Introduction

When God spoke, He created the heavens and the earth and everything in them, things visible and invisible. The words God speaks never return void; they always come to pass. Our God has made us as sons and daughters in His image and likeness, just a little lower than Himself, having divine nature attributes. As such, the words we speak have weight.

The words we speak are choices, flowing from our mind, emotions and will.

Put together, our words are our life.

Further, every word we speak is recorded. The words we speak are heard by many witnesses, and we will one day be judged by these words as they are replayed before all.

The words we speak may flow from faith in God's character and His words, or the lack of it. We speak agreement with God and His kingdom principles or with Satan and the principles of the world.

With our words, we start and we establish relationships, or we may destroy them. With our words, we build people up toward wholeness, or we tear them down, causing all sorts of trouble.

The words we speak are also our communication line with God and the spiritual world to which we are fundamentally joined. Following our words at our moment of salvation and the belief behind them, we are born again of God's own Spirit, delivered from the power of darkness, with Satan as our father, to the kingdom of God's beloved Son. With our words, we can take what has been made ours in Christ, or we can reject it. With our words, we can speak the victory of Jesus Christ's redemption, or we can speak defeat.

With the words we speak, we worship God or we grieve Him. With our words, we pray, we ask, we require, we take authority. With our words, we choose to represent the fullness of our Lord Jesus Christ to others. With our words, we testify and share God's good news with anyone who will hear us, planting imperishable seeds that take root in many to bring eternal life in the family of God.

With our words, we speak in Jesus' name to mountains in the way of God's will being done, and they move. With our words, we make disciples, and we tend and feed God's sheep.

With our words, we join God as His co-workers in bringing freedom, resurrection life (zōē), goodness, and blessing to others.

This book reviews scriptures that pertain to God's words, God's peoples' words, and our words as God's people. Readers are encouraged to study the scriptures, meditate on them, and consider how to apply them to their lives in the world.

Study. I chose to reproduce the Bible passages from two of the most accurate English translations of the New Testament, the King James Version (KJV, 1611) and English Standard Version (ESV, 2016), reproducing scripture according to the oldest and according to one modern translation 405 years later.

Meditation. For the purpose of understanding and meditation, selected Hebrew and Greek words are defined in a short way based on three key references. The words are referenced according to the numbers for Strong's Concordance, allowing relatively easy online lookup for how the words are elsewhere used in the Bible. For Hebrew words, the reference chosen to help understanding is the Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon (1906). For Greek words, the reference chosen to aid understanding is Joseph Henry Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament (1886). In some cases, parts of Strong's definitions are used, as they are thought to add additional value. Some Bible apps now have these three references embedded, such as the Blue Letter Bible and the Bible KJV Strong's Concordance (Kairos). Of these options, I prefer to use the latter from a smartphone, although the former is a more complete reference and may be of more use on a full-sized computer.

Application. Moreover, I've included a list of questions that could be used either for personal or group devotional or discipleship studies.

The intent is to make us a church, a body, that better represents and better functions as Jesus Christ in our world – and is together more effective in doing God's word and His will to bring Him the glory that He is due.

Day 1: Taming the tongue

“Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For we all stumble in many ways. And if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well. Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire! And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell. For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by mankind, but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and salt water? Can a fig tree, my brothers, bear olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a salt pond yield fresh water.”

James 3:1-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.3.1-12.ESV>

“My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. For in many things we offend (ptaiō, G4417) all. If any man offend (ptaiō, G4417) not in word, the same is a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, and able also to bridle (chalinagōgeō, G5468) the whole body. Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world (kosmos, G2889) of iniquity (adikia, G93): so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth (spiloō, G4695) the whole body, and setteth on fire (phlogizō, G5394) the course (trochos, G5164) of nature (genesis, G1078); and it is set on fire (phlogizō, G5394) of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed (damazō, G1150), and hath been tamed (damazō, G1150) of mankind: but the tongue can no man tame (damazō, G1150); it is an unruly evil (kakos, G2556), full of deadly poison. Therewith bless (eulogeō, G2127) we God, even the Father; and therewith curse (kataraomai, G2672) we men, which are made (ginomai, G1096) after the similitude (homoiōsis, G3669) of God. Out of the same mouth (stoma, G4750) proceedeth blessing (eulogia, G2129) and cursing (katara, G2671). My brethren, these things ought not so to be (ginomai, G1096). Doth a fountain (pēgē, G4077) send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter (pikros, G4089)? Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear (poieō, G4160) olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain (pēgē, G4077) both yield (poieō, G4160) salt water and fresh.”

Day 2: The word of faith

“For, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God’s righteousness. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. But the righteousness based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!” But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?” So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.” Romans 10:3-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.3-17.ESV>

“For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343), and going about to establish (histēmi, G2476) their own righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343), have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) of God. For Christ (Christos, G5547) is the end of the law for righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) to every one that believeth (pisteuō, G4100). For Moses describeth the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) which is of the law, That the man which doeth (poieō, G4160) those things shall live (zaō, G2198) by them. But the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) which is of faith (pistis, G4102) speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart (kardia, G2588), Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ (Christos, G5547) down from above:) or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ (Christos, G5547) again from the dead (nekros, G3498).) But what saith it? The word (rhēma, G4487) is nigh (eggus, G1451) thee, even in thy mouth (stoma, G4750), and in thy heart (kardia, G2588): that is, the word (rhēma, G4487) of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kērussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth (stoma, G4750) the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), and shalt believe (pisteuō, G4100) in thine heart (kardia, G2588) that God hath raised him from the dead (nekros, G3498), thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart (kardia, G2588) man believeth (pisteuō, G4100) unto righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343); and with the mouth (stoma, G4750) confession is made (homologeō, G3670) unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord (kurios, G2962) over all is rich (plouteō, G4147) unto all that call upon (epikaleomai, G1941) him. For whosoever shall call upon (epikaleomai, G1941)

the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982). How then shall they call on (epikaleomai, G1941) him in whom they have not believed (pisteuō, G4100)? and how shall they believe (pisteuō, G4100) in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher (kērussō, G2784)? And how shall they preach (kērussō, G2784), except they be sent (apostellō, G649)? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097) of peace (eirēnē, G1515), and bring glad tidings (euaggelizō, G2097) of good things (agathos, G18)! But they have not all obeyed the gospel (euaggelion, G2098). For Esaias saith, Lord (kurios, G2962), who hath believed (pisteuō, G4100) our report (akoē, G189)? So then faith (pistis, G4102) cometh by hearing (akoē, G189), and hearing (akoē, G189) by the word (rhēma, G4487) of God.”

Questions

- 1) What is righteousness, and how are we made righteous?
- 2) What are we to confess, profess, and preach?
- 3) What does it mean to be saved, and how does it relate to our belief and confession?
- 4) How do we receive God's rich supply, and what is the nature of this rich supply?
- 5) What are we to send others to do? What are we to be sent out to do?

Day 3: God spoke life into existence

"In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day... And God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens." So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds—livestock and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds." And it was so. And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the livestock according to their kinds, and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth." ...And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day."

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit (rûach, H7307) of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said ('âmar, H559), Let there be (hâyâh, H1961) light ('ôr, H216): and there was light ('ôr, H216). And God saw the light ('ôr, H216), that it was good (tôb, H2896): and God divided the light ('ôr, H216) from the darkness. And God called (qârâ', H7121) the light ('ôr, H216) Day, and the darkness he called (qârâ', H7121) Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day... And God said ('âmar, H559), Let the waters bring forth abundantly (shârats, H8317) the moving creature that hath life (chay nephesh, H2416+H5315), and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. And God created great whales, and every living (chay, H2416) creature (nephesh, H5315) that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly (shârats, H8317), after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good (tôb, H2896). And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful (pârâh, H6509), and multiply (râbâh, H7235), and fill (mâlê', H4390) the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply (râbâh, H7235) in the earth. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. And God said ('âmar, H559), Let the earth bring forth the living (chay, H2416) creature (nephesh, H5315) after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind:

and it was so. And God made (‘âšâh, H6213) the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good (tôb, H2896). And God said (‘âmar, H559), Let us make (‘âšâh, H6213) man in our image (tselem, H6454), after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image (tselem, H6454), in the image (tselem, H6454) of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful (pârâh, H6509), and multiply (râbâh, H7235), and replenish (mâlê’, H4390) the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing (chay, H2416) that moveth upon the earth... And God saw every thing that he had made (‘âšâh, H6213), and, behold, it was very good (tôb, H2896). And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.”

Day 4: Jesus and the sword of the Spirit

“Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” But he answered, “It is written, “‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’” Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, “‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and “‘On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’” Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’” Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” Then Jesus said to him, “Be gone, Satan! For it is written, “‘You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.’” Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him. Now when he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee... From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” ...And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, those oppressed by demons, those having seizures, and paralytics, and he healed them.”

Matthew 4:1-12, 17, 23-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.4.1-24.ESV>

“Then was Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted (peirazō, G3985) of the devil (diabolos, G1228). And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred. And when the tempter (peirazō, G3985) came to him, he said (epō, G2036), If thou be the Son of God, command (epō, G2036) that these stones be made bread. But he answered (apokrinomai, G611) and said (epō, G2036), It is written (graphō, G1125), Man shall not live (zaō, G2198) by bread alone, but by every word (rhēma, G4487) that proceedeth out of the mouth (stoma, G4750) of God. Then the devil (diabolos, G1228) taketh him up into the holy (hagios, G40) city, and setteth (histēmi, G2476) him on a pinnacle of the temple, and saith (legō, G3004) unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written (graphō, G1125), He shall give his angels charge (entellomai, G1781) concerning thee: And in their hands (cheir, G5495) they shall bear thee up, Lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said (phēmi, G5346) unto him, It is written (graphō, G1125) again, Thou shalt not tempt (ekpeirazō, G1598) the Lord (kurios, G2962) thy God. Again, the devil (diabolos, G1228) taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms (basileia, G932) of the world (kosmos, G2889), and the glory (doxa, G1391) of them; and saith (legō, G3004) unto him, All these things will I give (didōmi, G1325) thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship (proskuneō, G4352) me. Then saith (legō, G3004) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) unto him, Get thee hence (hupagō, G5217), Satan (Satanas, G4567): for it is written (graphō, G1125), Thou shalt worship (proskuneō, G4352) the Lord (kurios, G2962) thy God, and him only shalt thou serve (latreuō, G3000). Then the devil (diabolos, G1228) leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered (diakoneō, G1247) unto him. Now when Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) had heard (akouō, G191) that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee; ...From that time Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) began to preach (kērussō, G2784), and to say (legō, G3004), Repent (metanoēō, G3340): for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven (ouranos, G3772) is at hand (eggizō, G1448)... And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) went about all Galilee (Galilaia, G1056), teaching (didaskō, G1321) in their synagogues, and preaching (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) of the kingdom (basileia, G2098), and healing (therapeuō, G2323) all manner of sickness (nosos, G3554) and all manner of disease (malakia, G3119) among the people. And his fame (akoē, G189) went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick (kakōs, G2560) people (echō, G2192) that were taken with (sunechō, G4912) divers diseases (nosos, G3554) and torments (basanos, G931), and those which were possessed with devils (daimonizomai, G1139), and those which were lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and those that had the palsy (paralutikos, G3885); and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) them.”

Day 4 questions

- 1) How did Satan use God's spoken words to tempt Jesus?
- 2) How did Jesus use His words and the word of God to respond to the tempter? Was this effective?
- 3) How do Jesus' responses show us how to use the word of God, the sword of the Spirit, in times of testing?
- 4) Did Satan have the kingdoms of the world to give to Jesus? What does it mean for the kingdom of heaven to be at hand? What was the nature of the gospel of the kingdom that Jesus preached and demonstrated?
- 5) In what ways did Jesus Christ continue to use His words (and the word of God) as He continued into Galilee in response to John the Baptist having been cast into prison? Should the captivity of John also be looked at as an offensive move by Satan? What were Jesus' responses?

Day 5: Have faith in God

“On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. And he said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it... As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.” And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

Mark 11:12-14, 20-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.11.12-24.ESV>

“And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry: and seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up (xērainō, G3583) from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst (kataraomai, G2672) is withered away (xērainō, G3583). And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, That whosoever shall say (epō, G2036) unto this mountain, Be thou removed (airō, G142), and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt (diakrinō, G1252) in his heart (kardia, G2588), but shall believe (pisteuō, G4100) that those things which he saith (legō, G3004) shall come to pass (ginomai, G1096); he shall have (esomai, G2071) whatsoever he saith (epō, G2036). Therefore I say (legō, G3004) unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray, believe (pisteuō, G4100) that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have (esomai, G2071) them.”

Mark 11:12-14, 20-24 KJV

Lambanō, G2983: to take, lay hold of, make one's own, receive, take possession of, to gain

Translated as: receive, take

Pronounced: lam-ban'-o

Day 5 questions

- 1) When Jesus spoke to the fig tree, did He believe that what He said would come to pass? The next day, do you think he doubted what he would see?
- 2) How did Jesus have faith in His Father? Or could it be said that He had the same faith as His Father, in that what He said would, in fact, become?
- 3) Mountains may make travel more difficult; they get in the way. What could get in the way of Jesus Christ's work with His disciples?
- 4) What does it mean to doubt in one's heart when you say something, or after you have said it?
- 5) Did Jesus teach His disciples they would have whatever they said, believing, just as He did?

