Introduction

How do you see yourself?

How do you see yourself? How you see yourself directly affects how you choose to live your life from day to day.

From our earliest days, we see ourselves as boys or girls and as a part of a family. We are part of a neighborhood and a country. We become part of certain friend groups, part of certain schools, part of a church or churches.

We grow up to take on roles and occupations that fulfill some functions useful to our communities and often our families on a day-to-day basis.

The countries, communities, businesses, families and places of worship that we associate with affect our values and how we see ourselves.

How does the Spirit of God call us to see ourselves?

The Spirit of God has spoken to us through His Word in the Bible and especially through Jesus Christ, the Word of God made flesh.

Jesus Christ called His followers to see things completely differently, for example, starting His teachings with "You've heard it said... but I say unto you..." (Matthew 5:21-44). He often began His teachings with, "Verily, verily, I say unto you...", which might loosely be translated as, "Pay attention to this! I'm about to tell you what is real and what is true."

There is more to reality than what you learn from our experience in the world. The Spirit of God teaches us to see reality through eyes of faith:

'as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.'

2 Corinthians 4:18 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/2CO.4.18>

So how then are we supposed to see ourselves?

The Spirit of God speaks to us through scripture to tell us:

1) We are directly connected to God!

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. '

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

2) We are directly connected to the mind of Christ!

"For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.16>

3) We are directly connected to the living body of Jesus Christ in the world!

'for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. '

Ephesians 5:30 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.30>

This book unpacks this view and describes its implications in our lives and our world. May the truth of the Word of God become the augmented reality which we together see, step into, and walk, day by day, church.

Chapter 1: Directly connected to the Spirit of Christ

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.'

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

With eyes of faith, the Spirit of God asks us to accept that we've been directly connected with the Spirit. Scripture calls the Spirit that God sent to us as "the Spirit of Jesus Christ" (Philippians 1:19).

Perhaps the most central teaching of the writings of the Apostle Paul in scripture is that Christ is in us! In Colossians 1:25-28, Paul refers to "Christ in you" (italics mine) as the "mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to the saints."

Just as Jesus of Nazareth was anointed with the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38) before starting His ministry, scripture teaches that we as Christ followers are anointed with the same Spirit:

"And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee."

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.1.21-22.ESV>

"But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him."

1 John 2:27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.2.27.ESV>

What does the Spirit connect us to? Jesus Christ, seated at the right hand of God.

We are seated in Him, according to the Spirit:

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus... For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

Ephesians 2:4-7, 10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.4-10.ESV>

Because of the Spirit of Jesus Christ in you, you can be in more than one place as the Spirit is. You are also seated in heaven together with Jesus Christ right now:

“If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God... For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.”
Colossians 3:1, 3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.1-3.ESV>

What do we (collectively as the church) have because we are joined to Jesus Christ through the Spirit in us? Everything Christ has:

“The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ...

Romans 8:16-17a ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.16-17.ESV>

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places,”

Ephesians 1:3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.1.3.ESV>

“May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.”

2 Peter 1:2-4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2pe.1.2-4.ESV>

We spiritually have all that Christ has. We are even partakers of God’s own divine nature! Those characteristics the Spirit gives us are described in my book Identity in Christ: Characteristics of Christ in You.

How do we receive things from God that we have already been given spiritually? The scripture is clear that we take them as ours by faith, just as we have taken salvation in Christ as a free gift of God, along with Christ’s gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

“But the righteousness based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

...But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?" So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ."

Romans 10:6-13, 16-17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.6-17.ESV>

Let's believe the words of God to us. You are directly connected to God's Spirit right now, church!

Prayer. Thank You, God, for delivering me from the power of darkness, translating me into Your kingdom through Your dear Son. Thank You for directly connecting me as a child of God to Your Holy Spirit, made one with You and cleansed of all unrighteousness through faith in Jesus Christ, my Lord. Baptized in You, Holy Spirit, I rejoice in the presence and power of Christ alive in me. I worship You, God, for all that You are, including Your greatness, Your benevolent love, and the riches of Your grace. Thank You, God, for redemption, abundant blessing, and the gift of Your own Spirit. I drink now from Your presence, Spirit of God. I am transfused by Your resurrection life. Spirit of God, I internalize Your power, energized by You for Your ministry. I absorb Your compassion, coming to resonate with Your heartbeat for Your beloved people. Let Your fullness materialize in my life, God. Let Your dreams be engendered in my spirit. Attune my spirit with You, indwelling Spirit of God, for action in Your will. I thank You for your anointing to publicize Your gospel, persuading people to embrace Your good news and be saved so that You may freely pour out Your life, freedom, goodness, blessing to them as Your children. I honor You, Holy Spirit. You have made me complete, Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2: Directly connected to the mind of Christ

"For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.'

1 Corinthians 2:16 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.16>

With eyes of faith, the Spirit of God asks us to accept that we have the mind of Christ. The Spirit of God connects us to this mind since we are in Christ!

Yet, at new birth we also have our own natural minds, and we tend to want to use them! Made in the image of God and given free will, God chooses not to go against our wills!

And so at new birth, we are double-minded (James 1:5-8, 4:8).

We must choose to put on the mind that we were given at new birth, meanwhile putting off the old, natural one. By doing so, we clothe ourselves in God's Spirit!

This leads us to be single-minded in the mind of Christ!

About this, Jesus taught,

"for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!"

Matthew 6:21-23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.6.21-23.KJV>

The heart is the soul, associated with our mind, will and emotions. The eye is specifically associated with the mind, the faculty of knowing. The word single is the Greek word haplous, which also means simple, whole, sound, or good at fulfilling its office. It refers to single-mindedness and a freedom from self-seeking.

In between working completely out of our own natural minds, as we do before we become Christ followers (when we are full of darkness), and from the mind of Christ, or of the Spirit (where we are full of light), we are double-minded. We are partly filled with light and with darkness.

I contend that double-mindedness is completely responsible for the problems in the world to which born again believers contribute. Further, it is completely responsible for the problems in the church. Moreover, among Christians, it perpetuates or leads to anything associated with the darkness of sin: any bondage, discontentment, anxiety, divisiveness, et cetera.

We are to treasure the Spirit of God that was given to us at our new birth, along with our new mind!

We are “to put off [our] old self, which belongs to [our] former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of [our] minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.”

Ephesians 4:22-24 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.22-24>

We are to renew our minds to the word of God, God’s perfect blueprint of the way things are and the way they are to be. In so doing, we “put on the Lord Jesus Christ” (Romans 13:14).

