus stated the reason he came. How was His ministry a fulfillment of that stated purpose?
- 10) How are we as the church to continue Jesus' ministry? How are you to continue His ministry?

Day 10. sōzō

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God.””

John 3:14-21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.3.14-21.ESV>

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life (zōē, G2222). For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life (zōē, G2222). For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved (sōzō, G4982). He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.”

“So Jesus again said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

John 10:7-10 ESV

“Then said Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved (sōzō, G4982), and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life (zōē, G2222), and that they might have it more abundantly.”

“And Jesus cried out and said, “Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.”

“Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save (sōzō, G4982) the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.”

Day 11. sōzō

“And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Acts 2:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.2.21.ESV>

“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved (sōzō, G4982).”

Acts 2:21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.2.21.KJV>

“Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.” And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation.” So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls. And they devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.”

Acts 2:37-47 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.2.37-47.ESV>

“Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent (metanoēō, G3340), and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ for the remission (aphesis, G859) of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save (sōzō, G4982) yourselves from this untoward generation. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. And all that believed were together, and had all things common; and sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.”

Acts 2:37-47 KJV

- 8) How are we to be saved from a crooked generation?
- 9) In what are believers to continue steadfastly (or be devoted to), according to this passage? Are you?
- 10) Are signs and wonders still done today by apostles and believers? What have you done by God or seen done?
- 11) Describe the community and practices of the early church?
- 12) How is the quality of your local church fellowship? How do you contribute to that?
- 13) How are you and your fellowship impacting your local community for Christ? How are you viewed by the community?
- 14) How well is your church multiplying while you also make disciples? How are you impacting this growth?

Day 12, sōzō

“Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, “Look at us.” And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, “I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!” And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God, and recognized him as the one who sat at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, asking for alms. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. While he clung to Peter and John, all the people, utterly astounded, ran together to them in the portico called Solomon’s. And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: “Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.”

Acts 3:1-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.3.1-16.ESV>

“Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man lame from his mother’s womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God: and they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. And as the lame man which was healed (iaomai, G2390) held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon’s, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus (Iēsous, G2424); whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; and killed the Prince of life (zōē, G2222), whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong (stereoō, G4732), whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness (holoklēria, G3647) in the presence of you all.”

Acts 3:1-16 KJV

Holoklēria, G3647: fully healthy and fit for use, physical wholeness, perfect soundness

Translated as: perfect soundness

Pronounced: hol-ok-lay-ree'-ah

“And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, “By what power or by what name did you do this?” Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.” Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus. But seeing the man who was healed standing beside them, they had nothing to say in opposition.”

Acts 4:7-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.4.7-14.ESV>

“And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, if we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole (sōzō, G4982); be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole (hugiēs, G5199). This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation (sōtēria, G4991) in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved (sōzō, G4982). Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus (Iēsous, G2424). And beholding the man which was healed (therapeuō, G2323) standing with them, they could say nothing against it.”

Acts 4:7-14 KJV

Questions

- 1) How did Peter make the crippled (or impotent) man whole?
- 2) Was this similar or the same as the way Jesus would have accomplished the same work? Or was it different? Explain.
- 3) How did he explain what had happened to the crowd (Acts 3)? How did he explain it to the Council (Acts 4)?
- 4) What was the man's response to having been made whole?
- 5) How did Peter describe the salvation that must be found in Jesus Christ? Was this statement related at all to what God had done for the crippled man?
- 6) How was Peter different from the man he was before Christ's resurrection? How can the change in Him be explained?
- 7) Can this passage be seen as a fulfillment of Jesus' Great Commission and accompanying instructions given to His disciples, as reviewed on Day 6? Why or why not?

Day 13, sōzō

“And behold, at that very moment three men arrived at the house in which we were, sent to me from Caesarea. And the Spirit told me to go with them, making no distinction. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house. And he told us how he had seen the angel stand in his house and say, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon who is called Peter; he will declare to you a message by which you will be saved, you and all your household.’ As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as on us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God’s way?” When they heard these things they fell silent. And they glorified God, saying, “Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life.””

Acts 11:11-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.11.11-18.ESV>

“And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house: and he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved (sōzō, G4982). And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning. Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance (metanoia, G3341) unto life (G2222).”

Metanoia, G3341: a change of mind, of a purpose one has formed or of something done

Translated as: repentance

Pronounced: met-an'-oy-ah

“So Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and made him to appear, not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.” While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, “Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?” And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days.”

Acts 10:34-48 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.10.34-48.ESV>

“Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace (eirēnē, G1515) by Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ: (he is Lord of all:) that word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judæa, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; how God anointed Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission (aphesis, G859) of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.”

Euergeteō, G2109: to do go, bestow benefits

Translated as: doing good

Pronounced: yoo-erg-et-eh'-o

“And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will." And all the assembly fell silent, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul as they related what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles."

Acts 15:7-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.15.7-12.ESV>

"And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; and put no difference between us and them, purifying (katharizō, G2511) their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ we shall be saved (sōzō, G4982), even as they. Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them."

Day 14, sōzō

“Now at Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was crippled from birth and had never walked. He listened to Paul speaking. And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, said in a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet.” And he sprang up and began walking. And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, “The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!””

Acts 14:8-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.14.8-11.ESV>

“And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed (sōzō, G4982), said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.”

Acts 14:8-11 KJV

“And the jailer called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them out and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” And they said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.” And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.”

Acts 16:29-34 ESV

“Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved (sōzō, G4982)? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ, and thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982), and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.”

Questions

- 1) How did Paul make the lame man well?
- 2) How did this compare to the way Peter had saved the crippled man, God working with him?
- 3) How did it compare to the way Christ had made people while in His ministry?
- 4) Whose faith saved the crippled man?

5) How were the jailer and his family saved?

Day 15. sōzō

“but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.”

Romans 5:8-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.5.8-10.ESV>

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified (dikaioō, G1344) by his blood, we shall be saved (sōzō, G4982) from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled (katallassō, G2644), we shall be saved (sōzō, G4982) by his life (zōē, G2222).”

Romans 5:8-10 KJV

Dikaioō, G1344: to make righteous, just, or as one ought to be, innocent, free

Translated as: justify

Pronounced: dik-ah-yo’-o

Katallassō, G2644: to exchange, reconcile (those at variance), to return to or receive favor with

Translated as: reconcile

Pronounced: kat-al-las’-so

“For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.” No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Romans 8:19-39 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.19-39.ESV>

“For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, because the creature itself also shall be delivered (eleutheroō, G1659) from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty (eleutheria, G1657) of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption (uihotesia, G5206), to wit, the redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) of our body. For we are saved (sōzō, G4982) by hope (elpis, G1680): but hope (elpis, G1680) that is seen is not hope (elpis, G1680): for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for (elpizō, G1679)? But if we hope for (elpizō, G1679) that we see not, then do we with patience (hupomonē, G5281) wait for (apekdechomai, G553) it. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth (sunantilambanomai, G4878) our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that all things work together for good (agathos, G18) to them that love God, to them who are the called (klētos, G2822) according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow (proginōskō, G4267), he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified (dikaioō, G1344): and whom he justified (dikaioō, G1344), them he also glorified (doxazō, G1392). What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give (charizomai, G5483) us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect (elektos, G1588)? It is God that justifieth (dikaioō, G1344). Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors (hupernikaō, G5245) through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) our Lord.”

Day 16. sōzō

“As indeed he says in Hosea, “Those who were not my people I will call ‘my people,’ and her who was not beloved I will call ‘beloved.’” “And in the very place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’” And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: “Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved,”

Romans 9:25-27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.9.25-27.ESV>

“As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; And her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; There shall they be called the children of the living God. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved (sōzō, G4982):”

Romans 9:25-27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.9.25-27.KJV>

“For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. But the righteousness based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!” But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?” So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.”

Romans 10:5-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.5-17.ESV>

“For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach; that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession is made (homologeō, G3670) unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him. For whosoever shall call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) the name of the Lord shall be saved (sōzō, G4982). How then shall they call on (epikaleomai, G1941) him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace (eirēnē, G1515), and bring glad tidings of good things (agathos, G18)! But they have not all obeyed (hupakouō, G5219) the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed (pisteuō, G4100) our report? So then faith (pistis, G4102) cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.”

- 14) How does faith relate to God's word?

Day 17, sōzō

“For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with words of eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power. For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.” Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.”

1 Corinthians 1:17-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.1.17-25.ESV>

“For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved (sōzō, G4982) it is the power (dunamis, G1411) of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, And will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save (sōzō, G4982) them that believe (pisteuō, G4100). For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but unto them which are called (klētos, G2822), both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power (dunamis, G1411) of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.”

1 Corinthians 1:17-25 KJV

Dunamis, G1411: miraculous power, inherent power, strength, ability

Translated as: power

Pronounced: doo'-nam-is “What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God’s fellow workers. You are God’s field, God’s building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one’s work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire."

1 Corinthians 3:5-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.3.5-15.ESV>

"Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed (pisteuō, G4100), even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase (auxanō, G837). So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase (auxanō, G837). Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with (sunergos, G4904) God: ye are God's husbandry (geōrgion, G1091), ye are God's building. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); yet so as by fire."

Day 18. sōzō

“It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father’s wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 5:1-5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.5.1-5.ESV>

“It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father’s wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, in the name of our Lord Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power (dunamis, G1411) of our Lord Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ, to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved (sōzō, G4982) in the day of the Lord Jesus (lēsous, G2424).”

1 Corinthians 5:1-5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.5.1-5.KJV>

“To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. For the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so. In such cases the brother or sister is not enslaved. God has called you to peace. For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches.”

1 Corinthians 7:12-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.7.12-17.ESV>

“But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified (hagiazō, G37) by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified (hagiazō, G37) by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy (hagios, G40). But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace (eirēnē, G1515). For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save (sōzō, G4982) thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save (sōzō, G4982) thy wife? But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called (kaleō, G2564) every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.”

1 Corinthians 7:12-17 KJV

“Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.”

1 Corinthians 15:1-2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.15.1-2.ESV>

“Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received (paralambanō, G3880), and wherein ye stand (histēmi, G2476); by which also ye are saved (sōzō, G4982), if ye keep in memory (katechō, G2722) what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed (pisteuō, G4100) in vain.”

1 Corinthians 15:1-2 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.15.1-2.KJV>

Paralambanō, G3880: to take/join to one's self, to accept to be as one professes to be, to receive

- 4) May it be the case that family members of those who are saved are also made holy?
- 5) What is meant by the statement (in context), God hath called us to peace?
- 6) If one is married to an unbeliever, might it be expected that the believer may save them?
- 7) When we hear the gospel, what are we to do with it?

Day 19, sōzō

“But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God’s word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.”

2 Corinthians 2:14-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.2.14-17.ESV>

“Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph (thriambeuō, G2358) in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved (sōzō, G4982), and in them that perish: to the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life (zōē, G2222) unto life (zōē, G2222). And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.”

2 Corinthians 2:14-17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.2.14-17.KJV>

Thriambeuō, G2358: to triumph, celebrate a triumph

Translated as: cause to triumph

Pronounced: three-am-byoo'-o

“And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.”

Ephesians 2:1-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.1-10.ESV>

“And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ (Christos, G5547), (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together (sunegeirō, G4891), and made us sit together (sugkathizō, G4776) in heavenly places in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424): that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485) in his kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544) toward us through Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424). For by grace (charis, G5485) are ye saved (sōzō, G4982) through faith (pistis, G4102); and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (dōron, G1435) of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship (poiēma, G4161), created in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) unto good (agathos, G18) works (ergon, G2041), which God hath before ordained (proetoimazō, G4282) that we should walk (peripateō, G4043) in them.”

Day 20, sōzō

“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.”

1 Timothy 2:1-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ti.2.1-6.ESV>

“I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who will have all men to be saved (sōzō, G4982), and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator (mesitēs, G3316) between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (Iēsous, G2424); who gave himself a ransom (antilutron, G487) for all, to be testified in due time.”

1 Timothy 2:1-6 KJV

Translated as: mediator

Pronounced: mes-ee'-tace

Antilutron, G487: redemption price (for another), ransom

Translated as: ransom

Pronounced: an-til'-oo-tron

“Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, to teaching. Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophecy when the council of elders laid their hands on you. Practice these things, immerse yourself in them, so that all may see your progress. Keep a close watch on yourself and on the teaching. Persist in this, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.”

1 Timothy 4:13-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ti.4.13-16.ESV>

“Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift (charisma, G5486) that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue (epimenō, G1961) in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save (sōzō, G4982) thyself, and them that hear (akouō, G191) thee.”

1 Timothy 4:13-16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1ti.4.13-16.KJV>

Charisma, G5486: unmerited favor, divine grace, gifts denoting extraordinary powers

Translated as: gift

Pronounced: khar'-is-mah

Epimenō, G1961: remain, abide, continue, stay with, tarry still, persevere, persist in Translated as: tarry, continue (in), abide (in or still)

Pronounced: ep-ee-men'-o

Akouō, G191: hear, attend to, understand, learn, give ear to, comprehend

Translated as: hear

Pronounced: ak-oo'-o

“At my first defense no one came to stand by me, but all deserted me. May it not be charged against them! But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion’s mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.”

2 Timothy 4:16-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.4.16-18.ESV>

“At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered (rhuomai, G4506) out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver (rhuomai, G4506) me from every evil work, and will preserve (sōzō, G4982) me unto his heavenly kingdom (basileia, G932): to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.”

2 Timothy 4:16-18 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2ti.4.16-18.KJV>

Pronounced: bas-il-i'-ah

Questions

- 1) Who does God want to be saved?
- 2) What roles were Jesus given to Jesus Christ as our Savior?
- 3) What is the gift that is given to Christians at salvation?
- 4) What is meant by the command not to neglect this gift, considering the context that comes before and after the command?
- 5) How does our attention to and our proclamation of Christian teaching and doctrine contribute to our salvation and the salvation of those who hear?

6) If we set ourselves to doing God's work in the world, should we expect God to strengthen us and deliver us in order that we may accomplish it?

Day 21, sōzō

“For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people.”

Titus 3:3-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/tit.3.3-8.ESV>

“For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved (sōzo, G4982) us, by the washing of regeneration (paliggenesia, G3824), and renewing (anakainōsis, G342) of the Holy Ghost; which he shed (ekcheō, G1632) on us abundantly through Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ our Saviour (sōtēr, G4990); that being justified (dikaioō, G1344) by his grace, we should be made heirs (klēronomos, G2818) according to the hope of eternal life (zōē, G2222). This is a faithful (pistos, G4103) saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed (pisteuō, G4100) in God might be careful to maintain (proistēmi, G4291) good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041). These things are good and profitable unto men.”

"In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence.

Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek."

Hebrews 5:7-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.5.7-10.ESV>

"Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save (sōzō, G4982) him from death, and was heard in that he feared; though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect (teleioō, G5048), he became the author of eternal salvation (sōtēria, G4991) unto all them that obey (hupakouō, G5219) him; called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec (Melchisedek, G3198)."

"but this one was made a priest with an oath by the one who said to him: "The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, 'You are a priest forever.'" This makes Jesus the guarantor of a better covenant. The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.”

Hebrews 7:21-28 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.7.21-28.ESV>

“(for those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever After the order of Melchisedec:) By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: but this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save (sōzō, G4982) them to the uttermost (pantelēs, G3838) that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.”

Day 22, sōzō

“Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.”

James 1:19-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.19-25.ESV>

“Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness (prautēs, G4240) the engrafted (emphutos, G1721) word (logos, G3056), which is able to save (sōzō, G4982) your souls (psuche, G5590). But be ye doers (poiētēs, G4163) of the word (logos, G3056), and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer (poiētēs, G4163), he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty (eleutheria, G1657), and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer (poiētēs, G4163) of the work (ergon, G2041), this man shall be blessed (makarios, G3107) in his deed.”

"What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works; and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness"—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead."

James 2:14-26 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.2.14-26.ESV>

"What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith (pistis, G4102), and have not works (ergon, G2041)? can faith (pistis, G4102) save (sōzō, G4982) him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace (eirēnē, G1515), be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith (pistis, G4102), if it hath not works (ergon, G2041), is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith (pistis, G4102), and I have works (ergon, G2041): shew me thy faith (pistis, G4102) without thy works (ergon, G2041), and I will shew thee my faith (pistis, G4102) by my works (ergon, G2041). Thou believest (pisteuō, G4100) that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works (ergon, G2041) is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified (dikaioō, G1344) by works (ergon, G2041), when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought (sunergeō, G4903) with his works (ergon, G2041), and by works (ergon, G2041) was faith (pistis, G4102) made perfect (teleioō, G5048)? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed (pisteuō, G4100) God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343): and he was called the Friend (philos, G5384) of God. Ye see then how that by works (ergon, G2041) a man is justified (dikaioō, G1344), and not by faith (pistis, G4102) only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified (dikaioō, G1344) by works (ergon, G2041), when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith (pistis, G4102) without works (ergon, G2041) is dead also.”

Questions

- 1) How does the word of God save our souls?
- 2) What is our role in this?
- 3) What does it mean to be a doer of the word?
- 4) Do you do all of the word of God that you hear? Or what part of His word have you not put into practice?
- 5) How are we blessed in doing the word (and work) of God?
- 6) How do works relate to salvation by faith?
- 7) Does your faith result in works? Which ones?
- 8) What good are you not doing that God has told you to do (in His word)?
- 9) What are some works that we as Christ followers are to do other than clothing the naked and feeding the hungry that we encounter?
- 10) How well does your local church do the word of God to meet the needs of the world? How do you contribute?

Day 23. sōzō

“Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?”

James 4:11-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.4.11-12.ESV>

“Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save (sōzō, G4982) and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?”

James 4:11-12 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jas.4.11-12.KJV>

“Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit. My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.”

James 5:13-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.5.13-20.ESV>

“Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms. Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer (euchē, G2171) of faith (pistis, G4102) shall save (sōzō, G4982) the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven (aphiēmi, G863) him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed (iaomai, G2390). The effectual fervent (energeō, G1754) prayer of a righteous man (dikaios, G1342) availeth (ischuō, G2480) much. Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert (epistrephō, G1994) him; let him know, that he which converteth (epistrephō, G1994) the sinner from the error of his way shall save (sōzō, G4982) a soul (psuchē, G5590) from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.”

James 5:13-20 KJV

Pronounced: is-khoo'-o

Epistrephō, G1994: to turn to the love and obedience of God; to turn one's self about/back

Translated as: turn, be converted, return, turn about/again

Pronounced: ep-ee-stref'-o

Questions

- 1) Why should we not speak evil against each other?
- 2) What should a believer do when they are afflicted or sick?
- 3) What should other believers do when someone they know is sick? What should elders in the church do?
- 4) What is the prayer of faith?
- 5) What is an example of a prayer of faith you could pray for a sick person?
- 6) What should we expect the prayer of faith to do?
- 7) How is salvation related to sickness and sin?
- 8) How are sickness and sin related?
- 9) Who is responsible for seeing that the sick (among professing Christ followers) are healed?
- 10) Are the prayers of faith of the righteous more effective?
- 11) How should believers see themselves in comparison to the prophet Elijah?
- 12) How did Elijah provide an example for us in faith?
- 13) What should our role be in the conversion and salvation of others?

Day 24, sōzō

“For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God’s will, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God’s patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.”

1 Peter 3:17-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1pe.3.17-22.ESV>

“For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened (zoōpoieō, G2227) by the Spirit: by which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight (psuchē, G5590) souls were saved (diasōzō, G1295) by water. The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save (sōzō, G4982) us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good (agathos, G18) conscience (suneidēsis, G4893) toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ: who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.”

“Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And “If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?” Therefore let those who suffer according to God’s will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good.”

1 Peter 4:16-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1pe.4.16-19.ESV>

“Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous (dikaios, G1342) scarcely be saved (sōzō, G4982), where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing (agathopoiia, G16), as unto a faithful (pistos, G4103) Creator.”

1 Peter 4:16-19 KJV

Questions

- 1) How does Peter describe salvation in Christ?
- 2) What are the expected characteristics of those who have been saved, according to Peter?
- 3) Should we expect many to be saved?

Day 25. sōzō

“Beloved, although I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints. For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.”

Jude 1:3-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jud.1.3-7.ESV>

“Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation (sōtēria, G4991), it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace (charis, G5485) of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved (sōzō, G4982) the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.”

Jude 1:3-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jud.1.3-7.KJV>

“But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. They said to you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions.” It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.”

Jude 1:17-23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jud.1.17-23.ESV>

“But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ; how that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love (agapē, G26) of God, looking for (prosdechomai, G4327) the mercy (eleos, G1656) of our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ unto eternal life (zōē, G2222). And of some have compassion (eleeō, G1653), making a difference: and others save (sōzō, G4982) with fear (phobos, G5401), pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.”