Day 6: All things are possible for one who believes

“And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. And he asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?” And someone from the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able.” And he answered them, “O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me.” And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood. And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” And Jesus said to him, “If you can! All things are possible for one who believes.” Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!” And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.” And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, “He is dead.” But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” And he said to them, “This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer.””

Mark 9:14-29 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.9.14-29.ESV>

“And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him.” And Jesus answered, “O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.” And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.””

Matthew 17:14-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.17.14-20.ESV>

“The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” And the Lord said, “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

Luke 17:5-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.17.5-6.ESV>

“And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; and wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away (xērainō, G3583): and I spake (epō, G2036) to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could (ischuō, G2480) not. He answereth him, and saith (legō, G3004), O faithless (apistos, G571) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came (ginomai, G1096) unto him? And he said, Of a child. And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy (apollumi, G622) him: but if thou canst do (dunamai, G1410) any thing, have compassion (splanchnizomai, G4697) on us, and help us. Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) said (epō, G2036) unto him, If thou canst (dunamai, G1410) believe (pisteuō, G4100), all things are possible (dunatos, G1415) to him that believeth (pisteuō, G4100). And straightway the father of the child cried out (krazō, G2896), and said with tears, Lord (kurios, G2962), I believe (pisteuō, G4100); help thou mine unbelief (apistia, G570). When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the foul (akathartos, G169) spirit, saying (legō, G3004) unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge (epitassō, G2004) thee, come out (exerchomai, G1831) of him, and enter (eiserchomai, G1525) no more into him. And the spirit cried (krazō, G2896), and rent him sore, and came out (exerchomai, G1831) of him: and he was as one dead (nekros, G3498); insomuch that many said, He is dead (apothnēsko, G599). But Jesus took (krateō, G2902) him by the hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted him up; and he arose. And when he was come (eiserchomai, G1525) into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could (dunamai, G1410) not we cast him out? And he said unto them, This kind can come forth (exerchomai, G1831) by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.”

Mark 9:14-29 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.9.14-29.KJV>

“And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord (kurios, G2962), have mercy (eleeō, G1653) on my son: for he is lunatick (selēniazomai, G4583), and sore (kakōs, G2560) vexed (paschō, G3958): for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure (therapeuō, G2323) him. Then Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) answered (apokrinomai, G611) and said (epō, G2036), O faithless (apistos, G571) and perverse (diastrephō, G1294) generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer (anechomai, G430) you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) rebuked (epitimaō, G2008) the devil; and he departed out (exerchomai, G1831) of him: and the child was cured (therapeuō, G2323) from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could (dunamai, G1410) not we cast (ekballō, G1544) him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief (apistia, G570): for verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, If ye have (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), ye shall say (ereō, G2046) unto this mountain, Remove (metabainō, G3327) hence to yonder place; and it shall remove (metabainō, G3327); and nothing shall be impossible (adunateō, G101) unto you. Howbeit this kind goeth (ekporeuomai, G1607) not out but by prayer and fasting.”

Matthew 17:14-21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.17.14-21.KJV>

“And the apostles (apostolos, G652) said (epō, G2036) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962), Increase our faith (pistis, G4102). And the Lord (kurios, G2962) said (epō, G2036), If ye had (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) as a grain of mustard seed (sinapi, G4615), ye might say (legō, G3004) unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey (hupakouō, G5219) you.”

Day 6 questions:

- 1) How did Jesus respond to His disciples when he heard that they could not cast the spirit out of the boy? Does this surprise you?
- 2) What did the father ask Jesus to do? Did Jesus do what was asked of him?
- 3) How did Jesus respond to the father of the boy, based on how the father asked?
- 4) How did Jesus speak to the spirit? Did the spirit do what Jesus commanded it to do? Did Jesus later refer to what He did as driving out the spirit by prayer?

- 5) Had the disciples cast out spirits before? Why did Jesus expect them to be able to do it at this time?
- 6) How does Jesus instruct His disciples to pray? How does He instruct them to speak to such spirits? What was to be possible for them to do?
- 7) How are we to understand the mountain to which Jesus refers? Why did He compare their faith to a mustard seed?
- 8) How does the measure of our faith relate to what we believe about what we speak? Did Jesus have faith that the things He spoke would come to pass? Does the Father?
- 9) How do you think Jesus' expectations of His disciples compares to His current expectations of us as His church?

Day 7: A tree is known by its fruit

“Then a demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the man spoke and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, “Can this be the Son of David?” But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons.” Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can someone enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.””

Matthew 12:22-37 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.12.22-37.ESV>

“Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed (therapeuō, G2323) him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, but by Beelzebub (G954) the prince of the devils. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom (basileia, G932) divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand (histēmi, G2476): and if Satan cast out (ekballō, G1544) Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom (basileia, G932) stand (histēmi, G2476)? And if I by Beelzebub cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter (eiserchomai, G1525) into a strong man's (ischuros, G2478) house (oikia, G3614), and spoil his goods, except he first bind (deō, G1210) the strong man (ischuros, G2478)? and then he will spoil his house (oikia, G3614). He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth (sunagō, G4863) not with me scattereth abroad. Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988) shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988) against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh (epō, G2036) a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh (epō, G2036) against the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Either make (poieō, G4160) the tree good (kalos, G2570), and his fruit (karpos, G2590) good (kalos, G2570); or else make (poieō, G4160) the tree corrupt (sapos, G4550), and his fruit (karpos, G2590) corrupt (sapos, G4550): for the tree is known by his fruit (karpos, G2590). O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil (ponēros, G4190), speak (laleō, G2980) good things (agathos, G18)? for out of the abundance (perisseuma, G4051) of the heart (kardia, G2588) the mouth (stoma, G4750) speaketh (laleō, G2980). A good (agathos, G18) man out of the good (agathos, G18) treasure of the heart (kardia, G2588) bringeth forth (ekballō, G1544) good things (agathos, G18): and an evil (ponēros, G4190) man out of the evil (ponēros, G4190) treasure bringeth forth (ekballō, G1544) evil things (ponēros, G4190). But I say (legō, G3004) unto you, That every idle (argos, G692) word (rhēma, G4487) that men shall speak (laleō, G2980), they shall give account (logos, G3056) thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words (logos, G3056) thou shalt be justified (dikaioō, G1344), and by thy words (logos, G3056) thou shalt be condemned.”

Day 7 questions

- 1) Why were the Pharisees upset by Jesus healing the blind and mute man?
- 2) What was Jesus' response to what was said about Him?
- 3) What does the word blasphemy mean? What is blasphemy against the Holy Spirit?
- 4) What did Jesus mean when He said that a tree is known by its fruit?
- 5) What did Jesus teach regarding the words we speak? How does this challenge you?

Day 8: Jesus sends out the twelve to speak for God

“And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, “Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food. And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it and stay there until you depart. As you enter the house, greet it. And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town. Truly, I say to you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town. “Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, and you will be hated by all for my name’s sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next, for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes. “A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household. “So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.”

Matthew 10:1-33 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.10.1-33.ESV>

“And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power (exousia, G1849) against unclean (akathartos, G169) spirits, to cast them out (ekballō, G1544), and to heal

(therapeuō, G2323) all manner of sickness (nosos, G3554) and all manner of disease (malakia, G3119). Now the names of the twelve apostles (apostolos, G652) are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter (Petros, G4074), and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John (Iōannēs, G2491) his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbæus, whose surname was Thaddæus; Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth (apostellō, G649), and commanded (paraggellō, G3853) them, saying (legō, G3004), Go not into the way (hodos, G3598) of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost (apollumi, G622) sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach (kērussō, G2784), saying (legō, G3004), The kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven is at hand (eggizō, G1448). Heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (astheneō, G770), cleanse (katharizō, G2511) the lepers, raise the dead (nekros, G3498), cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils: freely (dōrean, G1432) ye have received (lambanō, G2983), freely (dōrean, G1432) give (didōmi, G1325). Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, nor scrip (pēra, G4082) for your journey (hodos, G3598), neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves (rhabdos, G4464): for the workman is worthy of his meat. And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter (eiserchomai, G1525), enquire who in it is worthy (axios, G514); and there abide (menō, G3306) till ye go thence. And when ye come into (eiserchomai, G1525) an house (oikia, G3614), salute (aspazomai, G782) it. And if the house (oikia, G3614) be worthy (axios, G514), let your peace (eirēnē, G1515) come upon it: but if it be not worthy (axios, G514), let your peace (eirēnē, G1515) return to you. And whosoever shall not receive (dechomai, G1209) you, nor hear (akouō, G191) your words (logos, G3056), when ye depart out (exerchomai, G1831) of that house (oikia, G3614) or city, shake off (ektinassō, G1621) the dust of your feet. Verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. Behold, I send you forth (apostellō, G649) as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise (phronimos, G5429) as serpents, and harmless (akeraios, G185) as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, take no thought (merimnaō, G3309) how or what ye shall speak (laleō, G2980): for it shall be given (didōmi, G1325) you in that same hour what ye shall speak (laleō, G2980). For it is not ye that speak (laleō, G2980), but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh (laleō, G2980) in you. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake (onoma, G3686): but he that endureth (hupomenō, G5278) to the end shall be saved (sōzō, G4982). But when they persecute (diōkō, G1377) you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant (doulos, G1401) above his Lord (kurios, G2962). It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant (doulos, G1401) as his Lord (kurios, G2962). If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954), how much more shall they call them of his household? Fear (phobeō, G5399) them not therefore: for there is nothing covered (kaluptō, G2572), that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell (legō, G3004) you in darkness (skotia, G4653), that speak (epō, G2036) ye in light

(phōs, G5457): and what ye hear (akouō, G191) in the ear, that preach (kēussō, G2784) ye upon the housetops (dōma, G1430). And fear (phobeō, G5399) not them which kill the body, but are not able (dunamai, G1410) to kill the soul (psuchē, G5590): but rather fear (phobeō, G5399) him which is able to destroy both soul (psuchē, G5590) and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear (phobeō, G5399) ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Whosoever therefore shall confess (homologeō, G3670) me before men, him will I confess (homologeō, G3670) also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.”

Day 8 questions

- 1) When the twelve were sent out in Jesus' place to minister, in what ways were they commanded to speak to those being ministered to, following Jesus' example of the same?
- 2) What do you think it meant to salute a household and let one's peace come upon it if they were worthy?

- 3) Why were the disciples to take no thought for what they should speak when they were sent out on Christ's behalf?
- 4) What did Jesus say His disciples were to do with the words that Jesus spoke to them (in the darkness or in the ear)?
- 5) In what ways are Christ's followers supposed to confess Him before men?

Day 9: Peter's gift to a lame beggar

"Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, "Look at us." And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!" And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God, and recognized him as the one who sat at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, asking for alms. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. While he clung to Peter and John, all the people, utterly astounded, ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's. And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all. "And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent therefore, and turn back, that your sins may be blotted out,"

Acts 3:1-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.3.1-19.ESV>

"Now Peter (Petros, G4074) and John (Iōannēs, G2491) went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes (atenizō, G816) upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive (lambanō, G2983) something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have (echō, G2192) give (didōmi, G1325) I thee: In the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547) of Nazareth rise up (egeirō, G1453) and walk (peripateō, G4043). And he took him by the right hand (cheir, G5495), and lifted (egeirō, G1453) him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength (stereoō, G4732). And he leaping up stood (histēmi, G2476), and walked (peripateō, G4043), and entered (eiserchomai, G1525) with them into the temple, walking (peripateō, G4043), and leaping (hallomai, G242), and praising God. And all the people saw him walking (peripateō, G4043) and praising God: and they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. And as the lame man which was healed (iaomai, G2390) held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly (atenizō, G816) on us, as though by our own power (dunamis, G1411) or holiness we had made (poieō, G4160) this man to walk (peripateō, G4043)? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified (doxazō, G1392) his Son Jesus (lēsous, G2424); whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. But ye denied the Holy One (hagios, G40) and the Just (dikaios, G1342), and desired (aiteō, G154) a murderer to be granted (charizomai, G5483) unto you; and killed the Prince (archēgos, G747) of life (zōē, G2222), whom God hath raised (egeirō, G1453) from the dead (nekros, G3498); whereof we are witnesses. And his name (onoma, G3686) through faith (pistis, G4102) in his name (onoma, G3686) hath made this man strong (stereoō, G4732), whom ye see and know: yea, the faith (pistis, G4102) which is by him hath given (didōmi, G1325) him this perfect soundness (holoklēria, G3647) in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth (stoma, G4750) of all his prophets, that Christ (Christos, G5547) should suffer, he hath so fulfilled (plēroō, G4137). Repent (metanoēō, G3340) ye therefore, and be converted (epistrephō, G1994), that your sins may be blotted out (exaleiphō, G1813), when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord (kurios, G2962);”

Day 9 questions

- 1) What did Peter give to the lame man that begged for alms?
- 2) Did Peter expect what he said to come to pass right away?
- 3) Did Peter explain that it was the words he spoke that made the man physically whole? Or was it something else?
- 4) Do you expect that Peter followed the example in word, action and faith that he had experienced from Jesus Christ's ministry? That he did this in obedience to what Christ told him to do?
- 5) What did Peter call for the onlookers to do in response to what they had witnessed?