In Christ, we have “become the righteousness of God” (2 Corinthians 5:21). As we see in Christ’s life, righteousness is a lifestyle that leads to victory in every situation (1 John 5:4). Jesus Christ demonstrated how to turn all situations into glory to God.

Jesus Christ never sinned. In Christ, we can stop sinning. Jesus Christ never lost a battle to Satan or his kingdom; in our Lord Jesus Christ, we can also have such victory (1 Corinthians 15:57, 2 Corinthians 2:14). That is a treasure!

Is it worth dying to your old self to take on Christ’s Spirit and Christ’s mind?

The Spirit of Christ in us will only pour out His resurrection life into us if we die:

‘Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ’

John 12:24-25 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.12.24-25>

Choice by choice, we must choose to die to ourselves and live to Christ. This is the only way to be transformed by the renewal of our minds (Romans 12:2).

In times of trial, aided by the power of Christ in us, we must prove that we have chosen to follow the narrow way of Christ (Matthew 7:13-14), responding the way faith would respond.

Every choice we make that says “yes” to Jesus Christ makes us more and more like Jesus Christ. It conforms our mind to the mind of the Spirit.

This is what God made us for, “to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers” (Romans 8:29).

This is what God has given to us through His indwelling Spirit: “a sound mind” (2 Timothy 1:7).

I contend that this soundness is single-mindedness in the mind of the Spirit, the mind of Christ, that becomes ours at salvation when we become joined as one spirit to the Spirit of God.

This mind knows it is connected directly to God, having been made right with Him. Connected directly to God, we have the peace Jesus Christ gave to us (John 14:27) and are eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:1-6). We have the joy of the Holy Spirit (Romans 14:17). We know God's will for the situation at hand (Romans 12:2), and we seek God's glory in the situation. God's word dwells in us richly (Colossians 3:16). God's love is shed abroad in us (Romans 5:5) in such a way that we act, having become zealous to do good (Titus 2:14) and to overcome evil with good (Romans 12:21). We are bold to speak out of faith (Mark 11:22-24, 2 Corinthians 4:13) and to step out in faith as co-workers with God (Mark 16:20), expecting God to do His part.

Let's believe the words of God to us without hesitation or doubt. You are directly connected to that mind, church!

Prayer. I praise You, Lord God, for all of Your victories, including those You have already accomplished in and through me. Thank You, God, for who You have made me in Christ Jesus. Thank You, Spirit of God, for Your own mind that I have in Christ. Thank You for my calling and our partnership. I meditate on Your Word, Your ideas, and the facts of Your redemption. I align myself with the goals, objectives, priorities, plans and agenda given in Your Word and Your love plan for Your beloved people, God. I harmonize my attitude with Your own, Lord God. I appropriate Your faith, Jesus, and Your hope. I attune my emotions with Yours, Holy Spirit, for action in Your will. I absorb Your rich mercy, Your compassion, and Your generous love. I adapt my perception of people today to what redemption has made possible for each individual I will encounter. Spirit of God, eliminate in my thoughts anything that would cause prejudice, exclusion or marginalization. I think now on ways to continue today what You began during Your earthly ministry, Jesus Christ. Prepare me for or show me now what good You have for me to do today. I see You at work in me, Holy Spirit, making my gospel witness effective. Direct my prayers for the needs of other believers and ministers. Direct me, Spirit of God, in how you desire to benefit those I encounter today.

Chapter 3: Directly connected to the living body of Jesus Christ in the world

'for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.'

Ephesians 5:30 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.30>

Jesus Christ has no body in the world to accomplish His work but us, church! We are Jesus Christ's new body!!

What Jesus said to His first disciples is true:

'Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. '

John 16:7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.16.7>

God has chosen to work through His new body (us!) with the Spirit of God as our Helper, or Paraclete (John 14:26). The Greek word paraklētos suggests that the Spirit of Christ is called to our side to aid us as an advocate or legal assistant; an intercessor; a helper and enabler; a comforter.

While we have the mind of Christ and the help of the Holy Spirit, we are the ones that take action in cooperation with the other members of Christ's body to fulfill all of the functions of Jesus Christ in this world!

In this world, Jesus Christ thinks in us, hears through us, speaks through us, moves through our feet, works through our hands! God's kingdom is in us (Luke 17:21), so we bring His kingdom wherever we go.

We are His ambassadors, doing everything in His place (2 Corinthians 5:20). Jesus has left us His power of attorney through use of His name! We are the stewards of the gospel message, the only message that can bring reconciliation between God and mankind.

Christ's body right now is working in the world, still accomplishing the will of the Father. The body of Christ acts in cooperation with His mind. Will you join Him in His work?

We know what to do, even in the absence of specific communications from the Spirit. We are to go about doing good (Acts 10:38) and giving freely (Matthew 10:8), as Jesus Christ showed us. We are to do His Word together, church (Luke 6:46). I describe 20 things Jesus said to do at www.teams.church.

Being created into the body of Christ Jesus, we are God's workmanship, created for good works that God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them (Ephesians 2:10).

How should we see these good works? They are the people God has put in our lives; they are those we encounter from day to day. Will we do good to them? Will we be Jesus Christ to them? Will they see and experience Christ in us?

Christ's body in the world continues to put evil under its feet, overcoming evil with good. Jesus Christ came to destroy the works of the devil (1 John 3:8). It often begins with planting seeds by sharing the good news of the gospel. Some of these seeds will take root and become imperishable seeds (1 Peter 1:23) that give birth to children of God, expanding God's family while stealing from the devil. Some of us will plant and some of us will water; God gives the growth (1 Corinthians 3:7).

Jesus Christ was the light of the world while He was here in person (John 9:5), and now He has made us—with Christ in us—the light of the world (Matthew 5:14-16). Our work collectively is to let our light shine as we move through the darkness in the world. We are as a lampstand, church (Zechariah 4). With the Spirit of Christ continually providing our fuel, let's burn brightly!

As the body of Christ, the Spirit of Jesus Christ in us also gives us God's power to overcome the effects of evil in people's lives. Together we have gifts of revelation, power, and inspiration that allow us to minister to others as Jesus Christ did in His earthly ministry (1 Corinthians 12:4-11, 28-31; Hebrews 2:4, 13:8), and to do even greater works (John 14:12). Now Christ does it through us, with us as His co-workers (Mark 16:20, 1 Corinthians 3:9, 2 Corinthians 6:1). Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world (1 John 4:4)!

In our body, the love of God is the glue that binds the members together (Colossians 3:14)! Let's put on the agapē love that the Spirit of God sheds abroad in our heart. We are called by the Spirit to “...humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.”