Jude 1:17-23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jud.1.17-23.KJV>

Prosdechomai, G4327: to admit, await, accept, allow, look or wait for, take, receive, expect

Translated as: look for, wait for, receive, allow, take, accept

Pronounced: pros-dekh'-om-ahee

Eleos, G1656: mercy, kindness or goodwill that acts, compassion, tender mercy, salvation

Translated as: mercy

Pronounced: el'-eh-os

Eleeō, G1653: to have mercy on (or receive it), help the afflicted, to exercise compassion on

Translated as: have mercy on, obtain mercy, have compassion (on)

Pronounced: el-eh—eh'-o

Phobos, G5401: fear, dread, terror; reverence as for one's husband

Translated as: fear

Pronounced: fob'-os

Questions

- 1) What path should God's grace and salvation put one on?
- 2) How should we recognize those who have not been saved, those devoid of the Spirit?
- 3) How do you keep yourself in the love of God?
- 4) How are you expectant of the mercy and life of our Lord Jesus Christ?
- 5) How are we to live in the world but not of it?
- 6) What are we to hate?

Save, G1295, diasōzō

Day 26. diasōzō

“And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. And when the men of that place recognized him, they sent around to all that region and brought to him all who were sick and implored him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched it were made well.”

Matthew 14:34-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.14.34-36.ESV>

“And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; and besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole (diasōzō, G1295).”

Matthew 14:34-36 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.14.34-36.KJV>

“After he had finished all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum. Now a centurion had a servant who was sick and at the point of death, who was highly valued by him. When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his servant. And when they came to Jesus, they pleaded with him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy to have you do this for him, for he loves our nation, and he is the one who built us our synagogue.” And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. Therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. For I too am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me: and I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.” When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, said, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.” And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant well.”

Luke 7:1-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.7.1-10.ESV>

“Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum. And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die. And when he heard of Jesus (lēsous, G2424), he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal (diasōzō, G1295) his servant. And when they came to Jesus (lēsous, G1295), they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this: for he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue. Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof: wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word (logos, G3056), and my servant shall be healed (iaomai, G2390). For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus (lēsous, G2424) heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith (pistis, G4102), no, not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole (hugiainō, G5198) that had been sick.”

Luke 7:1-10 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.7.1-10.KJV>

Hugiainō, G5198: to be sound, well, in good health, strong, uncorrupt, whole(some)

Translated as: sound, whole, in health

Pronounced: hoog-ee-ah'-ee-no

Questions

- 1) Why did the crowds want to touch the fringe of Jesus' garment?
- 2) What happened when they touched Jesus' garment? How?
- 3) How did the centurion believe that Jesus was able to save His servant?
- 4) What did Jesus think of the centurion's faith? Why?
- 5) Was the centurion right? Whose faith (or belief) saved the servant?

Salvation, G4981, sōtēria

Day 27, sōtēria

“And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying, “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old, that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us; to show the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant, the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, to grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days. And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins, because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the sunrise shall visit us from on high to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.””

Luke 1:67-79 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.1.67-79.ESV>

“And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; For he hath visited and redeemed (lutrōsis, G3085) his people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation (sōtēria, G4991) for us In the house of his servant David; As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began: That we should be saved (sōtēria, G4991) from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; To perform the mercy (eleos, G1656) promised to our fathers, And to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered (rhuomai, G4506) out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, In holiness (hosiotēs, G3742) and righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) before him, all the days of our life (zōē, G2222). And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation (sōtēria, G4991) unto his people by the remission (aphesis, G859) of their sins, Through the tender mercy (eleos, G1656) of our God; Whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, To give light (epiphainō, G2014) to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, To guide our feet into the way of peace (eirēnē, G1515).”

Luke 1:67-79 KJV

“The woman said to him, “Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship.” Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.” The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ). When he comes, he will tell us all things.” Jesus said to her, “I who speak to you am he.””

John 4:19-26 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.4.19-26.ESV>

“The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation (sōtēria, G4991) is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.”

Questions

- 1) From which enemies does Jesus save us?
- 2) How was Christ a fulfillment of the oath God swore to Abraham? (Genesis 22:16-18)
- 3) How did Christ bring holiness and righteousness to us?
- 4) What is righteousness?
- 5) What is the way of peace?
- 6) Why does Jesus say salvation is from (or of) the Jews?
- 7) What does it mean to worship the Father in spirit?
- 8) What does it mean to worship the Father in truth?

Day 28. sōtēria

“As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us, crying out, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation.” And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And it came out that very hour.”

Acts 16:16-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.16.16-18.ESV>

“And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way (hodos, G3598) of salvation (sōtēria, G4991). And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.”

Acts 16:16-18 KJV

Hodos, G3598: travelled way, road, course of conduct; manner of thinking, feeling, deciding

Translated as: way

Pronounced: hod-os’

“As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have continued in suspense and without food, having taken nothing. Therefore I urge you to take some food. For it will give you strength, for not a hair is to perish from the head of any of you.” And when he had said these things, he took bread, and giving thanks to God in the presence of all he broke it and began to eat.”

Acts 27:33-35 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.27.33-35.ESV>

“And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing. Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health (sōtēria, G4991): for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you. And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.”

Acts 27:33-35 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.27.33-35.KJV>

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, “The righteous shall live by faith.””

Romans 1:16-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.1.16-17.ESV>

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power (dunamis, G1411) of God unto salvation to every one that believeth (pisteuō, G4100); to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) of God revealed from faith (pistis, G4102) to faith (pistis, G4102): as it is written, The just (dikaios, G1342) shall live (zaō, G2198) by faith (pistis, G4102).”

Romans 1:16-17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.1.16-17.KJV>

Zaō, G2198: to live, enjoy real life, to pass life, life having power in itself, in full vigor

Translated as: live

Pronounced: dzah'-o

Questions

- 1) What is the way of salvation?
- 2) How did Paul deliver the girl from the spirit of divination?
- 3) Is this similar to the way Jesus saved people from such spirits? What is different about it?
- 4) What did Paul mean when he said the gospel was the power of God unto salvation?
- 5) How do we lay hold of the salvation intended for us in Christ?
- 6) How do our choices to live by faith conform us to God's will?
- 7) How do our choices to live by faith enable us to enjoy the fullness of life God intended?

Day 29, sōtēria

“Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. For the commandments, “You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,” and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.”

Romans 13:8-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.13.8-14.ESV>

“Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation (sōtēria, G4991) nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on (enduō, G1746) the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on (enduō, G1746) the Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.”

Romans 13:8-14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.13.8-14.KJV>

Enduō, G1746: put on, clothe one's self, sink into (clothing)

Translated as: put on, be clothed with

Pronounced: en-doo'-o

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too. If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we suffer. Our hope for you is unshaken, for we know that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort. For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers, of the affliction we experienced in Asia. For we were so utterly burdened beyond our strength that we despaired of life itself. Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death. But that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead. He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. You also must help us by prayer, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.”

2 Corinthians 1:3-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.1.3-11.ESV>

“Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort (paraklēsis, G3874); who comforteth (parakaleō, G3870) us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort (parakaleō, G3870) them which are in any trouble, by the comfort (paraklēsis, G3874) wherewith we ourselves are comforted (parakaleō, G3870) of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) and salvation (sōtēria, G4991), which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) and salvation (sōtēria, G4991). And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: but we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: who delivered (rhuomai, G4506) us from so great a death, and doth deliver (rhuomai, G4506): in whom we trust that he will yet deliver (rhuomai, G4506) us; ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift (charisma, G5486) bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.”

2 Corinthians 1:3-11 KJV

Translated as: beseech, comfort, exhort

Pronounced: par-ak-al-eh'-o

Paraklētos, G3875: summoned, called to one's side/aid, advocate, intercessor, helper, comforter; Holy Spirit

Translated as: comforter, advocate

Pronounced: par-ak'-lay-tos

Questions

- 1) How is love the fulfilling of the law?
- 2) When Paul wrote that our salvation was nearer now. to what was he referring?
- 3) What does it mean to put on the armor of light? How do we do it?

- 4) What does it mean to put on the Lord Jesus Christ? How do we do it?
- 5) What do you think happened to Paul and his traveling companions in Asia?
- 6) What did the believers do in response to Paul's trouble?
- 7) How did God save Paul from his trouble?
- 8) Why did Paul endure the suffering of persecution?
- 9) The Holy Spirit is also called by Paraclete (paraklētos, G3875, John 14:16,26, John 15:26, John 16:7), translated as Helper, Advocate, or Comforter. How are we, having Christ in us, to embody His characteristics to other believers?
- 10) How does God come alongside those who are saved? How does God help and advocate for us?

Day 30. sōtēria

“Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says, “In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you.”

Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

2 Corinthians 6:1-2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.6.1-2.ESV>

“We then, as workers together with (sunergeō, G4903) him, beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you also that ye receive not the grace (charis, G5485) of God in vain. (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, And in the day of salvation (sōtēria, G4991) have I succoured (boētheō, G997) thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation (sōtēria, G4991).)”

2 Corinthians 6:1-2 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.6.1-2.KJV>

Boētheō, G997: to help, bring aid, relieve, succour

Translated as: help, succour

Pronounced: bo-ay-theh'-o

“For even if I made you grieve with my letter, I do not regret it—though I did regret it, for I see that that letter grieved you, though only for a while. As it is, I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because you were grieved into repenting. For you felt a godly grief, so that you suffered no loss through us. For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death. For see what earnestness this godly grief has produced in you, but also what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! At every point you have proved yourselves innocent in the matter. So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one who did the wrong, nor for the sake of the one who suffered the wrong, but in order that your earnestness for us might be revealed to you in the sight of God.”

2 Corinthians 7:8-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.7.8-12.ESV>

“For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance (metanoia, G3341): for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance (metanoia, G3341) to salvation (sōtēria, G4991) not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness (spoudē, G4710) it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear (phobos, G5401), yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal (zēlos, G2205), yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.”

2 Corinthians 7:8-12 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.7.8-12.KJV>

Spoudē, G4710: earnestness, diligence, speed, haste, business

Translated as: diligence, hast, business, (earnest) care, forwardness, carefulness

Pronounced: spoo-day'

Zēlos, G2205: heat, zeal, ardor, fervor of spirit; envy, jealousy, indignation

Translated as: zeal, envying, indignation

Pronounced: dzay'-los

Questions

- 1) What does it mean to be workers together with God?
- 2) How do you work together with God?
- 3) What does it mean to have received the grace of God in vain?
- 4) What is the accepted or favorable time? (see also Luke 4:19, Isaiah 61:2)
- 5) What does it mean, “now is the day of salvation”?
- 7) What's the difference between worldly sorry and godly sorrow?
- 6) What's the difference between being brought to a point of godly sorrow and being brought to repentance?
- 7) Have you repented of your sin?
- 8) How are repentance and salvation related?
- 9) Should repentance and salvation lead you to zeal? Zeal for what?

Day 31, sōtēria

“In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.”

Ephesians 1:7-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.1.7-14.ESV>

“In whom we have redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) through his blood, the forgiveness (aphesis, G859) of sins, according to the riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485); wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107) which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: in whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: that we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation (sōtēria, G4991): in whom also after that ye believed (pisteuō, G4100), ye were sealed with (sphragizō, G4972) that holy Spirit of promise (epaggelia, G1860), which is the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of our inheritance (klēronomia, G2817) until the redemption (apolutrōsis, G629) of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.”

"Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure."

Philippians 2:12-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/php.2.12-13.ESV>

"Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation (sōtēria, G4991) with fear (phobos, G5401) and trembling (tromos, G5156). For it is God which worketh (energeō, G1754) in you both to will (thelō, G2309) and to do (energeō, G1754) of his good pleasure (eudokia, G2107)."

Philippians 2:12-13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/php.2.12-13.KJV>

Translated as: trembling

Pronounced: trom'-os

Thelō, G2309: To will, intend, purpose, desire, wish, delight in Translated as: will/would, desire

Pronounced: thel'-o

Questions

- 1) What is God's good pleasure with respect to salvation?
- 2) With what are we sealed at the time of our salvation in Christ?
- 3) How is this seal the earnest of our inheritance in Christ?
- 4) Describe the inheritance itself.
- 5) What have you done with the earnest of your inheritance in Christ?
- 6) What does it mean to work out our salvation?
- 7) Why are we commanded to work out our salvation with fear and trembling? What does that mean?
- 8) What is it that the Spirit of God works in us, if we cooperate?
- 9) What is left of your own will before Christ? How is this related to what you do now?
- 10) To what extent has your will become to do God's will, as revealed by His word? Do you do what God has willed in you to do?

Day 32. sōtēria

“But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.”

1 Thessalonians 5:8-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1th.5.8-11.ESV>

“But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation (sōtēria, G4991) by our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore comfort (parakaleō, G3870) yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.”

1 Thessalonians 5:8-11 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1th.5.8-11.KJV>

“But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.”

2 Thessalonians 2:13-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2th.2.13-17.ESV>

“But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation (sōtēria, G4991) through sanctification (hagiasmos, G38) of the Spirit and belief (pistis, G4102) of the truth (alētheia, G225): whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining (peripoiēsis, G4047) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ. Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. Now our Lord Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation (paraklēsis, G3874) and good (agathos, G18) hope (elpis, G1680) through grace (charis, G5485), comfort (parakaleō, G3870) your hearts, and stablish (stērizō, G4741) you in every good (agathos, G18) word and work.”

Questions

- 1) As a Christ follower, what does it mean to become sober minded, or of a sound mind?
- 2) As a Christ follower, how does our mind become renewed to think according to God's word, according to the way the Spirit of God thinks?
- 3) How do faith and love act as a breastplate that a good soldier of Jesus Christ may put on?
- 4) How is our hope of salvation as a helmet for a good soldier of Jesus Christ?
- 5) How is it that we live together with Jesus Christ, whether we wake or we sleep (and at all times)?
- 6) What is the sanctification of the Spirit? How does our salvation relate to our sanctification?
- 7) How does our salvation and our sanctification relate to our coming to actually believe in all that is true?
- 8) What is our source of truth, or of what is actually real?
- 9) What does it mean for us to be called to obtain the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ?
- 10) Is this call for now? Later? Both?
- 11) How has God given us everlasting consolation (or eternal comfort) in our salvation?
- 12) In what does God establish those who have been saved?
- 13) How is God looking today to continue to mature and to establish you? What step(s) will you take to obey?

Day 33. sōtēria

“Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound! Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself.”

2 Timothy 2:8-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.2.8-13.ESV>

“Remember that Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation (sōtēria, G4991) which is in Christ Jesus (lēsous, G2424) with eternal glory (doxa, G1391). It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with (sunapothnēskō, G4880) him, we shall also live with (suzaō, G4800) him: if we suffer (hupomenō, G5278), we shall also reign with (sumbasileuō, G4821) him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.”

2 Timothy 2:8-13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2ti.2.8-13.KJV>

Sunapothnēskō, G4880: to die together, die with one

Translated as: die with, be dead with

Pronounced: soon-ap-oth-nace'-ko

Suzaō, G4800: to live (together) with one, in union with one, in common with, co-survive

Translated as: live with

Pronounced: sood-zah'-o

Hupomenō, G5278: to remain, abide, hold fast, endure, bear bravely and calmly misfortune, trial, ill treatment

Translated as: endure

Pronounced: hoop-om-en'-o

Sumbasileuō, G4821: to reign together/with, be co-regent; possess honor in God's kingdom

Translated as: reign with

Pronounced: soom-bas-il-yoo'-o

“Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:12-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.3.12-17.ESV>

“Yea, and all that will live (zaō, G2198) godly in Christ Jesus (lēsous, G2424) shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991) through faith (pistis, G4102) which is in Christ Jesus (lēsous, G2424). All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343): that the man of God may be perfect (artios, G739), thoroughly furnished (exartizō, G1822) unto all good (agathos, G18) works.”

2 Timothy 3:12-17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2ti.3.12-17.KJV>

Artios, G739: fitted, complete, perfect, having special aptitude for given uses, fresh

Translated as: perfect

Pronounced: ar'-tee-os

Exartizō, G1822: to complete, finish (out), furnish perfectly/thoroughly, equip fully

Translated as: thoroughly furnish

Pronounced: ex-ar-tid'-zo

Questions

- 1) Have you died with Christ? Have you died to all of the parts of your old life before Christ?
- 2) What does it mean to live together with Christ?
- 3) What does it mean to reign with Christ?
- 4) Do you live godly? Do you suffer any persecution for the way you live?
- 5) What does it mean for scripture to be given by the inspiration of God?
- 6) How has scripture led you to righteous living? How has it equipped you?
- 7) Have you been part of equipping others to do good works and live rightly?
- 8) What good works do you faithfully do?

Day 34, sōtēria

“And to which of the angels has he ever said, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”? Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?”

Hebrews 1:13-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.1.13-14.ESV>

“But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, Until I make thine enemies thy footstool? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation (sōtēria, G4991)?”

Hebrews 1:13-14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/heb.1.13-14.KJV>

“Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. For since the message declared by angels proved to be reliable, and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, “What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet.” Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. But we see him who for a little while was made lower than the angels, namely Jesus, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, “I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise.” And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Behold, I and the children God has given me.” Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery.”

Hebrews 2:1-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.2.1-15.ESV>

“Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation (sōtēria, G4991); which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; God also bearing them witness (sunepimartureō, G4901), both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts

(merismos, G3311) of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will? For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst (stephanoō, G4737) him with glory (doxa, G1391) and honour (timē, G5092), And didst set him over the works of thy hands: Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. But we see Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory (doxa, G1391), to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified (hagiazō, G37) are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, In the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy (katargeō, G2673) him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver (apallassō, G525) them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.”

Hebrews 2:1-15 KJV

Translated as: deliver, depart

Pronounced: ap-al-las'-so

Questions

- 1) To whom are angels sent? For what purpose?
- 2) Who is more esteemed to God, sons and daughters of God or angels?
- 3) What does it mean to neglect salvation?
- 4) How did God join together to bear witness to the words that the Lord Jesus spoke? To the words the apostles repeated?
- 5) What are the gifts of the Holy Spirit? To whom are they given?
- 6) Whom has God given glory and honor to?
- 7) To whom has God made all things subject?
- 8) What does it mean for the captain (or founder) of salvation to have brought many sons unto glory?
- 9) What does it mean that He that sanctifies and those sanctified are all of one?
- 10) Who are the brothers of Jesus Christ, according to this passage?
- 11) What did Christ's death accomplish for us, according to this passage? Has this been accomplished yet in your life?
- 12) What are you still in bondage (or slavery) to that you need not be?
- 13) What do you still fear that you need not?

Day 35. sōtēria

“For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned. Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do. And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.”

Hebrews 6:4-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.6.4-12.ESV>

“For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened (phōtizō, G5461), and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers (metochos, G3353) of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good (kalos, G2570) word of God, and the powers (dunamis, G1411) of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance (metanoia, G3341); seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: but that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation (sōtēria, G4991), though we thus speak. For God is not unrighteous to forget your work (ergon, G2041) and labour of love (agapē, G26), which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered (diakoneō, G1247) to the saints, and do minister (diakoneō, G1247). And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence (spoudē, G4710) to the full assurance of hope (elpis, G1680) unto the end: that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith (pistis, G4102) and patience (makrothumia, G3115) inherit (klēronomeō, G2816) the promises (epaggelia, G1860).”

Hebrews 6:4-12 KJV

Phōtizō, G5461: to give light, shine, enlighten, bring to light, illuminate, make to see

Translated as: give light, bright to light, lighten, enlighten

Pronounced: fo-tid'-zo

Metochos, G3353: sharing in, partaking, a partner, participant, sharer, associate, fellow

Translated as: partaker, partner, fellow

Pronounced: met'-okh-os

Diakoneō, G1247: serve, minister, wait on, supply, take care of, attend to Translated as: minister unto, serve

Pronounced: diakoneō

Makrothumia, G3115: patience, endurance, steadfastness, perseverance, forbearance, longsuffering, slowness in avenging wrongs
Translated as: longsuffering, patience
Pronounced: mak-roth-oo-mee'-ah

Klēronomeō, G2816: to receive a lot or portion or inheritance, become a partaker of, be heir
Translated as: inherit
Pronounced: klay-ron-om-eh'-o

Questions

- 1) How is our experience of God's word and our change in thinking and purpose at salvation described?
- 2) How is our receipt of God's Holy Spirit at salvation described?
- 3) Has this been your experience of change upon salvation?
- 4) What are the powers of the world to come?
- 5) Why does it put Christ to open shame when we fall away after we have been saved?
- 6) How does what we choose to say and do, or our fruitfulness, correspond to our nature, whether bad or good?
- 7) What is your fruit? Does it show whose you are?
- 8) What are the things that accompany (or belong to) salvation?
- 9) What is the work and the labor of labor that you have shown toward His name?
- 10) What does it mean to inherit the promises?
- 11) Who inherits the promises?
- 12) Have you inherited the promises? If so, are you discipling others in this?
- 13) Are you following one who has inherited the promised good of God?

Day 36. sōtēria

“And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore. These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city. By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, “Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.” He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.”