Day 10: Speak the truth in love

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it says, "When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men." (In saying, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower regions, the earth? He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

Ephesians 4:1-32 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-32.ESV>

"I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord (kurios, G2962), beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called (kaleō, G2564), with all lowliness and meekness (praotēs, G4236), with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing (anéchomai, G430) one another in love (agapē, G26); endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of peace (eirēnē, G1515). There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called (kaleō, G2564) in one hope of your calling; one Lord (kurios, G2962), one faith (pistis, G4102), one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. But unto every one of us is given (didōmi, G1325) grace (charis, G5485) according to the measure of the gift (dōrea, G1431) of Christ (Christos, G5547). Wherefore he saith (legō, G3004), When he ascended up on high, he led captivity (aichmalōteuō, G162) captive (aichmalōsia, G161), And gave (didōmi, G1325) gifts (doma, G1390) unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill (plēroō, G4137) all things.) And he gave (didōmi, G1325) some, apostles (apostolos, G652); and some, prophets (prophētēs, G4396); and some, evangelists; and some, pastors (poimēn, G4166) and teachers; for the perfecting (katartismos, G2677) of the saints (hagios, G40), for the work (ergon, G2041) of the ministry (diakonia, G1248), for the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of the body of Christ (Christos, G5547): till we all come in the unity of the faith (pistis, G4102), and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect (teleios, G5046) man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness (plērōma, G4138) of Christ (Christos, G5547): that we henceforth be no more children (nēpios, G3516), tossed to and fro (kludōnizomai, G2831), and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth (alētheuō, G226) in love (agapē, G26), may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ (Christos, G5547): from whom the whole body fitly joined together (sunarmologeō, G4883) and compacted (sumbibazō, G4822) by that which every joint (haphē, G860) supplieth, according to the effectual working (energeia, G1753) in the measure of every part, maketh (poieō, G4160) increase of the body unto the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of itself in love (agapē, G26). This I say therefore, and testify (marturomai, G3143) in the Lord (kurios, G2962), that ye henceforth walk (peripateō, G4043) not as other Gentiles walk (peripateō, G4043), in the vanity (mataiotēs, G3153) of their mind (nous, G3563), having the understanding (dianoia, G1271) darkened, being alienated from the life (zōē, G2222) of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart (kardia, G2588): who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ (Christos, G5547); if so be that ye have heard (akouō, G191) him, and have been taught by him, as the truth (alētheia, G225) is in Jesus (Iēsous, G2424): that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563); and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new man, which after God is created in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true (alētheia, G225) holiness. Wherefore putting away (apotithēmi, G659) lying, speak (laleō, G2980) every man truth (alētheia, G225) with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give (didōmi, G1325) place to the devil (diabolos, G1228). Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working (ergazomai, G2038) with his hands (cheir, G5495) the thing which is good (agathos, G18), that he may have (echō, G2192) to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt (saprois, G4550) communication (logos, G3056) proceed out of your mouth (stoma, G4750), but that which is good (agathos, G18) to the use of edifying (oikodomē, G3619), that it may minister (didōmi, G1325) grace (charis, G5485) unto the hearers (akouō, G191). And grieve (lupeō, G3076) not the holy (hagios, G40) Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed (sphragizō, G4972) unto the day of redemption (apolutrōsis, G629). Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking (blasphēmia, G988), be put away from you, with all malice (kakia, G2549): and be ye kind (chrēstos, G5543) one to another, tenderhearted (eusplagchnos, G2155), forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, even as God for Christ's (Christos, G5547) sake hath forgiven (charizomai, G5483) you."

Day 10 questions

- 1) How do the words we speak affect the unity of the body of Christ?
- 2) How do the gifts and commissions given to us in Christ body's involve what we are to speak?
What is to be the result of the use of these gifts and commissions?
- 3) How are we to speak truth to each other? To what end?
- 4) How does the renewing of our minds affect what we speak?
- 5) Is the indwelling Holy Spirit grieved by the words we speak?
- 6) What is the Greek word that the Bible uses for evil speaking against others?

7) In what ways are our words to convey the character of Christ in us?

Day 11: Proclaim the gospel

“Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.” So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]”

Mark 16:14-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.16.14-20.ESV>

“Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided (oneidezō, G3679) them with their unbelief (apistia, G570) and hardness of heart, because they believed (pisteuō, G4100) not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said (epō, G2036) unto them, Go ye into all the world (kosmos, G2889), and preach (kērussō, G2784) the gospel (euaggelion, G2098) to every creature. He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) and is baptized shall be saved (sōzō, G4982); but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs (sēmeion, G4592) shall follow (parakolouthēō, G3877) them that believe (pisteuō, G4100); In my name (onoma, G3686) shall they cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils; they shall speak (laleō, G2980) with new (kainos, G2537) tongues (glōssa, G1100); they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick (arrhōstos, G732), and they shall recover (kalōs, G2573). So then after the Lord (kurios, G2962) had spoken (laleō, G2980) unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat (kathizō, G2523) on the right hand (dexios, G1188) of God. And they went forth (exerchomai, G1831), and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord (kurios, G2962) working with (sunergeō, G4903) them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word (logos, G3056) with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (epakolouthēō, G1872). Amen (amēn, G281).”

Day 11 questions

1) Why did Jesus rebuke His disciples? Was this especially unusual for Him to do?

- 2) In this Great Commission, how specifically did Jesus command those who believed Him to use their words? What kind of weight could they expect their words to have?
- 3) How does this compare to the way Jesus used words as part of His ministry? What kind of weight did His words have?
- 4) What does the Greek word for preach mean? Is its meaning different from the way it's typically meant and used today?
- 5) How specifically were the disciples to expect God to work together with them to confirm their words?

Day 12: Paul's words in Philippi

"So, setting sail from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days. And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us. As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour. But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are Jews, and they are disturbing our city. They advocate customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to accept or practice." The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods. And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them safely. Having received this order, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened. When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." And the jailer called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God. But when it was day, the magistrates sent the police, saying, "Let those men go." And the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Therefore come out now and go in peace." But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and do they now throw us out secretly? No! Let them come themselves and take us out." The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens. So they came and apologized to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city. So they went out of the prison and visited Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them and departed."

“Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days. And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake (laleō, G2980) unto the women which resorted thither. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard (akouō, G191) us: whose heart (kardia, G2588) the Lord (kurios, G2962) opened (dianoigō, G1272), that she attended (prosechō, G4337) unto the things which were spoken (laleō, G2980) of Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household (oikos, G3624), she besought (parakaleō, G3870) us, saying (legō, G3004), If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord (kurios, G2962), come (eiserchomai, G1525) into my house (oikos, G3624), and abide (menō, G3306) there. And she constrained us. And it came to pass (ginomai, G1096), as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed (echō, G2192) with a spirit of divination (Puthōn, G4436) met us, which brought her masters (kurios, G2962) much gain by soothsaying: The same followed Paul and us, and cried (krazō, G2896), saying (legō, G3004), These men are the servants (doulos, G1401) of the most high God, which shew (kataggellō, G2605) unto us the way (hodos, G3598) of salvation (sōtēria, G4991). And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved (diaponeō, G1278), turned and said (epō, G2036) to the spirit, I command (paraggellō, G3853) thee in the name (onoma, G3686) of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547) to come out (exerchomai, G1831) of her. And he came out (exerchomai, G1831) the same hour. And when her masters (kurios, G2962) saw that the hope of their gains was gone (exerchomai, G1831), they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, and brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, and teach (kataggellō, G2605) customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe (poieō, G4160), being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat (rhabdizō, G4463) them. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging (paraggellō, G3853) the jailor to keep them safely: who, having received (lambanō, G2983) such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises (humneō, G5214) unto God: and the prisoners heard them. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking (ginomai, G1096) out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried (phōneō, G5455) with a loud voice (phōnē, G5456), saying (legō, G3004), Do thyself no harm (kakos, G2556): for we are all here. Then he called (aiteō, G154) for a light (phōs, G5457), and sprang in, and came (ginomai, G1096) trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said (phēmi, G5346), Sirs (kurios, G2962), what must I do (poieō, G4160) to be saved (sōzō, G4982)? And they said (epō, G2036), Believe (pisteuō, G4100) on the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547), and thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982), and thy house (oikos, G3624). And they spake (laleō, G2980) unto him the word (logos, G3056) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), and to all that were in his house (oikia, G3614). And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had brought them into his house (oikos, G3624), he set meat before them, and rejoiced (agalliaō, G21), believing (pisteuō, G4100) in God with all his house. And when it was day, the magistrates sent (apostellō, G649) the serjeants, saying (legō, G3004), Let those men go. And the keeper of the prison told this saying (logos, G3056) to Paul, The magistrates have sent (apostellō, G649) to let you go: now therefore depart (exerchomai, G1831), and go in peace (eirēnē, G1515). But Paul said (phēmi, G5346) unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out (ekballō, G1544) privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. And the serjeants told these words (rhēma, G4487) unto the magistrates: and they feared (phobeō, G5399), when they heard (akouō, G191) that they were Romans. And they came and besought (parakaleō, G3870) them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out (exerchomai, G1831) of the city. And they went out (exerchomai, G1831) of the prison, and entered into (eiserchomai, G1525) the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted (parakaleō, G3870) them, and departed (exerchomai, G1831)."

Day 12 questions

- 1) When Paul spoke God's word on the Sabbath by the riverside in Philippi, how did God work together with him?
- 2) When Paul spoke to the spirit of divination, how did God work together with him?
- 3) How did the Spirit of God respond to Paul and Silas' midnight prayers and signing of hymns in prison?
- 4) How did the jailer respond to the joint testimony of God and His servants? How did Paul and Silas respond, in turn, to the jailer?
- 5) How does Paul's ministry in Philippi help to make clear God's role and our roles in the ministry of Jesus Christ?

Day 13: Speaking out of inspiration from God

"Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to men but to God; for no one understands him, but he utters mysteries in the Spirit. On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation. The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up. Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? If even lifeless instruments, such as the flute or the harp, do not give distinct notes, how will anyone know what is played? And if the bugle gives an indistinct sound, who will get ready for battle? So with yourselves, if with your tongue you utter speech that is not intelligible, how will anyone know what is said? For you will be speaking into the air. There are doubtless many different languages in the world, and none is without meaning, but if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me. So with yourselves, since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church. Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider say "Amen" to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? For you may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not being built up. I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. Nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue. Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. In the Law it is written, "By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners will I speak to this people, and even then they will not listen to me, says the Lord." Thus tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is a sign not for unbelievers but for believers. If, therefore, the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your minds? But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or outsider enters, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all, the secrets of his heart are disclosed, and so, falling on his face, he will worship God and declare that God is really among you. What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up. If any speak in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn, and let someone interpret. But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silent in church and speak to himself and to God. Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said. If a revelation is made to another sitting there, let the first be silent. For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged, and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. For God is not a God of confusion but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, the women should keep silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be in submission, as the Law also says. If there is anything they desire to learn, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church. Or was it from you that the word of God came? Or are you the only ones it has reached? If anyone thinks that he is a prophet, or spiritual, he should acknowledge that the things I am writing to you are a command of the Lord. If anyone does not recognize this, he is not recognized. So, my brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. But all things should be done decently and in order.”