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.2-6>

This means we are not to quarrel over opinions (Romans 14:1), but instead to focus on the essentials of the faith – exalting Jesus Christ as He has been revealed in the scripture and doing His word together. When it comes to other things, for the sake of the unity of God's beloved church, “each one should be fully convinced in his own mind” (Romans 14:5). This is the freedom that the mind of Christ allows! This is the only way to peace in the Holy Spirit, “so then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding” (Romans 14:17,19).

Let's not sit around on our hands, church, allowing time for disagreements to arise among us, but instead, as shoes for our feet, let's “put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace”

(Ephesians 6:15). We are in this world as ones who are sent! Let's keep going. The Lord Jesus Christ abiding continually in us is our ever present strength and our continual Sabbath rest.

Let's believe the words of God to us. You are directly connected to the living body of Jesus Christ in the world, church!

Prayer. Thank You, Father God, for making me an agent of Your grace and Your compassion. May my heart beat in rhythm with Yours, Father. Spirit of God, see with my eyes, speak with my lips, hear with my ears, touch with my hands, embrace with my arms, walk with my feet. Thank You for making me a co-worker with You, an associate in reaching people with Your good news. With Your words, Spirit, may I boldly witness to Your good news joyously with faith, hope and love, transmitting the person of Jesus Christ to those for whom He died. Thank You for trusting me as Your interpreter. Spirit, help me to represent and to interpret Your fullness. I am a doer of Your Word. Let Your dreams be actualized in my life. May Your goals, objectives, plans, priorities and agenda be fulfilled through me today. Spirit of God, I pray that Your love, life, and power would flow through me in my ministry to the wounds of hurting people around me. In me, You fight the good fight of faith. As a witness, You always cause me to triumph. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for fighting my battles and winning the spiritual war on my behalf; it is already finished. In You, Jesus, I am more than a conqueror. In me and through me, You spoil principalities, powers, and spiritual wickedness in high places, making a show of them openly, triumphing over them. I will walk today as You have walked, Jesus, act as You act, and talk as You talk. Be glorified in every situation I encounter today, Father. Let every situation today line up with Your will.

Scripture study section

This section of the book is for those who would like to study the scripture references for any or all of the days. I chose from two of the most accurate English translations of the New Testament, the King James Version (KJV, 1611) and English Standard Version (ESV, 2016), reproducing scripture according to the oldest and according to one modern translation 405 years later.

For further study, this section also contains selected Hebrew and Greek words for lookup. These words are referenced according to the numbers for Strong's Concordance, allowing lookup for how the words are elsewhere used in the Bible. For Hebrew words, a useful reference to help understanding is the Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon (1906). For Greek words, a useful reference to aid understanding is Joseph Henry Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament (1886). Some Bible apps now have these references embedded, such as the Blue Letter Bible and the Bible KJV Strong's Concordance (Karios). Of these options, I prefer to use the latter, although the former is a more complete reference.

Moreover, I've included a list of questions that could be used either for personal or group devotional or discipleship studies, as well as a short definition of each word that I wrote based on the references cited above.

Chapter 1: Directly connected to the Spirit of Christ (scripture study)

Questions:

- 1) How do you see yourself? Your life? How has this changed for you over time?
- 2) How does one join themselves to the Lord?
- 3) How does scripture describe what happens to someone spiritually when God saves them?
- 4) According to scripture, how does our direct connection to the Holy Spirit affect us?
- 5) How does our daily perception of our connection to God's Spirit affect us?
- 6) How should we seek to honor the Holy Spirit that dwells continually with us?

'But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.'

1 Corinthians 6:17 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.6.17>

"But he that is joined (kollaō, G2853) unto the Lord (kurios, G2962) is one spirit."

1 Corinthians 6:17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.6.17.KJV>

With eyes of faith, the Spirit of God asks us to accept that we've been directly connected with the Spirit. Scripture calls the Spirit that God sent to us as "the Spirit of Jesus Christ" (Philippians 1:19).

"What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice, for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

Philippians 1:18-21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/php.1.18-21.ESV>

"What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ (Christos, G5547) is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547), according to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness (parrhēsia, G3954), as always, so now also Christ (Christos, G5547) shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life (zōē, G2222), or by death. For to me to live (zaō, G2198) is Christ (Christos, G5547), and to die is gain."

Philippians 1:18-21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/php.1.18-21.KJV>

Perhaps the most central teaching of the writings of the Apostle Paul in scripture is that Christ is in us! In Colossians 1:25-28, Paul refers to "Christ in you" (italics mine) as the "mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to the saints."

“of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.”
Colossians 1:25-29 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.1.25-29.ESV>

“whereof I am made a minister (diakonos, G1249), according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil (plēroō, G4137) the word of God; even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints (hagios, G40): to whom God would make known what is the riches (ploutos, G4149) of the glory (doxa, G1391) of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ (Christos, G5547) in you, the hope of glory (doxa, G1391): whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect (teleios, G5046) in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424): whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working (energeia, G1753), which worketh (energeō, G1754) in me mightily (dunamis, G1411).”

Colossians 1:25-29 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.1.25-29.KJV>

Just as Jesus of Nazareth was anointed with the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38)

“how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

Acts 10:38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.10.38.ESV>

“how God anointed (chriō, G5548) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) of Nazareth with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost and with power (dunamis, G1411): who went about doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed (katadunasteuō, G2616) of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for God was with him.”

Acts 10:38 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.10.38.KJV>

before starting His ministry, scripture teaches that we as Christ followers are anointed with the same Spirit:

“And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.1.21-22.ESV>

“Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ (Christos, G5547), and hath anointed (chriō, G5548) us, is God; who hath also sealed (sphragizō, G4972) us, and given the earnest (arrhabōn, G728) of the Spirit in our hearts (kardia, G2588).”

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.1.21-22.KJV>

“But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him.”

1 John 2:27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.2.27.ESV>

“But the anointing (chrisma, G5545) which ye have received (lambanō, G2983) of him abideth (menō, G3306) in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing (chrisma, G5545) teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide (menō, G3306) in him.”

1 John 2:27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.2.27.KJV>

What does the Spirit connect us to? Jesus Christ, seated at the right hand of God.

We are seated in Him, according to the Spirit:

“But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus... For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.”

Ephesians 2:4-7, 10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.4-10.ESV>

“But God, who is rich in mercy (eleos, G1656), for his great love (agapē, G26) wherewith he loved (agapaō, G25) us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with (suzōopoieō, G4806) Christ (Christos, G5547), (by grace (charis, G5485) ye are saved (sōzō, G4982);) and hath raised us up together (sunegeirō, G4891), and made us sit together (sugkathizō, G4776) in heavenly places in Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (lēsous, G2424): that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches (ploutos, G4149) of his grace (charis, G5485) in his kindness (chrēstotēs, G5544) toward us through Christ (Christos, G5547) Jesus (lēsous, G2424)... For we are his workmanship (poiēma, G4161), created in (Christos, G5547) Jesus (lēsous, G2424) unto good (agathos, G18) works (ergon, G2041), which God hath before ordained that we should walk (peripateō, G4043) in them.”