Hebrews 11:6-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.11.6-19.ESV>

“But without faith (pistis, G4102) it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. By faith (pistis, G4102) Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir (klēronomos, G2818) of the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) which is by faith (pistis, G4102). By faith (pistis, G4102) Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith (pistis, G4102) he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise (epaggelia, G1860): for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Through faith (pistis, G4102) also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful (pistos, G4103) who had promised. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. These all died in faith, not having received the promises (epaggelia, G1860), but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. By faith (pistis, G4102) Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises (epaggelia, G1860) offered up his only begotten son, of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.”

Hebrews 11:6-19 KJV

Questions

- 1) Why is it impossible to please God without faith?
- 2) How diligently and consistently do you seek God? In what ways do you seek God?
- 3) What people do you seek to please? In comparison, how diligently and consistently do you seek to please God?
- 4) What does it mean to be made righteous?
- 5) What about Noah's choices and lifestyle pleased God?
- 6) What about Abraham's character and choices pleased God?
- 7) What are the promises discussed in this passage? Who are the promises for?
- 8) Do you believe God's word above other competing sources of truth?
- 9) How do you act on your belief in God's word?
- 10) Among all that's is precious to you, how precious to you is God's offering up of His only begotten son?
- 11) How do you act on what is most precious to you?
- 12) Do you believe that God wants good for you in the situations where you want Him to intervene?
- 13) How does your faith in God's goodness and His word compare to those examples of faith given in this passage?

Day 37. sōtēria

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God’s power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the good news to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look. Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.” And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one’s deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for “All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever.” And this word is the good news that was preached to you.”

1 Peter 1:3-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1pe.1.3-25.ESV>

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again (anagennaō, G313) unto a lively (zaō, G2198) hope (elpis, G1680) by the resurrection of Jesus (lēsous, G2424) Christ from the dead, to an inheritance (klēronomia, G2817) incorruptible (aphthartos, G862), and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept (phroureō, G5432) by the power (dunamis, G1411) of God through faith (pistis, G4102) unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991) ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice (agalliaō, G21), though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour (timē, G5092) and glory (doxa, G1391) at the appearing of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing (pisteuō, G4100), ye rejoice (agalliaō, G21) with joy (chara, G5479) unspeakable and full of glory (doxazō, G1392): receiving the end of your faith (pistis, G4102), even the salvation (sōtēria, G4991) of your souls (psuchē, G5590). Of which salvation (sōtēria, G4991) the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace (charis, G5485) that should come unto you: searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory (doxa, G1391) that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister (diakoneō, G1247) the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober (nēphō, G3525), and hope (elpizō, G1679) to the end for the grace (charis, G5485) that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ; as obedient (hupakoē, G5218) children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: but as he which hath called you is holy (hagios, G40), so be ye holy (hagios, G40) in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy (hagios, G40); for I am holy (hagios, G40). And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear (phobos, G5401): forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed (lutroō, G3084) with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by him do believe (pisteuō, G4100) in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith (pistis, G4102) and hope (elpis, G1680) might be in God. Seeing ye have purified (hagnizō, G48) your souls in obeying (hupakoē, G5218) the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren (philadelphia, G5360), see that ye love (agapaō, G25) one another with a pure (katharos, G2513) heart fervently (ektenōs, G1619): being born again (anagennaō, G313), not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible (aphthartos, G862), by the word (logos, G3056) of God, which liveth (zaō, G2198) and abideth (menō, G3306) for ever. For All flesh is as grass, And all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.”

Day 38. sōtēria

“But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him,”

2 Peter 3:7-15 ESV

“but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise (epaggelia, G1860), as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (metanoia, G3341). But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy (hagios, G40) conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness (dikaia sunē, G1343). Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace (eirēnē, G1515), without spot, and blameless. And account that the longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115) of our Lord is salvation (sōtēria, G4991); even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;”

Day 39. sōtēria

“Now war arose in heaven, Michael and his angels fighting against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought back, but he was defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, “Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. Therefore, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!” And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle so that she might fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is to be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. The serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with a flood. But the earth came to the help of the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth. Then the dragon became furious with the woman and went off to make war on the rest of her offspring, on those who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus. And he stood on the sand of the sea.”

Revelation 12:7-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rev.12.7-17.ESV>

“And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation (sōtēria, G4991), and strength (dunamis, G1411), and the kingdom (basileia, G932) of our God, and the power (exousia, G1849) of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame (nikaō, G3528) him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony (marturia, G3141); and they loved not their lives unto the death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep (tēreō, G5083) the commandments of God, and have the testimony (marturia, G3141) of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ.”

“After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for his judgments are true and just; for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and has avenged on her the blood of his servants.” Once more they cried out, “Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up forever and ever.” And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who was seated on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah!” And from the throne came a voice saying, “Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great.” Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the roar of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, crying out, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure”— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints. And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are the true words of God.””

“And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation (sōtēria, G4991), and glory (doxa, G1391), and honour (timē, G5092), and power (dunamis, G1411), unto the Lord our God: for true and righteous (dikaioi, G1342) are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean (katharos, G2513) and white (lampros, G2986): for the fine linen is the righteousness (dikaiōma, G1345) of saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed (makarios, G3107) are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.”

Day 40. yeshû'âh

"Then the Lord said to Moses, "Tell the people of Israel to turn back and encamp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baal-zephon; you shall encamp facing it, by the sea. For Pharaoh will say of the people of Israel, 'They are wandering in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.' And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them, and I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host, and the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord." And they did so. When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the mind of Pharaoh and his servants was changed toward the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" So he made ready his chariot and took his army with him, and took six hundred chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them. And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the people of Israel while the people of Israel were going out defiantly. The Egyptians pursued them, all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and his horsemen and his army, and overtook them encamped at the sea, by Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon. When Pharaoh drew near, the people of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them, and they feared greatly. And the people of Israel cried out to the Lord. They said to Moses, "Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us in bringing us out of Egypt? Is not this what we said to you in Egypt: 'Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." And Moses said to the people, "Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will work for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again. The Lord will fight for you, and you have only to be silent." The Lord said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward. Lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the people of Israel may go through the sea on dry ground. And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they shall go in after them, and I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host, his chariots, and his horsemen. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gotten glory over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen." Then the angel of God who was going before the host of Israel moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them, coming between the host of Egypt and the host of Israel. And there was the cloud and the darkness. And it lit up the night without one coming near the other all night. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. And the people of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. The Egyptians pursued and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. And in the morning watch the Lord in the pillar of fire and of cloud looked down on the Egyptian forces and threw the Egyptian forces into a panic, clogging their chariot wheels so that they drove heavily. And the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from before Israel, for the Lord fights for them against the Egyptians." Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal course when the morning appeared. And as the Egyptians fled into it, the Lord threw the Egyptians into the midst of the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen; of all the host of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea, not one of them remained. But the people of Israel walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. Thus the Lord saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great power that the Lord used against the Egyptians, so the people feared the Lord, and they believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses.”

Exodus 14:1-31 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/exo.14.1-31.ESV>

“And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea. For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so. And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him: and he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them. And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand. But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon. And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD. And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever. The LORD shall fight (lâcham, H3898) for you, and ye shall hold your peace. And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward: but lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour (kâbad, H3513) upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour (kâbad, H3513) upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen. And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them: and it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians, and took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. Thus the LORD saved (yâsha', H3467) Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses."

Day 41, yeshû'âh

“O Lord, in your strength the king rejoices, and in your salvation how greatly he exults! You have given him his heart's desire and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah For you meet him with rich blessings; you set a crown of fine gold upon his head. He asked life of you; you gave it to him, length of days forever and ever. His glory is great through your salvation; splendor and majesty you bestow on him. For you make him most blessed forever; you make him glad with the joy of your presence. For the king trusts in the Lord, and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.”

Psalms 21:1-7 ESV

“The king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; And in thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) how greatly shall he rejoice! Thou hast given him his heart's desire, And hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah. For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness (tôb, H2896): Thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head. He asked life (chay, H2416) of thee, and thou gavest it him, Even length of days for ever and ever. His glory (kâbôd, H3519) is great in thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444): Honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him. For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: Thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance. For the king trusteth in the LORD, And through the mercy (chêsêd, H2617) of the Most High he shall not be moved.”

Psalms 21:1-7 KJV

“Contend, O Lord, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me! Take hold of shield and buckler and rise for my help! Draw the spear and javelin against my pursuers! Say to my soul, “I am your salvation!” Let them be put to shame and dishonor who seek after my life! Let them be turned back and disappointed who devise evil against me! Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the Lord driving them away! Let their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of the Lord pursuing them! For without cause they hid their net for me; without cause they dug a pit for my life. Let destruction come upon him when he does not know it! And let the net that he hid ensnare him; let him fall into it—to his destruction! Then my soul will rejoice in the Lord, exulting in his salvation.”

Psalms 35:1-9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.35.1-9.ESV>

“Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: Fight against them that fight against me. Take hold of shield and buckler, And stand up for mine help. Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444). Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: Let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt. Let them be as chaff before the wind: And let the angel of the LORD chase them. Let their way be dark and slippery: And let the angel of the LORD persecute them. For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, Which without cause they have digged for my soul. Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: Into that very destruction let him fall. And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: It shall rejoice in his salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444).”

Psalms 35:1-9 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/psa.35.1-9.KJV>

“As a deer pants for flowing streams, so pants my soul for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God? My tears have been my food day and night, while they say to me all the day long, “Where is your God?” These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I would go with the throng and lead them in procession to the house of God with glad shouts and songs of praise, a multitude keeping festival. Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God. My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar. Deep calls to deep at the roar of your waterfalls; all your breakers and your waves have gone over me. By day the Lord commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life. I say to God, my rock: “Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?” As with a deadly wound in my bones, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me all the day long, “Where is your God?” Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God.”

Psalms 42:1-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.42.1-11.ESV>

“As the hart panteth after the water brooks, So panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living (chay, H2416) God: When shall I come and appear before God? My tears have been my meat day and night, While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God? When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: For I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, With the voice of joy and praise, With a multitude that kept holyday. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted in me? Hope thou in God: For I shall yet praise him For the help of his countenance. O my God, my soul is cast down within me: Therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617) in the daytime, And in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life (chay, H2416). I will say unto God my rock, why hast thou forgotten me? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? As with a sword in my bones, Mine enemies reproach me; While they say daily unto me, Where is thy God? Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; For I shall yet praise him, who is the health (yeshû'âh, H3444) of my countenance, and my God."

Day 42, yeshû'âh

“For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be greatly shaken. How long will all of you attack a man to batter him, like a leaning wall, a tottering fence? They only plan to thrust him down from his high position. They take pleasure in falsehood. They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse. Selah. For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken. On God rests my salvation and my glory; my mighty rock, my refuge is God. Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath. Put no trust in extortion; set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them. Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God, and that to you, O Lord, belongs steadfast love. For you will render to a man according to his work.”

Psalm 62:1-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.62.1-12.ESV>

“Truly my soul waiteth upon God: From him cometh my salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444). He only is my rock and my salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444); He is my defence (mišgâb, H4869); I shall not be greatly moved. How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? Ye shall be slain all of you: As a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence. They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: They delight in lies: They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah. My soul, wait thou only upon God; For my expectation is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444): He is my defence (mišgâb, H4869); I shall not be moved. In God is my salvation (yesha', H3468) and my glory (kâbôd, H3519): The rock of my strength ('ôz, H5797), and my refuge (machseh, H4268), is in God. Trust in him at all times; ye people, Pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge (machseh, H4268) for us. Selah. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: To be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: If riches increase, set not your heart upon them. God hath spoken once; Twice have I heard this; That power ('ôz, H5797) belongeth unto God. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy (chêsêd, H2617): For thou renderest to every man according to his work.”

Pronounced: makh-as-eh'

"You ascended on high, leading a host of captives in your train and receiving gifts among men, even among the rebellious, that the Lord God may dwell there. Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation. Selah Our God is a God of salvation, and to God, the Lord, belong deliverances from death. But God will strike the heads of his enemies, the hairy crown of him who walks in his guilty ways."

Psalm 68:18-21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.68.18-21.ESV>

"Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: Thou hast received gifts for men; Yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord GOD might dwell (shâkan, H7931) among them. Blessed be the Lord, Who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444). Selah. He that is our God is the God of salvation (môshâ'âh, H4190); And unto GOD the Lord belong the issues from death. But God shall wound the head of his enemies, And the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses."

"Make haste, O God, to deliver me! O Lord, make haste to help me! Let them be put to shame and confusion who seek my life! Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt! Let them turn back because of their shame who say, "Aha, Aha!" May all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you! May those who love your salvation say evermore, "God is great!" But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God! You are my help and my deliverer; O Lord, do not delay!"

Psalm 70:1-5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.70.1-5.ESV>

"Make haste, O God, to deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me; Make haste to help ('ezrâh, H5833) me, O LORD. Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: Let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt. Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame That say, Aha, aha. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: And let such as love thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) say continually, let God be magnified. But I am poor and needy; Make haste unto me, O God: Thou art my help ('êzer, H5828) and my deliverer (pâlat, H6403); O LORD, make no tarrying."

Day 43. yeshû'âh

“He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the Lord, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked. Because you have made the Lord your dwelling place— the Most High, who is my refuge— no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the adder; the young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot. “Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my name. When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.””

Psalm 91:1-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.91.1-16.ESV>

“He that dwelleth (yâshab, H3427) in the secret (sêther, H5643) place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge (machseh, H4268) and my fortress: My God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver (nâtsal, H5337) thee from the snare of the fowler, And from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover (sâkak, H5526) thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: His truth (‘emeth, H571) shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; But it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold And see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge (machseh, H4268), Even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, Neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, To keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver (pâlat, H6403) him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver (châlats, H2502) him, and honour (kâbad, H3513) him. With long life will I satisfy him, And shew him my salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444).”

Day 44, yeshû'âh

“Oh sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth! Sing to the Lord, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples! For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the Lord made the heavens. Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary. Ascribe to the Lord, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength! Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts! Worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth! Say among the nations, “The Lord reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity.” Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy before the Lord, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness, and the peoples in his faithfulness.”

Psalm 96:1-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.96.1-13.ESV>

“O Sing unto the LORD a new song: Sing unto the LORD, all the earth. Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; Shew forth his salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) from day to day. Declare his glory (kâbôd, H3519) among the heathen, His wonders (pâlâ', H6381) among all people. For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: He is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the nations are idols: But the LORD made the heavens. Honour and majesty are before him: Strength ('ôz, H5797) and beauty are in his sanctuary. Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, Give unto the LORD glory (kâbôd, H3519) and strength ('ôz, H5797). Give unto the LORD the glory (kâbôd, H3519) due unto his name: Bring an offering, and come into his courts (châtsêr, H2691). O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness (qôdesh, H6944): Fear before him, all the earth. Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth: The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: He shall judge the people righteously (mêyshâr, H4339). Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: He shall judge the world with righteousness (tsedeq, H6664), and the people with his truth ('emûnâh, H530).”

Day 45, yeshû'âh

“Praise the Lord! Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever! Who can utter the mighty deeds of the Lord, or declare all his praise? Blessed are they who observe justice, who do righteousness at all times! Remember me, O Lord, when you show favor to your people; help me when you save them, that I may look upon the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance. Both we and our fathers have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedness. Our fathers, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your wondrous works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea. Yet he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make known his mighty power. He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry, and he led them through the deep as through a desert. So he saved them from the hand of the foe and redeemed them from the power of the enemy. And the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left. Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.”

Psalm 106:1-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.106.1-12.ESV>

“Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good (tôb, H2896): For his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. Who can utter the mighty acts (gebûrâh, H1369) of the LORD? Who can shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that keep judgment, And he that doeth righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) at all times. Remember me, O LORD, with the favour (râtsôn, H7522) that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444); That I may see the good (tôb, H2896) of thy chosen, That I may rejoice in the gladness (šimchâh, H8057) of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance. We have sinned with our fathers, We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. Our fathers understood not thy wonders (pâlâ', H6381) in Egypt; They remembered not the multitude of thy mercies (chêsêd, H2617); But provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. Nevertheless he saved (yâsha', H3467) them for his name's sake, That he might make his mighty power (gebûrâh, H1369) to be known. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: So he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. And he saved (yâsha', H3467) them from the hand of him that hated them, And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. And the waters covered their enemies: There was not one of them left. Then believed they his words; They sang his praise.”

"I love the Lord, because he has heard my voice and my pleas for mercy. Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live. The snares of death encompassed me; the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me; I suffered distress and anguish. Then I called on the name of the Lord: "O Lord, I pray, deliver my soul!" Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; our God is merciful. The Lord preserves the simple; when I was brought low, he saved me. Return, O my soul, to your rest; for the Lord has dealt bountifully with you. For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling; I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. I believed, even when I spoke: "I am greatly afflicted"; I said in my alarm, "All mankind are liars." What shall I render to the Lord for all his benefits to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. O Lord, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your maidservant. You have loosed my bonds. I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people, in the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord!"

"I love the LORD, Because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live. The sorrows of death compassed me, And the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver (mâlat, H4422) my soul. Gracious is the LORD, and righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662); Yea, our God is merciful (râcham, H7355). The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped (yâsha', H3467) me. Return unto thy rest, O my soul; For the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast delivered (châlats, H2502) my soul from death, Mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before The LORD in the land of the living (chay, H2416). I believed ('âman, H539), therefore have I spoken (dâbar, H1696): I was greatly afflicted: I said in my haste, all men are liars. What shall I render unto the LORD For all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444), And call upon the name of the LORD. I will pay (shâlam, H7999) my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people. Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. O LORD, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: Thou hast loosed (pâthach, H6605) my bonds. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, And will call upon the name of the LORD. I will pay (shâlam, H7999) my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people, In the courts (châtsêr, H2691) of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD."

Day 46. yeshû'âh

“Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever! Let Israel say, “His steadfast love endures forever.” Let the house of Aaron say, “His steadfast love endures forever.” Let those who fear the Lord say, “His steadfast love endures forever.” Out of my distress I called on the Lord; the Lord answered me and set me free. The Lord is on my side; I will not fear. What can man do to me? The Lord is on my side as my helper; I shall look in triumph on those who hate me. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes. All nations surrounded me; in the name of the Lord I cut them off! They surrounded me, surrounded me on every side; in the name of the Lord I cut them off! They surrounded me like bees; they went out like a fire among thorns; in the name of the Lord I cut them off! I was pushed hard, so that I was falling, but the Lord helped me. The Lord is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. Glad songs of salvation are in the tents of the righteous: “The right hand of the Lord does valiantly, the right hand of the Lord exalts, the right hand of the Lord does valiantly!” I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the Lord. The Lord has disciplined me severely, but he has not given me over to death. Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the Lord. This is the gate of the Lord; the righteous shall enter through it. I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. This is the Lord’s doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Save us, we pray, O Lord! O Lord, we pray, give us success! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! We bless you from the house of the Lord. The Lord is God, and he has made his light to shine upon us. Bind the festal sacrifice with cords, up to the horns of the altar! You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God; I will extol you. Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!”

Psalm 118:1-29 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.118.1-29.ESV>

“O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good (tôb, H2896): Because his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. Let Israel (yîsrâ’êl, H3478) now say, That his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. Let the house of Aaron now say, That his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. Let them now that fear the LORD say, That his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. I called upon the LORD in distress: The LORD answered me, and set me in a large place. The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: What can man do unto me? The LORD taketh my part with them that help (‘âzar, H5826) me: Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me. It is better (tôb, H2896) to trust (châsâh, H2620) in the LORD Than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust (châsâh, H2620) in the LORD Than to put confidence in princes. All nations compassed me about: But in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD will I destroy them. They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: But in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD I will destroy them. They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: For in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD I will destroy them. Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: But the LORD helped (‘âzar, H5826) me. The LORD is my strength (‘ôz, H5797) and song, And is become my salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444). The voice of rejoicing and salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) is in the tabernacles of the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662): The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly. The right hand of the LORD is exalted: The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly. I shall not die, but live (châyâh, H2421), And declare the works of the LORD. The LORD hath chastened me sore: But he hath not given me over unto death. Open to me the gates of righteousness (tsedeq, H6664): I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD: This gate of the LORD, Into which the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) shall enter. I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, And art become my salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444). The stone which the builders refused Is become the head stone of the corner. This is the LORD's doing; It is marvellous (pâlâ', H6381) in our eyes. This is the day which the LORD hath made; We will rejoice and be glad in it. Save (yâsha', H3467) now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity (tsâlach, H6743). Blessed be he that cometh in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD: We have blessed you out of the house of the LORD. God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light: Bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar. Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: Thou art my God, I will exalt thee. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good (tôb, H2896): For his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever.”

“I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil. I hate and abhor falsehood, but I love your law. Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules. Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble. I hope for your salvation, O Lord, and I do your commandments. My soul keeps your testimonies; I love them exceedingly. I keep your precepts and testimonies, for all my ways are before you. Let my cry come before you, O Lord; give me understanding according to your word! Let my plea come before you; deliver me according to your word. My lips will pour forth praise, for you teach me your statutes. My tongue will sing of your word, for all your commandments are right. Let your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts. I long for your salvation, O Lord, and your law is my delight. Let my soul live and praise you, and let your rules help me.”