1 Corinthians 14:1-40 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.14.1-40.ESV>

“Follow after charity (agapē, G26), and desire (zēloō, G2206) spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy (prophēteuō, G4395). For he that speaketh (laleō, G2980) in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100) speaketh (laleō, G2980) not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth (akouō, G191) him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh (laleō, G2980) mysteries (mustērion, G3466). But he that prophesieth (prophēteuō, G4395) speaketh (laleō, G2980) unto men to edification (oikodomē, G3619), and exhortation (paraklēsis, G3874), and comfort (paramuthia, G3889). He that speaketh (laleō, G2980) in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100) edifieth (oikodomē, G3618) himself; but he that prophesieth (prophēteuō, G4395) edifieth (oikodomē, G3618) the church (ekklēsia, G1577). I would (thelō, G2309) that ye all spake (laleō, G2980) with tongues (glōssa, G1100), but rather that ye prophesied (prophēteuō, G4395): for greater is he that prophesieth (prophēteuō, G4395) than he that speaketh (laleō, G2980) with tongues (glōssa, G1100), except he interpret (diērmēneuō, G1329), that the church (ekklēsia, G1577) may receive (lambanō, G2983) edifying (oikodomē, G3619). Now, brethren (adelphos, G80), if I come unto you speaking (laleō, G2980) with tongues (glōssa, G1100), what shall I profit (ōpheleō, G5623) you, except I shall speak (laleō, G2980) to you either by revelation (apokalupsis, G602), or by knowledge, or by prophesying (prophēteia, G4394), or by doctrine? And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give (didōmi, G1325) a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped (auleō, G832) or harped? For if the trumpet give (didōmi, G1325) an uncertain sound (phōnē, G5456), who shall prepare himself to the battle? So likewise ye, except ye utter (didōmi, G1325) by the tongue (glōssa, G1100) words (logos, G3056) easy to (laleō, G2980) be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken (laleō, G2980)? for ye shall speak into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices (phōnē, G5456) in the world (kosmos, G2889), and none of them is without signification (aphōnos, G880). Therefore if I know not the meaning (dunamis, G1411) of the voice (phōnē, G5456), I shall be unto him that speaketh (laleō, G2980) a barbarian (barbaros, G915), and he that speaketh (laleō, G2980) shall be a barbarian (barbaros, G915) unto me. Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous (zēlōtēs, G2207) of spiritual gifts, seek (zēteō, G2212) that ye may excel (perisseuō, G4052) to the edifying (oikodomē, G3619) of the church (ekklēsia, G1577). Wherefore let him that speaketh (laleō, G2980) in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100) pray that he may interpret (diērmēneuō, G1329). For if I pray in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100), my spirit prayeth, but my understanding (nous, G3563) is unfruitful (akarpōs, G175). What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding (nous, G3563) also: I will sing (psallō, G5567) with the spirit, and I will sing (psallō, G5567) with the understanding (nous, G3563) also. Else when thou shalt bless (eulogeō, G2127) with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned (idiōtēs, G2399) say Amen (amēn, G281) at thy giving of thanks (eucharistia, G2169), seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest (legō, G3004)? For thou verily givest thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) well, but the other is not edified (oikodomeō, G3618). I thank (eucharisteō, G2168) my God, I speak (laleō, G2980) with tongues (glōssa, G1100) more than ye all: yet in the church (ekklēsia, G1577) I had rather speak (laleō, G2980) five words (logos, G3056) with my understanding (nous, G3563), that by my voice I might teach (katēcheō, G2727) others also, than ten thousand (murioi, G3463) words (logos, G3056) in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100). Brethren (adelphos, G80), be not children (nēpiazō, G3515) in understanding (phrēn, G5424): howbeit in malice (kakia, G2549) be ye children (nēpiazō, G3515), but in understanding (phrēn, G5424) be men (teleios, G5046). In the law it is written, With men of other tongues (heteroglōssos, G2084) and other lips will I speak (laleō, G2980) unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear (eisakouō, G1522) me, saith (legō, G3004) the Lord (kurios, G2962). Wherefore tongues (glōssa, G1100) are for a sign (sēmeion, G4592), not to them that believe (pisteuō, G4100), but to them that believe not (apistos, G571): but prophesying (prophēteia, G4394) serveth not for them that believe not (apistos, G571), but for them which believe (pisteuō, G4100). If therefore the whole church (ekklēsia, G1577) be come together into one place, and all speak (laleō, G2980) with tongues (glōssa, G1100), and there come in those that are unlearned (idiōtēs, G2399), or unbelievers (apistos, G571), will they not say (ereō, G2046) that ye are mad? But if all prophesy (prophēteuō, G4395), and there come in one that believeth not (apistos, G571), or one unlearned (idiōtēs, G2399), he is convinced (elegchō, G1651) of all, he is judged (anakrinō, G350) of all: and thus are the secrets of his heart (kardia, G2588) made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship (proskuneō, G4352) God, and report (apaggellō, G518) that God is in you of a truth (ontōs, G3689). How is it then, brethren (adelphos, G80)? when ye come together, every one of you hath (echō, G2192) a psalm, hath (echō, G2192) a doctrine, hath (echō, G2192) a tongue (glōssa, G1100), hath (echō, G2192) a revelation (apokalupsis, G602), hath (echō, G2192) an interpretation. Let all things be done (ginomai, G1096) unto edifying (oikodomē, G3619). If any man speak (laleō, G2980) in an unknown tongue (glōssa, G1100), let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course (meros, G3313); and let one interpret (diērmēneuō, G1329). But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church (ekklēsia, G1577); and let him speak (laleō, G2980) to himself, and to God. Let the prophets (prophētēs, G4396) speak (laleō, G2980) two or three, and let the other judge (diakrinō, G1252). If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. For ye may all prophesy (prophēteuō, G4395) one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted (parakaleō, G3870). And the spirits of the prophets (prophētēs, G4396) are subject to the prophets (prophētēs, G4396). For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace (eirēnē, G1515), as in all churches (ekklēsia, G1577) of the saints (hagios, G40). Let your women keep silence in the churches (ekklēsia, G1577): for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith (legō, G3004) the law (nomos, G3551). And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home (oikos, G3624): for it is a shame (aischron, G149) for women to speak (laleō, G2980) in the church (ekklēsia, G1577). What? Came (exerchomai, G1831) the word (logos, G3056) of God out from you? or came it unto you only? If any man think himself to be a prophet (prophētēs, G4396), or spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152), let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord (kurios, G2962). But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant. Wherefore, brethren (adelphos, G80), covet (zēloō, G2206) to prophesy (prophēteuō, G4395), and forbid (kōluō, G2967) not to speak (laleō, G2980) with tongues (glōssa, G1100). Let all things be done (ginomai, G1096) decently and in order.”

Day 13 questions

- 1) Which described spiritual gifts involve speaking or interpreting what is spoken?
- 2) What are God's different purposes in tongues and prophecy, according to this passage?

- 3) How should these gifts of inspiration from God be used in churches? Privately?
- 4) What were the believers to seek after zealously? What should we seek to excel in above all, according to this passage?
- 5) What distinction between the mind and the spirit is made in this passage? Does each part of us communicate with God?
- 6) Why do you think Paul thanked God that he spoke in tongues more than all of the Corinthians?
- 7) What do you make of Paul's direction for women in the Corinthian church? Was it just for that place or time?

Day 14: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly

“If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

Colossians 3:1-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.1-17.ESV>

“If ye then be risen with (sunegirō, G4891) Christ (Christos, G5547), seek (zēteō, G2212) those things which are above, where Christ sitteth (Christos, G5547) on the right hand (dextros, G1188) of God. Set your affection (phroneō, G5426) on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead (apothnēskō, G599), and your life (zōē, G2222) is hid (kruptō, G2928) with Christ (Christos, G5547) in God. When Christ (Christos, G5547), who is our life (zōē, G2222), shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory (doxa, G1391). Mortify (nekroō, G3499) therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication (porneia, G4202), uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil (kakos, G2556) concupiscence (epithumia, G1939), and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: in the which ye also walked (peripateō, G4043) some time, when ye lived (zaō, G2198) in them. But now ye also put off (apotithēmi, G659) all these; anger, wrath, malice (kakia, G2549), blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988), filthy communication (aischrologia, G148) out of your mouth (stoma, G4750). Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off (apekduomai, G554) the old man with his deeds (praxis, G4234); and have put on (enduō, G1746) the new man (neos, G3501), which is renewed (anakainōō, G341) in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian (barbaros, G915), Scythian (G4658), bond (doulos, G1401) nor free: but Christ (Christos, G5547) is all, and in all. Put on (enduō, G1746) therefore, as the elect of God, holy (hagios, G40) and beloved (agapaō, G25), bowels (splagchnon, G4698) of mercies (oiktirmos, G3628), kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544), humbleness of mind, meekness (praotēs, G4236), longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115); forbearing (anechomai, G430) one another, and forgiving (charizomai, G5483) one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ (Christos, G5547) forgave (charizomai, G5483) you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity (agapē, G26), which is the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of perfectness (teleiotēs, G5047). And let the peace (eirēnē, G1515) of God rule (brabeuō, G1018) in your hearts (kardia, G2588), to the which also ye are called (kaleō, G2564) in one body; and be ye thankful (eucharistos, G2170). Let the word (logos, G3056) of Christ (Christos, G5547) dwell in (enoikeō, G1774) you richly (plousiōs, G4146) in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); teaching (didaskō, G1321) and admonishing (noutheteō, G3560) one another in psalms (psalmos, G5568) and hymns (hymnos, G5215) and spiritual (pneumatikos, G4152) songs, singing (adō, G103) with grace (charis, G5485) in your hearts (kardia, G2588) to the Lord (kurios, G2962). And whatsoever ye do in word (logos, G3056) or deed (ergon, G2041), do all in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), giving thanks (eucharisteō, G2168) to God and the Father by him.”

Day 14 questions

- 1) According to the opening part of this passage, where is Christ, and where are we with respect to Him? How is this possible?
- 2) In what ways are we to seek and set our affection on things above? Does this relate at all to what we speak?
- 3) Since we are dead, how are we to mortify and put off the old? In what ways may we put on the new? How do the old and new relate to what we speak?

- 4) Why do you think love (charity) called the “bond of perfectness” (KJV)? Does this relate to how we speak to others?
- 5) How may we let the word of Christ dwell in us richly? How do the commands that directly follow this charge relate to this? How does this relate to what we speak?
- 6) What sorts of things might we do in word and deed in Jesus’ name, giving thanks to God? What sorts of things did the Apostle Paul do in word and deed, giving thanks, Christ in him?

Day 15: Jesus' description of His ministry

“And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him until an opportune time. And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a report about him went out through all the surrounding country. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.” And all spoke well of him and marveled at the gracious words that were coming from his mouth. And they said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?” And he said to them, “Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, “Physician, heal yourself.” What we have heard you did at Capernaum, do here in your hometown as well.” And he said, “Truly, I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. But in truth, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heavens were shut up three years and six months, and a great famine came over all the land, and Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.” When they heard these things, all in the synagogue were filled with wrath. And they rose up and drove him out of the town and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they could throw him down the cliff. But passing through their midst, he went away.”

Luke 4:13-30 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.4.13-30.ESV>

“And when the devil (diabolos, G1228) had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season (kairos, G2540). And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) returned in the power (dunamis, G1411) of the Spirit into Galilee (Galilaia, G1056): and there went out (exerchomai, G1831) a fame (phēmē, G5345) of him through all the region round about. And he taught (didaskō, G1321) in their synagogues, being glorified (doxazō, G1392) of all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into (eiserchomai, G1525) the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet (prophētēs, G4396) Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written (graphō, G1125), The Spirit of the Lord (kurios, G2962) is upon me, Because he hath anointed (chriō, G5548) me to preach the gospel (euaggelizō, G2097) to the poor; He hath sent (apostellō, G649) me to heal (iaomai, G2390) the brokenhearted (suntribō kardia, G4937+G2588), to preach (kērussō, G2784) deliverance (aphesis, G859) to the captives, And recovering of sight to the blind (tuphlos, G5185), To set (apostellō, G649) at liberty (aphesis, G859) them that are bruised (thrauō, G2352), To preach (kērussō, G2784) the acceptable (dektos, G1184) year (eniautos, G1763) of the Lord (kurios, G2962). And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened (atenizō, G816) on him. And he began to say (legō, G3004) unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled (plēroō, G4137) in your ears. And all bare him witness (martureō, G3140), and wondered at the gracious (charis, G5485) words (logos, G3056) which proceeded out (ekporeuomai, G1607) of his mouth (stoma, G4750). And they said (legō, G3004), Is not this Joseph's son? And he said (epō, G2036) unto them, Ye will surely say (ereō, G2046) unto me this proverb, Physician (iatros, G2395), heal (therapeuō, G2323) thyself: whatsoever we have heard (akouō, G191) done (ginomai, G1096) in Capernaum, do (poieō, G4160) also here in thy country. And he said, Verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, No prophet (prophētēs, G4396) is accepted (dektos, G1184) in his own country. But I tell (legō, G3004) you of a truth (alētheia, G225), many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias (Hēlias, G2243), when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; but unto none of them was Elias (Hēlias, G2243) sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet (prophētēs, G4396); and none of them was cleansed (katharizō, G2511), saving Naaman the Syrian. And all they in the synagogue, when they heard (akouō, G191) these things, were filled (plēthō, G4130) with wrath, And rose up, and thrust (ekballō, G1544) him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built (oikodomeō, G3618), that they might cast him down headlong. But he passing through the midst of them went his way,”

Day 15 questions

- 1) What did Jesus, by the power of God's Spirit, do immediately following His temptation by the devil in the wilderness? What was the response to this?
- 2) How did Jesus describe His ministry as the fulfillment of God's prophetic word?
- 3) What parts of Jesus' described ministry relate to His spoken word? Has His ministry become our ministry, the ministry of His church in the world?
- 4) What was the crowd's initial response to Jesus' words to them? Why did Jesus' subsequent words change their attitude so drastically toward Him?
- 5) Did Jesus consider Himself to be a prophet like unto Elijah and Elisha? What does a prophet do?

Day 16: The word of the Lord in Elijah's mouth

"Now Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word." And the word of the Lord came to him: "Depart from here and turn eastward and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. You shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there." So he went and did according to the word of the Lord. He went and lived by the brook Cherith that is east of the Jordan. And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook. And after a while the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land. Then the word of the Lord came to him, "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you." So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink." And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." And she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die." And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, 'The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the Lord sends rain upon the earth.'" And she went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days. The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah. After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill. And his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. And she said to Elijah, "What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance and to cause the death of my son!" And he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him from her arms and carried him up into the upper chamber where he lodged, and laid him on his own bed. And he cried to the Lord, "O Lord my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?" Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the Lord, "O Lord my God, let this child's life come into him again." And the Lord listened to the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives." And the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is truth.""