Ephesians 2:4-7, 10 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.2.4-10.KJV>

Because of the Spirit of Jesus Christ in you, you can be in more than one place as the Spirit is. You are also seated in heaven together with Jesus Christ right now:

“If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God... For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.”

Colossians 3:1, 3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.1-3.ESV>

“If ye then be risen with (sunegeirō, G4891) Christ (Christos, G5547), seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God... For ye are dead, and your life (zōē, G2222) is hid (kruptō, G2928) with Christ (Christos, G5547) in God”

Colossians 3:1, 3 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.3.1-3.KJV>

What do we (collectively as the church) have because we are joined to Jesus Christ through the Spirit in us? Everything Christ has:

“The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ...

Romans 8:16-17a ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.16-17.ESV>

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs (sugklēronomos, G4789) with Christ (Christos, G5547)....”

Romans 8:16-17a KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.8.16-17.KJV>

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places,”

Ephesians 1:3 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.1.3.ESV>

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547), who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ (Christos, G5547):”

Ephesians 1:3 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.1.3.KJV>

“May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2pe.1.2-4.ESV>

“Grace (charis, G5485) and peace (eirēnē, G1515) be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) our Lord (kurios, G2962), according as his divine power (dunamis, G1411) hath given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us all things that pertain unto life (zōē, G2222) and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory (doxa, G1391) and virtue: whereby are given (dōreomai, G1433) unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers (koinōnos, G2844) of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world (kosmos, G2889) through lust.”

2 Peter 1:2-4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2pe.1.2-4.KJV>

We spiritually have all that Christ has. We are even partakers of God’s own divine nature! Those characteristics the Spirit gives us are described in my book Identity in Christ: Characteristics of Christ in You.

How do we receive things from God that we have already been given spiritually? The scripture is clear that we take them as ours by faith, just as we have taken salvation in Christ as a free gift of God, along with Christ’s gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

“But the righteousness based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” ...But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?” So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.10.6-17.ESV>

“But the righteousness (dikaïosunē, G1343) which is of faith (pistis, G4102) speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart (kardia, G2588), Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ (Christos, (Christos, G5547) down from above:) or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ (Christos, G5547) again from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith (pistis, G4102), which we preach (kēlussō, G2784); that if thou shalt confess (homologeō, G3670) with thy mouth the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424), and shalt believe in thine heart (kardia, G2588) that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (sōzō, G4982). For with the heart (kardia, G2588) man believeth unto righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343); and with the mouth confession (homologeō, G3670) is made unto salvation (sōtēria, G4991). For (plouteō, G4147) the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord (kurios, G2962) over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name (onoma, G3686) of the Lord (kurios, G2962) shall be saved (sōzō, G4982)... But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord (kurios, G2962), who hath believed our report (akoē, G189)? So then faith (pistis, G4102) cometh by hearing (akoē, G189), and hearing (akoē, G189) by the word of God.”

Romans 10:6-13, 16-17 KJV

Let’s believe the words of God to us. You are directly connected to God’s Spirit right now, church!

Prayer.* Thank You, God, for delivering me from the power of darkness, translating me into Your kingdom through Your dear Son. Thank You for directly connecting me as a child of God to Your Holy Spirit, made one with You and cleansed of all unrighteousness through faith in Jesus Christ, my Lord. Baptized in You, Holy Spirit, I rejoice in the presence and power of Christ alive in me. I worship You, God, for all that You are, including Your greatness, Your benevolent love, and the riches of Your grace. Thank You, God, for redemption, abundant blessing, and the gift of Your own Spirit. I drink now from Your presence, Spirit of God. I am transfused by Your resurrection life. Spirit of God, I internalize Your power, energized by You for Your ministry. I absorb Your compassion, coming to resonate with Your heartbeat for Your beloved people. Let Your fullness materialize in my life, God. Let Your dreams be engendered in my spirit. Attune my spirit with You, indwelling Spirit of God, for action in Your will. I thank You for your anointing to publicize Your gospel, persuading people to embrace Your good news and be saved so that You may freely pour out Your life, freedom, goodness, blessing to them as Your children. I honor You, Holy Spirit. You have made me complete, Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2: Directly connected to the mind of Christ (scripture study)

Questions:

- 1) How does scripture describe the mind of Christ?
- 2) What does it mean to be double-minded?
- 3) What are the effects of double-mindedness in a person? In the church?
- 4) By what process are our minds renewed to the word of God?
- 5) How are our lives different when our minds are renewed to the word of God?

“For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.’

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/1CO.2.16>

“But, as it is written, “What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him”— these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For who knows a person’s thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. “For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.”

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.2.9-16.ESV>

“But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, Neither have entered into the heart (kardia, G2588) of man, The things which God hath prepared for them that love (agapaō, G25) him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received (lambanō, G2983), not the spirit of the world (kosmos, G2889), but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given (charizomai, G5483) to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind (nous, G3563) of the Lord (kurios, G2962), that he may instruct (sumbibazō, G4822) him? But we have (echō, G2192) the mind (nous, G3563) of Christ (Christos, G5547).”

1 Corinthians 2:9-16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.2.9-16.KJV>

With eyes of faith, the Spirit of God asks us to accept that we have the mind of Christ.
The Spirit of God connects us to this mind since we are in Christ!

Yet, at new birth we also have our own natural minds, and we tend to want to use them!
Made in the image of God and given free will, God chooses not to go against our wills!

And so at new birth, we are double-minded (James 1:5-8, 4:8).

“If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.”

James 1:5-8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.1.5-8.ESV>

“If any of you lack wisdom (sophia, G4678), let him ask (aiteō, G154) of God, that giveth to all men liberally (haplōs, G574), and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask (aiteō, G154) in faith (pistis, G4102), nothing wavering (diakrinō, G1252). For he that wavereth (diakrinō, G1252) is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed (rhipizō, G4494). For let not that man think that he shall receive (lambanō, G2983) any thing of the Lord (kurios, G2962). A double minded (dipsuchos, G1374) man is unstable (akatastatos, G182) in all his ways (hodos, G3598)”

James 1:5-8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jas.1.5-8.KJV>

“Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.”