“I rejoice at thy word, As one that findeth great spoil. I hate and abhor lying: But thy law do I love. Seven times a day do I praise thee Because of thy righteous (tsedeq, H6664) judgments. Great peace (shâlôm, H7965) have they which love thy law: And nothing shall offend them. LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444), And done (‘âśâh, H6213) thy commandments. My soul hath kept thy testimonies; And I love them exceedingly. I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: For all my ways are before thee. Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: Give me understanding according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me according to thy word. My lips shall utter praise, When thou hast taught me thy statutes. My tongue shall speak of thy word: For all thy commandments are righteousness (tsedeq, H6664). Let thine hand help (‘âzar, H5826) me; For I have chosen thy precepts. I have longed for thy salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444), O LORD; And thy law is my delight. Day 47, yâsha'

"Now the angel of the Lord went up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, "I brought you up from Egypt and brought you into the land that I swore to give to your fathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you, and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars.' But you have not obeyed my voice. What is this you have done? So now I say, I will not drive them out before you, but they shall become thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you." As soon as the angel of the Lord spoke these words to all the people of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept. And they called the name of that place Bochim. And they sacrificed there to the Lord. When Joshua dismissed the people, the people of Israel went each to his inheritance to take possession of the land. And the people served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the Lord had done for Israel. And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died at the age of 110 years. And they buried him within the boundaries of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of the mountain of Gaash. And all that generation also were gathered to their fathers. And there arose another generation after them who did not know the Lord or the work that he had done for Israel. And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the Lord and served the Baals. And they abandoned the Lord, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt. They went after other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed down to them. And they provoked the Lord to anger. They abandoned the Lord and served the Baals and the Ashtaroth. So the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers, who plundered them. And he sold them into the hand of their surrounding enemies, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies. Whenever they marched out, the hand of the Lord was against them for harm, as the Lord had warned, and as the Lord had sworn to them. And they were in terrible distress. Then the Lord raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them. Yet they did not listen to their judges, for they whored after other gods and bowed down to them. They soon turned aside from the way in which their fathers had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the Lord, and they did not do so. Whenever the Lord raised up judges for them, the Lord was with the judge, and he saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. For the Lord was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who afflicted and oppressed them."

Judges 2:1-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jdg.2.1-18.ESV>

"And an angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you. And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this? Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you. And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. And they called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD. And when Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land. And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel. And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash. And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim: and they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger. And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroath. And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed. Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, which delivered (yâsha', H3467) them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so. And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered (yâsha', H3467) them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them."

Day 48. yâsha'

"Now the angel of the Lord came and sat under the terebinth at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress to hide it from the Midianites. And the angel of the Lord appeared to him and said to him, "The Lord is with you, O mighty man of valor." And Gideon said to him, "Please, my Lord, if the Lord is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all his wonderful deeds that our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt?' But now the Lord has forsaken us and given us into the hand of Midian." And the Lord turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian; do not I send you?" And he said to him, "Please, Lord, how can I save Israel? Behold, my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house." And the Lord said to him, "But I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man." And he said to him, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, then show me a sign that it is you who speak with me. Please do not depart from here until I come to you and bring out my present and set it before you." And he said, "I will stay till you return." So Gideon went into his house and prepared a young goat and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot, and brought them to him under the terebinth and presented them. And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock, and pour the broth over them." And he did so. Then the angel of the Lord reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes. And fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. And the angel of the Lord vanished from his sight. Then Gideon perceived that he was the angel of the Lord. And Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord God! For now I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face." But the Lord said to him, "Peace be to you. Do not fear; you shall not die." Then Gideon built an altar there to the Lord and called it, The Lord Is Peace. To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiezrites. That night the Lord said to him, "Take your father's bull, and the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it and build an altar to the Lord your God on the top of the stronghold here, with stones laid in due order. Then take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah that you shall cut down." So Gideon took ten men of his servants and did as the Lord had told him. But because he was too afraid of his family and the men of the town to do it by day, he did it by night. When the men of the town rose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar that had been built. And they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And after they had searched and inquired, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing." Then the men of the town said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has broken down the altar of Baal and cut down the Asherah beside it." But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because his altar has been broken down." Therefore on that day Gideon was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he broke down his altar. Now all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the East came together, and they crossed the Jordan and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel. But the Spirit of the Lord clothed Gideon, and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and they too were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them. Then Gideon said to God, "If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said, behold, I am laying a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said." And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water. Then Gideon said to God, "Let not your anger burn against me; let me speak just once more. Please let me test just once more with the fleece. Please let it be dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground let there be dew." And God did so that night; and it was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew."

Judges 6:11-40 ESV

"And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-ezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty (gibbôr, H1368) man of valour (chayil, H2428). And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles (pâlâ', H6381) which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might (kôach, H3581), and thou shalt save (yâsha', H3467) Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee? And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I (yâsha', H3467) Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478)? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man. And he said unto him, If now I have found grace (chên, H2580) in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me. Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again. And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it. And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight. And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! for because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face. And the LORD said unto him, Peace (shâlôm, H7965) be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites. And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: and build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down. Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night. And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built. And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing. Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it. And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save (yâsha', H3467) him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar. Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar. Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. But the Spirit of the LORD came upon (lâbash, H3847) Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer was gathered after him. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them. And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save (yâsha', H3467) Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) by mine hand (yâd, H3027), as thou hast said, Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save (yâsha', H3467) Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) by mine hand (yâd, H3027), as thou hast said. And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground."

Day 49, yâsha'

"Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian was north of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. The Lord said to Gideon, "The people with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel boast over me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return home and hurry away from Mount Gilead.'" Then 22,000 of the people returned, and 10,000 remained. And the Lord said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Take them down to the water, and I will test them for you there, and anyone of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' shall go with you, and anyone of whom I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' shall not go." So he brought the people down to the water. And the Lord said to Gideon, "Every one who laps the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set by himself. Likewise, every one who kneels down to drink." And the number of those who lapped, putting their hands to their mouths, was 300 men, but all the rest of the people knelt down to drink water. And the Lord said to Gideon, "With the 300 men who lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hand, and let all the others go every man to his home." So the people took provisions in their hands, and their trumpets. And he sent all the rest of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the 300 men. And the camp of Midian was below him in the valley. That same night the Lord said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hand. But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant. And you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outposts of the armed men who were in the camp. And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the East lay along the valley like locusts in abundance, and their camels were without number, as the sand that is on the seashore in abundance. When Gideon came, behold, a man was telling a dream to his comrade. And he said, "Behold, I dreamed a dream, and behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian and came to the tent and struck it so that it fell and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat." And his comrade answered, "This is no other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given into his hand Midian and all the camp." As soon as Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped. And he returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for the Lord has given the host of Midian into your hand." And he divided the 300 men into three companies and put trumpets into the hands of all of them and empty jars, with torches inside the jars. And he said to them, "Look at me, and do likewise. When I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do. When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp and shout, 'For the Lord and for Gideon.'" So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch. And they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands. Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars. They held in their left hands the torches, and in their right hands the trumpets to blow. And they cried out, "A sword for the Lord and for Gideon!" Every man stood in his place around the camp, and all the army ran. They cried out and fled. When they blew the 300 trumpets, the Lord set every man's sword against his comrade and against all the army. And the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath. And the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali and from Asher and from all Manasseh, and they pursued after Midian. Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and capture the waters against them, as far as Beth-barah, and also the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they captured the waters as far as Beth-barah, and also the Jordan. And they captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. Then they pursued Midian, and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon across the Jordan."

"Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand (yâd, H3027) hath saved (yâsha', H3467) me. Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand. And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go. So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lapped of the water with his tongue, as a dog lapped, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink. And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save (yâsha', H3467) you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand (yâd, H3027): and let all the other people go every man unto his place. So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley. And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand (yâd, H3027). But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host: and thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands (yâd, H3027) be strengthened (châzaq, H2388) to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host. And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude. And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along. And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478): for into his hand (yâd, H3027) hath God delivered Midian, and all the host. And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand (yâd, H3027) the host of Midian. And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand (yâd, H3027), with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do. When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands (yâd, H3027). And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled. And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath. And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites. And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan."

Day 50. yâsha'

"And David said, "The Lord who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the Lord be with you!" Then Saul clothed David with his armor. He put a helmet of bronze on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail, and David strapped his sword over his armor. And he tried in vain to go, for he had not tested them. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these, for I have not tested them." So David put them off. Then he took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones from the brook and put them in his shepherd's pouch. His sling was in his hand, and he approached the Philistine. And the Philistine moved forward and came near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. And when the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was but a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance. And the Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field." Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This day the Lord will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head. And I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the Lord saves not with sword and spear. For the battle is the Lord's, and he will give you into our hand." When the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. And David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone and slung it and struck the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. There was no sword in the hand of David. Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. And the men of Israel and Judah rose with a shout and pursued the Philistines as far as Gath and the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron. And the people of Israel came back from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp. And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent."

"David said moreover, The LORD that delivered (nâtsal, H5337) me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with thee. And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail. And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine. And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him. And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance. And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD of hosts (tsâbâ', H6635), the God of the armies of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), whom thou hast defied. This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand (yâd, H3027); and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth (yâsha', H3467) not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands (yâd, H3027). And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. And David put his hand (yâd, H3027) in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. So David prevailed (châzaq, H2388) over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand (yâd, H3027) of David. Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. And the men of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron. And the children of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents. And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent."

Day 51 yâsha'

"Now, therefore, thus you shall say to my servant David, 'Thus says the Lord of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel. And I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you. And I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and be disturbed no more. And violent men shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son. When he commits iniquity, I will discipline him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men, but my steadfast love will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you. And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me. Your throne shall be established forever.'"

2 Samuel 7:8-16 ESV

"After this David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines. And he defeated Moab and he measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground. Two lines he measured to be put to death, and one full line to be spared. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute. David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the river Euphrates. And David took from him 1,700 horsemen, and 20,000 foot soldiers. And David hamstrung all the chariot horses but left enough for 100 chariots. And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 men of the Syrians. Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. And the Lord gave victory to David wherever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took very much bronze. When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer, Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to ask about his health and to bless him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Hadadezer had often been at war with Toi. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, of gold, and of bronze. These also King David dedicated to the Lord, together with the silver and gold that he dedicated from all the nations he subdued, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah. And David made a name for himself when he returned from striking down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. Then he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the Lord gave victory to David wherever he went. So David reigned over all Israel. And David administered justice and equity to all his people."

2 Samuel 8:1-15 ESV

“Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts (tsâbâ', H6635), I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478): and I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name (shêm, H8034), like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth. Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime, and as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee an house. And when thy days be fulfilled (mâlê', H4390), and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish (kûn, H3559) his kingdom (mamlâkâh, H4467). He shall build an house for my name (shêm, H8034), and I will stablish (kûn, H3559) the throne (kissê', H3678) of his kingdom (mamlâkâh, H4467) for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: but my mercy (chêsêd, H2617) shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. And thine house (bayith, H1004) and thy kingdom (mamlâkâh, H4467) shall be established (kûn, H3559) for ever before thee: thy throne (kissê', H3678) shall be established (kûn, H3559) for ever.”

“And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines. And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts. David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots. And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD preserved (yâsha', H3467) David whithersoever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass. When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer, then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass: which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued; of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. And David gat him a name (shêm, H8034) when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being eighteen thousand men. And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD preserved (yâsha', H3467) David whithersoever he went. And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment (mishpât, H4941) and justice (tsedâqâh, H6666) unto all his people.”

Day 52. yâsha'

"And David spoke to the Lord the words of this song on the day when the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said, "The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge, my savior; you save me from violence. I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies. "For the waves of death encompassed me, the torrents of destruction assailed me; the cords of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me. "In my distress I called upon the Lord; to my God I called. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry came to his ears. "Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations of the heavens trembled and quaked, because he was angry. Smoke went up from his nostrils, and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him. He bowed the heavens and came down; thick darkness was under his feet. He rode on a cherub and flew; he was seen on the wings of the wind. He made darkness around him his canopy, thick clouds, a gathering of water. Out of the brightness before him coals of fire flamed forth. The Lord thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered his voice. And he sent out arrows and scattered them; lightning, and routed them. Then the channels of the sea were seen; the foundations of the world were laid bare, at the rebuke of the Lord, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. "He sent from on high, he took me; he drew me out of many waters. He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me. They confronted me in the day of my calamity, but the Lord was my support. He brought me out into a broad place; he rescued me, because he delighted in me. "The Lord dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he rewarded me. For I have kept the ways of the Lord and have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his rules were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside. I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt. And the Lord has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight. "With the merciful you show yourself merciful; with the blameless man you show yourself blameless; with the purified you deal purely, and with the crooked you make yourself seem tortuous. You save a humble people, but your eyes are on the haughty to bring them down. For you are my lamp, O Lord, and my God lightens my darkness. For by you I can run against a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall. This God—his way is perfect; the word of the Lord proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him. "For who is God, but the Lord? And who is a rock, except our God? This God is my strong refuge and has made my way blameless. He made my feet like the feet of a deer and set me secure on the heights. He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze. You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your gentleness made me great. You gave a wide place for my steps under me, and my feet did not slip; I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and did not turn back until they were consumed. I consumed them; I thrust them through, so that they did not rise; they fell under my feet. For you equipped me with strength for the battle; you made those who rise against me sink under me. You made my enemies turn their backs to me, those who hated me, and I destroyed them. They looked, but there was none to save; they cried to the Lord, but he did not answer them. I beat them fine as the dust of the earth; I crushed them and stamped them down like the mire of the streets. "You delivered me from strife with my people; you kept me as the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.

Foreigners came cringing to me; as soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me. Foreigners lost heart and came trembling out of their fortresses. "The Lord lives, and blessed be my rock, and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation, the God who gave me vengeance and brought down peoples under me, who brought me out from my enemies; you exalted me above those who rose against me; you delivered me from men of violence. "For this I will praise you, O Lord, among the nations, and sing praises to your name. Great salvation he brings to his king, and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David and his offspring forever.""

2 Samuel 22:1-51 ESV

"And David spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered (nâtsal, H5337) him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: and he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer (pâlat, H6403); The God of my rock; in him will I trust (châsâh, H2620): He is my shield, and the horn of my salvation (yesha', H3468), my high tower (mîsgâb, H4869), and my refuge (mânôs, H4498), My saviour (yâsha', H3467); thou savest (yâsha', H3467) me from violence. I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised (hâlal, H1984): So shall I be saved (yâsha', H3467) from mine enemies. When the waves of death compassed me, The floods of ungodly men made me afraid; The sorrows of hell compassed me about; The snares of death prevented me; In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried to my God: And he did hear my voice out of his temple, And my cry did enter into his ears. Then the earth shook and trembled; The foundations of heaven moved And shook, because he was wroth. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, And fire out of his mouth devoured: Coals were kindled by it. He bowed the heavens also, and came down; And darkness was under his feet. And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: And he was seen upon the wings of the wind. And he made darkness pavilions round about him, Dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies. Through the brightness before him Were coals of fire kindled. The LORD thundered from heaven, And the Most High uttered his voice. And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; Lightning, and discomfited them. And the channels of the sea appeared, The foundations of the world were discovered, At the rebuking of the LORD, At the blast of the breath of his nostrils. He sent from above, he took me; He drew me out of many waters; He delivered (nâtsal, H5337) me from my strong enemy, And from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. They prevented me in the day of my calamity: But the LORD was my stay (mish'ên, H4937). He brought me forth also into a large place: He delivered (châlats, H2502) me, because he delighted in me. The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666): According to the cleanness (bôr, H1252) of my hands (yâd, H3027) hath he recompensed me. For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his judgments were before me: And as for his statutes, I did not depart from them. I was also upright (tâmîym, H8549) before him, And have kept myself from mine iniquity. Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666); According to my cleanness (bôr, H1252) in his eye sight. With the merciful (châsîyd, H2623) thou wilt shew thyself merciful, And with the upright (tâmîym, H8549) man thou wilt shew thyself upright (tâmam, H8552). With the pure (bârar, H1305) thou wilt shew thyself pure (bârar, H1305); And with the froward thou wilt shew thyself unsavoury. And the afflicted people thou wilt save (yâsha', H3467): But thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down. For thou art my lamp, O LORD: And the LORD will lighten (nâgahh, H5050) my darkness. For by thee I have run through a troop: By my God have I leaped over a wall. As for God, his way is perfect (tâmîym, H8549); The word of the LORD is tried: He is a buckler to all them that trust (châsâh, H2620) in him. For who is God, save the LORD? And who is a rock, save our God? God is my strength (mâ'ôz, H4581) and power (chayil, H2428): And he maketh my way perfect (tâmîym, H8549). He maketh my feet like hinds' feet: And setteth me upon my high places. He teacheth my hands (yâd, H3027) to war; So that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms (zerôa', H2220). Thou hast also given me the shield (mâgên, H4043) of thy salvation (yesha', H3468): And thy gentleness hath made me great (râbâh, H7235). Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; So that my feet did not slip. I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; And turned not again until I had consumed them. And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: Yea, they are fallen under my feet. For thou hast girded ('âzar, H247) me with strength (chayil, H2428) to battle: Them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me. Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, That I might destroy them that hate me. They looked, but there was none to save (yâsha', H3467); Even unto the LORD, but he answered them not. Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad. Thou also hast delivered (pâlat, H6403) me from the strivings of my people, Thou hast kept me to be head of the heathen: A people which I knew not shall serve me. Strangers shall submit themselves unto me: As soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me. Strangers shall fade away, And they shall be afraid out of their close places. The LORD liveth (chay, H2416); and blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation (yesha', H3468). It is God that avengeth me, And that bringeth down the people under me, And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: Thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: Thou hast delivered (nâtsal, H5337) me from the violent man. Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, And I will sing praises unto thy name (shêm, H8034). He is the tower of salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) for his king: And sheweth mercy (chêsêd, H2617) to his anointed (mâshîyach, H4899), Unto David, and to his seed for evermore."

Day 53 yâsha'

“So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing. And because God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as also were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah the leader of the music of the singers. And David wore a linen ephod. So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, to the sound of the horn, trumpets, and cymbals, and made loud music on harps and lyres. And as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David dancing and celebrating, and she despised him in her heart.”

1 Chronicles 15:25-29 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ch.15.25-29.ESV>

“Oh give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the peoples! Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works! Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice! Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually! Remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles and the judgments he uttered, O offspring of Israel his servant, children of Jacob, his chosen ones! He is the Lord our God; his judgments are in all the earth. Remember his covenant forever, the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations, the covenant that he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac, which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant, saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan, as your portion for an inheritance.” When you were few in number, of little account, and sojourners in it, wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account, saying, “Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!” Sing to the Lord, all the earth! Tell of his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples! For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the Lord made the heavens. Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and joy are in his place. Ascribe to the Lord, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength! Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; bring an offering and come before him! Worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth; yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved. Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, “The Lord reigns!” Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall the trees of the forest sing for joy before the Lord, for he comes to judge the earth. Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever! Say also: “Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather and deliver us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise. Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting!” Then all the people said, “Amen!” and praised the Lord.”

1 Chronicles 16:8-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ch.16.8-36.ESV>

“So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams. And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen. Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps. And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.”

“Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren. Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name (shêm, H8034), Make known his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, Talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory (hâlal, H1984) ye in his holy (qôdesh, H6944) name (shêm, H8034): Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. Seek the LORD and his strength (’ôz, H5797), Seek his face continually. Remember his marvellous works (pâlâ’, H6381) that he hath done, His wonders (môphêth, H4159), and the judgments (mishpât, H4941) of his mouth; O ye seed of Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478) his servant, Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones. He is the LORD our God; His judgments (mishpât, H4941) are in all the earth. Be ye mindful always of his covenant; The word which he commanded to a thousand generations; Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, And of his oath unto Isaac; And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, And to Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478) for an everlasting covenant, Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance; When ye were but few, Even a few, and strangers in it. And when they went from nation to nation, And from one kingdom (mamlâkâh, H4467) to another people; He suffered no man to do them wrong: Yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes, Saying, Touch not mine anointed (mâshîyach, H4899), And do my prophets no harm. Sing unto the LORD, all the earth; Shew forth (bâsar, H1319) from day to day his salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444). Declare his glory (kâbôd, H3519) among the heathen; His marvellous works (pâlâ’, H6381) among all nations. For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised (hâlal, H1984): He also is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the people are idols: But the LORD made the heavens. Glory and honour are in his presence; Strength (’ôz, H5797) and gladness are in his place. Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, Give unto the LORD glory (kâbôd, H3519) and strength (’ôz, H5797). Give unto the LORD the glory (kâbôd, H3519) due unto his name (shêm, H8034): Bring an offering, and come before him: Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness (qôdesh, H6944). Fear before him, all the earth: The world also shall be stable, that it be not moved. Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: And let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: Let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein. Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, Because he cometh to judge the earth. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good (tôb, H2896); For his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. And say ye, Save (yâsha’, H3467) us, O God of our salvation (yesha’, H3468), And gather us together, and deliver (nâtsal, H5337) us from the heathen, That we may give thanks to thy holy (qôdesh, H6944) name, And glory in thy praise. Blessed be the LORD God of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478) For ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised (hâlal, H1984) the LORD.”