1 Kings 17:1-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ki.17.1-24.ESV>

"And Elijah (‘êlîyâh, H452) the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) God of Israel (yîsrâ’êl, H3478) liveth (chay, H2416), before whom I stand (‘âmad, H5975), there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according (peh, H6310) to my word (dâbâr, H1697). And the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) came unto him, saying (‘âmar, H559), Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded (tsâvâh, H6680) the ravens to feed thee there. So he went and did ('âsâh, H6213) according unto the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068): for he went and dwelt (yâshab, H3427) by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. And the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) came unto him, saying ('âmar, H559), Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell (yâshab, H3427) there: behold, I have commanded (tsâvâh, H6680) a widow woman there to sustain thee. So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called (qârâ', H7121) to her, and said ('âmar, H559), Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as she was going to fetch it, he called (qârâ', H7121) to her, and said ('âmar, H559), Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand. And she said ('âmar, H559), As the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) thy God liveth (chay, H2416), I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress ('âsâh, H6213) it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. And Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452) said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make ('âsâh, H6213) me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make ('âsâh, H6213) for thee and for thy son. For thus saith ('âmar, H559) the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) God of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), The barrel of meal shall not waste (kâlâh, H3615), neither shall the cruse of oil fail (châsêr, H2637), until the day that the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) sendeth rain upon the earth. And she went and did ('âsâh, H6213) according to the saying (dâbâr, H1697) of Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452): and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days. And the barrel of meal wasted (kâlâh, H3615) not, neither did the cruse of oil fail (châsêr, H2637) according to the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), which he spake (dâbar, H1696) by Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452). And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick (châlâh, H2470); and his sickness (cholîy, H2483) was so sore, that there was no breath (neshâmâh, H5397) left in him. And she said ('âmar, H559) unto Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452), What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? And he said ('âmar, H559) unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. And he cried (qârâ', H7121) unto the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), and said ('âmar, H559), O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) my God, hast thou also brought evil (râ'a', H7489) upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried (qârâ', H7121) unto the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), and said ('âmar, H559), O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul (nephesh, H5315) come into him again. And the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) heard (shâma', H8085) the voice (qôl, H6963) of Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452); and the soul (nephesh, H5315) of the child came into him again, and he revived (châyâh, H2421). And Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452) took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452) said, See, thy son liveth (chay, H2416). And the woman said ('âmar, H559) to Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452), Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) in thy mouth (peh, H6310) is truth ('emeth, H571).”

Day 16 questions

- 1) How did Elijah have the authority to speak on behalf of God? Did Elijah speak boldly to Ahab? Did God uphold the words he spoke?
- 2) How do you think the word of Lord came to Elijah to warn him? Was Elijah obedient to this word?

- 3) How did the Lord provide for Elijah? Is this surprising to you that God chose to work this way? Could God still work this way?
- 4) Why do you think the Lord sent Elijah to the widow in Zarephath?
- 5) What is the similarity regarding the way Elijah and the widow describe the Lord (yehôvâh)? Do you talk about God this way? How does their description coincide with the meaning of His name?
- 6) Taking this widow as an example, do you observe any similarities in the way that Elijah and Jesus speak with and interact with people? If so, describe them. Do you think this could have to do with the Spirit of God that was with them (or in them)?
- 7) Why is it that Elijah was said to speak the word of the Lord?
- 8) How did Elijah restore the widow's son back to life? What words did he choose to speak? Did he believe God would hear his words?
- 9) How did Elijah's words and accompanying actions glorify God?
- 10) How would you describe Elijah's faith in God?

Day 17: The word of the Lord in Elisha's mouth

"Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master and in high favor, because by him the Lord had given victory to Syria. He was a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. Now the Syrians on one of their raids had carried off a little girl from the land of Israel, and she worked in the service of Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "Would that my Lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." So Naaman went in and told his Lord, "Thus and so spoke the girl from the land of Israel." And the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you Naaman my servant, that you may cure him of his leprosy." And when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Only consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house. And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean." But Naaman was angry and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call upon the name of the Lord his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage. But his servants came near and said to him, "My father, it is a great word the prophet has spoken to you; will you not do it? Has he actually said to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?" So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean."

2 Kings 5:1-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ki.5.1-14.ESV>

"Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) had given deliverance (teshû'âh, H8668) unto Syria: he was also a mighty (gibbôr, H1368) man in valour (chayil, H2428), but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. And she said ('âmar, H559) unto her mistress, Would God my Lord were with the prophet (nâbîy', H5030) that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy. And one went in, and told (nâgad, H5046) his Lord, saying ('âmar, H559), Thus and thus said (dâbar, H1696) the maid that is of the land of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). And the king of Syria said ('âmar, H559), Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478), saying ('âmar, H559), Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant ('ebed, H5650) to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy. And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said ('âmar, H559), Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me. And it was so, when Elisha ('elîyshâ', H477) the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying ('âmar, H559), Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet (nâbiy', H5030) in Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478). So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha ('elîyshâ', H477). And Elisha ('elîyshâ', H477) sent a messenger unto him, saying ('âmar, H559), Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean (tâhêr, H2891). But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said ('âmar, H559), Behold, I thought ('âmar, H559), He will surely come out to me, and stand ('âmad, H5975), and call (qârâ', H7121) by on the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Parpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478)? may I not wash in them, and be clean (tâhêr, H2891)? So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants ('ebed, H5650) came near, and spake (dâbar, H1696) unto him, and said ('âmar, H559), My father, if the prophet (nâbiy', H5030) had bid (dâbar, H1696) thee do some great thing (dâbâr, H1697), wouldest thou not have done ('âśâh, H6213) it? how much rather then, when he saith ('âmar, H559) to thee, Wash, and be clean (tâhêr, H2891)? Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying (dâbâr, H1697) of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean (tâhêr, H2891)."

Day 17 questions

- 1) In the Old Testament, what was a mighty man of valor?
- 2) What word did the King of Syria hear that caused him to call on the King of Israel?
- 3) What word did Elisha send to Naaman when Naaman showed up outside his house? Why did this message upset Naaman?
- 4) What happened to Naaman when he obeyed the word brought to him from Elisha, who spoke the word of the Lord?
- 5) How would you describe Elisha's faith in God? Naaman's faith in Elisha's God?

Day 18: Instructions regarding speaking and prayer

“Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful. But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your “yes” be yes and your “no” be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation. Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit.”

James 5:9-18 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.5.9-18.ESV>

“Grudge (stenazō, G4727) not one against another, brethren (adelphos, G80), lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth (histēmi, G2476) before the door. Take (lambanō, G2983), my brethren (adelphos, G80), the prophets (prophētēs, G4396), who have spoken (laleō, G2980) in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), for an example of suffering affliction (kakopatheia, G2552), and of patience (makrothumia, G3115). Behold, we count them happy (makarizō, G3106) which endure (hupomenō, G5278). Ye have heard (akouō, G191) of the patience (hupomonē, G5281) of Job, and have seen the end (telos, G5056) of the Lord (kurios, G2962); that the Lord (kurios, G2962) is very pitiful (polusplagchnos, G4184), and of tender mercy (oiktirmōn, G3629). But above all things, my brethren (adelphos, G80), swear (omnuō, G3660) not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation (hupokrisis, G5272). Is any among you afflicted (kakopatheō, G2553)? let him pray (proseuchomai, G4336). Is any merry? let him sing psalms (psallō, G5567). Is any sick (astheneō, G770) among you? let him call for the elders (presbuteros, G4245) of the church; and let them pray (proseuchomai, G4336) over him, anointing him with oil (elaion, G1637) in the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962): and the prayer (euchē, G2171) of faith (pistis, G2171) shall save (sōzō, G4982) the sick (kamnō, G2577), and the Lord (kurios, G2962) shall raise (egeirō, G1453) him up; and if he have committed (poieō, G4160) sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess (exomologeō, G1843) your faults (paraptōma, G3900) one to another, and pray (euchomai, G2172) one for another, that ye may be healed (iaomai, G2390). The effectual fervent (energeō, G1754) prayer (deēsis, G1162) of a righteous man (dikaios, G1342) availeth (ischuō, G2480) much. Elias (Hēlias, G2243) was a man subject to like passions (homoioopathēs, G3663) as we are, and he prayed (proseuchomai, G4336) earnestly (proseuchē, G4335) that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed (proseuchomai, G4336) again, and the heaven gave (didōmi, G1325) rain, and the earth brought forth (blastanō, G985) her fruit (karpos, G2590).”

Day 18 questions

- 1) In what ways are believers commanded not to speak in this passage? In what situation are we commanded to praise?
- 2) May we expect to be persecuted for speaking in the name of the Lord? May we expect it to work out for our good?
- 3) In what circumstances and in what ways are we directed to pray for ourselves or for other believers? What results can we expect from our prayers or vows of faith?
- 4) What are we to confess or profess to other believers? What is the expected result of this?
- 5) What should we learn from Elijah's example of earnest prayer?
- 6) Did Elijah speak or pray to stop the rain? May speaking also be considered prayer?
- 7) How are we like Elijah?

Day 19: Elijah and his prayers for fire and rain

"Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that had been thrown down. Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the Lord came, saying, "Israel shall be your name," and with the stones he built an altar in the name of the Lord. And he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two seahs of seed. And he put the wood in order and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. And he said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood." And he said, "Do it a second time." And they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time." And they did it a third time. And the water ran around the altar and filled the trench also with water. And at the time of the offering of the oblation, Elijah the prophet came near and said, "O Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. Answer me, O Lord, answer me, that this people may know that you, O Lord, are God, and that you have turned their hearts back." Then the fire of the Lord fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, "The Lord, he is God; the Lord, he is God." And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape." And they seized them. And Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon and slaughtered them there. And Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink, for there is a sound of the rushing of rain." So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Mount Carmel. And he bowed himself down on the earth and put his face between his knees. And he said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." And he went up and looked and said, "There is nothing." And he said, "Go again," seven times. And at the seventh time he said, "Behold, a little cloud like a man's hand is rising from the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down, lest the rain stop you.'" And in a little while the heavens grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah, and he gathered up his garment and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel."

1 Kings 18:30-46 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1ki.18.30-46.ESV>

"And Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452) said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired (râphâ', H7495) the altar of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) that was broken down. And Elijah ('êlîyâh, H452) took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word (dâbâr, H1697) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) came, saying, Israel (yiśrâ'êl, H3478) shall be thy name (shêm, H8034): and with the stones he built an altar in the name (shêm, H8034) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068): and he made ('âšâh, H6213) a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed. And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said ('âmar, H559), Fill (mâlê', H4390) four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. And he said ('âmar, H559), Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled (mâlê', H4390) the trench also with water. And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah (‘êlîyâh, H452) the prophet (nâbîy’, H5030) came near, and said (‘âmar, H559), LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478), let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel (yiśrâ’êl, H3478), and that I am thy servant (‘ebed, H5650), and that I have done (‘âśâh, H6213) all these things at thy word (dâbâr, H1697). Hear (‘ânâh, H6030) me, O LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), hear (‘ânâh, H6030) me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) God, and that thou hast turned their heart (lêb, H3820) back again. Then the fire of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said (‘âmar, H559), The LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), he is the God; the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068), he is the God. And Elijah (‘êlîyâh, H452) said (‘âmar, H559) unto them, Take the prophets (nâbîy’, H5030) of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there. And Elijah (‘êlîyâh, H452) said (‘âmar, H559) unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound (qôl, H6963) of abundance of rain. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah (‘êlîyâh, H452) went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, and said (‘âmar, H559) to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said (‘âmar, H559), There is nothing. And he said (‘âmar, H559), Go again seven times. And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said (‘âmar, H559), Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said (‘âmar, H559), Go up, say (‘âmar, H559) unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not. And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. And the hand (yâd, H3027) of the LORD (yehôvâh, H3068) was on Elijah (‘êlîyâh, H452); and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.”

Day 19 questions

- 1) Based on Elijah's prayer, why did he light fire to the altar in the way he did? Did Elijah pray out loud?
- 2) How quickly did God answer Elijah's prayer? Was the result what Elijah had expected? Did it bring glory to God?
- 3) After Elijah spoke to Ahad, telling him to expect the sound of rain, did Elijah have to wait, believing for this to come to pass? How many times did Elijah speak to Ahad of the rain before it came?
- 4) What in this account shows that Elijah believed what he spoke would come to pass?
- 5) Did Elijah bring rain by speaking or by prayer? Could speaking out loud sometimes be considered to be prayer?
- 6) How was the hand of the Lord on Elijah?

Day 20: What defiles a person

“Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said, “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat.” He answered them, “And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? For God commanded, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.’ But you say, ‘If anyone tells his father or his mother, “What you would have gained from me is given to God,” he need not honor his father.’ So for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word of God. You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said: “‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”’ And he called the people to him and said to them, “Hear and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person.” Then the disciples came and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?” He answered, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. Let them alone; they are blind guides. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.” But Peter said to him, “Explain the parable to us.” And he said, “Are you also still without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is expelled? But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a person. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile anyone.””