James 4:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jas.4.8.ESV>

“Draw nigh (eggizō, G1448) to God, and he will draw nigh (eggizō, G1448) to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts (kardia, G2588), ye double minded (dipsuchos, G1374).”

James 4:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jas.4.8.KJV>

We must choose to put on the mind that we were given at new birth, meanwhile putting off the old, natural one. By doing so, we clothe ourselves in God’s Spirit!

This leads us to be single-minded in the mind of Christ!

About this, Jesus taught,

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!”

Matthew 6:21-23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.6.21-23.ESV>

“for where your treasure is, there will your heart (kardia, G2588) be also. The light of the body is the eye (ophthalmos, G3788): if therefore thine eye (ophthalmos, G3788) be single (haplous, G573), thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye (ophthalmos, G3788) be evil (ponēros, G4190), thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light (phōs, G5457) that is in thee be darkness (skotos, G4655), how great is that darkness (skotos, G4655)!”

Matthew 6:21-23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.6.21-23.KJV>

The heart is the soul, associated with our mind, will and emotions. The eye is specifically associated with the mind, the faculty of knowing. The word single is the Greek word haplous, which also means simple, whole, sound, or good at fulfilling its office. It refers to single-mindedness and a freedom from self-seeking.

In between working completely out of our own natural minds, as we do before we become Christ followers (when we are full of darkness), and from the mind of Christ, or of the Spirit (where we are full of light), we are double-minded. We are partly filled with light and with darkness.

I contend that double-mindedness is completely responsible for the problems in the world to which born again believers contribute. Further, is completely responsible for the problems in the church. Moreover, among Christians, it perpetuates or leads to anything associated with the darkness of sin: any bondage, discontentment, anxiety, divisiveness, et cetera.

We are to treasure the Spirit of God that was given to us at our new birth, along with our new mind!

We are “to put off [our] old self, which belongs to [our] former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of [our] minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.”

Ephesians 4:22-24 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.22-24>

“that ye put off (apotithēmi, G659) concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind (nous, G3563);

and that ye put on (enduō, G1746) the new man, which after God is created in righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) and true holiness.”

Ephesians 4:22-24 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.4.22-24.KJV>

We are to renew our minds to the word of God, God's perfect blueprint of the way things are and the way they are to be. In so doing, we “put on the Lord Jesus Christ” (Romans 13:14).

“But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.”

Romans 13:14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.13.14.ESV>

“But put ye on (enduō, G1746) the Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547), and make (poieō, G4160) not provision for the flesh (sarx, G4561), to fulfil the lusts thereof.”

Romans 13:14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.13.14.KJV>

In Christ, we have “become the righteousness of God” (2 Corinthians 5:21).

“For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.”

2 Corinthians 5:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.5.21.ESV>

“For he hath made (poieō, G4160) him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made (ginomai, G1096) the righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343) of God in him.”

2 Corinthians 5:21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.5.21.KJV>

As we see in Christ's life, righteousness is a lifestyle that leads to victory in every situation (1 John 5:4).

“For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.”

1 John 5:4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.5.4.ESV>

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world: and this is the victory (nikē, G3529) that overcometh (nikaō, G3528) the world (kosmos, G2889), even our faith (pistis, G4102).”

1 John 5:4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.5.4.KJV>

Jesus Christ demonstrated how to turn all situations into glory to God.

Jesus Christ never sinned. In Christ, we can stop sinning. Jesus Christ never lost a battle to Satan or his kingdom; in our Lord Jesus Christ, we can also have such victory (1 Corinthians 15:57, 2 Corinthians 2:14). That is a treasure!

“But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

1 Corinthians 15:57 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.15.57.ESV>

“But thanks (charis, G5485) be to God, which giveth us the victory (nikos, G3534) through our Lord (kurios, G2962) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) Christ (Christos, G5547).”

1 Corinthians 15:57 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.15.57.KJV>

“But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere.”

2 Corinthians 2:14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.2.14.ESV>

“Now thanks (charis, G5485) be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph (thriambeuō, G2358) in Christ (Christos, G5547), and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.”

2 Corinthians 2:14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.2.14.KJV>

Is it worth dying to your old self to take on Christ’s Spirit and Christ’s mind?

The Spirit of Christ in us will only pour out His resurrection life into us if we die:

‘Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ’

John 12:24-25 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.12.24-25>

“Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die (apothnēskō, G599), it abideth (menō, G3306) alone: but if it die (apothnēskō, G599), it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life (psuchē, G5590) shall lose (apollumi, G622) it; and he that hateth his life in this world (kosmos, G2889) shall keep it unto life (zōē, G2222) eternal.”

John 12:24-25 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.12.24-25.KJV>

Choice by choice, we must choose to die to ourselves and live to Christ. This is the only way to be transformed by the renewal of our minds (Romans 12:2).

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Romans 12:2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.2.ESV>

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind (nous, G3563), that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable, and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God.”

Romans 12:2 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.12.2.KJV>

In times of trial, aided by the power of Christ in us, we must prove that we have chosen to follow the narrow way of Christ (Matthew 7:13-14), responding the way faith would respond.

““Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.”

Matthew 7:13-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.7.13-14.ESV>

“Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way (hodos, G3598), that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: because strait is the gate, and narrow (thlibō, G2346) is the way (hodos, G3598), which leadeth unto life (zōē, G2222), and few there be that find it.”

Matthew 7:13-14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.7.13-14.KJV>

Every choice we make that says “yes” to Jesus Christ makes us more and more like Jesus Christ. It conforms our mind to the mind of the Spirit.

This is what God made us for, “to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers” (Romans 8:29).

“For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.”

Romans 8:29 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.8.29.ESV>

“For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.”

Romans 8:29 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.8.29.KJV>

This is what God has given to us through His indwelling Spirit: “a sound mind” (2 Timothy 1:7).

“For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.”

2 Timothy 1:6-7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2ti.1.6-7.ESV>

“Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up (anazōpureō, G329) the gift (charisma, G5486) of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands (cheir, G5495). For God hath not given us the spirit of fear (deilia, G1167); but of power (dunamis, G1411), and of love (agapē, G26), and of a sound mind (sōphronismos, G4995).”

2 Timothy 1:6-7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2ti.1.6-7.KJV>

I contend that this soundness is single-mindedness in the mind of the Spirit, the mind of Christ, that becomes ours at salvation when we become joined as one spirit to the Spirit of God.

This mind knows it is connected directly to God, having been made right with Him. Connected directly to God, we have the peace Jesus Christ gave to us (John 14:27) and are eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:1-6).

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.”