Day 54 yâsha'

"O Lord, how many are my foes! Many are rising against me; many are saying of my soul, "There is no salvation for him in God." Selah But you, O Lord, are a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head. I cried aloud to the Lord, and he answered me from his holy hill. Selah I lay down and slept; I woke again, for the Lord sustained me. I will not be afraid of many thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around. Arise, O Lord! Save me, O my God! For you strike all my enemies on the cheek; you break the teeth of the wicked. Salvation belongs to the Lord; your blessing be on your people! Selah"

Psalms 3:1-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.3.1-8.ESV>

"LORD, how are they increased that trouble me! Many are they that rise up against me. Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help (yeshû'âh, H3444) for him in God. Selah. But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; My glory (kâbôd, H3519), and the lifter up of mine head. I cried unto the LORD with my voice, And he heard me out of his holy (qôdesh, H6944) hill. Selah. I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me. I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, That have set themselves against me round about. Arise, O LORD; save (yâsha', H3467) me, O my God: For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444) belongeth unto the LORD: Thy blessing (berâkâh, H1293) is upon thy people. Selah."

Berâkâh, H1293: blessing, prosperity, gift, benediction

Translated as: blessing

Pronounced: ber-aw-kaw'

"O Lord, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath. Be gracious to me, O Lord, for I am languishing; heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled. My soul also is greatly troubled. But you, O Lord—how long? Turn, O Lord, deliver my life; save me for the sake of your steadfast love. For in death there is no remembrance of you; in Sheol who will give you praise? I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; I drench my couch with my weeping. My eye wastes away because of grief; it grows weak because of all my foes. Depart from me, all you workers of evil, for the Lord has heard the sound of my weeping. The Lord has heard my plea; the Lord accepts my prayer. All my enemies shall be ashamed and greatly troubled; they shall turn back and be put to shame in a moment."

Psalms 6:1-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.6.1-10.ESV>

"O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. Have mercy (chânan, H2603) upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal (râphâ', H7495) me; for my bones are vexed. My soul is also sore vexed: But thou, O LORD, how long? Return, O LORD, deliver (châlats, H2502) my soul: Oh save (yâsha', H3467) me for thy mercies' (chêsêd, H2617) sake. For in death there is no remembrance of thee: In the grave who shall give thee thanks? I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears. Mine eye is consumed because of grief; It waxeth old because of all mine enemies. Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; For the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping. The LORD hath heard my supplication; The LORD will receive my prayer. Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: Let them return and be ashamed suddenly.”

Translated as: heal

Pronounced: raw-faw'

“O Lord my God, in you do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and deliver me, lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver. O Lord my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands, if I have repaid my friend with evil or plundered my enemy without cause, let the enemy pursue my soul and overtake it, and let him trample my life to the ground and lay my glory in the dust. Selah Arise, O Lord, in your anger; lift yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; you have appointed a judgment. Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about you; over it return on high. The Lord judges the peoples; judge me, O Lord, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me. Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous— you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God! My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart. God is a righteous judge, and a God who feels indignation every day. If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow; he has prepared for him his deadly weapons, making his arrows fiery shafts. Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies. He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made. His mischief returns upon his own head, and on his own skull his violence descends. I will give to the Lord the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the Lord, the Most High.”

Psalms 7:1-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.7.1-17.ESV>

“O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust (châsâh, H2620): Save (yâsha', H3467) me from all them that persecute me, and deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me: Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, While there is none to deliver (nâtsal, H5337). O LORD my God, if I have done this; If there be iniquity in my hands; If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (Yea, I have delivered (châlat, H2502) him that without cause is mine enemy:) Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; Yea, let him tread down my life (chay, H2416) upon the earth, and lay mine honour (kâbôd, H3519) in the dust. Selah. Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: And awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded. So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: For their sakes therefore return thou on high. The LORD shall judge the people: Judge me, O LORD, According to my righteousness (tsedeq, H6664), and according to mine integrity (tôm, H8537) that is in me. Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish (kûn, H3559) the just (tsaddîyq, H6662): For the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) God Trieth the hearts and reins. My defence is of God, Which saveth (yâsha', H3467) the upright (yâshâr, H3477) in heart. God judgeth the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662), And God is angry with the wicked every day. If he turn not, he will whet his sword; He hath bent his bow, and made it ready. He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; He ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, And hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. He made a pit, and digged it, And is fallen into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, And his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness (tsedeq, H6664): And will sing praise to the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD most high."

Day 55 yâsha'

"Hear a just cause, O Lord; attend to my cry! Give ear to my prayer from lips free of deceit! From your presence let my vindication come! Let your eyes behold the right! You have tried my heart, you have visited me by night, you have tested me, and you will find nothing; I have purposed that my mouth will not transgress. With regard to the works of man, by the word of your lips I have avoided the ways of the violent. My steps have held fast to your paths; my feet have not slipped. I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God; incline your ear to me; hear my words. Wondrously show your steadfast love, O Savior of those who seek refuge from their adversaries at your right hand. Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings, from the wicked who do me violence, my deadly enemies who surround me. They close their hearts to pity; with their mouths they speak arrogantly. They have now surrounded our steps; they set their eyes to cast us to the ground. He is like a lion eager to tear, as a young lion lurking in ambush. Arise, O Lord! Confront him, subdue him! Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword, from men by your hand, O Lord, from men of the world whose portion is in this life. You fill their womb with treasure; they are satisfied with children, and they leave their abundance to their infants. As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness; when I awake, I shall be satisfied with your likeness."

Psalm 17:1-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.17.1-15.ESV>

"Hear the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, Give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; Let thine eyes behold the things that are equal. Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; Thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress. Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not. I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: Incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech. Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617), O thou that savest (yâsha', H3467) by thy right hand them which put their trust (châsâh, H2620) in thee From those that rise up against them. Keep me as the apple of the eye, Hide (sâthar, H5641) me under the shadow of thy wings, From the wicked that oppress me, From my deadly enemies, who compass me about. They are inclosed in their own fat: With their mouth they speak proudly. They have now compassed us in our steps: They have set their eyes bowing down to the earth; Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, And as it were a young lion lurking in secret places. Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: Deliver (pâlat, H6403) my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword: From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, Which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest (mâlê', H4390) with thy hid treasure: They are full of children, And leave the rest of their substance to their babes. As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness (tsedeq, H6664): I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness."

Psalm 17:1-15 KJV

Sâthar, H5641: to hide, conceal, be hidden (carefully)

Translated as: hide
Pronounced: saw-thar'

"May the Lord answer you in the day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob protect you! May he send you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion! May he remember all your offerings and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! Selah May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans! May we shout for joy over your salvation, and in the name of our God set up our banners! May the Lord fulfill all your petitions! Now I know that the Lord saves his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand. Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God. They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright. O Lord, save the king! May he answer us when we call."

Psalm 20:1-9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.20.1-9.ESV>

"The LORD hear ('ânâh, H6030) thee in the day of trouble; The name (shêm, H8034) of the God of Jacob defend thee; Send thee help ('êzer, H5828) from the sanctuary (qôdesh, H6944), And strengthen (sâ'ad, H5582) thee out of Zion; Remember all thy offerings, And accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah. Grant thee according to thine own heart, And fulfil (mâlê', H4390) all thy counsel. We will rejoice in thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444), and in the name (shêm, H8034) of our God we will set up our banners: The LORD fulfil (mâlê', H4390) all thy petitions. Now know I that the LORD saveth (yâsha', H3467) his anointed (mâshîyach, H4899); He will hear him from his holy (qôdesh, H6944) heaven With the saving (yesha', H3468) strength (gebûrah, H1369) of his right hand. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: But we will remember the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD our God. They are brought down and fallen: But we are risen, and stand upright. Save (yâsha', H3467), LORD: Let the king hear ('ânâh, H6030) us when we call."

Day 56 yâsha'

“To you, O Lord, I call; my rock, be not deaf to me, lest, if you be silent to me, I become like those who go down to the pit. Hear the voice of my pleas for mercy, when I cry to you for help, when I lift up my hands toward your most holy sanctuary. Do not drag me off with the wicked, with the workers of evil, who speak peace with their neighbors while evil is in their hearts. Give to them according to their work and according to the evil of their deeds; give to them according to the work of their hands; render them their due reward. Because they do not regard the works of the Lord or the work of his hands, he will tear them down and build them up no more. Blessed be the Lord! For he has heard the voice of my pleas for mercy. The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him. The Lord is the strength of his people; he is the saving refuge of his anointed. Oh, save your people and bless your heritage! Be their shepherd and carry them forever.”

Psalm 28:1-9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.28.1-9.ESV>

“Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: Lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, When I lift up my hands (yâd, H3027) toward thy holy (qôdesh, H6944) oracle. Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, Which speak peace (shâlôm, H7965) to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts. Give them according to their deeds, And according to the wickedness of their endeavours: Give them after the work of their hands (yâd, H3027); Render to them their desert. Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands (yâd, H3027), He shall destroy them, and not build them up. Blessed be the LORD, Because he hath heard the voice of my supplications. The LORD is my strength (ôz, H5797) and my shield; my heart trusted (bâtach, H982) in him, and I am helped (âzar, H5826): Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth (âlaz, H5937); and with my song will I praise him. The LORD is their strength (ôz, H5797), And he is the saving (yeshû'âh, H3444) strength (mâ'ôz, H4581) of his anointed (mâshîyach, H4899). Save (yâsha', H3467) thy people, and bless thine inheritance: Feed (râ'âh, H7462) them also, and lift them up (nâsâ', H5375) for ever.”

"In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me! Incline your ear to me; rescue me speedily! Be a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me! For you are my rock and my fortress; and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me; you take me out of the net they have hidden for me, for you are my refuge. Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God. I hate those who pay regard to worthless idols, but I trust in the Lord. I will rejoice and be glad in your steadfast love, because you have seen my affliction; you have known the distress of my soul, and you have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy; you have set my feet in a broad place. Be gracious to me, O Lord, for I am in distress; my eye is wasted from grief; my soul and my body also. For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones waste away. Because of all my adversaries I have become a reproach, especially to my neighbors, and an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street flee from me. I have been forgotten like one who is dead; I have become like a broken vessel. For I hear the whispering of many— terror on every side!— as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life. But I trust in you, O Lord; I say, "You are my God." My times are in your hand; rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from my persecutors! Make your face shine on your servant; save me in your steadfast love! O Lord, let me not be put to shame, for I call upon you; let the wicked be put to shame; let them go silently to Sheol. Let the lying lips be mute, which speak insolently against the righteous in pride and contempt. Oh, how abundant is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you and worked for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of the children of mankind! In the cover of your presence you hide them from the plots of men; you store them in your shelter from the strife of tongues. Blessed be the Lord, for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me when I was in a besieged city. I had said in my alarm, "I am cut off from your sight." But you heard the voice of my pleas for mercy when I cried to you for help. Love the Lord, all you his saints! The Lord preserves the faithful but abundantly repays the one who acts in pride. Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!"

Psalms 31:1-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.31.1-24.ESV>

"In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust (châsâh, H2620); Let me never be ashamed: deliver (pâlat, H6403) me in thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666). Bow down thine ear to me; deliver (pâlat, H6403) me speedily: Be thou my strong (mâ'ôz, H4581) rock, for an house of defence to save (yâsha', H3467) me. For thou art my rock and my fortress; Therefore for thy name's (shêm, H8034) sake lead me, and guide me. Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: For thou art my strength (mâ'ôz, H4581). Into thine hand (yâd, H3027) I commit my spirit: Thou hast redeemed (pâdâh, H6299) me, O LORD God of truth. I have hated them that regard lying vanities: But I trust (bâtach, H982) in the LORD. I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617): For thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities; And hast not shut me up into the hand (yâd, H3027) of the enemy: Thou hast set my feet in a large room (merchâb, H4800). Have mercy (chânan, H2603) upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: Mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly. For my life (chay, H2416) is spent with grief, And my years with sighing: My strength (kôach, H3581) faileth because of mine iniquity, And my bones are consumed. I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, And a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel. For I have heard the slander of many: Fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, They devised to take away my life. But I trusted (bâtach, H982) in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God. My times are in thy hand (yâd, H3027): Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me from the hand (yâd, H3027) of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me. Make thy face to shine ('ôr, H215) upon thy servant: Save (yâsha', H3467) me for thy mercies' (chêsêd, H2617) sake. Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: Let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave. Let the lying lips be put to silence; Which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662). Oh how great is thy goodness (tûb, H2898), which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; Which thou hast wrought for them that trust (châsâh, H2620) in thee before the sons of men! Thou shalt hide (sâthar, H5641) them in the secret (sêther, H5643) of thy presence from the pride of man: Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. Blessed be the LORD: For he hath shewed me his marvellous (pâlâ', H6381) kindness (chêsêd, H2617) in a strong city. For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of My supplications when I cried unto thee. O love the LORD, all ye his saints (châsîyd, H2623): For the LORD preserveth (nâtsar, H5341) the faithful ('âman, H539), and plentifully rewardeth (shâlam, H7999) the proud doer ('âsâh, H6213). Be of good courage (châzaq, H2388), and he shall strengthen ('âmat, H553) your heart, All ye that hope (yâchal, H3176) in the LORD."

Day 57 yâsha'

“Shout for joy in the Lord, O you righteous! Praise befits the upright. Give thanks to the Lord with the lyre; make melody to him with the harp of ten strings! Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts. For the word of the Lord is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness. He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord. By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host. He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him! For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm. The Lord brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples. The counsel of the Lord stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage! The Lord looks down from heaven; he sees all the children of man; from where he sits enthroned he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, he who fashions the hearts of them all and observes all their deeds. The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength. The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue. Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. Our soul waits for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name. Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in you.”

Psalm 33:1-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.33.1-22.ESV>

“Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662): For praise is comely for the upright (yâshâr, H3477). Praise the LORD with harp: Sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings. Sing unto him a new song; Play skilfully with a loud noise. For the word of the LORD is right (yâshâr, H3477); And all his works are done in truth. He loveth righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) and judgment: The earth is full (mâlê', H4390) of the goodness (chêsêd, H2617) of the LORD. By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: He layeth up the depth in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the LORD: Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast. The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: He maketh the devices of the people of none effect. The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, The thoughts of his heart to all generations. Blessed ('esher, H835) is the nation whose God is the LORD; And the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men. From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth. He fashioneth their hearts alike; He considereth all their works. There is no king saved (yâsha', H3467) by the multitude of an host (chayil, H2428): A mighty man (gibbôr, H1368) is not delivered (nâtsal, H5337) by much strength (kôach, H3581). An horse is a vain thing for safety (teshû'âh, H8668): Neither shall he deliver (mâlat, H4422) any by his great strength (chayil, H2428). Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, Upon them that hope (yâchal, H3176) in his mercy (chêsêd, H2617); To deliver (nâtsal, H5337) their soul from death,

And to keep them alive (châyâh, H2421) in famine. Our soul waiteth for the LORD: He is our help ('êzer, H5828) and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in him, Because we have trusted (bâtach, H982) in his holy (qôdesh, H6944) name (shêm, H8034). Let thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617), O LORD, be upon us, According as we hope (yâchal, H3176) in thee.”

‘Esher, H835: happiness, blessedness, blessed are, how happy, happy

Translated as: blessed, happy

Pronounced: eh'-sher

“I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul makes its boast in the Lord; let the humble hear and be glad. Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together! I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears. Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them. Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him! Oh, fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack! The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing. Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. What man is there who desires life and loves many days, that he may see good? Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry. The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth. When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all. He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken. Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned. The Lord redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.”

Psalms 34:1-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.34.1-22.ESV>

“I will bless the LORD at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast (hâlal, H1984) in the LORD: The humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the LORD with me, And let us exalt his name (shêm, H8034) together. I sought the LORD, and he heard ('ânâh, H6030) me, And delivered (nâtsal, H5337) me from all my fears. They looked unto him, and were lightened: And their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, And saved (yâsha', H3467) him out of all his troubles. The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, And delivereth (châlats, H2502) them. O taste and see that the LORD is good (tôb, H2896): Blessed ('esher, H835) is the man (geber, H1397) that trusteth (châsâh, H2620) in him. O fear the LORD, ye his saints (qâdôsh, H6918): For there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: But they that seek the LORD shall not want any good (tôb, H2896) thing. Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD. What man is he that desireth life (chay, H2416), And loveth many days, that he may see good (tôb, H2896)? Keep thy tongue from evil, And thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good (tôb, H2896); Seek peace (shâlôm, H7965), and pursue it. The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662), And his ears are open unto their cry. The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, And delivereth (nâtsal, H5337) them out of all their troubles. The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; And saveth (yâsha', H3467) such as be of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662): But the LORD delivereth (nâtsal, H5337) him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: Not one of them is broken. Evil shall slay the wicked: And they that hate the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) shall be desolate. The LORD redeemeth (pâdâh, H6299) the soul of his servants: And none of them that trust (châsâh, H2620) in him shall be desolate."

Day 58 yâsha'

"Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb. Trust in the Lord, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness. Delight yourself in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him, and he will act. He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday. Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices! Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath! Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil. For the evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the Lord shall inherit the land. In just a little while, the wicked will be no more; though you look carefully at his place, he will not be there. But the meek shall inherit the land and delight themselves in abundant peace. The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at him, but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he sees that his day is coming. The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose way is upright; their sword shall enter their own heart, and their bows shall be broken. Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but the Lord upholds the righteous. The Lord knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will remain forever; they are not put to shame in evil times; in the days of famine they have abundance. But the wicked will perish; the enemies of the Lord are like the glory of the pastures; they vanish—like smoke they vanish away. The wicked borrows but does not pay back, but the righteous is generous and gives; for those blessed by the Lord shall inherit the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off. The steps of a man are established by the Lord, when he delights in his way; though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the Lord upholds his hand. I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread. He is ever lending generously, and his children become a blessing. Turn away from evil and do good; so shall you dwell forever. For the Lord loves justice; he will not forsake his saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever. The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks justice. The law of his God is in his heart; his steps do not slip. The wicked watches for the righteous and seeks to put him to death. The Lord will not abandon him to his power or let him be condemned when he is brought to trial. Wait for the Lord and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land; you will look on when the wicked are cut off. I have seen a wicked, ruthless man, spreading himself like a green laurel tree. But he passed away, and behold, he was no more; though I sought him, he could not be found. Mark the blameless and behold the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace. But transgressors shall be altogether destroyed; the future of the wicked shall be cut off. The salvation of the righteous is from the Lord; he is their stronghold in the time of trouble. The Lord helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him."

Psalms 37:1-40 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.37.1-40.ESV>

"Fret not thyself because of evildoers, Neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, And wither as the green herb. Trust (bâtach, H982) in the LORD, and do good (tôb, H2896); So shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed (râ'âh, H7462). Delight thyself also in the LORD; And he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto the LORD; Trust (bâtach, H982) also in him; And he shall bring it to pass. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness (tsedeq, H6664) as the light, And thy judgment as the noonday. Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: Fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. For evildoers shall be cut off: But those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. But the meek shall inherit the earth; And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace (shâlôm, H7965). The wicked plotteth against the just (tsaddîyq, H6662), And gnasheth upon him with his teeth. The Lord shall laugh at him: For he seeth that his day is coming. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, To cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright (yâshâr, H3477) conversation. Their sword shall enter into their own heart, And their bows shall be broken. A little that a righteous man (tsaddîyq, H6662) hath is better Than the riches of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: But the LORD upholdeth the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662). The LORD knoweth the days of the upright (tâmîym, H8549): And their inheritance shall be for ever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied (sâba', H7646). But the wicked shall perish, And the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: They shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away. The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: But the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) sheweth mercy (chânan, H2603), and giveth. For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; And they that be cursed of him shall be cut off. The steps of a good man (geber, H1397) are ordered (kûn, H3559) by the LORD: And he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: For the LORD upholdeth (sâmak, H5564) him with his hand (yâd, H3057). I have been young, and now am old; Yet have I not seen the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. He is ever merciful (chânan, H2603), and lendeth; And his seed is blessed. Depart from evil, and do good (tôb, H2896); And dwell for evermore. For the LORD loveth judgment, And forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) shall inherit the land, And dwell therein for ever. The mouth of the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) speaketh wisdom, And his tongue talketh of judgment. The law of his God is in his heart; None of his steps shall slide. The wicked watcheth the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662), And seeketh to slay him. The LORD will not leave him in his hand, Nor condemn him when he is judged. Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. I have seen the wicked in great power, And spreading himself like a green bay tree. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found. Mark the perfect (tâm, H8535) man, and behold the upright (yâshâr, H3477): For the end of that man is peace (shâlôm, H7965). But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: The end of the wicked shall be cut off. But the salvation (teshû'âh, H8668) of the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) is of the LORD: He is their strength (mâ'ôz, H4581) in the time of trouble. And the LORD shall help ('âzar, H5826) them, and deliver (pâlat, H6403) them: He shall deliver (pâlat, H6403) them from the wicked, and save (yâsha', H3467) them, because they trust (châsâh, H2620) in him."