Matthew 15:1-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.15.1-20.ESV>

“Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying (legō, G3004), Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition (paradosis, G3862) of the elders (presbuteros, G4245)? for they wash not their hands (cheir, G5495) when they eat bread. But he answered (apokrinomai, G611) and said (epō, G2036) unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment (entolē, G1785) of God by your tradition (paradosis, G3862)? For God commanded (entellomai, G1781), saying (legō, G3004), Honour (timaō, G5091) thy father and mother: and, He that curseth (kakologeō, G2551) father or mother, let him die the death. But ye say (legō, G3004), Whosoever shall say (epō, G2036) to his father or his mother, It is a gift (dōron, G1435), by whatsoever thou mightest be profited (ōpheleō, G5623) by me; and honour (timaō, G5091) not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment (entolē, G1785) of God of none effect (akuroō, G208) by your tradition (paradosis, G3862). Ye hypocrites (hupokritēs, G5273), well did Esaias (Hēsaías, G2268) prophesy (prophēteuō, G4395) of you, saying (legō, G3004), This people draweth nigh (eggizō, G1448) unto me with their mouth (stoma, G4750), and honoureth (timaō, G5091) me with their lips (cheilos, G5491); But their heart (kardia, G2588) is far from me. But in vain (matēn, G3155) they do worship me, Teaching (didaskō, G1321) for doctrines the commandments of men. And he called the multitude, and said (epō, G2036) unto them, Hear (akouō, G191), and understand: not that which goeth into (eiserchomai, G1525) the mouth (stoma, G2750) defileth (koinoō, G2840) a man; but that which cometh out (ekporeuomai, G1607) of the mouth (stoma, G4750), this defileth (koinoō, G2840) a man. Then came his disciples, and said (epō, G2036) unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended (skandalizō, G4634), after they heard (akouō, G191) this saying (logos, G3056)? But he answered (apokrinomai, G611) and said (epō, G2036), Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Then answered (apokrinomai, G611) Peter and said (epō, G2036) unto him, Declare (phrazō, G5419) unto us this parable. And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding? Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth (stoma, G4750) goeth into the belly, and is cast out (ekballō, G1544) into the draught? But those things which proceed out (ekporeoumai, G1607) of the mouth (stoma, G4750) come forth (exerchomai, G1831) from the heart (kardia, G2588); and they defile (koinoō, G2840) the man. For out of the heart (kardia, G2588) proceed (exerchomai, G1831) evil (ponēros, G4190) thoughts (dialogismos, G1261), murders, adulteries, fornications (porneia, G4202), thefts, false witness, blasphemies (blasphēmia, G988): these are the things which defile (koinoō, G2840) a man: but to eat with unwashen hands (cheir, G5495) defileth (koinoō, G2840) not a man.”

Day 20 questions

- 1) Why did the scribes and Pharisees have a problem with Jesus' disciples?
- 2) Of what did Jesus accuse them? What was the substance of His accompanying rebuke?
- 3) What was Jesus' teaching about the traditions of men in comparison to the commandment of God? Is it wise to separate the two even today?
- 4) What was Jesus' teaching about what defiles a person?
- 5) What is the origin of the words we speak, according to Jesus? Why should we be careful about the words we speak?

Day 21: The will of God for what you speak

“And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone. Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. Brothers, pray for us.”

1 Thessalonians 5:14-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1th.5.14-25.ESV>

“Now we exhort (parakaleō, G3870) you, brethren (adelphos, G80), warn (noutheteō, G3560) them that are unruly, comfort (paramutheomai, G3888) the feebleminded, support (antechomai, G472) the weak (asthenēs, G772), be patient (makrothumeō, G3114) toward all men. See that none render evil (kakos, G2556) for evil (kakos, G2556) unto any man; but ever (pantote, G3842) follow that which is good (agathos, G18), both among yourselves, and to all men. Rejoice (chairō, G5463) evermore (pantote, G3842). Pray (proseuchomai, G4336) without ceasing (adialeiptōs, G89). In every thing give thanks (eucharisteō, G2168): for this is the will (thelēma, G2307) of God in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) concerning you. Quench (sbennumi, G4570) not the Spirit. Despise (exoutheneō, G1848) not prophesyings (prophēteia, G4394). Prove (dokimazō, G1381) all things; hold fast (katechō, G2722) that which is good (kalos, G2570). Abstain from all appearance (eidōs, G1491) of evil (ponēros, G4190). And the very God of peace (eirēnē, G1515) sanctify (hagiazō, G37) you wholly (holotelēs, G3651); and I pray God your whole (holoklēros, G3648) spirit and soul (psuchē, G5590) and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus Christ. Faithful (pistos, G4103) is he that calleth (kaleō, G2564) you, who also will do (poieō, G4160) it. Brethren (adelphos, G80), pray (proseuchomai, G4336) for us.”

Day 21 questions

- 1) According to this passage, how within the body of Christ as we to speak to one another?
- 2) In what ways are we to look after one another in the body of Christ?
- 3) Following the example of Christ or of Paul, in what ways may we seek to do good to others?
- 4) What is the will of God for how we are to speak about God or to God? How may we go about doing His will in these things?
- 5) In what ways may we avoid stifling the influence of the indwelling Holy Spirit?
- 6) What does it mean to prove all things?
- 7) How do we abstain from any appearance and form of evil?
- 8) Who is responsible for the sanctification to completeness of our body, soul and spirit? How is our soul made whole, or conformed to God's will and image?

Day 22: The Lord's prayer

““And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. “And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Matthew 6:5-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.5-15.ESV>

“Now Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.” And he said to them, “When you pray, say: “Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation.” And he said to them, “Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him’; and he will answer from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything’? I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his impudence he will rise and give him whatever he needs. And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Luke 11:1-13 ESV

“And when thou prayest (proseuchomai, G4336), thou shalt not be as the hypocrites (hupokritēs, G5273) are: for they love to pray (proseuchomai, G4336) standing (histēmi, G2476) in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen (phainō, G5316) of men. Verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest (proseuchomai, G4336), enter (eiserchomai, G1525) into thy closet (tameion, G5009), and when thou hast shut thy door, pray (proseuchomai, G4336) to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray (proseuchomai, G4336), use not vain repetitions (battologeō, G945), as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking (polulogia, G4180). Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have (echō, G2192) need of, before ye ask (aiteō, G154) him. After this manner therefore pray (proseuchomai, G4336) ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed (hagiazō, G37) be thy name (onoma, G3686). Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come (erchomai, G2064). Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done (ginomai, G1096) in earth, as it is in heaven. Give (didōmi, G1325) us this day our daily bread. And forgive (aphiēmi, G863) us our debts (opheilēma, G3783), as we forgive (aphiēmi, G863) our debtors (opheiletēs, G3781). And lead (eispherō, G1533) us not into temptation (peirasmos, G3986), but deliver (rhuomai, G4506) us from evil (ponēros, G4190): For thine is the kingdom (basileia, G932), and the power (dunamis, G1411), and the glory (doxa, G1391), for ever. Amen (amēn, G281). For if ye forgive (aphēmi, G863) men their trespasses (paraptōma, G3900), your heavenly Father will also forgive (aphēmi, G863) you: but if ye forgive (aphēmi, G863) not men their trespasses (paraptōma, G3900), neither will your Father forgive (aphēmi, G863) your trespasses (paraptōma, G3900)."

"And it came to pass (ginomai, G1096), that, as he was praying (proseuchomai, G4336) in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord (kurios, G2962), teach (didaskō, G1321) us to pray (proseuchomai, G4336), as John (Iōannēs, G2491) also taught his disciples. And he said (epō, G2036) unto them, When ye pray (proseuchomai, G4336), say (legō, G3004), Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed (hagiazō, G37) be thy name (onoma, G3686). Thy kingdom (basileia, G932) come (erchomai, G2064). Thy will (thelēma, G2307) be done (ginomai, G1096), as in heaven, so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive (aphiēmi, G863) us our sins; for we also forgive (aphiēmi, G863) every one that is indebted (opheilō, G3784) to us. And lead (eispherō, G1533) us not into temptation (peirasmos, G3986); but deliver (rhuomai, G4506) us from evil (ponēros, G4190). And he said (epō, G2036) unto them, Which of you shall have (echō, G2192) a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say (epō, G2036) unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine in his journey (hodos, G3598) is come to me, and I have (echō, G2192) nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer (apokrinomai, G611) and say (epō, G2036), Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say (legō, G3004) unto you, Though he will not rise and give (didōmi, G1325) him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity (anaideia, G335) he will rise and give (didōmi, G1325) him as many as he needeth (chrēzō, G5535). And I say (legō, G3004) unto you, Ask (aiteō, G154), and it shall be given (didōmi, G1325) you; seek (zēteō, G2212), and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh (aiteō, G154) receiveth (lambanō, G2983); and he that seeketh (zēteō, G2212) findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask (aiteō, G154) bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask (aiteō, G154) a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask (aiteō, G154) an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being (huparchō, G5225) evil (ponēros, G4190), know how to give (didōmi, G1325) good (agathos G18) gifts (dōma, G1390) unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give (didōmi, G1325) the Holy (hagios, G40) Spirit to them that ask (aiteō, G154) him?"

Day 22 questions

- 1) What is a hypocrite? In what ways should we avoid being like them and praying like them and like heathens?
- 2) Do you think prayers were typically prayed out loud at the time these scriptures were written?
- 3) What are the different meanings of the word ask (aiteō, G154) that is typically used in the New Testament regarding prayer?
- 4) In what ways did Jesus instruct His disciples to praise and make confessions regarding what is true about our Father as part of prayer?
- 5) What does it mean for us to pray for God's kingdom to come? In what ways does Jesus expect God's kingdom to come in this life, according to what He demonstrated and taught?
- 6) What does it mean for us to pray for God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven? In what ways does Jesus expect God's will to be done in this life, according to what He demonstrated and taught?
- 7) How did Jesus teach His disciples to ask and to persist regarding things they need from God?
- 8) How are we to ask God to receive the good gift of the Holy Spirit? How does this gift compare with other gifts we might receive?
- 8) Why do we always need to forgive others their debts?
- 9) In what ways should we expect God to deliver us from evil?
- 10) What does the word Amen at the end of a prayer convey?

Day 23: Binding and loosing, part 1

“Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.””

Matthew 16:13-19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.16.13-19.ESV>

“Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.””

Matthew 18:18-20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.18.18-20.ESV>

“When Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked (erōtaō, G2065) his disciples, saying (legō, G3004), Whom do men say (legō, G3004) that I the Son of man am? And they said (epō, G2036), Some say that thou art John (Iōannēs, G2491) the Baptist: some, Elias (Hēlias, G2243); and others, Jeremias (Hieremias, G2408), or one of the prophets (prophētēs, G4396). He saith (legō, G3004) unto them, But whom say (legō, G3004) ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered (apokrinomai, G611) and said (epō, G2036), Thou art the Christ (Christos, G5547), the Son of the living (zaō, G2198) God. And Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) answered (apokrinomai, G611) and said (epō, G2036) unto him, Blessed (makarios, G3107) art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say (legō, G3004) also unto thee, That thou art Peter (Petros, G4074), and upon this rock (petra, G4073) I will build (oikodomeō, G3618) my church (ekklēsia, G1577); and the gates (pulē, G4439) of hell shall not prevail (katischuō, G2729) against it. And I will give (didōmi, G1325) unto thee the keys (kleis, G2807) of the kingdom (basileia, G932) of heaven (ouranos, G3772): and whatsoever thou shalt bind (deō, G1210) on earth shall be bound (deō, G1210) in heaven (ouranos, G3772): and whatsoever thou shalt loose (luō, G3089) on earth shall be loosed (luō, G3089) in heaven (ouranos, G3772).”

Matthew 16:13-19 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.16.13-19.KJV>

“Verily (amēn, G281) I say (legō, G3004) unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind (deō, G1210) on earth shall be bound (deō, G1210) in heaven (ouranos, G3772): and whatsoever ye shall loose (luō, G3089) on earth shall be loosed (luō, G3089) in heaven (ouranos, G3772). Again I say (legō, G3004) unto you, That if two of you shall agree (sumphōneō, G4856) on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask (aiteō, G154), it shall be done (ginomai, G1096) for them of my Father which is in heaven (ouranos, G3772). For where two or three are gathered together (sunagō, G4863) in my name (onoma, G3686), there am I in the midst of them.”

Translated as: agree (with), agree together

Pronounced: soom-fo-neh'-o

Day 23 questions

- 1) Who do people say that Jesus is? Who do you say that Jesus is? Why is what we say about Him so important?
- 2) What did Jesus mean by His response to Peter about being a rock? Regarding building His church?
- 3) What did Jesus mean when He said the gates of hell would not prevail against His church?
- 4) What is the key of binding on earth that Jesus gave to His followers, based on how He and, later, the apostles, spoke to bind?
- 5) What is the key of loosing on earth that Jesus gave to His followers, based on how He and, later, the apostles, spoke to loose?
- 6) What is Jesus' word to His disciples about agreeing together for what we ask? As His followers, should we still expect Jesus to honor His word?
- 7) What is the significance of God's church being gathered together, two or more, in Jesus' name? Are we to minister alone, or is it better to minister with other Christ followers?

Day 24: Binding and loosing, part 2

“And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and “by the prince of demons he casts out the demons.” And he called them to him and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house.”

Mark 3:22-27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.3.22-27.ESV>

“Now he was casting out a demon that was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke, and the people marveled. But some of them said, “He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of demons,” while others, to test him, kept seeking from him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a divided household falls. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are safe; but when one stronger than he attacks him and overcomes him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted and divides his spoil.”

Luke 11:14-22 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.11.14-22.ESV>

“Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. And behold, there was a woman who had had a disabling spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your disability.” And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, “There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.” Then the Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?” As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him.”