John 14:27 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.14.27.ESV>

“Peace (eirēnē, G1515) I leave with you, my peace (eirēnē, G1515) I give unto you: not as the world (kosmos, G2889) giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart (kardia, G2588) be troubled (tarassō, G5015), neither let it be afraid (deiliaō, G1168).”

John 14:27 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.14.27.KJV>

“I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.”

Ephesians 4:1-6 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.4.1-6.ESV>

“I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord (kurios, G2962), beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you that ye walk (peripateō, G4043) worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness (praotēs, G4236), with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing one another in love (agapē, G26); endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord (kurios, G2962), one faith (pistis, G4102), one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.”

Ephesians 4:1-6 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.4.1-6.KJV>

We have the joy of the Holy Spirit (Romans 14:17).

“For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.”

Romans 14:17 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.17.ESV>

“for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness (dikaiosunē, G1343), and peace (eirēnē, G1515), and joy in the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost.”

Romans 14:17 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.14.17.KJV>

We know God’s will for the situation at hand (Romans 12:2), and we seek God’s glory in the situation.

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Romans 12:2 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.12.2.ESV>

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove (dokimazō, G1381) what is that good (agathos, G18), and acceptable, and perfect (teleios, G5046), will (thelēma, G2307) of God”

Romans 12:2 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.12.2.KJV>

God’s word dwells in us richly (Colossians 3:16).

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.”

Colossians 3:16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.16.ESV>

“Let the word of Christ (Christos, G5547) dwell (enoikeō, G1774) in you richly in all wisdom (sophia, G4678); teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace (charis, G5485) in your hearts (kardia, G2588) to the Lord (kurios, G2962).”

Colossians 3:16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.3.16.KJV>

God’s love is shed abroad in us (Romans 5:5) in such a way that we act, having become zealous to do good (Titus 2:14) and to overcome evil with good (Romans 12:21).

“and hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.”

Romans 5:5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.5.5.ESV>

“and hope maketh not ashamed; because the love (agapē, G26) of God is shed abroad (ekcheō, G1632) in our hearts (kardia, G2588) by the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost which is given unto us.”

Romans 5:5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.5.5.KJV>

We are bold to speak out of faith (Mark 11:22-24, 2 Corinthians 4:13) and to step out in faith as co-workers with God (Mark 16:20), expecting God to do His part.

“And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

Mark 11:22-24 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.11.22-24.ESV>

“And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have (echō, G2192) faith (pistis, G4102) in God. For verily (amēn, G281) I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt (diakrinō, G1252) in his heart (kardia, G2588), but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass (ginomai, G1096); he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire (aiteō, G154), when ye pray, believe (pisteuō, G4100) that ye receive (lambanō, G2983) them, and ye shall have them.”

Mark 11:22-24 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.11.22-24.KJV>

“Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, “I believed, and so I spoke,” we also believe, and so we also speak,”

2 Corinthians 4:13 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.4.13.ESV>

“We having (echō, G2192) the same spirit of faith (pistis, G4102), according as it is written, I believed (pisteuō, G4100), and therefore have I spoken; we also believe (pisteuō, G4100), and therefore speak;”

2 Corinthians 4:13 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.4.13.KJV>

“And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]”

Mark 16:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.16.20.ESV>

“And they went forth, and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord (kurios, G2962) working (sunergeō, G4903) with them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word (logos, G3056) with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (epakoloutheō, G1872). Amen (amēn, G281).”

Mark 16:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.16.20.KJV>

Let's believe the words of God to us without hesitation or doubt. You are directly connected to that mind, church!

Prayer. I praise You, Lord God, for all of Your victories, including those You have already accomplished in and through me. Thank You, God, for who You have made me in Christ Jesus. Thank You, Spirit of God, for Your own mind that I have in Christ. Thank You for my calling and our partnership. I meditate on Your Word, Your ideas, and the facts of Your redemption. I align myself with the goals, objectives, priorities, plans and agenda given in Your Word and Your love plan for Your beloved people, God. I harmonize my attitude with Your own, Lord God. I appropriate Your faith, Jesus, and Your hope. I attune my emotions with Yours, Holy Spirit, for action in Your will. I absorb Your rich mercy, Your compassion, and Your generous love. I adapt my perception of people today to what redemption has made possible for each individual I will encounter. Spirit of God, eliminate in my thoughts anything that would cause prejudice, exclusion or marginalization. I think now on ways to continue today what You began during Your earthly ministry, Jesus Christ. Prepare me for or show me now what good You have for me to do today. I see You at work in me, Holy Spirit, making my gospel witness effective. Direct my prayers for the needs of other believers and ministers. Direct me, Spirit of God, in how you desire to benefit those I encounter today.

Chapter 3: Directly connected to the body of Jesus Christ in the world (scripture study)

Questions:

- 1) How does scripture describe our connection to Jesus Christ's body?
- 2) How does God accomplish the work He wants to do in the world? How does this compare to the way God accomplished His work during Jesus' ministry?
- 3) What does Jesus choose to do through us as His church?
- 4) God has given us His word as our daily marching orders. If we aren't faithful to do this, should we expect the Spirit of God to speak to us directly with more specific instructions?
- 5) How does divisiveness within Christ's body affect its ability to function in the world as God intended?
- 6) How can the indwelling Spirit of God bring unity to Christ's body through you?
- 7) How is God calling you to function as an active part of Jesus Christ's body?
- 8) As a member of Christ's body, how may you better sync with the mind of Christ that is in you?
- 9) As a member of Christ's body, how may you better align yourself with the function of the rest of His body?

"because we are members of his body."

Ephesians 5:30 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.5.30.ESV>

'for we are members of his body, of his flesh (sarx, G4561), and of his bones.'

Ephesians 5:30 KJV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/1/EPH.5.30>

Jesus Christ has no body in the world to accomplish His work but us, church! We are Jesus Christ's new body!!

What Jesus said to His first disciples is true:

'Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. '

John 16:7 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/JHN.16.7>

"Nevertheless I tell you the truth (alētheia, G225); It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter (paraklētos, G3875) will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you."

John 16:7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.16.7.KJV>

God has chosen to work through His new body (us!) with the Spirit of God as our Helper, or Paraclete (John 14:26).

“But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.”

John 14:26 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.14.26.ESV>

“But the Comforter (paraklētos, G3875), which is the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name (onoma, G3686), he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.”

John 14:26 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.14.26.KJV>

The Greek word paraklētos suggests that the Spirit of Christ is called to our side to aid us as an advocate or legal assistant; an intercessor; a helper and enabler; a comforter.

While we have the mind of Christ and the help of the Holy Spirit, we are the ones that take action in cooperation with the other members of Christ's body to fulfill all of the functions of Jesus Christ in this world!