"O God, save me by your name, and vindicate me by your might. O God, hear my prayer; give ear to the words of my mouth. For strangers have risen against me; ruthless men seek my life; they do not set God before themselves. Selah Behold, God is my helper; the Lord is the upholder of my life. He will return the evil to my enemies; in your faithfulness put an end to them. With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to you; I will give thanks to your name, O Lord, for it is good. For he has delivered me from every trouble, and my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies."

Day 59 yâsha'

“Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in you my soul takes refuge; in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge, till the storms of destruction pass by. I cry out to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me. He will send from heaven and save me; he will put to shame him who tramples on me. Selah God will send out his steadfast love and his faithfulness! My soul is in the midst of lions; I lie down amid fiery beasts— the children of man, whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords. Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth! They set a net for my steps; my soul was bowed down. They dug a pit in my way, but they have fallen into it themselves. Selah My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast! I will sing and make melody! Awake, my glory! Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn! I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations. For your steadfast love is great to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds. Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!”

Psalm 57:1-11 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.57.1-11.ESV>

“Be merciful (chânan, H2603) unto me, O God, be merciful (chânan, H2603) unto me: For my soul trusteth (châsâh, H2620) in thee: Yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge (châsâh, H2620), until these calamities be overpast. I will cry unto God most high; Unto God that performeth all things for me. He shall send from heaven, and save (yâsha', H3467) me From the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) and his truth ('emeth, H571). My soul is among lions: And I lie even among them that are set on fire, Even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; Let thy glory (kâbôd, H3519) be above all the earth. They have prepared a net for my steps; My soul is bowed down: They have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah. My heart is fixed (kûn, H3559), O God, my heart is fixed (kûn, H3559): I will sing and give praise. Awake up, my glory (kâbôd, H3519); awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early. I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617) is great unto the heavens, And thy truth ('emeth, H571) unto the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: Let thy glory (kâbôd, H3519) be above all the earth.”

Psalm 57:1-11 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/psa.57.1-11.KJV>

“Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; protect me from those who rise up against me; deliver me from those who work evil, and save me from bloodthirsty men. For behold, they lie in wait for my life; fierce men stir up strife against me. For no transgression or sin of mine, O Lord, for no fault of mine, they run and make ready. Awake, come to meet me, and see! You, Lord God of hosts, are God of Israel. Rouse yourself to punish all the nations; spare none of those who treacherously plot evil. Selah Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city. There they are, bellowing with their mouths with swords in their lips— for “Who,” they think, “will hear us?” But you, O Lord, laugh at them; you hold all the nations in derision. O my Strength, I will watch for you, for you, O God, are my fortress. My God in his steadfast love will meet me; God will let me look in triumph on my enemies. Kill them not, lest my people forget; make them totter by your power and bring them down, O Lord, our shield! For the sin of their mouths, the words of their lips, let them be trapped in their pride. For the cursing and lies that they utter, consume them in wrath; consume them till they are no more, that they may know that God rules over Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city. They wander about for food and growl if they do not get their fill. But I will sing of your strength; I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning. For you have been to me a fortress and a refuge in the day of my distress. O my Strength, I will sing praises to you, for you, O God, are my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love.”

Psalm 59:1-17 ESV

“Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me from mine enemies, O my God: Defend me from them that rise up against me. Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me from the workers of iniquity, And save (yâsha’, H3467) me from bloody men. For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: The mighty are gathered against me; Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD. They run and prepare themselves without my fault. Awake to help me, and behold. Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts (tsâbâ, H6635), the God of Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478), Awake to visit all the heathen: Be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah. They return at evening: They make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. Behold, they belch out with their mouth: Swords are in their lips: For who, say they, doth hear? But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; Thou shalt have all the heathen in derision. Because of his strength (’ôz, H5797) will I wait upon thee: For God is my defence (miśgâb, H4869). The God of my mercy (chêšêd, H2617) shall prevent (qâdam, H6923) me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies. Slay them not, lest my people forget: Scatter them by thy power (chayil, H2428); and bring them down, O Lord our shield. For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: And for cursing and lying which they speak. Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: And let them know that God ruleth (mâshal, H4910) in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah. And at evening let them return; And let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. Let them wander up and down for meat, And grudge if they be not satisfied. But I will sing of thy power (’ôz, H5797); Yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy (chêšêd, H2617) in the morning: For thou hast been my defence (miśgâb, H4869) and refuge (mânôs, H4498) in the day of my trouble. Unto thee, O my strength (’ôz, H5797), will I sing: For God is my defence (miśgâb, H4869), and the God of my mercy (chêšêd, H2617).”

Day 60 yâsha'

"O God, you have rejected us, broken our defenses; you have been angry; oh, restore us. You have made the land to quake; you have torn it open; repair its breaches, for it totters. You have made your people see hard things; you have given us wine to drink that made us stagger. You have set up a banner for those who fear you, that they may flee to it from the bow. Selah That your beloved ones may be delivered, give salvation by your right hand and answer us! God has spoken in his holiness: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem and portion out the Vale of Succoth. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet; Judah is my scepter. Moab is my washbasin; upon Edom I cast my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph." Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom? Have you not rejected us, O God? You do not go forth, O God, with our armies. Oh, grant us help against the foe, for vain is the salvation of man! With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes."

Psalm 60:1-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.60.1-12.ESV>

"O God, thou hast cast us off, thou has scattered us, Thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again. Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: Heal (râphâ', H7495) the breaches thereof; for it shaketh. Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: Thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment. Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. That thy beloved (yedîyd, H3039) may be delivered (châlats, H2502); Save (yâsha', H3467) with thy right hand, and hear ('ânâh, H6030) me. God hath spoken in his holiness (qôdesh, H6944); I will rejoice ('âlaz, H5937), I will divide Shechem, And mete out the valley of Succoth. Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; Over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me. Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me into Edom? Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? And thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies? Give us help ('ezrâh, H5833) from trouble: For vain is the help (teshû'âh, H8668) of man. Through God we shall do valiantly (chayil, H2428): For he it is that shall tread down (bûs, H947) our enemies."

Psalm 60:1-12 KJV

Yedîyd, H3039: (one) beloved, lovely, loved, amiable, loves

Translated as: (well)beloved, loves, amiable

Pronounced: yed-eed'

Bûs, H947: to tread down, trample, reject, kick out, desecrate, be trodden down, loath

Translated as: tread

Pronounced: boos

"Save me, O God! For the waters have come up to my neck. I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold; I have come into deep waters, and the flood sweeps over me. I am weary with my crying out; my throat is parched. My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God. More in number than the hairs of my head are those who hate me without cause; mighty are those who would destroy me, those who attack me with lies. What I did not steal must I now restore? O God, you know my folly; the wrongs I have done are not hidden from you. Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through me, O Lord God of hosts; let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, O God of Israel. For it is for your sake that I have borne reproach, that dishonor has covered my face. I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's sons. For zeal for your house has consumed me, and the reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me. When I wept and humbled my soul with fasting, it became my reproach. When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them. I am the talk of those who sit in the gate, and the drunkards make songs about me. But as for me, my prayer is to you, O Lord. At an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of your steadfast love answer me in your saving faithfulness. Deliver me from sinking in the mire; let me be delivered from my enemies and from the deep waters. Let not the flood sweep over me, or the deep swallow me up, or the pit close its mouth over me. Answer me, O Lord, for your steadfast love is good; according to your abundant mercy, turn to me. Hide not your face from your servant, for I am in distress; make haste to answer me. Draw near to my soul, redeem me; ransom me because of my enemies! You know my reproach, and my shame and my dishonor; my foes are all known to you. Reproaches have broken my heart, so that I am in despair. I looked for pity, but there was none, and for comforters, but I found none. They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me sour wine to drink. Let their own table before them become a snare; and when they are at peace, let it become a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see, and make their loins tremble continually. Pour out your indignation upon them, and let your burning anger overtake them. May their camp be a desolation; let no one dwell in their tents. For they persecute him whom you have struck down, and they recount the pain of those you have wounded. Add to them punishment upon punishment; may they have no acquittal from you. Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; let them not be enrolled among the righteous. But I am afflicted and in pain; let your salvation, O God, set me on high! I will praise the name of God with a song; I will magnify him with thanksgiving. This will please the Lord more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs. When the humble see it they will be glad; you who seek God, let your hearts revive. For the Lord hears the needy and does not despise his own people who are prisoners. Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and everything that moves in them. For God will save Zion and build up the cities of Judah, and people shall dwell there and possess it; the offspring of his servants shall inherit it, and those who love his name shall dwell in it."

Psalms 69:1-36 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.69.1-36.ESV>

"Save (yâsha', H3467) me, O God; For the waters are come in unto my soul. I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: Mine eyes fail while I wait (yâchal, H3176) for my God. They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: They that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: Then I restored that which I took not away. O God, thou knowest my foolishness; And my sins are not hid from thee. Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts (tsâbâ', H6635), be ashamed for my sake: Let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; Shame hath covered my face. I am become a stranger unto my brethren, And an alien unto my mother's children. For the zeal (qin'âh, H7068) of thine house (bayith, H1004) hath eaten me up; And the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me. When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, That was to my reproach. I made sackcloth also my garment; And I became a proverb to them. They that sit in the gate speak against me; And I was the song of the drunkards. But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable (râtsôn, H7522) time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617) Hear ('ânâh, H6030) me, in the truth ('emeth, H571) of thy salvation (yesha', H3468). Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me out of the mire, and let me not sink: Let me be delivered (nâtsal, H5337) from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters. Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, And let not the pit shut her mouth upon me. Hear ('ânâh, H6030) me, O LORD; for thy lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617) is good (tôb, H2896): Turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies (racham, H7356). And hide not thy face from thy servant; For I am in trouble: Hear ('ânâh, H6030) me speedily. Draw nigh (qârab, H7126) unto my soul, and redeem (gâ'al, H1350) it: Deliver (pâdâh, H6299) me because of mine enemies. Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: Mine adversaries are all before thee. Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: And I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; And for comforters, but I found none. They gave me also gall for my meat; And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. Let their table become a snare before them: And that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; And make their loins continually to shake. Pour out thine indignation upon them, And let thy wrathful anger take hold of them. Let their habitation be desolate; And let none dwell in their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; And they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded. Add iniquity unto their iniquity: And let them not come into thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666). Let them be blotted out of the book of the living (chay, H2416), And not be written with the righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662). But I am poor and sorrowful: Let thy salvation (yeshû'âh, H3444), O God, set me up on high (sâgab, H7682). I will praise (hâlal, H1984) the name (shêm, H8034) of God with a song, And will magnify (gâdal, H1431) him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the LORD Better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs. The humble shall see this, and be glad: And your heart shall live (châyâh, H2421) that seek God. For the LORD heareth the poor, And despiseth not his prisoners. Let the heaven and earth praise (hâlal, H1984) him, The seas, and every thing that moveth therein. For God will save (yâsha', H3467) Zion, and will build (bânâh, H1129) the cities of Judah: That they may dwell (yâshab, H3427) there, and have it in possession. The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: And they that love his name (shêm, H8034) shall dwell (shâkan, H7931) therein."

Day 61 yâsha'

"In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame! In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me, and save me! Be to me a rock of refuge, to which I may continually come; you have given the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress. Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man. For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust, O Lord, from my youth. Upon you I have leaned from before my birth; you are he who took me from my mother's womb. My praise is continually of you. I have been as a portent to many, but you are my strong refuge. My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all the day. Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent. For my enemies speak concerning me; those who watch for my life consult together and say, "God has forsaken him; pursue and seize him, for there is none to deliver him." O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste to help me! May my accusers be put to shame and consumed; with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt. But I will hope continually and will praise you yet more and more. My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge. With the mighty deeds of the Lord God I will come; I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone. O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come. Your righteousness, O God, reaches the high heavens. You who have done great things, O God, who is like you? You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth you will bring me up again. You will increase my greatness and comfort me again. I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel. My lips will shout for joy, when I sing praises to you; my soul also, which you have redeemed. And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all the day long, for they have been put to shame and disappointed who sought to do me hurt."

Psalm 71:1-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.71.1-24.ESV>

"In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust (châsâh, H2620): Let me never be put to confusion. Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me in thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666), and cause me to escape (pâlat, H6403): Incline thine ear unto me, and save (yâsha', H3467) me. Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: Thou hast given commandment to save (yâsha', H3467) me; For thou art my rock and my fortress. Deliver (pâlat, H6403) me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. For thou art my hope (tiqvâh, H8615), O Lord GOD: Thou art my trust (mibtâch, H4009) from my youth. By thee have I been holden up from the womb: Thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: My praise shall be continually of thee. I am as a wonder (môphêth, H4159) unto many; But thou art my strong ('ôz, H5797) refuge (machseh, H4268). Let my mouth be filled (mâlê', H4390) with thy praise And with thy honour (tiph'ârâh, H8597) all the day. Cast me not off in the time of old age; Forsake me not when my strength faileth. For mine enemies speak against me; And they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together, saying, God hath forsaken him: Persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver (nâtsal, H5337) him. O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help ('ezrâh, H5833). Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; Let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt. But I will hope (yâchal, H3176) continually, And will yet praise thee more and more. My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) and thy salvation (teshû'âh, H8668) all the day; For I know not the numbers thereof. I will go in the strength (gebûrâh, H1369) of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666), even of thine only. O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: And hitherto have I declared (nâgad, H5046) thy wondrous works (pâlâ', H6381). Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; Until I have shewed thy strength (zerôa', H2220) unto this generation, and thy power (gebûrâh, H1369) to every one that is to come. Thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) also, O God, is very high, Who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee! Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken (châyâh, H2421) me again, And shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth. Thou shalt increase (râbâh, H7235) my greatness, And comfort (nâcham, H5162) me on every side. I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth ('emeth, H571), O my God: Unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One (qâdosh, H6918) of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). My lips shall greatly rejoice (rânan, H7442) when I sing unto thee; And my soul, which thou hast redeemed (pâdâh, H6299). My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) all the day long: For they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt."

"Incline your ear, O Lord, and answer me, for I am poor and needy. Preserve my life, for I am godly; save your servant, who trusts in you—you are my God. Be gracious to me, O Lord, for to you do I cry all the day. Gladden the soul of your servant, for to you, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call upon you. Give ear, O Lord, to my prayer; listen to my plea for grace. In the day of my trouble I call upon you, for you answer me. There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours. All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name. For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God. Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name. I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever. For great is your steadfast love toward me; you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol. O God, insolent men have risen up against me; a band of ruthless men seeks my life, and they do not set you before them. But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. Turn to me and be gracious to me; give your strength to your servant, and save the son of your maidservant. Show me a sign of your favor, that those who hate me may see and be put to shame because you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me."

Psalm 86:1-17 ESV

"Bow down thine ear, O LORD, hear ('ânâh, H6030) me: For I am poor and needy. Preserve my soul; for I am holy (châsîyd, H2623): O thou my God, save (yâsha', H3467) thy servant that trusteth (bâtach, H982) in thee. Be merciful (chânan, H2603) unto me, O Lord: For I cry unto thee daily. Rejoice (šâmach, H8055) the soul of thy servant: For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up (nâšâ', H5375) my soul. For thou, Lord, art good (tôb, H2896), and ready to forgive (sallâch, H5546); And plenteous in mercy (chêsêd, H2617) unto all them that call upon thee. Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; And attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: For thou wilt answer ('ânâh, H6030) me. Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; Neither are there any works like unto thy works. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; And shall glorify thy name (shêm, H8034). For thou art great, and doest wondrous (pâlâ', H6381) things: Thou art God alone. Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth ('emeth, H571): Unite my heart to fear thy name (shêm, H8034). I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: And I will glorify thy name (shêm, H8034) for evermore. For great is thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617) toward me: And thou hast delivered (nâtsal, H5337) my soul from the lowest hell. O God, the proud are risen against me, And the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; And have not set thee before them. But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion (rachûm, H7349), and gracious (channûn, H2587), Longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy (chêsêd, H2617) and truth ('emeth, H571). O turn unto me, and have mercy (chânan, H3603) upon me; Give thy strength ('ôz, H5797) unto thy servant, and save (yâsha', H3467) the son of thine handmaid. Shew me a token for good (tôb, H2896); That they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: Because thou, LORD, hast holpen ('âzar, H5826) me, and comforted (nâcham, H5162) me."

Day 62 yâsha'

“Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever! Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to a city to dwell in; hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He led them by a straight way till they reached a city to dwell in. Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things. Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, prisoners in affliction and in irons, for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High. So he bowed their hearts down with hard labor; they fell down, with none to help. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and burst their bonds apart. Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! For he shatters the doors of bronze and cuts in two the bars of iron. Some were fools through their sinful ways, and because of their iniquities suffered affliction; they loathed any kind of food, and they drew near to the gates of death. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He sent out his word and healed them, and delivered them from their destruction. Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his deeds in songs of joy! Some went down to the sea in ships, doing business on the great waters; they saw the deeds of the Lord, his wondrous works in the deep. For he commanded and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea. They mounted up to heaven; they went down to the depths; their courage melted away in their evil plight; they reeled and staggered like drunken men and were at their wits' end. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed. Then they were glad that the waters were quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven. Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders. He turns rivers into a desert, springs of water into thirsty ground, a fruitful land into a salty waste, because of the evil of its inhabitants. He turns a desert into pools of water, a parched land into springs of water. And there he lets the hungry dwell, and they establish a city to live in; they sow fields and plant vineyards and get a fruitful yield. By his blessing they multiply greatly, and he does not let their livestock diminish. When they are diminished and brought low through oppression, evil, and sorrow, he pours contempt on princes and makes them wander in trackless wastes; but he raises up the needy out of affliction and makes their families like flocks. The upright see it and are glad, and all wickedness shuts its mouth. Whoever is wise, let him attend to these things; let them consider the steadfast love of the Lord.”

Psalm 107:1-43 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.107.1-43.ESV>

“O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good (tôb, H2896): For his mercy (chêsêd, H2617) endureth for ever. Let the redeemed (gâ'al, H1350) of the LORD say so, Whom he hath redeemed (gâ'al, H1350) from the hand of the enemy; And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, From the north, and from the south. They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; They found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, Their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, And he delivered (nâtsal, H5337) them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, That they might go to a city of habitation. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness (chêsêd, H2617), And for his wonderful works (pâlâ', H6381) to the children of men! For he satisfieth (šâba', H7646) the longing soul, And filleth (mâlê', H4390) the hungry soul with goodness (tôb, H2896). Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, Being bound in affliction and iron; Because they rebelled against the words of God, And contemned the counsel of the Most High: Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; They fell down, and there was none to help ('âzar, H5826). Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, And he saved (yâsha', H3467) them out of their distresses. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, And brake their bands in sunder. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness (chêsêd, H2617), And for his wonderful works (pâlâ', H6381) to the children of men! For he hath broken the gates of brass, And cut the bars of iron in sunder. Fools because of their transgression, And because of their iniquities, are afflicted. Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; And they draw near unto the gates of death. Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, And he saveth (yâsha', H3467) them out of their distresses. He sent his word (dâbâr, H1697), and healed (râphâ', H7495) them, And delivered (mâlat, H4422) them from their destructions. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness (chêsêd, H2617), And for his wonderful works (pâlâ', H6381) to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, And declare his works with rejoicing. They that go down to the sea in ships, That do business in great waters; These see the works of the LORD, And his wonders (pâlâ', H6381) in the deep. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, Which lifteth up the waves thereof. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: Their soul is melted because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, And are at their wits' end. Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, And he bringeth them out of their distresses. He maketh the storm a calm, So that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad because they be quiet; So he bringeth them unto their desired haven. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness (chêsêd, H2617), And for his wonderful works (pâlâ', H6381) to the children of men! Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, And praise him in the assembly of the elders. He turneth rivers into a wilderness, And the watersprings into dry ground; A fruitful land into barrenness, For the wickedness of them that dwell therein. He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, And dry ground into watersprings. And there he maketh the hungry To dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation; And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, Which may yield fruits of increase. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied (râbâh, H7235) greatly; And suffereth not their cattle to decrease. Again, they are minished and brought low Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow. He poureth contempt upon princes, And causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way. Yet setteth he the poor on high (šâgab, H7682) from affliction, And maketh him families like a flock. The righteous (yâshâr, H3477) shall see it, and rejoice (śâmach, H8055): And all iniquity shall stop her mouth. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, Even they shall understand the lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617) of the LORD.”