Luke 13:10-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.13.10-17.ESV>

“And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath (echō, G2192) Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954), and by the prince of the devils casteth (ekballō, G1544) he out devils. And he called (proskaleomai, G4341) them unto him, and said (legō, G3004) unto them in parables (parabolē, G3850), How can Satan (Satanas, G4567) cast out (ekballō, G1544) Satan (Satanas, G4567)? And if a kingdom (basileia, G932) be divided (merizō, G3307) against itself, that kingdom (basileia, G932) cannot stand (histēmi, G2476). And if a house (oikia, G3614) be divided (merizō, G3307) against itself, that house (oikia, G3614) cannot stand (histēmi, G2476). And if Satan (Satanas, G4567) rise up (anistēmi, G450) against himself, and be divided (merizō, G3307), he cannot stand (histēmi, G2476), but hath (echō, G2192) an end. No man can enter into (eiserchomai, G1525) a strong man's (ischuros, G2478) house (oikia, G3614), and spoil (diarpazō, G1283) his goods (skeuos, G4632), except he will first bind (deō, G1210) the strong man (ischuros, G2478); and then he will spoil (diarpazō, G1283) his house (oikia, G3614)."

Mark 3:22-27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.3.22-27.KJV>

"And he was casting out (ekballō, G1544) a devil, and it was dumb (kōphos, G2974). And it came to pass (ginomai, G1096), when the devil was gone out (exerchomai, G1831), the dumb (kōphos, G2974) spake (lalēo, G2980); and the people wondered (thaumazō, G2296). But some of them said (epō, G2036), He casteth out (ekballō, G1544) devils through Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954) the chief of the devils. And others, tempting (peirazō, G3985) him, sought (zēteō, G2212) of him a sign (sēmeion, G4592) from heaven (ouranos, G3772). But he, knowing their thoughts (dianoēma, G1270), said (epō, G2036) unto them, Every kingdom (basileia, G932) divided (diamerizō, G1266) against itself is brought to desolation (erēmoō, G2049); and a house (oikos, G3624) divided against an house falleth. If Satan (Satanas, G4567) also be divided (diamerizō, G1266) against himself, how shall his kingdom (basileia, G932) stand (histēmi, G2476)? because ye say (legō, G3004) that I cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils through Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954). And if I by Beelzebub (Beelzeboul, G954) cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, by whom do your sons cast (ekballō, G1544) them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger (daktulos, G1147) of God cast out (ekballō, G1544) devils, no doubt the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is come upon (phthanō, G5348) you. When a strong man (ischuros, G2478) armed (kathoplizō, G2528) keepeth (phulassō, G5442) his palace, his goods (huparchonta, G5224) are in peace (eirēnē, G1515): but when a stronger (ischuros, G2478) than he shall come upon (eperchomai, G1904) him, and overcome (nikaō, G3528) him, he taketh (airō, G142) from him all his armour (panoplia, G3833) wherein he trusted (peithō, G3982), and divideth his spoils (skulon, G4661)."

Luke 11:14-22 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.11.14-22.KJV>

"And he was teaching (didaskō, G1321) in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had (echō, G2192) a spirit of infirmity (astheneia, G769) eighteen years, and was bowed together (sugkuptō, G4794), and could (dunamai, G1410) in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) saw her, he called (prosphōneō, G4377) her to him, and said (epō, G2036) unto her, Woman, thou art loosed (apoluō, G630) from thine infirmity (astheneia, G769). And he laid his hands (cheir, G5495) on her: and immediately she was made straight (anorthoō, G461), and glorified (doxazō, G1392) God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered (apokrinomai, G611) with indignation, because that Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) had healed (therapeuō, G2323) on the sabbath day, and said (legō, G3004) unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work (ergazomai, G2038): in them therefore come (erchomai, G2064) and be healed (therapeuō, G2323), and not on the sabbath day. The Lord (kurios, G2962) then answered (apokrinomai, G611) him, and said (epō, G2036), Thou hypocrite (hupokritēs, G5273), doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose (luō, G3089) his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought (dei, G1163) not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham (Abraam, G11), whom Satan (Satanas, G4567) hath bound (deō, G1210), lo, these eighteen years, be loosed (luō, G3089) from this bond (desmon, G1199) on the sabbath day? And when he had said (legō, G3004) these things, all his adversaries (antikeimai, G480) were ashamed (kataischunō, G2617): and all the people rejoiced (chairō, G5463) for all the glorious things (endoxos, G1741) that were done (ginomai, G1096) by him.”

Day 24 questions

- 1) How may our words contribute to division within Christ's body? How may it affect the body's function in the world?
- 2) How did (the stronger) Jesus Christ enter into Satan's (the strong man's) house, overcome him, and plunder his goods?
- 3) Why did Jesus associate the kingdom of God coming upon them with casting out devils? What is the kingdom of God? How did Jesus cast out devils?
- 4) What is an infirmity? How did Jesus loose the woman from a spirit of infirmity? Does this mean that spirits associated with Satan may be associated with our infirmities?
- 5) Why did the words spoken by the Pharisee cause Jesus to call him a hypocrite?
- 6) What was the verbal reaction of the people to the woman's healing?
- 7) What is the key of binding on earth that Jesus gave to His followers, based on how He and, later, the apostles, spoke to bind?
- 8) What is the key of loosing on earth that Jesus gave to His followers, based on how He and, later, the apostles, spoke to loose?

Day 25: Born again through the word of God

“Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for “All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever.” And this word is the good news that was preached to you.”

1 Peter 1:22-25 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1pe.1.22-25.ESV>

“Seeing ye have purified (hagnizō, G48) your souls (psuchē, G5590) in obeying the truth (alētheia, G225) through the Spirit unto unfeigned (anupokritos, G505) love of the brethren (philadelphia, G5360), see that ye love (agapaō, G25) one another with a pure (katharos, G2513) heart (kardia, G2588) fervently (ektenōs, G1619): being born again (anagennaō, G313), not of corruptible (phthartos, G5349) seed, but of incorruptible (aphthartos, G862), by the word (logos, G3056) of God, which liveth (zaō, G2198) and abideth (menō, G3306) for ever. For All flesh (sarx, G4561) is as grass, And all the glory (doxa, G1391) of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth (xērainō, G3583), and the flower thereof falleth away (ekpiptō, G1601): But the word (rhēma, G4487) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) endureth (menō, G3306) for ever. And this is the word (rhēma, G4487) which by the gospel is preached (euaggelizō, G2097) unto you.”

Day 25 questions

- 1) How are we commanded to love one another?
- 2) How does the word of God relate to our new birth?
- 3) What does the word of God have to do with seed?
- 4) How is the word of God living?
- 5) How does the word of God abide in us?
- 6) How did you receive the word of God as a seed? How do others receive it?
- 7) In what ways is the word of God imperishable or uncorruptable? How does it remain or abide forever?

Day 26: Speak freely

“In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first, “Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops. “I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows. “And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

Luke 12:1-12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.12.1-12.ESV>

“But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name’s sake. This will be your opportunity to bear witness. Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict.”

Luke 21:12-15 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.21.12-15.ESV>

“In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say (legō, G3004) unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven (zumē, G2219) of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy (hupokrisis, G5272). For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid (kruptos, G2927), that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken (epō, G2036) in darkness (skotia, G4653) shall be heard (akouō, G191) in the light (phōs, G5457); and that which ye have spoken (laleō, G2980) in the ear in closets (tameion, G5009) shall be proclaimed (kērussō, G2784) upon the housetops (dōma, G1430). And I say (legō, G3004) unto you my friends, Be not afraid (phobeō, G5399) of them that kill the body, and after that have (echō, G2192) no more that they can do (poieō, G4160). But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear (phobeō, G5399): Fear (phobeō, G5399) him, which after he hath killed hath (echō, G2192) power (exousia, G1849) to cast into hell; yea, I say (legō, G3004) unto you, Fear (phobeō, G5399) him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered (arithmeō, G705). Fear (phobeō, G5399) not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say (legō, G3004) unto you, Whosoever shall confess (homologeō, G3670) me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess (homologeō, G3670) before the angels of God: but he that denieth me before men shall be denied (aparneomai, G533) before the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak (ereō, G2046) a word (logos, G3056) against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven (aphiēmi, G863) him: but unto him that blasphemeth (blasphēmeō, G987) against the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost it shall not be forgiven (aphiēmi, G863). And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers (exousia, G1849), take ye no thought (merimnaō, G3309) how or what thing ye shall answer (apologeomai, G626), or what ye shall say (epō, G2036): for the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost shall teach (didaskō, G1321) you in the same hour what ye ought (dei, G1163) to say (epō, G2036)."

Luke 12:1-12 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.12.1-12.KJV>

"But before all these, they shall lay their hands (cheir, G5495) on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's (onoma, G3686) sake. And it shall turn to you for a testimony (marturion, G3142). Settle it therefore in your hearts (kardia, G2588), not to meditate before (prometeleō, G4304) what ye shall answer (apologeomai, G626): for I will give (didōmi, G1325) you a mouth (stoma, G4750) and wisdom (sophia, G4678), which all your adversaries (antikeimai, G480) shall not be able to gainsay (antepō, G471) nor resist (anthistēmi, G436)."

Luke 21:12-15 KJV

Translated as: resist, withstand
Pronounced: anth-is'-tay-mee

Day 26 questions

- 1) What was the leaven of the Pharisees that Jesus warned the people about? Is there such leaven in the world today to be cautious of?
- 2) What did Jesus mean when he said that every word we have spoken in darkness or in closets will be proclaimed on the housetops? How should this impact the words we choose to speak?
- 3) Who has the authority to cast one into hell?
- 4) What does it mean to fear God?
- 5) What or whom should we fear outside of God?
- 6) What did Jesus mean when he said that the very hairs of our heads are all numbered?
- 7) What does it mean to confess (acknowledge) Jesus before men? How do you do that?
- 8) What does it mean for us to be confessed (acknowledged) before the angels of God?
- 9) How do or how would we speak words against Jesus?
- 10) What words that we could speak would represent blasphemy against the Holy Spirit? How are we to avoid this?
- 11) Why are we to take no thought for our defense when we are opposed for following Jesus Christ? What should we expect the result of our defense to be?
- 12) Has the Holy Spirit spoken through you?
- 13) What is a testimony? When are you to give one?

Day 27: The persistent widow

“And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’ For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor respect man, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming.’” And the Lord said, “Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?””

Luke 18:1-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.18.1-8.ESV>

“And he spake (legō, G3004) a parable (parabolē, G3850) unto them to this end, that men ought (dei, G1163) always (pantote, G3842) to pray (proseuchomai, G4336), and not to faint (eklakeō, G1573); saying (legō, G3004), There was in a city a judge, which feared (phobeō, G5399) not God, neither regarded (entrepō, G1788) man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying (legō, G3004), Avenge (ekdikeō, G1556) me of mine adversary. And he would (thelō, G2309) not for a while (chronos, G5550): but afterward he said (epō, G2036) within himself, Though I fear (phobeō, G5399) not God, nor regard (entrepō, G1788) man; yet because this widow troubleth (parechō kopos, G3930+G2873) me, I will avenge (ekdikeō, G1556) her, lest by her continual coming she weary (hupōpiazō, G5299) me. And the Lord (kurios, G2962) said (epō, G2036), Hear (akouō, G191) what the unjust (adikia, G93) judge saith (legō, G3004). And shall not God avenge (poieō ekdikēsis, G4160+G1557) his own elect (eklektos, G1588), which cry (boaō, G994) day and night unto him, though he bear long (makrothumeō, G3114) with them? I tell (legō, G3004) you that he will avenge (ekdikēsis, G1557) them speedily (tachos en, G5034+G1722). Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh (erchomai, G2064), shall he find faith (pistis, G4102) on the earth?”

Luke 18:1-8 KJV

Translated as: shortly or quickly or speedily (with G1722)

Pronounced: takh'-os

Day 27 questions

- 1) How often should you pray?
- 2) What is the example Jesus gave to pray without fainting (or losing heart)?
- 3) What kinds of things should we pray to God about? What did the widow in Jesus' story desire?
- 4) Are we expected to continue to trouble (or bother) God with our prayers?
- 5) What prayers should we expect to be answered?
- 6) How quickly should we expect God to answer our prayers?
- 7) In association with His teaching on prayer, why do you think Jesus questioned whether He would find faith on earth when He comes again? In relation to prayer, for what should we have faith?

Day 28: The word of God and the Son of God

“At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the colonnade of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.” Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name bear witness about me, but you do not believe because you are not among my sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand. I and the Father are one.” The Jews picked up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you going to stone me?” The Jews answered him, “It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God.” Jesus answered them, “Is it not written in your Law, ‘I said, you are gods’? If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken—do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God’? If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.” Again they sought to arrest him, but he escaped from their hands.”