In this world, Jesus Christ thinks in us, hears through us, speaks through us, moves through our feet, works through our hands! God's kingdom is in us (Luke 17:21), so we bring His kingdom wherever we go.

“nor will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There!’ for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you.”

Luke 17:21 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.17.21.ESV>

“neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is within (entos, G1787) you.”

Luke 17:21 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.17.21.KJV>

We are His ambassadors, doing everything in His place (2 Corinthians 5:20).

“Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.”

2 Corinthians 5:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.5.20.ESV>

“Now then we are ambassadors (presbeuō, G4243) for Christ (Christos, G5547), as though God did beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled (katallassō, G2644) to God.”

2 Corinthians 5:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.5.20.KJV>

Jesus has left us His power of attorney through use of His name! We are the stewards of the gospel message, the only message that can bring reconciliation between God and mankind.

Christ's body right now is working in the world, still accomplishing the will of the Father. The body of Christ acts in cooperation with His mind. Will you join Him in His work?

We know what to do, even in the absence of specific communications from the Spirit. We are to go about doing good (Acts 10:38) and giving freely (Matthew 10:8), as Jesus Christ showed us.

“how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

Acts 10:38 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/act.10.38.ESV>

“how God anointed (chriō, G5548) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) of Nazareth with the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost and with power (dunamis, G1411): who went about doing good (euergeteō, G2109), and healing (iaomai, G2390) all that were oppressed (katadunastēuō, G2616) of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for God was with him.”

Acts 10:38 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/act.10.38.KJV>

“Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.”

Matthew 10:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.10.8.ESV>

“Heal (therapeuō, G2323) the sick (astheneō, G770), cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely (dōrean, G1432) ye have received (lambanō, G2983), freely (dōrean, G1432) give.”

Matthew 10:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.10.8.KJV>

We are to do His Word together, church (Luke 6:46).

““Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you?”

Luke 6:46 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/luk.6.46.ESV>

“And why call ye me, Lord (kurios, G2962), Lord, and do (poieō, G4160) not the things which I say?”

Luke 6:46 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/luk.6.46.KJV>

I describe 20 things Jesus said to do at www.teams.church.

Being created into the body of Christ Jesus, we are God's workmanship, created for good works that God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them (Ephesians 2:10).

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

Ephesians 2:10 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/eph.2.10.ESV>

"For we are his workmanship (poiēma, G4161), created in (Christos, G5547) Jesus (Iēsous, G2424) unto good (agathos, G18) works (ergon, G2041), which God hath before ordained that we should walk (peripateō, G4043) in them."

Ephesians 2:10 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.2.10.KJV>

How should we see these good works? They are the people God has put in our lives; they are those we encounter from day to day. Will we do good to them? Will we be Jesus Christ to them? Will they see and experience Christ in us?

Christ's body in the world continues to put evil under its feet, overcoming evil with good. Jesus Christ came to destroy the works of the devil (1 John 3:8).

"Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil."

1 John 3:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.3.8.ESV>

"He that committeth (poieō, G4160) sin is of the devil (diabolos, G1228); for the devil (diabolos, G1228) sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy (luō, G3089) the works (ergon, G2041) of the devil (diabolos, G1228)."

1 John 3:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.3.8.KJV>

It often begins with planting seeds by sharing the good news of the gospel. Some of these seeds will take root and become imperishable seeds (1 Peter 1:23) that give birth to children of God, expanding God's family while stealing from the devil.

"since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God;"

1 Peter 1:23 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1pe.1.23.ESV>

“being born again (anagennaō, G313), not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word (logos, G3056) of God, which liveth (zaō, G2198) and abideth (menō, G3306) for ever.”

1 Peter 1:23 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1pe.1.23.KJV>

Some of us will plant and some of us will water; God gives the growth (1 Corinthians 3:7).

“So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.”

1 Corinthians 3:7 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.3.7.ESV>

“So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.”

1 Corinthians 3:7 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.3.7.KJV>

Jesus Christ was the light of the world while He was here in person (John 9:5), and now He has made us—with Christ in us—the light of the world (Matthew 5:14-16).

“As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

John 9:5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.9.5.ESV>

“As long as I am in the world (kosmos, G2889), I am the light (phōs, G5457) of the world (kosmos, G2889).”

John 9:5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.9.5.KJV>

““You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.”

Matthew 5:14-16 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mat.5.14-16.ESV>

“Ye are the light (phōs, G5457) of the world (kosmos, G2889). A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid (kruptō, G2928). Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light (phōs, G5457) so shine before men, that they may see your good (kalos, G2570) works (ergon, G2041), and glorify (doxazō, G1392) your Father which is in heaven.”

Matthew 5:14-16 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mat.5.14-16.KJV>

Our work collectively is to let our light shine as we move through the darkness in the world. We are as a lampstand, church (Zechariah 4).

“And the angel who talked with me came again and woke me, like a man who is awakened out of his sleep. And he said to me, “What do you see?” I said, “I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it. And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.” And I said to the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my Lord?” Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” I said, “No, my Lord.” Then he said to me, “This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord of hosts. Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of ‘Grace, grace to it!’” ... Then I said to him, “What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?” And a second time I answered and said to him, “What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the golden oil is poured out?” He said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” I said, “No, my Lord.” Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.””

Zechariah 4:1-7, 11-14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/zec.4.1-14.ESV>

“And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, and said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: and two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my Lord? Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it... Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Zechariah 4:1-7, 11-14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/zec.4.1-14.KJV>

With the Spirit of Christ continually providing our fuel, let's burn brightly!

As the body of Christ, the Spirit of Jesus Christ in us also gives us God's power to overcome the effects of evil in people's lives. Together we have gifts of revelation, power, and inspiration that allow us to minister to others as Jesus Christ did in His earthly ministry (1 Corinthians 12:4-11,28-31; Hebrews 2:4,13:8), and to do even greater works (John 14:12).

"Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apports to each one individually as he wills... And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way."

"Now there are diversities of gifts (charisma, G5486), but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations (diakonia, G1248), but the same Lord (kurios, G2962). And there are diversities of operations (energēma, G1755), but it is the same God which worketh (energeō, G1754) all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word (logos, G3056) of wisdom (sophia, G4678); to another the word (logos, G3056) of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith (pistis, G4102) by the same Spirit; to another the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386) by the same Spirit; to another the working (energēma, G1755) of miracles (dunamis, G1411); to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh (energeō, G1754) that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will (boulomai, G1014)... And God hath set some in the church (ekklēsia, G1577), first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles (dunamis, G1411), then gifts (charisma, G5486) of healings (iama, G2386), helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles (dunamis, G1411)? Have all the gifts (charisma, G5486) of healing (iama, G2386)? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? But covet earnestly (zēloō, G2206) the best (kreittōn, G2909) gifts (charisma, G5486): and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way (hodos, G3598)."