Day 63 yâsha'

"I give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods I sing your praise; I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things your name and your word. On the day I called, you answered me; my strength of soul you increased. All the kings of the earth shall give you thanks, O Lord, for they have heard the words of your mouth, and they shall sing of the ways of the Lord, for great is the glory of the Lord. For though the Lord is high, he regards the lowly, but the haughty he knows from afar. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life; you stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and your right hand delivers me. The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands."

Psalms 138:1-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.138.1-8.ESV>

"I will praise thee with my whole heart: Before the gods will I sing praise unto thee. I will worship toward thy holy (qôdesh, H6944) temple, and praise thy name (shêm, H8034) for thy lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617) and for thy truth ('emeth, H571): For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name (shêm, H8034). In the day when I cried thou answeredst ('ânâh, H6030) me, And strengthenedst me with strength ('ôz, H5797) in my soul. All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, When they hear the words of thy mouth. Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: For great is the glory (kâbôd, H3519) of the LORD. Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: But the proud he knoweth afar off. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive (châyâh, H2421) me: Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand (yâd, H3027) against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save (yâsha', H3467) me. The LORD will perfect (gâmar, H1584) that which concerneth me: Thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617), O LORD, endureth for ever: Forsake not the works of thine own hands (yâd, H3027)."

Gâmar, H1584: come to an end, complete, perfect, perform, end, cease, fail

Translated as: cease, fail, come to an end, perfect, perform

Pronounced: gaw-mar'

"I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate. They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds, and I will declare your greatness. They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness and shall sing aloud of your righteousness. The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The Lord is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made. All your works shall give thanks to you, O Lord, and all your saints shall bless you! They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power, to make known to the children of man your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. [The Lord is faithful in all his words and kind in all his works.] The Lord upholds all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down. The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season. You open your hand; you satisfy the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all his ways and kind in all his works. The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth. He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them. The Lord preserves all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.”

“I will extol thee, my God, O King; And I will bless thy name (shêm, H8034) for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; And I will praise (hâlal, H1984) thy name (shêm, H8034) for ever and ever. Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised (hâlal, H1984); And his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise thy works to another, And shall declare (nâgad, H5046) thy mighty acts (gebûrâh, H1369). I will speak of the glorious (kâbôd, H3519) honour of thy majesty, And of thy wondrous (pâlâ', H6381) works (dâbâr, H1697). And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: And I will declare thy greatness. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness (tûb, H2898), And shall sing of thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666). The LORD is gracious (channûn, H2587), and full of compassion (rachûm, H7349); Slow to anger, and of great mercy (chêsêd, H2617). The LORD is good (tôb, H2896) to all: And his tender mercies (racham, H7356) are over all his works. All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; And thy saints (châsiyd, H2623) shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory (kâbôd, H3519) of thy kingdom (malkûth, H4438), And talk (dâbar, H1696) of thy power (gebûrâh, H1369); To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts (gebûrâh, H1369), And the glorious (kâbôd, H3519) majesty of his kingdom (malkûth, H4438). Thy kingdom (malkûth, H4438) is an everlasting kingdom (malkûth, H4438), And thy dominion (memshâlâh, H4475) endureth throughout all generations. The LORD upholdeth (sâmak, H5564) all that fall, And raiseth up all those that be bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon thee; And thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand (yâd, H3027), And satisfiest (śâbâ', H7646) the desire (râtsôn, H7522) of every living thing (chay, H2416). The LORD is righteous (tsaddîyq, H6662) in all his ways, And holy (châsiyq, H2623) in all his works. The LORD is high unto all them that call upon him, To all that call upon him in truth ('emeth, H571). He will fulfil the desire (râtsôn, H7522) of them that fear him: He also will hear their cry, and will save (yâsha', H3467) them. The LORD preserveth all them that love him: But all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: And let all flesh bless his holy (qôdesh, H6944) name (shêm, H8034) for ever and ever.”

Day 64 yâsha'

"The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; it shall blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, the majesty of our God. Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who have an anxious heart, "Be strong; fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy. For waters break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the haunt of jackals, where they lie down, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it. It shall belong to those who walk on the way; even if they are fools, they shall not go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

Isaiah 35:1-10 ESV

"The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory (kâbôd, H3519) of the LORD, and the excellency of our God. Strengthen (châzaq, H2388) ye the weak hands (yâd, H3027), and confirm ('â mats, H553) the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong (châzaq, H2388), fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save (yâsha', H3467) you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped (pâthach, H6605). Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing (rânan, H7442): for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs (mabbûa', H4002) of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness (qôdesh, H6944); the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed (gâ'al, H1350) shall walk there: and the ransomed (pâdâh, H6299) of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs (rinnâh, H7440) and everlasting joy (šimchâh, H8057) upon their heads: they shall obtain joy (šimchâh, H8057) and gladness (šâšôn, H8342), and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

“Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David, and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely. And this is the name by which it will be called: ‘The Lord is our righteousness.’ “For thus says the Lord: David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, and the Levitical priests shall never lack a man in my presence to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to make sacrifices forever.” The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah: “Thus says the Lord: If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night will not come at their appointed time, then also my covenant with David my servant may be broken, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests my ministers. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered and the sands of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the offspring of David my servant, and the Levitical priests who minister to me.” The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah: “Have you not observed that these people are saying, ‘The Lord has rejected the two clans that he chose’? Thus they have despised my people so that they are no longer a nation in their sight. Thus says the Lord: If I have not established my covenant with day and night and the fixed order of heaven and earth, then I will reject the offspring of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his offspring to rule over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and will have mercy on them.””

Jeremiah 33:14-26 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jer.33.14-26.ESV>

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good (tôb, H2896) thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478) and to the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment (mishpât, H4941) and righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) in the land. In those days shall Judah be saved (yâsha’, H3467), and Jerusalem shall dwell safely (betach, H983): and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness (yehôvâh tsidqênû, H3072). For thus saith the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne (kissê’, H3678) of the house (bayith, H1004) of Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478); neither shall the priests (kôhên, H3548) the Levites (lêvîyîy, H3881) want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice (zebach, H2077) continually. And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; then may also my covenant (berîyth, H1285) be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne (kissê', H3678); and with the Levites (lêvîyîy, H3881) the priests (kôhên, H3548), my ministers (shârath, H8334). As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply (râbâh, H7235) the seed of David my servant, and the Levites (lêvîyîy, H3881) that minister (shârath, H8334) unto me. Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant (berîyth, H1285) be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers (mâshal, H4910) over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy (râcham, H7355) on them."

Day 65 yâsha'

“For thus says the Lord God: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out. As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the country. I will feed them with good pasture, and on the mountain heights of Israel shall be their grazing land. There they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on rich pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I myself will make them lie down, declares the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them in justice. “As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and male goats. Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture; and to drink of clear water, that you must muddy the rest of the water with your feet? And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have muddied with your feet? “Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: Behold, I, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you push with side and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad, I will rescue my flock; they shall no longer be a prey. And I will judge between sheep and sheep. And I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them. I am the Lord; I have spoken. “I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild beasts from the land, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places all around my hill a blessing, and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing. And the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land. And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I break the bars of their yoke, and deliver them from the hand of those who enslaved them. They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beasts of the land devour them. They shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. And I will provide for them renowned plantations so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the reproach of the nations. And they shall know that I am the Lord their God with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, declares the Lord God. And you are my sheep, human sheep of my pasture, and I am your God, declares the Lord God.””

Ezekiel 34:11-31 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/ezk.34.11-31.ESV>

“For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. As a shepherd (râ’âh, H7462) seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver (nâtsal, H5337) them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed (râ'âh, H7462) them upon the mountains of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478) by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. I will feed (râ'âh, H7462) them in a good (tôb, H2896) pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478) shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good (tôb, H2896) fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed (râ'âh, H7462) upon the mountains of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478). I will feed (râ'âh, H7462) my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen (châzaq, H2388) that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed (râ'âh, H7462) them with judgment (mishpât, H4941). And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats. Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good (tôb, H2896) pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; therefore will I save (yâsha', H3467) my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle. And I will set up one shepherd (râ'âh, H7462) over them, and he shall feed (râ'âh, H7462) them, even my servant David; he shall feed (râ'âh, H7462) them, and he shall be their shepherd (râ'âh, H7462). And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it. And I will make with them a covenant (berîyth, H1285) of peace (shâlôm, H7965), and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing (berâkâh, H1293); and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing (berâkâh, H1293). And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe (betach, H983) in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered (nâtsal, H5337) them out of the hand (yâd, H3027) of those that served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely (betach, H983), and none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up for them a plant of renown (shêm, H8034), and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478), are my people, saith the Lord GOD. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD."

Day 66 yâsha'

"But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they came. "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came. And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am the Lord, declares the Lord God, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes. I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries and bring you into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. And I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses. And I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you. I will make the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field abundant, that you may never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations. Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and your abominations. It is not for your sake that I will act, declares the Lord God; let that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel. "Thus says the Lord God: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt. And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by. And they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden, and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.' Then the nations that are left all around you shall know that I am the Lord; I have rebuilt the ruined places and replanted that which was desolate. I am the Lord; I have spoken, and I will do it. "Thus says the Lord God: This also I will let the house of Israel ask me to do for them: to increase their people like a flock. Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the Lord.""

Ezekiel 36:21-38 ESV

"But I had pity for mine holy (qôdesh, H6944) name (shêm, H8034), which the house of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. Therefore say unto the house of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), but for mine holy (qôdesh, H6944) name's (shêm, H8034) sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. And I will sanctify (qâdash, H6942) my great name (shêm, H8034), which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified (qâdash, H6942) in you before their eyes. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean (tâhêr, H2891): from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse (tâhêr, H2891) you. A (châdâsh, H2319) new heart also will I give you, and a new (châdâsh, H2319) spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments (mishpât, H4941), and do them. And ye shall dwell (yâshab, H3427) in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. I will also save (yâsha', H3467) you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase (râbâh, H7235) it, and lay no famine upon you. And I will multiply (râbâh, H7235) the fruit (perîy, H6529) of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed (tâhêr, H2891) you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded (bânâh, H1129). And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden ('êden, H5731); and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited (yâshab, H3427). Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build (bânâh, H1129) the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), to do it for them; I will increase (râbâh, H7235) them with men like a flock. As the holy (qôdesh, H6944) flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled (mâlê', H4392) with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD."

“They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. But I will save them from all the backslidings in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. “My servant David shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall walk in my rules and be careful to obey my statutes. They shall dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children’s children shall dwell there forever, and David my servant shall be their prince forever. I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will set them in their land and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. My dwelling place shall be with them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Then the nations will know that I am the Lord who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.””

Day 67 yâsha'

““For at that time I will change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call upon the name of the Lord and serve him with one accord. From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshipers, the daughter of my dispersed ones, shall bring my offering. “On that day you shall not be put to shame because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain. But I will leave in your midst a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the Lord, those who are left in Israel; they shall do no injustice and speak no lies, nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue. For they shall graze and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.” Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgments against you; he has cleared away your enemies. The King of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall never again fear evil. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: “Fear not, O Zion; let not your hands grow weak. The Lord your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing. I will gather those of you who mourn for the festival, so that you will no longer suffer reproach. Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you in, at the time when I gather you together; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes,” says the Lord.”

Zephaniah 3:9-20 ESV

“For then will I turn to the people a pure (bârar, H1305) language, that they may all call upon the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD, to serve him with one consent. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain. I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. The remnant of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478) shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478); be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478), even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more. In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack. The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty (gibbôr, H1368); he will save (yâsha', H3467), he will rejoice over thee with joy (śimchâh, H8057); he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing (rinnâh, H7440). I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save (yâsha', H3467) her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame (shêm, H8034) in every land where they have been put to shame. At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name (shêm, H8034) and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.”

“Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall speak peace to the nations; his rule shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double. For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior’s sword. Then the Lord will appear over them, and his arrow will go forth like lightning; the Lord God will sound the trumpet and will march forth in the whirlwinds of the south. The Lord of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour, and tread down the sling stones, and they shall drink and roar as if drunk with wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar. On that day the Lord their God will save them, as the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land. For how great is his goodness, and how great his beauty! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.”

“Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just (tsaddîyq, H6662), and having salvation (yâsha’, 3467); lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace (shâlôm, H7965) unto the heathen: and his dominion (môshel, H4915) shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant (berîyth, H1285) I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope (tiqvâh, H8615): even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee; when I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man (gibbôr, H1368). And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. The LORD of hosts (tsâbâ’, H6635) shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled (mâlê’, H4390) like bowls, and as the corners of the altar. And the LORD their God shall save (yâsha’, H3467) them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones (‘eben, H68) of a crown (nezer, H5145), lifted up as an ensign upon his land. For how great is his goodness (tûb, H2898), and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.”

Day 68 yesha'

"To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, in you I trust; let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me. Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame; they shall be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous. Make me to know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long. Remember your mercy, O Lord, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old. Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of your goodness, O Lord! Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way. He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way. All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies. For your name's sake, O Lord, pardon my guilt, for it is great. Who is the man who fears the Lord? Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose. His soul shall abide in well-being, and his offspring shall inherit the land. The friendship of the Lord is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant. My eyes are ever toward the Lord, for he will pluck my feet out of the net. Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted. The troubles of my heart are enlarged; bring me out of my distresses. Consider my affliction and my trouble, and forgive all my sins. Consider how many are my foes, and with what violent hatred they hate me. Oh, guard my soul, and deliver me! Let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you. May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you. Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles."

Psalms 25:1-22 ESV

"Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up (nâšâ', H5375) my soul. O my God, I trust (bâtach, H982) in thee: Let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me. Yea, let none that wait (qâvâh, H6960) on thee be ashamed: Let them be ashamed which transgress without cause. Shew me thy ways, O LORD; Teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth ('emeth, H571), and teach me: For thou art the God of my salvation (yesha', H3468); on thee do I wait (qâvâh, H6960) all the day. Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies (racham, H7356) and thy lovingkindnesses (chêsêd, H2617); For they have been ever of old. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: According to thy mercy (chêsêd, H2617) remember thou me for thy goodness' (tûb, H2898) sake, O LORD. Good (tôb, H2896) and upright (yâshâr, H3477) is the LORD: Therefore will he teach sinners in the way. The meek will he guide in judgment (mishpât, H4941): And the meek will he teach his way. All the paths of the LORD are mercy (chêsêd, H2617) and truth ('emeth, H571) Unto such as keep his covenant (berîyth, H1285) and his testimonies. For thy name's (shêm, H8034) sake, O LORD, Pardon mine iniquity; for it is great. What man is he that feareth the LORD? Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose. His soul shall dwell at ease (tôb, H2896); And his seed shall inherit the earth. The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; And he will shew them his covenant (berîyth, H1285). Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; For he shall pluck my feet out of the net. Turn thee unto me, and have mercy (chânan, H2603) upon me; For I am desolate and afflicted. The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses. Look upon mine affliction and my pain; And forgive (nâšâ', H5375) all my sins. Consider mine enemies; for they are many; And they hate me with cruel hatred. O keep my soul, and deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me: Let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust (châsâh, H2620) in thee. Let integrity (tôm, H8537) and uprightness (yôsher, H3476) preserve me; For I wait (qâvâh, H6960) on thee. Redeem (pâdâh, H6299) Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), O God, out of all his troubles.”

“The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall. Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident. One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in his temple. For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock. And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the Lord. Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud; be gracious to me and answer me! You have said, “Seek my face.” My heart says to you, “Your face, Lord, do I seek.” Hide not your face from me. Turn not your servant away in anger, O you who have been my help. Cast me not off; forsake me not, O God of my salvation! For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the Lord will take me in. Teach me your way, O Lord, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies. Give me not up to the will of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me, and they breathe out violence. I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living! Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!”

“The LORD is my light ('ôr, H216) and my salvation (yesha', H3468); whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength (mâ'ôz, H4581) of my life (chay, H2416); of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, They stumbled and fell. Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: Though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident (bâtach, H982). One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; That I may dwell (yâshab, H3427) in the house (bayith, H1004) of the LORD all the days of my life (chay, H2416), To behold the beauty (nô'am, H5278) of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple (hêykâl, H1964). For in the time of trouble he shall hide (tsâphan, H6845) me in his pavilion: In the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide (sâthar, H5641) me; he shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up, Above mine enemies round about me: Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD. Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: Have mercy (chânan, H2603) also upon me, and answer ('ânâh, H6030) me. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek. Hide not thy face far from me; Put not thy servant away in anger: Thou hast been my help; Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation (yesha', H3468). When my father and my mother forsake me, Then the LORD will take me up. Teach me thy way, O LORD, And lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, Unless I had believed ('âman, H539) to see the goodness (tûb, H2898) of the LORD in the land of the living (chay, H2416). Wait (qâvâh, H6960) on the LORD: Be of good courage (châzaq, H2388), and he shall strengthen ('âmats, H553) thine heart: wait (qâvâh, H6960), I say, on the LORD."

- 1) Do you expect good from God whenever you look to Him for help?
- 2) Could you be described as one who keeps covenant with God, as He does with you? Do you keep His testimonies?
- 3) Would you say like David that your eyes (and attention) are ever toward the Lord? If not, how can you redirect your mind's attention?
- 4) Is the Lord your light? How so?
- 5) Whom do you fear outside of God?
- 6) Does the security of God with you, in you, and for you make you bold?
- 7) Like David, do you expect to be hidden in the Almighty God in times of trouble? To share in the victory of God because you are with Him and God is with you?

8) May you say with David that there is one thing you desire, one thing you seek after: to dwell in the house of the Lord all of the days of your life and gaze upon His beauty? How do you value this direct connection to the living God that Christ enabled for you?

9) Do you expect God to answer your prayers out of the goodness of His nature, according to His word?

10) What is meant by, "When my father and my mother forsake me, Then the LORD will take me up"? How do you see God as a parent?

Day 69 yesha'

"The Mighty One, God the Lord, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth. Our God comes; he does not keep silence; before him is a devouring fire, around him a mighty tempest. He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his people: "Gather to me my faithful ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!" The heavens declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge! Selah "Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God. Not for your sacrifices do I rebuke you; your burnt offerings are continually before me. I will not accept a bull from your house or goats from your folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, the cattle on a thousand hills. I know all the birds of the hills, and all that moves in the field is mine. "If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world and its fullness are mine. Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats? Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and perform your vows to the Most High, and call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me." But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to recite my statutes or take my covenant on your lips? For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you. If you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and you keep company with adulterers. "You give your mouth free rein for evil, and your tongue frames deceit. You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son. These things you have done, and I have been silent; you thought that I was one like yourself. But now I rebuke you and lay the charge before you. "Mark this, then, you who forget God, lest I tear you apart, and there be none to deliver! The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me; to one who orders his way rightly I will show the salvation of God!"

Psalms 50:1-23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.50.1-23.ESV>

"The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, And called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: A fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. He shall call to the heavens from above, And to the earth, that he may judge his people. Gather my saints together unto me; Those that have made a covenant (berîyth, H1285) with me by sacrifice. And the heavens shall declare his righteousness (tsedeq, H6664): For God is judge himself. Selah. Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel (yîsrâ'êl, H3478), and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God. I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices Or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me. I will take no bullock out of thy house, Nor he goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, And the cattle upon a thousand hills. I know all the fowls of the mountains: And the wild beasts of the field are mine. If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: For the world is mine, and the fulness (melô', H4393) thereof. Will I eat the flesh of bulls, Or drink the blood of goats? Offer unto God thanksgiving; And pay thy vows unto the most High: And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver (châlats, H2502) thee, and thou shalt glorify (kâbad, H3513) me. But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant (berîyth, H1285) in thy mouth? Seeing thou hatest instruction, And castest my words behind thee. When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, And hast been partaker with adulterers. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, And thy tongue frameth deceit. Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; Thou slanderest thine own mother's son. These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: But I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes. Now consider this, ye that forget God, Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver (nâtsal, H5337). Whoso offereth praise glorifieth (kâbad, H3513) me: And to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation (yesha', H3468) of God."

Melô', H4393: fullness, handful, that which fills, mass, multitude, full length/line

Translated as: full(ness)

Pronounced: mel-o'

"Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. Behold, you delight in truth in the inward being, and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have broken rejoice. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, O God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise. For you will not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it; you will not be pleased with a burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. Do good to Zion in your good pleasure; build up the walls of Jerusalem; then will you delight in right sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then bulls will be offered on your altar."