John 10:22-39 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.10.22-39.ESV>

“And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. And Jesus (lēsous, G2424) walked (peripateō, G4043) in the temple in Solomon's porch. Then came the Jews round about him, and said (legō, G3004) unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ (Christos, G5547), tell (epō, G2036) us plainly (parrhēsia, G3954). Jesus (lēsous, G2424) answered (apokrinomai, G611) them, I told (epō, G2036) you, and ye believed (pisteuō, G4100) not: the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) in my Father's name (onoma, G3686), they bear witness (martureō, G3140) of me. But ye believe (pisteuō, G4100) not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said (epō, G2036) unto you. My sheep hear (akouō, G191) my voice (phōnē, G5456), and I know them, and they follow (akolouthēō, G190) me: and I give (didōmi, G1325) unto them eternal life (zōē, G2222); and they shall never perish (apollumi, G622), neither shall any man pluck (harpazō, G726) them out of my hand (cheir, G5495). My Father, which gave (didōmi, G1325) them me, is greater than all; and no man is able (dunamai, G1410) to pluck (harpazō, G726) them out of my Father's hand (cheir, G5495). I and my Father are one. Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus (lēsous, G2424) answered (apokrinomai, G611) them, Many good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041) have I shewed (deiknuō, G1166) you from my Father; for which of those works (ergon, G2041) do ye stone me? The Jews answered (apokrinomai, G611) him, saying (legō, G3004), For a good (kalos, G2570) work (ergon, G2041) we stone thee not; but for blasphemy (blasphēmia, G988); and because that thou, being a man, makest (poieō, G4160) thyself God. Jesus (lēsous, G2424) answered (apokrinomai, G611) them, Is it not written in your law, I said (epō, G2036), Ye are gods (theos, G2316)? If he called (epō, G2036) them gods (theos, G2316), unto whom the word (logos, G3056) of God (theos, G2316) came (ginomai, G1096), and the scripture (graphē, G1124) cannot be broken (luō, G3089); say (legō, G3004) ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified (hagiazō, G37), and sent (apostellō, G649) into the world (kosmos, G2889), Thou blasphemest (blasphēmēō, G987); because I said (epō, G2036), I am the Son of God? If I do (poieō, G4160) not the works (ergon, G2041) of my Father, believe (pisteuō, G4100) me not. But if I do (poieō, G4160), though ye believe (pisteuō, G4100) not me, believe (pisteuō, G4100) the works (ergon, G2041): that ye may know, and believe (pisteuō, G4100), that the Father is in me, and I in him. Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped (exerchomai, G1831) out of their hand (cheir, G5495),”

Akolouthēō, G190: to follow one, join as a disciple or attendant, accompany, be in the same way with, side with a party

Translated as: follow

Pronounced: ak-ol-oo-theh'-o

Harpazō, G726: to seize, carry off by force, to snatch away, catch, pluck, take by force

Translated as: catch up, take by force, catch away, pluck

Pronounced: har-pad'-zo

Deiknuō, G1166: to show, give evidence or proof of

Translated as: show

Pronounced: dike-noo'-o

Theos, G2316: god/goddess, the Godhead, the only true God; what can be likened unto to God or resemble him in any way, God's representative or viceregent

Translated as: God, god, godly

Pronounced: theh'-os

‘Elôhîym, H430: rulers, judges, divine ones, angels, god(s), goddess, godlike one, works or special possessions of God, God [from Psalm 82:1,6]

Translated as: God, god

Pronounced: el-o-heem'

Graphē, G1124: a writing, thing written, the Scripture

Translated as: scripture

Pronounced: graf-ay'

Day 28 questions

- 1) What good works did Jesus do in His Father's name that bore witness of Him?
- 2) How do Jesus' sheep hear His voice?
- 3) How are Jesus' sheep to follow Him?
- 4) The Jews asked Jesus to boldly claim to be the Christ, which He did. How did Jesus express His relationship with the Father?
- 5) In what sense are those to whom the word of God came gods (theos, elôhîym)? Has the word of God come to you?
- 6) What did Jesus mean when He said the scripture could not be broken (luō)?
- 7) How are we to similarly think about scripture, God's spoken word?

Day 29: Jesus' words

“And Jesus cried out and said, “Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me.””

John 12:44-50 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.12.44-50.ESV>

“Jesus (lēsous, G2424) cried (krazō, G2896) and said (epō, G2036), He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, believeth (pisteuō, G4100) not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. I am come (erchomai, G2064) a light (phōs, G5457) into the world (kosmos, G2889), that whosoever believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me should not abide (menō, G3306) in darkness (skotia, G4653). And if any man hear (akouō, G191) my words (rhēma, G4487), and believe (pisteuō, G4100) not, I judge him not: for I came (erchomai, G2064) not to judge the world (kosmos, G2889), but to save (sōzō, G4982) the world (kosmos, G2889). He that rejecteth (atheteō, G114) me, and receiveth (lambanō, G2983) not my words (rhēma, G4487), hath (echō, G2192) one that judgeth him: the word (logos, G3056) that I have spoken (laleō, G2980), the same shall judge (krinō, G2919) him in the last day. For I have not spoken (laleō, G2980) of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave (didōmi, G1325) me a commandment (entolē, G1785), what I should say (epō, G2036), and what I should speak (laleō, G2980). And I know that his commandment (entolē, G1785) is life (zōē, G2222) everlasting: whatsoever I speak (laleō, G2980) therefore, even as the Father said (ereō, G2046) unto me, so I speak (laleō, G2980).”

John 12:44-50 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.12.44-50.KJV>

Day 29 words

Atheteō, G114: to do away with, set aside, disregard, thwart the efficacy of, nullify, make void, frustrate, reject, slight, disesteem

Translated as: despise, reject, bring to nothing, frustrate, disannul, cast off

Pronounced: ath-et-eh'-o

Krinō, G2919: to separate, approve, deem, determine, judge/be judged, rule, dispute

Translated as: judge, determine, condemn, go to law, call in question, esteem

Pronounced: kree'-no

Day 29 questions

- 1) How was Jesus a light to the world? How did this have to do with the words He spoke?
- 2) How are those who reject Jesus and do not receive His words to be judged?

- 3) Whose words did Jesus speak?
- 4) How do you think God the Father gave Jesus words to speak?
- 5) In what sense are God's commandments life everlasting?

Day 30: Overcoming evil with good

"I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." To the contrary, "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

Romans 12:1-21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.1-21.ESV>

"I beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you therefore, brethren (adelphos, G80), by the mercies (oiktirmos, G3628) of God, that ye present your bodies a living (zaō, G2198) sacrifice (thusia, G2378), holy (hagios, G40), acceptable (euarestos, G2101) unto God, which is your reasonable (logikos, G3050) service (latreia, G2999). And be not conformed (suschematizō, G4964) to this world: but be ye transformed (metamorphoō, G3339) by the renewing (anakainōsis, G342) of your mind (nous, G3563), that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable (euarestos, G2101), and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God. For I say (legō, G3004), through the grace (charis, G5485) given (didōmi, G1325) unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought (dei, G1163) to think (phroneō, G5426); but to think (phroneō, G5426) soberly (sōphroneō, G4993), according as God hath dealt (merizō, G3307) to every man the measure (metron, G3358) of faith (pistis, G4102). For as we have (echō, G2192) many members in one body, and all members have (echō, G2192) not the same office (praxis, G4234): so we, being many, are one body in Christ (Christos, G5547), and every one members one of another (allēlōn, G240). Having then gifts (charisma, G5486) differing (diaphoros, G1313) according to the grace (charis, G5485) that is given (didōmi, G1325) to us, whether prophecy (prophēteia, G4394), let us prophecy according to the proportion of faith (pistis, G4102); or ministry (diakonia, G1248), let us wait on our ministering (diakonia, G1248): or he that teacheth (didaskō, G1321), on teaching; or he that exhorteth (parakaleō, G3870), on exhortation (paraklēsis, G3874): he that giveth (metadidōmi, G3330), let him do it with simplicity (haplotēs, G572); he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy (eleeō, G1653), with cheerfulness (hilarotēs, G2432). Let love (agapē, G26) be without dissimulation (anupokritos, G505). Abhor (apostuegō, G655) that which is evil (ponēros, G4190); cleave (kollaō, G2853) to that which is good (agathos, G18). Be kindly affectioned (philostorgos, G5387) one to another (allēlōn, G240) with brotherly love (philadelphia, G5360); in honour (timē, G5092) preferring (proēgeomai, G4285) one another (allēlōn, G240); not slothful in business (spoudē, G4710); fervent (zeō, G2204) in spirit; serving (douleuō, G1398) the Lord (kurios, G2962); rejoicing (chairō, G5463) in hope (elpis, G1680); patient (hupomenō, G5278) in tribulation (thlipsis, G2347); continuing instant (prokartereō, G4342) in prayer (proseuchē, G4335); distributing (koinōneō, G2841) to the necessity (chreia, G5532) of saints (hagios, G40); given (diōkō, G1377) to hospitality (philonexia, G5381). Bless (eulogeō, G2127) them which persecute (diōkō, G1377) you: bless (eulogeō, G2127), and curse (kataraomai, G2672) not. Rejoice (chairō, G5463) with them that do rejoice (chairō, G5463), and weep (klaiō, G2799) with them that weep (klaiō, G2799). Be of the same mind (phroneō, G5426) one toward another (allēlōn, G240). Mind (phroneō, G5426) not high things, but condescend (sunapagō, G4879) to men of low estate (tapeinos, G5011). Be not wise (phronimos, G5429) in your own conceits. Recompense (apodidōmi, G591) to no man evil (kakos, G2556) for evil (kakos, G2556). Provide (pronoeō, G4306) things honest (kalos, G2570) in the sight of all men. If it be possible (dunatos, G1415), as much as lieth in you, live peaceably (eirēneuō, G1514) with all men. Dearly beloved (agapētos, G27), avenge (ekdikeō, G1556) not yourselves, but rather give (didōmi, G1325) place unto wrath: for it is written (graphō, G1125), Vengeance (ekdikēsis, G1557) is mine; I will repay, saith (legō, G3004) the Lord (kurios, G2962). Therefore if thine enemy (echthros, G2190) hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing (poieō, G4160) thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome (nikaō, G3528) of evil (kakos, G2556), but overcome (nikaō, G3528) evil (kakos, G2556) with good (agathos, G18)."

Day 30 questions

- 1) How do we present our bodies as a living sacrifice?
- 2) How do we cooperate with the Holy Spirit to be transformed by the renewing of our minds?
How does this relate to God's will? How does it make us complete?
- 3) What does it mean to think soberly, according to our measure of faith?
- 4) What are the different functions of the body of Christ? What are your functions in the world as part of His body?
- 5) What are the gifts (charisma) that we in the church have as part of His body? Among them, what gift(s) has God given to you according to His grace? What gift(s) do you seek?
- 6) Which of the gifts listed in this passage involve words we may speak?
- 7) What does it mean to give (or contribute) with simplicity (or generosity)? In what ways may we give?
- 8) What does it mean to show mercy with cheerfulness?
- 9) How are we to respond to those who persecute us? To enemies?
- 10) How should we treat other believers, Christ in us? What does this have to do with the words we speak?
- 11) How are we to overcome evil with good, Christ in us? Does this relate to the words we may speak?

Day 31: His word abiding in you

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. “This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.”

John 15:1-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.15.1-16.ESV>

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman (geōrgos, G1092). Every branch in me that beareth not fruit (karpos, G2590) he taketh away (airō, G142): and every branch that beareth fruit (karpos, G2590), he purgeth it (kathairō, G2508), that it may bring forth more fruit (karpos, G2590). Now ye are clean (katharos, G2513) through the word (logos, G3056) which I have spoken (laleō, G2980) unto you. Abide (menō, G3306) in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit (karpos, G2590) of itself, except it abide (menō, G3306) in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide (menō, G3306) in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth (menō, G3306) in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit (karpos, G2590): for without me ye can (dunamai, G1410) do nothing. If a man abide (menō, G3306) not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered (xērainō, G3583); and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide (menō, G3306) in me, and my words (rhēma, G4487) abide (menō, G3306) in you, ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) what ye will (thelō, G2309), and it shall be done (ginomai, G1096) unto you. Herein is my Father glorified (doxazō, G1392), that ye bear much fruit (karpos, G2590); so shall ye be my disciples. As the Father hath loved (agapaō, G25) me, so have I loved (agapaō, G25) you: continue (menō, G3306) ye in my love (agapē, G26). If ye keep (tēreō, G5083) my commandments (entolē, G1785), ye shall abide (menō, G3306) in my love (agapē, G26); even as I have kept (tēreō, G5083) my Father's commandments (entolē, G1785), and abide (menō, G3306) in his love (agapē, G26). These things have I spoken (laleō, G2980) unto you, that my joy (chara, G5479) might remain (menō, G3306) in you, and that your joy (chara, G5479) might be full (plēroō, G4137). This is my commandment (entolē, G1785), That ye love (agapaō, G25) one another, as I have loved (agapaō, G25) you. Greater love (agapē, G26) hath no man than this, that a man lay down (tithēmi, G5087) his life (psuchē, G5590) for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do (poieō, G4160) whatsoever I command (entellomai, G1781) you. Henceforth I call (legō, G3004) you not servants (doulos, G1401); for the servant (doulos, G1401) knoweth not what his Lord (kurios, G2962) doeth (poieō, G4160): but I have called (ereō, G2046) you friends; for all things that I have heard (akouō, G191) of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained (tithēmi, G5087) you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit (karpos, G2590), and that your fruit (karpos, G2590) should remain (menō, G3306): that whatsoever ye shall ask (aiteō, G154) of the Father in my name (onoma, G3686), he may give (didōmi, G1325) it you.”