1 Corinthians 12:4-11, 28-31 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.12.4-31.KJV>

“while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.”

Hebrews 2:4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.2.4.ESV>

“God also bearing them witness (sunepimarturēō, G4901), both with signs (sēmeion, G4592) and wonders (teras, G5069), and with divers miracles (dunamis, G1411), and gifts (merismos, G3311) of the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost, according to his own will?”

Hebrews 2:4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/heb.2.4.KJV>

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.”

Hebrews 13:8 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/heb.13.8.ESV>

“Jesus (Iēsous, G2524) Christ (Christos, G5547) the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.”

Hebrews 13:8 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/heb.13.8.KJV>

““Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father.”

John 14:12 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/jhn.14.12.ESV>

“Verily (amēn, G281), verily, I say unto you, He that believeth (pisteuō, G4100) on me, the works (ergon, G2041) that I do (poieō, G4160) shall he do (poieō, G4160) also; and greater works than these shall he do (poieō, G4160); because I go unto my Father.”

John 14:12 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/jhn.14.12.KJV>

Now Christ does it through us, with us as His co-workers (Mark 16:20, 1 Corinthians 3:9, 2 Corinthians 6:1).

“And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]”

Mark 16:20 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/mrk.16.20.ESV>

“And they went forth, and preached (kērussō, G2784) every where, the Lord (kurios, G2962) working (sunergeō, G4903) with them, and confirming (bebaioō, G950) the word (logos, G3056) with signs (sēmeion, G4592) following (epakoloutheō, G1872). Amen (amēn, G281).”

Mark 16:20 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/mrk.16.20.KJV>

“For we are God’s fellow workers. You are God’s field, God’s building.”

1 Corinthians 3:9 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1co.3.9.ESV>

“For we are labourers together (sunergos, G4904) with God: ye are God's husbandry (geōrgion, G1091), ye are God's building (oikodomē, G3619).”

1 Corinthians 3:9 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1co.3.9.KJV>

“Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain.”

2 Corinthians 6:1 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/2co.6.1.ESV>

“We then, as workers together (sunergeō, G4903) with him, beseech (parakaleō, G3870) you also that ye receive (dechomai, G1209) not the grace (charis, G5485) of God in vain.”

2 Corinthians 6:1 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/2co.6.1.KJV>

Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world (1 John 4:4)!

“Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.”

1 John 4:4 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/1jn.4.4.ESV>

“Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome (nikaō, G3528) them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world (kosmos, G2889)”

1 John 4:4 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/1jn.4.4.KJV>

In our body, the love of God is the glue that binds the members together (Colossians 3:14)!

“And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.”

Colossians 3:14 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/col.3.14.ESV>

“And above all these things put on charity (agapē, G26), which is the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of perfectness.”

Colossians 3:14 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/col.3.14.KJV>

Let’s put on the agapē love that the Spirit of God sheds abroad in our heart. We are called by the Spirit to

“...humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.”

Ephesians 4:2-6 ESV

<https://my.bible.com/bible/59/EPH.4.2-6>

“with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering (makrothumia, G3115), forbearing one another in love (agapē, G26); endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond (sundesmos, G4886) of peace (eirēnē, G1515). There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord (kurios, G2962), one faith (pistis, G4102), one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.”

Ephesians 4:2-6 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.4.2-6.KJV>

This means we are not to quarrel over opinions (Romans 14:1), but instead to focus on the essentials of the faith – exalting Jesus Christ as He has been revealed in the scripture and doing His word together.

“As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions.”

Romans 14:1 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.1.ESV>

“Him that is weak (astheneō, G770) in the faith (pistis, G4102) receive (proslambanō, G4355) ye, but not to doubtful disputations.”

Romans 14:1 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.14.1.KJV>

When it comes to other things, for the sake of the unity of God’s beloved church, “each one should be fully convinced in his own mind” (Romans 14:5).

“One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.”

Romans 14:5 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.5.ESV>

“One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind (nous, G3563).”

Romans 14:5 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.14.5.KJV>

This is the freedom that the mind of Christ allows! This is the only way to peace in the Holy Spirit, “so then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding” (Romans 14:17,19).

“For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit... So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.”

Romans 14:17, 19 ESV

<https://bible.com/bible/59/rom.14.17-19.ESV>

“for the kingdom (basileia, G932) of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness (dikaioσunē, G1343), and peace (eirēnē, G1515), and joy in the Holy (hagios, G40) Ghost... Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace (eirēnē, G1515), and things wherewith one may edify (oikodomē, G3619) another.”

Romans 14:17, 19 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/rom.14.17-19.KJV>

Let’s not sit around on our hands, church, allowing time for disagreements to arise among us, but instead, as shoes for our feet, let’s “put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace” (Ephesians 6:15).

“and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace (eirēnē, G1525);”

Ephesians 6:15 KJV

<https://bible.com/bible/1/eph.6.15.KJV>

We are in this world as ones who are sent! Let’s keep going. The Lord Jesus Christ abiding continually in us is our ever present strength and our continual Sabbath rest.

Let’s believe the words of God to us. You are directly connected to the living body of Jesus Christ in the world, church!

Prayer.* Thank You, Father God, for making me an agent of Your grace and Your compassion. May my heart beat in rhythm with Yours, Father. Spirit of God, see with my eyes, speak with my lips, hear with my ears, touch with my hands, embrace with my arms, walk with my feet. Thank You for making me a co-worker with You, an associate in reaching people with Your good news. With Your words, Spirit, may I boldly witness to Your good news joyously with faith, hope and love, transmitting the person of Jesus Christ to those for whom He died. Thank You for trusting me as Your interpreter. Spirit, help me to represent and to interpret Your fullness. I am a doer of Your Word. Let Your dreams be actualized in my life. May Your goals, objectives, plans, priorities and agenda be fulfilled through me today. Spirit of God, I pray that Your love, life, and power would flow through me in my ministry to the wounds of hurting people around me. In me, You fight the good fight of faith. As a witness, You always cause me to triumph. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for fighting my battles and winning the spiritual war on my behalf; it is already finished. In You, Jesus, I am more than a conqueror. In me and through me, You spoil principalities, powers, and spiritual wickedness in high places, making a show of them openly, triumphing over them. I will walk today as You have walked, Jesus, act as You act, and talk as You talk. Be glorified in every situation I encounter today, Father. Let every situation today line up with Your will.