Psalms 51:1-19 ESV

"Have mercy (chânan, H2603) upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617): According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies (racham, H7356) blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, And cleanse (tâhêr, H2891) me from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgressions: And my sin is ever before me. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: That thou mightest be justified (tsâdaq, H6663) when thou speakest, and be clear (zâkâh, H2135) when thou judgest. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; And in sin did my mother conceive me. Behold, thou desirest truth ('emeth, H571) in the inward parts: And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean (tâhêr, H2891): Wash me, and I shall be whiter (lâban, H3835) than snow. Make me to hear joy (śâšôn, H8342) and gladness (śimchâh, H8057); That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Hide thy face from my sins, And blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean (tâhôr, H2889) heart, O God; And renew a right (kûn, H3559) spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; And take not thy holy (qôdesh, H6944) spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy (śâšôn, H8342) of thy salvation (yesha', H3468); And uphold me with thy free (nâdîyb, H5081) spirit. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; And sinners shall be converted unto thee. Deliver (nâtsal, H5337) me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation (teshû'âh, H8668): And my tongue shall sing aloud (rânan, H7442) of thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666). O Lord, open thou my lips; And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise. For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: Thou delightest not in burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Do good in thy good pleasure (râtsôn, H7522) unto Zion: Build thou the walls of Jerusalem. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness (tsedeq, H6664), with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar."

Day 70 yesha'

"Praise is due to you, O God, in Zion, and to you shall vows be performed. O you who hear prayer, to you shall all flesh come. When iniquities prevail against me, you atone for our transgressions. Blessed is the one you choose and bring near, to dwell in your courts! We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, the holiness of your temple! By awesome deeds you answer us with righteousness, O God of our salvation, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas; the one who by his strength established the mountains, being girded with might; who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples, so that those who dwell at the ends of the earth are in awe at your signs. You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy. You visit the earth and water it; you greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; you provide their grain, for so you have prepared it. You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth. You crown the year with your bounty; your wagon tracks overflow with abundance. The pastures of the wilderness overflow, the hills gird themselves with joy, the meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy."

Psalm 65:1-13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.65.1-13.ESV>

"Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: And unto thee shall the vow be performed (shâlam, H7999). O thou that hearest prayer, Unto thee shall all flesh come. Iniquities prevail against me: As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away (kâphar, H3722). Blessed ('eshar, H835) is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach (qârab, H7126) unto thee, That he may dwell (shâkan, H7931) in thy courts (châtsêr, H2691): We shall be satisfied (sâba', H7646) with the goodness (tûb, H2898) of thy house (bayith, H1004), even of thy holy (qâdôsh, H6918) temple (hêykâl, H1964). By terrible things in righteousness (tsedeq, H6664) wilt thou answer ('ânâh, H6030) us, O God of our salvation (yesha', H3468); Who art the confidence (mibtâch, H4009) of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea: Which by his strength (kôach, H3581) setteth fast (kûn, H3559) the mountains; Being girded ('âzar, H247) with power (gebûrâh, H1369): Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice (rânan, H7442). Thou visitest the earth, and waterest (shûq, H7783) it: Thou greatly enrichest it With the river of God, which is full of water: Thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: Thou settlest the furrows thereof: Thou makest it soft with showers: Thou blessest the springing thereof. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness (tôb, H2896); And thy paths drop fatness. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: And the little hills rejoice on every side. The pastures are clothed (lâbash, H3847) with flocks; The valleys also are covered over with corn; They shout for joy, they also sing."

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to grant to those who mourn in Zion— to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he may be glorified. They shall build up the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations. Strangers shall stand and tend your flocks; foreigners shall be your plowmen and vinedressers; but you shall be called the priests of the Lord; they shall speak of you as the ministers of our God; you shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory you shall boast. Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot; therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; they shall have everlasting joy. For I the Lord love justice; I hate robbery and wrong; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. Their offspring shall be known among the nations, and their descendants in the midst of the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are an offspring the Lord has blessed. I will greatly rejoice in the Lord; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations."

"The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed (mâshach, H4886) me to preach good tidings (bâsar, H1319) unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up (châbash, H2280) the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty (derôr, H1865) to the captives, and the opening of the prison (peqach-qôach, H6495) to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable (râtsôn, H7522) year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort (nâcham, H5162) all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy (sâsôn, H8342) for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness (tsedeq, H6664), the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified (pâ'ar, H6286). And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. And strangers shall stand and feed (râ'âh, H7462) your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. But ye shall be named the Priests (kôhên, H3548) of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers (shârath, H8334) of our God: ye shall eat the riches (chayil, H2428) of the Gentiles, and in their glory (kâbôd, H3519) shall ye boast yourselves. For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice (rânan, H7442) in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy (šimchâh, H8057) shall be unto them. For I the LORD love judgment (mishpât, H4941), I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth ('emeth, H571), and I will make an everlasting covenant (berîyth, H1285) with them. And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed. I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed (lâbash, H3847) me with the garments of salvation (yesha', H3468), he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666), as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth (tsâmach, H6779); so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) and praise (tehillâh, H8416) to spring forth (tsâmach, H6779) before all the nations."

Day 71 teshû'âh

“For Zion’s sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch. The nations shall see your righteousness, and all the kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate, but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your sons marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you. On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have set watchmen; all the day and all the night they shall never be silent. You who put the Lord in remembrance, take no rest, and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise in the earth. The Lord has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: “I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink your wine for which you have labored; but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the Lord, and those who gather it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.” Go through, go through the gates; prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway; clear it of stones; lift up a signal over the peoples. Behold, the Lord has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to the daughter of Zion, “Behold, your salvation comes; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.” And they shall be called The Holy People, The Redeemed of the Lord; and you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.”

“For Zion’s sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until the righteousness (tsedeq, H6664) thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation (yeshû’âh, H3444) thereof as a lamp that burneth. And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness (tsedeq, H6664), and all kings thy glory (kâbôd, H3519): and thou shalt be called by a new (châdâsh, H2319) name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name (shêm, H8034). Thou shalt also be a crown of glory (tiph’ârâh, H8597) in the hand (yâd, H3027) of the LORD, and a royal (melûkâh, H4410) diadem (tsânîyph, H6797) in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah (chephsîy bâhh, H2657), and thy land Beulah (bâ’al, H1166): for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married (bâ’al, H1166). For as a young man marrieth (bâ’al, H1166) a virgin, so shall thy sons marry (bâ’al, H1166) thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice (sûs, H7797) over thee. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, and give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise (tehillâh, H8416) in the earth. The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm (zerôa’, H2220) of his strength (’ôz, H5797), Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured: but they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise (hâlal, H1984) the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts (châtsêr, H2691) of my holiness

"Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master and in high favor, because by him the Lord had given victory to Syria. He was a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. Now the Syrians on one of their raids had carried off a little girl from the land of Israel, and she worked in the service of Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "Would that my Lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." So Naaman went in and told his Lord, "Thus and so spoke the girl from the land of Israel." And the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you Naaman my servant, that you may cure him of his leprosy." And when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Only consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house. And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean." But Naaman was angry and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call upon the name of the Lord his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage. But his servants came near and said to him, "My father, it is a great word the prophet has spoken to you; will you not do it? Has he actually said to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?" So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean."

2 Kings 5:1-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ki.5.1-14.ESV>

"Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable (nâšâ, H5375), because by him the LORD had given deliverance (teshû'âh, H8668) unto Syria: he was also a mighty (gibbôr, H1368) man in valour (chayil, H2428), but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. And she said unto her mistress, Would God my Lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy. And one went in, and told his Lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy. And it came to pass, when the king of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive (châyâh, H2421), that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me. And it was so, when Elisha ('elîyshâ', H477) the man of God had heard that the king of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha ('elîyshâ', H477). And Elisha ('elîyshâ', H477) sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again (shûb, H7725) to thee, and thou shalt be clean (tâhêr, H2891). But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD his God, and strike his hand (yâd, H3027) over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478)? may I not wash in them, and be clean (tâhêr, H2891)? So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean (tâhêr, H2891)? Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God:

and his flesh came again (shûb, H7725) like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean (tâhêr, H2891).”

Day 72 teshû'âh

“O Lord, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath! For your arrows have sunk into me, and your hand has come down on me. There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin. For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me. My wounds stink and fester because of my foolishness, I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; all the day I go about mourning. For my sides are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh. I am feeble and crushed; I groan because of the tumult of my heart. O Lord, all my longing is before you; my sighing is not hidden from you. My heart throbs; my strength fails me, and the light of my eyes—it also has gone from me. My friends and companions stand aloof from my plague, and my nearest kin stand far off. Those who seek my life lay their snares; those who seek my hurt speak of ruin and meditate treachery all day long. But I am like a deaf man; I do not hear, like a mute man who does not open his mouth. I have become like a man who does not hear, and in whose mouth are no rebukes. But for you, O Lord, do I wait; it is you, O Lord my God, who will answer. For I said, “Only let them not rejoice over me, who boast against me when my foot slips!” For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever before me. I confess my iniquity; I am sorry for my sin. But my foes are vigorous, they are mighty, and many are those who hate me wrongfully. Those who render me evil for good accuse me because I follow after good. Do not forsake me, O Lord! O my God, be not far from me! Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation!”

Psalm 38:1-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.38.1-22.ESV>

“O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. For thine arrows stick fast in me, And thy hand presseth me sore. There is no soundness (methôm, H4974) in my flesh because of thine anger; Neither is there any rest (shâlôm, H7965) in my bones because of my sin. For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: As an heavy burden they are too heavy for me. My wounds stink and are corrupt Because of my foolishness. I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: And there is no soundness (methôm, H4974) in my flesh. I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart. Lord, all my desire is before thee; And my groaning is not hid from thee. My heart panteth, my strength (kôach, H3581) faileth me: As for the light (’ôr, H216) of mine eyes, it also is gone from me. My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; And my kinsmen stand afar off. They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: And they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long. But I, as a deaf man, heard not; And I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth. Thus I was as a man that heareth not, And in whose mouth are no reproofs. For in thee, O LORD, do I hope (yâchal, H3176): Thou wilt hear (’ânâh, H6030), O Lord my God. For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice (šâmach, H8055) over me: When my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me. For I am ready to halt, And my sorrow is continually before me. For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin. But mine enemies are lively (chay, H2416), and they are strong: And they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied. They also that render evil for good (tôb, H2896) Are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good (tôb, H2896) is. Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me. Make haste to help (‘ezrâh, H5833) me, O Lord my salvation (teshû’âh, H8668).”

Psalm 38:1-22 KJV

Methôm, H4974: soundness, entirety, entire, wholesomeness, completely

Translated as: soundness

Pronounced: meth-ohm’

“I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to me and heard my cry. He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the Lord. Blessed is the man who makes the Lord his trust, who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after a lie! You have multiplied, O Lord my God, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can compare with you! I will proclaim and tell of them, yet they are more than can be told. In sacrifice and offering you have not delighted, but you have given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. Then I said, “Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me: I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart.” I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation; behold, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O Lord. I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation. As for you, O Lord, you will not restrain your mercy from me; your steadfast love and your faithfulness will ever preserve me! For evils have encompassed me beyond number; my iniquities have overtaken me, and I cannot see; they are more than the hairs of my head; my heart fails me. Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me! O Lord, make haste to help me! Let those be put to shame and disappointed altogether who seek to snatch away my life; let those be turned back and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt! Let those be appalled because of their shame who say to me, “Aha, Aha!” But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation say continually, “Great is the Lord!” As for me, I am poor and needy, but the Lord takes thought for me. You are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God!”

Psalm 40:1-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.40.1-17.ESV>

“I waited patiently (qâvâh, H6960) for the LORD; And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, And set my feet upon a rock, and established (kûn, H3559) my goings. And he hath put a new (châdâsh, H2319) song in my mouth, even praise (tehillâh, H8416) unto our God: Many shall see it, and fear, And shall trust (bâtach, H982) in the LORD. Blessed (‘esher, H835) is that man that maketh the LORD his trust (mibtâch, H4009), And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. Many, O LORD my God, Are thy wonderful (pâlâ’, H6381) works which thou hast done, And thy thoughts which are to us-ward: They cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: If I would declare and speak of them, They are more than can be numbered. Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; Mine ears hast thou opened: Burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. Then I said, “Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me: I delight to do thy will (râtsôn, H7522), O my God: Yea, thy law is within my heart. I have preached (bâšar, H1319) righteousness (tsedeq, H6664) in the great congregation: Lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest. I have not hid thy righteousness (tsedâqâh, H6666) within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness (‘emûnâh, H530) and thy salvation (teshû’âh, H8668): I have not concealed thy lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617), And thy truth (‘emeth, H571) from the great congregation. Withhold not thou thy tender mercies (racham, H7356) from me, O LORD: Let thy lovingkindness (chêsêd, H2617) and thy truth (‘emeth, H571) continually preserve (nâtsar, H5341) me. For innumerable evils have compassed me about: Mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; They are more than the hairs of mine head: Therefore my heart faileth me. Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver (nâtsar, H5341) me: O LORD, make haste to help (‘ezrâh, H5833) me. Let them be ashamed and confounded together That seek after my soul to destroy it; Let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil. Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame That say unto me, Aha, aha. Let all those that seek thee rejoice (šûš, H7797) and be glad (šâmach, H8055) in thee: Let such as love thy salvation (teshû’âh, H8668) say continually, the LORD be magnified (gâdal, H1431). But I am poor and needy; Yet the Lord thinketh upon me: Thou art my help (‘ezrâh, H5833) and my deliverer (pâlat, H6403); Make no tarrying, O my God.”

Day 73 teshû'âh

"Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord, O my soul! I will praise the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being. Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation. When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish. Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord his God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, who keeps faith forever; who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry. The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes of the blind. The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down; the Lord loves the righteous. The Lord watches over the sojourners; he upholds the widow and the fatherless, but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin. The Lord will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise the Lord!"

Psalms 146:1-10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/psa.146.1-10.ESV>

"Praise (hâlal, H1984) ye the LORD. Praise (hâlal, H1984) the LORD, O my soul. While I live (chay, H2416) will I praise (hâlal, H1984) the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. Put not your trust (bâtach, H982) in princes, nor in the son of man, In whom there is no help (teshû'âh, H8668). His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; In that very day his thoughts perish. Happy ('esher, H835) is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help ('êzer, H5828), Whose hope is in the LORD his God: Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: Which keepeth truth ('emeth, H571) for ever: Which executeth judgment (mishpât, H4941) for the oppressed: Which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth (nâthar, H5425) the prisoners: The LORD openeth (pâqach, H6491) the eyes of the blind: The LORD raiseth (zâqaph, H2210) them that are bowed down: The LORD loveth the righteous (tsaddîq, H6662): The LORD preserveth the strangers; He relieveth the fatherless and widow: But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down. The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, Unto all generations. Praise (hâlal, H1984) ye the LORD."

Pronounced: naw-thar'

Pâqach, H6491: to open (the eyes or ears; the senses), to be opened, be observant

Translated as: open

Pronounced: paw-kakh'

Zâqaph, H2210: to raise up, life, comfort

Translated as: raise

Pronounced: zaw-kaf'

“my soul is bereft of peace; I have forgotten what happiness is; so I say, “My endurance has perished; so has my hope from the Lord.” Remember my affliction and my wanderings, the wormwood and the gall! My soul continually remembers it and is bowed down within me. But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. “The Lord is my portion,” says my soul, “therefore I will hope in him.” The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. Let him sit alone in silence when it is laid on him; let him put his mouth in the dust— there may yet be hope; let him give his cheek to the one who strikes, and let him be filled with insults. For the Lord will not cast off forever, but, though he cause grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love;”

Lamentations 3:17-32 ESV

“And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace (shâlôm, H7965): I forgot prosperity (tôb, H2896). And I said, My strength (netsach, H5331) and my hope is perished from the LORD: Remembering mine affliction and my misery, The wormwood and the gall. My soul hath them still in remembrance, And is humbled in me. This I recall to my mind, Therefore have I hope (yâchal, H3176). It is of the LORD's mercies (chêsêd, H2617) that we are not consumed, Because his compassions (racham, H7356) fail not. They are new (châdâsh, H2319) every morning: Great is thy faithfulness ('emûnâh, H530). The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; Therefore will I hope (yâchal, H3176) in him. The LORD is good (tôb, H2896) unto them that wait (qâvâh, H6960) for him, To the soul that seeketh him. It is good (tôb, H2896) that a man should both hope and quietly Wait for the salvation (teshû'âh, H8668) of the LORD. It is good (tôb, H2896) for a man that he bear The yoke in his youth. He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, Because he hath borne it upon him. He putteth his mouth in the dust; If so be there may be hope (tiqvâh, H8615). He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: He is filled full with reproach. For the Lord will not Cast off for ever: But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion (râcham, H7355) According to the multitude of his mercies (chêsêd, H2617).”

- 2) Why should we resolve not to trust in other people for our help?
- 3) Why are we blessed and made happy when we seek our help in God alone?
- 4) What does the psalm and the passage from Lamentations from today reveal about God's nature and character?
- 5) How did Jesus Christ demonstrate in person these aspects of God's nature?

6) In what ways does God set prisoners free?

The Christian life

Salvation leads to an upward trajectory of growth in faith toward Christlikeness. As such, here is a description of the Christian life reproduced from my book "Identity in Christ: Characteristics of Christ in you":

It is important to know that you are saved and then to cooperate with God to keep on growing in your faith while you follow Christ. Here are the stages of spiritual life as I see them laid out in the Bible.

1. Although made in God's image and loved by God, our spirits are dead, in need of resurrection, and our eternal destination is hell. We live in sin and disobedience. To be made alive, we must be ready to: a) give up the worldly, self-serving life we live that brings death; b) count the cost of following Christ over ourselves and the world. If we love life in the world and think it brings life and freedom apart from choosing God's will for our lives, why give it up or change? Why fall on our knees before God? God must bring us to a place where we are poor in spirit and ready for a divine work and leading to change everything.
2. Through a work of God's spirit, in our soul and mind, we believe the gospel, and that God, who is good and generous, has better for us both now and later. We confess that Jesus is Lord with our lips, and we decide to follow Christ, to love and obey God despite the cost. We die with Christ, are raised with Him in life, and are joined to His spirit; our spirit becomes alive in us with Jesus' resurrection life. The Word of God has taken root in us as an imperishable seed, yet we will likely not exhibit the characteristics of Christ's nature right away.
3. We begin as carnal, worldly Christians who start maturing. Our soul (mind, will, emotions) dominates us, and we struggle against our flesh that wants to take control. We begin growing through prayer (through which we know God), Bible reading (through which we know the words of God), and fellowship with the church (i.e., the worldwide body of Christ made alive in God's spirit). We are still significantly affected by the cares of the world and our emotions. We must continue to die to self (or shed layers of self to become more like the image of Christ, whose spirit is within us).
4. We continue to mature spiritually as we make right choices, dying to self by choosing to love God over self interest, choosing victory over sin, and believing the Word of God, e.g., that we are the righteousness of God in Christ. We recognize our responsibility for others. Obeying the command of God to love as He does, we serve people. In Christ as the Vine and with our Father as the vinedresser, we grow in intimacy with God, making God first in our lives. We begin to bear more of the fruit of the Spirit, or the characteristics of Christ's nature. It is by one's fruit, including and especially our godlike-love for others, that it becomes evident we actually abide in Christ. A tree is known by its fruit.
5. We renew our minds to the words and will of God. We understand and believe our ascended position in Christ as sons and daughters with a full heavenly inheritance. We not only believe, but we act on the word of God which is in us and growing. Not only our spirits, but our souls and bodies are quickened (made alive). We continue to take responsibility for others, striving to excel in building up God's church. We use our abilities and spiritual gifts to bring glory to God. We are sanctified: we have the mind of Christ. We hunger and thirst after righteousness, including spiritual results.

6. We are filled with the Spirit of God in fullness, including His kind of love and mercy for our neighbors and the world. We abide in Him and He in us, and He makes us pure in heart. In close relationship with God, our consciousness of the spiritual increases. We pray continually. We are led by the Spirit. Sanctified, we have the mind of Christ and all of the mind of Christ. Consecrated to God, we build the church and advance His kingdom and interests. We bear fruit, looking more like Jesus, and operate as children of God, participating in His generosity toward others. We are peacemakers. We are ever victorious, doing God's will to bring Him glory. We see the power of God and answered prayer, bringing us exceeding joy. We experience resistance and count it also as joy. This is experiencing God's best. It may not be easy, but it's full and it brings us peace despite circumstance; it's the life on earth for which we were made.

7. Often after a long, full life, our bodies die. Our spirit lives. We experience God's judgment, yet we are found righteous in Christ. We receive a reward that depends on how we've lived our lives here. We receive new bodies and get to live the eternal life our Creator has prepared for us with Him in the place He has created—from the abundance of His good, His generosity, and His riches; with none of the bad that is in this world from sin and the devil.

'If you have not been saved from your sin or you are unsure that you are saved, you should know that God loves you — no matter who you are, no matter what your past. God loves you so much that He gave His one and only begotten Son for you. The Bible tells us that "...whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16 NIV). Jesus laid down His life and rose again so that we could spend eternity with Him in heaven and experience His absolute best on earth. If you would like to receive Jesus into your life, say the following prayer out loud and mean it from your heart.

Heavenly Father, I come to You admitting that I am a sinner. Right now, I choose to turn away from sin, and I ask You to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that He rose again from the dead so that I would be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in Him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the Savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow You and ask that You fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus' name. Amen.'
